SETTING THE SCENE

* Bowling Green, the defending Mid-American Conference champions, will host the Kent State Golden Flashes on Tuesday, Nov. 15. The contest is slated for a 7:00 p.m. kickoff and will be broadcast nationally on ESPNU.
* The Falcons have played Kent State more than any other team, and this will be the 84th game in the series. The two squads have met in 69 of the last 70 years, with 2004 serving as the only exception.
* Bowling Green leads the series with a 58-19-6 record and is 25-11-4 at home. The Falcons are 19-5 against KSU at Doyt Perry Stadium; that includes the second game ever played in the facility.
* Bowling Green currently has a three-game winning streak in the series. In 2013, Matt Johnson made his first career start, as the Falcons won 41-22 in Kent. The Falcons defeated Kent State 30-20 in 2014, when the pair last played in Bowling Green. Last season, the Falcon defense dominated for 60 minutes during a 48-0 shutout.
* The Falcons have found a lot of success during the "weeknight #MACtion" portion of their schedule in recent years. BGSU is now 9-3 on weeknights in the last five seasons, including 4-2 on Tuesdays.
* BGSU has won 28 of their last 41 games against MAC opponents, including two of the last three MAC championships.

ABOUT THE GOLDEN FLASHES

* Kent State is 3-7 overall and 2-4 in Mid-American Conference games thus far in 2016. However, both of those conference wins were on the road.
* Among Kent State's games are two against the five remaining undefeated FBS teams. They lost 48-0 at #1 Alabama on Sept. 24, then hung with #14 Western Michigan for three quarters before falling 37-21 last week.
* KSU has been very competitive in their MAC road games this season. They defeated Buffalo 44-20 and Central Michigan 27-24. Their only road league loss was 18-14 at Miami.
* The Golden Flashes thrive on low-scoring games due to struggles on offense. The team ranks 11th in the MAC in scoring (21.9/game) and last in total offense (306.5) and passing offense (125.2). On defense, the team is second in the MAC in total defense (356.8) and passing defense (192.6).
* Kent State's offensive attack is led by quarterback Nick Holley. Holley took over the position mid-season but has 916 rushing yards and ten touchdowns on 182 carries.

THE 2,000 YARD MAN

* Bowling Green senior running back Fred Coppet has quietly positioned himself to become one of the Falcons' most prolific career rushers.
* Coppet carried 16 times for 116 yards and two touchdowns at Akron. It is his fourth 100-yard game of the season and the eighth of his career. He also reached the century mark in 2016 against Middle Tennessee, Eastern Michigan and Toledo. He matches a single-game high for touchdowns. Earlier this season, he established a personal high for rushing yards (141).
* He now has 765 yards this season and needs just 60 to match his personal single-season record. Coppet will reach the 1,000-yard mark for the first time if he averages 117.5 in his final two games. He currently ranks sixth in the MAC in rushing yards.
* Coppet has 2,568 career rushing yards and has moved past Josh Harris and Fred Durig into fifth place on BGSU's all-time career rushing list.
* Coppet has five rushing touchdowns this season, including two against Eastern Michigan and one against Ohio. Those scores give him 16 for his career.
* Coppet caught six passes for 40 yards against Miami, establishing new personal single-game highs. Entering the game, he had five catches for 25 yards in the first seven games of 2016 combined. He now has 33 career receptions for 186 yards.

DAVIDSON AN ALL-AMERICAN?

* Punter Joseph Davidson ranks sixth nationally in yards per punt (45.7), and his punts have helped BGSU rank third in net punting average (43.19). The national leader is Utah (45.05).
* Davidson booted a career-best 82-yarder at Toledo, which is tied for the longest punt in the NCAA this year. His 59.7 yard per punt average against Ohio is the best in the country for a single game this year.
* In fact, Davidson has posted nine 60+-yard punts in 2016, including a 63-yard bomb at Akron. That leads all FBS punters; nobody else has more than five.
* Davidson's 82-yard punt at Toledo is now his career-long and is the second-longest punt in BGSU history.
* Davidson has boomed 18 of his 58 punts in 2016 for 50 or more yards, and 21 of them have pinned opponents inside their own 20. The latter includes five of nine punts at Akron.
* Davidson's 18 punts of 50-or-more yards are tied for fifth in FBS. His percentage of 50-yard punts (31.0) is tied for 17th.
* Davidson holds two single-season school records and a single-game school record, while also sitting in first all-time in career punting average.

* Davidson set school records by punting 82 times in 2014 for 3,497 yards. His 46.0 yards per punt average in 2015 is second-best in school history, and his 42.6 yards in 2014 is seventh.
* In a 2014 game against Ball State, Davidson averaged a school-record 60.5 yards per punt, including a career-best 78-yarder.
* In 2016, Davidson is getting even better. He has 58 punts for 2,653 yards and a 45.7 average. He ranks sixth nationally and leads the MAC in average. His career mark is now 44.5, the highest in school history
*Davidson's 8,633 career punting yards rank third in BGSU history. He needs only 323 to break the all-time BGSU record, held by Jim Phelps (8,955). His 194 career punts are third in Falcon history, 25 behind Phelps' record.
* Against Ohio, Davidson had one of the best games of his career. He averaged 59.7 yards on three punts, including a career-long 79 yarder that is tied for fourth-longest in BGSU history. Another went 55 yards, and two of his punts were downed inside Ohio's 20.

DAVIDSON ALSO AN ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

* Joseph Davidson is one of the top punters in the country, but he has also been recognized as one of the brightest minds in college football.
* Davidson was named to the 2015 Academic All-America Division I football team as selected by the College Sports Information Director of America (CoSIDA).
* Of the 52 players named to the Academic All-America team, he was one of just seven to hold a grade point average of 3.95 or higher. He is a finance and mathematics double major.
* Earlier this season, Davidson was named Academic All-District for the 2016 season. He is now eligible for Academic All-America status for the second consecutive year.

MAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

* Punter Joseph Davidson was named the MAC East Division Special Teams Player of the Week Oct. 17 -- his second straight week earning the award.
* Davidson had an 82-yard punt, the longest in the NCAA this year, and ran 24 yards for a first down on a fake punt in the fourth quarter that sparked the team's comeback.
* Redshirt freshman quarterback James Morgan was named the MAC East Division Offensive Player of the Week Oct. 17.
* Morgan was 25-of-38 for 335 yards and five touchdown passes against Toledo. All of those numbers were career-highs and he became the first freshman in BGSU history to throw for 250+ yards in three straight games.
* Davidson booted a career-best 79-yarder at Ohio to earn MAC East Special Teams Player of the Week honors Oct. 10. His 59.7 yard per punt average in that game is the best in the country for a single game this year.

FOURTH DOWN? GO FOR IT!

* There's no doubt that head coach Mike Jinks is aggressive. In ten games, BGSU has gone for it on fourth down 40 times – an amazing average of 4.0 per game. That number leads the FBS. In fact, it's ten more than any other team. Tulane and East Carolina rank second in fourth-down attempts with only 30.
* So far in 2016, Jinks has chosen to go for it on fourth down 37.0 percent of the time (40 of 108).
* The Falcons are successful far more often than not on fourth down. Their 25 conversions lead the country; California is second in that category with 19. Their success rate (.625) is tied for 25th in FBS. Against Akron, the Falcons were a perfect 2-for-2.

PINNING THEM DEEP

* BGSU's kickoff coverage unit has become one of the nation's best in 2016.
* The team has allowed just 473 yards on 30 kickoff returns for an average of 15.77. That number ranks third in FBS and is tops in the MAC.
* By comparison, Bowling Green allowed 21.18 yards per kick return in 2015 to rank eighth in the MAC.

MORGAN NOT PLAYING LIKE A FROSH

* Redshirt freshman James Morgan took over as the starting quarterback in week five, and his numbers just keep going up.
* On Oct. 22 against Miami, Morgan threw for single-game career highs in completions (30), attempts (49) and yards (389). He also added three touchdown passes.
* Morgan's coming out party was against Toledo on Oct. 15. He threw for 335 yards and five touchdowns against the Rockets, including 166 yards and three scores in the fourth quarter. Those were the most passing yards for a BGSU quarterback since Matt Johnson against Ohio in Nov. 2015 and the most passing TDs since Johnson at Kent State in Oct. 2015.

* On Nov. 1 at NIU, Morgan added 224 passing yards and three passing touchdowns. He has 200 or more yards in five of his six starts and multiple touchdown passes in four of his last five games.

* Morgan now has 1,759 yards and 14 touchdown throws in 2016. In just six starts, he has thrown the most touchdown passes by a freshman quarterback in BGSU history and is second to only Matt Schilz is yards. Schilz threw for 2,223 in ten starts during the 2010 season.

* While that 2010 team led by a redshirt freshman quarterback won just two games, it set the foundation for a three-victory improvement in each of the next two seasons under Schilz.

* Even though he has started just six of BGSU's ten games, Morgan is already fifth in the MAC in completion percentage, passing touchdowns, and yards per completion. He is sixth in the league in passing efficiency and yards per game.

* From Oct. 1 to Oct. 22, Morgan threw for 250+ in four straight games. He is the first freshman quarterback in BGSU history with more than two straight 250+ yard games.

100-YARD DUOS

* BGSU has played five games since the start of 2014 in which two running backs ran for more than 100 yards. Prior to 2014, that had not happened since 2004.

* Current senior Fred Coppet was one of those backs in all five games, but here's the fun part – he did it with five different teammates.

Nov. 4, 2014 at Akron: Fred Coppet (113) and Andre Givens (101)
Nov. 28, 2014 vs Ball State: Travis Greene (159) and Coppet (140)
Nov. 24, 2015 at Ball State: Coppet (108) and Matt Domer (105)
Sept. 17, 2016 vs MTSU: Josh Cleveland (153) and Coppet (117)
Nov. 9, 2016 at Akron: Donovan Wilson (126) and Coppet (116)

DONOVAN DAZZLES

* Donovan Wilson had a career game in BGSU's 38-28 victory over Akron. Entering the game, he had 131 rushing yards in 2016 and 209 in his career. Against the Zips, he hauled the ball for career highs in carries (21) and yards (119). He also scored a touchdown; it was his third of the season and the tenth of his career.

* Wilson had two huge runs against the Zips. His 42-yard dash is the longest run of the season by a Falcon. He closed the game with a 22-yard touchdown run. It is the longest scoring run of the season for BGSU and sealed the Falcons' first MAC win of 2016.

MILTON MAKES MAGIC

* Marcus Milton picked up an Akron fumble and raced 76 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. It was one of two personal takeaways in the game for Milton and one of six total for the Falcons in the game.
* Milton's 76-yard return is the longest play of 2016 for BGSU and is the Falcons' first fumble return for a touchdown since their last trip to Akron on Nov. 4, 2014. In that game, Taylor Royster recovered a Zips' fumble in the end zone for a touchdown, as BGSU won 27-10.

MORGAN AMONG THE BEST

* While James Morgan has started just six games at quarterback, he ranks among the nation's best freshman signal callers.
* Morgan's 14 touchdown passes rank third among freshman QBs in the country and his 1,759 yards passing is seventh.
* He also ranks sixth among freshmen in attempts (281) and completions (159), 12th in completion percentage (56.6 percent) and efficiency (116.4), and 13th in yards per completion (11.06).

WEEKNIGHT MACTION

* Bowling Green has played some of its best football during the last five seasons when the lights are bright and national television cameras are on. Since the beginning of 2012, the Falcons are 9-3 (.750) when playing on weeknights. Both the number of wins and winning percentage are second-best in the MAC in that span.
* Northern Illinois has the MAC's best record since 2012 during midweek games (11-2). This week's opponent, Kent State, is just 3-6.

ELEMENTARY MY DEAR WATSON

* Will Watson returned to the field against Toledo, making his first appearance since the 2014 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.
* Watson served on defense as well as on the team's punt and kick return units.
* Watson turned in four tackles, two pass break-ups and a fumble recovery at Akron. The fumble recovery turned into a touchdown on the next play and gave BGSU a 21-10 halftime lead.
* Watson set new career highs for tackles (6) and all-purpose yards (123) against Northern Illinois. He returned two punts for 33 yards and three kickoffs for 90 yards. The latter included a 48-yard return that allowed BGSU to start that possession across midfield.
* Against Miami, Watson posted 69 kick and punt return yards and registered four tackles and two pass break-ups.
* Watson had five tackles and five kickoff returns for 101 yards, including a long of 31, in his season debut against Toledo
* His 338 all-purpose yards ranks sixth on the team, and he is averaging 84.5 per game.

MILLER TIME

* Wide receiver Scott Miller continues to excel as BGSU's most prolific receiver.
* Miller had a career game against Miami. He tied his career high in catches with 11 and added two more touchdowns to his season total. He also smashed his previous career high with 178 yards, breaking the 161 mark he set against North Dakota. His 72-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter is now the longest play of the season for the Falcons.
* Miller has four 100-yard receiving games this season, but his numbers in the last six games are amazing. He's caught 45 passes for 605 yards and seven touchdowns in that span. Over 12 games, that would work out to 90 catches, 1,210 yards and 14 scores.
* Miller is now eighth nationally with ten receiving touchdowns. He is one of only six players with multiple games of three touchdown catches.
* Miller hauled in six passes for 56 yards on Oct. 8 against Ohio. The last catch was a spectacular 37-yard touchdown off a ricochet on a 4th-and-27 play, which brought BGSU within six points.
* On Oct. 3 against Eastern Michigan, Miller set a new career high with 11 receptions. His 148 receiving yards were the second-highest of his career, falling just 13 short of his total against North Dakota.
* In that Sept. 10 contest against UND, Miller earned five catches for 161 yards and his first three career touchdowns. He totaled 235 all-purpose yards in that game, the most by a Falcon since Roger Lewis had 261 in 2015 against Memphis. His 71-yard touchdown catch against the Fighting Hawks remains BGSU's longest play in 2016.

* Miller's season receiving totals are now 67 catches for 872 yards and ten touchdowns. His 6.7 receptions per game are second in the MAC and 16th in FBS, while his receiving yards are fifth in the MAC and 20th in FBS.
* Miller's 77 all-purpose yards against Akron give him 1,227 in 2016. He averages 122.7 per game and ranks fourth in the MAC in that area.

THE MORE THINGS CHANGE...
* While Bowling Green plays the 2016 season with its third head coach in four years, the Falcons have new offensive and defensive coordinators for the fourth consecutive season.
* BGSU is the only school in the country that has had new offensive and defensive coordinators in each of the past four years.
* Including co-coordinators, BGSU has had seven offensive coordinators in the past four years.

BOWLING GREENE
* Redshirt senior linebacker Trenton Greene set a career high with 16 tackles at Ohio State. He added nine more against North Dakota and 11 versus MTSU. He also posted 10 against EMU and six at both Ohio and Toledo.
* Against Northern Illinois, Greene produced 13 tackles, his most since the season opener and his fourth double-digit tackle game of the season.
* At Akron, Greene had arguably his most disruptive game of the season. He had nine tackles, including eight solo. Two of those tackles were for losses, and he also forced two critical fumbles.
* Greene currently averages 9.6 tackles per game and ranks 23rd nationally in that category and fourth in the MAC. With 48 solo tackles, Greene is tied for third in the MAC.
* In the first quarter against EMU, Greene made a spectacular diving interception. It was the first pick of his career, and the short field he provided allowed BGSU to drive for the first touchdown of the game.
* Greene hauled down quarterback Gus Ragland against Miami to earn his first sack of 2016 and the third sack of his career.

SACK MASTERS
* BGSU now has eight sacks in the last four games. They had five total in the first six games of 2016.
* Tyrik Jones and David Konowalski both had sacks against Akron. Jones now has three this season, while Konowalski has two. Both earned the first sacks of their careers in 2016.
* Gus Schwieterman's four sacks are tied for 11th-most in the MAC.

FIRST TIME STARTERS
* Half of Bowling Green's 22 starters at Ohio State earned the distinction for the first time in their careers. The five first-time starters on offense include running backs Josh Cleveland and Donovan Wilson, wide receivers Scott Miller and Deric Phouthavong and offensive lineman J.J. Beggan. On defense, six players started for the first time, including defensive linemen Shannon Smith and David Konowalski, linebacker Brandon Harris, and defensive backs Antonio Sotolongo, Marcus Milton and Jamari Bozeman.
* Redshirt freshman Janarvis Pough became the 12th first-time starter of the season for BGSU when he earned a start against North Dakota.

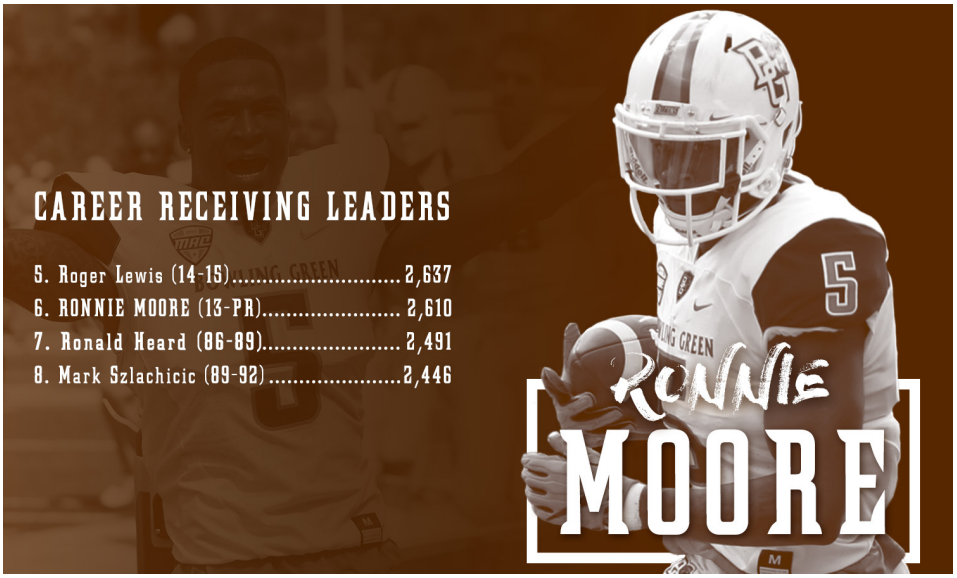
James Morgan



* Four more players made their first starts against MTSU. Hunter Folkertsma started at wide receiver, while Nilijah Ballew started at linebacker, Cameron Jeffries at cornerback, and Tavaraus Wade at safety.
* Three more players earned their first career start against Eastern Michigan. On defense, Robert Jackson and Jerry McBride earned their first starts, while James Morgan had his first start at quarterback.
* At Ohio, BGSU began the game in a five-wide-out set, allowing Marquis Zimmerman and Vanel Doussos to earn their first career starts. Those bring the season total to 22 first-time starters for BGSU in 2016.
* True freshman Tyrik Jones became the 23rd first-time starter for BGSU at 2016 when he earned the honor at Toledo. He celebrated with a team-high nine tackles and his first two career sacks.
* Senior Will Watson started the first game of his career against Miami. He earned four tackles and two pass break-ups, as well as 69 kick and punt return yards, as BGSU's 24th first-time starter in 2016.
* Of the 24 first-time starters, five are true freshmen, three are redshirt freshmen, eight are sophomores (six true sophomores), six are juniors (three true juniors) and two are seniors.

INTERCEPTION CONNECTION

* BGSU has picked off nine passes in 2016, and the Falcons were just one yard shy of returning the first two for touchdowns.
* Brandon Harris had a 63-yard interception return for a touchdown against Ohio State. He hauled in his second interception against Ohio and returned it 13 yards. His two interceptions and 76 return yards are both second in the MAC. His pick-six is also second-longest in the MAC this season.
* Alfonso Mack returned an interception 47 yards to the one-yard line against Middle Tennessee.
* Trenton Greene made a diving interception against EMU in the first quarter that gave the Falcons a short field and led to the first touchdown of the game.
* Against Toledo, Antonyo Sotolongo picked off his first career pass and returned it seven yards. The turnover, on BGSU's side of the field, helped the Falcons stay in the game during the fourth quarter.
* Bowling Green picked off three passes against Akron, their first three-interception effort since the 2015 MAC Championship against Northern Illinois. Jamari Bozeman hauled in two of the thefts and now has three picks in his last two games. Marcus Milton also had an interception; it was his first of the season.
* BGSU's 135 yards on interception returns are fourth in the MAC, but their 15.0 per-pick average is third behind Western Michigan (26.5) and Ohio (15.5).
* Bowling Green's defense picked off 20 passes and allowed only 19 touchdown passes during the 2015 season. Those 20 interceptions were tied with Oklahoma for eighth-most nationally.

FROM QB TO ALL-MAC LINEBACKER

* Recruited as a quarterback, Austin Valdez has become one of the most dominant linebackers in the Mid-American Conference.
* Valdez led BGSU with nine tackles against Miami. Two weeks ago, he had eight tackles against Toledo, including one for loss, his first TFL of the season.
* Valdez posted 10 tackles in the season opener (five solo) against Ohio State, adding a pass break-up.
* He earned 10 more tackles (two solo) against North Dakota.
* Just a sophomore in 2015, Valdez totaled 144 tackles, more than anyone else in the conference, and averaged 10.3 per game.
* As a first-team All-MAC linebacker, he tied for the team lead with 11 tackles for loss, including a sack. He also posted two interceptions and five pass break-ups.
* Valdez was a huge factor in BGSU's MAC title game win over Northern Illinois, as he recorded 13 tackles (1.5 for loss).

MOORE RONNIE

* Ronnie Moore continued the 2016 season against Akron with two catches for ten yards. He now has a reception in 40 straight games -- every contest since the 2013 MAC Championship Game. It is the second-longest catch streak in BGSU history.
* Moore had 72 catches for 951 yards a year ago, but there is potential for those numbers to look rather pedestrian by the end of the 2016 season.
* Of the Falcons top six in receptions a year ago, only Moore returned. Those five combined for 280 receptions.
* Moore has 2,610 career receiving yards and needs just 116 more to move into third place on BGSU's all-time list. He is 27 away from Roger Lewis (5th), 69 from Stan Hunter (4th) and 116 from Robert Redd (3rd).
* In addition, Moore is currently 15th on the FBS active career receiving yards list.
* Moore now has 192 career receptions and sole possession of fifth place in BGSU history after passing Ryan Burbrink (189). He needs 19 to tie Robert Redd for fourth.
* Against NIU, Moore fought off a defensive back and caught a rainbow from James Morgan while falling to the turf in the end zone. The 37-yard play was his first touchdown reception of 2016 and the 19th of his career. He needs five receiving touchdowns to move into a tie for fifth on BGSU's all-time list.
* As a freshman in 2013, Moore's 19.5 yards per reception was the fourth-highest single-season average in program history.
* Moore scored the fifth rushing touchdown of his career and his second of 2016 with a two-yard run out of the Wildcat formation against Akron. The score gave BGSU a 21-10 halftime lead. He now has 24 total career scores and needs only two more to tie for ninth in BGSU history.
* Moore's consecutive games streak with at least one catch is the eighth-longest active streak in FBS through games of Nov. 10. Here is the updated active catch streak list:

46 -- Robert Davis, Georgia State
46 – Corey Davis, Western Michigan
45 – Zach Pascal, Old Dominion
44 – Zay Jones, East Carolina
42 – Nate Phillips, Arizona
42 – Taquan Mizzell, Virginia
41 – Jonnu Smith, FIU
40 – Ronnie Moore, BGSU

RAY GUY PUNTER OF THE WEEK

* Punter Joseph Davidson was named the Ray Guy Award National Punter of the Week on Sept. 26 after averaging 47.4 yards per punt against Memphis.
* Davidson landed five of his eight punts inside the 20, booted a 68-yarder and a 60-yarder, and had his final punt of the night downed at the one.

FALCONS IN THE NFL

* Several Bowling Green football alumni started the 2016 NFL season on active rosters.
* Center Kory Lichtensteiger will continue to play for the Washington Redskins in his ninth NFL season.
* Linebacker Gabe Martin will enter his second season with the Arizona Cardinals, as will cornerback Jude Adjei-Barimah with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
* On Oct. 16, Roger Lewis caught his first career NFL pass. It went for a 24-yard touchdown in the Giants' 27-23 victory over the Baltimore Ravens. It served as the 300th touchdown pass in quarterback Eli Manning's career.
* Lewis' score is the first touchdown reception for a former BGSU player in a regular season NFL game since P.J. Pope caught a scoring pass from Jay Cutler on Dec. 14, 2008 in Denver's 30-10 loss at Carolina.
NFL game since P.J. Pope caught a scoring pass from Jay Cutler on Dec. 14, 2008 in Denver's 30-10 loss at Carolina.
* Lewis has three catches in 2016, but he's made them count. His most recent catch was a 30-yard touchdown in the Giants' key 28-23 divisional win over Philadelphia on Nov. 6. He now has three catches for 61 yards and two touchdowns.
* Lewis has also been playing heavily on special teams and has made an impact there, too. In five games, he has four tackles and two forced fumbles.
* Adjei-Barimah has played in eight games and has earned 21 tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble for Tampa Bay. Martin has three tackles in seven games for the Cardinals.

MIKE JINKS

On Dec. 9, 2015, BGSU announced that it had tabbed Texas Tech Associate Head Coach Mike Jinks to lead the defending Mid-American Conference Champion football program. Jinks, who also coached running backs for the Red Raiders, became the 19th head coach in program history.

Jinks, who came to BGSU after spending the 2015 season as Associate Head Coach, had coached the Red Raiders' running backs for the past three seasons. Prior to his time at Texas Tech, he was a National Coach of the Year finalist while winning the 2010 Texas State Championship and compiling a record of 43-4 in his final three seasons at San Antonio powerhouse, Steele High School.

Known for their prolific offense, Texas Tech saw great success with Jinks in 2015. The Red Raiders owned the second-best offense in the country, totaling 7,134 yards in 12 games (594.5 yards per game). TTU also had the second-best passing offense. The Red Raiders averaged 46.6 points per game (second in FBS) and had 33 touchdown drives under two minutes. Texas Tech also ranked inside the top five nationally for third-down conversions (.519), first downs offense (346), and plays run (1,002).

Under Jinks, Texas Tech saw incredible success in the running game. In just his second season, Jinks tutored DeAndre Washington, who became the first Red Raiders' running back since Ricky Williams in 1998 to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in a single season. Washington finished the season with 1,103 rushing yards and was named second team All-Big 12.

In 2015, Washington turned into the Big 12 Conference's most prolific rusher under Jinks, totaling a league-best 1,455 yards on the ground and 14 touchdowns. Washington was second in the Big 12 in all-purpose yards (146.6 yards per game) behind only teammate Jakeem Grant (180.6 yards per game). The Texas Tech rushing attack averaged 204.8 yards per game and tallied 34 rushing touchdowns.

Jinks joined the Texas Tech program after a highly successful tenure at Steele High School in Cibolo, Texas – a suburb of San Antonio. Jinks was the first head coach at Steele when the school opened its doors in 2005, and it didn't take long for him to mold the program into a state powerhouse. While at Steele, Jinks compiled a 76-18 record overall, including an impressive 43-4 mark in his final three seasons. He led the Knights to the 2010 Class 5A Division II State Championship and to the state finals again in 2011.

His highly successful career at Steele led him to receiving the honor of coaching the West Team in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in January 2013. He was also a finalist for the Xenith National High School Coach of the Year Award. While at Steele, Jinks coached former Texas Longhorn, and All-American running back, Malcolm Brown.

Prior to becoming the head coach in Cibolo, Jinks was the head coach at Burbank High School for a season. Prior to that, he had a highly successful career as a high school assistant coach and offensive coordinator at five different schools. Jinks' coaching career began in 1995 as the quarterbacks coach at Eillison High School. In 1998, Jinks then became the quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, Judson High School. Following that, he served as offensive coordinator at David Crockett High School, Galena Park High School and Robert E. Lee High School, all prior to his first head coaching position

Jinks is a graduate of Angelo State University where he earned his degree in kinesiology. He and his wife Meredith have three children – Jaden, Madison and Tristan.

WEEK ONE

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The Bowling Green State University football team took an early 7-0 lead but Ohio State rallied to defeat the Falcons 77-10 in front of 107,193 fans at Ohio Stadium to open the 2016 season.

BGSU received the opening kickoff and went three-and-out. After a Joe Davidson punt, Ohio State began their initial series on their own 42 yard line. Four plays later, the Falcons were on the board.

Facing 2nd-and-5 at the BGSU 41, J.T. Barrett rolled left and threw into the flat, where Brandon Harris was occupying space. Harris grabbed the ball out of the air at the 37 and weaved his way 63 yards for a touchdown. It was the first pick-six for Bowling Green since Dernard Turner on Nov. 4, 2014. OSU had not allowed a pick-six since October 2014.

Jake Suder came on for a successful extra point, the first point of his career, and the Falcons led 7-0 just 2:41 into the game.

By the time the first quarter ended, Ohio State led 21-7 and then added 14 points in the second quarter to take a 35-10 lead into halftime.

Starting quarterback James Knapke completed 12 balls for 110 yards before giving way to redshirt freshman James Morgan in the fourth quarter. Morgan completed nine of ten passes for 65 yards. Seven of those nine completions were to true freshman Marquis Zimmerman. Zimmerman led the Falcons with those seven catches in his first career game. Ronnie Moore led the team with 45 receiving yards.

In the backfield, Josh Cleveland's first six BGSU carries went for 31 yards, as he led the team with a 5.2 yards per carry average. Coppet's 28-yard jaunt led to a team-high 38 yards on 12 carries.

WEEK TWO

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio – The Bowling Green State University football team opened the 50th anniversary season of Doyt Perry Stadium with an exciting 27-26 win over the University of North Dakota on Saturday, Sept. 10. The Falcons benefitted from three touchdown receptions from Scott Miller but had to tip away a two-point conversion attempt in the final seconds to preserve the victory.

Miller finished the contest with five catches for 161 yards and three touchdowns. The scores were the first three of his career, and the yardage total nearly tripled his previous career total. His 71-yard reception is the longest play of the season to date for BGSU.

Moore scored BGSU's other touchdown on the fourth rushing score of his career. He also hauled in three passes for 39 yards. He has receptions in 32 consecutive games, and the 39 yards gives him 2,272. That total moves him into tenth place on BGSU's career reception yards list.

Janarvis Pough had four catches for 51 yards, while Deric Phouthavong added five for 41. All of those totals are career highs. Knapke fed his receivers to the tune of 23-of-40 for 315 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions. The three scoring passes ties Knapke's career high.

Antonyo Sotolongo and Austin Valdez led BGSU's defense with ten tackles; the total for Sotolongo was a career high and gives him 19 for the season, while Valdez has 20. Trent Greene added nine for a team-leading season total of 25. Gus Schwieterman had two sacks, and Brandon Harris added another. Those were the first career sacks for both players.

Overall, BGSU outgained North Dakota 417-383 and 327-219 through the air. They also allowed just 3.8 yards per carry despite 43 attempts by UND. The Falcon defense limited the Fighting Hawks to just 4-for-17 on third down attempts.

WEEK THREE

BGSU led through much of the first half but ultimately fell to the Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders 41-21 Saturday at Doyt Perry Stadium. MTSU scored three touchdowns in the span of 2:01 surrounding halftime, and inclement weather limited offensive production in the second half, as the Falcons failed to score in the final 30 minutes.

Josh Cleveland rushed for 153 yards on 18 rushes and Fred Coppet added 117 yards on 27 carries. The Falcons ran for 304 yards on the ground in a driving rainpour.

Alfonso Mack made his first interception of the season and seventh of his career as the Falcons went ahead 21-14 just 1:46 into the second quarter. The rest of the game, however, belonged to the Blue Raiders.

BGSU ran 93 plays for 433 yards. Of those, 61 plays for 304 yards came on the ground. That is the most rushing yards for Bowling Green since Nov. 24, 2015 at Ball State. It is the first time BGSU has rushed the ball at least 60 times since 2014 against Kent State.

Cleveland's 18 carries and 153 yards were both career highs, and he posted his first career touchdown. Donovan Wilson also set career bests for carries (10) and yards (36). His two scores were his first since last October against Akron, and they tie for his most in a single game. Coppet's 27 carries were 13 more than his previous high, and his 117 yards were the second most in his career. It is his fifth career 100-yard game.

Defensively, Trent Greene had 11 more tackles and now owns 36 for the season. He was fifth nationally with 12.5 per game entering the contest. Alfonso Mack's interception is his first of the season and seventh of his career. Gus Schwieterman added a sack; he now has three in the last two games.

Four players (Hunter Folkertsma, Cameron Jefferies, Nilijah Ballew and Tavaraus Wade) all made their first starts for the Falcons today.

WEEK FOUR

BGSU concluded its non-conference schedule with a loss to the University of Memphis on Saturday evening at the Liberty Bowl. The Falcons are now 1-3 on the campaign following the 77-3 defeat.

Memphis got off to a quick start, as the Tigers covered 66 yards on seven plays for an opening-drive touchdown. The Falcons countered, however, with a field goal to pull within four points at 7-3.

James Knapke, who finished the game 8-of-15 for 82 yards, connected with Marquis Zimmerman for a 40-yard completion. The reception for Zimmerman was a career long. The play helped set up a 30-yard Jake Suder field goal.

The Falcons then forced a stop on the Tigers' ensuing drive, but on Bowling Green's next possession, a Knapke pass tipped off a receiver's hands on the first play of the drive, and went the other way for a 28-yard interception return to the end zone.

The Orange and Brown charged down to the Memphis 46 following the interception, but the Tigers forced a stop and quickly went up by a score of 21-3 with a touchdown drive.

Another tipped ball turned interception set up a fourth Tiger touchdown, and Memphis went on to seize control of the game from there, and moved to 3-0 on the season with the victory.

Morgan completed 17-of-34 passes for 126 yards. Zimmerman had a career day for the Orange and Brown, as he hauled in four passes for 75 yards.

WEEK FIVE

BGSU dropped a hard-fought 28-25 decision to the Eastern Michigan Eagles on Oct. 1 at Doyt L. Perry Stadium. The game served as the Mid-American Conference opener for both teams. It was also BGSU's homecoming game and was played on the 50th anniversary of the first game at Perry Stadium.

Fred Coppet set a single-game high in rushing yards and scored twice, Trenton Greene pulled down his first career interception, and Donovan Wilson caught his first career touchdown pass. Redshirt freshman James Morgan also made his first career start at quarterback in the losing effort.

Down 21-10 early in the fourth quarter, BGSU marched 75 yards in ten plays to pull within one score. Coppet started the drive with a 41 yard run, then carried five more times, including a two-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 21-17.

EMU took the kickoff and again drove 75 yards for a score. The final play was a 40-yard touchdown pass from Roback to Sergio Bailey. BGSU defensive back Alfonso Mack had his hands on the ball first, but Bailey managed to take the ball away to give the Eagles a 28-17 lead.

The Falcons would not give up and scored once again with 5:16 to play. Coppet again ended a lengthy 82-yard drive with a two-yard run. Morgan threw to Scott Miller for the two-point conversion, and BGSU was within a field goal at 28-25.

BGSU posted 456 total yards, including 206 on the ground and 250 through the air. It is the most total offense in a game this season for the Falcons and is also the first game with 200 or more yards rushing and passing in the same contest.

Coppet rushed 25 times for 141 yards to earn his sixth career 100-yard game and his career single-game high in rushing yards. He also moves into ninth place on BGSU's all-time rushing list with 2,388 yards.

WEEK SIX

BGSU fought valiantly but saw it's 17-game winning streak against the Mid-American Conference Eastern Division come to an end with a 30-24 loss at Ohio. James Morgan threw two touchdown passes, and Fred Coppet ran in another in BGSU's first defeat at Peden Stadium in six years.

Bowling Green posted 367 yards of offense, including a career-high 253 yards passing from Morgan. The defense allowed a season-best 388 yards and 203 passing yards.

Fred Coppet finished with 66 yards and a touchdown, while Cleveland added 65 yards on the ground. Miller had 106 all-purpose yards and a touchdown, and Redding posted 54 yards and a score on a career-high six catches.

Ronnie Moore's three catches gave him a 36-game streak with at least one catch, third-most in BGSU history and the eighth-longest active streak in FBS. His 76 receiving yards moved him into eighth place on the Falcons' all-time list.

WEEK SEVEN

Redshirt freshman James Morgan threw five touchdown passes in a stirring comeback attempt, but BGSU ultimately fell to the Toledo Rockets 42-35 Saturday afternoon.

Against the Rockets, Morgan threw 38 times and completed 25 for 335 yards, five touchdowns, and one interception. His completion, yardage and touchdown totals were all career-bests.

Morgan threw for more yards than any BGSU quarterback since Matt Johnson last November against Ohio and more touchdowns than any since Johnson last October at Kent State. In three games as starter, he has 838 yards passing and an 8-to-5 touchdown-to-interception ratio.

Sophomore wide receiver Scott Miller was the primary beneficiary of Morgan's success. Miller posted eight catches for 149 yards and three touchdowns. The catches and yards were the second most of his season and career, and the three scores equaled Miller's total from the Falcons' win over North Dakota.

Miller caught scoring throws of 10, 15, and 57 yards. He now has seven touchdown receptions in 2016. It was his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and his fifth effort with 100 or more all-purpose yards.

Morgan threw two touchdowns in the final seven minutes of the game. The first was a 20-yard strike to freshman Marquis Zimmerman, then after a quick Toledo three-and-out, Teo Redding toe-tapped in the end zone for an 18-yard scoring reception and a 35-35 tie.

Toledo capped the game with a 66-yard touchdown march that ended with a three-yard run from Kareem Hunt with 18 seconds to play. That was the final salvo in the Rockets' 42-35 win.

WEEK EIGHT

Scott Miller raced for a 72-yard first-quarter touchdown en route to 11 catches, 178 yards and two touchdowns, but BGSU fell 40-26 to Miami Saturday.

Miller's play helped BGSU get the day started fast.

Miami took the opening kickoff to the BGSU 44, but Terrance Bush sacked Miami quarterback Gus Ragland on third down to force a punt, which went out of bounds at the BGSU 11. On the third play of the Falcons' drive, James Morgan found Miller with a short pass over the middle. Miller cut right and outran several RedHawks defenders up the sideline for a 72-yard touchdown. The catch-and-run was the longest play of the season for BGSU and gave the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Bowling Green accumulated 446 yards of total offense. James Morgan accounted for 389 of those with his arm. Those yards were a single-game high for Morgan, as well as a freshman record for BGSU quarterbacks. Morgan also set single-game highs with 30 completions and 49 attempts.

Scott Miller finished the day with career highs of 11 catches and 178 yards. He also scored two touchdowns. Ronnie Moore added five catches for 81 yards to extend his streak to 38 straight games with at least one catch. Fred Coppet had the best receiving game of his career with six catches and 40 yards. Coppet added 45 rushing yards on ten carries.

WEEK TEN

James Morgan threw for three touchdown passes for the third straight game, but the effort was not enough to overcome a strong Northern Illinois rushing attack as BGSU fell to the Huskies 45-20 on Nov. 1.

The Huskies scored twice to take a ten-point lead early in the second quarter, but BGSU answered. It took the Falcons just three plays to blaze a 72-yard trail. Morgan connected with Teo Redding for 29 yards, then one play later, he threw a rainbow to Ronnie Moore. Moore caught the ball while falling to the turf for a 37-yard score.

The scoring catch was the first of the season for Moore and the 19th of his career. Moore's other touchdown in 2016 was a rushing play. The touchdown brought BGSU within 17-13, but that was as close as they would get.

The Falcons' final score of the game occurred in the third quarter. On third down from the NIU 5, Morgan tossed the ball to Redding in the left corner of the end zone. Redding tapped both feet in while catching the ball, then fell to the ground and maintained control for the score.

Morgan completed 21 of 41 passes for 224 yards and three touchdowns. He has 200 or more yards in each of his five starts and three or more touchdowns in three straight games. In those five starts, he has 1,451 yards and 14 touchdown passes.

In addition to his touchdown, Moore extended his active consecutive games streak with at least one catch to 39 games. With four catches, he moved past Ryan Burbrink into fifth on BGSU's all-time receptions list.

Scott Miller caught six passes for 51 yards and a touchdown. Miller has six or more receptions in seven straight games and 50 or more yards in five straight.

WEEK ELEVEN

The Bowling Green State University football team forced six turnovers and rushed for four touchdowns in a 38-28 victory over the Akron Zips on Nov. 9, 2014 in Akron, Ohio. The win is BGSU's eighth consecutive victory over the Zips, and the Falcons are 3-0 all-time at InfoCision Stadium.

Senior running back Fred Coppet led the Falcons to two first-half touchdowns with scoring runs of eight and six yards, and the Falcons led 14-10 late in the first half. BGSU's defense then forced an Akron fumble, which they recovered at the Zips' two yard line. Ronnie Moore swept right into the end zone on the next play, and the Falcons led 21-10 at the half.

In the second half, Marcus Milton recovered an Akron fumble and returned it 76 yards for a touchdown and a 28-10 lead. It was BGSU's first fumble return for a touchdown since 2014 in their last trip to Akron. However, the Zips responded with 18 straight points to tie the game 28-28 midway through the fourth quarter.

Jamari Bozeman helped BGSU's cause with an interception that gave the Falcons possession in Akron territory, and they turned it into a 27-yard field goal for a 31-28 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, the Zips failed to catch a short kickoff, and Matt Robinson fell on the ball for BGSU with 2:18 left in the game. Donovan Wilson cruised up the middle for 22 yards on the next play to seal a 38-28 win.

Wilson (119 yards) and Coppet (116) combined to help BGSU rush for 218 yards on 46 carries. It is the second time in 2016 that BGSU has had two players over 100 yards rushing in the same game, and the team rushing totals are the second highest of the season.
