TALKING POINTS

MATCH-UP PREVIEW

MUSKEGON LUMBERJACKS: The Under-17 Team gears up for a home-and-home set with in-state rival Muskegon this weekend.

The Lumberjacks are off to a hot start for the 2023-24 season, winning five of their opening seven games. They currently sit in third place in the USHL's Eastern Conference with 10 points.

Muskegon has a tiro of forwards that have been their top point producers. Matvei Gridin's six goals tops the team and tied for second among all USHL skaters. Joe Connor's eight helpers lead all Lumberjack skaters and Cody Croal has pitched in four goals and seven assists in the team's seven games. All three forwards have recorded 11 points on the year to rank them t-3rd among all USHL players.

Muskegon has run a fairly even split in net between Lukas Swedin and Paxton Geisel. The latter has a perfect 3-0-0 record with a 3.13 GAA and .885 SV%. Swedin, hailing from Sweden, owns a 2-1-0 record in three games to pair with an impressive 2.70 goals against average and .927 save percentage.

UTICA PIONEERS: The U18s continue their 23-24 Kroger College Series with a two-game trip through Central New York, beginning in Utica on Friday evening.

The game will be the Pioneers' first of the season before they play host to Adrian College and Stevenson University, two future NTDP opponents, the following two weekends.

Utica lost nine of its 10 leading scorers from the 2022-23 campaign, but returns defenseman Kimball Johnson, who produced 27 points (6g-21a) in 26 games last year.

The top returning forward is center Jakob Breault, who was also over a point-per-game last year with 24 (11g-13a) in 23 games played.

6-foot-6 netminder Bryan Landsberger, who played in 29 games for the Pios last year, returns to the cage this season. He produced a studly 1.90 GAA and .919 SV% for Utica in 2022-23 after a ridiculous 0.73 GAA and .962 SV% in eight games in 2021-22.

The game will be the seventh matchup between the programs in series history, dating back to 2009. Each side has won three games, the NTDP taking last year's tilt by a 6-2 final.

CORNELL BIG RED: The U18s complete the weekend trip in Ithaca, N.Y., to take on the Big Red. The game will also be Cornell's first action on the ice for the season.

Cornell returns a big portion of their production from last season, including leading scorer Gabriel Seger, who produced 30 points (7g-23a) in 30 games last year. Dalton Bancroft and Nick DeSantis are also back for the Big Red, who both picked up 20+ points in 2022-23.

Ian Shane manned the net for the majority of last season as the Californian went 20-10-1 with a 1.72 GAA and .916 SV%. Remington Keopple, a member of Team USA's 2022 World Junior squad, is also featured on Cornell's roster.

The NTDP has had limited success against a traditionally older, more experienced Big Red roster as Cornell holds an 8-1-1 advantage in the all-time series. Team USA's lone win came back on October 24, 2009, with a 3-2 final.

FEELING AT HOME: The Under-18 Team carries three Boston University commits who had the opportunity to play at their future home last weekend. All three produced multi-point games at Agganis Arena.

Forward Cole Eiserman (Newburyport, Mass.) led the way with a three-goal, two-assist night against the Terriers. He netted twice in the opening period and then completed the hat-trick with Team USA's final goal of the third, his third three-plus goal performance in his first eight games of the season.

Fellow forward Kamil Bednarik (Chicago, Ill.) added a trio of assists on the night, including on Team USA's opening two goals. The 6-foot, 186-pound center added a goal Sunday against Dartmouth and enters this weekend riding a five-game point streak (3g-7a--10pts), including multiple points in three of those five.

Defenseman Cole Hutson (Chicago, Ill.) made his presence felt against older brothers, Lane and Quinn, and the rest of the Terriers as he collected his first career multi-goal game at the NTDP. Hutson kicked off the scoring with a breakaway finish less than five minutes into the game and added his second on the power play early in the middle frame. Hutson's 73 career points (12g-61a) already ranks 12th for defensemen all-time at the NTDP as he looks to keep ascending the list this season.

STONE COLD KEMPF: U18 netminder Nick Kempf (Chicago, Ill.) turned in the best performance of his NTDP career in the team's 8-2 win over Boston University.

The University of Notre Dame commit turned aside a career-high 47 shots, including a few spectacular saves on multiple Terriers odd-man rushes, en route to his third win of the season. Prior to Saturday's game, Kempf's highmark was 34 saves back on December 3, 2022 against Madison.

The goaltender improved his seasonal numbers to a 3.13 GAA and .919 SV% in five games, both tops among all NTDP netminders.

ON THE BOARD: The Under-17 Team fell in a close 6-5 battle on home ice last Friday night, but four skaters will remember their first career NTDP goal.

Andrew O'Neill (Fargo, N.D.) put Team USA on the board halfway through the opening period with a tremendous hustle play to the puck, deke and backhand finish.

Will Moore (Ithaca, N.Y.) followed to put his name in the goal column for the first time less than a minute later. Moore stationed himself in the crease and redirected a Drew Schock IV (Green Bay, Wis.) attempt from the point.

Next up it was LJ Mooney's (West Mifflin, Pa.) turn as he tied the score at 3-3. He took a Jack Murtagh (East Greenbush, N.Y.) pass and rifled his shot short-side top corner for his first of the season.

Schock closed out the first-time scorers late in the second period with a perfectly placed wrister from the top of the left circle.

YOU'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR FIRST: A pair of NTDP alums lit the lamp for the first time in their NHL careers over the past week. Brock Faber (NTDP 2018-20 / Minneosta Wild) scored in front of his hometown fans in a 2-0 win over Florida while Thomas Bordeleau (NTDP 2018-20 / San Jose Sharks) used a perfect redirection to sneak one by Colorado's Alexander Georgiev for the Sharks' lone goal of the night two days later.
