Introduction

Welcome to the Medium Reading Guide

I've designed this informative guide specifically to support women like you, in understanding and navigating all the aspects of a God-based medium reading.

Whether you have experienced a medium reading before or are a first timer, this guide will provide you with what you can expect before, during and following your reading. These insights will guide you in making an informed decision about your God-based medium reading.

I believe that it very important for you know who it is you are going to be working with. I personally always check references for the healers that I work with. Which is why I created this guide to support you with making this important decision.

Mediumship is deeply personal and transformative experience that allows individuals to connect with the Heavenly realm and communicate with the Soul of a loved one, Angels, Guides and Holy Beings.

About Me

Hello  I'm Jeanne Street and I am a God-based Medium, Healer, artist and author.

I’m honored you are here to learn more about God-Based Mediumship.

I came into this world with the gift of fully sensing Heaven. I’m a wife, a mom of two daughters and two sons and two bonus daughters by marriage and a Mom Mom to five grands. I met my hubby when I was seventeen and we’ve been married for 39 years. We reside in Morris, CT with our French Bulldogs named Hope and Faith.

I adore my family and love spending time with them.

It is through the miracle of mediumship, that I commune with God and His Heavenly realm to channel the soul of your loved one and share with your their love in the form of word, encouragement and support.

Led by love, with this incredible connection to the Divine and clear knowing, my sessions and readings are precise and detailed. I have the honor of having helped thousands of individuals navigate the challenges associate with grief, fear and trauma while also supporting them in finding closure and knowing how move forward.

Through the profound gift of mediumship I am able to provide my clients with connection to the soul of their loved one, the lineage of their family their Angels and their Heavenly support team.

These accurate connections have transformed the lives of my clients.

Why

The most common reason you may desire  a medium reading is that you are seeking connection, closure or validation from your loved one in Heaven.

Another reason would be that you are looking for Divine perspective with Heavenly support, guidance  insights that will inspire your well-being, healing and soul evolution.

You may also be seeking connection with your Soul-Self also commonly referred to as your higher self for knowing and understanding your soul purpose and God's plan for your life.

Medium readings offer comfort, healing, and clarity for those who are open to the possibility of communicating with Heavenly beings.

Readings offer closure and support for navigating your healing process. Your reading will help you to heal your grief by addressing unresolved emotions, unanswered questions and validation of your life experiences

Readings offer profound support from God. With His grace your passed loved ones lovingly offer words, messages and memories that provide you with exactly what you need to move forward in your life.

Your reading is a channeled healing from God. He provides what your heart needs.

The beautiful thing is that no two readings are ever the same.

What to know

In your private medium reading, I will attune my physical being and merge with the heightened frequencies of Heaven.

Through my senses I will channel for you messages, wisdom, teachings, guidance, reassurance and validation from God, Holy Figures, Angels and the soul of your loved one.

During your personal and intimate reading I will safely open the veil for you and hold sacred space for you to experience Divine unconditional love that will uplift your soul and serve your highest and best good.

God-Based

A God-Based Medium:

- Has the ability to connect with Heaven and channel profound messages of healing and Love.

- Focuses on delivering messages ONLY from Heaven, without interfering with the receiver's free will.

- With an unshakable faith, will resource all messages, guidance and energy they receive with God before delivering them to others.

- Communes with Souls, Angels and Holy beings that are in with God in Heaven and offers their clients descriptive and validating information that confirms their identity to the client.

Before

Before your medium reading appointment, it is beneficial to spend some time exploring your personal energetic state.

Once you are aware of your energy you can take actions that will support your heart in opening further and being in the receiving mode.

Some ways you can raise your energetic state are by engaging in activities that bring you joy, such as praying, spending time in nature, practicing mindfulness, or listening to uplifting music.

Being in a heightened energetic frequency allows for a clearer connection to the Heavenly realm and enhances your own ability to sense your departed loved ones during your reading.

By tuning into our soul-self, and engaging in frequency-raising habits and activities, you open yourself to a deeper experience in connecting with Heaven during your 1:1 reading.

During

Find a quiet and comfortable space where you can relax and focus during the reading.

Set an intention for your reading, such as receiving guidance on a specific question or seeking clarity on a particular aspect of your life.

Have a journal, pen to take notes. It's also a good idea to have a box of tissues and a glass of water nearby.

You can begin with imagining your heart opening and mind softening as you prepare for you messages that come through.

Be at peace knowing that what God has planned for you in this reading is going to  lovingly support and guide you.

Following

Once you receive the Divine messages and guidance meant for your soul, you will leave feeling elevated and with a sense of closure or defined purpose.

It is recommended that you keep this feeling in your heart center for yourself as long as it feels right. Sometimes when we rush to share this experience with others, we might feel as though we cannot communicate the vastness and extraordinary magnitude to what it means for us; we may seek validation from another source, which can sometimes lead us to decrease our excitement and wonder, depending on whom you speak with.

Trust that the way YOU feel is for YOU, and does not need to be validated by another person. With that being said, if you feel safe and held by another person and want to share the experience and know that you will be met with as much excitement and passion, that = a green light!

Following

Digesting everything from the reading can take up to a few weeks, especially if you are incorporating new habits or decisions from the guidance you've received.

Take your time, and remain patient with yourself.
Continue seeking activities that raise your vibration.

I invite you to join Soul Shine where I will be your guide to accessing the Heavenly realm and receiving messages, wisdom, and healing grace that will inspire and inform your soul to shine confidently.

Following

Pay attention to your dreams and insights you may receive throughout the day - you will be attuned to Heaven's energy and will continue to receive messages and guidance if you are open to it.

Keep with you this mantra:

"Only that which is of God can come to me," which will keep you aligned with the highest frequency of God's energy, and protect you from lower vibrations.

Continue to journal about your experience and maybe recall fond memories or moments that help you feel close with your passed loved ones.

Pay attention to your senses, as this is how we interpret energy, what do you see, hear, smell, taste, feel?

Your loved one and Angels very likely will continue coming through, with your permission, to share more unconditional love and guidance with you!
