NOTING THE HORNED FROGS

- TCU is in its fifth season under the direction of head coach Sonny Dykes in 2026. The 2022 National Coach of the Year led TCU to 36 wins in his first four seasons, the most by a TCU head coach since Francis Schmidt won 37 from 1929-32.
- Dykes has also led programs at SMU (2018-21), Cal (2013-16), and Louisiana Tech (2010-12). In all four stops, Dykes has guided the program to the postseason, making him one of four active head coaches to take four different schools to a bowl game, joining Butch Jones, Lane Kiffin, and Rich Rodriguez.
- Dykes is also one of eight active head coaches to have appeared in the CFP National Championship game, along with Kirby Smart, Dabo Swinney, Ryan Day, Marcus Freeman, Kalen DeBoer, Mario Cristobal, and Curt Cignetti. Dykes and Cignetti are the only two coaches in CFP history to take over a losing program and direct them to the CFP in their first season.
- For the first time in three seasons, TCU has a new starting quarterback directing the offense as Harvard transfer Jaden Craig takes the reins. With the Crimson, he became the most accomplished quarterback in program history and left Cambridge with multiple school records. Through five games, Craig has posted numbers that are not only near the top of the conference, but the country. He is currently ranks second in the Big 12 in 300-yard passing performances (3) and ranks third in passing average per game (280.00). His passing average sits 13th nationally.
- The Horned Frogs also have a new offensive play caller in Gordon Sammis. For the past two seasons, Sammis ran the offense at UConn, helping the Huskies post consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time in program history while producing one of the nation's most efficient and explosive offenses. During that span, UConn achieved the program's first-ever 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher in the same season.
- Conversely, the defense returns a host of familiar names. Along with defensive coordinator Andy Avalos, now in year three, Jamel Johnson enjoyed a breakout campaign as a junior, totaling 96 tackles (second on the team) while posting five interceptions. The interception figure for Johnson ranked first the Big 12 and seventh in the country, while his near triple-digit tackle number was the ninth most in the conference. Up front, Markis Deal, Ansel Din-Mbuh and Paul Oyewale brings a combined 89 games played and 43 starts into the year.

NOTING THE GAME

- Coming off a bye week, TCU is set to face Baylor as it looks to get back into the win column.
- It will be the 122nd all-time meeting between the two schools, the most-played college football rivalry in the state of Texas.
- TCU leads the all-time series 60-54-7, including a 30-25-1 mark in Waco.
- Under Dykes, TCU is 11-4 when it has had at least one extra week of preparation, with a 5-1 mark away from home in such games.
- The Horned Frogs have won nine of the last 11 meetings in the rivalry, a stretch which has included a pair of overtime games and six one-score games. The last two games in Waco ended in walk-off field goals, one for each side.
- The game is also one of the four protected games in the Big 12's scheduling model.

Media INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, submit a request at GoFrogs.com/FootballMedia. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved. Credentials are issued to the individual.

MEDIA/SCOUTS WILL CALL AND PARKING: Due to ease of pick up at Amon G. Carter Stadium, credentials are not mailed. Credential pick up is available at the media entrance in the northwest corner of the stadium and begins three hours prior to kick off.

Parking passes will also be delivered digitally to media and scouts to the phone number listed on the credential application. Parking passes will be sent during game week.

MEDIA ELEVATOR: An elevator is available for use throughout the game to allow media to travel between the field level and press box. The elevator may also be held for coaches of either team in the final minutes of each half, and media members are encouraged to use the stairwell if they are physically able to do so.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Sonny Dykes and select players will be available to credentialed media in the Four Sevens Team Meeting Room for home games. Post-game video is available by request.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of TCU Athletics.

SIDELINE AREAS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: TCU's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Each Tuesday during the season, with the exception of the first two weeks (Wednesday) and the second bye week (no press conference), head coach Sonny Dykes holds his weekly press conference beginning at 11:15 a.m. Video will be available of the full availability courtesy of TCU Athletics.

PRACTICES: Practices are closed to the media. Media members should submit post-practice interview requests for student-athletes a day prior to the interview.

FORT WORTH — Baylor and the elements were not able to hold back TCU on Saturday. The Frogs seized control of the game in the second quarter, and then held off Baylor despite three lightning delays in the fourth quarter. TCU's defense was spectacular, holding the nation's best passing offense to below a 50-percent completion rate.

Baylor was able to take an early lead 7-0. The Frogs would not sit idly by, marching down the field to score.

Then the rain started. During and after a downpour, TCU outscored BU 14-3 the remainder of the half to take a 21-10 lead into the intermission. The rain subsided for a short period of time, and TCU continued its momentum early in the second half by marching right down the field on its first possession.

As is typical in a rivalry game, Baylor scored a touchdown and field goal to give the Frogs some game pressure in the fourth quarter. TCU responded, this time by breaking off a long touchdown run just three plays into the drive to regain a two-score lead.

The fourth quarter saw three different rain delays. After returning to play, Barnes ripped off a touchdown run to give the Frogs a 21-point lead.

Trailing, Baylor rallied to score off a TCU fumble and their quick strike offense made it a one-score game with time winding down. The comeback attempt failed as Namdi Obiazor intercepted Robertson to close out the contest.

Sonny Dykes, an offensive innovator, Texas native, and National Coach of the Year, was named TCU's head football coach on Nov. 30, 2021.

Since his arrival in Fort Worth, he has overseen one of the most successful stretches in recent program history, leading the Horned Frogs to 36 victories in his first four seasons. That total ranks as the most by a TCU head coach through four years since Francis Schmidt won 37 games from 1929-32.

Under Dykes, TCU has consistently competed near the top of the Big 12 Conference. His 2024 and 2025 teams posted consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time in more than a decade and only the second time since the Horned Frogs joined the Big 12. The program has produced seven All-Americans, 57 All-Big 12 selections, and 13 NFL Draft picks during his tenure while earning two finishes in the Associated Press final top 25 rankings.

Since 2017, TCU has posted four nine-win or better seasons, and Dykes has either served on staff as an analyst or as head coach for all four campaigns. His teams have helped reestablish the Horned Frogs among the Big 12's top programs, combining consistent on-field success with strong player development and NFL Draft production.

Dykes' first season in 2022 quickly became one of the most memorable years in college football. Picked to finish seventh in the Big 12 preseason poll, TCU exceeded expectations by reaching the College Football Playoff and advancing to the CFP National Championship Game. The Horned Frogs became the first program from the state of Texas to qualify for the CFP and the first Big 12 team to play for a national championship in the playoff era.

TCU finished the 2022 season with a 13-2 record, tying a school record for victories. The Horned Frogs completed the regular season undefeated at 12-0 and recorded six wins over ranked opponents, including a victory over No. 2 Michigan in the CFP Semifinal at the Fiesta Bowl. TCU finished No. 2 in the final Associated Press poll, while Dykes became just the third head coach in the CFP era to guide a team to the playoff in his first season.

The remarkable campaign brought widespread national recognition. Dykes received 10 National Coach of the Year awards and was the unanimous Big 12 Coach of the Year. Under his leadership, quarterback Max Duggan won the Davey O'Brien Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award while finishing second in Heisman Trophy voting. Cornerback Tre'Vius Hodges-Tomlinson won the Jim Thorpe Award, return specialist Derius Davis captured the Jet Award, and offensive guard Steve Avila earned Consensus All-America honors.

Dykes is one of just four active FBS head coaches to take four different schools—Louisiana Tech, Cal, SMU, and TCU—to a bowl game. He is also one of a select group of active head coaches to guide a team to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game, highlighting a career marked by success across multiple programs and conferences.

Before returning to TCU, Dykes spent four seasons as head coach at SMU, where he engineered one of the nation's most notable turnarounds. He led the Mustangs to three consecutive winning seasons, a 10-win campaign in 2019, and 19 weeks in the national rankings. Dykes compiled a 30-18 record at SMU and was recognized as a finalist for both the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award.

His impact at SMU extended beyond offense. In 2019, the Mustangs led the FBS in sacks per game and ranked third nationally in tackles for loss, setting school records with 51 sacks and 111 tackles for loss. Prior to becoming SMU's head coach, Dykes also served as an analyst on TCU's staff, helping the Horned Frogs to an 11-3 record, a Big 12 Championship Game appearance, and a top-10 national finish.

Prior to SMU, Dykes served as head coach at Cal and Louisiana Tech. At Cal, he developed quarterback Jared Goff into the No. 1 overall pick in the 2016 NFL Draft and guided the Golden Bears to their highest win total since 2009. Under his leadership, Cal's offense set numerous school records and became the first college football team in history to feature six players with at least 40 receptions and three 500-yard rushers in the same season.

At Louisiana Tech, Dykes led the Bulldogs to the 2011 Western Athletic Conference championship and earned WAC Coach of the Year honors. In his final season, Louisiana Tech led the nation in both scoring offense and total offense, further establishing Dykes' reputation as one of college football's premier offensive minds.

Before becoming a head coach, Dykes worked as an assistant in the Pac-12, Big 12, and SEC under Mike Stoops, Mike Leach, and Hal Mumme. A graduate of Texas Tech with a degree in history and a former Red Raiders baseball player, Dykes also teaches a leadership course in TCU's Neeley School of Business.

The son of legendary Texas Tech coach Spike Dykes, he and his wife, Kate, have two daughters, Ally and Charlie, and a son, Daniel.

DYKES IN 2017

After spending a highly successful 2017 season as an offensive analyst at TCU where he helped the Horned Frogs to an 11-3 record, a No. 9 overall ranking in the final AP poll, and an appearance in the Big 12 Championship game, Dykes went across the Metroplex when he was named head coach at SMU on Dec. 11, 2017, replacing the outgoing Chad Morris (Arkansas).

With the Mustangs set to appear in their first bowl game in five seasons, Dykes opted to lead the program nine days later in the DXL Frisco Bowl against his former team, Louisiana Tech.

2026 NOTEBOOK

SEASON CAPTAINS NAMED

At the conclusion of the 2026 camp calendar, TCU's players voted on their season-long captains. While there is no set number, five players received the honor from their teammates and will serve as captains for the team this season.

TCU's 2026 CAPTAINS

QB Jaden Craig	First Time Captain (2026)	S Jamel Johnson	First Time Captain (2026)
DL Ansel Din-Mbuh	First Time Captain (2026)	OL Ben Taylor-Whitfield	First Time Captain (2026)
LB Hudson Hooper	First Time Captain (2026)

THE ROSTER BREAKDOWN

As college football's transition and emphasis on the transfer portal has taken full command of roster construction in recent seasons, Sonny Dykes and the Horned Frogs have bucked the trend, focusing on roster retention and building with high school talent. Below are key breakdowns of the 2026 TCU roster.

2026 ROSTER BY THE NUMBERS

NATIVE FROG POPULATION

TCU's roster features 86 players who played their high school football in Texas, more than SMU (54), Texas (57), Baylor (63), Texas Tech (68) and Texas A&M (63) for the most among the state's Power 4 schools. Of those 86, 23 are expected to be key contributors this season and appear on the depth chart.

AIRING IT OUT

In his career, Sonny Dykes has had seven different QBs throw for 3,500 yards in a season during his head coaching career (excluding 2017 season where he only coached the bowl game). This is the second-most by any coach since 1996 (Mike Leach), and the most among active FBS coaches.

Along with this, Dykes' teams have ranked in the Top 20 across the FBS in passing yards in 12 of his last 13 seasons as a head coach.

TIGHT END PRODUCTIVITY

TCU has had a high level of productivity from its tight ends in the past three seasons, and their role is only set to increase under new offensive coordinator Gordon Sammis. The Horned Frogs tight end group last year was in the top three of three major stat categories for the program since 1996.

Under Sammis' guidance last season, UConn's tight ends room ranked in the top 25 of the FBS in receptions (25th), receiving yards (17th) and receiving touchdowns (t-9th).

Against Grambling, the tight end production was evident as Kari Ashley posted 119 yards and two scores. He is one of eight FBS tight ends to have a 100-yard receiving game this season.

PRO FROGS

TCU currently boasts 25 former players in the NFL across active rosters, practice squads, and injured reserve designations. The newest Frogs to join the NFL ranks from the 2025 squad include: CB Channing Canada (UDFA, New England Patriots) and LB Kaleb Elarms-Orr (4th Round, Buffalo Bills).

TCU enters the 2026 season with 29 players on NFL rosters, the second-most in the Big 12 behind Utah (30), and ahead of Texas Tech (22), Oklahoma State (21), BYU (19), Cincinnati (19) and Iowa State (19).

THE BUZZ

" The Horned Frogs thought they found something special in Craig when Josh Hoover transferred to Indiana. But sources have told On3 that TCU has walked away even more impressed with the Harvard transfer after the opening weeks of camp. Described as a "talented passer," TCU feels confidence in its quarterback ahead of a Week 0 matchup in Dublin versus North Carolina. Craig is Harvard's all-time leader in touchdown passes (52) and yards (6,074)." - Pete Nakos (On3)

"Small-college QB with big-college arm talent. Craig is built like Trey Lance but a tad shorter. Outstanding dual-threat athlete with three Ivy League championships in three years. He possesses tremendous arm strength and excellent mobility both in and outside the pocket. He can make all the throws and is confident in letting it rip. We love his demeanor and instincts. He's highly competitive and knows he's good. Craig gets the ball out of his hand quickly and with zip. He has made improvements in full-field progressions through his career and has Baker Mayfield-type gunslinger traits." - Tom Luginbill (ESPN)

"Jaden Craig is an upgrade: The Horned Frogs brought in the high-quality transfer from Harvard, and early reports out of camp have been positive. During a standout run with the Crimson, Craig threw for 6,074 yards and 52 touchdowns while averaging 8.5 yards per attempt. In TCU's pass-happy offense under Sonny Dykes, Craig could quickly prove himself as one of the best in the conference." - Shehan Jeyarajah (CBS)

TRADITIONS AT TCU

Whether it's throwing up a peace sign and curving your fingers, chanting along with Riff Ram, or just hanging out in Funky Town, TCU is home to a number of unique traditions and rivalries

» A PEACE SIGN, BUT FUNKIER

Cheerleader Chad Schrotel '82 helped our gesture of unity catch on with the crowds in 1980. Appropriately, it's like a peace sign with slightly curled fingers, symbolizing the horns of our tiny, mighty mascot, the horned frog.

» WON'T YOU TAKE ME TO FUNKY TOWN?

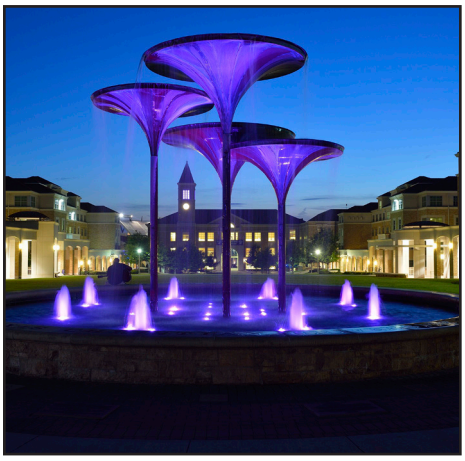
Since the 1980s, denizens of Fort Worth have leaned into calling their home Funky Town. The nickname stems from the popular 1980s song "Funkytown" by Lipps Inc. and the promotion of the city by the local soul radio station KKDA (K-104) as a place to "get down" and "get funky".

"Gotta make a move to a town that's right for me
Town to keep me movin', keep me groovin' with some energy "

Sounds like Fort Worth to us.

» THE FROG FOUNTAIN

Situated at the center of campus commons, one of the most popular landmarks on campus is Frog Fountain. The fountain features four lily pads that are positioned to be different heights that signifies the flow of knowledge from our seniors (represented by the tallest lily pad) all the way to our first-years (the shortest lily pad).



» RAISE HELL, PRAISE DALE!

What was, during our membership in the league, the oldest cheer in the Southwest conference, Riff Ram is over 100 years old and frequently chanted by students and fans on game day at TCU.

Riff, Ram, Bah Zoo

Lickety, Lickety, Zoo, Zoo

Who, Wah, Wah, Who

Give 'em Hell, TCU!

Riff Ram could have faded away had it not been for the efforts of alumni cheerleaders to revive the yell. Dale Young '66 (MA '68), the former director of student teaching and career services for the College of Education who retired in 2013, was instrumental in reviving the cheer.

"For awhile, cheerleaders didn't even do it, they thought it was beneath their dignity," according to Young, who cheered for TCU in the 1960s and later served as the squad adviser. "But back in 1975, they let alumni cheerleaders come back, and we kept it alive."

» THE FROG HORN

Every home game, every time the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown, there it is.

Hhwaaaaaaaaaah!

The Frog Horn - a gift from Burlington Northern Railroad - was unveiled in 1994 and signals to everyone in the Metroplex that the Horned Frogs just put six on the board.

THE FUTURE

TCU's 2025 recruiting class was No. 1 in the Big 12 by 247Sports.com for the first time in program history. Boasting six four-star and 25 three-star recruits, the class figures to be a high-impact group for years to come.

ALL IN

With the settlement of the House v. NCAA class-action lawsuit, TCU has announced that it will fully participate at the maximum level in the permissible revenue sharing plan with its student-athletes.

THE GIFT

In August 2024, Sonny Dykes and his wife Kate made a $1 million donation to TCU Athletics which was split between honoring former TCU offensive lineman Jamal Powell with his name in the weight room in the new Mike and Brenda Harrison Football Performance Center as well as recognizing Shirley Enis, late wife of TCU Trustee Hunter Enis, with an endowment in her name to support women's athletics at TCU.

Powell was a three-year letterman (2000-02) for the Horned Frogs, earning First-Team All-Conference USA honors his senior year. He then began a collegiate coaching career with Dykes hiring Powell as his offensive line coach at SMU in 2018. They worked together for three years until Powell's passing in April 2021 at the age of 39.

THE STREAK

TCU is currently riding the second-longest scoring streak in NCAA history, having scored in 425 consecutive games. Only Florida - 478 games - has a longer streak.

(NOT) SHUTOUT STREAK

1. Florida (478 Games)	Oct. 29, 1988 vs. Auburn

MAKING THE ROUNDS

By joining the Big 12 in 2012, TCU played in its fifth league in an 18-year span. Below is a look at TCU's conference history:

Years	Conference
1909-22	Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association
1923-95	Southwest Conference
1996-00	Western Athletic Conference
2001-04	Conference USA
2005-11	Mountain West Conference
2012-26	Big 12 Conference

TCU accepted an invitation to the Big East in October 2010, but never officially became a member of the conference before joining the Big 12.

POINTS-A-PLENTY

Only seven FBS programs have put at least 28 points on the board more often than TCU under Sonny Dykes.

GAMES WITH 28+ POINTS SINCE 2022

Team	Games
Oregon	53
Georgia	52
SMU	46
Texas Tech	45
Ohio State, USC	44
James Madison	43
TCU, Kansas State, Memphis, North Texas Ole Miss, Tennessee	41

In addition, TCU has posted at least 400 total yards of offense in 40 games under Dykes.

STACKIN' WINS

Since the 2022 season - Sonny Dykes' first as the Horned Frogs' head man - TCU has won the fourth-most overall games in the Big 12. Totals for teams who joined the Big 12 since 2022 are included in their conference win totals for the league they were in (or were not: BYU) at that time.

WIN TOTALS SINCE 2022

Team	Overall	Conference
Texas Tech	40	26
BYU	40	19
Utah	39	23
TCU	38	23

STEPPING UP

In defensive coordinator Andy Avalos' first season with the Frogs (2024), TCU enjoyed a defensive revival of sorts, allowing 62.7 fewer yards in 2024 than in 2023. It represented the 18th largest margin of improvement in the country last season and second largest improvement among Big 12 schools (BYU).

It was also the first time since 2020 that TCU posted a top-50 defensive ranking. The success continued in 2025, as TCU posted consecutive seasons holding opponents under 400 yards per game for the first time since the 2019-20 seasons.

Year	Yards Per Game Allowed (Rank)
2020	350.9 (30)
2021	461.8 (119)
2022	408.2 (95)
2023	408.3 (103)
2024	345.6 (45)
2025	378.7 (73)
2026	255.0 (9)

THE TURNOVER STORY

In the Sonny Dykes era, TCU is 29-5 when ahead or even in turnover margin and 9-15 when on the negative side.

TCU is also 7-0 when generating three or more turnovers under Dykes, those games being wins over North Carolina, Colorado, and Baylor in 2025, Oklahoma State and Cincinnati in 2024, and Iowa State (2022) and the 2022 College Football Playoff victory against Michigan.

Since joining the Big 12, TCU is 88-25 when ahead (56-12) or even (32-13) in turnover margin and 24-46 when on the negative side.

ROAD WARRIORS

Since 2022, only 12 schools in the country have won more true road games than TCU's 14 victories.

1.	James Madison	20
2.	Oregon, Tulane	19
4.	Ohio State, UNLV	18

PAYNE PRODUCTION

TCU running back Jeremy Payne is remembered best for his heroics to win the Alamo Bowl, however he quietly had a very productive conclusion to the 2025 season.

Payne finished the year with at least 70 rushing yards and 40 receiving yards in each of his last two games. No other TCU player in the last 30 seasons has recorded back-to-back such outings.

He also averaged 8.3 yards per carry in the fourth quarter last season, 13th best in the FBS (min. 20 carries) and second best in the Big 12 (ASU's Raleek Brown, 8.5). It was the fifth-best average of any Big 12 player since 2020.

Picking up right where he left off, the running back had 25 rushes and five receptions for 169 total scrimmage yards against UNC. He is the first Big 12 player to ever record at least 25 rushes, five receptions and 150 scrimmage yards in a season opener.

FAMILIAR FACES IN AND OUT

TCU's offense is tasked with replacing 146 combined starts at skill positions, but returns Cade Bennett (33) and Ben Taylor-Whitfield (23) to anchor the offensive line with experience.

Defensively, the Horned Frogs return 97 combined starts, led by Jamel Johnson (24). The major loss defensively was at the linebacker position, as Kaleb Elarms-Orr (23) and Namdi Obiazor (39) went to the NFL.

BALANCED ATTACK

Under Sonny Dykes, TCU has had a great balance offensively. The Horned Frogs have the fourth-most games with 250-plus pass yards and 100-plus rush yards since 2022, with 35 such games. Only Oregon (39), Georgia (37) and SMU (37) have more.

Notes and TIDBITS

DEPENDABLE DWYER

Jordan Dwyer has 10 100-yard receiving games in his collegiate career (six at Idaho, four at TCU). Only three active FBS players have more.

MOST CAREER 100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES

Player	100-yd Games	Current Team
Jeremiah Smith	15	Ohio State

SPREADING AROUND THE ROCK

TCU - regardless of quarterback - has been kind with the ball, getting the rock to six different receivers in 47 consecutive games, between the game at Kansas on Nov. 20, 2021 and the Baylor game in 2025. The streak was snapped against Baylor as only five receivers caught a pass in the victory.

MAKING THE JUMP

Quarterbacks like Jaden Craig to have dominant FCS campaigns and then move to an FBS program the following season have fared well over the past 30 years.

There have been five quarterbacks, including Craig, to post 25-plus passing touchdowns and a 150.0-or-better quarterback rating at their FCS school who then moved up to the FBS.

Quarterback	FCS	FBS
Shedeur Sanders	'22 Jackson St.	'23 Colorado
Cam Ward	'21 UIW	'22 Wazzu
Dakota Prukop	'15 Montana State	'16 Oregon
Vernon Adams Jr.	'14 E. Washington	'15 Oregon

These four players combined to average a 66.2 completion percentage, 2580 pass yards, 21 passing touchdowns and a 149.3 QB rating in the first year after the FCS to FBS transition.
Sanders, Ward, and Adams Jr. all finished within the Top 35 in FBS in passing touchdowns that first season.

SAMMIS SIDENOTES

UConn's offense saw an impressive uptick in production following Gordon Sammis' arrival in Storrs, running the offensive line his first two seasons (2022-23) and coordinating the offense in his final two (2024-25). TCU will look for a similar transition here in Fort Worth.

» Since 2022, among schools with at least 1,500 pass attempts, the Huskies' 60 sacks allowed were the second fewest behind Oregon (50).

» Was one of six FBS teams to allow no more than 20 sacks in any of the last four seasons (Air Force, Army, BYU, Kansas, Northern Illinois)

» One of only seven FBS teams to have 1000+ more passing yards last season than in 2024. One of only two schools to do it with the same quarterback – along with Vanderbilt and Diego Pavia.

PREP TIME

TCU is 11-4 under Sonny Dykes when they have ample time to prepare for an opponent. Below is a breakdown of games that included at least one extra week of preparation.

PREPARED FROGS

BIG PLAY FROGS

TCU has consistently dialed up big plays in conference play under Sonny Dykes, ranking among the nation's best in big plays and big play touchdowns since 2022 (P4 only).

School	Plays	School	TDs
USC	237	Oregon	55
Oregon	219	Arizona	54
Kansas	217	Texas	51
Texas	208	TCU	52
TCU	205	Duke	47

The success relating to big plays was not limited to the offense, as TCU's defense did a very good job last season preventing explosive runs. The Horned Frogs allowed just 3.0 percent of runs to go for 15-plus yards, which was the fourth-fewest in the FBS behind Georgia, Notre Dame and Texas Tech.

POINTS FOR PUPS

During the 2026 season, the TCU football specialists will donate to the Humane Society of North Texas

» $5 for every point
» $10 for every touchback
» $15 for every field goal
» $20 for every downed punt inside the 20.

So far this season, the unit has donated $630 and counting.

The CARTER

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM
Capacity: 46,000

The 2012 season opener against Grambling State marked the re-opening of TCU's Amon G. Carter Stadium after a $164 million rebuild to the site completely funded through donor support.

On Aug. 16, 2010, TCU announced an initial $105 million renovation of the west side and north end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium to better enhance the football fan experience, upgrade amenities and transform the historic Fort Worth icon into the "Camden Yards" of collegiate football stadiums. With the addition of the east side renovation one year later, the total cost of the project rose to $164 million.

Construction began immediately following TCU's final 2010 home game versus San Diego State on Nov. 13, 2010. The historic south tower structure was first removed prior to the implosion of the iconic west side upper deck of the stadium during the morning of Dec. 5, 2010. Following construction, Amon G. Carter Stadium's seating capacity stood at 45,000.

TCU began examining the possibility of renovating its football stadium in 2006 when Luther King, chairman of TCU's Board of Trustees, appointed Clarence Scharbauer, vice chair of the board, to lead a stadium renovation committee. The committee's invaluable work, along with that of TCU administrators, led to a stadium renovation that lifted the historical icon to a level of national visibility on par with the University's championship-winning football team.

It was the first major renovation to Amon G. Carter Stadium, built in 1930, since the upper deck was added in 1956.

2026 RULE CHANGES

Each offseason, college football's rules and regulations are reviewed. The below are three changes that will be in place for the 2026 season.

Fair Catch Kick

The Fair Catch Kick will now allow a receiving team to attempt an uncontested field goal after making a fair catch on an opponent's kick. The head coach must select the Fair Catch Kick before the ball is ready for play, and the decision cannot be changed. The kick will be taken from the spot of the fair catch, with the opposing team lined up 10 yards away. If the kick goes through the uprights, three points will be awarded. If the fair catch occurs as time expires, the team may still attempt the kick as an untimed down.

Targeting Penalties

All targeting fouls that are upheld will include a disqualification for the current game, but the rule will now eliminate the carryover disqualification for fouls in the second half. If a player receives a second targeting foul within the same season, that player is disqualified for the remainder of that game and the first half of the team's next scheduled game within that season. If a player receives a third or subsequent targeting foul within the same season, disqualification for the remainder of the game and that player will receive an automatic one-game suspension in their team's next scheduled game of that season.

Offensive Pass Interference

The penalty for offensive pass interference is being adjusted from 15 yards to 10 yards. The rules reserve 15-yard penalties primarily for Personal Fouls and Unsportsmanlike Conduct. Defensive pass interference will remain a spot foul, with a maximum of a 15-yard penalty.

Unsportsmanlike Conduct Rule

The Unsportsmanlike Conduct rule is being adjusted to give officials more flexibility while continuing to penalize actions that interfere with game administration, taunt opponents, or are abusive, threatening, or demeaning to the game. The list of automatic unsportsmanlike conduct fouls will be reduced to five actions that will be consistently penalized, including gun-violence gestures, throat-slashing or nose-wipe signals, removing a helmet after the ball is dead (with exceptions), dead-ball contact fouls that are unrelated to the game action, and forcibly pushing or pulling an opponent off a pile after the ball is dead.

Human Performance CENTER

TCU'S HUMAN PERFORMANCE CENTER

Situated around the brand new Mike and Brenda Harrison Football Performance Center (above) which includes the Jamal Powell Strength Room as well as the Simpson Family Restoration Center (right), TCU's brand new Human Performance Center is a $50 million, 50,000-square-foot symbol of our relentless pursuit of excellence.

As Coach Dutch Meyer said...

Fight 'em till hell freezes over.
Then fight'em on the ice!

Inside the Harrison Performance Center, TCU football players have access to the latest in weight room technology engineered for efficiency and intensity. Outside, the Horned Frog Fuel Station fuels performance while the Lunar iDXA machine and DEXA scanners provide data-backed performance insights. The center also features an indoor track and heated yoga studio.

The Simpson Family Restoration Center is where the Horned Frogs begin their post-practice recovery at the hydrotherapy "lazy river" which is kept between 45 and 55 degrees for a walking lap path immediately off the practice field. The car wash preps each player after their practice equipment has been removed.

Fitting to Coach Meyer's famous rallying cry, the restoration center also includes a recovery room that houses hydro massage pods, a traditional steam sauna, infrared therapy beds, and the only Snow Room (right) in north America. Each day, the room fills with snow to provide the most unique contrast therapy experience anywhere in collegiate or professional sports.

It must been seen and experienced to be believed.

KEY

In an attempt to modernize our roster to provide more clarity about the makeup of the Horned Frogs, we have added four columns to the traditional layout of a roster. The key for those additions is below.
Additionally, the roster format follows the NCAA's new age-based classification system as: Fr., So., Jr., Sr., 5th.

1st: 1st Semester in College | TCU: 1st Season at TCU

DUBLIN, Ireland – After scoring on the opening two possessions, TCU failed to score for the remainder of the game in a 15-10 loss to North Carolina on Saturday night at Aviva Stadium in Ireland.

In his first game as a Horned Frog, Jaden Craig threw for 175 yards and was 20-32. Jeremy Payne led the rushers with 142 yards on 25 attempts.

Max Carroll had a standout game, leading the team with nine tackles defensively along with forcing two fumbles, while Ansel Din-Mbuh added two sacks.

TCU scored a field goal on its first drive before taking it down the field to score a touchdown and give the Frogs a 10-3 lead in the first quarter.

From that point forward, nothing was going for the TCU offense, and UNC slowly creeped ahead.

On its final possession, the Horned Frogs could not connect on fourth down in the red zone and UNC was able to hold the ball for the remainder of the game.

GAME NOTES

- TCU won the toss and chose to defer to the second half.
- TCU lost its streak of scoring at least 28 points in 30 straight non-conference regular season games. It was the second-longest streak by an FBS team in the last 45 seasons. The Horned Frogs also lost their streak of scoring 30 points in season openers for 10 straight years.
- TCU scored for the 421st consecutive game, the second-longest streak in NCAA history behind Florida (473 games).
- The 10 points from TCU are the least scored by the Frogs since Oct. 21, 2023 against Kansas State.
- UNC scored a safety in the second quarter, the first scored by a TCU opponent since Texas on October 3, 2020.
- WR Kari Ashley collected his first career reception.
- LB Max Carroll is the first TCU player to have multiple fumble recoveries in a game since at least 1995.
- Carroll posted a career-high nine tackles
- RB Jon Denman scored fourth touchdown of his career.
- DT Ansel Din-Mbuh had two sacks, the most in his TCU career.
- Dating back to the 2024 season, TCU has had two running backs eclipse 135 rushing yards and both have been Jeremy Payne (174 vs. Cincinnati in 2025)
- WR Jeremy Scott recorded his first reception as a Horned Frog.
- DE John Schobel had first career sack

FORT WORTH – In the first home game of 2026, the TCU football team rolled to a 63-7 victory over Grambling State on a scorching Saturday night at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Quarterback Jaden Craig controlled the game, throwing for 391 yards and four touchdowns with a 77% completion percentage. He found seven receivers, with Kari Ashley leading the way with 119 yards and two scores, both career highs.

On the ground, TCU had eight different rushers total 285 yards on 37 carries. Leading the way was Jeremy Payne with 70 yards on nine attempts, and Craig was right behind him with 53 yards on eight rushes.

Defensively, the Horned Frogs stymied the Tigers' offense, holding them to 210 yards and just 20 yards on the ground. A host of defensive players got involved in the action, with 13 Frogs recording multiple tackles.

TCU opened up the game by waltzing down the field and ending their opening drive with a Major Everhart rush to open up the scoring.

Both teams would have scoring threats in the first, with TCU blocking a GSU chip-shot field goal and the Tigers forcing running back Jeremy Payne to fumble into the end zone, keeping the score at 7-0 after one.

The Frogs' offense found some footing in the second quarter, finding the end zone three times to extend the lead at half to 28-7.

From there, the Horned Frogs continued rolling by tacking on two touchdowns in the third to put the game out of reach.

To add to the final total, TCU would score three fourth quarter touchdowns to post its highest point total since 2017.

FORT WORTH – In the final matchup before Big 12 play, TCU pulled away in the second half en route to a 31-7 win in front of a soldout crowd at Amon G. Carter Stadium on Saturday night.

Jaden Craig was consistent once again, going 21-of-29 for 337 yards and three scores. His favorite target was Ed Small, who had a career-high 164 yards and a score. Kari Ashley also had a productive day, getting 87 yards on five receptions.

On the ground, Jeremy Payne led the way with 86 yards on 24 carries. Joe Pitchford added 26 rushing yards.

The Horned Frogs played defense by committee on Saturday, with Jamel Johnson, Hudson Hooper and Ansel Din-Mbuh all posting seven tackles.

After stopping the Red Wolves on their first possession, TCU marched right down the field to score on its opening possession once again to take a 7-0 lead.

From there, the offenses became stagnant, and the scoreboard wouldn't see action until late in the second quarter when a couple of big plays to Small extended the home-team lead to two touchdowns.

Arkansas State's offense was able to make some noise for the first time all game right after the two-minute warning, utilizing a pair of big pass plays to make the score 14-7 at the half.

Following a goal line stand, TCU embarked on a 99-yard drive that ate up eight minutes of game time to extend the lead back up to two scores.

Following the score, TCU was able to seize control of the game and run out the clock while adding some scores.

GAME NOTES

- The Horned Frogs have scored on the opening possession in every game this season.
- A 99-yard scoring drive in the third quarter is the first 99-yard TD drive for the Frogs since they did so against Kansas in 2021.
- TCU has allowed just 29 points through three games, the lowest opponent point total in the first three games since 2014 (21 points).
- Arkansas State QB Trey Owens entered the game completing 72.3% of his passes, against TCU he had a percentage of just 46%.
- Kari Ashley caught his third touchdown pass of the season, and of his career.
- TCU tight ends have accounted for five of the seven passing touchdowns so far this season.
- John Hoyet Chance's 56-yard punt was the longest of his TCU career.
- He averaged 52.7 yards per punt, the second-highest punting average by a Frog since Joey Biasatti did so in 2001 (52.8; 5-264).
- Jaden Craig posted his second consecutive 300-yard passing game, going 21-29 for 337 yards and three scores.
- Koron Hayward posted a sack for the second straight game.
- Hudson Hooper had a career-high seven tackles, the first time he has led TCU in tackles.
- Nate McCashland made his first field goal attempt of the season, a 29-yarder, in the fourth quarter.
- Jeremy Payne scored his first touchdown of the season by way of a three-yard rush in the first quarter.
- Ka'Morreun Pimpton Found the end zone for the second straight game and the second time this season thanks to a nine-yard pass from Craig.
- Ed Small had 164 yards receiving, which is a career high. The mark is the most since Eric McAlister had 254 against SMU last season.

ORLANDO – TCU couldn't get much going offensively and were setback by penalties and turnovers in a 21-13 loss to UCF on Saturday afternoon at Acrisure Bounce House.

Jaden Craig was 25-40 for 310 yards, but threw two interceptions. Jordan Dwyer made his return for the Frogs and eclipsed 100 yards in the loss. On the ground, TCU mustered just 33 yards.

The defense played well and were led by Jamel Johnson who had 10 tackles. The Knights were held under 300 yards and just posted 160 through the air.

UCF opened the scoring by taking advantage of an opening drive fumble by the Frogs to take a 7-0 lead. TCU wouldn't waste much time to generate a response though, quickly moving down the field thanks to a deep ball to Jordan Dwyer and Payne punched it in to tie it.

After the defenses stood tall for the ensuing possessions, the Frogs were finally able to gain the lead by way of a field goal midway through the second quarter.

The TCU advantage was short-lived, however, as the Knights moved right down the field to find the end zone and the lead.

In the third quarter, TCU controlled 9:45 of game action on a 15-play drive that ended in a field goal to cut the lead to just one entering the fourth.

Following with the theme of the game, UCF found a response by finding the end zone early in the final stanza to extend its lead to eight.

Driving late but facing a third-and-long, an errant pass from Craig ended up in the hands of the UCF defender to all-but-seal the contest.

FORT WORTH – On a rainy Saturday night at Amon G. Carter Stadium, TCU played alongside No. 9 BYU for all four quarters but ultimately fell 17-10 in a defensive battle.

Jaden Craig had 187 yards through the air, and Jeremy Payne led the Horned Frogs with 77 yards on the ground. Kari Ashley posted 108 yards receiving to lead TCU once again.

Defensively, TCU held BYU to just 216 total yards and 62 yards through the air. Hudson Hooper led all Frogs with eight tackles, and Paul Oyewale posted six.

The game started slow on both sides in a consistent drizzle of rain as both defenses stood strong and held the other side scoreless in the first quarter. BYU was able to be the first to break through, capitalizing off a long interception return to find the end zone and take the early lead.

TCU's offense finally found some life late in the second, embarking on a 76-yard drive that ended in an Ashley 13-yard reception to tie the game going into halftime.

In the third quarter, the defense's continued to shine, but BYU was able to add a field goal to hold a three-point lead entering the fourth.

The Frogs' offense continued to struggle, missing opportunities in solid field position to seize the game. BYU added a late touchdown, and TCU failed to recover the onside kick after a field goal to end the game.
