The University

Brown University, the nation's seventh oldest, is entering its third century this year while engaged in the largest physical and academic development program of its long history.

In the last decade, the value of the university's physical plant has doubled — and so has the endowment — while the annual operating budget has tripled. Academic growth does not lend itself to measurement by such convenient yardsticks, but here, too, Brown's recent acceleration has been great.

Despite its growing campus and its growing strength as a national university, Brown remains the smallest of the Ivy League schools in terms of undergraduate men. There are about 2,400 men enrolled in the college, comprising about 54 per cent of the university's total student body. There are about 1,025 undergraduate women enrolled in Pembroke College and about 1,100 students enrolled in the expanding graduate school.

Brown came into existence in March of 1764, twelve years before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, when the Rhode Island colonial legislature approved the charter of what was at first called Rhode Island College. The name was changed to Brown in 1804 in honor of a major benefactor, Nicholas Brown of Providence.

The tiny institution was located in Warren, R. I., until 1770, when the college was moved to its present site on College Hill in Providence. During the Revolution the college's only building, called The College Edifice, was used to quarter the colonial militia units that flocked to Providence after Newport, thirty miles downstream on Narragansett Bay, was occupied by the British. Later the building also served as a hospital and barracks for the French troops of Rochambeau, who had come to America to help in the fight for independence.

When the war was won, The College Edifice was returned to college use, and it has remained so ever since. Now named University Hall, the building, which houses the principal administrative offices of the university, is a National Historic Landmark.

The charter of the university speaks of Brown's role in "preserving in the community a succession of men duly qualified for discharging the offices of life with usefulness and reputation." In the early days, the emphasis at Brown, as at all other colonial colleges, was on educating young men for the ministry. Today Brown's purposes are far broader, but are still attuned to the Charter goal of producing graduates "of usefulness and reputation."

More than 75 per cent of those who are graduated from the college continue their studies at graduate or professional schools, thus suggesting the degree to which Brown has adapted itself to an era of rapidly expanding knowledge.

As Barnaby C. Keeney, president of the university, has said:

"At a rate never even approximated before, man is examining his universe and learning more about it. He is learning too that there are new adjustments which result from this multitude of new facts, that he must know and comprehend much to accomplish little. All this is part of the permanent challenge which faces our universities, and Brown enters her third century aware of this challenge. It is our job to see to it that we are ever better prepared to meet it.

"In its two centuries Brown has changed greatly, but has remained steadfast in its purpose. It is today a coherent, dynamic university dedicated to its complementary purposes of education and increasing the store of knowledge. We face our third century, which promises to be a dramatic, dynamic, and perhaps decisive era in man's development, with hope and confidence that we can continue to seek the accomplishment of these 'valuable ends,' as the authors of the charter described them, and may come closer, as time passes, to their full achievement."

HEAD COACH

JOHN J. McLAUGHRY

Brown Record: Won 9, Lost 32, Tied 3

Overall Record: Won 70, Lost 61, Tied 8

John J. McLaughry, outstanding Brown athlete in the late 30's, its football captain in 1939, and president of his senior class, is beginning his sixth season as head football coach.

As an undergraduate, he played three years of varsity football after serving as captain of his freshman eleven. In addition, he was university boxing champion all four years, won three varsity track letters and was named to the All-American collegiate track squad as a hammer thrower. He quarterbacked the East team in the East-West Shrine game and was co-captain of the 1940 Eastern College All-Stars, the first collegiate team to defeat the New York Giants.

He played professionally as quarterback for the Giants in 1940 and entered the service in 1941. He was discharged as a first lieutenant from the Marine Corps in 1946 and his service included two and a half years as a line officer in the Pacific Theater.

McLaughry began his coaching career the same year as an assistant at the University of Connecticut and moved on to Union College as head coach in 1947. At Union his teams won 17 games, lost six and tied one in three seasons, going undefeated in 1949.

In 1950 he became head coach at Amherst, where he compiled a nine-year record of 44 victories, 23 losses and four ties. His 1953 team was undefeated and included Brown among its victims.

John is married and has three children.

THE ASSISTANTS:

MILTON J. PIEPUL
Backfield Coach

The veteran of the Brown staff in point of service, Milt also is one of the old-timers in the Ivy League, having served 11 years under John McLaughry's father at Dartmouth before coming to Brown in 1955. He is an excellent teacher, a fact underlined by the development of Frank Finney, an unheralded member of the 1955 Brown freshman team, into the Ivy League's top quarterback in '58. A smashing offensive fullback and a strong linebacker at Notre Dame, Milt captained the Irish in 1940 and then played a year of professional football with the Detroit Lions before entering the coaching ranks at Cathedral High School in Indianapolis. He joined the Dartmouth staff in 1943 under Earl Brown and stayed on through Tuss McLaughry's regime at Hanover. Milt is married and has four children.

RICHARD M. GOWEN
Line Coach

A native of Amesbury, Mass., Gowen played under John's father and Piepul on the strong Dartmouth teams of the late 40's. A midterm graduate in 1950, Dick actually began his coaching career as an assistant freshman coach at Dartmouth in 1949 when his eligibility expired. He joined the Amherst staff when the younger McLaughry took over as head coach there in the fall of 1950 and has been John's right-hand man ever since. A strong believer in football fundamentals and an excellent teacher of the techniques of line play. He is single.

WILLIAM E. NARDUZZI

End Coach

Narduzzi joined McLaughry's staff in 1963 as a replacement for Jack Zilly, who was appointed head coach at the University of Rhode Island. A native of East Canton, Ohio, he won 11 varsity letters in four sports in high school and became a star lineman at Miami (Ohio) University in the late 50s. At Miami, he played under Ara Parseghian, present Notre Dame coach, and John Pont, now head coach at Yale. A strong and versatile player, he was a tackle as a sophomore, a guard as a junior, and was voted the team's outstanding lineman as an end in his senior season. After being graduated from Miami in 1959, Narduzzi coached at high schools in Cleveland and was freshman line coach at Pittsburgh before coming to Brown. He is married and has one child.

ALEX F. NAHIGIAN

Assistant Coach

Currently serving his 16th season as a member of the Brown staff, Alex is the lone holdover from the regimes of Rip Engle, Gus Zitrides and Al Kelley. A graduate of Holy Cross, '42, Nahigian played football there until an injury ended his grid career, and was an outstanding baseball player for three seasons. After graduation he played pro ball in the New England League for several seasons. He has been associated with the Pawtucket school system since 1942 as a teacher and coach, though his football coaching has been restricted to Brown since 1949. A versatile man, he coaches the varsity baseball team at Providence College in the spring. Alex is regarded as one of the best scouts in collegiate football today. He is married and the father of three daughters.

PHILIP E. COEN

Assistant Line Coach

Named to varsity staff this year after serving as Brown's freshman line coach the last six seasons. A native of Newport, R. I., he was an All-State guard in his senior year at Rogers High School and won three varsity football letters at Boston College, from which he was graduated in 1951. He was an All-New England choice in each of his last two seasons, captained the Eagles as a senior and gained honorable mention All-America. He is a teacher at Barrington High School and coached that school's basketball team to the Class C championship the last two years.

The Prospects for '64

LETTERMEN RETURNING: 21

STARTERS RETURNING: 6 — LE Bob Seiple, RT Harry Leszchyn, C Ralph Duerre, RE John Parry, QB Jim Dunda, FB John Kelly.

STARTERS LOST: 5 — LT Tony Matteo, LG John Miles, RG Gerry Bucci, LH Jan Moyer, RH Bill Lemire.

NOTE: Bob Hall, the starting quarterback before he was injured at mid-season, is also returning but probably will play left halfback.

By JOHN J. McLAUGHRY

For the first time since coming to Brown I can truthfully feel optimistic about the forthcoming football season. The Ivy League race is going to be extremely hard fought right down to the last game, and there are at least five of our opponents who can field topnotch teams. However, it is my opinion that, barring unforseen attrition and more than our share of bad luck, Brown could be a contender in the Ivy League race.

Although we will not have the quality depth of most of the other teams, I feel we can field a first-rate offensive team and a capable defensive eleven. Most of the League expects to use a three-platoon system, a la Chinese Bandits of a few years ago. I know we cannot do this but we will be suited for a two-platoon arrangement with a few spares who can fill in. The rules are such that everyone must be capable of playing both ways, but in most situations defensive or offensive groups can be used as the situation demands.

On the plus side of the ledger, we expect to have a passing attack that will be second to none in the League. With Dunda and Hall throwing and Parry, Seiple, Carr and Hall receiving, good yardage should accumulate via the airways. The running attack is somewhat of a question. We'll be strong at fullback with Kelly leading a capable group, but we'll lack depth, experience and ability at the halfbacks once below the first team. It is hoped, however, that with bigger backs available, our ground attack will be improved over last year and become a good complement to the passing. The offensive line will not be especially strong, but its hustle should make up for some lack of ability and size.

Defensively we'll have a good secondary, featuring a veteran trio at the deep spots, Walsh, Carcieri, and Peters plus capable fill-ins and one good set of linebackers led by Duerre. Behind this we'll be very thin. The end squad will be tough defensively and should hold its own against any competition. Our weakness will be in the interior line, where we lack size in the experienced personnel, and quickness and experience in the larger men. Most of our opponents will be bigger than we are both offensively and defensively, but this weakness will be most noticeable in our defensive line squad.

Brown's offense will be a wide-open one, and the defense will feature many variations. I think the season will be an exciting one from beginning to end. With a little good luck for a change, we might surprise some of the experts.

Analysis By Positions

THE LINE

ENDS: Plenty of skill and depth here with last year's entire group intact, headed by five lettermen — John Parry, Bob Seiple, Rich O'Toole, Ron Ferraris and Chuck Gardinier. Parry, holder of six Ivy and five Brown pass-receiving records, and Seiple ranked one-two in the league last fall with 37 and 28 catches, respectively. Holdovers Bill Sudell, Bob Taylor and Paul Ryan along with sophs Tom Stranko and Joe Randall will provide competition and depth.

TACKLES: There are several 'ifs' at this position. Co-captain Tony Matteo has graduated and junior Andy McNeil is ineligible. Three returning lettermen — Harry Leszchyn, Allan Kirkman and Bill Earle — will be joined by juniors Ackley Blocher, Alan Miller and Howie Miller, the latter a transfer student, and sophs Albin Moser, Frank Langworth and Jim Emberg. John Gagnon, returning to school after a year's absence, also could help. Much will depend on how fast several of these untested men develop.

GUARDS: Perhaps the key to the whole line, for both of last year's first-stringers — Co-capt. Gerry Bucci and John Miles — must be replaced. However, there is some experience and good potential in returnees Terry Zerngast, Paul Coughlan, Warren Fitzgerald, Neill Anderson and Paul Buscemi. Additional help is expected from sophs Bob O'Day and Jim Daniels.

CENTERS: Everybody's back at this spot, led by iron-man Ralph Duerre, who logged 399 minutes of action last fall. The backup men here will be Clark Hopson, John Carroll, Al Gollatz and sophomore Terry Boyle.

THE BACKFIELD

QUARTERBACKS: There are happy problems here with two top-grade offensive quarterbacks in Jim Dunda and Bob Hall. In order to take advantage of Hall's running ability, he will be used considerably at left halfback. Senior Don Carcieri, a sound offensive and defensive player, and sophomore Win Jessup will add strength and depth to this important position.

HALFBACKS: The shifting of Hall to left and the promise shown by Bill Carr during the latter part of the '63 season are expected to offset the loss of three-year lettermen Jan Moyer and Bill Lemire. Defensive specialists Bill Peters and Terry Walsh along with sophomores John Hutchinson, Dave Olson, Jim Fanning and Sherril Moyer provide the position with adequate depth and balance.

FULLBACKS: Another solid position with two returning lettermen — John Kelly and Pete Thorbahn — and two good sophomores, Neal Weinstock and Jack Fowler, available. Kelly, who missed the last half of the '63 season after suffering a broken leg, is a hard runner, excellent blocker and good defensive player. Weinstock, the Cubs' leading ground-gainer and scorer, may also be used at halfback. Fowler will play mostly on defense.

Another sophomore who is being counted on to help the tackle situation . . . a rangy boy with fine pursuit . . . freshman coach Charlie Markham tabbed him the finest tackle prospect he's had at Brown and the best tackle among the Ivy freshman teams last year.

GUARDS

Neill E. ANDERSON Jr. 20 6-1 195 Fulton, N. Y.

An outstanding defensive guard who should be even more effective this season because of added weight . . . earned letter as a sophomore . . . will play mike man in defensive line.

Paul BUSCEMI Jr. 20 5-10 200 Chicago, Ill.

A durable, mobile guard who came on strong toward the close of the '63 season . . . will play left guard on offense.

Paul F. COUGHLAN Sr. 20 5-9 195 North Quincy, Mass.

A two-year letterman who played 115 minutes last season . . . very strong for his size and possesses good pursuit . . . plays on right side.

Warren D. FITZGERALD Sr. 20 6-0 210 North Easton, Mass.

A steady performer who gained valuable experience last fall . . . has the size and ability to win starting position at left guard . . . won letter last year with 83 minutes playing time.

Robert C. O'DAY Soph 19 5-10 200 Quincy, Mass.

A two-way player who has quick reactions and good range . . . played middle linebacker and called signals on defense for freshman team . . . elected frosh captain . . . expected to push varsity veterans for starting berth at right guard.

Terry J. ZERNGAST Jr. 19 5-11 188 Ottumwa, Iowa

A tough, well-coordinated athlete who earned a letter as a sophomore with 143 minutes playing time . . . strong and quick, a good blocker, has great pursuit . . . has a real zest for the game . . . the man to beat out for the right-guard position.

CENTERS

John M. CARROLL Sr. 21 6-1 200 Warwick, R. I.

Used chiefly to center on punts the last two seasons but is expected to see more action this fall . . . a good blocker and steady all-around player.

Ralph E. DUERRE (Co-capt.) Sr. 21 6-2 200 Tenafly, N. J.

A two-year letter-winner who became the team's heavy-duty man last season when injuries depleted the center squad . . . led the team in minutes played with 399, an average of 50 per game . . . good blocker, plays linebacker on defense . . . a durable boy with lots of desire.

Clark N. HOPSON Jr. 20 6-0 210 Glen Ridge, N. J.

Another player who was hampered by injuries last season . . . a sound offensive center who blocks well and a good linebacker to boot . . . holds school record for the discus throw.

QUARTERBACKS

Donald L. CARCIERI Sr. 21 6-1 180 East Greenwich, R. I.

James W. FANNING Soph 20 5-10 177 Cincinnati, Ohio

Third leading ground-gainer on the freshman team with 133 yards in 45 carries . . . also effective as pass receiver (5 for 63 yards) and on punt and kickoff returns . . . will play right halfback.

Robert F. HALL Jr. 21 6-1 180 Walpole, Mass.

Rated as the most exciting and talented sophomore in the league by Ivy coaches . . . named to coaches' second All-Ivy team despite the fact that he suffered a broken leg shortly after midseason . . . being shifted from quarterback to left halfback to take advantage of his versatility as a runner and passer . . . completed 50 of 105 passes for 461 yards and four touchdowns . . . ran for 173 yards and three touchdowns . . . was fifth in Ivy total offense, third in passing . . . No. 1 catcher on the Brown baseball team.

John W. HUTCHINSON Soph 19 5-9 185 Hopedale, Mass.

Second leading ground-gainer with the freshmen with 280 yards in 62 carries . . . has speed and knows how to use it . . . also a good blocker and defensive player . . . will play left halfback.

David L. OLSON Soph 19 5-11 175 Rolling Hills, Calif.

A rugged back who can go both ways . . . fourth leading rusher with the Cubs with a 4.7 average . . . certain to see considerable action . . . will play left halfback.

William C. PETERS Jr. 20 5-9 175 Middletown, R. I.

Tough and versatile best describe this squat back . . . played every backfield position as a freshman and took turns at three positions as a sophomore last fall . . . a fast, alert defensive back who logged 155 minutes playing time in '63.

W. Terry WALSH Sr. 20 6-1 185 Atlanta, Ga.

A two-year veteran who played 246 minutes last season, mostly on defense . . . launched the Bruins' scoring parade against Penn with a 33-yard runback of a pass interception for a touchdown . . . being shifted from quarterback to right halfback to take advantage of his power running and blocking ability . . . captain-elect of the Brown golf and rugby teams.

FULLBACKS

Jackson E. FOWLER Soph 19 6-0 205 Schenectady, N. Y.

This rugged sophomore will be used almost exclusively on defense . . . has the size, speed, reactions, toughness and football savvy to become a real good corner linebacker.

John J. KELLY Sr. 20 6-0 186 West Warwick, R. I.

A big broth of a lad who was the team's leading ground-gainer through 13 varsity games before suffering a broken leg in the fifth game last season . . . still he wound up as the Bruins' second leading rusher in '63 . . . a strong, keep-em-honest runner and an excellent blocker who makes the rollout option play go . . . a Dean's List student to boot.

Neal S. WEINSTOCK Soph 19 5-10 195 Brooklyn, N. Y.

The leading ground-gainer and scorer on the freshman team with 437 yards and seven touchdowns in seven games . . . has the happy combination of power and speed . . . may see some action at halfback as well as fullback.

PLACE-KICKER

Thomas A. MENNELL Soph 19 6-1 195 Beaver Falls, Pa.

The best place-kicker Brown has had in many years, according to freshman coach Charlie Markham . . . has confidence to go with his ability . . . thrives on pressure . . . made two field goals and 11 PATs for the Cubs.

Brown Offense for '64

By John J. McLaughry

There will be no change in our basic wing-T formation this season we will continue to use more spreads, with either or both ends split up to eight yards and the right halfback occasionally flanked up to 10 yards. This will enable us to take better advantage of our many receivers and we hope will put more pressure on the defense. Overall, our attack should show a better balance between the passing and running games.

1964 PROSPECTS

Lettermen Lost: 12 Lettermen Returning: 18

Back on the Brown schedule for the first time in 22 years, Lafayette will bring a veteran team to Brown Field, one that includes eight starters among the 18 returning lettermen . . . Only one non-letterman, junior end Dave Brown, appears to have a chance at a starting berth . . . Adequate depth will be the Leopards' biggest problem since their second and third units will be dominated by sophomores . . . The big man in Coach Ken Bunn's multiple-T offense is senior quarterback George Hossenlopp, who completed 70 passes last season for 824 yards and five touchdowns . . . He has several fine receivers in Gabe Washo, John Meeks, John Darr and Brown . . . Sophomore backs Doug MacNeill, Scott Johnson, Bill Vonroth and Tom Aitken should add much-needed punch to the Leopards' running game, which accounted for only 520 yards last fall . . . Passing still will be Lafayette's strong suit.

1964 PROSPECTS

Lettermen Lost: 16 Lettermen Returning: 15

Last-place Quakers continue to have rebuilding problems with 16 lettermen lost by graduation . . . Coach John Stiegman will use both single wing and T formations this fall in an attempt to exploit fully the offensive potential of his personnel . . . Halfback Bruce Molloy, the team's leading rusher and the Ivy League's best punter last year, is Penn's top back . . . Passing strength is expected from sophomore Tom Kennedy.

GAME NOTES

Brown ran up its highest point total in Ivy League history in routing the Quakers, 41-13 . . . Terry Walsh started the parade with a 33-yard runback of a pass-interception in the first period . . . Soph quarterback Bob Hall scored one TD and passed to Bob Seiple for another . . . Brown fullbacks John Kelly, Frank Antifonario and Pete Thorbahn accounted for the other TDs . . . It was Brown's first victory over Penn in six years . . . Penn scored both its touchdowns within the last three minutes of the second quarter, the second one coming on a 29-yard pass on the final play of the half.

The Elis finished strong in '63 — John Pont's first season — winning four of their last six games . . . Defense was their strong point and it should be the same story this season . . . Sophomore help is expected at tackle from Bob Greenlee and Don Koerlin and look for quarterback Pete Doherty and halfback Tim Weigel to spruce up the Elis' attack.

GAME NOTES

Soph quarterback Bob Hall enjoyed the first of his many fine games in the Bowl as he ran and passed the Elis into submission, 12-7 . . . Hall capped a 43-yard drive in the first period by scoring on a three-yard keeper around left end . . . Then after Yale had gone ahead, 7-6, in the closing seconds of the same period, Hall delivered the winning TD on an eight-yard pass to Bob Seiple.

The Indians have several key men to replace, notably quarterback Dana Kelly and halfback Tom Spangenberg, but Coach Bob Blackman still has a healthy bunch of braves on hand . . . The Big Green line will be typically tough, anchored by center Bob Komives and guard Ted Bracken . . . Veteran halfback Jack McLean will be joined by sophomores Paul Klungness, Andy Danver, Tommy Thompson and Jim Menter . . . Soph Mickey Beard has a good shot at starting qb post.

GAME NOTES

A frantic closing bid by the Bruins to snap Dartmouth's 13-game winning streak fell inches short in the final period as Bob Hall's pass headed for the waiting arms of John Parry near the goal line was deflected at the last second . . . Brown caught fire after Dartmouth had taken a 14-0 lead on the second of two touchdowns by Dana Kelly early in the fourth period . . . Hall drove the Bruins 68 yards to their first score (a 13-yard pass to Parry) . . . Then after recovering an onside kick, Brown was knocking on the door again, only to miss by inches.

1964 PROSPECTS

Lettermen Lost: 8 Lettermen Returning: 22

The 1963 Rams grew stronger as they went along during their first season under Coach Jack Zilly, winning their last three games . . . With 22 of 30 lettermen returning, Zilly is hopeful that his Rams can pick up where they left off, but the familiar rebuilding problems of lack of experienced depth and balance still persist . . . Rhody will be strong in the interior line and at halfback, but Zilly may have to do some juggling to shore up weak spots at end and quarterback.

GAME NOTES

The Bruins scored in every period as they rolled up their biggest margin against Rams in five years . . . Fullback Frank Antifonario, who took over for John Kelly after the latter suffered a broken leg in the first quarter, led the Brown assault with three touchdowns . . . Bob Hall scored one and Bill Carr tallied the final TD on a 50-yard pass from Jim Dunda . . . Manny Abilheira scored URI's lone TD on a 95-yard runback of an intercepted pass late in the final quarter.

1964 PROSPECTS

Lettermen Lost: 12 Lettermen Returning: 22

The Nassau Tigers, who shared the Ivy crown with Dartmouth last season, have been picked to lead the pack again, with Yale as their co-tenant this fall . . . All-America fullback Cosmo Iacavazzi heads a strong vanguard of 22 lettermen that gives Coach Dick Colman good balance at every position . . . The Tiger coach sees quarterback and wingback as his chief problem spots.

GAME NOTES

Disaster struck the Brown squad for the second time in two weeks as quarterback Bob Hall suffered a broken leg in the first quarter . . . The Bruins were in a state of shock for the remainder of the half as Princeton took a 13-0 lead on touchdowns by Iacavazzi . . . The Tigers made it 20-0 in the third period before Jim Dunda completed two long drives with scoring tosses to John Parry, closing the gap to 20-13 . . . But in the final eight minutes the Tigers scored twice more.

1964 PROSPECTS

Lettermen Lost: 12 Lettermen Returning: 19

Coach Tom Harp has 19 lettermen on hand but he'll have to go some to find an adequate replacement for quarterback Gary Wood, who terrorized Big Red rivals the last three years . . . Junior Marty Spoonaugle will step into this unenviable spot . . . The Cornell attack will rely more on the running of its halfbacks and fullback than on its passing and Lonely End setup . . . With 14 letter-winners returning in the line, the Big Red ground game and defense should be formidable.

GAME NOTES

The Bruins had victory snatched from their grasp in the final 25 seconds when the incomparable Wood drove Cornell 68 yards in a little more than two minutes for the winning touchdown . . . In a see-saw battle, Brown went ahead, 35-21, with 2:55 remaining . . . But with the seconds ticking off the clock, Wood hit Bill Ponzer with a five-yard pass for the winning TD . . . Pete Thorbahn scored twice for Brown . . . Jim Dunda scored once and passed for another TD.

1964 PROSPECTS

Lettermen Lost: 18 Lettermen Returning: 17

The Crimson's graduation losses were the heaviest in the league, but shed no tears for Coach John Yovicsin . . . Harvard has had two fine freshman teams back to back to provide sufficient material to make the Cantabs serious contenders for the Ivy title . . . Senior guard John Hoffman anchors a strong interior line . . . Senior Tom Bilodeau is being counted on to solve the quarterback problem . . . The remainder of the backfield is well fortified with sophomores Pat Conway and Bobby Leo joining veterans John Dockery, Wally Grant and Dave Poe.

GAME NOTES

Harvard's well-balanced attack trumped a dazzling passing display by Jim Dunda as the Crimson scored a 24-12 victory . . . Tom Bilodeau scored twice. Scott Harshbarger once and John Hartranft added six points on a field goal and three PATs . . . Dunda, who completed 14 of 35 passes for 246 yards, hit John Parry and Jan Moyer with touchdown tosses of 23 and 44 yards.

1964 PROSPECTS

Lettermen Lost: 8 Lettermen Returning: 12

The Lions will have more depth and experience to go with their talented senior quarterback, Archie Roberts, this year with lettermen returning at every position . . . Coach Buff Donelli sees a close parallel with this team and the 1961 champion . . . Leading veterans are fullback Ed Malmstrom, center Jack Strauch and end Bob Donohue . . . Top sophomore candidates are guards Terry Mulvihill and Dick Flory and halfback Rick Ballantine.

GAME NOTES

Archie Roberts had a field day as the Lions opened with a 41-14 triumph over the Bruins . . . He passed for four touchdowns and scored the other two on a 56-yard punt return and a 15-yard end run . . . Bob Hall passed for one Brown TD and John Kelly scored the other . . . This will mark the first time since 1951 that Brown and Columbia meet in the final game of the season.

NOTEWORTHY PERFORMANCE

In 1942, Bob Margarita, who later starred for the Chicago Bears, performed the unusual feat of gaining 100 yards or more in three consecutive games. His three-game total of 529 yards was tops in the nation at that point in the season and was achieved on 75 rushes, for an average of 7.0 per carry.

The game-by-game rundown:

Oct. 3, 1942 vs. Rhode Island	120 yards
Oct. 10, 1942 vs. Columbia	233 yards
Oct. 17, 1942 vs. Lafayette	176 yards
Total	529 yards

Note: Margarita's 1942 season total of 693 yards is still an all-time Brown record.

Brown's Roll of Honor

NATIONAL HALL OF FAME

JOHN W. HEISMAN, '91

An outstanding football and baseball player at Brown from 1887 to 1889, John William Heisman became one of the leading coaches and a dominant personality in intercollegiate football during the ensuing 45 years until his death in 1936. After obtaining his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania, he launched a football coaching career at Oberlin College that extended through a long series of successes at Akron, Alabama Poly, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Penn, Washington and Jefferson and Rice. He did much to "open up" the game by use of the forward pass and the shifting line. At Georgia Tech, where he coached for 16 years, his teams of 1915-16-17 won 25 straight and rolled up 1,129 points to their opponents' 61. After retiring from coaching he became Physical Director of the Downtown Athletic Club of New York and was one of the founders and first president of the Touchdown Club. In his honor, the Downtown A. C. established the Heisman Trophy, which is presented annually to the outstanding collegiate football player in the nation. Born in Cleveland, Oct. 23, 1869, he died on Oct. 3, 1936.

DeORMOND (Tuss) McLAUGHRY

A 55-year association with football as player, coach and administrator was duly acknowledged in December, 1962, when Tuss McLaughry was inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame. From the day he played his first football game at Sharon, Pa., High School in 1907, Tuss and football were inseparable, except for distinguished service in World War II. A standout player at Michigan State and Westminster, he began his coaching career at the latter college in 1915. He coached four years at Amherst, 1922-25, and his last team there was the highest scoring team in the history of the Little Three. He then moved to Brown, where he guided the famed Iron Men of 1926 to the only undefeated season in the school's history. His 1928 and 1932 teams lost only one game. Before leaving Brown for Dartmouth in 1941, he had the pleasure of coaching his son, John, present Bruin coach. Later at Dartmouth another son, Bob, played for him. His 1948 and 1949 teams were the first in Dartmouth's history to win six major games. He coached East squads in the San Francisco Shrine game four times, the New York All-Star Game in 1940 and the Chicago All-Star Game in 1947. After retiring from coaching in 1954, Tuss continued to serve the American Football Coaches Association as secretary-treasurer, a post he has held from 1940 to the present. He now resides in Norwich, Vt.

FREDERICK DOUGLAS (Fritz) POLLARD, '16

Probably the greatest player ever to perform for Brown, and ranked as one of the greatest Negro players ever to perform in college ranks, Fritz Pollard was the star of Brown's 1915 team which played in the first official Rose Bowl game (1916), and the '16 team which compiled an 8-1 record and ranks among the University's best. Walter Camp, whose All-American selections are regarded as the last word for the era he covered, ranked Pollard as "one of the greatest runners these eyes have ever seen." In 1916 he scored all three touchdowns as Brown handed Yale its lone defeat of the season, 21-6, and scored two and set up the other in the 21-0 victory against Harvard. Born in Chicago January 27, 1894, Pollard presently resides in New York City.

Brown's Roll of Honor

EDWARD NORTH ROBINSON, '96

If any man deserves recognition as "the father of Brown football," it is Edward North Robinson. His influence spans more than a quarter of a century — from 1892, when he entered Brown and helped put the game on a sound basis as an undergraduate, to 1925 when he wound up an illustrious coaching career that covered 24 seasons at his alma mater. He won nine letters in his playing days, four in football. But more important was his activity in helping the grid game take root when baseball was THE sport at Brown. He served three separate terms as head coach, the last covering 16 years, and won 140 games against 82 losses and 12 ties at a time when Eastern football was undisputedly the nation's best, and Brown was often called upon to meet the top grid powers with undermanned forces.

Born in Lynn, Mass. on October 15, 1873, he died on March 10, 1945. His coaching record at Brown follows:

Years	W	L	T	Pct.	PF	PA
1898-1901	24	17	3	.580	524	532
1904-1907	26	15	0	.634	742	191
1910-1925	90	50	9	.634	2255	1100
TOTALS	140	82	12	.624	3521	1823

W. WALLACE WADE, '17

A member of the 1915 Brown team that played Washington State in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1916, Wally Wade earned a place among the great coaches of American intercollegiate football during an illustrious career that spanned 40 years. After serving his apprenticeship as a high school coach and an assistant at Vanderbilt, he took over the head-coaching reins at Alabama in 1923 and built the Crimson Tide into a major football power, winning 61 of 74 games and taking three of his teams to the Rose Bowl. Moving to Duke University in 1931, he sent two Blue Devil squads to the Rose Bowl and compiled a record of 110 victories, 36 losses and 10 ties through 1950, when he retired to become the Commissioner of the Southern Conference. In addition to his achievements in the field of coaching, he distinguished himself in service during two World Wars. He interrupted his tenure at Duke at the age of 53 to serve as a lieutenant colonel in the artillery during World War II, taking part in several major battles in the European Theatre. Wally was born in Trenton, Tennessee on June 15, 1892. Now retired from his Southern Conference post, he operates his 120-acre livestock farm near Durham, N. C.

THE IRON MEN

Beside being the only undefeated team in Brown history, the 1926 team earned even greater fame as the "Iron Men," so-called because the starting 11 played 60 minutes without substitution on consecutive weeks against Yale and Dartmouth, and well into the fourth quarter against Harvard later in the season. They lost their chance for an undefeated-untied season in the last game when Colgate earned a 10-10 deadlock. The team was ranked among the top 10 nationally. Its members were Captain Hal Broda and Thurston Towle, ends; Ed Kevorkian and Paul Hodge, tackles; Lou Farber and Orland Smith, guards; Charles Considine, center; Red Randall, quarterback; Dave Mishel and Ed Lawrence, halfbacks; and Al Cornsweet, fullback.

Freshman Football

ROBERT M. LITCHARD was appointed varsity wrestling coach and head freshman football coach this summer after compiling an outstanding record in both sports the last three years at Hendrick Hudson High School in Montrose, N. Y. A 1957 Springfield College graduate, he competed in football, wrestling and baseball. He was chosen All-New England tackle in 1955 and second-team All-American first baseman in 1956. At Hudson High his 1962 eleven went undefeated in winning the Westchester County championship and his wrestling teams compiled a 39-3 record for three years, going unbeaten in 1962. He received his Masters Degree in Guidance from Springfield in 1960. He is married to the former Janice Hamm of Ipswich, Mass., and is the father of two children.

JAMES DOUGHERTY, a native of Taft, Calif., is also a newcomer to the Brown staff, having been appointed varsity tennis coach and freshman football backfield coach this summer. He was an outstanding all-around athlete at Taft High School and Junior College and at Chapman College in California. He was a member of Chapman's 1960 basketball team that was runnerup in the NCAA college division championship, an All-West Coast halfback in football and the No. 1 player on the Taft and Chapman tennis teams. Prior to coming to Brown he was backfield coach and varsity tennis coach at Torrance High School in California. He is married to the former Sally McClave of Newtonville, Mass.

The Mascot

That Brown teams are known as the Bears is a matter of design, full credit for which belongs to one of Brunonia's most illustrious sons — Senator Theodore Francis Green '87. Following is a digest of an account he wrote in 1923 on how the bear came to Brown:

"From time to time, like a lot of other Brown men, I had felt the lack of a definite symbol for our college.

"So I set about selecting an appropriate symbol. I wanted something alive, and though not human, such as we endow with humanlike qualities. First of all, I thought our symbol should be a mammal and one of fair size, so as to be capable of portrayal in the graphic and plastic arts impressively and without absurd exaggeration.

"The animal should if feasible be indigenous American to emphasize the sturdy American quality of the college. But above all, our symbol must in some way suggest those elemental qualities which I believe characterize Brown men: strength, independence and courage.

"By process of elimination there emerged a symbol more filling these requirements than one could reasonably have expected — The Brown Bear.

"It is a mammal and the largest on the continent. It has been used heraldically. It is truly American and, most important of all, it embodies and suggests those qualities we want to emphasize. While somewhat unsociable, it is good-natured and clean. While courageous and ready to fight, it does not look for trouble for its own sake, nor is it bloodthirsty. It is not one of a herd but acts independently. It is intelligent and capable of being educated (if caught young enough!) Remember, an athlete can make Phi Beta Kappa. Furthermore the bear's color is brown; and its name is Brown.

"I bided my time. It came when Rockefeller Hall was built. I happened to be one of the Building Committee and on its completion had charge of the furnishing. The central feature of the building was the trophy room and the central feature of the room was the great arch. Here, over the arch, at the central point of student life at Brown, I put a head of a real Brown Bear labeled beyond misinterpretation.

"The building was formally opened January 20, 1904, so that is, I suppose, the bear's birthday.

"The idea caught on at once. The newspapers gladly received the new symbol, and the next fall the students took a live bear as a mascot to the Dartmouth game at Springfield. Songs were written about him, and it was not long before the Brown Bear was so firmly established that in the quick succession of college generations, it was looked upon as a grand old tradition.

"You remember in 'Waverly,' the description of the banquet at Tully-Veolan, when the baron brought out for Waverly a golden goblet in the shape of a rampant bear. 'It represents,' he said, 'the chosen crest of our family — a bear, as ye observe, and rampant; because a herald will depict every animal in its noblest posture.' On the cup was the motto 'Beware the Bear.' "

Bear cub mascots have been appearing on the sidelines at Brown games for many years. They are currently presented to the University by an animal farm, and their care and feeding is entrusted to the Brown Key organization.

Brown Soccer in 1964

By Coach Cliff Stevenson

Stronger defensively and perhaps not as strong offensively as in '63 sum up the prospects for the 1964 season. Coach Cliff Stevenson's '63 Ivy League co-champions lost such blue-chip players as Alan Young, Mike Healy, John Haskell and Bob Spencer and the status of high-scoring Bill Hooks is questionable. But the Bruins of '64 should be in the thick of the Ivy League race again. Returning are center halfback Phil Solomita, an All-American, All-New England and All-Ivy selection, Allan Walsh, All-Ivy goalie, John Myslik, second team All-Ivy, and a host of veterans, including Phil McGuire, Jon Davis, Frank Forsberg, Ian Garriques, Bob Higginbottom, John Krupski, Tom Niederer and Bob Wernersbach. Top sophomore candidates are Dan Umanoff, Gerry Zimmerman, Gary Kaufman, Vic Emerson, John Claflin, Frank Golet, Dick Morrison and Bill Singsen.

Cross Country in '64

By Coach Ivan Fuqua

The loss of one of Brown's all-time track greats, Dave Farley, and Pat O'Donnell, is bound to create problems for Brown's veteran coach, Ivan Fuqua. The Bruin harriers, who won the New England title and were edged out by one point by Cornell in the Heptagonal championship last year, will be built around holdovers Vic Boog, Bob Rothenberg, Bob Woolley and Bill Kinsella. The rest is up to sophomores Bill Burch, Doug Blair, Jim Ackroyd, Dick Bucila and Dave Santry plus returnees Rich Baglow and John Brandon. Depth and balance, rather than individual brilliance, seems to be the answer this fall.

Radio Station WJAR will broadcast all Brown football games (home and away). Chris Barnes will do the play-by-play.

NO NEED TO GET LOST . . .

. . . When Coming To Brown

FROM BOSTON: Follow Route 1 through the Pawtucket Expressway; make an S turn at traffic light at junction of George St. and Pawtucket Ave., turning left on Pawtucket Ave., then a sharp right on East Ave. (very short distance); East Ave. becomes Hope St. at Pawtucket-Providence city line; follow Hope St. past the traffic light at Rochambeau Ave. to Savoy St.; take left on Savoy St. to Brown Field.

FROM WORCESTER: Take Branch Ave. exit off Route 146; follow Branch Ave. to North Main St. (cemetery on left); go directly across North Main St. at light, up Cypress St., crossing Camp, Ivy and Hope Sts. to Morris Ave.; take left on Morris Ave. and right on Sessions St. to the field.

FROM CONNECTICUT (via Route 44): Follow Smith St. (44) past the State Capitol to North Main St.; take left on North Main, bearing right up the hill; take right on Doyle Ave. (third traffic light from top of hill); follow Doyle Ave. to Elmgrove Ave. (bottom of hill); take left on Elmgrove to the field.

FROM NEW YORK AND CONNECTICUT (via Route 6): Follow Route 6 after leaving Roberts Expressway along Westminster, Winter, Lockwood and Friendship Sts. to the Providence River Expressway; after crossing river, take Wickenden St. exit; turn left at first traffic light (Benefit St.); follow Benefit all the way until it joins North Main St.; take right on Doyle Ave. (second traffic light); follow Doyle Ave. up the hill, then all the way to the bottom of hill to Elmgrove Ave.; take left on Elmgrove to the field. (This route is slightly longer but much easier because of the traffic pattern.)

NOTE: Football practice will be conducted this fall at the University's new Aldrich-Dexter athletic field on the corner of Hope St. and Lloyd Ave. (No. 3 on map). FROM BOSTON: Stay on Hope St.; field is just beyond Hope High School (on right) and Moses Brown School (on left), Hope St. bears left beyond the two schools. FROM WORCESTER: Turn right off Cypress St. at Hope St. (School for Deaf on corner) and follow Hope St. to the field. FROM CONNECTICUT (44): Turn right off North Main St. at Olney St.; continue up Olney to Hope St. (traffic light); take right on Hope St. and continue on Hope to Lloyd Ave. FROM NEW YORK AND CONNECTICUT (6): Turn right off Benefit St. up Waterman St. Hill; continue on Waterman St. to Hope St. (fourth traffic light); take left on Hope to the field.
