Series History

The Gauchos claimed a 10-9 advantage in the all-time series with a 9-5 victory back on May 1 at Hardt Field. The Roadrunners are 6-3 all-time at Caesar Uyesaka Stadium. Last season at UCSB, the `Runners were defeated 6-4.

Earlier this month, the Gauchos claimed a 9-5 win in Bakersfield. CSUB had leads of 1-0 and 3-1 in the early going, but UCSB tied the game at 1-1 and 3-3, and scored two runs in the the fifth, a run in the seventh, and two in the eighth against the CSUB bullpen. CSUB used eight pitchers in the nine-inning affair. Isaiah Moten tossed the first two innings and allowed just one run. Aaron Charles took the loss after throwing two innings and allowing two earned runs.

Andrew Penner had two hits and two knocked in, while Noah Barba had two hits and a career-high three runs scored. Ryan Koch also had two RBI to lead the `Runner offense. Catcher Jake Ortega also had a pair of walks.

Scouting the Gauchos

UCSB was picked to finish fourth in the Big West in the conference's preseason poll and currently sit in seventh in the league with an 8-10 record. The Gauchos are coming off of a 3-2 victory against Long Beach State on Sunday, but did lose the series against the Dirtbags. In conference play, UCSB has taken series from Cal State Fullerton and UC Riverside.

In the last meeting between the two ball clubs, designated hitter Andrew Martinez had two hits, a home run and three knocked in from the leadoff spot. Armani Smith also had three RBI and a long ball and scored a pair of runs. Luke Andrews picked up his second win of the season as he tossed 7.1 innings and allowed all five runs. Josh Candau tossed the final 1.2 innings and did not allow a run and struck out a pair.

Last Time Out

The Roadrunners dropped two out of three games at Northern Colorado over the weekend, but still maintain control of their own destiny for the sixth and final spot in the WAC Tournament.

On Friday, CSUB held a 4-1 lead after four innings, but the Bears exploded for seven unanswered runs in the middle innings to earn a 9-5 victory in the series opener. In those middle frames, the Roadrunners had baserunners on first and with nobody out in the fifth, the bases loaded with no outs in the sixth and and men on second and third with one out in the seventh and failed to score in each inning. Meanwhile, the home team scored one in the fifth and three in the sixth and seventh to take an 8-4 lead.

Ryan Koch had three hits, a double and a RBI, while Jake Ortega, Evan Berkey, Sergio Robles and Daniel Carrizosa all had two hits, with Robles blasting his second homer of the season.

CSUB and Northern Colorado both had eight hits each in Saturday's game, but the Bears put the ball over the fence for two solo home runs, which proved to be the difference in a 4-2 loss. The `Runners got a strong start from freshman Davonte Butler as he threw seven innings and allowed four runs.

Just one of CSUB's eight hits came after the fifth inning as starter Kennan Lum settled in and Northern Colorado got perfect outings from a pair of relievers. Andrew Penner had a pair of hits to lead the lineup.

A pair of seniors led the way on Sunday as CSUB won a nailbiter 3-2 to close the series. Naithen Dewsnap pitched 6.2 shutout innings and struck out a career-high nine batters to earn the victory. Dewsnap relieved starter Isaac Meza trailing 2-1 in the third inning with runners on first and second and just one out and escaped the inning unscathed. The senior tossed the final 6.2 innings and allowed just two hits and no earned runs.

The Roadrunners and Bears were all square at 2 entering the ninth inning, but Evan Berkey worked a one-out walk, stole second and Jassen Oliver put the finishing touches on a career day with a double to bring him home. Oliver had three hits on the day to tie his career high and he set a new career-best with two doubles.

Time to Finish Strong

Despite dropping the series to Northern Colorado, the Roadrunners still control their postseason destiny. With three games remaining, CSUB leads UTRGV by one game in the race for the final spot in the six-team tournament. The Vaqueros do hold the tiebreaker over the `Runners because UTRGV won the regular season series 2-1. CSUB's magic number over the Vaqueros is just three, which means any combination of three CSUB wins and UTRGV losses will eliminate the Vaqueros. CSUB needs just one victory over Chicago State this weekend to eliminate the Cougars and Utah Valley from contention.

The Red Snapper Has Returned

After a stint in the weekend rotation, Naithen Dewsnap has returned to his role as CSUB's top reliever. Dewsnap tossed a scoreless eighth inning and struckout two batters in Saturday's 4-2 defeat at Northern Colorado. On Sunday, the senior took the ball from Isaac Meza in the middle of the third inning and went the distance to earn his third victory of the season. Dewsnap's 6.2-inning performance was just one out shy of his career-long and he shattered his previous best in strikeouts with nine. Prior to Sunday, Dewsnap had struck out five batters on two occasions.

For the season, the preseason All-American closer leads the `Runners in ERA (3.55), appearances (19), saves (5), innings pitched (58.1) and strikeouts (56).

Oliver Has Career Day

Senior outfielder Jassen Oliver tied his career-high and set a new career mark with his game-winning double on Sunday. It was Oliver's third hit of the day to match the three hits he had at Utah Valley on April 14 and second double of the afternoon to set a new career mark. Oliver now has eight doubles on the season to tie Andrew Penner for second on the team. Ryan Koch leads the club with nine. For the year, Oliver, who has played all over the outfield this spring without making an error, is hitting .281 with a .363 slugging percentage.

Carrizosa Bounces Back

Freshman shortstop Daniel Carrizosa left Friday's game against Grand Canyon University with what looked to be a nasty knee injury in the field. Carrizosa would miss the rest of the series and the midweek game with Loyola Marymount before returning to the lineup at Northern Colorado. The freshman had hits in all three games in the series including two in the opener. He also played errorless ball in the field in 13 chances and helped CSUB turn four double plays including the game-ender.

Jeremy Beard // Head Coach // Second Season // Oregon State '97

After serving one year as interim head coach, Jeremy Beard was hired as permanent head coach of the Roadrunners in July of 2017.

Beard led the Roadrunners to a resurgence in 2017, as the team turned their record around from a 19-37 record to a 32-24 finish. The Roadrunners finished in third place in the Western Athletic Conference, placed seven players on All-Conference teams and for the third time in five years had a pitcher earn 'Pitcher of the Year' in Max Carter.

Beard came to CSUB after coaching at the University of Portland during the 2014 and 2015 seasons serving as the outfield and hitting coach for 19-year head coach, Chris Sperry. In 2014, Coach Beard was the Head Baseball Coach in the West Coast Collegiate League for the Portland Lobos.

A 20-year coaching veteran, Beard started his career soon after playing at and graduating from Oregon State University in 1997, serving as the head baseball coach at Central Catholic High School (1998-2001) in Portland, Ore.

He quickly returned to the college ranks, becoming the associate athletic director and the associate head coach at Columbia Basin College (Wash.). During a nine-year stint with the Hawks from 2001 to 2010, Beard impacted the college by leading fundraising, community relations, facility projects, academic advising, and game management for the athletic department. He was the lead on raising funds and major gifts in kind for facility projects such as a new soccer facility and a four locker room building among other projects.

As a coach at CBC, Beard served many roles but was primarily the pitching and catching coach, helping the program earn a record of 309-84 (.786) including six conference championships. The Hawks qualified for the NWAC Championship tournament all nine seasons, winning the 2006 championship and finishing in the top five out of 28 teams eight times. The Hawks ranked among the nation's Top 25 teams six times and reached the nation's Top 10 list on three occasions.

Twenty six of Beard's former players have been selected in the Major League Baseball amateur draft including big leaguers, Darrel Ceciliani, Jr. (fourth round, NY Mets) and Steve Ames (17th round, Florida Marlins).

As a relentless recruiter at Columbia Basin College, Beard was called on to double as an associate scout for the Florida Marlins (2003-2004) and the Boston Red Sox (2004-2007) under Jon Booher.

In 2011, Beard joined the NJCAA at Western Nevada College where he served as the pitching coach for two seasons. Upon his arrival, the Wildcats thrived with the best back-to-back seasons in school history, winning 93 games and setting program records for earned run average (2.47), strikeouts (522), and opposing batting average (.209).

The Wildcats claimed the Scenic West Championship in record-breaking fashion in 2011 with a record of 37-3. In 2012, the team won the West Coast Region Championship, earning a trip to the NJCAA World Series in Grand Junction, Co. Over the two-year period, six players, including five pitchers, were selected in the MLB amateur draft including fifth-round selection and current Cleveland Indians top prospect and 40-man roster member, Dylan Baker.

Over the years, 34 of Beard's players were selected in the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft and 62 student-athletes earned a scholarship to play in power conferences around the country.

Beard has proven experience recruiting players in southern and northern California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Hawaii, and the Pacific Northwest.

As a walk-on player at Oregon State University, Beard helped the Beavers claim the Pac-10 North Conference title in 1994 for OSU's legendary coach, Jack Riley. As a starting pitcher, he won nine games and was named the Bill Bonser Award winner, given to the Most Improved Player. A year later, Beard was named a team captain in 1995 for current OSU skipper and future Hall of Famer, Pat Casey.

Prior to his arrival at OSU, Beard was a walk-on at Linn Benton CC, where he served as the program's team captain for Head Coach Greg Hawk. As a two-way player, Beard helped the Roadrunners earn back-to-back championship tournament appearances in 1992 and 1993.
