HELENSKIS HOPE

Georgetown University is proud to participate in Student Athlete Mental Health Week from Sept 30 - Oct 7. This week is a call to action by Hilinskis Hope to raise mental health awareness, destigmatize mental illness, and provide quality resources to our student athletes because Mental Health Matters. To show support during Saturday's game against Fordham, the Hoyas will be wearing a green stickers on the back of their helmets.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

In May, juniors VeRon Garrison and Kaysen Mahuka-Kaawa were named 2023 team captains. This is the first time in program history that two juniors were named captains.

TIY REED PICKED AS NO. 35 RECIPIENT

Graduate student wide receiver Tiy Reed has been selected as the 19th recipient of the No. 35 Joe Eacobacci Memorial Jersey for the 2023 campaign.

Reed is now the third wide receiver to wear the No. 35 jersey alongside Robert Lane (2009) and Brandon Williams (2018).

"It is an honor and it means alot to be in a position to lead this team and to be an anchor for this program," said Reed. " I don't take this responsibility lightly. Coming here in 2019 I understood the potential that this program had and I wanted to stick with it. I know what we can become and what we are about to accomplish. That is why I decided to come here for my fifth year with no hesitation. I knew this was where I wanted to be, I wanted to be with you guys. I want nothing more than to help lead this team and do whatever it takes."

The Tennessee native has played in 17 games on the Hilltop, racking up 130 all purpose yards, including 99 kick return yards. Reed has also received multiple athletic department awards including the People for Other Award in 2023 for exhibiting outstanding service to the community and the Courage Award in 2022 for exhibiting perseverance and strength in the face of adversity.

CAN YOU SMELL WHAT TALATI IS COOKING?

Graduate student offensive lineman Talati Polamalu earned a tryout with the World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE) ahead of its SummerSlam event held in Nashville, Tennessee in late July of 2022.

"Having the tryout was something I never saw myself capable of doing. I had the opportunity to go out to Nashville and had a four-day tryout. It was a tough experience but learned a lot, met a lot of great people and it's something that I will cherish forever." - Talati Polamalu

TEAM IMPACT

On September 1st the Georgetown football team adopted Caleb Perterson from Team IMPACT. At a press conference on Georgetown's campus in front of his family, new teammates, coaches, and other members of the athletics department, Caleb officially signed his National Letter of Intent (NLI) and donned a Georgetown hat, officially becoming a Hoya. As a member of the program, Caleb will attend Georgetown practices, games and other events.

Team IMPACT is a national nonprofit headquartered in Boston, Massachusetts that connects children facing serious or chronic illnesses with college athletic teams, forming lifelong bonds and life-changing outcomes. Since 2011, Team IMPACT has matched more than 2,300 children with more than 700 colleges and universities in 49 states, reaching over 60,000 participating student athletes. The child joins the athletic team and the student athletes join the child's support team. Throughout the journey, the child gains strength, camaraderie and support while the student athletes experience lessons of courage, resiliency and perspective they can't learn in a classroom.

BE THE MATCH

Georgetown's football team worked with Be The Match in the spring and helped run the campus-wide registry drive. Several GU teams alongside football helped reach a school record in signups with over 800 potential donors.

The trophy, given out by the National Football Foundation, recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.

USFL CHAMPIONSHIP - MICHAEL DEREUS

Former Hoya standout and current wide receiver of the Birmingham Stallions Michael Dereus helped hoist the 2023 USFL Championship following a 28-12 win over the Pittsburgh Mauler. Dereus also helped the Stallions win the Championship in 2022.

"Winning the USFL championship and my journey on the Stallions was an unforgettable experience. The bond of our team was very special in such a short amount of time. It was dope to be a part of the inaugural season and be the first-ever champions. I am definitely excited to go back to the wonderful fans of Birmingham and bring home another trophy but the ultimate goal is still the NFL for me and I am just embracing this part of my journey."

GEORGETOWN = OHANA

It is a family here on the Hilltop and lineage runs deeper than just on the field connection.

• Will Kessler is the brother of former Hoya linebacker Owen Kessler.

UNICORN TOWN - NICK ALFIERI

Former No. 35 Joe Eacobacci Memorial Jersey Recipient Nick Alfieri '14 directed and starred in the hit documentary "Unicorn Town," which was released on Apple TV in August 2022 and had been ranked the No. 1 sports documentary on the streaming site.

Alfieri has been playing football in the German Football League with the Schwabisch Hall Unicorns since 2016, stringing together 364 tackles, 11 sacks, five interceptions and a pair of German Bowl Championships (2017, 18). Alfieri also plays alongside his brother, Michael, who was a running back for Oregon State.

Alfieri and the Unicorns made it to their eighth-straight German Bowl and secured its fifth title and fourth with a perfect record (11-0 this season).

HONORING HONORÉ

Former Hoya defensive back and current Georgetown graduate student Jonathan Honoré (SSP'23) was named one of 42 student-athletes to earn the 2022-23 NCAA Fall Postgraduate Scholarship.

HOYA NOTES

"This scholarship means a lot to me because I am given the opportunity to represent Georgetown nationally," Honoré said. "Georgetown student-athletes understand the importance of academic excellence and the need to serve our communities through volunteer work. I am grateful to the NCAA selection committee for acknowledging my achievements in these areas."

The St. Louis, Missouri native is actively enrolled in the Walsh School of Foreign Service's security studies program. The one-time non-renewable scholarships of $10,000 are awarded three times a year corresponding to each sport season (fall, winter and spring). Each sports season there are 21 scholarships available for men and 21 scholarships available for women for use in an accredited graduate program.

HOYAS WITH NFL PEDIGREE

Three Hoyas own a slight edge over their teammates as they are related to current and former NFL players.

• Graduate student offensive lineman Talati Polamalu is the nephew of former Pittsburgh Steelers safety and NFL Hall of Famer Troy Polamalu.
• Sophomore Max McCormick is the grandson of Len "Tuffy" McCormick, who played for Washington and the Baltimore Colts in the late 1940's
• Sophomore Naiteitei Mose is the cousin of Tipa Galeai who played two seasons for the Green Bay Packers.

COOPER FIELD DEDICATION CEREMONY

Saturday, September 18. 2021 was Georgetown's first game in Cooper Field since it underwent several impressive renovations. The upgrades include: permanent football and field hockey locker rooms, game day locker rooms for men's and women's lacrosse, a visiting team locker room, west side stands seating for 3,000 people, north endzone hillside lawn seating for 750 people, permanent restrooms and a concessions area as well as a state-of-the-art press box.

MEET THE NEW STAFF

The Hoyas brought in three new assistant coaches for the 2023 season in Joey Partin, Shane Eachus and Kevin Snyder.

Partin joins the Blue & Gray after spending one year as an offensive line graduate assistant for the University of Memphis. Partin helped the Tigers captured a 38-10 victory over Utah State in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl last season.Partin spent the previous three seasons (2019-21) as an offensive live graduate assistant and special teams coach for Marshall University. From 2014-2019 Patrin served as the tight end and h-back coach at Hampden-Sydney College.

Eachus joins the Hoyas after one year on the coaching staff at Houston Christian University where he served as a defensive coordinator and safeties coach. He helped the Huskies to become ranked third nationally in defensive touchdowns, ninth in takeaways, 19th in total sacks and 25th in total tackles for loss.

Eachus spent the previous three seasons (2018-20) as a defensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma State, primarily working with the linebackers. He spent four years (2014-17) at Ursinus College, three as a defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Eachus also served as the graduate assistant and director of player relations at FCS power James Madison from 2012-14, earning a Master of Science in sport and recreation leadership.

Snyder joins the Hoyas after spending the last two years as an outside linebacker and defensive end graduate assistant at Wake Forest University. Prior to coaching the Demon Deacons, Snyder spent the 2020 campaign as a player development assistant at his alma mater, Rutgers.

The Pennsylvania native played for the Rutgers University football team from 2011-14. The former Big Ten All-Academic team member totaled 229 career tackles in his four years as a Scarlet Knight, making 25 starts at inside, weak-side and strong-side linebacker. Before getting into coaching, Snyder played in the NFL from 2015-17, spending time on five different teams' practice squads, earning call-ups to the active roster of the New England Patriots and the Denver Broncos.

TENTH SEASON
(27TH AT GEORGETOWN)

SGARLATA THROUGH THE YEARS

TITLE	POSITION GROUPS
Georgetown Head Coach: 2014-present	Defensive Backs: 2006-13, 2018-19
Georgetown Def. Coordinator: 2004-13	Running Backs: 2017
Georgetown Assistant Coach: 1995-2003	Quarterbacks: 2014-2016

Sgarlata has established a foundation for the program based on three principles ...

- 4 for 40 - a four-year commitment to Georgetown football leads to a 40-year relationship with special attention to their mind, body and spirit - Cura Personalis
- Men for Others - the Jesuit value of service to the community
- SISU - a Finnish phrase that translates into courage in the face of adversity

Rob Sgarlata (C'94, S'12) was named the 31st head football coach in GU program history in February 2014, becoming just the fourth person to have played football and graduated from Georgetown before earning the head coach title, joining Joe Reilly, Jack Hagerty and Maurice Dubofsky.

In his first eight years as head coach, Sgarlata has seen 46 student-athletes earn postseason All-Patriot League honors and 278 Georgetown football players have been named to the Patriot League Football Academic Honor Roll, including a program-record 51 student-athletes at the end of the 2020-21 school year.

In 2022, fifth year Joshua Tomas was crowed the NCAA FCS statistical champion for receptions per game and receiving yards per game. Tomas was also named 2023 Associated Press All-American Third Team.

In 2021, graduate student Ahmad Wilson became the first CoSIDA Academic All-American under Sgarlata's guidance.

In 2019, the Hoyas had a program-record nine players named to All-Patriot League teams. The GU defense finished the season ranked fourth in the country in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense, fifth in red zone defense, sixth in first down defense and seventh in total defense.

The Hoyas enjoyed one of the best improvement seasons in the country in 2018, finishing 5-6 overall and 4-2 in league play, the program's best Patriot League record since joining the conference in 2001. Georgetown enjoyed conference wins over Fordham, Lafayette, Lehigh and Bucknell. The double OT win over Lehigh was GU's first since 1925. Six Hoyas were named to All-Patriot League postseason teams.

Prior to being named head coach, Sgarlata had been on the Hoya coaching staff for 18 seasons, working with four different position groups and served as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for 10 seasons. During his tenure as defensive coordinator, he helped guide the Hoyas to the top-ranked scoring defense in the Patriot League in 2011 and the second-ranked scoring defense in 2012. The Hoyas featured four ECAC First Team selections and 20 All-Patriot League selections on defense.

Within the defense, Sgarlata coached All-Americans Michael Ononibaku (2005), Alex Buzbee (2006), Andrew Schaetzke (2011) and Robert McCabe (2012). Both Shaetzke and McCabe earned Patriot League Defensive Player of the year honors and Sgarlata also guided the 1996 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Defensive Player of the Year Janne Kouri.

Buzbee became the second Hoya in program history to make an NFL roster, suiting up for the Washington Redskins (2007-09). He also played for the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL from (2010-11).

A four-year letterwinner at Georgetown, Sgarlata is among the program's all-time leading rushers. He was a team captain as a senior in 1993 and received the John J. Hagerty Award. He excelled in the classroom, being named to the 1993 GTE District II Academic All-America Football Team and was also named to the MAAC Football League Academic All-Star Team.

Sgarlata graduated from Georgetown in 1994 from the College of Arts & Sciences with a degree in government and international relations. In May 2012, he completed his master's degree in sport industry management from Georgetown's School of Continuing Studies.

IN MEMORY OF JOE EACOBACCI

On September 11, 2001 the Georgetown community lost former Hoya football standout Joe Eacobacci. A 1996 graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences, he was an energy trader on the 105th foor of the North Tower of the World Trade Tower. Since the 2003 season, the No. 35 has been awarded as a living memorial to the spirit and memory of Joey.

Joe was a football student-athlete for former head coach Bob Benson between 1993 and 1995 and was the team's tri-captain his senior season. Benson believed that Eacobacci's mark on Georgetown was inked not only on the gridiron but also on the entire Georgetown campus.

"He had more friends than anybody, and that was what made him a beautiful person," Benson said in an interview with GU's student newspaper, The Hoya. "He would light up a room, he really could make people smile and bring enjoy-ment and pleasure to a room."

The student-athletes chosen to wear the No. 35 jersey have been selected based not only on on-feld performance, but a combination of skills and intangibles that have cemented Eacobacci's place in Georgetown football history.
