BULLDOG BITES

1 Gonzaga begins its first season in the Pac-12 Conference after 47 years in the West Coast Conference. The Bulldogs won 27 WCC regular season titles.

4 The Zags return to T-Mobile Arena, after winning four of their previous six games inside the building. GU opened the season with a 78-72 win over Purdue in the arena.

50 Gonzaga is 50-15 under Mark Few in events during the week of Thanksgiving, and 39-9 in the last 10 Thanksgiving week events.

THE STORYLINES

- Gonzaga opens the Players Era 16 against Kansas State inside T-Mobile Arena in Las Vegas at 9:30 p.m. It's the fourth all-time meeting between the programs.
- This year's Players Era tournament is a true bracket. Two eight-team brackets will be played simultaneously in T-Mobile Arena and Michelob Ultra Arena, the two teams that win the brackets will square off Saturday night in a grand championship. All other teams will play three games.
- Last season at Players Era in Las Vegas, the Zags opened with a 95-85 win over No. 9/8 Alabama, before cruising to a 100-61 victory over Maryland, but fell to No. 7/6 Michigan in the championship game.
- Under Mark Few, GU has won seven tournaments during the week of Thanksgiving, and played in 12 of the 19 tournament championship games.
- Last season, the Bulldogs advanced to their 27th straight NCAA Tournament, the third-longest active streak in the nation, and finished with a 31-4 record. Gonzaga finished No. 18 in the final AP Poll.
- It was the program's seventh 30-win season over the last 10 seasons. GU has 10 30-win seasons, all over the last 14 seasons. In that span since 2012-13, the Bulldogs have won a national-best 86.7 percent (431-66) of their games.
- Last season, the Zags extended its NCAA Div. 1 record to 19 straight seasons of at least 25 wins. GU's 29-straight 20-win seasons ranks second for the longest active run in the country.
- Over the last six seasons, Gonzaga is 174-32 (.845), the second-best winning percentage in the nation over that span. Only Houston was better at .860 (190-31), with Duke third at .797 (169-43).
- Few was enshrined in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame on Aug. 15, 2026.
- In July it was announced that Few will return to the Team USA coaching staff for the 2027 FIBA World Cup and Olympic Games Los Angeles 2028 as an assistant, a role he had at the Olympic Games Paris 2024 when he won a gold medal.
- Few enters his 28th season with a 772-156 (.832) record at Gonzaga, the highest winning percentage in NCAA Div. I history.

HEAD COACH MARK FEW

For more than 25 years, Mark Few has built Gonzaga into one of college basketball's most successful programs. Entering his 28th season as head coach in 2026-27, Few owns a 772-156 career record and an .832 winning percentage, among the best in NCAA Division I history. He has never had a losing season and has led the Bulldogs to at least 20 wins every year. Under Few, Gonzaga has made 27 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, reached two national championship games and six Elite Eights, and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen 14 times. In 2026, Few was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Gonzaga's success includes 23 conference regular-season championships and 21 conference tournament titles during his tenure.

Born Dec. 27, 1962, in Creswell, Ore., Few was a multi-sport athlete at Creswell High School. He graduated from the University of Oregon in 1987 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Gonzaga in 1993. He joined GU as a graduate assistant under head coach Dan Fitzgerald in 1989, became a full-time assistant in 1991 and associate head coach in 1999. The Bulldogs' 1999 Elite Eight run changed the program's trajectory, and after Dan Monson left for Minnesota, Few was named head coach on July 26, 1999.

Few's first season produced a 26-9 record, both WCC championships and a Sweet Sixteen appearance. Gonzaga won five consecutive WCC regular-season titles from 2000-04, with players such as Dan Dickau, Blake Stepp and Ronny Turiaf helping elevate the program. Adam Morrison's national Player of the Year season in 2005-06 ended with another Sweet Sixteen. Ambitious nonconference scheduling helped establish Gonzaga nationally.

In 2013, Gonzaga earned its first No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press poll and its first No. 1 NCAA Tournament seed. The 2014-15 team finished 35-3 and reached the Elite Eight. In 2016-17, Gonzaga went 37-2, reached the Final Four for the first time and advanced to the national championship game. The 2018-19 team, featuring Rui Hachimura, Brandon Clarke and Killian Tillie, returned to the Elite Eight.

The 2020-21 Bulldogs opened 31-0 and reached the national championship game undefeated. Led by Jalen Suggs, Corey Kispert and Drew Timme, Gonzaga dominated throughout the season and reached the final after Suggs' iconic half-court buzzer-beater against UCLA in the Final Four. The Bulldogs finished 31-1, but the run became one of college basketball's defining seasons.

Few's teams have continued to contend nationally. Chet Holmgren helped lead Gonzaga to the Sweet Sixteen in 2022 before being selected No. 2 overall in the NBA Draft. The Bulldogs reached the Elite Eight in 2023 and extended their NCAA Tournament streak in each subsequent season. In 2025-26, Gonzaga finished 31-4, swept the WCC regular-season and tournament titles.

Few's player-development record includes 26 All-America honors, 32 former players who have appeared in the NBA and 22 NBA Draft selections. Gonzaga alumni in the league include Domantas Sabonis, Kelly Olynyk, Zach Collins, Hachimura, Brandon Clarke, Suggs, Kispert, Holmgren, Andrew Nembhard, Julian Strawther and Timme. Few's emphasis on skill, basketball IQ, accountability and team-first play has become central to Gonzaga's identity. His approach made Gonzaga a national contender and destination for elite players.

Few also has a growing international résumé. In July 2026, he was selected to return as an assistant coach for USA Basketball for the 2027 FIBA Men's World Cup in Doha, Qatar, and the 2028 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. He will serve under head coach Erik Spoelstra alongside J.B. Bickerstaff and Mark Daigneault. Few previously assisted Steve Kerr at the 2023 FIBA World Cup and the 2024 Paris Olympics, where the United States won its fifth consecutive Olympic gold medal. He also coached the U.S. team to bronze at the 2015 Pan American Games and helped the 2012 USA U18 National Team win gold.

Few's honors include Naismith and NABC National Coach of the Year awards in 2017 and 2021, the 2017 AP Coach of the Year award, 14 WCC Coach of the Year honors and the John R. Wooden Award Legends of Coaching Award in 2025. His Hall of Fame induction followed in August 2026.

Away from basketball, Few and his wife, Marcy, support cancer research, patients and families across the Inland Northwest through Coaches vs. Cancer and the Community Cancer Fund. They have four children: A.J., Joseph, Julia and Colt. An avid fly fisherman and outdoorsman, Few finds balance on the rivers and lakes of the Pacific Northwest.

- Looking at the conference's longer-term résumé, the Pac-12 noted that seven of its nine programs had reached the NCAA Tournament since 2021, including teams that advanced to two national championship games. The league also cited the fifth-best average NET ranking among conferences over the preceding five seasons, using the new 2026-27 membership alignment.
- The Zags will play a 16-game conference schedule, featuring eight home games inside the McCarthey Athletic Center and eight on the road. Every conference opponent will visit Spokane.
