HOYA NOTES

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

Prior to the season, VeRon Garrison, Losini Maka and David Ealey III were named 2024 team captains. Garrison earns the role for the second-consecutive season.

VERON GARRISON PICKED AS NO. 35 RECIPIENT

Senior defensive lineman VeRon Garrison has been selected as the 20th recipient of the No. 35 Joe Eacobacci Memorial Jersey for the 2024 campaign.

Garrison is now the fourth defensive lineman to wear the No. 35 jersey alongside Michael Ononibaku (2004,05), Alex Buzbee (2006) and Stephen Smith (2007).

"I am incredibly honored to represent the number 35 jersey this season. I am excited to carry on the legacy of this jersey and the history and significance that it holds. It is a representation of our team's spirit and resilience. This honor is a reminder for me to always strive to uphold the values of our program and show leadership, dedication and excellence both on and off the field"

The New Jersey native has played in 29 games on the Hilltop, racking up 58 tackles including 6.5 tackles for a loss of 17 yards and one sack for a loss of four yards. The defensive lineman has also recorded two blocked passes and three fumble recoveries. The two-time team captain was named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2022 and 2023 and earned a spot on the Academic All-Patriot League team in 2023.

JERRY RICE AWARD WATCH LIST

Georgetown football freshman defensive lineman Isaac Saffold joined 29 other players as part of the 2024 Stats Perform FCS Jerry Rice Award Watch List, which is presented to the national freshman of the year in college football's Division I subdivision, as announced on Wednesday.

"Isaac is a tenacious competitor. He plays with high energy and passion. I love his relentless pursuit of the football. He is a student of the game who is invested in daily improvement." - Head Coach Rob Sgarlata on Saffold's selection to the Jerry Rice Award Watch List.

The freshman has recorded 18 tackles (10 solo, 8 assists), 3.5 TFLs and 1.5 sacks. The Chicago native is one of two Patriot League athletes selected to the watch list. The last time a Hoya was named to the Jerry RIce Watch List was Wedner Cadet in 2022.

The Rice Award, now in its 14th season, is named after legendary NFL Hall of Fame wide receiver Jerry Rice. Past recipients include Cooper Kupp, Chase Edmonds, Trey Lance, Cam Ward and Shedeur Sanders.

To be eligible for the Jerry Rice Award, a player must be considered a freshman by his conference in his first academic year or second if he did not surpass four regular-season games played in the true freshman season (the NCAA redshirt rule). More players can join the watch list before a national media panel selects the winner following the regular season.

LOU LITTLE TROPHY GAME

The Lou Little Trophy Game was created in 2015 by Georgetown and Columbia University. Lou Little is a Hall of Fame coach who spent time at both institutions. Little arrived on the Hilltop in 1924 and helped bring Georgetown football into the modern era. Little spent six seasons on the Hilltop, winning 41 games, as the head football coach and athletics director. His .759 win percentage is still the highest among GU head coaches who have coached more than 20 games. Little mentored three All-Americans OL/DL Harry Connaughton (1926), center Claude Grigsby (1927) and OL/DL/ punter Jim Mooney (1928) each went on to be inducted into the Georgetown Athletics Hall of Fame. He took over at Columbia in 1930 and continued his storied career until 1956, posting an additional 110 victories. He was then elected president of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and served on the college football rules committee. His successes earned him an induction into the College Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1960. The winner of the contest wins the Lou Little Trophy. The Hoyas earned the inaugural trophy in 2015 and most recently following a 24-10 victory in 2019. Most recently the Lions won in 2023 to gain a 5-3 record.

TEAM IMPACT

On September 1st the Georgetown football team adopted Caleb Perterson from Team IMPACT. At a press conference on Georgetown's campus in front of his family, new teammates, coaches, and other members of the athletics department, Caleb officially signed his National Letter of Intent (NLI) and donned a Georgetown hat, officially becoming a Hoya. As a member of the program, Caleb will attend Georgetown practices, games and other events.

Team IMPACT is a national nonprofit headquartered in Boston, Massachusetts that connects children facing serious or chronic illnesses with college athletic teams, forming lifelong bonds and life-changing outcomes. Since 2011, Team IMPACT has matched more than 2,300 children with more than 700 colleges and universities in 49 states, reaching over 60,000 participating student athletes. The child joins the athletic team and the student athletes join the child's support team. Throughout the journey, the child gains strength, camaraderie and support while the student athletes experience lessons of courage, resiliency and perspective they can't learn in a classroom.

BE THE MATCH

Georgetown's football team worked with Be The Match in the spring and helped run the campus-wide registry drive. Several GU teams alongside football helped reach a school record in signups with over 800 potential donors.

The trophy, given out by the National Football Foundation, recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.

USFL CHAMPIONSHIP - MICHAEL DEREUS

Former Hoya standout and current wide receiver of the Birmingham Stallions Michael Dereus helped hoist the 2023 USFL Championship following a 28-12 win over the Pittsburgh Mauler. Dereus also helped the Stallions win the Championship in 2022.

"Winning the USFL championship and my journey on the Stallions was an unforgettable experience. The bond of our team was very special in such a short amount of time. It was dope to be a part of the inaugural season and be the first-ever champions. I am definitely excited to go back to the wonderful fans of Birmingham and bring home another trophy but the ultimate goal is still the NFL for me and I am just embracing this part of my journey."

GEORGETOWN = OHANA
It is a family here on the Hilltop and lineage runs deeper than just on the field connection.

• Max Messineo is the brother of former Hoya defensive lineman Andrew Messineo.

•Titus Heimuli is related to the 2011 No. 35 Joe Eacobacci Memorial Jersey honoree, Wayne Heimuli.

UNICORN TOWN - NICK ALFIERI
Former No. 35 Joe Eacobacci Memorial Jersey Recipient Nick Alfieri '14 directed and starred in the hit documentary "Unicorn Town," which was released on Apple TV in August 2022 and had been ranked the No. 1 sports documentary on the streaming site.

Alfieri has been playing football in the German Football League with the Schwabisch Hall Unicorns since 2016, stringing together 364 tackles, 11 sacks, five interceptions and a pair of German Bowl Championships (2017, 18). Alfieri also plays alongside his brother, Michael, who was a running back for Oregon State.

Alfieri and the Unicorns made it to their eighth-straight German Bowl and secured its fifth title and fourth with a perfect record (11-0 this season).

HONORING HONORÉ
Former Hoya defensive back and current Georgetown graduate student Jonathan Honoré (SSP'23) was named one of 42 student-athletes to earn the 2022-23 NCAA Fall Postgraduate Scholarship.

"This scholarship means a lot to me because I am given the opportunity to represent Georgetown nationally," Honoré said. "Georgetown student-athletes understand the importance of academic excellence and the need to serve our communities through volunteer work. I am grateful to the NCAA selection committee for acknowledging my achievements in these areas."

The St. Louis, Missouri native is actively enrolled in the Walsh School of Foreign Service's security studies program. The one-time non-renewable scholarships of $10,000 are awarded three times a year corresponding to each sport season (fall, winter and spring). Each sports season there are 21 scholarships available for men and 21 scholarships available for women for use in an accredited graduate program.

HOYAS WITH NFL PEDIGREE
Three Hoyas own a slight edge over their teammates as they are related to current and former NFL players.

• Sophomore Max McCormick is the grandson of Len "Tuffy" McCormick, who played for Washington and the Baltimore Colts in the late 1940's

• Sophomore Naiteitei Mose is the cousin of Tipa Galeai who played two seasons for the Green Bay Packers.

•Senior Brock Biestek is the grandson of Gino Cappelletti, who played for the AFL team the Boston Patriots. Biestek's uncle is Tom Waddle, who played for the Chicago Bears.

•Sophomore Titus Heimuli is the nephew of Lakei Heimuli who played for the Chicago Bears in 1987.

COOPER FIELD DEDICATION CEREMONY
Saturday, September 18. 2021 was Georgetown's first game in Cooper Field since it underwent several impressive renovations. The upgrades include: permanent football and field hockey locker rooms, game day locker rooms for men's and women's lacrosse, a visiting team locker room, west side stands seating for 3,000 people, north endzone hillside lawn seating for 750 people, permanent restrooms and a concessions area as well as a state-of-the-art press box.

MEET THE NEW STAFF
The Hoyas brought in two new assistant coaches for the 2024 season in Stephen Amoako and Gary Ramey Jr.

Amoako joins the Hoyas after spending the last two seasons as a Wide Receivers Coach at the College of San Mateo. Amoako has coached seven wideouts who have earned Division I Scholarships. Amoako has had coaching stints at Gavilan College as the Defensive Backs Coach and at De Anza College where they won the 2018 PAC 7 Championship.

Before coaching, Amoako was a defensive back at the University of Oregon and was a member of the 2014 PAC 12 Championship team that won the Rose Bowl and earned a berth in the first-ever College Football Playoff.

Ramey joins the Hoyas after spending the last four seasons coaching wide receivers, running backs and tight ends at Bridgewater College in Bridgewater, Virginia. Ramey oversaw the running backs during his first three seasons before transitioning to wide receivers in 2023. In his first season as a coach (2020-21), Demetreus Jalepes was a first team running back selection at both the All-State and All-ODAC levels. The Maryland native also coordinated Bridgewater's recruiting during his time on the staff.

Before joining the coaching staff, Ramey was a linebacker and two-time team captain for Bridgewater. As a senior Ramey was a first team All-State selection, leading Eagles to the ODAC championship and a final #20 national ranking in 2019. He ranked second on the team in tackles (82), sacks (5.0) and tackles for loss (11.0). A three-time All-ODAC linebacker, Ramey earned second team honors as a sophomore and junior before making first team All-Conference as a senior. He graduated with 195 career tackles, 9.0 sacks, 21.5 tackles for loss and four forced fumbles.

"I am extremely excited to take the next step in my coaching journey at such a historical place like Georgetown," said Ramey. "Growing up not far away in Frederick County, Maryland, Georgetown has always been a place I have been eager to learn more about and I am fortunate to now be a part of the football program. Coach Sgarlata and the entire staff has been extremely welcoming with me, and I am eager to further grow and build relationships here in the Nation's Capital."

Sgarlata has established a foundation for the program based on three principles ...

- 4 for 40 - a four-year commitment to Georgetown football leads to a 40-year relationship with special attention to their mind, body and spirit - Cura Personalis
- Men for Others - the Jesuit value of service to the community
- SISU - a Finnish phrase that translates into courage in the face of adversity

Rob Sgarlata (C'94, S'12) was named the 31st head football coach in GU program history in February 2014, becoming just the fourth person to have played football and graduated from Georgetown before earning the head coach title, joining Joe Reilly, Jack Hagerty and Maurice Dubofsky.

In his first eight years as head coach, Sgarlata has seen 48 student-athletes earn postseason All-Patriot League honors and 374 Georgetown football players have been named to the Patriot League Football Academic Honor Roll, including a program-record 55 student-athletes at the end of the 2023-24 school year.

In 2023, the Hoyas finished 3-3 in conference action and 5-6 overall. The Blue & Gray made history with a 28-24 win over No. 15 Fordham on September 30 for Georgetown's first win over a ranked opponent since joining the Patriot League in 2001. In 2022, fifth year Joshua Tomas was crowed the NCAA FCS statistical champion for receptions per game and receiving yards per game. Tomas was also named 2023 Associated Press All-American Third Team.

In 2021, graduate student Ahmad Wilson became the first CoSIDA Academic All-American under Sgarlata's guidance.

In 2019, the Hoyas had a program-record nine players named to All-Patriot League teams. The GU defense finished the season ranked fourth in the country in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense, fifth in red zone defense, sixth in first down defense and seventh in total defense.

The Hoyas enjoyed one of the best improvement seasons in the country in 2018, finishing 5-6 overall and 4-2 in league play, the program's best Patriot League record since joining the conference in 2001. Georgetown enjoyed conference wins over Fordham, Lafayette, Lehigh and Bucknell. The double OT win over Lehigh was GU's first since 1925. Six Hoyas were named to All-Patriot League postseason teams.

Prior to being named head coach, Sgarlata had been on the Hoya coaching staff for 18 seasons, working with four different position groups and served as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for 10 seasons. During his tenure as defensive coordinator, he helped guide the Hoyas to the top-ranked scoring defense in the Patriot League in 2011 and the second-ranked scoring defense in 2012. The Hoyas featured four ECAC First Team selections and 20 All-Patriot League selections on defense.

Within the defense, Sgarlata coached All-Americans Michael Ononibaku (2005), Alex Buzbee (2006), Andrew Schaetzke (2011) and Robert McCabe (2012). Both Shaetzke and McCabe earned Patriot League Defensive Player of the year honors and Sgarlata also guided the 1996 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Defensive Player of the Year Janne Kouri.

Buzbee became the second Hoya in program history to make an NFL roster, suiting up for the Washington Redskins (2007-09). He also played for the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL from (2010-11).

A four-year letterwinner at Georgetown, Sgarlata is among the program's all-time leading rushers. He was a team captain as a senior in 1993 and received the John J. Hagerty Award. He excelled in the classroom, being named to the 1993 GTE District II Academic All-America Football Team and was also named to the MAAC Football League Academic All-Star Team.

IN MEMORY OF JOE EACOBACCI

On September 11, 2001 the Georgetown community lost former Hoya football standout Joe Eacobacci. A 1996 graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences, he was an energy trader on the 105th foor of the North Tower of the World Trade Tower. Since the 2003 season, the No. 35 has been awarded as a living memorial to the spirit and memory of Joey.

Joe was a football student-athlete for former head coach Bob Benson between 1993 and 1995 and was the team's tri-captain his senior season. Benson believed that Eacobacci's mark on Georgetown was inked not only on the gridiron but also on the entire Georgetown campus.

"He had more friends than anybody, and that was what made him a beautiful person," Benson said in an interview with GU's student newspaper, The Hoya. "He would light up a room, he really could make people smile and bring enjoy-ment and pleasure to a room."

The student-athletes chosen to wear the No. 35 jersey have been selected based not only on on-feld performance, but a combination of skills and intangibles that have cemented Eacobacci's place in Georgetown football history.
