Head Coach Billy Napier

Billy Napier was hired as James Madison's 10th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2025, and enters his first season at the helm in Harrisonburg.

Napier, a 2026 Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Watch List selection, welcomed 34 letterwinners back from 2025's Sun Belt championship and CFP team and has added 61 total newcomers, including 39 transfers, to the mix this fall.

Napier boasts a 70-38 career record as a head coach and most recently led Florida of the Southeastern Conference for the last four years, highlighted by an 8-5 record in 2024 and a win in the Gasparilla Bowl over Tulane.

That team won its last four games, including back-to-back top-25 triumphs over No. 22 LSU and No. 9 Ole Miss, followed by topping Florida State on the road and the bowl win over Tulane. Other ranked wins included 2025 over No. 9 Texas, 2023 over No. 11 Tennessee and 2022 in his Florida debut over No. 7 Utah.

Prior to Florida, Napier authored a dominant run at Louisiana, going 40-12 in four seasons from 2018-2021 with four appearances in the Sun Belt Conference Championship game as West Division Champions and two league titles in his last two seasons in 2020 and 2021.

In his first season as a college head coach in 2018, the Ragin' Cajuns went 7-7 overall but won the Sun Belt West at 5-3 with a tie for first. Louisiana improved in each of Napier's seasons, including 11-3 (7-1 SBC) in 2019, 10-1 (7-1 SBC) and a league title in 2020 and 12-1 (8-0) and a title in 2021.

The 2019 and 2020 squads won appearances over Miami (Ohio) in the LendingTree Bowl and over UTSA in the First Responder Bowl, respectively. The 2021 team went on to defeat Marshall in the New Orleans Bowl following Napier's departure for Florida. The Ragin' Cajuns were ranked as high as 15th in the AP Poll in 2020 and 16th in 2021.

Widely touted for his recruiting and player development, each of Napier's recruiting classes at Florida were ranked top 20 in the nation. Meanwhile, he had 14 NFL Draft selections in three years of drafts at Florida and another seven picks in four years at Louisiana. Most recently, seven Gators were taken in the 2025 NFL Draft. In 2024, wide receiver Ricky Pearsall was a first round pick by the 49ers, which followed a first-round selection of quarterback Anthony Richardson in 2023. He coached an additional 20 NFL Draft picks as an offensive position coach across four FBS assistant jobs. That group featured five first-round selections, consisting of four wide receivers and a running back.

Head Coach Billy Napier

Fifteen years of experience as an assistant coach helped prepare Napier for his head coaching roles, with 14 coming at the FBS level and all 15 on the offensive side.

He spent two years as a GA at Clemson before then returning to Tommy Bowden's staff in roles as tight ends and recruiting coordinator coach, then quarterbacks and offensive coordinator when Dabo Swinney took the helm.

In 2011, Napier joined Nick Saban's staff at Alabama as an offensive analyst, then followed Jim McElwain from Alabama to Colorado State to serve a season as assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach.

He returned to Alabama as wide receiver coach for four seasons (2013-2016) and then spent one year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona State in 2017 prior to earning the Louisiana job.

Napier was a four-year contributor at Furman (FCS/then I-AA) and was a two-time All-Conference quarterback in the Southern Conference.

He led the Paladins to two conference championships and, in 2001, led Furman to a national runner-up finish in I-AA.

He set a Furman career record by completing 64.8% of his passes. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier compiled a Furman-record 2,475 passing yards and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award as the nation's most outstanding offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Georgia, and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. He is married to the former Ali Gunn, and the couple has a daughter, Annie, and sons, Sammy and Charlie. He earned his bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

IN THE POLLS
- James Madison has received votes eight times in both the AP Poll and US LBM Coaches Poll this season.
- The Dukes are one of two Sun Belt teams to earn votes in either poll at any point this season, joining Louisiana Tech.
- JMU earned a season-best 80 points in the Oct. 18 edition of the Coaches Poll and 52 in that day's AP Poll.
- JMU finished last season ranked No. 19 in the AP and No. 20 in the Coaches Poll - the first time it ever finished a season ranked in the FBS.
- Altogether, JMU has been ranked in 14 AP Polls since 2022, received votes in an additional 28 and have appeared in the poll in all five FBS seasons (ranked in 2022, 2023 and 2025).

AN UNFORGETTABLE SEASON
- JMU's inclusion in last season's College Football Playoff was historic for a variety of reasons, perhaps most notably being the first Sun Belt Conference team to ever make the CFP field.
- The Dukes also were the first team from Virginia to compete for a CFP national championship.
- JMU punched its ticket to the CFP in just year four playing a Football Bowl Subdivision schedule and its second as a full-fledged FBS eligible program.
- The 2025 squad won 11 straight games at one point, capturing its first Sun Belt Championship.
- James Madison earned the No. 12 seed in last year's CFP, thanks to being one of the five highest-ranked conference champions.

2025 SUN BELT CHAMPIONS
- JMU used a pair of late touchdowns to pull away from Troy for a 31-14 victory to capture the 2025 Sun Belt Football Championship.
- It marked JMU's first conference crown at the FBS level, the 11th in program history and its first since 2021, when JMU closed its chapter in the Football Championship Subdivision.
- The win moved JMU to the 12-win mark for the first time since that 2021 season.
- JMU became the second straight East Division team to win the Sun Belt title and the fourth to claim the trophy in the seven overall SBC championship games.
- RB Wayne Knight was named the championship's MVP after rushing for a career-high 212 yards and setting an SBC title game record with 234 all-purpose yards.
- DL Sahir West also set title records with career bests of 5.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks to lead the defense.

JMU'S CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY
- JMU has claimed 11 conference titles in its history, with nine as a member of the Colonial Athletic Association (formerly Atlantic 10).
- The Dukes' first championship came in 1975 as a Division III squad in the Virginia College Athletic Association.
- JMU won six CAA championships over its last seven FCS seasons, winning three straight between 2015-17 and 2019-21. The Dukes won their first CAA championship in 1999 and later added titles in its 2004 national championship season and in 2008.
- JMU's first Sun Belt title also was its first won in a championship game format, as all previous titles were awarded based solely on regular-season finishes ahead of the FCS Playoffs.

DEFENDING THE CROWN
- The Dukes were voted to finish atop the East Division in the 2026 Sun Belt Preseason Coaches Poll, which was released on July 13.
- JMU received 11 of 14 first-place votes and 94 total points in the poll.
- Following JMU in the East were Old Dominion (73 points, 1 first-place vote), Marshall (67), Georgia Southern (53, 1 first-place vote), Coastal Carolina (45, 1 first-place vote), App State (43) and Georgia State (17).
- In the West Division, Troy, which claimed 12 first-place votes and 96 points, garnered the top spot.

SUN BELT SUCCESS
- James Madison has earned instant success inside the Sun Belt Conference since joining the league in 2022.
- Overall, JMU is 30-9 in conference games in that span, including 15-4 at home and 15-5 on the road. It also defeated Troy in its first-ever Sun Belt Championship Game last season at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- The Dukes posted a 12-game conference win streak for a span during the 2025 and '26 seasons. They won all eight Sun Belt games last year and the first four this year.
- JMU was the only G6 program not to lose a game to another G6 in 2025, going 11-0.
- Against all G6 opponents since joining the Sun Belt in 2022, JMU has gone 41-11 (.788).

- Against the East, JMU is 22-7, which includes a 5-0 mark against Georgia State and Old Dominion and 4-0 vs. Coastal Carolina.
- JMU also holds an 8-2 record against Sun Belt West Division squads in league play.
- Last year, JMU became one of three teams to finish a Sun Belt season at 8-0 in the championship-game era.
- It was the first time since 2021 that a team finished 8-0 in SBC play (Louisiana, coached by Billy Napier).

STACKING WINS
- Since joining the FBS ranks in 2022, JMU has won 48 of 62 games (.774).
- That is tied for No. 10 for the most wins in college football during that time (No. 2 among G6 programs behind Tulane) with the seventh-best win percentage.
- It's also the most wins by any SBC team, as Troy has 39 since the start of the 2022 season, while Marshall has 36.
- On the road, JMU is 21-9, which are tied for the most wins away from home in the country and good for No. 9 in road win percentage (.724).
- Of note, Oregon and Tulane also have 21 road victories in that time.

SUCCESS SPREADS
- Including this season, JMU has now recorded 13 straight winning seasons, dating back to 2014.
- The squad also has produced at least a .500 record or better in 24 straight seasons.
- What's more, the Dukes have been led by six different head coaches in that span of success.
- James Madison last was under .500 in 2002 (5-7), one of two seasons this millennium with more losses than victories.
- The Dukes have turned in eight 10-win seasons since its first national championship campaign in 2004.
- Dating back to year one of the program in 1972, JMU has a winning record in 37 of 55 seasons.

- The preseason all-conference team was selected by the 14 head coaches and one media member from each institution.

- Led by the Rotary Club of Houston, the Lombardi Award is given annually to the top lineman or linebacker in college football.
- The Outland Trophy is headed by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), which awards the nation's best interior lineman.

CAMPBELL AWARD SEMIFINALIST
- On Sept. 23, Greenberg was named one of 206 semifinalists for the 2026 William V. Campbell Trophy, which honors college football's premier scholar-athlete.

- The Jet Award will be presented at the Jet Award Gala on April 8, 2027.

100-YARD RUSHERS
- JMU has featured a 100-yard rusher in six games this season from three different running backs.
- RB George Pettaway reached the century mark on the ground in four straight games from Sept. 26-Oct. 17. It's a feat that hadn't been accomplished by a Duke since Khalid Abdullah in 2016.
- That streak included a career-high 206 yards and two TDs vs. Marshall on Oct. 3.
- RB Nick Herman was the Dukes' first 100-yard rusher this season, going 133 yards with two scores on just nine carries vs. Wagner (Sept. 12).
- RB Seth Cromwell became JMU's third different player to hit the century mark, tallying 23 carries for 135 yards and a TD against Troy on Oct. 29.

PUNTING FOR A CAUSE
- This season, P Patrick Rea is supporting the Robert Connor Dawes (RCD) Foundation by donating $100 for every punt downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line.
- The cause is close to Rea's heart, who lost his sister, Pippa, to childhood brain cancer in 2015.
- The same illness took John Paul Macri, a young JMU fan who became close to the program over the past two seasons, on Oct. 4.
- The RCD Foundation supports families affected by childhood brain cancer and funds critical research in the U.S., as well as Rea's home country of Australia.
- After 11 games, Rea has placed 16 punts inside the 20 to help his cause.
- QB Camden Coleman joined in Rea's effort midseason and pledged $100 to RCD for each TD pass he throws this season - 17 so far.
- On Nov. 11, Rea was named a nominee for the Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award for his philanthropic work.

FLOWE GOODWORKS
- S KJ Flowe's community impact was recognized in a big way this preseason.
- Flowe was named an Allstate AFCA Good Works Team nominee and the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List, which honors players who lead through community service while excelling in the classroom and on the field.
- Flowe has made a profound impact on the youth of Harrisonburg and the surrounding area through his community service endeavors and other philanthropic activities.

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. – James Madison went on the road for the final time in the 2026 regular season, falling to UConn, 46-22, on Saturday afternoon at Rentschler Field.

It marked the Dukes' first loss in regulation this season and dropped the squad to 8-3. With the win, the Huskies improved to 5-5.

UConn opened the game with a 28-yard field goal to take early lead. Then, the Dukes orchestrated a 14-play, 79-yard scoring drive on their opening offensive possession. Quarterback JC Evans punched in a 1-yard run after completing passes of 19, 17 and 14 yards, respectively.

However, the Huskies returned the ensuing kickoff for a 100-yard touchdown to retake the lead at 10-6.

Midway through the second quarter, JMU capitalized on a missed UConn field goal. Evans hit wide receiver Braeden Wisloski for a 16-yard touchdown to finish off a 78-yard drive. That gave the Dukes a 13-10 lead with 2:02 to go before halftime.

UConn scored again at the 5:44 mark on a 2-yard touchdown pass, giving the Huskies a 39-16 advantage. In the final minutes, Evans scored his second rushing touchdown of the day with a 3-yard run, before the Huskies added one more score late.
