FIRST THINGS FIRST...

LEADING OFF...

Continuing a run that will see the Hornets play five games in a seven-day span, the Sacramento State returns to Western Athletic Conference play with a three-game series this weekend, hosting UT Arlington at John Smith Field. The series opens on Friday (April 14) at 6 p.m., followed by a 2 p.m. first pitch on Saturday (April 15). Sunday's (April 16) series finale is scheduled for Noon.

BE A FOLLOWER...

Fans can keep up with the latest in Sacramento State athletics by following us on Facebook (/SacramentoStateAthletics), Twitter (@HornetSports), and Instagram (@sacstateathletics). You can also follow the Hornets' baseball program on Twitter (@SacStBaseball) as well as on Facebook and Instagram (@SacStateBaseball).

IN THE RANKINGS...

Neither the Hornets, nor the Mavericks, are ranked among the top 25 in the any of the national polls.

SCOUTING UT ARLINGTON...

The Mavericks enter the weekend with a 17-16 overall record and a 7-5 mark in Western Athletic Conference play, standing two games ahead of the Hornets in the standings... UTA has won its last four, sweeping Utah Tech and taking a midweek win over Lamar during that stretch at home... The Mavericks also own a WAC series win over Tarleton, while dropping series to Abilene Christian and SeattleU... UT Arlington is 8-10 on the road this year... Freshman infielder Ryan Black leads all regulars with a .368 average with 32 runs scored, six home runs, and 31 RBI... Junior outfielder Garrison Berkley is the only other regular above .300, batting .343 on the year with 31 runs, 11 doubles, and 23 RBI... As a team, the Mavericks are hitting .283 with 35 home runs... Junior right-hander Gabe Starks is 3-0 on the year with a 3.10 ERA, striking out 46 in 40.2 innings, holding opponents to a .190 average... Junior right-hander Jack Hagan leads the team with a perfect 5-0 record in 11 relief appearances, while senior right-hander Connery Peters has six saves on the year.

SERIES NOTES...

This weekend's series with UT Arlington will be the second-ever meeting between the Mavericks and Hornets after UTA swept the series from Sacramento State back in 2013 at John Smith Field... The Mavericks won the opener that year, 15-7, before ekeing out a pair of one-run wins (3-2 and 6-5) in the final two games of the series.

LOOKING BACK...

A busy week for the Hornets kicked off with a pair of road midweek contests against two local rivals as Sacramento split a pair of games at Pacific and Causeway rival UC Davis on Monday (April 10) and Tuesday (April 11). Both outings finished in extra innings (more on that later) as the Hornets rallied for an 11-8 win over the Tigers in 10 before falling to the Aggies, 4-3, in 11 frames. Junior Cesar Valero finished with three hits and drove in four against Pacific, including the go-ahead RBI single as part of a three-run 10th, while seven different Sacramento State hitters finished with multiple hits on the night. Less than 24 hours later against UC Davis, freshman Jacob Cortez posted his second-straight three-hit game and drove in a run, while Carson Blatnick added two hits and had a hand in two of the Hornets' runs, but Sacramento State couldn't hold on to a late lead before falling. The Hornets had the bases loaded with one out in the 11th, but could not score, while a one-out bases-loaded sacrifice fly by UC Davis in its half of the inning pushed across the game-winner.

HORNET QUICK HITS...

- Sacramento State enters the weekend series having won four of its last six, claiming its first WAC series win after taking 2-of-3 from Utah Valley last week.
- The win over Pacific to start the week was the Hornets' fifth in the last seven games against the Tigers, while the loss to UC Davis on Tuesday snapped a five-game winning streak against the Aggies.
- With the results last week, Sacramento State is now 6-2 in midweek games this year, having won nine of its last 11 such contests dating back to last year.
- The Hornets played back-to-back extra-inning games against Pacific and UC Davis for the first time since going 10 innings against New Mexico State and 11 innings against Grand Canyon in the 2019 Western Athletic Conference Tournament on May 25.
- The back-to-back extra-inning games came on back-to-back days for the first time since 2011 when Sacramento State defeated UC Davis, 3-2, in 10 innings on Feb. 21, and fell to Saint Mary's, 2-1, in 11 innings on Feb. 22.
- The Hornets had seven players finish with two-or-more hits in the extra-inning win over Pacific, the most since they had seven in a win over San Jose State on May 21 of last season.
- That septuplet helped Sacramento State rack up 19 hits against the Tigers — the second-highest single-game total of the season behind only the 21 hits at Stephen F. Austin in the first game of a double-header on April 1.
- With the 11 runs scored in the win over Pacific, the Hornets improved to 5-1 this season when scoring 10-or-more runs.
- As a team, the Hornets have hit 45 home runs on the year — ranking second in the Western Athletic Conference behind only California Baptist, which hit two home runs in its win over UC Riverside.
- Of those 45 home runs, 19 of those have come in the last eight games.

CALIFORNIA WINNING...

Since the start of the 2012 season, Sacramento State has won 352 total games, fifth most among all Division I baseball programs in California. That's more wins than perennial California baseball powerhouses like Long Beach State, Fresno State, Cal Poly, and others.

Wins Since 2012 (California Division I schools)

Rank	Program	Wins
1	UCLA	402
2	Stanford	387
3	UC Santa Barbara	374
4	Sacramento State	352
5	UC Irvine	345
6	Cal State Fullerton	344
7	San Diego	343
8	Cal Poly	341
9	San Diego State	336
10	Fresno State	310

30-WIN SEASONS

With 32 wins in 2022, Sacramento State continued its run as the only Div. I baseball program in the state of California with 30 or more wins in each of the last 10 seasons. The Hornets had as many as 40 wins (twice, 2014 and 2019) and as few as 30 (once, 2016) during the streak.

Two years ago, both the Hornets and Cal State Fullerton opened the 2019 campaign with 30+ wins in each season since 2012. The Titans did not reach the 30-win mark that year, finishing with a 27-26 overall record, leaving the Hornets as the only Div. I program in California with 30+ wins in every season since 2012, 2020 (COVID pandemic shortened season) not withstanding.

• Sacramento State has failed to hit a home run in only 10 of its 33 games.
• The 45 home runs are five shy of giving the Hornets 50 home runs in a season for the third straight year, which would be the longest such run since the 2001 (50), 2002 (60), and 2003 (57) seasons.
• Sacramento State has hit multiple home runs in a game nine times this year, including a season-high five home runs five days apart at Stephen F. Austin (April 1) and Utah Valley (April 6).
• Freshman Wehiwa Aloy has slugged a team-high nine home runs, which entered the week ranked tied for third in the WAC.
• The nine home runs rank third in the program's Division I history by a freshman, trailing only Justin Lamb's 11 in 2009 and Rhys Hoskins' 10 in 2012.
• Freshman JP Smith ranks tied for fifth on that list with his seven home runs, matching Martin Vincelli-Simard's total in 2019, Vinny Esposito's seven in 2015, and Chris Kinsey's seven in 2001.

SINGLE-SEASON HOME RUNS AS A FRESHMAN (Division I only)

1. Justin Lamb, 2009 - 11
2. Rhys Hoskins, 2012 - 10
3. Wehiwa Aloy, 2023 - 9
4. Steven Moretto, 2018 - 8
t5. JP Smith, 2023 - 7
t5. Martin Vincelli-Simard, 2019 - 7
t5. Vinny Esposito, 2015 - 7
t5. Chris Kinsey, 2001 - 7
t9. Brandon Hunley, 2014 - 6
t9. Tim Wheeler, 2007 - 6
t9. Bret Le Vier, 2002 - 6

• Smith's seven home runs entered the week tied for eighth in the WAC, making Aloy and Smith the third pair of WAC teammates to rank among the top 10 in the conference along with California Baptist's Mitchel Simon (12) and Dusty Garcia (10), and Abilene Christian's Grayson Tatrow (9) and Logan Britt (8).
• Freshman catcher Jacob Cortez snapped and 0-for-6 streak over his last three games with a pair of three-hit contests against Pacific and UC Davis, notching his second and third games this year with three-or-more hits.
• Cortez was a combined 6-for-10 (.600) with a pair of doubles and three RBI against the Tigers and Aggies, while throwing out a pair of would-be base stealers against UC Davis from behind the plate.
• Cortez has a hit in six games this season, posting multiple hits and driving in at least one run in five of those contests.
• Aloy's two-hit night against Pacific marked his team-high 17th multi-hit game of the season and his 11th in his last 16 contests.
• Carson Blatnick's two-hit performance against UC Davis tied his season high set against Nevada on March 2 at home.
• Jorge Bojorquez extended his hitting streak to four games with his season high-tying three hits against Pacific and UC Davis, batting .412 (7-for-17) with five runs scored, three extra-base hits, and a pair of RBI.
• Garet Crenshaw owns the team's longest active hitting streak at five games, batting .350 (7-for-20) with six RBI and four extra-base hits (two doubles, one triple, one home run).
• Smith's season-best seven-game hitting streak came to an end on Tuesday at UC Davis, but the freshman has still done well to raise his batting average 83 points, hitting .424 (14-for-33) over his last eight, with nine runs scored, 11 RBI, four doubles, four home runs, and his first five walks of the season.
• Junior right-handers Jasper Nelson (6.0IP-5H-0R-0ER-1BB-8K) and Evan Gibbons (6.0-5-2-2-2-3) came through with the third and fourth "quality starts" (six innings pitched, three earned runs allowed or fewer) by a Hornet pitcher this season in games one and three against Utah Valley last weekend.
• The two performances also marked only the fourth and fifth times that a Sacramento State pitcher has thrown at least six innings this season, joining Noah Takacs (7.0 innings vs. St. Thomas), Gibbons (6.0 innings vs. Grand Canyon), and Noah Lucchesi (6.1 innings vs. Stephen F. Austin).
• Sophomore right-hander Tyler Stewart came up big on the mound against Pacific, striking out a career high-tying seven batters as the first reliever out of the bullpen, matching his total against North Dakota State on Feb. 19 earlier this year.
• The seven strikeouts were part of a 15-strikeout effort by the Hornet pitching staff — the most since Sacramento State pitchers finished with the same number at Northern Colorado on April 24, 2021.
• A pair of Hornets made their collegiate debuts on the mound at UC Davis on Tuesday as freshman Benjy Tucker threw two scoreless innings and freshman Jaxon Byrd pitched a shutout fourth, each collecting their first career strikeouts.
• Meanwhile, freshman Conor Hourigan made his first career start against the Aggies, allowing an unearned run on one hit in his lone inning of work.
• Junior right-hander Cooper Rons locked up his first collegiate save with a perfect 10th inning against Pacific, striking out one while getting a pair of ground balls to clinch the victory.
• Rons became the first Hornet pitcher not named Jack Zalasky to record a save since Kevin Haynes did so against Utah Valley on May 15 of last year.
• Freshman right-hander Xavier Richards has been stingy as of late, notching a career-high four strikeouts in three innings of relief against Pacific, while holding opponents to a single run on five hits over his last 5.1 innings of work (four appearances), striking out eight against only three walks.
• Sacramento State's defense has turned 29 double plays this season, entering the week tied atop the WAC leaderboard with California Baptist while ranking No. 15 in the NCAA (as of April 12).

RECYCLED NOTES

HORNETS PICKED FOURTH IN THE WAC...

According to a vote of the league's head coaches released on Feb. 9, Sacramento State was picked to finish in a tie for fourth in the new-look WAC standings, receiving 100 points to match Abilene Christian and UT Rio Grande Valley. Reigning regular season champion Grand Canyon picked up 10 first-place votes and 141 points overall to out-pace Sam Houston, which received three first-place votes and 131 points. California Baptist was third with 115 points.

THE BUZZ ON THE HORNETS...

Sacramento State is coming off a 2022 season that saw the Hornets finish 32-26 overall and 17-14 in Western Athletic Conference play, ending the year third in the league's West Division and finishing the conference tournament with a 2-2 record. Sacramento State returns 15 letter winners, six position starters, and eight pitchers for the 2023 campaign, while welcoming 20 new faces -- 13 freshmen and seven transfers -- for the upcoming season.

ZALASKY NAMED PRESEASON ALL-WAC...

Senior right-hander Jack Zalasky was one of 14 players named to the WAC's preseason all-conference team in advance of 2023 after finishing 3-4 with a 3.21 ERA and 11 saves on the year -- the latter stat tied for second on the school's single-season list, third in the league, and No. 18 in the NCAA at the end of 2022. Zalasky struck out 53 against only 11 walks over 47.2 innings and held opponents to a .226 average as the Hornets' closer.

MORE HONORS FOR ZALASKY...

The senior was also named to the preseason watch list for the NCBWA's Stopper of the Year award -- given to the top relief pitcher at the NCAA Division I level since 2005 -- on Feb. 16, one of 81 players to make the cut among group that features 12 preseason All-Americans.

D1 BASEBALL ACCOLADES...

Sacramento State receiving some national attention in advance of the 2023 campaign as D1 Baseball highlighted a number of Hornets in its preseason WAC preview. Newcomer Wehiwa Aloy was the site's pick for league Freshman of the Year, while outfielder Cesar Valero, infielder/outfielder Josh Rolling, and infielder Jorge Borjorquez, were among its top 25 prospects for the 2023 Draft. Aloy and fellow newcomer Xavier Richards were among their top 10 list of impact first-year freshman as well. You can read their entire conference preview at D1Baseball.com (subscription required).

THE SCHEDULE...

The old mantra of, "in order to be the best you have to play the best," rings true for the Hornets in 2023 as they will face six programs that reached last year's NCAA Tournament (Stanford, UCLA, Louisiana Tech, Central Michigan, Grand Canyon, and New Mexico State) and seven schools that finished in the top 100 in the final NCAA RPI rankings (Stanford, Louisiana Tech, UCLA, Grand Canyon, Central Michigan, Nevada, and Tulane).

CHANGES IN THE WAC...

The Western Athletic Conference baseball landscape looks a little different than it did in 2022. Gone are the West and Southwest Divisions as the league now consists of a single 13-team table for 2023. Gone is Lamar, which returned to the Southland Conference, replaced by UT Arlington. Also gone is Dixie State, but in name only, as they enter the year rebranded as Utah Tech. California Baptist is now eligible for the WAC Tournament, while Utah Tech and Tarleton have two seasons remaining on their transition to the Division I level.

NEW KIDS ON THE BENCH...

The Sacramento State bench will feature a new face and a familiar face in a new position in 2023 as former Grand Canyon pitching mentor Jon Wente joins the Hornets in a similar role while all-time great Matt Smith with serve as a volunteer coach this season. The two take the places of the departed Tyler LaTorre, who is now the head coach at NAIA Westmont College in Santa Barbara, Calif., and Victor Sanchez, who accepted a full-time position as the pitching coach at Queens University in Charlotte, N.C. Also joining the staff is Tyler Wente, the son of Jon, who assumes the role as the program's Director of Baseball Operations.

PERFECT 10...

No other Division I program in the state of California has been the picture of consistency quite like Sacramento State has over the last 10 years as the Hornets have won 30 games in each of the last 10 full seasons dating back to 2012 -- something no other Division I school has done in that span -- while also winning 40 games twice (2014 and 2019) and claiming the WAC Tournament title and subsequent NCAA Tournament berth three times (2014, 2017, 2019).

MILESTONE CHECK...

Martin Vincelli-Simard
- His 13 sacrifice files are tied for sixth on the all-time list with Rhys Hoskins (2012-14), and one back of David Del Grande (2010-14) for fifth.
- His 24 home runs are 10th all time and are one away from Rhys Hoskins (2012-14) for ninth.
- His 31 doubles are 9 away from Scotty Burcham (2012-15) for 10th.
- His 117 RBI are 9 behind Vinny Esposito (2015-18) for 10th.

Jack Zalasky
- Zalasky's 22 saves are third on the all-time list, just four behind Mike Frame (1987-89) for second.
- His 82 appearances are fourth on the all-time list, standing five behind Brady Rodriguez (2018-22) for third.
- His 155 strikeouts are 28 behind Austin Roberts (2017-19) for 10th

Jorge Bojorquez
- His 27 doubles are 13 away from Scotty Burcham (2012-15) for 10th
- His 16 home runs are eight away from tying teammate Martin Vincelli-Simard for 10th.

Cesar Valero
- His 18 home runs are five away from tying James Outman (2016-18), Joe Evans (2000-02), and Derek Brown (1994-95) for 10th.

Head Coach Reggie Christiansen
- Needs 6 more wins to reach 500 for his head coaching career
- Needs 13 more wins for 400 at Sacramento State
- Needs 17 more wins for 500 Division I victories
- Needs 24 more wins for 200 Western Athletic Conference wins

CAL-I-FORN-IA WINNING...

It's no dream on such a winter's day for the Hornets, whose 352 wins during their 10-year streak of 30-or-more wins in a season ranks fourth among California schools in that span, trailing only UCLA (402), Stanford (387), and UC Santa Barbara (374).

IT'S IN THEIR BLOOD...

The green and gold runs strong in the veins of these Hornets, who have connections to Sacramento State:
- Carson Blatnick is the third in his family to attend Sacramento State after both his brothers, Connor and Chase, graduated from the University.
- Ryan Christiansen is the son of Head Coach Reggie Christiansen.
- Conor Hourigan's father, Daniel, was a pitcher at Sacramento State in 1982-83.
- Kevin Haynes' sister, Lexi, was a four-year letter winner for the Hornets' rowing team (2015-18).
- Evan Gibbons' mother, Raechelle, graduated from Sacramento State.
- Trey Goodrich's older brother, Trent, was an infielder for the Hornets in 2016-17.
- Jack Zalasky's father, Patrick, was a pitcher for the Hornets in 1992-93, while his grandfather, Vince, played football at Sacramento State in 1962-63.

THE TREE GROWS STRONGER...

Head Coach Reggie Christiansen has three former members of the Sacramento State staff who are now Division I head coaches: Jake McKinley, who was an assistant with the Hornets from 2010-13), takes over as head coach at Nevada this season; Tommy Nicholson, who served two stints as an assistant in 2011-12 and 2017, is in his second year at Causeway rival UC Davis; and Steve Holm, who was an assistant/associate head coach from 2013-16, is in his fifth year as head coach at Illinois State. In addition, Jake Angier, who was an assistant and associate head coach for the Hornets from 2014-19, is an assistant at Oregon, while former players Trevor Paine and Grant Kukuk are head coach at William Jessup and assistant coach Utah Valley, respectively.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SACRAMENTO STATE - 2011-PRES. (387-321)

- Christiansen is a two-time Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year (2012, 2014)
- Led the Hornets to three WAC Tournament Championships, including the program's first ever title in 2014. Repeated in 2017 and 2019.
- Responsible for two of Sacramento State's three Division I 40-win seasons (2014, 2019) and two of six 40-win seasons all-time.
- Named the 2012 and 2014 MLB Northern California Scouts' Division I Coach of the Year
- Under Christiansen, Sacramento State is the only Division I program in California with 30+ wins in each of the last 10 seasons.
- Helped lead the Hornets to their second-ever national ranking in February of 2022 following a 7-0 start, ranked No. 20 by Baseball America, No. 23 by D1 Baseball, No. 24 by NCBWA, and No. 25 in the USA Today coaches poll.
- First national ranking came in 2021, coming in at No. 24 in back-to-back weeks in the April 5 and April 12 Collegiate Baseball polls.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE - 2005-08 (96-113)

- Oversaw the Jackrabbits' transition to Division I, leading the team to a 96-113 record.

KANSAS - 2003-04

- In two seasons with Kansas, helped lead the Jayhawks to several program offensive records, including leading the Big 12 in batting during the 2004 season.

MENLO COLLEGE - 2002 (11-29)

- Made his head coaching debut with his alma mater, the Menlo Oaks (Division III), in 2002 after previously serving as an assistant for the program from 1997-99.
