SERIES HISTORY: TENNESSEE

The Bisons and Volunteers will meet for the 16th time in Lipscomb's Division I era and the 18th all-time.

With the Vols playing and beating the Bisons during the NAIA era in 1979 and 1982, the Bisons battled the Volunteers for the first time as Division I members on March 16, 2004.

Tennessee holds a 14-3 all-time record, including a an 11-2 mark at Lindsey Nelson Stadium. Lipscomb's two wins came in the 2020s, defeating UT 4-1 on April 27, 2021 and April 30, 2024.

Playing just three times in Nashville, Lipscomb's lone win over UT at home came on March 18, 2008.

SLAMMING THE DOOR

The duo of Collin Bosley-Smith and Jackson Lee combined to throw a four-hit shutout of North Alabama in the series finale on April 19 to not only take the series in Florence but also the season series over the Lions.

Bosley-Smith tossed a career-high eight strikeouts in five innings to pick up the win, while Lee added four in his four innings to earn his first collegiate save.

For Lipscomb, it is the first shutout in Atlantic Sun Conference regular season play since March 26, 2023 at Queens.

Overall, it was the Bisons' first shutout since Feb. 28, 2025 against Villanova.

Over the course of the three games in Florence, the Bisons held the Lions to a .189 batting average against and a 2.42 ERA with 23 strikeouts.

THOMAS DELIVERS THE POWER IN CONFERENCE PLAY

In 17 ASUN games, Jordan Thomas is second on the team in slugging with an .860 percentage.

Leading the team with 44 bases, the junior transfer has seven home runs and 20 RBI.

PRUITT THE RBI MACHINE

Cam Pruitt has been an RBI machine as the teams make the turn to the second half of the ASUN Gold Division schedule.

Helping Lipscomb to win its first three ASUN series, his 23 RBI is good for second in conference games.

Additionally, his 25 hits is tied for the team lead with Brady Miller.

LLINAS LOOKING TO BUILD ON EKU START

On March 27 against Eastern Kentucky, Alexander Llinas posted his best performance in a Lipscomb uniform. The two-time transfer pitched career-high in innings (6.1) and strikeouts (9).

After not recording more than three strikeouts at Nova Southeastern last year and two during his time at Nicholls, Llinas has posted five-strikeout performances or more in three starts in 2026.

It was a rocky start for the senior transfer, who allowed a lead-off walk and home run before settling in to retire nine of the next 11 batters faced, allowing a hit by pitch and a batter reaching on a fielding error in the stretch.

In conference play, his 18 punchouts in three ASUN starts are good for fourth.

FRESHMAN BEDDINGFIELD DELIVERS IN EXTRAS

Against Eastern Kentucky on March 27, the contest went into extra innings. In the 10th, Brock Beddingfield came in behind the plate to catch.

In the 11th, with runners on first and second, he helped new reliever Collin Bosley-Smith get out of the jam. After a bunt strikeout, Bosley-Smith got Pedro Moreno to strikeout swinging on a full count. With the runners hesitating to move up, Beddingfield threw a strike down to Cam Pruitt at third base to complete a double play.

Later, to lead off the 12th, he smashed a walk-off home run to left field to secure the victory.

MAHAN GETS GO-AHEAD HITS AGAINST PEAY

Keaton Mahan posted back-to-back go-ahead base hits for the Bisons in the series win over Austin Peay on March 20-22.

In the series opener on March 20, tied at eight runs apiece in the top of the eighth, he delivered a double into the right center field gap that scored two in Kai Holm and Brady Miller to give the Bisons a 10-8 lead en route to an 11-8 victory.

On Sunday, his two-run single in the fourth started a rally of 13 unanswered runs, including an 11-run sixth, to knock off the Govs in a laugher, 19-5, in Clarksville.

BATTLE OF THE BOULEVARD TO THE BISONS

From 2004-12, Lipscomb and Belmont participated in the Atlantic Sun Conference and played three-game series.

Since 2013, when the Bruins left the ASUN for the Ohio Valley Conference (now currently in the Missouri Valley Conference), the two teams, separated by two miles, played a midweek regular season home-and-home.

For 12 straight years (excluding 2020), Belmont had won six of the midweek season matchups with six splits, including the road team winning the matchups in 2025.

However, for the first time in the stretch, the Bisons swept the Bruins in teh regular season, winning 8-2 at Ken Dugan Field on Feb. 24 and 4-1 at E.S. Rose Park a month later.

It marked the first time since 2002 that Lipscomb swept a home-and-home from Belmont. At the time, Belmont was a member of the ASUN, while Lipscomb was an independent in Division I during its provisional status from the NAIA.

KANTOLA DELIVERS IN BULLPEN

In his last two outings, Kaleb Kantola has shoved for the Bisons. In his last two appearnaces against Central Arkansas and North Alabama, he has thrown 4.2 scoreless innings, allowing two hits and striking out seven.

In 11.2 innings pitched, he has allowed one run wiht 13 strikeouts and holding opposing batters to a .150 against.

LEE KEEPS FOOLING THE OPPOSING BATS

Coming out of the bullpen on Feb. 24 against Belmont, Jackson Lee was the major reason Lipscomb ended a nine-game losing streak to the Bruins at home.

Tossing five shutout innings, the freshman punched out a career-best seven batters out of the 20 batters he faced. Firing 73 pitches, 49 of them caught the strike zone.

HAVE A WEEK, STEGGY AND KAI!

Between Aaron Stelogeannis and Kai Holm, the two had a combined 10 out of the team's 22 hits against No. 4 Mississippi State in early March.

Stelogeannis put together a 5-for-11 week with an RBI. Holm also added a 5-for-10 day over the three games.

HOLM RETURNS TO BROOKS WALLACE WATCH LIST

For the second straight year, Kai Holm has been listed on the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List.

Given to the top shortstop in NCAA Division I, the Brooks Wallace Award is named for former Texas Tech shortstop Brooks Wallace, who played for the Red Raiders from 1977 to 1980. Wallace died of leukemia at the age of 27.

Holm is one of two representatives from the Atlantic Sun Conference, joining Leighton Jenkins from North Alabama.

SKIP CELEBRATING THE BIG 2-0

The 2026 season will be the 20th for Jeff Forehand as the head coach of the Lipscomb Bisons.

The two-time ASUN Coach of the Year enters year number 20 in the Lipscomb dugout (and the third base coaches box) as the second-winningest active head coach in the ASUN, trailing Dave Tollett of Florida Gulf Coast.

MILLER TIME IN YEAR TWO

After a stellar first collegiate season that landed him on the ASUN All-Freshman Team, Brady Miller returns for his sophomore year.

Finishing as one of the top five freshman hitters last season with a .287 batting average and an .813 OPS, he was one of four players that hit .300 or better in ASUN games.

40 of 46 starts saw him at the top two spots of the lineup.

He was a true table setter for the Bisons last season, reaching base 40% of the time when leading off an innings (23-of-57).

ONE OF FIVE

Head coach Jeff Forehand is one of five head coaches all-time in the ASUN's baseball history (since 1979) to win 500 games with one conference school. Below is the top five:

1	Pete Dunn, Stetson (1986-2016)	1085-777-3
2	Barry Meyers, Mercer (1979-2003)	629-659-5
3	DAVE TOLLETT, FGCU (2008-Pres.)	605-412-1
4	Jay Bergman, Central Fla. (1993-2005)	526-274
5	JEFF FOREHAND (2007-Pres.)	522-552

Last season, Forehand earned his 500th career victory with the Bisons against Eastern Kentucky on April 27, 2025.

(Note that Dave Tollett's win-loss total in this listing is just for his time FGCU has been in Division I. He has been head coach since 2003)

WE ARE THE "BYE-SONS"

We are the "BYE-SONS" at Lipscomb. Don't confuse us with North Dakota State as they are pronounced the "BYE-ZIN."

Act like you are from the South.

The most commonly accepted plural of "bison" is bi-son, but at Lipscomb, we are the BISONS with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bisons as a proper usage.

PUCKETT ON NCBWA STOPPER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Looking to solidify the back-end of the bullpen, Brock Puckett was one of 104 NCAA Division I pitchers named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Preseason Watch List.

A graduate student from Murfreesboro, Tennessee, he posted a 2.91 earned run average in 21.2 innings last season. Recording two wins and three saves, he struck out 27 batters, including a season-high three during the ASUN Tournament against Central Arkansas.

Allowing opposing batters to a .165 clip in 2025, Puckett allowed right-handed batters to an .089 mark (4-of-45) mark and had a .191 average (9-of-41) with runners on base.

FINDING THE STROKE IN 2026

Lipscomb finished second in the Gold Division in the Atlantic Sun Conference last season and finished second in a number of categories last season inside 30 league games:

- Batting average (.295)
- On-base percentage (.400)
- Slugging percentage (.486)
- Runs scored (219)
- Doubles (64)
- Home runs (48)
- Runs Batted In (203)

CATCHING THEM LOOKING AND SWINGING

One thing that went under the radar for Robert Zeigler's pitching staff in 2025: strikeouts, and not the swinging variety.

While the Bisons finished fifth in the league with 131 called third strikes from their hurlers, 84 of them came in league play, which marked the most for any ASUN team last season.

The Bisons, in their ASUN Championship season in 2023, saw a league-best 88 opposing batters called out on strikes in league games.

LOOKING TO IMPROVE IN ONE-RUN GAMES IN '26

Lipscomb recorded a 7-8 mark last season in one-run affairs last season, including a defeat that eliminated the Bisons from the ASUN Tournament in 2025.

However, Lipscomb's 6-5 win over North Alabama on March 29 was the 100th one-run win at Dugan Field since 2001.

The Bisons are 100-68 (.595 winning percentage) in one-run games at home. Overall, they have 146 one-run wins.

FAMILY CONNECTION FOR HOUSTON HIGH

The name Houston High might not be familar to Lipscomb University lore, but his parents might ring a bell.

His father, Brent High, played baseball at Lipscomb from 1992-96. After graduation, he served as Lipscomb's sports information director from 1996-99. Later, he returned to Lipscomb to serve as Assistant Director of Athletics from 2007-11, overseeing development and external affairs. In the fall of 2011, he was promoted to Associate Athletic Director for Spiritual Formation until 2015.

His mother, Emily Pleasant High, was a NAIA All-American with the Bisons women's basketball program in 1997. Attending LIpscomb from 1994-97, she scored 1,484 points and waa a part of back-to-back NAIA national semifinal appearances in 1995 and 1996.

His brother, Hunter, is currently on the Tennessee baseball team and has played in 36 career games with the Vols.

Playing at Lipscomb Academy during his prep career, Houston played collegiately at Union University (2021), Volunteer State Community College (2022), Freed-Hardeman University (2023-24) and Tennessee Tech (2025).

DOING THE DIVISION THING AGAIN IN 2026

For the second straight year, the Atlantic Sun Conference will feature Division play in its conference schedule.

The 2026 ASUN Schedule will feature a divisional format, with teams playing home-and-home series inside their own division. There will not be any conference games played outside the division.

Lipscomb, playing in the Gold Division, will play Austin Peay, Bellarmine, Central Arkansas, Eastern Kentucky and North Alabama.

The Graphite Division will consist of Florida Gulf Coast, Jacksonville, North Florida, Queens, Stetson and West Georgia.

The top four teams in each division of the regular season conference standings will qualify for the conference championship.

The 2026 ASUN Championship will take place May 19-23 in DeLand, Florida at Conrad Park at Melching Field.

Top Four Teams in Each Division Qualify

Each team will be seeded 1-4 within each division, based on regular season divisional standings.

The 1 seeds from each division will be seeded as the 1 and 2 in the bracket, and determined by RPI.

The 2 seeds from each division will be seeded as the 3 and 4 in the bracket, and determined by RPI.

The 3 and 4 seeds from each division will be seeded 5-8 based on RPI.

If aligned to play a team from the same division in the first round, the bracket will be altered for cross divisional play.

All RPI determinations will be made based on that released the day following the conclusion of the regular season.

A two-time Atlantic Sun Coach of the Year selection, the 2025 season marks the 20th for Jeff Forehand as the head coach of the Lipscomb University baseball program.

After being named the 15th coach in the history of the storied Lipscomb program in 2007, Forehand has racked up over 600 collegiate wins and sits as the winningest skipper in the program's NCAA era with a 505-533record.

His overall record as a collegiate head coach is 716-675-1 (.517) in 25 seasons. He earned his 600th career win on February 19, 2022 with a decisive 12-4 victory over Akron – only the second game of the season.

During his tenure, Forehand has led the Bisons to three ASUN Championships and the only three NCAA Tournament appearances in program history in 2008, 2015 and 2023.

He has mentored 63 All-ASUN selections and 13 superlative award winners, including 11 First Team All-Conference selections, 21 Freshman All-ASUN selections, three ASUN Defensive Players of the Year, two ASUN Tournament MVPs, two ASUN Scholar Athletes of the Year, two ASUN Pitchers of the Year, and one ASUN Freshman of the Year.

In addition, Forehand has coached one All-American, four Freshman All-Americans, five All-Region honorees and the program's first-ever ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove recipient in 2017 – one of only nine to be honored in Division I.

His peers in the ASUN selected him as the league's coach of the year in 2022 and 2023.

Having players drafted is nothing new for Forehand as 17 of his student-athletes have received the call on draft day – including a program record three in 2017. There have been 33 total draftees in Lipscomb's history, with the most recent being Hayden Frank in the 15th round by the Chicago Cubs.

Casey Bond, who played in the Hollywood feature film Moneyball, and John King got the trend started in Forehand's first season in 2007 as both were selected by the San Francisco Giants. A right-handed pitcher, King was a 17th-round selection, while Bond got the call in the 25th round. Also, among the Lipscomb standouts who have been drafted under Forehand are right-handed pitcher Ike Buxton, drafted by the Miami Marlins in the 15th round in 2022, catcher Caleb Joseph, who was drafted in the 7th round by the Baltimore Orioles in 2008, and righty hurler Josh Smith, who was chosen by the Cincinnati Reds in the 21st round in 2010.

Highlighting the draftees under Forehand's direction was the 2017 class. Center fielder Michael Gigliotti was a fourth round pick by the Kansas City Royals, right-handed hurler Brady Puckett was taken in the 15th round by the Miami Marlins and Jeffrey Passantino heard his named called as the last selection of the draft by the defending champion Chicago Cubs in the 40th round.

It marked the first time in program history that the Bisons had multiple players chosen in the first 15 rounds of the draft, with the second coming in 2023 with Logan Van Treeck and Caleb Ketchup.

Prior to his arrival, Lipscomb had not posted a winning season since joining Division I as a full member in 2004.

After finishing just two games shy of .500 in his first season (28-30) in 2007, the Bisons posted a 33-30 overall mark and won a program-record 19 conference games en route to the team's first-ever ASUN title and NCAA postseason berth in 2008.

A major underdog, Lipscomb traveled to Athens, Georgia, taking out host Georgia in the opening round of the NCAA Tourney before falling to Georgia Tech in round two. That setup a rematch with the Bulldogs and Georgia prevailed in round two ending the Bisons first NCAA Regional.

Forehand's 2009 club came within one win of back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament falling in the A-Sun championship game. That season would see another milestone for Forehand's program as pitcher Rex Brothers would become the second Lipscomb player drafted in the top round of the Major League Baseball draft. Taken as the 34th overall pick in the draft by the Colorado Rockies, the hard-throwing lefty made a quick rise to the majors making his MLB debut June 6th, 2011 with a 96-mph fastball against the San Diego Padres.

With the departure of a number of key contributors to graduation and the MLB Draft, Forehand and the Bisons went the next five seasons without ever winning more than 25 games or anything better than a 4th-place finish in the ASUN.

Those results didn't stop Forehand and his staff from making headlines on the recruiting trail. Forehand's 2015 signing class was the highest-ranked class in program history, according to Perfect Game's rankings. Lipscomb finished with the 56th-best class, trailing only Vanderbilt (1st) and Tennessee (42nd) inside the state lines.

In 2014 Lipscomb got off to a slow 2-8 start before heating up in a hurry. The Bisons stung together a NCAA-era best 10-game win streak and won 14 of their next 15 games to put together a 33-28 overall record – tying the then record for wins in a season in the NCAA era.

The team rolled into the ASUN Championship as the No. 4 seed, but after knocking off top seed and host FGCU twice, Lipscomb won its way into the championship series with Kennesaw State.

Offense was hard to come by against the Owls as the team stranded 12 runners on base in a 7-1 loss. KSU parlayed that win into a Super Regional berth.

In 2015, Forehand pioneered the best season in the program's NCAA era winning a school record 39 games. It was the first time the Bisons had won at least 30 games in back-to-back seasons in Division I era.

Closing the season as road warriors with 15-straight wins on the road, the Bisons clinched the No. 2 seed as the traveled to Fort Myers, Florida for the ASUN Championship.

Great pitching and timely hitting powered Lipscomb's 4-0 record in the championship with back-to-back victories over top-seeded North Florida – who possessed one of the most potent offenses in the country.

In the title game, Forehand made one of the best moves of his career going to freshman Allan Hooker off the bench as a pinch hitter. After going down three runs after three innings, Hooker blasted a go-ahead 3-run bomb in the top of the fourth to give Lipscomb a 5-3 lead and it never looked back en route to a dog pile at the mound when the final out was made.

The Bisons didn't have to travel far as the committee sent them down the road to the Vanderbilt Regional. Earlier in the season on April 7 in a midweek at Hawkins Field, Lipscomb earned a 3-1 victory over then-No. 1 Vandy behind a 7.1-inning gem from freshman Brady Puckett – it was the fewest runs for the Dores in 29 games.

The NCAA Tournament matchup was a different story however, facing an MLB first rounder in Carson Fulmer. Vandy rode the hard-throwing righty to a 9-1 win in front of more than 3,600 fans in attendance. The very next day, the Bisons' season came to an end with a 5-2 loss to No. 2 Radford.

In 2016, the Bisons put together a third straight 30-win season after finishing 31-27 overall and 12-9 in the ASUN for a fourth-place finish.

Puckett – as a sophomore – was voted unanimously the ASUN's Pitcher of the Year and earned a Louisville Slugger Third Team All-American nod. He tossed his way to a 9-2 record and a 2.93 ERA in 15 starts. He led the league in wins, strikeouts (101), innings pitched (107.2) and ASUN Pitcher of the Week awards (4).

Lipscomb hosted the ASUN Tournament and downed Jacksonville 10-8 in the first round, but eventually dropped games against North Florida and FGCU to end the year.

Forehand entered the 2017 with arguably the most talented roster in program history and one that was thought to be the best in the ASUN. The head coaches around the league voted Lipscomb the ASUN preseason favorite for the first time in program history. The team didn't quite live up to that billing as it came down to the last game of the regular season for the Bisons to clinch the No. 6 seed.

After falling to Jacksonville in the first round, the Bisons upended host and No. 2 seed Stetson, 8-6. They then fell to FGCU the next day to end the season.

With a new roster that saw 10 players leave due to graduation and the MLB Draft, Lipscomb took its growing pains in stride in 2018, finishing 24-30. The marquee win came on March 27 at First Tennessee Park where the Bisons took down No. 8 Vanderbilt, 5-1, while holding them to just one hit.

In June of 2018, Forehand had his 12th player selected in the draft when the San Diego Padres called the name of second baseman Lee Solomon.

The 2020 season was a unique one for Forehand and his squad. This Bisons got out to a quick start and set a program record by winning the first six games of the season. However, due to the unforeseen circumstances brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic, the season was brought to a halt and canceled with just 16 games being played out of the scheduled 53. Lipscomb went 11-5 in those 16 games.

The shortened 2021 season saw an 11-11 home record for the Bisons, on their way to an 18-29 overall record for the season with eight of their matchups canceled. The squad interspersed their season with attention-grabbing victories, including a 4-1 triumph over SEC opponent #4 Tennessee at Lindsey Nelson Stadium on April 27.

Forehand hit a major coaching milestone in the second game of the 2022 season as he hit 600 wins in a 12-4 home victory over Akron to kick off the season on a strong note. The Bisons logged a 35-23 record including a 20-10 record against conference opponents. Forehand's 2022 team logged six series sweeps and saw two of their members to the pros as right-handed pitcher Ike Buxton was drafted by the Miami Marlins in the 15th round of the MLB draft and Trey Nordmann signed with the Baltimore Orioles in July.

Lipscomb finished the 2022 season with a 35-23 overall record and a 20-10 ASUN record, improving from just 18 wins during the 2021 season. The Bisons won the ASUN West Regular Season Championship, Lipscomb Baseball's first regular season title since the 2008 season. Building off of that stellar 2022 season, Forehand's 2023 ball club won both the regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for just the third time in program history. Forehand is now eager to begin their 2024 season, returning a health number of guys from the 2023 Championship team.

The 2024 season saw the Bisons go 22-34 on the campaign and 15-15 in the ASUN. Playing four SEC teams in Kentucky, Alabama, Vanderbilt and Tennessee, the Bisons picked up a huge midweek win over the No. 3 Vols, who eventually became the national champions of Division I baseball, on April 30.

Prior to taking over the Lipscomb program in 2007, Forehand had a highly successful stint across town at Trevecca Nazarene where he led the Trojans to a 211-142-1 in six seasons. At Trevecca, Forehand earned 2004 NAIA Region XI Coach of the year and was twice named TransSouth Conference Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2005. The Trojans also excelled in the classroom as the team grade point average increased a half a point in his tenure.

While at Trevecca, Forehand saw three players have their names called on draft day as Mario Campos (Red Sox, 2001), B.J. Jenkins (San Diego Padres, 2004) and Brad Coon (Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, 2005) each were selected.

Before taking over the Trojan's program, Forehand got his head-coaching start at Nashville's Goodpasture Christian School where in seven seasons he won three state titles (1995, 1997, 1999). He is also a three-time Tennessee State Coach of the Year honoree winning the award each of those three years. Prior to taking over the Goodpasture program, Forehand served as an assistant coach from 1990-92 under his father, Fred, at Montgomery Bell Academy.

A native of the "Music City", the former second baseman played college ball at nearby Belmont under coach Dave Whitten graduating in 1989. Forehand also holds a Masters of Education degree from Tennessee State.

A lifelong resident of the city of Nashville, Forehand and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Gant and Brooks.
