65 UT has appeared in 79 of the last 82 AP Top 25 Polls, including the past 65, the third-longest active streak in the nation.

16 Since 12/22/21, Tennessee is 16-5 versus AP top-15 foes, including 8-4 against AP top-10 teams and 5-3 versus the AP top five.

4 Zakai Zeigler, the reigning SEC DPOY, is one of four (4) three-time All-SEC Defensive Team honorees in league history.

TENNESSEE TABBED THIRD

- Tennessee placed third in the SEC preseason poll, as voted on by a select panel of league and national media members.
- Only the two Yellowhammer State schools, Alabama and Auburn, finished above Tennessee in the voting.
- This is the third straight year the Volunteers took a top-three position in the preseason media poll, the only school that can make such a claim. Tennessee held the top spot in 2023-24 and indeed went on to win the league title. In 2022-23, UT took third-place in the voting.
- Tennessee has claimed a top-five spot in the preseason media poll seven consecutive years, dating back to the 2018-19 edition.
- The full SEC preseason poll is below:

1.	Alabama	9.	Ole Miss
2.	Auburn	10.	Mississippi State
3.	Tennessee	11.	South Carolina
4.	Arkansas	12.	Georgia
5.	Texas A&M	13.	Missouri
6.	Florida	14.	LSU
7.	Texas	15.	Oklahoma
8.	Kentucky	16.	Vanderbilt

TIPPING OFF AS A TOP-15 TEAM

- Tennessee entered 2024-25 as a consensus preseason top-15 team. A list of the Volunteers' preseason top-15 positions is below (a "C" indicates computer poll and an "H" indicates human poll):

6.	BartTorvik.com	C	12.	Coaches Poll	H
8.	CBSSports.com	H	12.	EvanMiya.com	C
10.	The Athletic	H	12.	Haslametrics.com	C

11.	FOXSports.com	H	13.	KenPom.com	C
12.	AP Poll	H	13.	ESPN.com	H

- Since the Coaches Poll started in 1991-92, this is the 10th time UT has opened a season top-15 in both that and the AP Poll, including the fifth time under Rick Barnes and third in a row. The other years were 2023-24 (No. 9/10), 2022-23 (No. 11/11), 2020-21 (No. 12/14), 2018-19 (No. 6/6), 2009-10 (No. 10/11), 2008-09 (No. 14/13), 2007-08 (No. 7/7), 2000-01 (No. 9/8) and 1998-99 (No. 9/9).
- UT's No. 12 spot in the preseason AP Poll tied 2020-21 for the ninth-highest such mark in program history. This is also the fifth consecutive year Tennessee is featured in the preseason AP Poll, tying its longest mark ever, set 2006-07 to 2010-11. All five seasons have featured a top-20 placement— four in the top 12—good for UT's first such streak ever.
- The Vols are featured in the preseason Coaches Poll for the seventh consecutive year, dating back to 2018-19. That extends a program record, as the prior mark was five from 2006-07 to 2010-11. UT has claimed a top-20 spot in six of the seven years, placing top-12 four times.

PRESEASON PLAUDITS

- Zakai Zeigler was a Preseason First Team All-SEC pick from the media, alongside Auburn's Johni Broome, Florida's Walter Clayton Jr., Alabama's Mark Sears and Texas A&M's Wade Taylor IV.
- In addition, Zeigler was one of five individuals to earn votes for SEC Preseason Player of the Year, joining Sears (the designee), Broome, Taylor and Georgia's Asa Newell.
- This is the third year in a row Zeigler, a second-team choice in advance of both the 2023-24 and 2022-23 campaigns, garnered Preseason All-SEC honors from the media. He is the fourth such three-time selection in UT history, joining Allan Houston (first team in each of 1990-91, 1991-92 and 1992-93), Tony Harris (first team in each 1998-99, 1999-2000 and 2000-01) and Tyler Smith (second team in 2007-08, first team in both 2008-09 and 2009-10).
- The league's coaches also labeled Zeigler a Preseason First Team All-SEC choice, placing him alongside the same four players. It marked his third consecutive year receiving that distinction, the only such player in the league.
- Zeigler earned Preseason Second Team All-America plaudits from the Blue Ribbon Yearbook, with the other second-team choices Broome, Taylor, Duke's Cooper Flagg and Purdue's Braden Smith. Jay Bilas named him a Preseason Third Team All-American.
- After finishing as a Midseason Top 10 List selection last year, Zakai Zeigler was named to the Bob Cousy Award Top 20 Preseason Watch List this season. In addition, Chaz Lanier earned a spot on the Jerry West Award Top 20 Preseason Watch List.
- Zeigler was one of nine SEC players to earn a spot on the Naismith Trophy Preseason Watch List. He also made the Lute Olson POY Award Early Season Watch List, as did Darlinstone Dubar.

SIX IN A ROW

- Tennessee has reached every NCAA Tournament since 2018. The six straight bids tie 2006-11 for the longest streak in program history. The Volunteers made five trips in a row from 1979-83.
- UT is tied with Houston and Kansas (due to a vacated appearance) for the fourth-longest active NCAA Tournament streak in the nation, trailing only Michigan State (26), Gonzaga (25) and Purdue (nine). Baylor and Colgate are next with five.
- The Vols' current streak includes three—2018, 2023 and 2024—of their 10 all-time Sweet 16 appearances and their second Elite Eight trip ever (2024).
- UT has earned a top-five seed in each of its six NCAA Tournament trips under Rick Barnes: No. 3 in 2018, No. 2 in 2019, No. 5 in 2021, No. 3 in 2022, No. 4 in 2023 and No. 2 in 2024.
- The Vols' No. 2 seed in 2024 matched 2019, 2008 and 2006 for their best position ever.

WINNING WAYS

- Over the last eight seasons (2017-25), Tennessee paces all SEC programs in total wins (179) and overall winning percentage (.731), plus is tied for first in postseason victories (18). In that span, UT has three SEC titles (2018 and 2024 regular seasons, 2022 tournament).
- In that same eight-year stretch, the Vols are one of only three SEC teams with an overall winning percentage above .700, alongside Auburn (.728) and Kentucky (.704).
- In SEC play over the same eight-year period, Tennessee (86-39; .688) is second in the league, behind Kentucky (87-38; .696), in both victories and winning percentage. Only Auburn (81-45; .643) and Alabama (78-48; .619) have even 70-plus wins.
- Over just the last four seasons (2021-25), the Volunteers own an 87-28 (.756) overall record, that is good for the most victories and best winning percentage in the SEC over that span.
- In that same four-year span, Tennessee (39-15; .722) is tied with Kentucky for the best record in conference play among SEC teams.

It also marked the fourth time any visitor has ever scored triple digits at Rupp Arena, including the second time an SEC team has done so, joining Arkansas on 1/25/92 (105). The Vols had last scored triple digits in an SEC road game on 2/16/93, notching 101 at Arkansas.

NOT SO EASY IN NON-CON

- Tennessee has six non-conference games versus Power Five foes, including five away from home. Two are true road games.
- UT is one of just 20 Power Five schools playing multiple true road games in non-conference action.
- Of that group, the Volunteers are among a select group of 14 with two such games versus fellow Power Five programs. The other 13 are Alabama, Baylor, Cal (three), Cincinnati, DePaul, Gorgetown, Kansas, Marquette, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, South Carolina, Wake Forest and Xavier.

SHORT BENCH

- Tennessee entered the season with 11 scholarship players. By the end of November, it had just nine available for an extended period of time.
- As announced on 11/21/24, sophomore guard Cameron Carr is out 4-6 weeks due to a left thumb injury sustained versus Austin Peay (11/17/24).
- After missing three games in a row, J.P. Estrella was ruled out for the remainder of the season, as announced on 11/25/24, due to surgery needed on his left foot. Tennessee will apply for a medical redshirt for the sophomore forward.

MR. MASHACK

- Jahmai Mashack is the chair of the 2024-25 SEC Men's Basketball Leadership Council, as voted by his peers. This is Mashack's third straight year on the committee. He served as the vice chair in 2023-24.
- Mashack, for the second straight year, is the SEC's rep on the NCAA Men's Basketball Oversight Committee (MBOC) Student-Athlete Engagement Group.
- In 2023-24, Mashack earned SEC Community Service Team designation. In Tennessee, he works with Second Harvest to address the food scarcity crisis, personally providing food to over 3,500 people and aiding in the fundraising of over $1 million. At home in the Los Angeles area, he and his family regularly feed members of the homeless community.
- On 11/21/24, Mashack set up a virtual food drive for Second Harvest with the goal of raising $2,000 to feed 30 families at Thanksgiving. The goal was surpassed within hours and by the time the holiday came around, it was at approximately $14,000, enough to feed well over 200 families.
- Additionally, Mashack is a member of both V.O.I.C.E., a black student-athlete council for community service, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes, through which he speaks at schools and churches.
- Mashack was a member of the VOLeaders Academy in 2022-23. That program ended with a service and cultural emersiontrip to the Philippines in July 2023.
- From May-August 2024, Mashack displayed his work ethic on the court by making 30,000 jump-shots.

ALL AROUND AMERICA

- Tennessee's 15 players hail from 10 states and two foreign countries. The Volunteers are believed to be one of just 16 DI teams with double-digit states represented on its roster.

SEASON TICKETS EXCEED 13K AGAIN

- For the sixth straight full-capacity season, Tennessee has sold over 13,000 season tickets. The Vols sold out of the full allotment of 14,500 this year.

NATION'S MOST PASSIONATE FANS

- In both 2022-23 and 2023-24, Tennessee was the only school in America to rank in the top 10 in average home attendance for football, men's basketball and women's basketball.
- In 2023-24, Tennessee totaled 1,161,218 fans across the three sports, good for the highest mark in the country. It placed over 96,000 above second-place LSU despite hosting six fewer games.
- Tennessee's average attendance of 30,558 across the three sports in 2023-24 led the country and ranked over 3,500 above second-place Michigan.
- In 2023-24, UT placed third and fourth, respectively, in football total and average attendance, making it the only school top-five in football and men's basketball. It ranked ninth and seventh, respectively, in women's basketball.

ONE FLY, WE ALL FLY

- With approximately 14:00 left on on the clock, Tennessee executes its "One Fly, We All Fly" unified slam dunk, a tradition that started in 2018-19.
- Each game's dunker is determined by feel. His teammates circle the paint before he explodes toward the rim. When he takes flight, so do his teammates. As the ball is slammed and the Vols land in unison, UT fans let out a roar. The Vols then briefly return to the locker room for final preparations.
- Teams from all levels of basketball across the globe—including multiple NBA teams (even LeBron James weighed in on Instagram)—have replicated "OFWAF," which is believed to have been named by VFL Admiral Schofield.

Food City Center is the fifth-largest venue in the country, including third-largest among on-campus arenas. It is also the second-largest non-ACC facility in America, including the largest among the other Power Five conferences. It is one of just seven venues with over 20,000 seats.

One of the two schools with a larger arena, UNC Greensboro, only uses it part of the time, as it also has an on-campus facility. The same applies to St. John's, which ranks eighth with its off-campus venue.

VOLS IN THE PROS

EIGHT VOLS DRAFTED SINCE 2019

- Over the last six NBA Drafts (2019-24), eight Volunteers have been selected, the most in program history in a six-year span. The list includes four first-round picks.
- Three Volunteers were picked in the 2019 NBA Draft, matching the program record set in both 1977 and 1950 when the draft had double-digit rounds.
- Tennessee is one of just six schools with at least eight draftees in the last six years, alongside Duke, Connecticut, Gonzaga, Kentucky and Michigan. The Volunteers are also one of 15 teams with four-plus first-rounders in the past six drafts.
- Only six schools have produced an NBA draftee in at least five of the past six years. Tennessee joins Arkansas, Duke, Gonzaga, Kentucky, and USC on that list.
- Tennessee, Duke, Gonzaga and Kentucky are the lone four programs represented in at least five of the last six NBA Drafts while producing eight-plus total draftees.
- The eight Volunteers chosen in the past six years are guard Dalton Knecht (No. 17 in 2024), forward Julian Phillips (No. 35 in 2023), guard Kennedy Chandler (No. 38 in 2022), guard Jaden Springer (No. 28 in 2021), guard Keon Johnson (No. 21 in 2021), guard Jordan Bone (No. 57 in 2019), forward Admiral Schofield (No. 42 in 2019) and forward Grant Williams (No. 22 in 2019). Half of them—Phillips, Chandler, Springer and Johnson—were one-and-done collegians.
- Tennessee, Baylor, Connecticut, Duke, Gonzaga and Kentucky are the only schools with an NBA draftee in each of the past four years (2021-24).
- When Rick Barnes arrived on Rocky Top in 2015-16, only seven Vols had been picked in the prior 22 NBA Drafts (1994-2015), with just two in the first round.

CRUSHING THE COMBINE

- Under the tutelage of UT Director of Sports Performance Garrett Medenwald, a Tennessee alum has posted the highest max vertical leap at three of the the last four NBA Combine. Twice, that individual also had the top standing vertical leap.
- In 2021, Keon Johnson set the all-time NBA Combine record in the max vertical leap at 48 inches, shattering the 20-year-old mark by 2.5 inches. Kennedy Chandler finished first in 2022 at 41.5, while Julian Phillips did so in 2023 at 43.
- Johnson (41.5) and Phillips (36) both ranked first in standing vertical leap, as did Jordan Bone (36) in 2019. That year, Bone also led the way in the shuttle run (2.78) and lane agility (9.97), while Grant Williams did so in max bench reps (20).
- Most recently, in 2024, Dalton Knecht paced all NBA Draft Combine partipants in the shuttle run (2.79), plus placed second in lane agility (10.56).
- Over the last six NBA Draft Combines, a Tennessee player has posted the No. 1 result among all participants in 10 different events: max vertical (3x), standing vertical (3x), shuttle run (2x), lane agility and max bench press.

VOLS WELL REPRESENTED IN THE NBA

- Tobias Harris (2010-11) is in his 14th season in the NBA and the first year of his second stint with the Detroit Pistons, whom he signed a two-year, $52 million deal with in July 2024. He earned nearly $251 million in his first 13 years in the league, while averaging 16.3 PPG on 47.8 percent shooting for five franchises.
- Josh Richardson (2011-15) is in now in his 10th NBA season, including the second of his second stint with the Miami Heat. He totaled nearly $60 million in his first nine years, while putting up 11.6 PPG on 36.4 percent 3-point shooting for six organizations. He averaged 16.6 ppg for the Miami Heat in 2018-19.
- Grant Williams (2016-19) is now a sixth-year pro and is in his first full season with his hometown Charlotte Hornets. He is in the second season of a four-year, $53 million deal he inked with the Dallas Mavericks in July 2023. Williams averaged career highs in PPG (10.3), APG (2.3) and MPG (28.0) in 2023-24.
- Keon Johnson (2020-21) is a fourth-year pro in his second full season with the Brooklyn Nets. He made over $8 million and averaged 5.9 PPG in his first four seasons and signed a two-year, $4.5 million contract with Brooklyn in July 2024.
- Jaden Springer (2020-21) is coming off an NBA title with the Boston Celtics in 2023-24. He is the third Volunteer to win an NBA championship ring. Springer is in his fourth year in the league, including his first full season with Boston.
- Julian Phillips (2022-23) is in his second year in the NBA, all with the Chicago Bulls. He appeared in 40 games as a rookie and made $1.6 million.
- Dalton Knecht (2023-24) is a rookie with the Los Angeles Lakers. In his 11th official game, 11/13/24 against Memphis, he became the 19th NBA rookie ever to shoot 5-of-5 from deep. Six days later, he scored 37 points versus Utah and shot 9-of-12 beyond the arc to tie an NBA rookie record for made 3-pointers.
- Aided by seven Vols, tied for the fourth-most of any SEC team, there were 103 players from SEC schools on opening-day NBA rosters, 15 more than any other league. All but one 30 NBA team had an SEC player to start the season.

FAMILIAR FACE IN THE FRONT OFFICE

- Tennessee all-time leading scorer Allan Houston (1989-93) is the VP for Player Leadership & Development for the New York Knicks, whom he has worked for in a variety of roles since 2008. He joined the Everything Orange podcast on 11/21/24.

SECOND YEAR OF A NEW NAME

Tennessee Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White announced Aug. 23, 2023, a multi-year naming-rights agreement with longtime UT Athletics corporate champion Food City to rebrand UT's on-campus arena as Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center.

The agreement with Food City was negotiated by Tennessee Athletics' multimedia rights partner, LEARFIELD/The Vol Network. Food City's overall commitment to UT Athletics will allow the University to invest in excess of $20 million over 10 years and will aid new and needed renovations of the arena and upgrades to the facility's interior and exterior.

Among the planned additions to the venue will include new club amenities, updates to the Ray Mears Room and a state-of-the-art center-hung video board. The exterior façade of the facility will be modernized and the look will be more in line with Tennessee's other athletics venues.

Food City's longstanding commitment to supporting UT Athletics and the department's mission of leading the way in college sports dates to 1997. The privately held family-owned company is headquartered in Abingdon, Va., and operates 152 retail locations in Tennessee, Virginia, Kentucky, Georgia and Alabama.

Opened in the fall of 1987, the arena is named for the late B. Ray Thompson and former UT President Dr. Edward J. Boling. The venue has undergone multiple phases of renovations in its 36-year history, most notably an overhaul in 2007 that included the addition of two levels of premium suites and one level of premium loge seating spanning the arena's north end.
