WHAT 2 WATCH 4
• North Texas (6-1) completes Feast Week with a Friday night matchup against Wofford (4-4) of the SoCon.
• Tipoff is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. and will be available for streaming on ESPN+ with Owen Simpson and Alexis Davis on the call.
• The Mean Green have won five straight games to improve to 6-1 on the year. Most recently, they beat Dallas 106-38 in their third 100-point performance this season.
• UNT's high-pressure defense has wreaked havoc on opposing teams all season long and currently leads the nation with 29.43 turnovers forced per game. It also ranks fourth nationally in steals per game at 17.1.

CLEANING THE GLASS
• Longwood transfer Otaifo Esenabhalu is continuing the high rebounding standard set at UNT in recent years.
• Through seven games, Esenabhalu is nearly averaging a double-double at 9.9 points and 10.6 rebounds per game. Her offensive and total rebounding averages both rank top 20 in the country.
• Esenabhalu has already recorded three double-doubles this season, increasing her career total to 24. She has also grabbed at least 14 boards three times, including a career-high 18 in the season opener.
• With Esenabhalu patrolling the paint, the Mean Green lead the American Conference in rebound margin (+13.9) and rank top 20 nationally in total rebounds (46.0) and offensive rebounds (17.6) per game.
• Last season, Megan Nestor compiled 21 double-doubles and led the nation in rebounding at 14.1 per game. The year prior, Tommisha Lampkin averaged 10.1 boards per game and completed her career as the program's all-time leader in rebounds and double-doubles.

American Rebounding Leaders

1.	Hailey Adams	Rice	13.0
2.	Otaifo Esenabhalu	UNT	10.6
3.	Ashley Garner	UAB	9.5

BIRD IN FLIGHT
• Kalysta "Bird" Martin has impressed seven games into her UNT career after spending the past two seasons at Texas Tech.
• In just 19.0 minutes per game, Martin leads UNT and ranks among the league's leaders at 13.6 PPG. She is one of three American Conference players shooting 45% from the field on at least 10 FG attempts per game.
• She has reached double-digit scoring in six of UNT's first seven games. That stretch includes her first career double-double against Saint Francis (18 PTS, 12 STL) and a game-winning 3-pointer with six seconds remaining to defeat Arkansas State.
• A former four-star recruit out of San Antonio, Martin was rated the country's No. 63 player in the class of 2024. She is believed to be the highest-ranked high school recruit to ever suit up for the Mean Green.

CHERIE ON TOP
• Point guard Cherie Spencer is primed for a big sophomore season, filling the box score with 11.6 points, 5.7 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 3.3 steals per game thus far.
• Spencer is one of four players in the country to average 11+ points, 5+ rebounds, 5+ assists and 3+ steals per game this season.
• Her mark of 5.3 assists per game currently leads the American Conference, while her 2.85 assist-to-turnover ratio ranks second. Spencer has dished out 19 assists against just six turnovers over her past three games.
• Spencer recorded her first career double-double at San Diego State on Nov. 5, totalling 11 points and 11 rebounds apiece.
• By the sixth game of the year, Spencer had already set single-game career-highs in points, rebounds, assists and steals.

THE PRICE IS RIGHT
• The program's longest tenured player, guard Chania Price is looking to break out in her third season with the Mean Green.
• Price is scoring 9.0 points per game while shooting an impressive 48.6% from the field and 45.5% from behind the arc.
• She has scored in double figures three times, including a career-high 19 in the victory over UIW.
• Since joining the program ahead of the 2024-25 season, Price has played in 73 of 74 possible games. Tuesday's contest against Dallas was the first she has ever missed. She's started 29 of those games and been part of 50 victories overall.

RECORD-BREAKING ROUT
• UNT put together one of the most dominant performances in NCAA history when it crushed Saint Francis 144-20 on Nov. 18.
• The 144 points scored and 20 points allowed both marked program records, while the 124-point margin of victory ranks third-most by a Division I team since at least 1982. UNT's 144-point total is also the fifth-highest in Division I history.
• Within that scoring total, the Mean Green set program-bests with 41 third-quarter points and 78 overall in the second half.
• North Texas set an NCAA record with 57 steals as part of its 69 turnovers forced. Kalysta Martin led the way through 12 steals of her own, becoming the first UNT player to record double-digit steals in a single game.
• A record eight Mean Green players scored in double figures and all 12 active players had a steal. Other notable statistics included 80 bench points, 98 points created off turnovers and a 98-0 paint points advantage.
• As a team, UNT set another program high with 60 made field goals on the night.

SUPER AT THE PIT
• Head coach Jason Burton has guided North Texas to a 43-10 record (81.1%) at the Super Pit, good for the American Conference's highest home winning percentage in that span.
• That mark includes a 5-0 home record this season. The Mean Green are beating visitors by 56.6 points in those five games.
• UNT won a program-record 13 consecutive home conference games before the streak was snapped on Jan. 17, 2026.
• North Texas went 16-1 at the Super Pit during the 2024-25 campaign, setting a program record for home victories in a single season.

JASON BURTON

Head Coach
4th season at UNT • 73-33
13th season overall • 244-123

Jason Burton is in his fourth season as head coach of the Mean Green after being hired on March 27, 2023. The ninth head women's basketball coach in UNT history, Burton arrived in Denton after nine seasons as the head coach at East Texas A&M, formerly known as Texas A&M-Commerce.

Since taking over the Mean Green program, Burton has guided UNT to its most successful three-year stretch ever. North Texas is coming off its third straight season winning at least 19 games, a first in program history, and its 67 total wins in that span are the most in any three-year stretch throughout UNT's 50 seasons of competition. It also captured a share of the 2024 American Conference regular season championship, marking the program's second conference title, and appeared in back-to-back national postseason tournaments in 2024 and 2025.

In the three completed seasons since Burton's hiring, UNT's 67 total wins and 39 in league play both lead the American Conference. It also leads the league in several different statistical categories such as points per game (71.6), field goals per game (26.0), field goal percentage (42.8), free throws per game (14.9) and opponent 3-point percentage (28.4). Additionally, North Texas is one of two American Conference teams with three straight top-four finishes in the league standings and the only to have secured true road wins over a power conference opponent in each of the last two years.

Most recently, North Texas went 19-14 during the 2025-26 season and came within a victory of the American Conference tournament finals for the second year in a row. The Mean Green ranked top three among league competitors in both scoring offense and defense, finished tied for fourth in the conference standings and set the program record for 3-pointers in a season with 181. Sharpshooters Andi Schissler and Aysia Proctor played big roles in the record-breaking effort, each making 59 themselves to crack the top five on UNT's single-season list.

The 2025-26 season also saw the breakout of Megan Nestor, who went from NAIA play to Division I star under Burton's tutelage. Despite it only being her fourth year of competitive basketball and first at the DI level, Nestor emerged as one of the most dominant posts in the country by averaging 12.8 points and 14.1 rebounds per game. As the nation's leading rebounder, Nestor ranked top 10 in the country with 21 double-doubles while breaking nearly every UNT and American Conference rebounding record. She collected several postseason awards from the league, including Defensive Player of the Year and All-Conference First Team, and eventually spent time with the WNBA's Chicago Sky the following summer.

In his first season at the helm, Burton led North Texas to its first conference title since 1986 and an appearance in the inaugural Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament. He pioneered the Mean Green to the third best turnaround in Division I and best among all first-year head coaches with a 23-9 record.

He was named American Conference Coach of the Year and set single-season program records for regular season wins (23), conference wins (13), points per game (74.3), field goal percentage (46.3) and total points scored (2,379). His very first game as head coach also saw the Mean Green set a school record for points in a 117-42 victory over UNT Dallas in the season opener.

The Mean Green then built off that success during the 2024-25 campaign, setting program records for total wins, conference wins and home wins for the second consecutive season. North Texas posted an impressive 25-9 record on the season and went 15-3 in league play, good for a second-place finish in the regular season standings. Burton's squad continued its success at the Super Pit with a 16-1 home record, including an unbeaten conference slate that eventually stretched to a program-record 13 straight conference home victories.

Burton once again led UNT back to the postseason, earning a berth in the WNIT. There, it advanced to the Round of 16 after capturing the program's first ever win in the tournament with a 78-67 triumph over UT Arlington.

Under Burton, North Texas has accumulated 14 postseason honors from the American Conference. That includes six All-Conference selections, which is tied for most in the league during that span, and four individual award winners. Nestor and Proctor were UNT's most recent All-Conference selections in 2026, while Tommisha Lampkin was named to the First Team in each of the two previous years.

The all-time winningest coach in ETAMU history, Burton's East Texas A&M teams produced five All-Americans, three Lone Star Conference Player of the Year honorees, one South Central Region Player of the Year, three all-region players, 25 all-conference selections and five all-defensive picks. In total, Burton went 171-90 in nine seasons at ETAMU with four bids to the NCAA Division II Tournament.

In his final year at ETAMU, Burton guided the program through its first season transitioning to Division I competition. The Lions went 10-8 throughout league play in the Southland Conference before reaching the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Burton led the Lions to a program-best ranking of No. 2 in the WBCA poll and the top spot in the D2SIDA rankings during the 2021-22 season. The Lions eventually played in the LSC Championship for the third year in a row and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth straight time. His squad won 27 games that season, the second most in program history, and beat the Colorado School of Mines to advance to a regional semifinal in the NCAA Tournament.

During the shortened 2020-21 campaign, the Lions posted a 14-4 record, were ranked in the top 25 all season, won the LSC North Division title and earned their first NCAA Tournament win in over a decade. Future Mean Green stars Dyani Robinson and DesiRay Kernal were named Honorable Mention All-Americans by the WBCA after the season.

ETAMU's most successful season during the Burton era was 2019-20 when it tied the program record for wins with a 28-3 record and qualified for the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back years for the first time ever. Burton was named Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year and his team set program records for wins in a season (28), conference wins (20), consecutive wins (25), scoring margin (+18.4) and scoring defense (56.8). East Texas A&M won its first 25 games that year and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament before it was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The first five seasons of Burton's tenure at ETAMU showed steady improvement with win totals of 14, 16, 20, 18 and 20. The 20 victories in 2017 and 2019 marked the just the second and third 20-win seasons in program history.

A native of Plano, Texas, Burton joined ETAMU for the 2014-15 season following a two-year stint as a men's basketball assistant coach at Texas State and one year as head boys coach at McKinney Boyd High School. Prior to that, he served as an assistant coach and later associate head coach for the ETAMU men's program from 2007 to 2011.

Burton earned a BA in Business Administration in 2007 from Austin College, where he also played on the basketball team, and MBA from East Texas A&M two years later. He is married to the former Alexyndra Guiton, and the couple has two children, Braylon and Jalen.
