BY THE NUMBERS

19

Macomb Women's Basketball earned a season-opening, 72-62, victory over a tough Kellogg team thanks to balanced play and a gritty effort down the stretch. Down one at the half and tied through three quarters of play, the Monarchs (1-0) outscored the Bruins 19-9 over the game's final 10 minutes to earn the season-opening victory.

20

Two huge reasons why the Monarchs pulled away to win the opener was the play of Marissa Thomas and Tamia Tounsel as the pair of sophomores both poured in 20+ points. Tounsel started her sophomore campaign with a double-double of 22 points and 11 rebounds, while Thomas debuted with 21 points, seven rebounds and seven assists.

NEWS AND NOTES

THE BALANCE WAS THERE

While Thomas and Tounsel combined for nearly 60% of the scoring, the Monarchs received contributions throughout the roster as Enddiea Reese tallied 10 points and grabbed eight rebounds, while Kamryn Richards had nine points and six boards. Hannah Roberts tied Tounsel for a game-high 11 rebounds and Olicia Porritt recorded six points.

WON KEY BATTLES

In a back-and-forth game that featured eight ties and seven lead changes, the Monarchs were able to pull away late and earn the 10-point victory after edging the Bruins in several key statistical categories. The Monarchs won the following key battles in last week's triumph: points in the paint, 30-20; bench points, 18-5; points off turnovers, 14-6; fast break points, 12-7; and second chance points, 12-10.

A LOOK AT: DELTA

The Delta Pioneers have started the 2023-24 season with an 0-2 record after playing a pair of tough MCCAA Eastern Conference teams. Despite being 0-2 (at the time of this release), the Pioneers went down to the wire in each contest, losing both by single digits. Alecsis Smith's 14 points per game leads three in double figures for the Pioneers.

A LOOK AT: MADONNA JV

Not much is known about the Madonna JV team, but in games we could find results for the Crusaders are 0-2 with both setbacks coming to MCCAA competition. On Nov. 2, the Crusaders fell to Jackson, 66-47, before dropping a 61-57 decision to Muskegon on Nov. 6.

ABOUT THOSE SEASON OPENERS

With last week's 72-62 win over Kellogg, the Monarchs improved to 8-2 over their last 10 season openers (4-1 in the past five seasons) under the leadership of head coach Jay Ritchie. Last year, the Monarchs earned the program's 14th highest margin of victory in the opener after defeating visiting Community Christian College by a 96-33 final tally.

FIVE STRAIGHT ROAD GAMES

After two home contests this week, the Monarchs will hit the road for five consecutive away games. The lengthy road swing includes difficult stops at every turn, beginning at DIII No. 3 Owens on Nov. 21. The Monarchs visit reigning District A Champion, Mid Michigan, on Dec. 8 and North Central Michigan on Dec. 9 before trips to Glen Oaks (Dec. 15) and Kalamazoo Valley (Dec. 16) to close out their five-game road swing.

AROUND THE MCCAA EAST

The 2023-24 non-conference slate is underway for all eight MCCAA Eastern Conference teams. Through two weeks of action, three teams remain unbeaten as No. 18 Jackson is 4-0, followed by a pair of 1-0 teams in No. 14 Schoolcraft and Macomb. Wayne County checks in at 2-1 while SC4 is even at 1-1, OCC is 1-2, Mott is 0-2 and Henry Ford is 0-3.

JAY RITCHIE

HEAD COACH | 15TH SEASON

COACH FILE

- Winningest coach in program history in both wins (284) and winning percentage (.732)
- Has coached four NJCAA All-Americans and three Conference Players of the Year
- Led Macomb to five MCCAA Conference Championships and a pair of MCCAA "State" Championships

Jay Ritchie enters his 15th season as Head Coach of the Monarchs Women's Basketball program in 2023-24. Ritchie is the all-time winningest coach in program history with an overall record of 284-104 (.732) entering the 2023-24 campaign.

Last season (2022-23), Ritchie led the Monarchs to the program's 13th consecutive winning season and guided the Blue & White to another NJCAA Region XII Tournament appearance.

Recently, Ritchie's program went on a historic run, winning 43 straight contests from 2019 to 2021 while earning back-to-back MCCAA Eastern Conference crowns, two NJCAA Region XII Championships and a pair of berths to the NJCAA Division II National Championship.

Overall, Ritchie is a four-time MCCAA Eastern Conference Coach of the Year (2011-12, 2014-15, 2016-17, 2019-20) and three-time MCCAA Coach of the Year (2014-15, 2019-20, 2020-21). During his tenure, Ritchie has led the Monarchs to four MCCAA Eastern Conference Championships (2011-12, 2014-15, 2016-17, 2019-20) and one MCCAA Metro Conference Championship (2020-21). In addition to the league titles, the longtime head coach has also guided the program to a pair of MCCAA State Championships (now referred to as MCCAA Championships), one in 2014-15 and most recently in 2019-20. There was no MCCAA Championship held during the 2020-21 season.

Under Ritchie's tutelage, many student-athletes have garnered individual accomplishments, highlighted by four Monarchs being named NJCAA Division II All-Americans: Dominique Mahone (2011-12), Dayshia Vance (2014-15), Sade Lemons (2016-17) and Emily Swiercz (2020-21). In all, over 85 student-athletes have been named to various All-Region, All-Conference and All-MCCAA teams under Ritchie, including Conference Players of the Year (Sade Lemons, 2016-17; Dayshia Vance, 2014-15; Emily Swiercz, 2020-21).
