Nebraska Wesleyan University vs Dakota State University

SCOUTING NEBRASKA WESLEYAN

Nebraska Wesleyan enters 2024 looking to improve upon last season's 4-6 record. The Prairie Wolves are returning eight starters on both sides of the ball. This includes receiver Cole Siems, who ranks eighth in school history in receiving yards (1,571), and ninth in touchdowns (15). NWU's offense also brings back its top two running backs in Nathan Athouris and Trystin Myers. Last season, the due combined for 854 rushing yards and seven touchdowns. Defensively, NWU returns cornerback Aashton Kirkland, who led the team with two interceptions in 2023, and Eli Mackowski, who finished fourth on the team in tackles.

NEBRASKA WESLEYAN "W" CLUB

The Nebraska Wesleyan "W" Club provides funding to essential Nebraska Wesleyan items and projects in all sports, and allows he athletic department to allocate more of its general budget towards coaching and recruiting. The "W' Club gifts cover numerous items and projects which improve the overall student-athlete experience at NWU. A donation or reoccuring donations to the "W" Club provide valuable funds to be used towards items or projects such as new training equipment, new NWU branded items, team banquets, live streaming upgrades, and countless other items. By joining the "W' Club, you are helping to make a difference in bettering a student athlete in competition and giving them an experience that will go beyond their time on campus! Some past "W" Club funds have been used for team banquets, baseball windscreens, a new batting cage net, softball pitching machine, golf training net, new weight racks and weights, live streaming license, and a new NWU branded tent for cross country and track and field.
