The Future is Now

Cowboy Wrestling sets sights on first NCAA title in 20 years

May 7, 2024, doesn't seem that long ago. It's 915 days before the date of Oklahoma State's first dual of the 2026-27season. It's also the date that third-year head coach David "Magic Man" Taylor was hired and when Cowboy Wrestling began a new era. Since that moment, Taylor has built a program that has returned to the national scene and is now trying to turn that momentum into the program's first NCAA title in 20 years.

The 2025-26 squad went 15-1 on the season, winning its second straight Big 12 Championship and finishing runner-up at the NCAA Championships to mark its best team finish since 2016.

The freshmen trio of Jax Forrest, Landon Robideau and Sergio Vega hit the ground running, shocking the wrestling world by becoming the first freshmen trio to win individual championships for one team. Forrest and Vega went undefeated in their debut campaigns, with Vega not surrendering a single takedown all season.

An impressive eight Cowboys became All-Americans last season and all eight return in 2026. The aforementioned national champs join the list of Troy Spratley, Casey Swiderski, Zack Ryder, Cody Merrill and Konner Doucet as All-Americans returning to OSU for another year.

It's not just returning talent bolstering the roster as Taylor went out and got the No. 1 ranked recruiting class of 2026, according to MatScouts. The class is highlighted by U20 Silver Medalist Dreshaun Ross, the combined 11-time Kentucky state champion Raney brothers (Jordyn and Jayden), a California standout in Rocklin Zinkin and several other young additions.

Taylor didn't stop on the recruiting trail. He went to the portal to round out an already talent-plentiful roster. Starting with All-American Bennett Berge from South Dakota State, Berge loads in at 184 pounds and enters Stillwater with the most collegiate victories on the team, netting 80 wins in his time as a Jackrabbit. Sophomore Lorenzo Norman hails from Stanford and comes to OSU with more than 30 wins and an NCAA Championships berth.

For more than 900 days, the wrestling world has seen the success and heard the noise coming from Stillwater: back-to-back Big 12 titles, a runner-up finish in Cleveland and three freshman national champions. Oklahoma State Wrestling is growing at an exponential rate, landing the No. 1 ranked recruiting class, securing the nation's top transfers and returning all eight All-Americans.

The minds of Cowboy fans across the country are starting to believe, and OSU's Magic Man has every piece in place for perhaps his greatest trick yet: bringing the NCAA team title back to Stillwater for the first time in more than 20 years.

Season Preview

The Schedule

Oklahoma State wrestling and head coach David Taylor's 2026-27 schedule is highlighted by seven opportunities to see the Cowboys compete in Stillwater.

OSU will host six duals this season and seven events at historic Gallagher-Iba Arena. The Cowboys will face nine opponents that were featured on last year's slate, with OSU defeating all nine by an average margin of 21.8 points.

The Pokes begin the campaign Nov. 1 with the Cowboy Invitational, a first-of-its-kind tournament designed for revenue generation, in which three mats will be on the floor of Gallagher-Iba Arena. Gardner-Webb, Little Rock and Southern Illinois-Edwardsville make the trip to Stillwater to compete with the Cowboys in the individual tournament.

Dual action gets underway a week later as the Cowboys host Drexel on Nov. 8. OSU is undefeated against Drexel, with the Cowboys winning a 45-0 shutout in the last match in 2021.

Friday, Nov. 13, sees a primetime matchup with regional rival Nebraska at Gallagher-Iba Arena. The Cowboys are 25-1 at home against the Cornhuskers. Last season, Taylor and the Cowboys went 2-0 against Nebraska, picking up wins at the National Duals and in Lincoln.

The Pokes then head to the West Coast for the first road trip of the season. Nov. 20, OSU returns to Tempe, Arizona, for the second-straight season to take on Arizona State in its first Big 12 dual. The Pokes defeated the Sun Devils, 25-11, in last season's showcase. The match marks the return to his home state for Arizona native and undefeated freshman national champion Sergio Vega, who grew up in Tucson.

The back half of the trip involves a trip to Stanford for a match with the Cardinal on Nov. 22. The Cowboys have only visited Stanford once, winning that match to open the 2022 season. OSU has never lost to Stanford in a dual.

December features multiple tournaments for the Cowboys, beginning on Dec. 6 when the Cowboys head to Edwardsville, Illinois, for the Cougar Clash. The following weekend features the return to Oklahoma and the BOK Center for the second annual National Duals sponsored by Paycom. The 16-team tournament will feature a prize pool of more than $1.2 million. OSU took third place in last season's edition of the tournament.

Following a winter break, OSU returns to dual action at home on Jan. 10, hosting its first conference match of the season against Missouri and followed a week later with a dual against West Virginia on Jan. 17 in Stillwater.

This year's edition of Bedlam will take place in Norman on Sunday, Jan. 24. OSU holds a staggering 153-27-10 record over Oklahoma and has won the last 21 meetings. Last season, the Cowboys shut out OU, 37-0, with national champion Jax Forrest making his collegiate debut.

The Cowboys close out January with its first of three duals in Iowa. Starting on Jan. 29, the Pokes take on Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls, then head to Ames to face off against Iowa State just two days later on Jan. 31 at Hilton Coliseum. OSU hasn't lost at either Iowa school since 2023.

The home slate ends Feb. 12-13, with two home duals in two days. First OSU faces Wyoming in a battle of the Cowboys on Friday night, then the Pokes host Utah Valley for the first time ever on Saturday. The Cowboys were scheduled to host the Wolverines last season, but the match didn't take place due to inclement weather that prevented travel.

The regular season ends with a familiar foe in Iowa. The Pokes travel to Iowa City, Iowa, for a battle with the Hawkeyes, looking to pick up their first win in Carver-Hawkeye Arena since 2012. OSU holds a 30-28-2 historical advantage over the Hawkeyes.

The postseason begins with a return to the BOK Center in Tulsa for the Big 12 Championships, where the Cowboys look for a third-straight team title from March 5-6.

The season comes to a close at the NCAA Championships, scheduled for March 18-20 at the Enterprise Center in St. Louis, Missouri.

Covering The Cowboys

Thank you for your coverage of Oklahoma State wrestling. Please let us know if we can assist your efforts at any time during the season and feel free to contact the OSU athletics communications office with any questions or concerns. Charlie Thomas is the communications contact for Cowboy wrestling. Please take a moment to become familiar with the following media policies.

Interviews
All interviews with Oklahoma State student-athletes and coaches should be coordinated through Charlie Thomas and the athletics communications office. David Taylor and wrestlers are typically available for interviews once per week throughout the season and after duals or tournaments.

Credentials
Members of the media should contact Charlie Thomas in the Oklahoma State communications office to request credentials to OSU wrestling duals (charlie.thomas@okstate.edu or 815-298-5277). Credentials can be picked up in the Memorial Lobby of Gallagher-Iba Arena prior to the start of match days.

Media Parking
Members of the media attending duals at Gallagher-Iba Arena should park in the lot just south of Boone Pickens Stadium using their credential. The entrance to the lot is off Knoblock Street.

Visiting Staff
Upon request, visiting SIDs, radio crew or other personnel will be permitted up to four seats along the scorer's table in Gallagher-Iba Arena on match days. Please contact Charlie Thomas at least 24 hours in advance with the amount of seats needed and if other accommodations are needed elsewhere.

Visiting Radio
Ethernet cables will be provided to the primary radio broadcast crews for both the Cowboys and the visiting team. Additional lines are available to the media on a first-come, first-served basis.

Photography Policies
Photographers may shoot from the east and west sides of the mat, but are prohibited from shooting in front of either team's bench. Photographers and videographers must stay seated while shooting to avoid obstructing fans' views.

Press Room Services
The press room is located just southwest of Heritage Hall inside the OSU Athletics Center. Soft drinks will be available for working members of the media. Statistics sheets will be delivered to the press section and the media room following the dual.

David "Magic Man" Taylor is entering his third season as head coach of the Oklahoma State wrestling program after compiling an uber-impressive rookie season as a first-time head coach, then building on that success by adding eight more All-Americans and three more national champions in year two.

In year two, the legend only grew more. What was built in year one got bigger for his sophomore campaign. Taylor added a team national runner-up finish, three individual national champions, coaching the first trio of true freshmen to win national titles at the same NCAA Championships. The 131-point second-place finish was the highest national finish for OSU since 2016. A staggering eight Cowboys took All-American honors as well, and all 10 weights saw national qualifiers from OSU. At the Big 12 Championships, OSU took the team title handily, making it back-to-back championships and four individual conference championships for Taylor's squad. In dual competition, Taylor led the Cowboys to a 15-1 record, with the only loss coming at National Duals in Tulsa to Iowa, whom the Cowboys would go on to blow out at Gallagher-Iba Arena, 32-11, in front of a sold-out crowd.

Off the mat, Taylor raised the standard again, eclipsing the average attendance record he set in year one, netting 9,259 fans per dual, helped by 12,629 fans at the Iowa dual.

Prior to his arrival in Stillwater, Taylor spent 20 years dominating every level of the sport as an athlete. His abundance of accolades includes an Olympic gold medal, three titles at the World Championships, six total world medals, two NCAA championships, two Dan Hodge Trophy awards, four national finals appearances and four conference championships.

As a Penn State wrestler from 2010-14, Taylor became one of the most accomplished athletes in program history. Most notably, Taylor brought home the 165-pound title as both a sophomore and senior as part of his four national finals appearances. He was also named the recipient of the Dan Hodge Trophy in both of those championship seasons as top collegiate wrestler. With those two awards, Taylor became just the third multiple-time recipient in the history of the Dan Hodge Trophy. He saw even more success at the conference level as a four-time Big Ten champion.

Often praised for an exciting and aggressive style on the mat, Taylor put together a spectacular 134-3 record, totaling 50 pins, 42 technical falls and 29 major decisions, good for an 88.3% bonus rate throughout his entire career.

Taylor's efforts as a freshman in 2011 helped lead Penn State to its first NCAA team title in 60 years, which was the first of four team championships Taylor went on to celebrate as a Nittany Lion. Taylor's final collegiate bout in 2014 saw him win a national title in Oklahoma City, 10 years before his hiring just up the road in Stillwater. He faced current assistant coach Tyler Caldwell in that match, who was competing for the Cowboys.

Alongside his accomplishments on the mat at Penn State, Taylor excelled off it, earning multiple academic All-America and All-Big Ten selections.

On the senior freestyle circuit, Taylor continued his dominance to the tune of four Olympic or World gold medals, six total medals and a remarkable seven-year run that saw him become the world's top pound-for-pound wrestler. From December 2017 at the World Clubs Cup to the 2024 World Championships, Taylor won 79 of his 83 matches against the world's top competition with 35 technical falls, 15 pins and a 57-match winning streak along the way.

Despite having never made a World team prior, Taylor's 2018 campaign produced perhaps the most decorated era of his seven-year run. First, Taylor became the 12th American to claim a gold medal at the Ivan Yarygin Golden Grand Prix, widely considered the toughest open tournament in the world. He then aided Team USA to a first-place finish the World Cup, won his third title at the U.S. Open just a few weeks later, captured his first of three gold medals at the Pan American Championships in May and finally broke through as a champion at the U.S. World Team Trials for the first time in his career. Taylor rode that momentum to the World Championships in Budapest, where he took down reigning World champion Hassan Yazdani of Iran in the first round and went 5-0 en route to his first World title. After the season, Taylor was named both the UWW International and United States Freestyle Wrestler of the Year.

The highlight of Taylor's freestyle career then came at the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games, which occurred in 2021 due to delays from the COVID-19 pandemic. There, Taylor racked up three technical falls on his way to the finals, defeating four-time World medalist Ali Shabanau from Belarus, San Marino's Myles Amine and defending World silver medalist Deepak Punia of India. Awaiting in the finals was Yazdani yet again, who was the heavy favorite following his World title in 2019. With an Olympic gold medal on the line, Taylor blasted Yazdani for a clutch takedown with just seconds remaining in the match and secured the upset win, 4-3.

Taylor's 57-match winning streak was snapped in the finals of the 2021 World Championships at the hands of Yazdani, but he bounced back with 13 more wins in a row and back-to-back World titles in 2022 and 2023. Taylor defeated Yazdani in both of those championship bouts, giving him a 5-1 edge in the legendary rivalry.

He sent a buzz through the wrestling world prior to the 2024 World Championships when he announced his intention to compete at the U.S. World Team Trials that September despite his position as head coach at OSU. He won all six of his matches at the tournament and secured his spot on Team USA with a sweep over 2023 World bronze medalist Zahid Valencia in the Championship Series.

Taylor capped off his historic career with a bronze medal at the 2024 World Championships in late October. Following a first-round defeat to eight-time gold medalist Abdulrashid Sadulaev, Taylor rebounded in repechage by winning three straight matches to reach the podium for the sixth and final time in his career. His bronze medal match came against two-time World champion Kamran Ghasempour of Iran and was thrilling as always, as Ghasempour led 2-0 at the break but Taylor stormed back in the second to emerge as a 6-2 winner.

With the podium finish, Taylor completed his competitive career in a similar fashion to his predecessor, John Smith, who won his final gold medal at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics just months after completing his first season at the helm of the program.

In all, Taylor finished his senior freestyle career with a record of 161-22.

Before his collegiate and international success, Taylor won the prestigious Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award, which is given to the country's top high school wrestler. He went 180-2 while competing for St. Paris Graham High School in Ohio and won four consecutive Ohio state championships, two of which coming at 103 pounds, one at 112 and another at 135. He was the Outstanding Wrestler at the 2009 Ohio state championship and the Ohio Wrestler of the Year as a junior and senior, as well as a two-time Asics First Team All-American. Taylor also claimed a Beast of the East title and won the Ironman crown an unprecedented four times, the first wrestler to ever do so in the history of the storied event. Other accolades included three cadet and two junior national titles in both freestyle and Greco-Roman, served as a member of the 4-H Club and was ranked top 10 in his recruiting class.

Taylor and his wife, Kendra, have three girls, London, Ivy and Birdie.

David Taylor Wins Bronze at 2024 World Championships, Increases World Medal Count to Six

Recap from Oct. 31, 2024

TIRANA, Albania – Oklahoma State head wrestling coach David Taylor won a 92-kilogram bronze medal at the Senior World Championships on Thursday, improving his career world medal count to six.

One of the most successful American wrestlers in history, Taylor won four world titles throughout his career, including at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, and medaled in each of the last five years. He also racked up an impressive senior freestyle record of 161-22 with victories in 79 of his last 83 matches, a stretch that included a 57-match winning streak from December 2017 to October 2021.

Following Wednesday's defeat to gold medalist Adbulrashid Sadulaev (AIN), Taylor bounced back with a pair of wins over Azerbaijan's Abubakr Abakarov and Lars Schaefle of Germany in Thursday's morning session. Abakarov held a slim 1-0 edge after the first period, but Taylor rebounded in the second to secure the 3-1 win. He then found his offense against Schaefle and ended the match in 5:08 by a score of 11-1.

In the medal match, Taylor squared off against two-time World champion Kamran Ghasempour of Iran, who got an early takedown and led, 2-0, at the break. Taylor stormed back in the second period with three takedowns of his own, however, giving him the 6-2 victory.

With the finish, OSU has now had 11 wrestlers combine for 14 medals at the World Championships. Daton Fix was the most recent Cowboy to do so as the 61-kilogram silver medalist in 2021.

Jimmy Kennedy begins his third season as associate head coach at Oklahoma State.

Over the first two seasons, Kennedy helped guide the Cowboys to a 28-2 record in dual meets, with the only two losses coming on the road against top-5 opponents. He also helped lead five Cowboys to national championships, two to a national runner-up finish, and 14 to All-American status. The Cowboys also won a Big 12 title in both of Kennedy's seasons with the team, as well as a second- and third-place finish at the NCAA Championships. The Cowboys have collected 21 ranked wins and four over top-5 opponents with Kennedy on the coaching staff.

Kennedy helped guide the 2024-25 Cowboys to a 13-1 dual record, with the only loss coming on the road by single digits. He played a key role in helping two Cowboys to national championships, another to a national runner-up finish and six total to All-America status. The Cowboys also won a team Big 12 title and finished third at the NCAA Championships. The Cowboys collected nine ranked wins on the season with three over top-10 opponents.

Kennedy joined the staff after serving as an assistant at Penn State for three seasons, where he played an important role in the team's success. The Nittany Lions captured the NCAA team title in all three of Kennedy's seasons and never suffered a defeat in the regular season with a perfect 45-0 dual record during that time. Kennedy also helped guide Penn State wrestlers to 11 NCAA individual championships and 22 All-America honors. The team saw just as much success among Big Ten competition, earning a pair of team titles and boasting 13 individual winners.

In his last season on staff, Penn State ran away with the national team title after racking up 172.5 points to break the all-time NCAA record. PSU's 100-point margin of victory was also an NCAA record as the team crowned four individual champions and eight All-Americans. Kennedy celebrated the second of his two championships at the Big Ten meet, along with five individual winners. Following the season, all four of Kennedy's national champions were finalists for the Dan Hodge Trophy, as 197-pounder Aaron Brooks was ultimately named the recipient.

Brooks, along with teammate Carter Starocci, became the first four-time NCAA champs in Penn State history.

The two campaigns prior to 2024 saw more of the same with a pair of team titles and a combined seven national champions, 14 All-Americans and eight conference champions.

Before his tenure in State College, Kennedy also spent time as an assistant coach at Northwestern, volunteering in 2019 and serving full time in the two years after.

Kennedy also put together an impressive career as an athlete, first at Illinois from 2007-11 and then on the international stage. For the Fighting Illini, Kennedy was a three-time All-American, hitting the podium in 2008, 2009 and 2011. The first two came at 133 pounds and the last was at 141.

He was just the 12th three-time All-American in program history and ended his collegiate career with a record of 119-24.

Headlining Kennedy's lengthy list of freestyle accolades was an appearance at the World Championships in 2014 while representing the United States. Wrestling at 61 kg, Kennedy was victorious at the USA World Team Trials and represented his country in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, later that summer. He came close to reaching that stage yet again with runner-up finishes at the Trials in 2013 and 2017, and was a champion at the 2016 U.S. Open. His other accomplishments include victories at the 2017 Paris International, 2014 Yasar Dogu, 2013 Intercontinental Cup, 2012 and 2013 Guelph Open and 2012 New York Athletic Club International.

Beginning his wrestling career at Grant Community High School in Fox Lake, Illinois, Kennedy reached the state finals in all four seasons with victories as a sophomore and senior. Kennedy's senior year in 2006 saw him break the state record for takedowns in a season with 384. He was named Illinois' recipient of the Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award. He also won a cadet national championship his sophomore year and completed his career with a 187-3 record.

Kevin Ward returns to his alma mater as an assistant coach for his second season after an impressive debut season.

In year one, Ward helped coach Taylor and the Cowboys to their best finish at the NCAA Championships since 2016. In addition, Ward coached up the three freshmen national champions: Sergio Vega, Landon Robideau and Jax Forrest. The success didn't stop there, as each weight class was represented at the NCAAs with eight of the 10 weights earning All-American status.

In 11 seasons at Army-West Point, Ward led the Black Knights to a 59-53 dual record and coached 54 wrestlers to the NCAA Championships. In his first year, his team defeated Navy to snap a 17-year winless drought. His tenure at Army also included seven wins over Navy and four-consecutive Star Series victories over the Midshipmen from 2016-17 to 2019-20, as he became the first coach in program history to accomplish that feat. In his last season, Ward's Army team sent seven wrestlers to the NCAA Championships to mark the most for the program since 2021 and the second-most in program history.

Ward's coaching accolades include being named the 2014 NCAA Div. II Coach of the Year, the 2019 Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2019 NWCA National Coach of the Year.

Ward, who turned a wrestling program built from scratch at Ouachita Baptist University into a national contender, led the Tigers to top-15 finishes at the NCAA Championships in each of the program's first three seasons. Ward coached 10 All-Americans and two NCAA finalists at OBU.

An accomplished wrestler at Oklahoma State, Ward started his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Cowboys during the 2006-07 season, while earning his master's degree in health and human performance. He assisted legendary head coach John Smith with drill sessions and preparing the team for competitions, as well as coaching at open tournaments. OSU posted a 14-5 overall record and took third place at the Big 12 Championships with Ward on staff. The Cowboys placed fifth at the NCAA Championships and had four All-Americans, including two national runners-up: Coleman Scott and Johny Hendricks.

As a member of one of the most storied programs in the country, Ward had a tremendous amount of success as a wrestler at OSU. Ward was on four NCAA National Championship teams (2003, 2004, 2005, 2006) and two undefeated squads (2002-03 and 2004-05). In 2005, Ward beat three opponents in a row to grab the Big 12 title at the 157-pound weight class. He won 12 of his first 14 matches that season and posted a 23-12 record overall. Ward returned to the conference championship the following season, earning a runner-up finish.

Ward qualified for the NCAA tournament twice and was a three-time National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) Academic All-American. The Cowboys also won four Big 12 championships during Ward's time wrestling in Stillwater. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2005.

Tyler Caldwell is entering his 10th season on staff at Oklahoma State and fourth as an assistant following a six-year stint as the program's recruiting coordinator.

This past season saw Caldwell and the Cowboys excel into national title threats, earning their first runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships since 2016. Caldwell put eight weights on the podium at the NCAAs, including three national champions, all of whom were freshmen Jax Forrest, Landon Robideau and Sergio Vega. The Cowboys and Caldwell earned a 15-1 dual record as well.

In 2024-25, Caldwell garnered his first national champions as an assistant coach, with Dean Hamiti Jr. (174) and Wyatt Hendrickson (HWT) each claiming titles. The Cowboys dominated in dual competition, going 13-1 with 12 wins by double-digits. Caldwell helped lead the Cowboys to an impressive nine wins over ranked foes, including three top-10 victories over No. 5 Northern Iowa, No. 5 NC State and No. 7 Virginia Tech. OSU also collected a Big 12 Championship en route to a third place finish at the NCAA Championships.

Caldwell's first season as an assistant saw Daton Fix and Dustin Plott each finish as national runner-ups, while Izzak Olejnik finished fifth at 165 pounds to give the Cowboys their most All-Americans since 2021. Fix's final season in Stillwater included becoming the Big 12's first five-time champion and first five-time All-American in program history. The Cowboys excelled in dual competition throughout the regular season, winning their first 14 duals for the program's highest win total in five years. Three of those victories came against top-five teams as part of OSU's nation-leading 12 ranked wins on the year. OSU also set a then-program average attendance record with 5,871 fans per dual and hosted their first sellout at Gallagher-Iba Arena since 2019. OSU would go on to finish second at the Big 12 Championships with 141.5 points, the most by a runner-up in league history.

While serving as recruiting coordinator, the Cowboys consistently signed classes ranked in the top-five nationally. In Caldwell's final season in the role, OSU inked the top-ranked class that was highlighted by the No. 1 pound-for-pound wrestler. Caldwell also played a major role in the Cowboys signing the top class in 2020, consisting of the top pound-for-pound wrestler in the nation.

Since Caldwell was added to the staff in 2018, OSU has completed a pair of undefeated dual seasons in 2019 and 2021 and compiled a 120-15 record. Cowboy wrestlers have combined for 42 All-America finishes at the NCAA Championships while bringing home 27 individual conference titles. The Cowboys won the conference team championship in each of Caldwell's first four years on staff, and he also saw AJ Ferrari win a 197-pound national title in 2021. Caldwell's tenure also oversaw standout Daton Fix excel on the international stage with two World Championship appearances and a silver medal in 2021.

As a collegiate wrestler, Caldwell transferred to Stillwater ahead of the 2013 campaign after competing at the University of Oklahoma as a freshman and sophomore. Earning All-America honors in all four years of his career, Caldwell was a two-time NCAA finalist and finished his career with a 126-29 record, including a 63-9 mark at OSU. He also won the Big 12 title at 165 pounds in both of his seasons as a Cowboy, while securing bonus points in more than 40% of his matches.

Following his graduation from OSU in 2014, Caldwell served as a volunteer assistant at West Virginia during the 2015-16 season.

Caldwell also found success on the international stage, winning a University World title in 2014 and placing third at the U.S. Open that same year. He placed fourth at the U.S. Open the following year.

A Wichita, Kansas, native, Caldwell has been a part of the Cowboy wrestling program for more than a decade.

Bryan Pearsall enters his third season as the recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State following a successful decade on the coaching circuit.

Pearsall helped coach David Taylor garner the second-ranked recruiting class in the country in his first season with the Cowboys and the No. 1 recruiting class for 2026. OSU brought in a plethora of talent across the board, highlighted by the three freshmen national champions: Sergio Vega, Jax Forrest and Landon Robideau. Dreshaun Ross, Jordyn Raney, Jayden Raney and Michael White highlight the 2026 class that Pearsall helped garner.

Pearsall joined the program having spent the past seven seasons at Penn, where he originally began as an assistant prior to his promotion to associate head coach less than a year into his tenure. An instrumental piece of several top-25 classes, Pearsall saw Penn reach unprecedented levels on the recruiting trail, highlighted by a ninth-ranked overall class in 2019. While at Penn, his wrestlers qualified for 34 appearances at NCAA Championships, earned 39 placements at the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association Championships, won a pair of individual conference titles and were named All-Ivy League 36 times.

In his final season as a Quaker, Penn finished in a tie for fourth at the EIWA Championships with 90.5 points before sending eight of its 10 starters to the NCAA Championships two weeks later. There, 10th-seeded Nick Incontrera led the charge at 174 pounds, reaching the Round of 16 and coming up just two wins shy of All-American status. Penn concluded the 2024 season with a 6-5 record, cementing its third-straight year with a winning record in dual competition.

Prior to his time at Penn, Pearsall served three seasons on staff at Army under former Cowboy wrestler Kevin Ward. Pearsall volunteered in 2015, but moved into a full-time assistant role for his final two years as he oversaw 13 national qualifiers and 18 EIWA placers. Just as he did at Penn, Pearsall's work on the recruiting trail helped Army climb the EIWA in both competitive and recruiting success, including a signing class ranked as high as No. 16 in the nation in his final year on staff.

Pearsall also gained valuable experience as a coach at the Scarlet Knight Wrestling Club in 2014, working directly with Rutgers wrestlers during that time. The Scarlet Knights notched an 11-5 record in dual action, placed third at the EIWA Championships and secured its first All-American since 2002.

Wrestling for Penn State from 2009-13, Pearsall was a teammate of coach Taylor as he started all four years following a redshirt in his true freshman season. He played a direct role in bringing Penn State its first national title in 60 years in 2011, which was the first of three straight team championships that Pearsall was part of. The Nittany Lions also celebrated Big Ten championships in those three seasons.

Pearsall put together a 55-54 record throughout his career, battling back from a rocky freshman campaign to finish above .500 in each of his final three seasons and qualify for the NCAA Championships as a senior. That season, Pearsall posted a personal-best 24 victories and proved to be a big bonus-point threat with eight pins on the year, tied for third-most on the team.

A USA Wrestling Bronze Certified coach, Pearsall previously served as director of the West Point Wrestling Club, coaching athletes at UWW Junior Nationals and the U.S. Open in Las Vegas. He also continued his involvement with PAWF as a coach for the cadet and junior teams competing in Fargo.

Hammer Award (2025-26)
Academic All-Big 12 Rookie Team (2025-26)

Cowboy Need to Know: Didn't surrender a single takedown during his undefeated freshman campaign.

2025-26 (Freshman Year): Completed one of the most dominant true freshman seasons in college wrestling at 141 pounds ... Completed an undefeated season as a freshman, joining his teammate, Forrest, as the first undefeated true freshman since 1947 ... Became one of five Cowboy wrestlers to win an NCAA individual title as a true freshman ... A part of the first team to have three true freshman national champions ... His record went unblemished, going 24-0 overall and 15-0 in duals, with 11 wins coming via bonus points, all while not surrendering a takedown ... Led the Cowboys in a multitude of categories: overall wins (24), dual wins (15), ranked wins (15 - tied with Spratley) and pins (4 - tied with Doucet) ... Nine of his 15 ranked wins were against wrestlers ranked in the top 10 ... Became the third Cowboy to take home the Hammer Award, given to the NCAA champion who had to go through the toughest weight class ... Broke out at the National Duals Invitational, going 4-0, with three of the four wins coming against top-10 opponents ... His work in Tulsa led to his first Big 12 Wrestler of the Week honors ... Made a statement in Lincoln with his pin of Nebraska's No. 3 Brock Hardy, whom he major decisioned just weeks prior in Tulsa ... Got the better of Iowa State's Anthony Echemendia, both in Stillwater in dual action, and in the Big 12 Championship via a 2-1 tiebreaker to claim a conference title ... Named the No. 2 seed at the NCAA Championships, cruising past multiple All-Americans to the final against Ohio State's undefeated and top-seeded Jesse Mendez where he took down Mendez with 23 seconds left in the sudden-victory overtime to win a tight championship bout (Dec., 4-1 SV-1) ... Named to the Academic All-Big 12 Rookie Team.

High School: Wrestled for coach Anthony Leon at Sunnyside High School in Tucson, Arizona ... Was the sixth-ranked wrestler in the class with a Fargo National title, Super 32 championship and a Who's Number One title ... Garnered a 140-2 record over his time with the program and tallied four state championships.

Personal: Son of Danny Vega and Evelyn Dagnino ... Brother of Danny, Yariza and Danitza ... Studying business.

WRESTLING

Michael White

184/197 Pounds | Freshman
Indianapolis, Indiana | Lawrence North

Cowboy Need to Know: Didn't start wrestling until freshman year of high school and still claimed a state title by his senior season.

High School: Battled through challenges outside of the wrestling room and still conquered the Indiana state championship, capping off a 47-0 senior season at 190 pounds to become Lawrence North's first state champion in over a decade ... Considered a late bloomer for the sport, not wrestling competitively until high school ... Won the Ironman Invitational in Ohio, defeating three ranked opponents to become the first Ironman champion from Indiana ... Placed third at Fargo ... Finished seventh at the U17 U.S. Open.

Personal: Son of Josh and Cherish ... Studying sports management ... Goes by "Mikey."

Season Review

The Future is Here

Big 12 title and three freshman national champions mark a breakout sophomore campaign for Taylor and the Cowboys

In his second season as head coach, David Taylor led Oklahoma State to even greater heights in 2025-26. The Cowboys went 15-1, won the Big 12 Championships and finished second at the NCAA Championships in Cleveland, where they crowned three true freshman national champions.

OSU opened the season at Gallagher-Iba Arena with a 33-7 win over No. 19 Stanford. In mid-November, the fifth-ranked Cowboys traveled to Tulsa's BOK Center for the inaugural National Duals Invitational sponsored by Paycom. They beat No. 12 Cornell and No. 7 NC State before falling 18-16 to No. 3 Iowa in the semifinals. OSU bounced back with a 33-6 win over No. 2 Nebraska in the third-place dual, powered by a first-period pin from Troy Spratley at 125 pounds, a 13-2 major decision by true freshman Sergio Vega over national finalist Brock Hardy at 141 and a 21-6 technical fall by true freshman Landon Robideau at 157. The third-place finish earned $150,000.

A western road trip produced wins over Air Force 34-6 and Arizona State 25-11. The Cowboys then beat No. 17 West Virginia 34-3 and won 22-12 at No. 6 Nebraska, where Vega pinned Hardy in 1:47 for the first fall of Hardy's career.

OSU shut out Oklahoma 37-0 on Jan. 11 before a sold-out crowd in Stillwater, extending its Bedlam winning streak to a record 21 duals and posting its first shutout in the series since 1992. The night also marked the debut of Jax Forrest, the nation's top pound-for-pound recruit in the 2026 class and the youngest World Team member of all time. Forrest, who graduated high school early to enroll for the spring semester, pinned Oklahoma's Carter Schmidt in 47 seconds.

The Cowboys then beat No. 18 Missouri 33-3, No. 13 Northern Iowa 34-3 and No. 3 Iowa State 24-9, a win highlighted by Vega's 4-2 decision over No. 3 Anthony Echemendia. After a 41-6 win over Little Rock, OSU beat No. 6 Virginia Tech 19-12 in Blacksburg, Virginia. In a matchup of unbeaten freshmen, No. 10 Forrest edged No. 6 Aaron Seidel 10-9 for the first top-10 win of his career.

The regular season ended Feb. 22 with a 32-11 win over No. 7 Iowa before a sold-out crowd of 12,629 at Gallagher-Iba Arena. It was OSU's largest win over the Hawkeyes since 1961, the most points the Cowboys have scored against Iowa and a measure of revenge for their only loss of the season. OSU finished 15-1 overall and 7-0 in the Big 12. The ESPN broadcast drew more than 494,000 viewers, the most ever for an ESPN wrestling dual.

At the Big 12 Championships in Tulsa, OSU scored 176 points, the second-most in tournament history, and won the team title by 32 points over Iowa State. The Cowboys had eight finalists and four champions: Spratley, Forrest, Vega (in double overtime) and Casey Swiderski (149). Forrest was named Most Outstanding Wrestler, the first freshman to earn the honor since 2021. Taylor joined Cael Sanderson as the only coaches in Big 12 history to win the title in each of their first two seasons and was named Big 12 Coach of the Year.

At the NCAA Championships, the Cowboys scored 131 points, the third-highest total in program history and the second-highest runner-up score in NCAA history, behind Penn State's record 181.5. OSU had four finalists for the first time since 2014 and eight All-Americans. Senior heavyweight Konner Doucet placed fourth, earning the 500th All-America honor in program history. Spratley placed fifth at 125 pounds, and Swiderski (149) and Zack Ryder (184) each placed eighth.

Championship Saturday belonged to the freshmen. Vega, the No. 2 seed, beat top-seeded, two-time defending champion Jesse Mendez of Ohio State 4-1 in sudden victory to finish 24-0 without allowing a takedown all season. Fifth-seeded Robideau upset defending champion Antrell Taylor of Nebraska 4-2 at 157 pounds and finished 21-2. Forrest, the No. 1 seed at 133, closed the night with a 5-2 decision over Ohio State's Ben Davino to finish 19-0. His 26 team points set a program freshman record. Redshirt freshman Cody Merrill also reached the finals at 197, falling 6-3 to Penn State's Josh Barr.

OSU became the first program in NCAA history with three freshman national champions. Vega and Forrest became the first true freshmen since 1947 to complete undefeated championship seasons. The three titles pushed OSU's total to 148 individual national championships, and the runner-up finish was the best by a Big 12 team at the NCAA Championships since 2016.

Stanford No. 19	7
Oklahoma State No. 5	33

STILLWATER – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 19 Stanford, 33-7, to open its 2025-26 season Friday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

The Cowboys won eight of 10 bouts, collecting bonus points in six of them. With the win, the Cowboys improved to 1-0 on the season, while the Cardinal dropped to 0-2.

"I thought our guys went out and wrestled pretty hard from start to finish," coach David Taylor said. "I'm proud of them. These kids are hungry, and they want to wrestle. We always talk about wrestling with passion, and I thought that's what they did tonight."

True freshmen Landon Robideau (157) and LaDarion Lockett (165) stole the show as the newcomers faced former All-Americans in their first collegiate matches. Robideau took the fight to the two-time All-American, Daniel Cardenas, scoring a pair of takedowns in the opening period. Robideau tacked on a third takedown late in the final period to secure the major decision over No. 4 Cardenas. Lockett, a Stillwater native, took down No. 4 Hunter Garvin, 2-1, after a gutsy second period where Lockett rode Garvin the entire of the period to secure the riding time point.

No. 9 Konner Doucet made a statement in his return to the starting heavyweight spot after sitting behind NCAA Champion Wyatt Hendrickson in the 2024-25 season. Doucet dominated in his first match back as the starter, collecting six takedowns on his way to a technical fall in the third period. It marked an explosive offensive change from his previous defensive style earlier in his career. For reference, in his 2023-24 season he started every dual at heavyweight for the Cowboys but did not collect a bonus-point victory in those 15 dual matches.

Other true freshman Sergio Vega (141) picked up a technical fall in his first collegiate match, while Cowboys Troy Spratley (125) and Alex Facundo (174) picked up technical fall victories of their own in bouts they were favored in.

After his recent victory at the NWCA All-Star Classic, No. 4 Zack Ryder (184) followed that with a 4-2 victory Friday night. Following Ryder's win, Cody Merrill (197), in his first start as a Cowboy, tallied a takedown in the final 10 seconds of the match to beat Stanford's Angelo Posada.

Cowboy newcomers Richard Figueroa II (133) and Casey Swiderski (149) both dropped their matches to ranked opponents.

Oklahoma State No. 5	22

TULSA, Okla. – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team took down No. 12 Cornell, 22-12, in the opening round of the National Duals Invitational sponsored by Paycom on Saturday morning at the BOK Center.

The Cowboys won six of 10 bouts, collecting bonus points in three of them. The win improved OSU to 2-0, while the loss dropped Cornell to 0-1.

"That was a very scrappy dual," coach David Taylor said. "That was a team effort. It wasn't about the individuals; it was about the team. As a team, we need to improve, and that's why we're here."

Fresh off Big 12 Wrestler of the Week honors, true freshman and No. 5-ranked Landon Robideau (157) collected his second bonus-point victory of his young career with a technical fall win over Cornell's Benny Rogers.

Cowboy veterans No. 2 Troy Spratley (125) and No. 9 Konner Doucet (HWT) both picked up major decision wins over ranked opponents. Both Spratley and Doucet have collected bonus points in each of their bouts this season.

Other true freshmen, No. 6 Dee Lockett (165) and No. 20 Sergio Vega (141), each moved to 2-0 on the season, with Vega defeating Josh Saunders, 5-0, and Lockett taking down No. 24 Louis Cerchio, 6-3. Lockett has now taken down a ranked opponent in both his bouts this season.

Cowboy 197-pounder Cody Merrill also picked up his second win on the season over Cornell's Aiden Hanning.

Both No. 4 Casey Swiderski and No. 17 Alex Facundo dropped close matches to top-10 foes, while No. 8 Richard Figueroa II and No. 4 Zack Ryder fell to unranked opponents.

NC State No. 7	11
Oklahoma State No. 5	23

TULSA, Okla. – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team took down No. 7 NC State, 23-11, in the quarterfinal round of the National Duals Invitational sponsored by Paycom on Saturday night at the BOK Center.

The Cowboys won seven of 10 bouts, with No. 9 Konner Doucet (HWT) picking up OSU's only bonus-point win of the night. The Cowboys improved to 3-0, while the Wolfpack dropped to 2-1. The win marks Oklahoma State's third straight victory over a ranked foe to open the season, tying the most since 2006.

"There was some emotion in that dual," said OSU head coach David Taylor. "I thought we did a nice job rising to that... I thought our guys were doing a lot of good stuff. It may not be resulting in points right now, but it will."

True freshmen stole the show again for the Cowboys. Ronnie Raimirez (133) made his first collegiate start against NC State's Zack Redding, and the Ontario, California native nabbed a takedown with 10 seconds left in the bout for the first win of his career. Freshman No. 20 Sergio Vega (141) moved to 3-0 on the season after his win over All-American Ryan Jack by a 2-0 score.

OSU's other two true freshmen stars, No. 5 Landon Robideau (157) and No. 6 Dee Lockett (165), both picked up their third wins of the season in as many contests. Robideau's win over No. 4 Jackson Arrington marked his second top-five win of the season.

The Cowboys' final three wrestlers closed the door on any possible Wolfpack comeback as No. 4 Zack Ryder (184), No. 10 Cody Merrill (197) and Doucet all picked up wins to finish the contest. With Doucet's technical fall victory, he's now the lone Cowboy to collect bonus points in every match this season. In his last season as the starter at heavyweight for the Cowboys in 2023-24, he collected just two bonus-point wins all season over 15 duals.

In a rematch of last season's 125-pound NCAA finals, No. 2 Troy Spratley came up just short of reigning national champion and top-ranked Vincent Robinson by a 3-2 margin. No. 3 Casey Swiderski (149) and No. 17 Alex Facundo (174) both dropped their matches to top-10 foes.

TULSA, Okla. – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team fell to No. 3 Iowa in the semifinals and then defeated No. 2 Nebraska in the third-place dual of the National Duals Invitational sponsored by Paycom Sunday at the BOK Center.

The Cowboys took 12 of the 20 bouts on the day, collecting bonus points in five wins. With the split dual results, Oklahoma State moves to 4-1 on the season, with all four wins coming against ranked opponents. The victory over No. 2 Nebraska in the third-place dual marked OSU's highest ranked win since 2012.

"We got tested this weekend a lot," coach David Taylor said. "We wrestled six freshman and one senior, so we're stepping into some pretty big tests with a relatively young team. I thought we got better as the weekend went on even in our losing efforts. So, I feel pretty good."

In the semifinal against No. 2 Iowa, the freshmen were the story of the match again as No. 6 Dee Lockett (165) and No. 20 Sergio Vega (141) both picked up wins over All-Americans No. 9 Nasir Bailey and No. 2 Michael Caliendo, respectively. Another true freshman, No. 5 Landon Robideau (157,) also picked up a win over Victor Voinovich III.

No. 9 Konner Doucet (HWT) nabbed his fourth win of the season by forfeit.

Both Ronnie Ramirez (133) and No. 17 Alex Facundo (174) dropped their matches in sudden victory against All-Americans, while 125-pounder No. 2 Troy Spratley gave up a takedown with under 10 seconds to go to drop a tight match. No. 4 Zack Ryder (184) and No. 10 Cody Merrill (197) fell in their bouts to ranked foes, and No. 3 Casey Swiderski (149) lost a close 5-3 decision.

Against Nebraska, OSU dominated the match from start to finish, going up 30-0 before the Cornhuskers got on the board.

Spratley kicked things off, pinning Alan Koehler in the first period for Oklahoma State's first pin of the season. Vega, Robideau and Lockett all joined Spratley in collecting bonus points in the contest.

Merrill and Facundo picked up top 10 wins in the contest after dropping their bouts against the Hawkeyes. With a 7-6 victory, Swiderski picked up his first win of the season after dropping two matches to top 10 opponents yesterday.

Both Ryder and Doucet came up just short in their bouts, with Ryder losing in sudden victory and Doucet falling, 2-1.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – The No. 4 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated Air Force, 34-6, Friday night at Clune Arena.

The Cowboys won eight of 10 bouts, collecting bonus points in six of them. The win improves Oklahoma State to 5-1 overall and 1-0 in Big 12 play, while the loss drops the Falcons to 2-2 with an 0-1 conference mark.

"We came up here and competed hard on a short week," coach David Taylor said. "We were missing some of our guys, and that made a good opportunity for some guys to step up. I think Kody Routledge did a great job making weight on short notice and wrestling well. Cody Merrill did a great job as well; he's really starting to find his offense. We're finding ways to continue to get better, and now we've got to turn around and get ready for Arizona State."

With the dual starting at 165 pounds, true freshman No. 2 Dee Lockett wasted no time getting the Cowboys off to a fast start, pinning Sebastien Martinez in the third period to give OSU a 6-0 lead after one bout.

174-pounder No. 16 Alex Facundo then picked up his second technical fall win of the season over Gunner Cramblett, 21-6. No. 9 Zack Ryder (184) and No. 9 Cody Merrill (197) tacked on to the Cowboy lead, picking up major decisions in their respective bouts to push the Cowboy lead to 19-0 through four bouts.

Heavyweight Konner Doucet continued his dominant start to the season with a 22-6 technical fall win. In the opening five bouts of the night, Oklahoma State did not surrender a takedown.

Kody Routledge (157), in his collegiate debut, also picked up bonus points. After trailing 4-3 in the opening period, Routledge rallied to pick up a 15-6 major decision over RJ Beloncik.

149-pounder Cutter Sheets made his season debut for the Cowboys, picking up the second dual win of his career, 5-2, and former national champion Richard Figueroa II (133) collected his first win as a Cowboy with a 7-6 victory.

Gary Steen (125) and JJ McComas (141), each in his Cowboy dual debut, dropped tightly contested matches.

TEMPE, Ariz. – The No. 4 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated Arizona State, 25-11, Sunday afternoon at Desert Financial Arena in the finale of its two-dual road trip.

The Cowboys took seven of 10 bouts, with Landon Robideau (157), Alex Facundo (174) and Cody Merrill (197) picking up bonus points. The win improves OSU to 6-1 on the season and 2-0 in conference play, while the loss drops the Sun Devils to 0-3 overall and 0-1 in the Big 12.

True freshman No. 2 Sergio Vega (141), in his return to his home state of Arizona, took an 8-3 win over previously unbeaten No. 30 Pierson Manville. Vega improved to 6-0 on the season, joining true freshmen teammates LaDarion Lockett and Robideau as the team leaders in wins. All three remain unbeaten in their careers. Robideau picked up his sixth win of the season over No. 24 Chance McLane for his third ranked win.

Merrill and Facundo both picked up their second bonus-point wins of the trip, with Facundo grabbing a major decision over Cael Valencia, and Merrill nabbing a technical fall over Maxi Acciardi for his fifth win.

No. 8 Konner Doucet (HWT) also picked up his fifth win with a late takedown in the third to secure a 5-2 decision over No. 23 David Szuba, and No. 9 Zack Ryder (184) won his second consecutive bout with a 4-0 victory.

No. 8 Troy Spratley (125) won a tightly contested match with No. 33 Damian Moreno, 4-1, after picking up the lone takedown of the bout in the second period.

133-pounder Richard Figueroa II dropped his bout, 10-5, to No. 29 Kyler Larkin in his return to Arizona State, where he won a national title at 125 pounds in 2024.

Cutter Sheets (149) and Kody Routledge (165) both dropped their bouts to ranked foes.

Dual 8

Dec. 14, 2025 | Morgantown, West Virginia
Hope Coliseum

Oklahoma State No. 5	34
West Virginia No. 17	3

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 17 West Virginia, 34-3, at Hope Coliseum on Sunday.

The Cowboys won nine of 10 bouts, with Landon Robideau (157), Alex Facundo (174) and Konner Doucet (HWT) collecting bonus points. The win improves OSU to 7-1 overall and 3-0 in conference play, while the loss drops the Mountaineers to 5-2 and 0-1 in the Big 12.

In a rematch of last year's 125-pound Big 12 championship bout, No. 8 Troy Spratley avenged his title loss to No. 7 Jett Strickenberger with a 6-2 win. Spratley opened the match with a takedown in the first and rode out Strickenberger to end the period. The Cowboy 125-pounder followed it up with a reversal in the second that was too much to overcome for Strickenberger.

Fresh off a 174-pound title at the Cougar Clash, No. 14 Facundo continued his dominant tear with a 20-5 technical fall victory over Leo Contino. In Facundo's last four bouts, he's picked up technical fall wins in three of them. Heavyweight No. 7 Doucet added another impressive win to his record, pinning WVU's Wilson Spires in the opening period. It was the fourth pin of his career in 82 career bouts.

True freshman No. 2 Landon Robideau (157) moved to 7-0 on the season with his sixth bonus-point win with a technical fall over Cole Evans. Robideau now has three major decisions and three technical fall wins just seven contests into his collegiate career. Other true freshmen, No. 2 Sergio Vega (141) and No. 2 Dee Lockett (165), improved to 7-0 in their collegiate careers with their wins in Morgantown today.

184-pounder No. 10 Zack Ryder continued his impressive run after last weekend's Cougar Classic title with a 2-1 win over No. 21 Ian Bush. No. 7 Cody Merrill (197) also picked up a ranked win over No. 22 Rune Lawrence. The win is Merrill's third ranked win of the year.

OSU's 149-pounder No. 17 Casey Swiderski collected a pair of takedowns in the opening period to propel himself to an 8-4 win over TJ Langley, marking his fifth win in his last six bouts.

Ronnie Ramirez dropped his bout against No. 19 Gunner Andrick for the Cowboys' lone loss of the day after giving up a late takedown in the third.

Dual 9

Dec. 21, 2025 | Lincoln, Nebraska
Devaney Center

Oklahoma State No. 5	22
Nebraska No. 6	12

LINCOLN, Neb. – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 6 Nebraska, 22-12, on Sunday afternoon at the Devaney Center.

The Cowboys won six of 10 bouts, with No. 2 Sergio Vega (141) and No. 7 Troy Spratley (125) collecting pivotal bonus points. The win improved the Cowboys to 8-1, while the loss dropped the Cornhuskers to 6-3. The win is OSU's second over Nebraska this season, with the first coming in the third-place match of the National Duals Invitational in November. Additionally, the Cowboys now have five ranked wins this season, including three top-10 wins.

"Great environment here today," coach David Taylor said. "This was a really good match for both programs. They have a really good team, and it was a great dual.
We had some good and some bad things, but that's the way things go. I'm grateful to be able to get this win."

The most anticipated match of the afternoon was No. 2 Vega against returning three-time All-American No. 3 Brock Hardy. Vega picked up a major decision win in their meeting at the National Duals and followed it up with a first-period pin in today's action to mark the first time Hardy has been pinned in his career. The true freshman now has four top-10 wins just eight bouts into his college career.

As exciting as that win was, the dual-clinching moment came at 197 pounds. With the Cowboys leading 16-12 and two bouts to go, No. 7 Cody Merrill l rode out No. 12 Camden McDanel in the third period to take a 2-1 win and seal the dual for the Cowboys. The win was Merrill's second over McDanel and fourth of the season.

No. 17 Casey Swiderski (149) picked up a dominant 7-2 upset win over No. 5 Chance Lamer in his first dual action of the season for the Cornhuskers. The win is Swiderski's sixth in his last seven matches and marks his first ranked win as a Cowboy.

The Cowboys' lead-off man, No. 7 Spratley, picked up his fourth consecutive win with his major decision over Kael Lauridsen. Spratley has now collected bonus points in both contests against Nebraska against two different opponents.

No. 2 Dee Lockett (165), another true freshman, earned his fourth ranked win on the season with a 4-1 win over No. 10 LJ Araujo in sudden victory. The win improves Lockett to 8-0 on the season and marks his third top-10 win on the season.

No. 7 Konner Doucet (HWT) took care of business to wrap up Sunday's victory with a 2-1 win over Cade Ziola. The win is Doucet's fourth in a row and improves him to 8-1 in his final season.

True freshman No. 2 Landon Robideau (157) had the first loss of his collegiate career to returning NCAA champion and sixth-ranked Antrell Taylor in a tightly-contested bout.

No. 21 Ronnie Ramirez, No. 13 Alex Facundo and No. 10 Zack Ryder also dropped their bouts to top-10 foes.

Oklahoma No. 15	0
Oklahoma State No. 5	37

STILLWATER – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team shut out No. 15 Oklahoma, 37-0, in front of a sold-out crowd inside Gallagher-Iba Arena on Sunday night.

The win improves the Cowboys to 9-1 overall and 4-0 in the Big 12, while the loss drops the Sooners to 7-2 overall and 0-1 in the league. OSU took all 10 bouts, collecting bonus points in four of them. Oklahoma did not record a takedown in the dual. The win was the 21st-straight by Oklahoma State against Oklahoma, marking the longest streak of Bedlam wins over the 105-year rivalry.

12,549 fans piled into Gallagher-Iba Arena on Sunday and witnessed the first Cowboy shutout over the Sooners since 1992. The 37-point win marked the largest margin of victory over Oklahoma since 2018 and was sixth largest of all time. It was Oklahoma State's ninth shutout in 190 meetings against Oklahoma.

"What we did tonight was special," head coach David Taylor said. "We've been talking about selling this place out, and that was special. Our guys are exciting to watch. Our guys are working hard to compete and to score until the end. I think people are realizing that this is a special place to come and watch a dual. The energy was different leading up to the dual this week, and today I could really notice it."

The youngest World Team member of all time, Jax Forrest (133), made his highly anticipated debut for the Cowboys and wasted no time reminding everyone why he was the top pound-for-pound wrestler in the 2026 class. In less than a minute, Forrest pinned Oklahoma's Carter Schmidt for the first pin of Oklahoma State's season inside GIA.

"It was surreal," Forrest said. "I've gone back and forth with the coaches about what the best plan is for me, and it couldn't have gone any better. I was able to go out there and do the things I've been working on. With a sold-out crowd of over 12,000 people, it couldn't have gone any better... You get in that flow state, and everything is going right, and that's how I felt today. Obviously, there were nerves, but I have such great coaches and teammates who were keeping me calm."

Not to be overshadowed by Forrest's highly-anticipated debut, No. 12 Alex Facundo (174) picked up his second top-10 win of the season over No. 7 Carter Schubert, 7-2, for his ninth win of the season. 184 and 197-pounders No. 10 Zack Ryder and No. 8 Cody Merrill also picked up ranked wins over No. 11 Brian Soldano and No. 9 DJ Parker, respectively. The win was Ryder's highest-ranked win of his career, and Merrill's second top-10 win of the season.

True freshman No. 2 Sergio Vega (141) improved to 9-0 in his collegiate career with his team-leading sixth ranked win on the season after a 3-1 win over No. 25 Tyler Wells. Vega has yet to surrender a takedown in his career.

Cowboy veterans No. 7 Troy Spratley (125) and No. 7 Konner Doucet (HWT) both collected ranked wins in the victory, marking Spratley's fourth on the season and Doucet's third.

No. 18 Casey Swiderski tallied his third bonus-point win of the season with a 13-2 major decision victory over Alex Braun. The win is his seventh in his last eight bouts after starting the season 0-4.

Kody Routledge won his third-straight bout this season with a major decision victory over OU's Peyten Kellar, 11-3. Routledge improved to 6-2 in his career and 2-1 in dual contests.

Oklahoma State No. 5	33
Missouri No. 18	3

COLUMBIA, Mo. – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 18 Missouri, 33-3, on Friday night at the Hearnes Center.

The win improves Oklahoma State to 10-1 overall and 5-0 in the Big 12, while the loss drops the Tigers to 8-7 on the year and 2-2 in the conference. The Cowboys won nine of 10 bouts, with Troy Spratley, Jax Forrest and Sergio Vega picking up bonus points.

"I think we're doing some really good stuff," head coach David Taylor said. "We just have to keep getting better. We have a young team, so we're still working through some things... We're excited to get back and get ready for our doubleheader next weekend. Overall, I'm pretty happy with these guys. We just have to find a way to keep getting better."

The Cowboys did not allow a takedown in nine of the 10 bouts and have surrendered only one takedown over the past 22 dual bouts, dating back OSU's December 21 matchup at Nebraska.

True freshman No. 2 Vega (141) improved to 10-0 in his collegiate career after his first-period pin against Easton Hilton. Vega is tied for the team lead in ranked (6) and total wins (10) and is second on the team in dual points scored (39), only behind Konner Doucet (43). Additionally, Vega has not surrendered a takedown in his collegiate career.

Following his 133-pound Cyclone Open title last weekend, No. 14 Forrest continued his dominant start to his first season as a Cowboy, picking up a technical fall win over No. 26 Gage Walker, 16-1, in the second period. Forrest has wrestled in two duals and been on the mat for a total of 3:55 after picking up a first-period pin in his first collegiate dual against Oklahoma. The win is Forrest's first ranked win of his young career, as he improves to 6-0.

174-pounder Alex Facundo took down 2025 All-American No. 10 Cam Steed, 2-1, for his fourth ranked win of the season. Facundo now has back-to-back wins against top-10 foes in Steed and OU's then No. 7 Carter Schubert.

The Cowboy's lead-off man, No. 7 Spratley (125), picked up his sixth-straight win with a major decision over No. 24 Mack Mauger, 19-5. The win is Spratley's fifth ranked win this season, good for third best on the Cowboys, trailing Vega and Merrill.

No. 6 Landon Robideau (157) collected his third top-15 win of his career against former Cowboy, No. 15 Teague Travis, 5-0. The win moves Robideau to 9-1 this season. Another true freshman, No. 2 Dee Lockett (165), moved to 9-0 in his career after a tightly contested 4-2 win over Missouri's J Conway.

197-pounder Cody Merrill collected his seventh-straight win with his victory over No. 12 Evan Bates. Merrill controlled the match from start to finish, picking up a pair of near fall points as time expired to take the bout, 4-0.

No. 12 Casey Swiderski (149) took out Missouri's Seth Mendoza, 4-3, with his takedown in the opening period being the difference in the bout. No. 6 Doucet rounded out the night for the Cowboys with a 5-1 win over No. 26 Jarrett Stoner, marking his 10th win of the season.

No. 8 Zack Ryder (184) dropped his bout to No. 3 Aeoden Sinclair, 4-1, after giving up a takedown late in the third period.

STILLWATER – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 13 Northern Iowa, 34-3, on Friday night inside Gallagher-Iba Arena.

The Cowboys took nine of 10 bouts, collecting bonus points in four of them. The win improves the Cowboys to 11-1 on the season and 6-0 in the Big 12, while the loss drops the Panthers to 9-5 overall and 3-1 in the conference. Over the past three dual meets against Oklahoma, Missouri and Northern Iowa, the Cowboys have outscored their opponents 104-6, dropping just two bouts in those duals.

"I just think there's an expectation and standard of what we're working towards," head coach David Taylor said. "We're not just trying to win duals; we're not trying to just beat teams. We are trying to dominate people, and we are trying to continue to get better and separate ourselves. That's for the benefit of the team and individuals here. I think a lot of the guys can leave with improvements from this. We just have to keep getting better, and we have a really great test on Sunday. I'm looking forward to seeing our team go out and wrestle. It's going to be a really good opportunity for us."

In the lone top-10 matchup of the night, No. 2 Dee Lockett (165) trailed No. 6 Ryder Downey, 4-1, with under 10 seconds to go in the bout. Lockett rallied to pick up the match-tying takedown and coupled it with a pair of near-fall points to move to 10-0 on the season. The win is Lockett's fifth ranked win and fourth top-10 victory.

The reigning Big 12 Wrestler of the Week, No. 7 Alex Facundo (174), also collected his fifth ranked win of the season over No. 12 Jared Simma. Facundo has now won three consecutive bouts against top-15 foes.

133-pounder Jax Forrest improved to 7-0 in his collegiate career, after his technical fall win over No. 25 Julian Farber. In Forrest's seven collegiate matches, he has six bonus-point wins with the lone non-bonus-point win coming against a U23 World Champion.

At heavyweight, No. 6 Konner Doucet pinned Grant Stromberg in the third period for his seventh-consecutive win. With the victory, Doucet set his single-season career-high in wins by fall.

Other true freshmen No. 2 Sergio Vega (141) and No. 6 Landon Robideau cruised to major decision victories over their respective opponents. The win improves Vega's flawless collegiate record to 11-0, and he's yet to surrender a takedown.

No. 12 Casey Swiderski (149) picked up his second ranked win as a Cowboy over No. 32 Caleb Rathjen. Swiderski has now won nine of his past 10 contests after opening his career as a Cowboy 0-4.

197-pounder No. 7 Cody Merrill improved to 11-1 this season after his 2-0 win over Carson Babcock. Merrill's opponents have failed to record a point on him in each of the last three contests.

The Cowboys' lead-off man, No. 7 Troy Spratley (125), collected his seventh-straight win with a 6-1 decision over No. 32 Trever Anderson.

The lone Cowboy loss came at 184 pounds, where No. 8 Zack Ryder dropped his match to Nick Fox in sudden victory.

Iowa State No. 3	9
Oklahoma State No. 5	24

STILLWATER – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 3 Iowa State, 24-9, on Sunday afternoon inside Gallagher-Iba Arena.

The Cowboys took seven of 10 bouts, with No. 12 Jax Forrest (133) and No. 2 Dee Lockett (165) picking up bonus points. The win improves the Cowboys to 12-1 overall and 7-0 in the Big 12, while the loss drops the Cyclones to 9-1 on the season and 5-1 in the conference. Additionally, it's OSU's third top-10 win this season.

"This is probably our toughest challenge that we've had this year," head coach David Taylor said. "I got onto these guys on Friday, just felt like we had a little more to give and a little more effort and a little more energy. I think they responded really well. I think our team kind of grew together over the last couple of days. I think tonight was very much a team effort. We came in, and the guys wrestled well and finished matches strongly at the end. I'm proud of the guys."

In the highest-ranked matchup of the afternoon, true freshman No. 2 Sergio Vega (141) took on fellow Sunnyside High School graduate No. 3 Anthony Echemendia. Late in the third, Vega collected the bout-winning takedown for his team-leading seventh ranked win of the season. Vega, 12 bouts into his college career, has yet to surrender a takedown despite facing three All-Americans, including Nebraska's Brock Hardy twice.

At 149-pounds No. 12 Casey Swiderski, the former Cyclone, took on No. 6 Jacob Frost in Swiderski's first meeting against Iowa State since his departure. With under a minute to go in the final period, Swiderski collected the winning takedown and improved to 10-1 in his last 11 bouts.

No. 6 Landon Robideau (157) continued his impressive freshman campaign with a 4-1 win over No. 8 Vinny Zerban. The win was Robideau's fifth ranked win of his career and second over a former All-American.

Other true freshman phenom Forrest moved to 8-0 in his career with a technical fall victory over Osmaney Diversent. The meeting was the second between the two this season, as Forrest pinned Diversent at the Cyclone Open on January 18. Forrest has seven bonus-point wins over his eight career bouts.

174-pounder No. 7 Alex Facundo picked up his second top-15 win of the weekend with a 4-1 win over No. 13 MJ Gaitan. The reigning Big 12 Wrestler of the Week has now won 11 of his last 12 bouts.

No. 7 Troy Spratley continued his impressive run atop the Cowboy lineup with his eighth-straight victory, with four-straight coming against ranked foes. Spratley's win over No. 13 Poulin marks his second win over an All-American this season.

No. 2 Lockett improved to 11-0 overall after his highest offensive output of the season (12) against No. 16 Connor Euton. Lockett picked up a pair of ranked wins this weekend, marking six total.

No. 6 Konner Doucet (HWT) and No. 7 Cody Merrill (197) and both dropped tightly contested matches against the No. 1 Younger Bastida and No. 2 Rocky Elam, respectively, while Trevor Dopps (184) dropped his first-career dual contest to No. 12 Isaac Dean, 5-1.

Little Rock	6
Oklahoma State No. 3	41

STILLWATER – The No. 3 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated Little Rock, 41-6, behind seven bonus-point wins on Friday night in Gallagher-Iba Arena.

The Cowboys took eight of 10 bouts, earning bonus points in seven. The win improves OSU to 13-1 on the season, while the loss drops Little Rock to 3-10. Oklahoma State's 41 points marked its most this season.

"When you get deep into the season, and you have this young group of guys or guys that maybe haven't had a ton of experience before, you kind of get boxed in," head coach David Taylor said. "The guys are starting to just believe in their abilities and kind of showcase them, which was good. Another good opportunity for the guys to compete; got to get ready for next week."

In the lone ranked matchup of the night, No. 2 Dee Lockett (165) battled previously unbeaten No. 5 Matty Bianchi. Lockett took early control of the match, tallying a pair of takedowns in the opening period that would prove too much for Bianchi to overcome. The win improves the freshman to 12-0 in his career and is his third-straight win over a top-20 opponent.

No. 7 Alex Facundo (174) and Ronnie Ramirez (133) both won their bouts in the opening period by fall and technical fall, respectively. The win is Facundo's fifth straight and was his first bout against an unranked opponent since December. Additionally, he's earned bonus points in every matchup in which his opponent was unranked.

No. 7 Cody Merrill (197) and No. 7 Landon Robideau both picked up their 12th wins of the season in the victory. Alongside Facundo, Robideau has also picked up bonus points in every bout against an unranked foe. Merrill picked up his first pinfall victory of the season after four in his redshirt year.

On his senior night, Cowboy captain No. 7 Konner Doucet (HWT) picked up his fourth technical fall win of the season over Kaden Darwin. Doucet has now amassed 62 wins over his career, including 12 this season.

At the top of the lineup, No. 7 Troy Spratley (125) and No. 2 Sergio Vega (141) both collected technical fall victories over unranked foes. The win gives Vega his team-leading 13th win of the year, while Spratley's win marks his ninth straight. Spratley has not lost since the National Duals Invitational back in November.

True freshman Beau Hickman (149) dropped his first-career dual bout against No. 23 Brock Herman, 6-5, and Trevor Dopps (197) fell short to Little Rock's Kodiak Cannedy, 8-2.

Oklahoma State No. 3	19
Virginia Tech No. 6	12

Blacksburg, Va. – The No. 3 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 6 Virginia Tech, 19-12, on Sunday afternoon inside Cassell Coliseum.

The Cowboys took six of 10 bouts, with No. 2 Sergio Vega collecting the lone bonus-point win of the dual. The win improves the Cowboys to 14-1, while the loss drops the Hokies to 10-3. Oklahoma State has now won 11 consecutive duals.

In the premier matchup in the country this weekend between two unbeaten freshmen, No. 10 Jax Forrest (133) took on previously unbeaten No. 6 Aaron Seidel in a rematch of the PIAA State Championship bout from a year ago. After a pair of takedowns from Seidel in the first, Forrest rallied to pick up a takedown and four near fall points, giving himself a 9-6 lead that he would not relinquish. Forrest would go on to take a 10-9 win to improve to 9-0 in his collegiate career. The win is Forrest's first top-10 win of his career.

"It was a crazy match," Forrest said. "I had to fight through some adversity with the crowd and being down early. I knew I needed a rally, and that's what I did. Scored some points, got a takedown and some back points, and then rode him out. It was a crazy match, but it all worked out... He's having a very good year, so I knew I had to find a way to dig deep and come out on top."

With the Cowboys leading the dual 16-12 heading into the final bout of the afternoon, No. 7 Konner Doucet (HWT) slammed the door on a potential Virginia Tech comeback, picking up a 6-1 win. Doucet improved to 13-2 on the season and picked up his sixth ranked win.

No. 2 Vega (141) collected the lone bonus-point win of the dual with an 11-2 major decision victory over VT's No. 22 Tom Crook. Vega collected his eighth ranked win of the season, tied for the team lead with No. 2 Dee Lockett. Lockett (165) used an early takedown under 10 seconds into the bout to propel himself to an 8-2 victory over No. 33 Mac Church. Lockett and Vega are a combined 27-0 with 16 combined ranked wins.

Other true freshman No. 7 Landon Robideau (157) moved to 13-1 in his young career, after his sixth ranked win of the season. Robideau defeated No. 16 Ethen Miller, 3-2, for his sixth-straight win.

Tied 1-1 late in the third period, No. 7 Alex Facundo (174) picked up the winning takedown of his bout with under 30 seconds to go on a reattack to pick up his seventh ranked win of the season. After starting the season 1-3, Facundo has now won 13 of his last 14 contests.

In a rematch of last season's 125-pound NCAA semifinal matchup No. 7 Troy Spratley dropped his contest to No. 3 Eddie Ventresca, 2-1, in rideouts.

No. 7 Cody Merrill (197), Beau Hickman (149) and Trevor Dopps (184) all fell in tightly contested bouts.

Gallgher-Iba Arena

Iowa No. 7	11
Oklahoma State No. 3	32

STILLWATER – The No. 3 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 7 Iowa to close its dual season in front of a sold-out Gallagher-Iba Arena, 32-11, on Sunday night.

The Cowboys took seven of 10 bouts, collecting bonus points in four of them. The win improves the Cowboys to 15-1 on the season, while the loss drops the Hawkeyes to 12-6. The win was the largest victory over Iowa since 1961 and avenged the Cowboys' lone loss of the season back in November at the National Duals Invitational. It's the most points the Cowboys have scored against Iowa.

"The very first thing I'd like to do is just thank the fans," head coach David Taylor said. "We've kind of talked about and articulated this vision of what we want this place to be, become, and reignite. I hear stories about what this place has been like in the past, and to see it come to fruition in a short period of time is pretty awesome."

David Taylor's Cowboys sold out Gallagher-Iba Arena with 12,629 fans for the second time this season, with a crowd os 12,629 fans boosting this season's average attendance to 9,259.

"The energy is getting better; the momentum is continuing to grow, and it's just special," Taylor said. "I have been to a lot of wrestling matches, I've been in some great environments, but there is nothing like this place. The love, the excitement, the energy. We talk about making this a show; people are going to remember this and these opportunities, these matches."

In the most anticipated bout of the night, Oklahoma State's 133-pounder Jax Forrest took the mat against reigning two-time NCAA finalist No. 9 Drake Ayala. Forrest dominated the bout from the opening whistle, collecting a 19-3 technical fall victory and marking the first time Ayala has surrendered bonus points this season. The freshman phenom improves to 10-0 in his collegiate career and now has a pair of wins over top-10 opponents.

Unbeaten true freshman Sergio Vega (141) continued his dominant freshman season, pinning Iowa's Kale Petersen in the third period. Vega has now picked up bonus points in his last three contests and in five of his last six. The 141-pounder has yet to surrender a takedown in his collegiate career.

In his final duel inside Gallagher-Iba Arena, No. 8 Konner Doucet (HWT) pinned Iowa's Gage Marty to close the evening. The pin was Doucet's third this season. For reference, in his first four seasons with the program, Doucet had only picked up three pins in total. The senior leads the team in dual points scored with 63.

After falling to No. 6 Dean Peterson in the National Duals Invitational, No. 7 Troy Spratley avenged his loss back in November with a 5-2 win over Peterson. The win is Spratley's second top-10 win this season, and eighth ranked win.

197-pounder No. 7 Cody Merrill avenged his loss last week at Virginia Tech, pinning Brody Sampson in the second period. Merrill has pinned his opponent in each of his last two victories.

No. 5 Landon Robideau (157) picked up his seventh straight win this season, defeating former Cowboy No. 14 Jordan Williams, 5-1. Robideau improved to 14-1 this season and now has seven ranked wins.

No. 9 Zack Ryder (197) made his first start in two weeks against Gabe Arnold. Ryder took the bout to sudden victory, where he was able to collect a 2-1 victory over Arnold, who has three ranked wins this season, including two top-10 wins.

No. 2 Dee Lockett (165) and No. 7 Alex Facundo (174) both dropped their bouts to top-five foes, while Kolter Burton (149) dropped his match to No. 18 Ryder Block via technical fall.

TULSA, Okla. – The Oklahoma State wrestling program claimed its second consecutive and 57th overall conference championship Saturday night, finishing the 2026 Big 12 Wrestling Championship with individual titles from Casey Swiderski at 149 pounds, Troy Spratley at 125 pounds, Jax Forrest at 133 pounds and Sergio Vega at 141 pounds.

The Cowboys' 176 team points rank as the second-most in Big 12 tournament history, trailing only the 176.5 points OSU scored in 2017. This year's total was 32 points better than Iowa State, who finished second with 144 points.

"It was good," coach David Taylor said. "This is a really tough tournament. There's ups and downs even in the finals. We talked to our guys about being present and staying in the moment and that's still true even in these big matches. ... We've got some adjustments that we've got to make, and we'll get those addressed before the national championships."

Taylor is the second coach in Big 12 history to win team titles in each of his first two seasons as head coach, joining Cael Sanderson who won three with Iowa State from 2007-09.

Forrest, who earned bonus point wins in all four bouts this weekend, was named Most Outstanding Wrestler. He is the third true freshman in school history to win the honor, joining Coleman Scott in 2005 and AJ Ferrari in 2021.

His title combined with Vega's gave OSU a pair of true freshman conference champions for just the third time in Oklahoma State history. The duo joins Scott and Nathan Morgan, who won in 2005, and Lee Roy Smith and Eric Wais, who won in 1977. They are the 14th and 15th true freshmen in OSU history and the first since 2021 to win a conference title.

With a 23-point lead entering the finals, the Cowboy needed just one win to secure the team title. It didn't take long to silence any doubts, as Casey Swiderski handled No. 6 seed Caleb Rathjen of Northern Iowa, 5-3, at 149 pounds in the opening bout of the finals.

It marked the first career conference title for the junior Swiderski, who finished third in 2024 and fourth in 2023.

A Big 12 finalist for a third-straight season, Spratley was the next Cowboy to secure his individual title. Heading into the third period down 1-0, Spratley secured a reversal with 1:35 remaining, earned a two-point nearfall and rode out the period to win a 5-2 decision for his career conference finals win.

Forrest, who earned technical falls all the way through to the finals, kept his point total flying in his final bout, dominating Arizona State's second-seeded Kyler Larkin in a 15-2 major decision.

With a weekend total of 70 points scored in his matches, he scored 12 more points than any other wrestler in the tournament.

Fellow freshman Vega provided the final fireworks of the night, battling through a tiebreaker rideout of Iowa State's second-seeded Anthony Echemendia to earn a gritty 2-1 win in the last bout of the tournament.

Cowboy fans also played a large part in another historic note for the weekend as 7,044 fans came to the BOK Center to set a Big 12 championship session attendance record.

The team championship marks OSU's 55th conference tournament title in wrestling. Oklahoma State has now claimed 21 of the 30 Big 12 tournament trophies that have been awarded in conference history, as well as the 2012 and 2013 regular season titles in the only years it was awarded.

With the addition of the individual titles, OSU now has 126 Big 12 individual championships and 301 conference individual championships in its wrestling history.

Four other Cowboy dropped close decisions in the finals, including Landon Robideau at 157 pounds, LaDarion Lockett at 165 pounds, Alex Facundo at 174 pounds and Konner Doucet at heavyweight.

CLEVELAND – Oklahoma State wrestlers Sergio Vega, Landon Robideau and Jax Forrest won individual titles at the 2026 NCAA Wrestling Championships Saturday, making OSU the first team in history to record three freshman champions in one year at the national tournament.

All true freshmen, they claimed titles at 141, 157 and 133 pounds, respectively. It was just the third time a team has recorded multiple freshman champions, as Cornell College had two true freshmen win in 1947 and Penn State had a true freshman and redshirt freshman win in 2017.

OSU's title winners were the biggest contributors to OSU's team total of 131 points, which marked the third-highest score at the event in program history, the second-highest runner-up score in NCAA tournament history and a higher score than 12 of the 25 team champions since the NCAA began using the current placement point values in 2001.

"We had an awesome tournament," coach David Taylor said. "It's not something you're typically proud of (getting second place), but it's a stepping stone. You think about the progress we've made with a lot of young guys in the lineup, so it's a pretty awesome season. I'm super proud of the guys, our organization, fans and supporters. All that to say, we're going to keep getting better."

No Cowboy contributed more than Forrest's 26 team points, which broke Pat Smith's 1990 program freshman record of 25 points (applying the current scoring model).

Vega and Forrest, who finished the season at 24-0 and 19-0, respectively, became the first true freshmen since 1947 to complete undefeated championship seasons.

Only four others in history have accomplished the feat, and all of them occurred in 1947 when many true freshmen who were already into their twenties competed after returning from World War II. None of that group, consisting of then-Oklahoma A&M's Dick Hutton, Iowa's Joe Scarpello, and Dick Hauser and Lowell Lange of Cornell College, won more than 15 matches.

Vega was the first Cowboy to claim his title, facing two-time defending NCAA champion, top-seeded and undefeated Jesse Mendez of Ohio State in the opening bout of the night.

Each wrestler scored an escape in regulation, and they took a 1-1 tie into sudden victory. Mendez got to a leg with less than thirty seconds remaining in the extra time, but Vega countered as he's done all season to score a takedown with 22 seconds left and secure his national title.

The win cemented a 24-0 season for the true freshman, who did not allow a single takedown all season.

"That was awesome," Vega said. "It hit me right away. It took them a while to call the takedown. It was awesome. I've never had a moment like that in my life."

Fifth-seeded Robideau was the next Cowboy on the mat, facing defending NCAA champion and three-time All-American Antrell Taylor of Nebraska. Robideau opened the scoring with a two-point nearfall 25 seconds into the second period, then added an escape and stalling point in the third. He then held off several late shots from Taylor to secure a 4-2 decision and became OSU's second true freshman national champion of the night.

Robideau, who has now avenged both of his season losses in this tournament, wraps up his season with a 21-2 overall record.

"I was just super thankful," Robideau said. "First, I'd like to thank my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. After that, I saw my teammates there supporting me. I saw my mom and my brother, and I thought of all the hard work I'd put in to get to that point. Having them there matside, supporting me, means a lot."

Forrest, who was still in high school for the first semester of this season, wrestled in the main event to close out the tournament. He faced No. 2 Ben Davino of Ohio State in what many considered the final match of the most challenging weight class in the country.

Trailing 1-0 heading into the final period, Forrest used an escape, takedown and more than two minutes of riding time to secure a 5-2 win and cap his historic run.

"It was surreal," Forrest said. "I've dreamed of this day for a long time. I saw it happening slowly over the weekend and over the year faster than I thought. It was awesome; unlike any other feeling that I've ever had."

OSU redshirt freshman Cody Merrill also wrestled in the finals at 197 pounds. The seventh-seeded Merrill, who was the third-lowest seeded wrestler among the 20 finalists, faced undefeated and top-seeded Josh Barr of Penn State for his shot at the title. Merrill kept it close and was on the attack to tie the score in the final 30 seconds but was unable to score as he dropped a 6-3 decision to finish second. It was Barr's only match all season in which he did not collect bonus points.

Including tonight's results, Merrill is one of just 15 freshmen in Oklahoma State history to finish in the top two at the national tournament. He wraps up his season with a record of 21-5.

OSU's three individual winners give the Cowboys 148 NCAA individual champions, eight freshman champions and five true freshman champions. OSU also has 500 All-America honors in its wrestling history.

Cowboy Wrestling Tradition

Oklahoma State is the gold standard in the college wrestling world.

On the national level, the Cowboys have won 34 NCAA team titles, crowned 148 NCAA individual champions and earned 500 All-American honors.

No other program comes close to those astounding numbers.

It's a similar story on the conference level, with OSU winning 57 league titles as a team and Cowboy wrestlers combining to win 301 individual conference championships.

Furthermore, every four years, Oklahoma State is consistently represented on the Olympic stage. Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have fought their way to Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with nine athletes winning 11 gold medals.

From an individual perspective, any list of the greatest wrestlers in NCAA history must include Oklahoma State's Yojiro Uetake, who was a perfect 57-0 with three NCAA titles, and Pat Smith, the first four-time NCAA champion in history.

Pat's older brother, John Smith, was a two-time NCAA champion for the Cowboys and went on to win a staggering six world-level gold medals from 1987-92, while his OSU teammate, Kenny Monday, won gold in 1988 and 1989 as part of his four world medals.

All told, 40 members of the Cowboy wrestling family have been inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, the most in the country, in addition to 14 Cowboy wrestlers combining to earn Outstanding Wrestler distinction at the NCAA Championships a total of 16 times.

The elite level of coaching and instruction that takes place in the Cowboy wrestling room can be credited for the program's perennial success dating back to its inaugural seasons.

Ed Gallagher is credited as the Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling. He launched Oklahoma State into a dominant position in the sport when he led the Cowboys to 11 NCAA titles from 1928-1940. His impact on the sport is still felt today.

Art Griffith and his eight NCAA titles succeeded Gallagher. Myron Roderick then guided the Cowboys to seven crowns, which was followed by three combined NCAA titles from Tommy Chesbro and Joe Seay. Most recently, John Smith led the OSU program for the 33 years, a tenure that included five NCAA championships, before David Taylor was hired as the eighth head coach in program history.

Dating back to the inception of the NCAA Wrestling Championships in 1928, every Oklahoma State head coach has led the Cowboys to at least one NCAA title. Gallagher, Griffith, Roderick, Seay and Smith, along with eight other former Cowboy wrestlers, have all served as coaches for Team USA at either the Olympics or World Championships.

In 1917, Gallagher delivered the first dual win in OSU wrestling history and in 2011, Smith led the Cowboys to their 1,000th dual match triumph. In between those landmark wins, OSU won more than 89 percent of its duals all-time to further its stranglehold as the gold standard in college wrestling.

NCAA Team Championships

The Cowboys of 2006 captured the program's 34th team title in Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma State has finished first as a team 34 times at the NCAA Championships, including a tie in 1933. The NCAA did not keep team points in 1928 and 1931-33; therefore, the team championships are considered "unofficial" by the governing body during those years. The Cowboys have finished second 13 times and third 15 times, and at least one individual champion has been from Oklahoma State in 71 of the 93 tournaments. Oklahoma State's NCAA championship teams at a glance:

NCAA Outstanding Wrestlers

Alan Kelley

1933 // 145 pounds

Alan Kelley capped a perfect 10-0 1933 season by storming to wins over Franklin & Marshall's Cassell in the first round of the NCAA Championships and Lehigh's B. Bishop in the second round. In the championship match, Kelley pinned Southwestern Oklahoma's F. Stout at the 12:12 mark to claim the 1933 NCAA Championship and earn Outstanding Wrestler honors. The next season, Kelley went 10-0 yet again and won his scond NCAA Championship.

Ross Flood

1935 // 126 pounds

Ross Flood compiled a 31-1 overall record in three years at Oklahoma State, capped by a perfect 11-0 mark in 1935 that included a fall over Southwestern Oklahoma's Gott in the NCAA Championship match. His pin in the finals was one of three in the tournament despite competing in just four matches. Flood won the final 27 matches of his career, with 17 of those victories coming by fall, and later went on to win the silver medal at the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

Stanley Henson

1937 // 145 pounds

Stanley Henson was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1937 NCAA Championships. He pinned his first opponent, Doolittle of Lafayette, at the 3:17 mark and came back to pick up another win by fall in the second round against Iowa State's Linn at 6:45. A semifinal win over Chicago University's Finwall preceded Henson's NCAA Championship-winning match over Illinois' McIlvoy. Henson compiled a 31-1 record during his three years at Oklahoma State, including wins in each of his final 29 bouts.

Joe McDaniel

1938 // 118 pounds

Joe McDaniel capped a perfect 1938 season by earning Outstanding Wrestler accolades at the NCAA Championships. McDaniel won each of his three matches at NCAAs that year, pinning Penn State's King at the 2:50 mark in his first match before winning by decision over Minnesota's Hanson in the semifinal and Indiana's Duffy in the championship match. McDaniel started his OSU career by losing two of his first three bouts but never lost again after that, rattling off 27 consecutive wins to finish out his career.

Al Whitehurst

1941 // 136 pounds

Al Whitehurst was tabbed as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1941 NCAA Championships after picking up four wins, two of which came by fall. He claimed a 6-2 win over Michigan State's Maxwell in the championship match to cap a 1941 season in which he put together a perfect 10-0 record. Whitehurst finished his two-year OSU career with a 19-1 overall record, with his lone setback a 1-0 overtime defeat in his first season.

David "Buddy" Arndt

1942 // 145 pounds

David "Buddy" Arndt never lost a match during his three-year career at Oklahoma State, stringing together a 23-0 career mark. A three-time NCAA champion, he was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler after storming through the 1942 NCAA Championships. Arndt picked up a healthy 13-3 win over Nebraska's Stout in his first match at NCAAs before replicating that score with a 13-3 wipeout of Rutgers' Paterno in his second match. Arndt pinned Cornell's Ellison at the 7:36 mark of the semifinal match before romping to an 18-5 win over Michigan's Johnson in the championship match.

Charles Hetrick

1949 // 128 pounds

Charles Hetrick earned Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1949 NCAA Championships, capping off his perfect 12-0 campaign in style. Following a 6-2 win over Virginia Military's Perry in the first round, he pinned Colorado's Karbatsch at the 5:40 mark in the second round before claiming a 4-2 win over Northern Iowa's Bush in the semifinal. The championship match resulted in a 4-1 Hetrick win over Cornell's Thomsen.

Yojiro Uetake

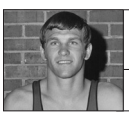
1965 and 1966 // 130 pounds

Just one year after winning the gold medal for his native Japan in the 1964 Tokyo Olympics, Yojiro Uetake took the mat for Oklahoma State and rolled to Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1965 NCAA Championships. Uetake won each of his five matches at NCAAs that year, highlighted by a 6-1 win over Lehigh's Peritore in the championship match. His closest match at the 1965 NCAAs was a 5-3 semifinal win over Michigan State's Behm. He then became the first and only Cowboy ever to be named NCAA Outstanding Wrestler twice when he secured that recognition again in 1966 after steamrolling to five lopsided victories. Uetake pinned Lehigh's Peritore at the 4:31 mark of the championship match to cap a dominating run through the bracket in which he won his bouts by scores of 12-4, 11-2, 18-3 and 11-2. Uetake finished his collegiate career with a 57-0 record before going on to claim his second Olympic gold medal at the 1968 Mexico City Olympics.

Dwayne Keller

1968 // 123 pounds

Dwayne Keller was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1968 NCAA Championships after picking up a series of hard-fought victories in each of his final three matches. Keller started his run with a 12-5 victory over UCLA's Vallance and a pin of Army's Patton. A pair of one-point wins over Indiana State's Parker and SUNY-Cortland's DeSario ensued, sending Keller to the championship match, where he claimed a 4-2 win over Portland State's Sanders. Keller won two NCAA championships as a Cowboy and reached the finals a third time as a senior, but suffered the only defeat of his 64-1 career.



Darrell Keller

1971 // 142 pounds

Darrell Keller claimed Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1971 NCAA Championships thanks to his second national title and first at 142 pounds. Keller stomped his first two opponents to the tune of a 6-0 win over Stanford's Thomas and an 8-0 win over Western Michigan's Bacon. His semifinal match against Navy's Keaser was a classic, with Keller claiming a dramatic overtime win to set up a 16-12 victory over Washington's Owings in the championship match.

Mike Sheets

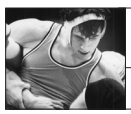
1983 // 167 pounds

Mike Sheets went a perfect 29-0 in 1983 and was honored as the Outstading Wrestler of the NCAA Championships thanks to a dominant showing. Sheets started his run with a commanding 29-2 win over St. Lawrence's Todd Northrup in the first round before crushing Portland State's Kevin Benson, 14-0. He then shut out Illinois State's Mike Jones, 6-0, in the quarterfinal before handing Nebraska's Ray Oliver a 5-1 defeat in the semifinals. A convincing 14-0 win over Navy's John Reich put a cap on Sheets' impressive performance.

John Smith

1987 // 134 pounds

Just one year after winning his first U.S. Freestyle National Championship and a gold medal at the Goodwill Games in Moscow, John Smith was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1987 NCAA Championships. Smith crushed the opposition at NCAAs that year, pinning Drexel's Tim Rothka in his first-round bout before rolling to a 23-8 technical fall win over Michigan State's Dan Matauch in the second. Smith made it back-to-back technical falls when he handed Lehigh's Jim Frick a 22-7 beating in the third round. A 20-9 semifinal win over Ohio's Rob Johnson then set up a rematch with Nebraska's Gil Sanchez for the national title. Sanchez previously handed Smith his only loss of the year in Smith's first match of the regular season, but Smith avenged that loss with an 18-4 pounding of Sanchez for the crown.



Chris Barnes

1990 // 177 pounds

Chris Barnes secured NCAA Outstanding Wrestler honors in 1990 after storming through the competition. Barnes pinned Duke's Keith Girvan at the 6:31 mark in the first round before picking up technical fall wins over North Carolina's Ben Oberly and Rider's John Hangey in his next two matches. William & Mary's Rob Larmore suffered a 14-8 defeat at the hands of Barnes in the semifinals before Barnes claimed the NCAA crown with a 10-2 major decision victory over Minnesota's Marty Morgan in the championship match.

Pat Smith

1994 // 158 pounds

The first four-time NCAA champion in history and only Cowboy to ever do so, Pat Smith concluded his storied career with Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1994 NCAA Championships. Smith won by technical fall in each of his first two matches, claiming a 23-8 win over Kent State's Jim Andrassy in the first round before disposing of Nebraska's Jason Kraft, 26-10. Smith beat Oregon State's Dan Alar, 14-3, for a spot in the semifinals, where he beat Boston University's Earl Walker, 6-2. Smith was then crowned with his historic fourth NCAA title when he beat Michigan's Sean Bormet, 5-3, in the championship match, cementing his status as one of the best collegiate wrestlers of all time.

529-46-6 All-Time Record at GIA

By The Numbers

25 NCAA team championships won since Gallagher-Iba Arena opened in 1939

91 Percent of duals won at Gallagher-Iba Arena since the building's opening

67 Longest home unbeaten streak in OSU history, including wins in the first 37 duals at Gallagher-Iba Arena

46 Undefeated and untied seasons at Gallagher-Iba Arena since its opening

No venue in America has a richer wrestling tradition than Gallagher-Iba Arena, home of the Oklahoma State wrestling program since 1939. In its beginning as Gallagher Hall, the gymnasium was named for Ed Gallagher, the Oklahoma A&M wrestling mentor who never wrestled competitively but ultimately became the sport's most influential coach of all time. The 1987-88 season brought a new look and name to the hallowed hall. When renovations were completed in January 1988, it was renamed Gallagher-Iba Arena to honor the late Mr. Henry P. Iba, Oklahoma State's legendary basketball coach. Alongisde 54 NCAA championship banners, Gallagher and Iba's names have looked over Oklahoma State's historic venue for nearly 40 years.

Gallagher-Iba Arena took on a new look once again in 2001 as the building underwent a $56 million renovation that increased the seating capacity to its current total of 13,611. On January 4, 2001, the top-ranked Cowboys hosted Oregon in the program's first dual competition inside the renovated arena. Oklahoma State dominated the Ducks, 33-3, and proceeded to win 28 of its next 29 duals in front of the expanded crowd. The 2001 season was capped off by a convincing victory over in-state rival Oklahoma, in which 10,802 fans piled into Gallagher-Iba Arena to quickly set a new wrestling attendance record.

The OSU faithful has continued to reach record-setting heights in recent years. In one of the most highly-anticipated duals this century, the Cowboys of 2017 battled second-ranked Penn State in front 14,059 fans, the biggest crowd in Gallagher-Iba Arena history, regardless of sport. A top-three showdown between OSU and Iowa in 2019 saw the second-biggest wrestling crowd ever at Gallagher-Iba Arena with 13,811 people in attendance. Just last season in 2024-25, OSU set a new program record with a season attendance average of 7,597, while their 23,633 attendance total over the last two duals of 2024 marked the largest number of a two-meet stretch in program history.

Since 1939, Oklahoma State has captured 25 NCAA team titles, completed 45 undefeated and untied campaigns at home and won over 90% of its duals inside Gallagher-Iba Arena. The building's opening coincided with the longest home unbeaten streak in program history, as the Pokes won their first 37 duals inside GIA as part of a 67-dual unbeaten streak at home. That stretch still stands as the program's longest home unbeaten streak, as OSU never suffered defeat from 1933 to February 1951.

Oklahoma State's next-longest unbeaten streak at home occurred from the 1959 finale to the middle of the 1967 season, going undefeated for 57 duals in a row. Not far behind, the Cowboys won 51 consecutive duals inside Gallagher-Iba arena from 1986-1993, good for the third-longest such streak in program history. More recently, John Smith guided the Cowboys to a 26-dual home winning streak from 2018-2022. Not long after the streak was snapped, Oklahoma State defeated South Dakota State, 29-6, on February 4, 2022, for the program's 500th victory inside Gallagher-Iba Arena.

In another storied moment of the venue's history, Oklahoma State and Indiana took the mat on February 3, 1989, exactly 50 years after the two programs met for the first-ever dual inside Gallagher Hall. The Cowboys took the rematch, 28-6, similar to their 18-6 victory in the original meeting.

At The Olympics

Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have earned Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with 14 Cowboys combining for 16 medals in all. The program boasts 11 gold medals from nine different athletes, ranking Oklahoma State sixth in the world compared to the top countries. In all, a Cowboy wrestler has reached Olympic team membership in 17 of the last 24 cycles. The Cowboy Olympians are highlighted by three-time NCAA champion Yojiro Uetake, who took the gold medal twice for his home country of Japan, and John Smith, a back-to-back gold medalist for the United States.

At The World Championships

Along with its success on the Olympic level, Oklahoma State has proven to be a force at the World Championships with 12 wrestlers combining for 15 medals, including six golds. OSU wrestlers have earned World team membership 44 times, a total that's highlighted by six-time qualifier and two-time medalist Bobby Douglas, 1989 gold medalist and back-to-back finalist Kenny Monday and six-time world champion John Smith, who won four straight gold medals at the World Championships from 1987-1991. First year head coach David Taylor added a bronze medal just weeks ahead of the 2025 season, the sixth medal of his career.

In The Wrestling Hall of Fame

Since the inaugural class in 1976, the Oklahoma State wrestling program has seen 40 members go on to be inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, by far the most in the country. Within that total, 38 spent time as either an athlete or coach for OSU.

Ed Gallagher

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1916-40

He was a pioneer, not only of wrestling techniques but also of wrestling tradition. From Oklahoma State University, where his coaching achievements were unparalleled, Ed Gallagher's influence spread across the nation. Long after his death in 1940, the torch was carried onward by Gallagher's pupils, who became great coaches in their own right .

As a collegian, Gallagher excelled in football and track. He was clocked once in 9.8 seconds while winning the 100-yard dash in the Southwest Conference meet and had a 99-yard run in the Kansas State football game that same year.

He earned his degree in electrical engineering, but chose a career of coaching football and track and teaching physical education. He remained at his alma mater several years, then went to Baker University in Kansas. In 1916, he returned to Oklahoma State as director of athletics.

Gallagher introduced scientific wrestling to gym glasses and put his first varsity team on the mat that year. He applied his engineering knowledge of leverage and stress to the development of more than 400 wrestling holds. He was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods.

In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams. His wrestlers won 136 dual meets, tied four and lost only five. During the 10 years prior to 1932 his teams scored 69 consecutive victories.

When the NCAA tournament was inaugurated in 1928, halfway through his coaching career, Gallagher's wrestlers won four of the seven individual titles, earning recognition as the first championship team. Competing in 13 national meets, Gallagher's teams reigned supreme 10 times and shared an 11th title. Along the way, they won 37 individual NCAA titles, 32 National AAU crowns, and three Olympic gold medals.

As one of the great coaches in the history of the sport, Edward Clark Gallagher is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Art Griffith

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1941-56

He always felt a coach should lead his wrestlers to championships, and Art Griffith lived up to that ideal. In 30 years of coaching, he took his teams to 77 tournaments and never left the scene without at least one gold medal.

Griffith's coaching career spanned two great dynasties, first for 15 years at Central High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and then for 13 seasons at Oklahoma State University. His records were fabulous.

His high school teams won 94 of 100 matches, 50 of them in a row, and 10 Oklahoma scholastic championships. A dozen times, his Braves were undefeated, and they won the only two national high school tournaments conducted.

Succeeding Edward C. Gallagher, he took the reins at Oklahoma State in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships in 13 attempts. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated. His wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles.

When he became the Cowboy coach, they already had won 27 consecutive dual meets. Under his leadership, that streak was extended to a record 76 before a loss in 1951. He was U.S. Olympic coach in 1948.

Griffith developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

Another lasting contribution was Griffith's development of the point scoring system for wrestling bouts, which in early days were determined only by falls or time advantage. Griffith served in many roles throughout his career, but the effect of his coaching greatness was most evident in 1941. Of the 16 National Collegiate finalists that year, all but two had been coached by Griffith either in high school or college.

For his legendary exploits as a wrestling coach, Art Griffith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Myron Roderick

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1954-56/Head Coach, 1957-69

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 28 of 30 matches and three National Collegiate championships, one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion.

But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. And there was no interlude between his two careers. From national champion in 1956 to the new torch-bearer of the great Oklahoma State coaching tradition in 1957 was an abrupt but highly successful transition.

In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was, at 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions. His Cowboys won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 82 consecutive duals without a loss.

His wrestlers won 20 individual NCAA titles and four gold medals in the Olympic Games. He also coached his teams to two National AAU championships, was the United States coach in the 1963 World Games and was assistant coach in the 1964 Olympics.

Roderick departed from tradition in one respect. He carried his personal intensity into a search for quality wrestlers and, more than any other man, introduced recruiting on a major scale into the sport of wrestling.

As the first executive director of the U. S. Wrestling Federation, he established the foundation of USA Wrestling, the sport's national governing body. He saw the need for a National Wrestling Hall of Fame and worked not only to bring the dream to life, but also to ensure its future.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and coach, and his lifelong leadership in the sport, Myron Willis Roderick is a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Cliff Keen

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1922-24

He started his coaching career in football. Cliff Keen's 1925 high school team at Frederick, Oklahoma, scored 355 points and yielded but three. Then he decided to see what he could do with wrestlers.

After 45 years at the University of Michigan, the longest coaching career in wrestling history, the answer was clear. He could develop champions.

Cliff Keen was an undefeated wrestler under Edward C. Gallagher at Oklahoma State University and won the Missouri Valley national invitational championship. In 1924, he won the Olympic trials but was sidelined by a broken rib. His substitute ultimately lost in the Olympic finals at Paris. He also was a football and track star.

His Michigan teams twice were NCAA runners-up and they won 13 Big Ten Conference championships, placing in the top three in the conference 40 times. They won 276 dual meets against 88 losses and 11 ties. His wrestlers captured 11 National Collegiate titles and 81 conference crowns.

But Cliff Keen's impact on the world of wrestling had no state or national boundaries. He served on the U.S. Olympic Committee from 1928 to 1952 and was manager of the 1948 Olympic team in London.

He was an original member and later president of the National Wrestling Coaches Association and also presided over the national rules committee. For many years he pioneered the development of safe, effective, wrestling equipment such as the headgear which bears his name. There is no role of service to wrestling which has not borne the stamp of Cliff Keen.

He obtained a law degree from Michigan in 1933 and served three years as a Navy commander during World War II.

In recognition of his great coaching career and contributions to wrestling spanning more than 60 years, Clifford Patrick Keen is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Fendley Collins

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1925-27

One of the quiet gentlemen of a fiercely competitive sport, Fendley Collins enjoyed an outstanding 33-year career as coach at Michigan State University. But his contributions to wrestling spanned more than half a century.

As an undefeated 175-pound wrestler under Edward C. Gallagher at Oklahoma State, he won the Canadian amateur championship in 1926 and the U.S. National AAU title in 1927.

After two brief years of high school coaching, he assumed the reins at Michigan State in 1930 and guided the Spartans to 158 victories, against 84 losses and 11 ties. Three times his teams were runners-up in the NCAA tournament, and his wrestlers won 28 national titles in collegiate and amateur meets.

In The Wrestling Hall of Fame

Collins was active in all phases of wrestling. He served on national rules and officials' committees and on the United States Olympic Committee. He was coach of the U.S. team in the 1955 Pan American Games and manager of the 1964 Olympic team.

Some of his most noteworthy activities concerned international competition and education of America to the differences in style and procedures. He founded the Pan American Wrestling Confederation, served as its first president, and later was named honorary president for life.

He was the first true interpreter and instructor to the United States on the complicated international bracketing system and was the original author of the basic guide to pairings still in use throughout the country.

After retirement from coaching in 1962, Collins served another 10 years at Michigan State as coordinator of special events and as instructor in physical education. He retired in 1972, four years before his death.

For his outstanding contributions to wrestling as a coach, educator and leader of young men, Fendley Alexander Collins is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Jack VanBebber

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1929-31

He vanquished the nation's finest wrestlers seven times, but when Jack VanBebber set out to conquer the world, he had to hitch-hike. At the 1932 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, while awaiting his final bout for the gold medal, VanBebber suddenly learned that the time schedule had been altered and he was due on the mat within the hour, six miles away. No transportation was provided, or available, so he set out afoot. After two miles, a passing motorist gave him a ride to the arena.

Once at the scene, however, his opponent proved no more effective than his earlier victims. And "Blackjack" VanBebber became champion of the world with a decision over Eino Leino of Finland, a four-time Olympian who already owned gold, silver and bronze medals.

VanBebber was undefeated as a collegiate wrestler for Oklahoma State University in 1929, '30 and '31, winning three NCAA championships at 155 and 165 pounds. He captured National AAU titles his junior and senior years, then moved to Los Angeles in 1932 and won another.

The only defeat of his wrestling career came in an early round of the Olympic trials, but he rallied to win the trials and successfully defended his 158.5-pound assignment during final challenge bouts in Los Angeles. For more than 50 years he was the only American-born wrestler to win three NCAA titles and an Olympic gold medal.

VanBebber served four years in the infantry during World War II, three of them in the Pacific theater. He then joined the Phillips Petroleum Company for 39 years until his retirement, and taught wrestling to sons of company employees and to Boy Scouts.

In 1950, a national poll of U. S. coaches, officials and sports editors selected him as one of the country's top 10 amateur athletes in the first half of the 20th Century.

In recognition of his outstanding achievements as a competitor, Jack Francis VanBebber is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Rex Peery

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1933-35

He fathered the greatest legend in the history of wrestling. So monumental were Rex Peery's personal achievements, and those of his family, that they tend to overshadow his outstanding coaching career and his many contributions to the development of the sport.

Peery was a three-time National Collegiate champion at Oklahoma State University under coach Edward C. Gallagher. For the next 29 years, he established a great coaching career, 13 years in Oklahoma high schools and 16 years at the University of Pittsburgh.

Two unforgettable milestones mark his Pittsburgh coaching tenure. In 1952, '53 and '54, he coached his elder son, Hugh, to NCAA championships. In 1955, '56 and '57, he coached his younger son, Ed, to those same honors. Can any family, in any sport, equal those achievements of nine national championships in nine attempts?

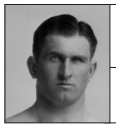
As a wrestler, Rex Peery was undefeated in dual meets. He added the 1935 National AAU championship to his collegiate laurels.

As a coach, he produced 233 victories, 58 losses and six ties. His Pittsburgh teams twice were NCAA runners-up and he developed 13 individual collegiate champions and 23 Eastern champions. He continued to serve in the athletic department of the University of Pittsburgh as an assistant professor until his retirement.

He was coach of the United States freestyle team in the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo, was a member of the Olympic Wrestling Committee for 12 years, and held many other positions of service in the sport.

Peery was one of the founders of USA Wrestling programs in Pennsylvania and served on its national governing council, as well as the board of governors of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

In recognition of his contributions to wrestling as an athlete, coach and administrator, Rex Anderson Peery is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Earl McCready

Class of 1977
Wrestler, 1928-30

His nickname was "Moose" -maybe because of his home town in Saskatchewan, Canada, but more likely because of Earl McCready's stature as the first great heavyweight wrestler of the collegiate events.

International recruiting was unheard-of in the mid-1920s, but in 1926 Fendley Collins and two teammates from Oklahoma State drove to Vancouver and won the Canadian national freestyle tournament. They liked the looks of the strapping 220-pound youngster named McCready and talked him into following them back to their campus.

Under the guidance of Coach Edward C. Gallagher, he won every match for three years, all but five of them by falls. He was the anchor man, the cleanup hitter, for three undefeated championship teams. "We never worried if the match was close," one of his teammates recalls. "We knew Moose would get them, and he always did."

McCready wrestled in the first three NCAA tournaments in 1928-29-30, and won the championship each year, thus becoming the first three-time champion in collegiate history. It was 20 years before another heavyweight could match that. In the 1928 finals, he won by a fall in 19 seconds, still a record for an NCAA meet held under collegiate rules.

He also won four national freestyle championships, one in the United States and three in Canada, and represented Canada in the 1928 Olympic Games, carrying his country's banner in the opening ceremonies. He won a gold medal in the 1930 British Empire Games.

As a collegiate athlete, McCready was a three-year football letterman at guard, winning all-star honors in 1929.

He wrestled professionally for 28 years, including a match in the famed Royal Albert Hall in London. He was the first wrestler to demonstrate the sport on British television.

As a wrestler of great achievement, one who set the pattern for those who followed, Earl Gray McCready is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Jess Hoke

Class of 1977

He was neither a wrestler nor a coach, but Jess Hoke stands among the giants of the sport as its first true communicator. As founder and editor of Amateur Wrestling News, now in its sixth decade, he had monumental impact on wrestling's tremendous growth, coast to coast.

His interest in wrestling was stimulated during his days as a student sports writer in the early stages of Edward C. Gallagher's coaching career at Oklahoma State. He had a personal interest, too, in Coach Gallagher, who had been his Scoutmaster and track coach. The account of the first major Cowboy victory, over Nebraska in 1920, carried Hoke's byline.

In the 1950s, when four of his seven sons journeyed to Michigan State to wrestle for Fendley Collins, he discovered that college students then, as now, were inconsistent about writing letters home. From his interest in Michigan State results came the full-scale idea of a publication to carry wrestling results across the nation. At that time, wrestling was a regional sport; nobody knew what was happening a few miles away.

Thus was born Wrestling News and Reports, soon to become Amateur Wrestling News, annually publishing thousands of dual meet summaries and complete reports on activities from high school tournaments to the Olympic Games. For a time, Amateur Wrestling News was joined by a second Hoke publication, The Young Wrestler, a youth-oriented magazine.

With Amateur Wrestling News as his forum, Jess inaugurated many projects to stimulate interest throughout the sport, such as national rankings of college teams, tournament forecasts and achievement awards to coaches, wrestlers, writers, photographers and other contributors. He also persuaded the Helms Foundation to launch wrestling's first hall of fame. In 1962, he was the first recipient of the sport's Man of the Year trophy.

His role in establishing wrestling as a nationally known sport is without parallel. In recognition of his outstanding contribution to the sport, Jess Walter Hoke is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

In The Wrestling Hall of Fame

Ross Flood

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1933-35

One of his ancestors, Daniel Boone, was a fair-to-middlin' sharpshooter, and when Ross Flood went hunting for wrestling championships his aim was just as good.

At Blackwell, Ross and his brother John became the first twins to win Oklahoma high school championships. Then Ross pursued his wrestling career at Oklahoma State University under Coach Edward C. Gallagher.

Undefeated in 30 matches at 126 pounds, he won three National Collegiate championships in 1933, '34 and '35, each time leading the Cowboys to NCAA team honors. As a senior he was voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament.

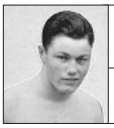
His achievements continued to mount when he won National AAU championships in 1935 and '36 and another outstanding wrestler trophy. He then earned a place on the U. S. Olympic team and captured the silver medal at 123 pounds in the Berlin Games.

In the 1937 Pan American Exposition at Dallas, he won the gold medal at the expense of three other national champions, despite severe rib injuries which brought an end to his competitive career.

For six years he was a successful high school coach in Stillwater, then entered the Navy to spend five years as a physical instructor, including wartime service in the Pacific theater. He returned to coaching in 1946 to revive the wrestling program at Southwestern Oklahoma State, then purchased a livestock auction in Stillwater, which he operated for three decades.

Billy Sheridan, the famed Lehigh coach, often declared that Ross Flood provided the best example he had ever seen of wrestling skills and techniques.

In recognition of his tremendous achievements as a wrestling champion, Aaron Ross Flood is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Stanley Henson

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1937-39

In the never-ending debate over who has been America's greatest wrestler, the name of Stanley Henson always receives plenty of support. His record as a competitor speaks for itself.

Henson's career was blessed by the leadership of two Hall of Fame coaches. At Tulsa Central High School, under Art Griffith, he wrestled two years, won two state championships and the outstanding wrestler award as a senior.

Then he joined the Oklahoma State University team of Edward C. Gallagher. Defeated only once in three seasons, Henson won three NCAA championships and each time led the Cowboys to the team title.

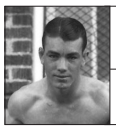
In 1937, he became the first sophomore to be voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament. He continued to excel the next two years, but the nation's coaches were not yet ready to present their cherished award to any man a second time. He also won the Pan American Exposition in 1937 and scored a 1938 double with the National AAU freestyle title. As his junior year drew to a close with two championships, Henson already was thinking more of medical school than of wrestling.

During a European tour in the fall of 1938, he suffered a severe shoulder injury which hampered him during his senior year but couldn't prevent a third NCAA title, this one at 155 pounds after two at 145.

After five years as a physical instructor and wrestling assistant at the Naval Academy, Henson was able to concentrate fully on the study of medicine, completing his degree in 1950 at the University of Maryland.

A highly respected surgeon, he was one of the first to combine his athletic and medical interests in the rapidly growing field of sports medicine, where he became a nationally known lecturer and consultant.

As a dominant figure in the sport of wrestling and a continuing example of the qualities of self-discipline, sportsmanship and integrity, Dr. Stanley Willard Henson Jr. is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Frank Lewis

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1933-35

As a tall, skinny college freshman, Frank Lewis was "a little tired" after six years of wrestling and planned to give full attention to his studies at Oklahoma State University.

But he needed a physical education credit and a wrestling class would provide an easy grade. Members of the class were required to compete in the all-college intramurals and when he failed to win the championship his pride was stung. He decided to concentrate on wrestling again.

Frank Lewis concentrated so well that he became a national champion and the gold medalist in the 1936 Olympic Games at Berlin.

A state high school champ and four-time medalist from 100 to 155 pounds, he possessed the raw talent from which coach Edward C. Gallagher could mold a winner. But because of his rapid growth, the youngster didn't have the stamina to wrestle the longer college matches. And because of a minor heart condition, his coach had to devise a special training routine to build stamina without putting a strain on his health.

Despite these difficulties, he established a collegiate record of 22-6, winning the NCAA title in 1935 after placing second the year before. Both years he contributed vital points to the Cowboys' team trophies.

In 1935, he won the National AAU crown and became the first contestant to be officially recognized as outstanding wrestler of a National AAU tournament, receiving a gold watch for this honor. A year later, he swept undefeated through the series of Olympic trials, then defended his position against his alternate on the boat to Europe.

In the Games, he scored a fall the first day, another the second day. He wrestled three times the third day, but stamina no longer was a problem and two more falls offset a narrow loss to Tur Andersson of Sweden as Frank Lewis became the only American to win a championship.

As a wrestler of ultimate achievement and a lifelong example of perseverance and dedication to goals, Frank Wiatt Lewis is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Joe McDaniel

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1937-39

He was destined to be an Olympic champion, but the Games of the XII Olympiad were engulfed in the holocaust of World War II. So Joe McDaniel had to settle merely for recognition as the outstanding wrestler of the world.

Three times he was a National Collegiate winner for Oklahoma State University, each year leading the Cowboys of Coach Edward C. Gallagher to the team trophy. As a 118-pound junior, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the 1938 tournament, an honor won a year earlier by his roommate, Stanley Henson. Three times he reigned as National AAU champion, twice as a collegian when the Cowboys also won team honors, and again in 1941, two years after graduation.

McDaniel's only serious exposure to international competition came at the close of his junior year, in a 1938 European tour climaxed by a tournament at Stockholm, Sweden, among the leading wrestling nations of the world. He was undefeated in 12 bouts and scored an overwhelming victory over Odon Zombori of Hungary, winner of the Olympic gold two years earlier.

Despite a three-year hitch in the Air Corps and seven years as field representative for a major steel firm, McDaniel never has been far from the sport of wrestling.

After a year of high school coaching and another at Maryland, he returned from the war to coach 11 years at Syracuse University, leading the Orange to a fourth place national finish. In 1963, he moved to Wyoming, coaching two years in high school and eight at the University.

His career turned full circle in 1973, when he returned to his home town of Sulphur, Oklahoma, to serve as high school coach. In 30 years of coaching at all levels, his record was 257 victories against 105 defeats.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and his long years of service to the sport, Joe Clark McDaniel is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Doug Blubaugh

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1955-57

In the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Doug Blubaugh battled the world champion from Iran for the Olympic gold medal. Emamali Habibi had never known defeat.

Three times the Persian attacked, each time throwing the young American into danger. Then a swift counterattack from Blubaugh hurled his opponent to his back ... suddenly the struggle was ended.

Thus did an Oklahoma farm boy reach the apex of a brilliant athletic career, earning the 1960 Olympic gold medal at 160.5 pounds, and with it recognition as the outstanding wrestler in the world.

Doug Blubaugh was no stranger to the role of champion. He won NCAA honors for Oklahoma State in 1957 and National AAU Freestyle titles in 1957, when he was named outstanding wrestler, and 1959.

A year before his Olympic conquest, he won a gold medal in the 1959 Pan American Games at Chicago, matching the 1955 achievement of his brother, Jack. They were the first brothers to capture Pan Am titles.

In The Wrestling Hall of Fame

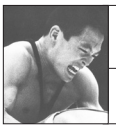
Blubaugh is remembered, too, for his epic struggles with a former college teammate, Phil Kinyon. Over four years of Freestyle competition, they met 13 times. The first 12 bouts ended in draws, 11 scoreless. Five of these were in the 1960 Olympic trials, before Blubaugh crashed through for the takedown and victory that sent him on to Olympic glory.

From a competitive career totaling more than 400 victories against just 17 defeats, Blubaugh turned to coaching and won added respect for his teaching skills and his honesty and dedication. After seven years as an assistant at Michigan State, during which he was Freestyle coach of U. S. teams in the 1971 Pan American Games and World Championships, he spent a decade as head coach at Indiana University.

As a champion athlete of awesome achievement, and as a living example to young men of the highest standards of character and integrity, Douglas Morlan Blubaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Yojiro Uetake

Class of 1980
Wrestler, 1964-66

After winning the national high school championship of Japan, he came to the United States to complete his education. By the time Yojiro Uetake returned to his native land, he had given a whole generation of American wrestlers an education in winning technique.

He won all 57 of his collegiate matches for Oklahoma State University and three Big Eight Conference titles. Three times a NCAA champion, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the NCAA tournament as a junior and again as a senior.

After his sophomore year of competition in 1964, "Yo-Jo" returned home to Japan to win the Olympic gold medal in Tokyo. Four years later, in Mexico City, he repeated this achievement and became the first Japanese wrestler ever to win two championships in the Olympic Games.

He was the complete wrestler, blending speed, strength and unparalleled skills to dominate all areas of the sport-takedowns, control, escapes and falls. Seldom did any opponent score offensive points against him.

"I don't know how good he was," said his collegiate coach, Myron Roderick. "because I never saw him challenged."

Such was the range of his ability that every match became a small "clinic" in itself, attracting coaches and rival contestants from all parts of the arena to learn from his masterful techniques.

While preparing for his second Olympic crown, he spent two years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State, then returned home to become Japan's national freestyle coach. He guided his country's wrestlers into the 1972 Olympics at Munich and the 1976 Games at Montreal.

Upon his marriage, he took the surname of his wife's family, Obata. As an athlete of awesome skills and ultimate achievement, Yojiro Uetake Obata is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Conrad Caldwell

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1929-31

He won the National Collegiate championship in only the fifth bout he ever wrestled. But that NCAA title was just the beginning of Conrad Caldwell's spectacular career.

He did not compete in wrestling at Commerce, Oklahoma, High School and indeed had never seen the sport until he enrolled at Oklahoma State, where Hall of Fame coach Edward C. Gallagher recruited him from a gym class and promised to turn him into a national champion.

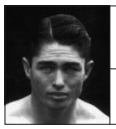
His pre-tournament experience consisted of two matches as a substitute heavyweight. Then in three bouts as a 165-pounder in the 1929 NCAA meet, he fulfilled Coach Gallagher's prophecy. He repeated, at 175 pounds, in 1930 and '31 to become only the third wrestler to win three collegiate crowns.

Caldwell was a standout amid an awesome array of Aggie talent that included teammates Earl McCready, Jack VanBebber, Bobby Pearce and LeRoy McGuirk. One night in 1931, Caldwell applied the finishing touches to a dual meet victory over Kansas State that required only 19 minutes, 33 seconds of wrestling by the entire team.

In 1932, he moved to California and competed five years for the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The only defeat of his career came in the first round of the 1932 Olympic trials. He came back to win the trials at 191 pounds, only to see another wrestler chosen in his place for the Games.

Through 1936, Caldwell was unbeaten from 174 pounds through heavyweight-and on one occasion, all three weights at one time. In a 1933 dual meet with UCLA, he weighed in at 174 but found his teammates at 191 and heavyweight were absent. He pinned the UCLA 174 pounder, won a decision at 191 and after a 10-minute struggle pinned the heavyweight, an all-Coast football tackle.

In recognition of his achievements as one of wrestling's pioneer champions, Conrad C. Caldwell is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Bobby Pearce

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1930-32

He took up wrestling as a youngster to strengthen himself physically in a constant struggle with allergies. But despite his frail physique, Bobby Pearce won championships at all levels.

The coach at Cushing, Oklahoma, High School, Matt Berg, allowed him to join the squad despite some misgivings. Pearce rewarded him with three undefeated seasons and three state championships. As a high school senior, he reached the semifinals of the 1928 Olympic trials.

Then he joined the awesome array of talent at Oklahoma State, helping extend the winning streak of coach Edward C. Gallagher's Aggies to 70 consecutive matches. Over-all, during his collegiate days, he won 19 bouts, lost three and tied one.

A fast and aggressive wrestler, Pearce liked to go for the quick fall, and once flattened his opponent in just 11 seconds.

Pearce was National AAU champion in 1930 and '31, won the NCAA title in 1931 and was runner-up in 1932. Although he was upset in the collegiate finals as a senior, he responded with the ultimate triumph, winning the gold medal in the 1932 Olympic Games at Los Angeles, first ever for an Oklahoma wrestler.

Although only a 126-pounder, he competed professionally for five years and at the same time turned his hand to coaching. He guided Cushing to the state high school championship in 1933 and coached a YMCA team for two years before embarking on a professional career in refinery engineering.

He returned to coaching briefly 20 years later at Mesa College in Colorado, leading that team to two undefeated seasons and a conference championship.

As a champion of great achievement and success over physical difficulties, Robert Edward Pearce is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

David "Buddy" Arndt

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1941-46

Is it possible for a champion to walk away from the mat for three full years and return to compete at the same high level? Buddy Arndt did just that and became the only wrestler to win National Collegiate championships on both sides of World War II.

His only coach in wrestling, Hall of Famer Art Griffith, was a man who hated to lose. With that leadership in both high school and college, and his own exceptional ability, Arndt never met defeat. He won every match in three years at Tulsa Central High School and two state championships, missing one state meet because of illness. As a sophomore at Oklahoma State, he captured his first NCAA title at 145 pounds and won all six bouts in the National AAU tournament, only to settle for second place under the international scoring rules.

But as a junior, in 1942, Arndt was clearly the nation's best wrestler, sweeping National Collegiate and AAU honors and earning the outstanding wrestler trophy in both tournaments. Both seasons he competed a full class above his normal weight to make room in the Aggie lineup for another national champion.

But athletics then were overshadowed by the war and Arndt spent the next three years as a P-38 fighter pilot, flying more than 100 combat missions over Italy with the 15th Air Corps. He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with four clusters and also collected six Bronze Battle Stars for action in major battles.

He returned to college after the war, this time competing at his natural weight of 136 pounds, won his third NCAA championship and, for the third time, led the Aggies to the team trophy.

As a man who excelled in the battles of sport, and in the far greater struggles of real life, David B. Arndt is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Shelby Wilson

Class of 1982
Wrestler, 1957-59

To become a champion, an athlete must set a goal. Shelby Wilson not only set a goal, but he pursued it through disappointments and distractions until he scaled the ultimate championship heights.

As a high school wrestler in Ponca City, Oklahoma, he won three conference championships and suffered only three defeats -all in the state meet, two of them in the finals. At Oklahoma State, after an injury cut short one season, he captured two Big Eight titles and twice charged to the national finals-only to suffer disheartening defeats both times.

Even his journey to the 1960 Olympics was difficult. After an upset loss in the trials, he started the final challenge in the middle of the freestyle ladder. First, he threw the Greco champion to assure a trip to Rome. He then captured the Freestyle ticket by fighting off the challengers below him, and turning the tables on the top-ranked wrestler.

And in the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Shelby Wilson earned the Olympic gold medal. The road was long, with many detours, but he had attained his goal.

"Without a goal, an athlete isn't really going to struggle to achieve," he said. "Whether or not he wins a victory, the struggle, the discipline, the battle with adversity give him the championship qualities he needs for success in life."

Shelby Wilson had a hobby of "repairing anything that's broken." Growing up on a farm, he learned the value of keeping the land and the equipment in condition. During 13 years of high school and college coaching, and then as the founder and director of the Stronghold Youth Foundation, he transferred those values to human needs. An ordained minister with a love of people, he worked on their behalf with the same dedication that he once devoted to pursuit of a wrestling goal.

As an athlete of ultimate achievement and as a humanitarian of exceptional stature, Shelby Autrie Wilson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Guy Lookabaugh

Class of 1983
Wrestler, 1919-21

As the first superstar of Oklahoma State University athletics, Guy Lookabaugh helped establish a wrestling dynasty that spanned half a century. He earned headlines in football, but in wrestling was recognized as one of the greatest athletes of his time. Lookabaugh enrolled in 1917 and immediately became a football hero. He enlisted in the Army, but returned after the war to become known as the first "Super Aggie."

In 1920, coach Ed Gallagher's wrestlers made a bid for national recognition, facing a mighty Nebraska team undefeated for five years. With his team trailing, Lookabaugh took the mat at 158 pounds and battled his way through a 27-minute overtime match for a difficult decision. In the final bout, the Aggies had victory within reach, but had no one to send against Nebraska's unbeaten 175-pound star. Coach Gallagher again called upon Lookabaugh, who responded with a "regulation" 21-minute decision to give the Oklahomans their first major wrestling triumph.

Lookabaugh, nicknamed "Ducky," never lost a college match. His career preceded the NCAA tournaments, but in 1921 he won championships of three conferences-the Missouri Valley (Big Eight), Western (Big Ten) and Southwest. His flamboyant style was evident in his first big Freestyle tournament. Facing Eino Leino, a Finn who would win four Olympic medals, Lookabaugh threw him out of the ring and pinned him on the floor. The referee ruled it an illegal fall.

Lookabaugh turned to coaching in 1922-23, but returned to school to train for the 1924 Olympics. He reached the finals at Paris, only to lose an unpopular split decision. He coached three years at Kansas and helped Dr. R.G. Clapp formulate rules for the first NCAA tournament in 1928. He coached at Northeastern Oklahoma and Grinnell of Iowa until 1940.

In recognition of his monumental athletic achievements and his influence on the lives of young people for more than half a century, Guy Howard Lookabaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Gene Davis

Class of 1985
Wrestler, 1965-67

National champion, Olympic medalist, international coach ... he has written his name into the most exalted records of wrestling. But perhaps no other in our sport has touched as many lives as Gene Davis has with his personal ministry.

In 17 years as wrestler and coach for the Athletes in Action, a division of the Campus Crusade for Christ, Gene and his colleagues have used the forum of athletics to carry their message to groups of sports fans across the nation. That the AIA wrestlers, always "on the road," won 188 of 224 dual meets and two national team championships is noteworthy, but incidental to their primary goal.

Davis was a four-time high school champion at Missoula, Montana, undefeated in 66 matches. At Oklahoma State, he was an NCAA titlist and three-time All-American at 62-5-1, also outstanding wrestler in the Big Eight. Upon graduation, he joined the AIA as wrestler and coach. He continued his spectacular athletic career for 11 years, winning four national freestyle titles and placing fourth and sixth in the World. A member of the 1972 Olympic team at Munich, he returned four years later as Olympic captain and earned a bronze medal at Montreal.

Davis' lifelong attitude of placing his team and his teammates before personal goals caused him to make a difficult and painful drop to 136.5 pounds for the 1976 Olympics. He had dominated the 149.5-pound class throughout the year, but felt he could strengthen the team by making way for another U. S. candidate. Despite victories over the reigning world champion and the world silver medalist, the strain of severe weight-cutting thwarted his bid for a gold medal.

In 1979, Davis coached the United States to a sweep of 10 gold medals in the Pan Am Games. Two years later he was World team coach.

As a wrestler of outstanding achievement and as an example of sportsmanship and leadership, Gene Davis is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Grady Peninger

Class of 1987
Wrestler, 1947-50

Only once, in a span of more than 30 years, did the NCAA team title escape from the states of Oklahoma and Iowa. And it took a native Oklahoman, Grady Peninger, to carry the trophy off to Michigan State. His 1967 Spartans, featuring individual champs Dale Anderson and George Radman, provided just one of the highlights of his 40-year career.

He reached national prominence while still in high school in Tulsa, winning the state championship and the first of two National AAU crowns during his senior year of 1945. After a two-year hitch in the Navy, he enrolled at Oklahoma State, and was an NCAA finalist in '49.

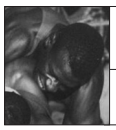
He entered high school coaching at Ponca City, Oklahoma, and in eight years guided three state champion teams. His stars included Shelby Wilson and Doug Blubaugh, who went on to earn Olympic gold medals and win their way into the Hall of Fame.

In 1960, he was called by Michigan State to assist, soon to succeed, Fendley Collins at the helm. Peninger's teams dominated the Big Ten Conference, winning seven consecutive titles starting in 1966. He was voted national coach of the year after the '67 triumph. He was the first Big Ten coach to develop a three-time NCAA champion, Greg Johnson, and a four-time NCAA finalist, Pat Milkovich. Don Behm was an Olympic silver medalist, and Tom Milkovich, won four conference titles.

In all, he produced 43 conference and 11 national champions, 90 Big Ten medalists and 46 All-Americans. His Spartans won 213 of 330 dual meets and enjoyed 23 consecutive winning seasons.

Peninger was president of the National Wrestling Coaches Association. While serving on the NCAA rules committee, he pushed through an expanded consolation bracket in 1986, and the double elimination format in 1995, each creating more opportunity for the wrestlers.

His goal always has been to provide greater opportunity for wrestlers to succeed. In recognition of such leadership, Grady Peninger is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Bobby Douglas

Class of 1987
Wrestler, 1965

The Making of a Champion is the title of his book, and it also is the pattern of Bobby Douglas' life. From a small town in eastern Ohio, and a small college in West Virginia, he rose to become a dominant athlete of the 1960s, earning national and international acclaim.

He won two state high school titles, and was All-State in football and baseball. He emerged on the national scene as 1962 NAIA champion for West Liberty State. A year later, he reached the NCAA finals, and his 13-8 duel with the defending champion from a larger school was a classic. Transferring to Oklahoma State, he won the Big Eight, but was knocked out of the 1965 nationals by injury, closing his collegiate career at 72-2.

It was in the international styles where Douglas earned worldwide renown, for his knowledge of the sport and his technical skills ... which he later would share with another generation as coach, author and clinician. He won three national Freestyle titles and represented the United States on two Olympic teams, placing fourth in 1964, and six World teams, winning a silver, a bronze and a fourth place. He was captain of the '68 Olympic team and his career record was 303 victories, 17 defeats.

He became head wrestling coach at Santa Barbara in 1973. A year later, he moved to Arizona State, which he led to the only NCAA team trophy won by a western school. Douglas also launched the Sunkist Kids club on a long series of national Freestyle championships. He moved on to Iowa State and maintained its great tradition. He was an assistant coach for 10 World and Olympic Teams, was World Cup coach in 1987 and Olympic coach in 1992.

He was the first black American to wrestle in the Olympics, the first to captain our Olympic team, and the first to coach wrestling at a major university. He showed, by example, that others could reach such goals.

As a wrestler of notable achievement, and as an outstanding teacher and leader, Bobby Eddie Douglas is honored as a

In The Wrestling Hall of Fame

Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Ray Swartz

Class of 1990
Wrestler, 1928-30

A big, hearty man--strong and talented in many sports--Ray Swartz focused on wrestling, and built two distinct careers of national and international coaching leadership. At Central Oklahoma, in the shadow of wrestling giants, he founded a national powerhouse of the mid-1930s. Swartz then took the helm at the U. S. Naval Academy, where he continued a proud wrestling tradition and helped launch programs overseas.

In his fourth season at Central, only his fifth year of coaching, Swartz led the Bronchos to second place in the 1936 NCAAs and crowned the school's first two champs, Ray Clemons and Ted Anderson. Clemons placed fifth in the 1936 Olympics. Swartz's 18-9-1 record included two victories over Oklahoma and a tie with Oklahoma State.

He became coach at Navy in 1939. The academy won four straight conference titles, '43 through '46, and posted a 125-35-4 mark over 21 years. His top star, Peter Blair, was an NCAA champion in 1954 and '55 and won a bronze medal in the 1956 Olympics. Swartz was chairman of the NCAA rules committee, and published many articles on wrestling and hand-to-hand combat. He was a pioneer of the international styles.

He was an expert teacher of coaches and officials, and a referee/judge in four Olympics, but the highlight of his career came in 1952 as U. S. Olympic Freestyle coach. His team earned a gold medal and two silvers, and one of his own Navy wrestlers, Joe Henson, a bronze.

In his home town of Stillwater, class of '24, Swartz was a two-time state wrestling champion and starred in four other sports. He needed two years as a rigger and roughneck in the Oklahoma oil fields to raise money for college a couple of miles from home. His wrestling career at Oklahoma State was limited by the presence of Earl McCready, the first three time NCAA champion. But Swartz was a football and track standout.

As a leader who broadened the horizons of wrestling in the United States and abroad, Raymond Hatcher Swartz is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Dick Hutton

Class of 1995
Wrestler, 1947-50

He was an imposing physical specimen striding across the Oklahoma prairie, and Dick Hutton reigned over the nation's collegiate heavyweights like few men before or since.

He was the cornerstone upon which coach Art Griffith rebuilt the Oklahoma State program when wrestling resumed after World War II. Hutton suffered only one loss and one draw in four years of varsity competition. That one defeat, a controversial referee's decision in the 1949 NCAA finals against light-heavyweight champion Verne Gagne, kept Hutton from becoming the sport's first four-time collegiate king.

He won titles in 1947, '48 and '50, and was a member of two national championship teams. His four appearances in the national finals-three of them successful--established a record that was unmatched for 28 years and unbroken until 44 years later. Hutton placed seventh in the 1948 Olympic Games after being slowed by an injury in his second bout.

After five years in the U. S. Army, he competed 10 years in professional wrestling, winning the heavyweight belt from Lou Thesz in 1957 and holding it for two years. Contrary to the usual professional image, he became known for his honest, gimmick-free wrestling.

In later years, Hutton owned and operated a thoroughbred and quarterhorse racing and breeding ranch in Texas.

In recognition of his dominance of collegiate wrestling throughout a fabulous career, Richard Heron Avis Hutton is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Tommy Chesbro

Class of 1995
Wrestler, 1959-60/Head Coach, 1970-84

When he returned to Oklahoma State University as only its fifth head wrestling coach, Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed by not one, but three Hall of Famers.

But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors.

From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats, a 90 percent winning record. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach.

Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 19 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

In 1992, while serving as the university's director of athletic facilities, Chesbro scored a memorable "post-career" coaching victory. Interim coaches Smith and Monday were away, training for the Olympic Games, so Chesbro led the Cowboys into a match against arch rival Oklahoma. Their 43-0 victory was largest margin in the 72-year history of wrestling's storied Bedlam Series.

Chesbro was a state high school champion wrestler and a starter on Oklahoma State's 1959 NCAA championship team. In eight years as a high school coach, he had a record of 51-23-8, bringing his victory total to 278. His teams won one state title and twice were runners-up.

For his success in carrying on the rich tradition of a great collegiate wrestling program, Tommy Edward Chesbro is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Melvin Jones

Class of 1996

As a contributor to wrestling, Mel Jones enhanced the sport with a unique gift ... he delivered its crown jewel, its national museum and Hall of Fame.

Dr. Jones never was a wrestler, much to his sorrow. Because of an accident when he was a youngster, he walked on crutches, braces and/or casts for more than eight years. He is a survivor of open heart surgery and wears a pacemaker. But physical handicaps never kept him from earning high academic honors, nor from an outstanding career as a college professor, scientist, author, diplomat, business executive and philanthropist. And, of course, wrestling fan.

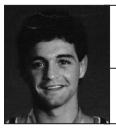
He received his Ph.D. at the age of 24 and four years later became the youngest full professor in the history of Oklahoma State University. An agronomist, he served four years in the Point IV program to Cuba, developing that nation's agricultural program and earning a Citation of Merit from the Cuban government.

When Myron Roderick, the first executive director of USA Wrestling, took his dream of a Hall of Fame to Dr. Jones in 1972, Mel's answer was, "Let's do it." He organized a corporation, involved financial backers and guaranteed that the building would be delivered debt-free. Then he hit the road and raised $600,000 to make good on his promise.

Four years later, USA Wrestling had an empty museum with no funds for its development. Mel Jones reorganized the Board of Governors to bring the Hall of Fame to life. He gave of his own money, then went out and raised more. He was USA Wrestling Man of the Year in 1973 and the first winner of the Hall of Fame's Order of Merit in 1992.

He has been a generous donor of time, money and effort on behalf of three universities, the United Fund, and worthy youth programs.

For his leadership in building and developing a national shrine to all areas of The Oldest Sport, Dr. Melvin D. Jones is honored as a Distinguished Member of his National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



John Smith

Class of 1997
Wrestler, 1984-88/Head Coach 1992-24

Over a six-year span, which started while he was still a student at Oklahoma State, John Smith was the best wrestler in the world. He now ranks alongside other Distinguished Members whose names emerge in any discussion of "the greatest American wrestler ever."

Although that distinction is arguable, Smith's career record is not. Partly because of opportunity, but primarily because of skill, it is beyond comparison. From 1986 through 1992, Smith won:

:: Two Olympic gold medals. He was the first American to do so in 80 years, and both of his golds came against the world's best.
:: Four World titles. No other American had won more than three.
:: Six consecutive world-class championships. No other American had won more than two in a row.
:: Two gold medals in the Pan American Games, in two attempts.
:: Two gold medals in the Goodwill Games, in two attempts.
:: Five national Freestyle championships, in five attempts.
:: Two NCAA crowns and 90 consecutive collegiate victories.
:: He became the first wrestler to be voted the James E. Sullivan Award as America's outstanding athlete, the first American to be chosen Master of Technique and Wrestler of the Year by the International Wrestling Federation (FILA), and the first wrestler ever nominated for the World Trophy, which he received in 1992.

Smith's international record was 100-5, and his domestic freestyle record was 77-3. Combined with his collegiate totals of 152-8-2 and his high school marks of 105-5, he competed 457 times for his school, club, or country and won 434 times, for a success rate of 95 percent.

In The Wrestling Hall of Fame

Smith retired from competition after the Olympics in Barcelona and two years later coached Oklahoma State to the NCAA team title.

One of the greatest athletes of the Twentieth Century, John William Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Joe Seay

Class of 1998
Head Coach, 1985-91

After leading his teams at Cal State-Bakersfield and Oklahoma State to a total of nine NCAA championships, Joe Seay then coached the USA to milestone victories in the Goodwill Games, World Championships and Olympic Games.

A 1964 graduate of Kansas State, Seay wrestled there three years and later won three national Greco-Roman crowns while placing second twice in Freestyle.

But it was as a coach at all levels that he earned lasting renown.

Starting with eight years at Bakersfield South High in California, he compiled a record of 177-12-2 and was national high school Coach of the Year. Moving across town to Cal State, he coached a dozen years and won seven Division II national championships with a record of 189-56-2. At Oklahoma State, from 1985 to '91, he went 114-18-2 with back-to-back Division I crowns in 1989 and '90.

His folkstyle record adds up to 480 victories and an .859 winning percentage. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles in both divisions, and he was named national Coach of the Year five times.

When his collegiate coaching career ended in 1991, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships.

He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. And at the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count.

As a coach who has left an indelible mark on all levels of the sport, Joe Van Seay is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Kenny Monday

Class of 2001
Wrestler, 1981-84

No matter what the calendar said, when he stepped onto a mat it was always "MON-day night!" Poise, patience and mental toughness propelled Kenny Monday to Olympic gold in 1988, silver in 1992 and sixth in 1996. He made winning a habit and wrestling a pleasure to watch.

At Booker T. Washington, Kenny's coach characterized his passage from "scrawny to awesome," as Monday chalked up an almost unblemished record of 140-0-1. He amassed four state high school championships at four different weights, tucking in a 1977 Junior Nationals title along the way. In seven trips to the Junior Olympics, he won five times.

At Oklahoma State University, the 150-pounder became a teammate of the only wrestler to tie him in high school duals, a fierce competitor named Mike Sheets. At OSU, Kenny ran up a career record of 121-12-2. Twice a runner-up, Monday captured an NCAA title in 1984. He ranks second on OSU's all-time list for falls. In 1986, he won the National Wrestling Hall of Fame Classic and took both the Sunkist International Open and the World Cup the following year.

International victories came at the 1988 Tblisi Tournament, the 1989 World Championships, the 1991 Pan American Games and the President's Cup in Turkey, the 1992 Roger Coulon in France and the 1996 Dan Kolov Tournament in Bulgaria. At the grueling Tblisi in Soviet Georgia, he was honored with the prized animal-skin cloak as the Outstanding Wrestler. One American coach summed up the Tblisi as "probably five times as tough" as the Olympics. O.W. honors also went to Kenny in 1989 and 1990 at the Grand Masters Tournament.

Four times Kenny posted wins at the U.S. National Championships and also captured the 1989 U.S. Olympic Festival crown. His 1988 Olympic Games success brought Monday the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year award, as well as the Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year in 1989.

For his dual achievements as a stellar wrestler at every level and for his encouragement of youth wrestling, Kenny Monday is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Kendall Cross

Class of 2002
Wrestler, 1987-90

It has been said on several occasions that Kendall Cross was destined to become an Olympic Champion. But to realize that prediction would take one of the most wide-open, exciting styles of competition ever seen in American wrestling -- the Kendall Cross style.

After completing his high school career in Mustang, Oklahoma, by winning a state championship, Kendall went on to Oklahoma State University where he became a three-time All-American and the 1989 NCAA champion. His first success at the international level came in 1988 when he became the Espoir World Cup Champion, setting the stage for his pursuit of the Olympic gold.

In 1992, he was the only freestyle wrestler on the American Olympic Team who was not ranked number one at his weight at the beginning of the year. He finished sixth at the 1992 Barcelona Olympic Games.

The road to the Olympic gold would be no easier in 1996. His championship series with Terry Brands at the Olympic Trials in Spokane, Washington, treated American fans to one of the most spectacular displays of wrestling ever seen in this country. His victory at the trials sent him on to the Atlanta Olympic Games where his dominating effort provided one of the most inspiring gold medal performances in memory.

In 1997, he was named the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, while in 1992 and 1995 he was declared the Outstanding Freestyle Wrestler at the U. S. Nationals where he became a three time national champion.

Cross continues to be a role model for young wrestlers and an impressive representative of our sport. He has developed the Kendall Cross Gold Medal Wrestling Club in the Boston area, designed to aid in the development of young, aspiring wrestlers.
For his achievements as an athlete and for his continued representation of the sport of wrestling to the youth of America, Kendall Cross is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

J Robinson

Class of 2005
Wrestler, 1966-68

J Robinson's competitive spirit and "give it your all" attitude immerged during his days as a prep wrestler in California. A two-time SDIF Champion (1963 & 1964); he was named Most Outstanding Wrestler in 1964. His flair for international competition and being on the "cutting edge of the sport" began when be became a member of the inaugural California International Team. Competing in Japan, the pioneer team paved the way for young wrestlers of the future.

In the next years, Robinson made his mark in not just one style of wrestling, but three. He honed his collegiate style skills under the instruction of the legendary coach, Myron Roderick at Oklahoma State University. Shifting his focus to the International arena, he was a member of two World teams, finishing fourth in 1970 and fifth in 1971. He competed as a member of the 1972 Greco-Roman Olympic Team. During this time, he won four National titles; two in Freestyle and two in Greco-Roman.

With his three style background, he began his coaching career at the University of Iowa. As an assistant coach, Robinson helped propel the team to an amazing nine national championships in 12 years. In 1984, as interim coach, he led the Hawkeyes to another NCAA title and a Big Ten Championship. In 1986 he was named Head Coach of the University of Minnesota. With one goal in mind, they won back to back NCAA Championships (2001 & 2002). His teams also captured four Big Ten Championships and three NWCA National Duals titles. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2001, and was named Big Ten Coach of the Year five times.

While sharing his skills on the collegiate level, he also continued to share his expertise with athletes in freestyle competitions. He was selected as the head coach for the Pan American Games in 1983 and served as an assistant coach for the Olympics in 1976, 1980, 1984, and 1988.

In recognition of his dynamic contributions to the sport of wrestling, J Robinson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Pat Smith

Class of 2006
Wrestler, 1990-94

Pat Smith made wrestling history when he became the first wrestler to win four NCAA Division I national championships. Competing for Oklahoma State University, he captured titles in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1994, all at 158 pounds, and spurred the Cowboys to team titles in 1990 and 1994.

The year he won his record fourth national crown, he was named the NCAA's Outstanding Wrestler. He also became only the third OSU wrestler to win four Big Eight Conference championships.

Smith ended his college wrestling career with a mark of 122-4-2 and set the school record for consecutive matches without a loss with 98 straight victories.

In The Wrestling Hall of Fame

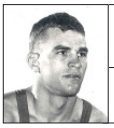
Smith was named the 1994 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year and was one of just 15 athletes named to the NCAA 75th Anniversary Wrestling Team. He was inducted into the Oklahoma State Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

His successful freestyle wrestling career included a bronze medal in the 1997 World Cup, a second-place finish to three-time Olympian Kenny Monday at the 1996 Trials; gold medal performances at two U.S. Olympic Festivals; and six All-American finishes at the U.S. National Open Freestyle Championships. He also won USA Wrestling national titles on the Espoir and Junior levels.

As an Oklahoma State University assistant wrestling coach for 11 years, he personally coached six Cowboys to individual or multiple NCAA titles and helped OSU to win the Division I team title for four consecutive years from 2003-2006.

Smith won three state titles for Del City High School and was twice named Outstanding Wrestler of the tournament. He is a member of one of the nation's top wrestling families -- brothers Lee Roy, John and Mark were also state high school champions and earned All-America honors for OSU.

For inspiring others and accomplishing what no competitor before had ever done, Patrick M. Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Fred Fozzard

Class of 2012
Wrestler, 1966-68

The United States had been shut out of gold medals at the World Championships and the Olympic Games for eight consecutive years after the 1960 Olympics, but two Oregonians were about to make wrestling history in 1969. Fred Fozzard and fellow Distinguished Member Rick Sanders laid the groundwork for future generations of American wrestlers.

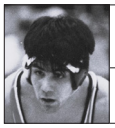
No American wrestler had ever won a World title when Sanders and Fozzard struck gold at the 1969 freestyle World Championships in Mar Del Plata, Argentina. Fozzard's path to the 180.5 pound gold medal, however, seemed unlikely. At age two he contracted polio which shrunk his right arm and left him with no grip and no working thumb. Fozzard developed a unique wrestling style to overcome this disability, which eventually led to numerous championship victories.

Fozzard followed his victory in 1969 with a solid fifth-place finish at the 1970 World Championships. Prior to his arrival on the international scene, Fozzard was an integral part of Oklahoma State's wrestling dynasty. As a sophomore, Fozzard placed second at the 1966 NCAA tournament at 177 lbs., helping the Cowboys to the team title. Fozzard returned as a junior and won the 1967 NCAA tournament as the top seed, which included two pins and a dominant 10-3 win in the finals.

As a senior, the Cowboy standout from Oregon entered the 1968 NCAA tournament undefeated and as the top seed, but he suffered a loss to the eventual champion in the semifinals. Showing his resiliency through adversity, Fozzard stormed back with two pins in the consolation round to place third. His bonus point wins ultimately gave Oklahoma State the team championship in 1968. Fozzard's final collegiate record was 55-4-3.

Fozzard continued his career as an assistant coach for his alma mater from 1968 through 1972. He was the head wrestling coach at Kansas State from 1973 through 1975 and an assistant coach at Portland State from 1975 to 1977. He was also heavily involved in the Southern Oregon program, a highly successful team that competes in the NAIA.

For his historic achievements that led the way for future American wrestlers, Fred Fozzard is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Eric Guerrero

Class of 2014
Wrestler, 1996-99

In a college wrestling program known for producing champions, Eric Guerrero will be remembered as one of the best.

Hailing from San Jose, Calif., Guerrero won three state wrestling championships and compiled an impressive 226-4 high school record. He won a national high school championship, a Junior National championship in 1995, and a Cadet World championship in 1993. The California prep standout chose to take his talents to wrestling's most storied program, Oklahoma State University.

Guerrero was nothing short of spectacular during his four seasons with the Cowboys. As a true freshman, he placed fifth at the 1996 NCAA Wrestling Championships. The following season, as a 19-year-old sophomore, Guerrero won the 126-pound weight class, and he would repeat the victory in 1998. Despite moving up to 133 pounds in 1999, he became Oklahoma State's 14th three-time NCAA champion. Guerrero also won a Big 12 title in 1999 and was a two-time academic All-American. His career college record was 117-13.

After college, Guerrero continued to compete internationally in freestyle, where he showed no signs of slowing down. Shortly after his final college match, he represented the United States at the 1999 World Championships. Guerrero won four U.S. Open titles, made three more World teams (2001–2003), and won a World Cup title in 2003.

Then in 2004, Guerrero represented the United States at 132 pounds in freestyle wrestling during the Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

After retiring from competition, Guerrero turned his focus to coaching at his alma mater, Oklahoma State. He served as strength and conditioning coach (2001-2004) and as assistant coach (2004-2012). In 2012, Guerrero was named the associate head wrestling coach. During his coaching career, he led nine wrestlers to 14 individual NCAA championships, and four-straight NCAA team championships (2003-2006).

In recognition of competitive and coaching success at one of college wrestling's leading programs, Eric Guerrero is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Bill Harlow

Class of 2016
Wrestler, 1964-66

Thought to be the best wrestler ever to come from Tennessee and one of the greatest big men to wrestle at Oklahoma State University, William B. Harlow was a state champion, a three-time NCAA finalist and a three-time national freestyle champion.

When he arrived at Oklahoma State, however, he felt as though he had a lot of catching up to do technically and spent his years in Stillwater as a "human sponge" absorbing everything he could learn. With Distinguished Members Yojiro Uetake, Bobby Douglas, Tadaaki Hatta and Gene Davis as teammates during his collegiate career, learning opportunities were scattered throughout the wrestling room. He quickly gained a reputation as a slick and smooth wrestler, using technique rarely seen in a man of his size.

Harlow finished second in his first trip to the NCAA finals as a sophomore in 1964. As a junior, he won the Big Eight Conference title, but again finished as runner-up in the national tournament. Finally, as a senior, he moved up to 191 pounds and compiled a 21-0-1 record and won both the Big Eight and NCAA championships. With Uetake and Davis, he led OSU to the national team title, the second of his tenure as a Cowboy. Overall, he finished his collegiate career with a record of 54-5-2.

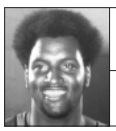
Harlow began his wrestling career as an eighth grader, competing for the high school team at St. Andrews School in Sewanee, Tenn. Over five years, he lost only one match and, as a senior in 1962, won the national prep championship, the state championship and his fifth Mid-South championship, earning Outstanding Wrestler honors at all three tournaments.

After leaving Oklahoma State, he concentrated on freestyle, winning three national titles, including being named Outstanding Wrestler in 1974. He represented the USA at the 1970 World Championships in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada and won a silver medal, falling in the 90 kg. finals to Soviet Gennady Strakhov.

As he continued to train and compete, he began a high school coaching career that would last for almost 50 years, beginning in Illinois. He returned to Oklahoma, coaching at Broken Arrow High School for 16 years while teaching and working as an administrator. He was principal and wrestling coach for three years at Kellyville, Okla., High School before serving eight years in Alaska as an administrator and wrestling coach. He returned to Oklahoma to teach and coach at Sapulpa High School until his retirement in 2013.

Harlow received the Lifetime Service to Wrestling award from the Oklahoma Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2005. In 2010, he was presented The Gallagher Award, given annually to an OSU wrestling alumnus who exemplifies the spirit and leadership eminent in the tradition of champions.

In recognition of his achievements as both a wrestler and a coach, William B. Harlow is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



Jimmy Jackson

Class of 2023
Wrestler, 1975-78

Jimmy Jackson was a three-time NCAA and Big Eight Conference champion for Oklahoma State University. He passed away in 2008 at the age of 51, suffering from diabetes and congestive heart failure. Jimmy and Lee Kemp, a Distinguished Member inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1990, became the first African-American wrestlers to win three NCAA championships, both in 1978.

Listed at 6-foot-6 and 350 pounds, Jimmy had a career record of 87-9-2 with 44 falls. He defeated Greg Gibson of Oregon, a Distinguished Member inducted in 2007, in the 1976 NCAA tournament finals, 5-3. Gibson went on the become the only American to win world medals in three styles of wrestling: Freestyle, Greco-Roman and Sambo.

He also defeated Jeff Blatnick, a Distinguished Member inducted in 1999, in the second round of the 1978 NCAA tournament, 11-4, and registered a pin in 1:12 in the finals. Blatnick won an Olympic gold medal in Greco-Roman in 1984. Also competing in the unlimited division at the 1978 tournament was fifth-place finisher

John Bowlsby, brother of Bob Bowlsby, the 2023 Outstanding American honoree.

Jimmy helped Oklahoma State go 61-5 in duals during his career and was inducted into the Oklahoma State University Athletics Hall of Honor in 2007. Jackson competed in the 1976 Olympics as a 19-year-old college sophomore, winning his opening match by technical fall over Harry Geris of Canada, also an Oklahoma State wrestler, before losing to gold medalist Soslan Andiyev of the Soviet Union and silver medalist József Balla of Hungary.

Jackson defeated Greg Wojciechowski to qualify for the 1976 team and was an alternate to Wojciechowski for the 1980 team that did not compete because of the United States boycott. Jackson was a three-time World Cup champion and won a gold medal at the Pan American Championships in 1987. He was the 1974 Michigan Class A state champion for Ottawa Hills High School in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

For his stellar collegiate and international wrestling careers, Jimmy Jackson is posthumously inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as a 2023 Distinguished Member.

Tadaaki Hatta

Class of 2024
Wrestler, 1965-66

Tadaaki Hatta came to the United States from Tokyo, Japan in 1961 and became an NCAA champion, two-time All-American and two-time Big Eight champion for Oklahoma State University. He helped OSU win NCAA titles in 1964 and 1966 while finishing second in 1965.

Hatta has taught and coached wrestling at every level, from youth clubs to the Olympics.

He was on the U.S. men's freestyle coaching staff for the Olympics in 1988, 1992 and 1996 and the World Championships from 1979 to 1995. He coached the Japanese Olympic team in 1968 and 1984 and the Mexican Olympic team in 1972. Hatta was on the coaching staff for the U.S. Women's team for the 2004 Olympics, the first Olympics where women competed in wrestling, and returned to the 2008 Olympics as volunteer head coach of the U.S. Women's team.

He was also the head coach of the 1998 Men's Cadet World Team, the 1999 Women's Cadet World Team, the Women's Junior World Team in 2001 and 2002 and the 2002 Women's University Team. Hatta works with the New York Athletic Club women's team and also volunteers with Cleveland Beat the Streets.

He is also an assistant coach for the St. Ignatius High School rugby team, which won the high school national championship and the Ohio state championship in 2022.

Hatta is also a consultant for the St. Ignatius wrestling team and for Nike Wrestling.

He was an art teacher, wrestling coach and trainer from 1972-2011 at high schools in Ohio, including Oberlin High School, Ravenna High School, St. Edward High School, St. Ignatius High School and Walsh Jesuit High School.

He graduated from Oklahoma State with a bachelor's degree in fine art in 1966 and then earned a master's degree in art from Northwestern University.

Three of his paintings and a sculpture are displayed at the National Wrestling Hall of Fame while one of his ink drawings is part of the OSU Museum of Art's permanent collection.

Hatta received the Gallagher Award from Oklahoma State wrestling in 2019 and was recognized as a Distinguished Alumni by the Oklahoma State College of Arts & Sciences in 2022.

An honorary member of the Chickasaw Nation, he also restores statues at Cleveland churches pro bono and recently completed a portrait of his father to commemorate the 90th anniversary of wrestling at Waseda University, commissioned by wrestling alumni it will hang in the school's wrestling room.

Coleman Scott

Class of 2024
Wrestler, 2005-08

Coleman Scott won a bronze medal at the 2012 Olympics after being an NCAA champion, two-time finalist and four-time All-American for Oklahoma State University.

He helped OSU win NCAA team titles in 2005 and 2006 and to fifth-place finishes in 2007 and 2008.

Scott was a member of the U.S. National Freestyle Team in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015.

He was a three-time Pennsylvania state champion for Waynesburg Central High School.

Scott was a two-time USA Wrestling National Junior Freestyle champion and a two-time USA Junior World Freestyle team member.

He was the Pennsylvania, Northeast Region and National winner of the Hall of Fame's Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award in 2004.

Scott was an assistant wrestling coach at Oklahoma State from 2012 to 2014, where he coached four NCAA Division I national champions and six NCAA DI All-Americans while helping OSU capture two Big 12 Conference titles and finish second and third as a team at the NCAA championships.

He became an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina in 2014 and took over as head coach after one season. Scott coached two-time NCAA champion Austin O'Connor and NCAA finalist Kizhan Clarke and 13 All-Americans while leading the Tar Heels to five Top 20 finishes at the NCAA tournament.

He was a coach for the U.S. Women's Freestyle team at the World Championships in 2018 and 2019 and for the World Champion U.S. Men's Freestyle team in 2017.

Scott also coached a Canadian Senior World Team member and an Olympic Trials champion. He returned to Oklahoma State in 2023 as associate head coach.

Lee Roy Smith

Class of 2026
Wrestler, 1977-80

Lee Roy Smith began his journey with wrestling in the late 1970s, becoming the first wrestler to take home two state championships for Del City High School. That success brought him to OSU's historic wrestling program, where he earned national recognition.

His accolades in Stillwater included three All-America finishes, four Big Eight individual titles and an NCAA championship in 1980 at 142 pounds. Smith, the brother of fellow former Cowboy wrestlers John, Pat, and Mark Smith, was the first of the brothers to bring home an NCAA title. Smith took his success to the world stage after college, winning silver at the 1983 World Championships and the 1983 and 1984 World Cups.

Starting in 1984, Smith moved to the coaching side of wrestling, starting as an assistant for the Cowboys from 1984-87. During his time, he recruited his family to OSU and helped John to an NCAA title in 1987.

After a brief stint with the Swiss National team, Smith returned to the United States and became USA Wrestling's national freestyle coach. While at the helm, Smith coached six world champions and three Olympic gold medalists.

The success on the world stage brought him to Arizona State to become the head coach of the Sun Devils for the next nine years. Smith never suffered a losing season in Tempe, earning four Pac-10 Coach of the Year awards, five top 10 finishes at the NCAA Championships and 91 wins. He coached three NCAA champions, 28 All-Americans and won five conference titles at ASU.

Smith then retired from coaching and dove into new endeavors. Starting in broadcast, Smith was a part of NBC's coverage for the 1996 Atlanta and 2000 Sydney Olympics. In addition, he served as a color commentator for the Big 12 and Oklahoma State.

His latest stop brought him back to Stillwater to help bring the National Wrestling Hall of Fame to increased national relevance. In 2004, Smith became the Executive Director and helped get the historic site out of bankruptcy, including fundraising to get the museum much needed, state-of-the-art renovations.

Smith was at the helm of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame for 21 years, entering retirment during the summer of 2026.

Gallagher Award

Beginning in 1986, the Gallagher Award has been given out to 36 individuals who exemplified the spirit and leadership eminent in the tradition of champions. The award is the highest honor an OSU alumnus can earn from the Cowboy wrestling program for their dedication to the sport of wrestling after the end of their college career. The list of recipients includes some of the sport's and program's legends, such as Myron Roderick, John Smith, Kenny Monday, Pat Smith, Kendall Cross and Bobby Douglas.

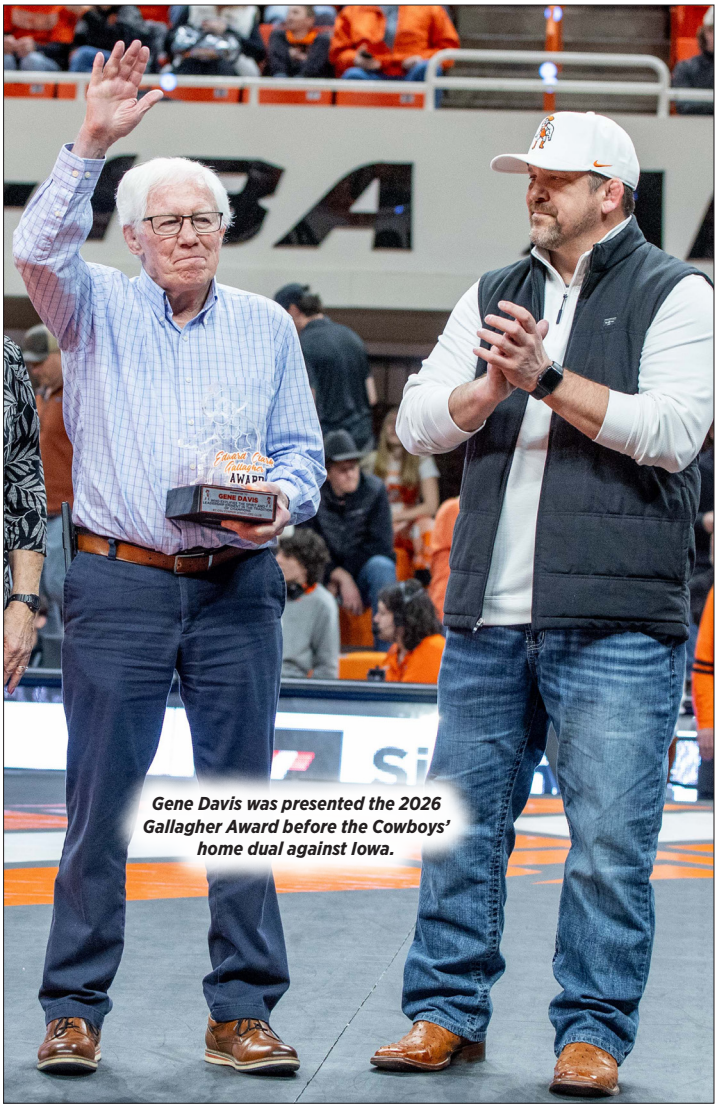
An NCAA champion, three-time All American and Olympic bronze medalist for the United States, Gene Davis received the 2026 Gallagher Award. Born in 1945 and raised in Missoula, Montana, Davis was a standout from the start. He won four state championships and finished his high school career undefeated in 66 matches, which made him one of the most sought-after recruits of his era. He took that success to Oklahoma State, where he became a cornerstone of the Cowboy lineup. Davis earned All-American honors three years in a row. He placed fourth in 1965, won the national title at 137 pounds his junior year then closed out his college career with a third-place finish in 1967. His 61-5-1 career record, which included a 24-1-1 championship season as a junior, made him one of the best wrestlers in the Big Eight.

Davis could've chased individual glory after graduation, but he chose a different path. He joined Athletes in Action, the athletic ministry of Campus Crusade for Christ, as both a wrestler and coach where he stayed with them for 17 years. The team traveled the country, competing in front of crowds and using the platform of sport to share its faith. The results on the mat were impressive, with 188 dual wins and two national team titles, but Davis and his teammates always saw winning as secondary to their mission.

At the same time, Davis built a decorated freestyle career that lasted 11 years. He won four national freestyle titles, placed fourth and sixth at the World Championships, and represented the United States twice at the Olympics. He made the 1972 team that traveled to Munich and won a bronze medal at the 1976 games in Montreal.

The 1976 Games also revealed what set Davis apart. He had been the dominant force at 149.5 pounds all year, but he believed the U.S. team would be stronger if another wrestler competed at that weight. So, he made the difficult and painful cut down to 136.5 pounds to make room for his teammate. He still defeated both the reigning world champion and the world silver medalist, but the toll of the weight cut cost him his shot at gold. It was a sacrifice few athletes would make, and it reflected the team-first attitude that has defined him throughout his career.

Davis later brought that same leadership to the sidelines. In 1979, he coached the United States to a sweep of all 10 gold medals at the Pan American Games, and in 1981 he served as head coach of the U.S. World Team. In 1985, the National Wrestling Hall of fame recognized his accomplishments and his example of sportsmanship and leadership by inducting him as a Distinguished Member.



Gene Davis was presented the 2026 Gallagher Award before the Cowboys' home dual against Iowa.

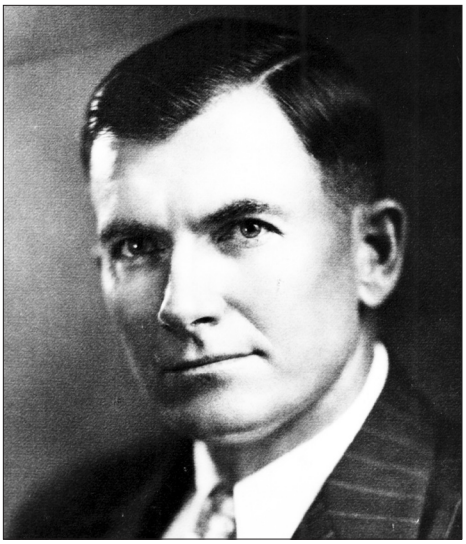
Wrestling Legend Ed Gallagher



By Mark Palmer (July 31, 2008)

Re-printed with permission

Thirty-four NCAA team titles. 143 individual NCAA champs. Nearly 500 NCAA All-Americans.

By any measure, Oklahoma State has built a wrestling legacy unmatched by any other college wrestling program over many decades. And the man who laid the strong foundation for that legacy is Ed Gallagher, Cowboys wrestling coach from 1916 through 1940.

As head coach, Gallagher's Cowboys racked up a 136-5-4 overall record for an incredible .937 winning percentage. During his 23 seasons at the reins, Gallagher's teams had nineteen undefeated seasons, winning eleven NCAA team titles. Gallagher coached 22 wrestlers to earn 37 individual national championships; eleven of his Cowboys wrestled in Olympic competition, with three winning gold medals. Because of these accomplishments, Ed Gallagher's name adorns the arena at Oklahoma State... and he was named one of three "Best Wrestling Coaches" in an online poll of wrestling fans for the NCAA 75th Anniversary Team honors in 2005. (The other two coaches: Iowa State's Harold Nichols, and University of Iowa's Dan Gable.)

The Versatile Athlete Who Never Wrestled

Born September 5, 1887 in Perth, Kansas, Edward Clark Gallagher was a natural athlete, running track and playing football in high school. As a student at Oklahoma State -- then called Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College -- Gallagher set 100-yard dash and hurdle records that stood for thirty years. In 1908, he ran 99 yards for a touchdown against Kansas State.

After graduating from Oklahoma State in 1909 with an engineering degree, Ed Gallagher stayed in Stillwater as the school's track coach. In 1913, he was lured away to Baker College in Baldwin City, Kansas, where he coached all sports ... however, two years later, he was back at Oklahoma State, serving as athletic director.

During the 1914-1915 school year, Oklahoma State launched its wrestling program, with A.M. Colville as coach. That first season, the Cowboys wrestled only one dual meet – held in conjunction with a gymnastics event -- and were trounced by the University of Texas. The following year, Ed Gallagher took the helm of the wrestling program ... despite never having wrestled in an organized program in high school or college.

Ed Gallagher's lack of mat experience may seem stunning these days, considering today's top college wrestling coaches have resumes loaded with high school state and national wrestling titles, NCAA championships and even international mat honors. Yet, when Gallagher was in school, organized wrestling programs were rare, outside those at YMCAs and men's clubs, or at eastern colleges ... so opportunities to compete on the mat were very limited for someone from the Great Plains such as Gallagher.

The lack of on-the-mat experience ultimately didn't hurt Ed Gallagher and his Oklahoma State wrestlers. Admittedly, Gallagher's first season as head coach (1915-16) was a losing one; the Cowboys again had just one dual meet, again losing to Texas, this time by an even more lopsided 22.5-2.5 score. However, in his second year, Gallagher's matmen wrestled three duals, winning two (against Emporia State and Texas), and tying with Arkansas.

That winning momentum was sidelined after the 1916-17 season; because of World War I, there was no wrestling team at Oklahoma State, as most of the male students were serving in the military or reserves. However, when the program resumed in the 1919-20 school year, the Gallagher dynasty began its long, successful run as the dominant college wrestling program throughout the 1920s and 30s.

Engineering Success on the Mat

As an engineer, Ed Gallagher employed a systematic approach to the sport of wrestling ... starting with how he selected young men to wrestle for Oklahoma State. He looked at their families, picking sons of "upstanding" parents ... and favoring "only boys who cannot go out in society." In other words, those who might be considered economically disadvantaged, and would view wrestling as a springboard for success in life beyond the mat.

Gallagher also expected his wrestlers to live clean -- no smoking, no drinking, and, perhaps most startling nowadays, no dating. "The best woman in the world can do you no good," claimed the Cowboy coach. (No, Gallagher was not a confirmed bachelor; he married right out of college, and together, Ed and the former Mary Austella Taylor had a total of six children -- three boys, and three girls.) Along with clean living off the mat, Gallagher stressed clean behavior on the mat. He wanted his men to wrestle tough, with determination ... but with character, and good sportsmanship.

In selecting wrestlers for his program, Gallagher also favored a specific type of physique. He sought "lean plainsmen" -- tall, slim, strong men, rather than compact, muscular types who were typical in college wrestling even 80-90 years ago. Ideally, these long, lean wrestlers must have quick reactions, according to the coach's criteria.

Ed Gallagher's engineering background also guided his primary focus -- the study of leverage, and how it applied to wrestling. Using a human skeleton and rubber bands, he spent hours figuring out holds and counters -- one report saying he spent at least two hours a day in his office on this task. The Cowboy coach developed, by his own count, 400-500 holds and variations; he expected each of his men to know at least 200 of those.

Perhaps most surprising, Ed Gallagher was open about sharing his scientific approach to wrestling. His teams often put on wrestling demonstrations before or after a dual meet in an opponent's gym. In 1939, he and his Cowboys were featured in a three-page "how-to-wrestle" feature for the popular photo-magazine, "Life." In addition, he wrote two very popular instructional books, titled simply "Amateur Wrestling" and "Wrestling."

Break it Down

Here's a specific example of how the engineer in Ed Gallagher guided his instruction of his wrestlers: He told them to think of an opponent on all fours as a table. To succeed, his wrestlers need to "break" at least one leg of the table. If the opponent's arms were weak, that was the point of attack; if the arms were strong, go for the legs.

Another way to "break" an opponent, according to Gallagher: Make more than one attempt or counter. Continue a string of attacks until you have opponent under control. In other words, never give up.

Not all of Ed Gallagher's ideas came from his own engineering mind. According to the book about the history of the Oklahoma State wrestling program, "Cowboys Ride Again!" Gallagher picked up a tip from 1920s professional wrestling champ Ed "Strangler" Lewis: If possible, "take two deep breaths and immediately pitch back viciously. To do this correctly, break out of the predicament first, and, step back and draw the breaths. Now, he (the opponent) will see this and either follow suit or at least temporarily relax, and you can catch him somewhat relaxed."

Eat to Win

Coach Gallagher made a science of studying the diet of his wrestlers. He generally allowed his wrestlers to eat what they wanted, as long as it what was what they typically consumed, in reasonable quantities. However, he discouraged his wrestlers from consuming cold drinks.

He focused on glycogen, the form in which sugar is used in the body, turning one-third of that into carbon dioxide, and the remaining two-thirds to water and lactic acid -- the cause of oxygen debt, leading to hard breathing during exertion in workouts and during a wrestling match.

After weigh-ins, instead of chowing down with a big meal as most wrestlers did in the 1920s and 30s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually contented themselves with hot tea, sweetened with brown sugar, honey or Karo syrup. He wanted his men to be "properly sugared" especially when trying to make weight.

Your Great-Grandfather's Cowboys

College wrestling of the Ed Gallagher era differs significantly in a number of ways from the sport we know today. For starters, the Cowboys wrestled just 5-8 dual meets in a typical season in the 1920s and 30s. Each regulation match lasted ten minutes. There was no point scoring system; matches were won by a pin (back then, shoulders had to be on the mat for a full three seconds), or by "time advantage" -- essentially, whoever had the most riding time. In 1938 -- towards the end of Gallagher's coaching career -- this system was replaced, with the referee making the decision as to who won. The referee decision system didn't last; in 1941, the beginnings of today's point system made their appearance in college wrestling.

Perhaps the most startling difference for today's fans: For home meets, the Oklahoma State wrestlers competed in a roped-off ring, like those for boxing or professional wrestling. The actual wrestling area was the same as on-the-floor mats in other college events. In reviewing "NCAA Wrestling Guides" of the era -- the annual rules-and-results publication for high school and college wrestling -- there are diagrams governing ring size, number of ropes, what the ropes should be made of, and how they should be secured... but nothing about rules governing how the ring could be used. The only hint: In "Cowboys Ride Again!" there's a description of a match in which an angry Oklahoma State wrestler threw an opponent over the top rope, which apparently was against the rules... but the Cowboy wasn't disqualified, and the match resumed.

The Cowboys weren't alone in wrestling in roped-off rings. According to college yearbook photos, teams at Indiana University, University of Iowa, Iowa State Teachers College (now University of Northern Iowa), and Northwestern University also had rings for home meets 70-80 years ago. (The NCAA banned wrestling rings in the early 1940s.)

The gear Ed Gallagher's men wore to wrestle was radically different, too. No one-piece black-and-orange, synthetic-fabric singlets for the Cowboys back then. During the more than two decades Gallagher coached at Oklahoma State, his wrestlers wore a variety of uniforms. Through much of the 1920s, his wrestlers wore full-length wool tights. There was a time where the Cowboys wore tights with what was called a black Tom -- also known as an outside supporter -- on top of the tights. Towards the late 1930s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually wore wool trunks, much like we associate with pro wrestling, with no tights.

Despite these variations in what the Cowboys wore below the waist, throughout the 1920s and 30s they usually wrestled bare-chested at home meets and at events at colleges in the Midwest and Southwest. However, when wrestling in the east, Gallagher's wrestlers would often be required to put on sleeveless shirts, at the request of the school hosting the event. (An NCAA rule change in the mid 1960s prohibited shirtless wrestling.) Going all the way to the top ... headgear was not required as it is now, and a very rare sight in the Gallagher era.

When not wrestling, the Oklahoma State wrestlers often traveled in gear appropriate to their team name. Outfitted in Stetson hats, colorful flannel shirts, and cowboy boots, team members made an incredible impression wherever they traveled. Adding to the Cowboy mystique, some team members performed rope tricks in opponents' gyms before some dual meets.

The Cowboy Way of Winning

No matter what they wore -- or whether they wrestled in a ring or mats on the floor -- Ed Gallagher's Oklahoma State Cowboys dominated the college wrestling scene for more than two decades. In the years after World War I, the Cowboys never had a losing season. In fact, in the ten-year period from the 1921-22 through the 1930-31 seasons, the Cowboys never lost a dual meet. That's 69 consecutive wins!

Among the Cowboys' opponents during the Roaring Twenties: University of Oklahoma, University of Kansas, Kansas State, Texas, Iowa State, Cornell College of Iowa ... as well as farther-flung teams such as West Virginia, the U.S. Naval Academy, and the Philadelphia Athletic Club. Who broke the eleven-year, 70-match winning streak? Cross-state rivals Oklahoma. The Sooners beat the Cowboys by one point in the last dual meet of the 1931-32 season. During the rest of the decade, the Cowboys had only one other loss (at Southwestern Oklahoma State in the 1936-37 season) ... and three ties. Most victories were by a substantial margin.

In 1928, the NCAA launched a national wrestling championship to conclude the dual-meet season. At the very first NCAAs -- held at the Armory at Iowa State -- Oklahoma State claimed four individual titles out of a total of seven weight classes.

That was no fluke; in the thirteen years of NCAA competition, the men coached by Ed Gallagher ruled the national championships each year. The leanest year for Cowboys was 1936, when just one wrestler -- Harley "Doc" Strong -- won a title. However, in a typical year, at least three Cowboys brought home an individual championship.

During the Gallagher era, 22 individual wrestlers won a total of 37 NCAA titles. Among the Cowboys who won three championships (back when freshmen were not eligible for NCAA/varsity competition): Earl McCready (the very first three-time college champ), Jack VanBebber, Conrad Caldwell, Rex Peery, Ross Flood, Joe McDaniel, and Stanley Henson.

Ed Gallagher's men did incredibly well on the ultimate international stage, too. From 1924 through 1936, Oklahoma State had nine wrestlers qualify for the U.S. Olympic wrestling teams ... along with Earl McCready wrestling for his native Canada at the 1928 Olympics, and Canadian big man George Chiga competing for his home team at the 1936 Olympics. Of these Cowboy Olympians, four earned medals in freestyle competition. At the 1932 Olympics in Los Angeles, Bobby Pearce won gold at 123 pounds, while Jack VanBebber claimed gold at 158.5. In the 1936 Berlin Olympics, Ross Flood brought home a silver medal at 123 pounds, and Frank Lewis won gold at 158.5.

Coach Gallagher's Toughest Battle

For years, Ed Gallagher dealt with the challenges of Parkinson's. In 1936, Oklahoma State and the entire Stillwater community put on a fundraising event at the school's Lewis Field football stadium so that coach Gallagher could travel with his wrestlers to the Berlin Olympics ... then take a side trip to Vienna to be tested by physicians there, at the request of his son Clarence, a doctor.

To help lighten his load, in 1938, Ed Gallagher retired as director of physical education at Oklahoma State, but continued on as wrestling coach.

It was about this time that construction began on a new, $500,000 arena on the Oklahoma State campus that would serve as home for the Cowboy basketball and wrestling programs. Completed in 1939, what was originally called the 4-H Club and Student Activity Building was state-of-the-art for the time, featuring an air-cooling system ... and over 5,000 theater-type seats, as well as collapsible bleachers for wrestling events, bringing total seating capacity to nearly 9,000 fans.

February 3, 1939 was declared "Gallagher Day" in Stillwater, in honor of the beloved wrestling coach. It was that day that the new arena -- nicknamed "the Madison Square Garden of the Midwest" -- was officially dedicated. That night, the facility hosted its first event, a dual meet with Indiana University, one of the top programs of the era. The Cowboys defeated the Hoosiers 18-9.

Wrestling Legend Ed Gallagher

At the end of the 1939-40 season, outdoorsman and hunter Ed Gallagher went to the Rocky Mountains for an extended vacation. While in Colorado, he collapsed and died on August 28, 1940 ... just a week shy of his 54th birthday.

His funeral was held at the new arena that had been named in his honor (and is still home to the wrestling Cowboys, now called Gallagher-Iba Arena, having been substantially upgraded and expanded in 2001.) Thousands came for the funeral for the man referred to in obituaries as "the Dean of Collegiate Wrestling" and "the Knute Rockne of the Mats" (referring to the legendary Notre Dame football coach killed in a plane crash a few years earlier).

Reading the text of the 1939 "Gallagher Day" souvenir program and the 1940 Redskin yearbook -- the last featuring Ed Gallagher as coach -- has added poignancy now. Even though he had been battling Parkinson's for years, there was optimism in the words in these publications produced in the last year of his life. In the "Gallagher Day" program, long-time friend and sportswriter Randle Perdue began his profile of the coach with this positive paragraph:

"The big news about Ed Gallagher is that he is improving in health! In recent weeks he has found a new medicine, the result of long search by his son, Dr. Clarence Gallagher, and evidently it is effective. Ed has gained nearly twenty pounds in weight. He is more cheerful, more hopeful. He is optimistic about the future. In fact, he has made a date to go quail hunting next fall. It will be his first time in about five years. When Ed gets back to quail hunting, he will be the Ed Gallagher of old."

In the 1940 Redskin yearbook, the last line of text in the description of the Cowboys' 1939-40 season closes with "With two intercollegiate champions and several intercollegiate runners-up returning, Coach Gallagher should have little trouble turning out another national championship for Oklahoma A. and M. College in 1940-1941." (Art Griffith became the Oklahoma State head wrestling coach upon Gallagher's passing in 1940. The Cowboys were 6-0 for the 1940-41 season, winning four individual titles and the team title at the 1941 NCAAs.)

The Gallagher Legacy

In tallying up the accomplishments of the Ed Gallagher era, the stats are impressive: 19 undefeated seasons out of 23 ... only two losses in the last 19 seasons ... six AAU (Amateur Athletic Union) team titles ... ten outright NCAA team titles (tied for first for an eleventh)... 73 NCAA and AAU individual champs ... and three Olympic gold medalists.

Ed Gallagher's legacy goes far beyond those stats. He coached a number of wrestlers who went on to become high school and college wrestling coaches themselves. Among the Cowboys turned coaches: Cliff Keen at the University of Michigan ... Paul Keen at Oklahoma ... Buell Patterson, who coached at Kent State, Nebraska and Illinois... Rex Peery at Pittsburgh ... Fendley Collins at Michigan State ... Joe McDaniel at Syracuse and Wyoming ... and Orion Stuteville at Northwestern.

Buell Patterson weighed in with his thoughts on coach Gallagher: "A reason that the men who have worked under Ed like him so well is that if he lost a match, they never received a bawling out. And believe me, it is a lot of satisfaction to give all one has for a man and know that what one gives will be satisfactory with him, even if one makes mistakes."

Another one of his coaching protégés, Carl "Dutch" Voyles (who coached at Duke and William & Mary), said of his mentor: "No one ever said an unkind word about him. That must have been because Ed was so full of kindness himself ... there are all too few men like Gallagher in this world of ours."

In his article about Ed Gallagher for the 1939 "Gallagher Day" program, Randle Perdue said of the man he had known since 1911:

"Applicable adjectives, on which Ed's friends all agree as describing him, include honest, fair, clean, square, quiet, unassuming, uncomplaining, canny, crafty, foxy, firm, shrewd, fearless, modest, sincere, stubborn, determined, and uncompromising – altogether friendly and possessing a fine sense of humor..."

"Gallagher has never been cocky, or disagreeably boastful. He has taken his victories graciously. He has never complained about a referee's decision -- at least not publicly."

The legacy of Ed Gallagher lives on in so many ways, beyond having his name on an arena ... or the annual award that bears his name, given to an Oklahoma State wrestling alumnus. (Among the past honorees: Bobby Douglas, Doug Blubaugh, John Smith, Pat Smith, and Kenny Monday.) His analytical, engineering-based approach to amateur wrestling revolutionized the sport. The success of his Cowboys helped launch high school wrestling programs throughout the state of Oklahoma, making the Sooner State a leading hotbed for wrestling to this day. What's more, the foundation of success laid by Ed Gallagher and his wrestlers has been built upon over the decades to the point where today, the Oklahoma State Cowboys still claim the most individual and team titles in NCAA wrestling.

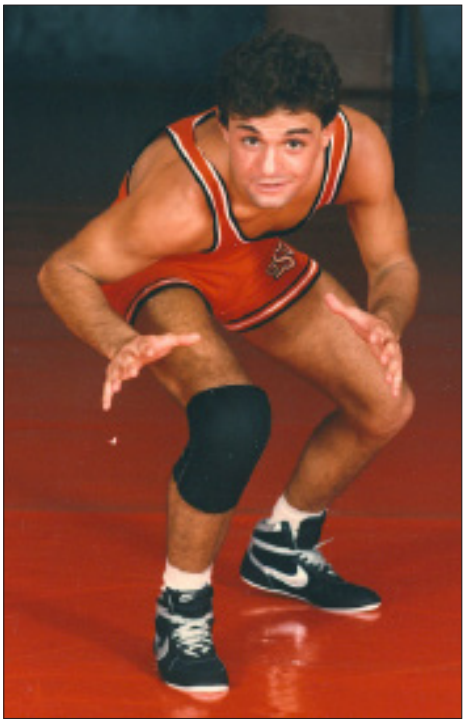
Wrestling Legend John Smith



Widely considered the greatest American wrestler in history and one of the greatest collegiate wrestling coaches of all time, few have made a larger impact on the sport of wrestling than John Smith.

Under his watch, OSU produced five NCAA team championships, 33 NCAA individual championships, 490 dual wins, 153 All-America honors, 23 team conference championships, 132 individual conference championships and two Hodge Trophy winners. His accomplishments place him among the top coaches in the history of the sport.

Smith was the longest tenured wrestling coach in Oklahoma State history and trails only James Wadley (men's tennis) and Henry Iba (men's basketball) as the longest tenured head coaches at OSU, regardless of sport.

His 490-73-6 career dual record gives him the most wins in school history and the third-most wins in the history of Division I wrestling. His numbers for All-Americans, conference championships and individual conference champions are the most at OSU by a wide margin and believed to be the most in NCAA wrestling history.

He also coached his teams to eight perfect dual season records, an all-time conference record of 171-24-5 and 21 top-five finishes at the NCAA Championships. His wrestlers won better than 70 percent of more than 16,000 bouts during his time as head coach and went on to claim double-digit spots on Team USA at the world level.

"It has been an honor to coach for more than 32 years at the same institution," Smith said. "I can't even begin to tell you what Oklahoma State has done for me, my wife, my immediate family and brothers and sisters who all graduated from OSU. My journey started at age 17 here at Oklahoma State and it has allowed me to accomplish everything I ever wanted."

Beyond the numbers, Smith is recognized widely for his contributions to the sport. He is a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, a two-time selection as the National Wrestling Coaches Association Coach of the Year and a 15-time selection as conference Coach of the Year. He was also the first wrestler to be inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame and is a member of the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame.

"Coach Smith is a hero and truly the greatest of all time," OSU Athletic Director Chad Weiberg said. "John has dedicated his life's work to Oklahoma State University, Cowboy Wrestling and the sport. Although the decision comes with much emotion for him and for us, he felt the time was right to retire. Because we have so much respect for him, we will respect his decision and honor and celebrate his exceptional contributions and loyalty to Oklahoma State. John will continue to support the program as a lifelong Cowboy and due to his efforts, we know great things are yet to come for Cowboy Wrestling."

Some of Smith's most prominent pupils include Olympic medalists Coleman Scott and Jamill Kelly, Hodge Trophy winners Steve Mocco and Alex Dieringer, other multiple-time NCAA champions Pat Smith, Mark Branch, Eric Guerrero, Johnny Thompson, Jake Rosholt, Chris Pendleton, Johny Hendricks, Jordan Oliver, Chris Perry and Dean Heil, as well as five-time All-American Daton Fix and four-time All-Americans Branch, Dieringer, Guerrero, Hendricks, Tyrone Lewis, Oliver, Rosholt, Scott, Smith and Thompson.

Smith also coached at the world level, coaching Team USA at the Olympics in 2000 and 2012, the World Championships in 1998, 1999, 2009, 2010 and 2011 and at the World Cup in 1997. He also coached the USA Women's Cadet World Team in 2018.

Smith's legacy extends far beyond Stillwater as well, having built a coaching tree that extends from coast-to-coast and includes double-digit pupils now holding the reigns at their own program. After 33 years and numerous battles with familiar foes, Smith ended his career with a 26-1 head-to-head record against his former wrestlers.

Prior to taking over as Oklahoma State head coach in 1992, Smith put together a wrestling career that squarely places him in the conversation for the greatest American wrestler ever.

He won six consecutive world championships as a competitor from 1987-92, including gold medals at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul and 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. He also won two gold medals in two attempts at the Pan American Games, two gold medals in two attempts at the Goodwill Games and two NCAA individual championships for Oklahoma State.

His Cowboy wrestling career also included three All-America honors, three conference championships, the NWCA Collegiate Wrestler of the Year award and more than 150 career wins to rank as the most in program history.

In 1990, he became the first wrestler to win the James E. Sullivan Award for the nation's top amateur athlete.

In addition to the already mentioned international honors, Smith received the Amateur Athletic Foundation World Trophy (1992), was the first American to earn FILA's Master of Technique Award (best technical wrestler in the world, 1990), and earned the U.S. Olympic Committee Sportsman of the Year (1990), FILA Outstanding Wrestler of the Year (1991), USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year (1989), Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year (1988) and U.S. Olympic Committee Titan Award (2004). He was also named one of the 100 Greatest Olympians of All-Time (1996) and is a member of the FILA Hall of Fame (2003), AAU Wrestling Hall of Fame (2024), Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame (1997) and NCAA 75th Anniversary Team (2005).

Smith's international record was 100-5, and his domestic freestyle record was 77-3. Combined with his collegiate totals of 152-8-2 and his high school marks of 105-5, he competed 457 times for his school, club, or country and won 434 times, for a success rate of 95%.

A.M. Colville

1915 // 0-1-0 Record // 1 Season
Coached the First Oklahoma State Wrestling Team

A.M. Colville coached the Oklahoma State wrestling program for its first ever varsity competition, a 17.5-7 dual match loss to Texas in Stillwater in 1915. It was Colville's only OSU coaching appearance. In that match, OSU 125-pounder Dan F. Cooley scored the first win ever by a Cowboy wrestler when he pinned his opponent in 55 seconds and rendered his foe unconscious. Colville's inaugural OSU squad consisted of Cooley, Herman Dose, Millard Harnden, R.W. Havenstrite and Jack Briscoe.

Ed Gallagher

1916-40 // 136-5-4 Record // 11 NCAA Championships // 23 Seasons
37 NCAA Individual Champions // 69 All-Americans

"The Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling", as he was eulogized by The New York Times upon his untimely death in 1940, Ed Gallagher meant more to the sport than anyone ever has and likely ever will. Coach of 11 NCAA championship teams and 37 NCAA individual champions during his time at the helm of the Oklahoma State program, he launched the premier dynasty in all of North American sports when he took over the program in 1916. Gallagher, who never wrestled himself, was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods. In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams and went 136-5-4. He also coached the team to 69 consecutive victories, a stretch that lasted over a decade, and ended his career with another streak of 27 straight wins.

Coaching History

Art Griffith

1941-56 // 78-7-4 Record // 8 NCAA Championships // 13 Seasons
27 NCAA Individual Champions // 64 All-Americans

Facing the unenviable task of succeeding Ed Gallagher at Oklahoma State, Art Griffith took over the program in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated, while his wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles. When he became the Cowboy coach, the team had already won 27 consecutive dual meets and under his leadership, that streak was extended to a program-record 76 before a loss in 1951. Griffith was also the head coach of the United States at the 1948 Olympics. He developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

Myron Roderick

1957-69 // 140-10-7 Record // 7 NCAA Championships // 13 Seasons
20 NCAA Individual Champions // 79 All-Americans

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 28 of 30 matches and three national championships, including one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion. But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions, won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 84 consecutive duals without a loss.

Coaching History

Tommy Chesbro

1970-84 // 227-26-0 Record // 1 NCAA Championship // 15 Seasons
19 NCAA Individual Champions // 76 All-Americans

Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed at Oklahoma State by not one, but three Hall of Fame coaches. But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors. From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach. Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 19 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

Joe Seay

1985-91 // 114-18-2 record // 2 NCAA Championships // 7 Seasons
7 NCAA Individual Champions // 45 All-Americans

A decorated high school and Division II college coach in California prior to taking over as coach at Oklahoma State from 1985 to '91, Joe Seay went 114-8-2 during his time in Stillwater and led the Cowboys to back-to-back NCAA crowns in 1989 and '90. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles at both the Division I and Division II levels.

When his Cowboy coaching career ended in 1991, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships. He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, while also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. At the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count, highlighted by a gold medal from former Cowboy Kendall Cross.

Coaching History

John Smith

1992-24 // 490-73-6 Record // 5 NCAA Championships // 33 Seasons
33 NCAA Individual Champions // 153 All-Americans

Perhaps the greatest American wrestler ever, John Smith rightfully earned a legitimate spot in the discussion for best collegiate coach as well. Throughout his storied 33-year career, Smith became the all-time winningest coach in program in history and finished third on the all-time NCAA wins list. Add in his five NCAA championships, the fact that he's coached 33 wrestlers to NCAA titles and 153 All-America honors, it is clear that Smith is among the best. Smith's Cowboys won the conference title 23 times throughout his tenure, including a Big 12-record nine in a row, and his 1999 squad posted the most dual wins ever at Oklahoma State.

David Taylor

2025-Present // 28-2 Record // 0 NCAA Championships // 2 Seasons
5 NCAA Individual Champions // 14 All-Americans

A man forever etched in history, David Taylor is the 2020 Olympic gold medalist, a four-time world champion and a six-time world medalist. In his first year coaching the Cowboys, Taylor led the team to a 13-1 record, producing six All-Americans and two NCAA individual champions. As a competitor, Taylor is one of the most accomplished collegiate wrestlers of all-time, winning two NCAA titles and reaching four NCAA finals from 2011-2014. He also holds two Dan Hodge Trophies as a competitor and has already guided one his wrestlers to winning the Hodge.

CAMPUS OF CHAMPIONS

Oklahoma State University

The Cowboy Code

The Cowboy family includes students from 50 states and over 100 countries, as well as over 300,000 graduates. No matter where they come from, Cowboys are united by a shared identity that runs deep — The Cowboy Code.

We dream as big as the sky.
Being a Cowboy isn't in our clothes, it's in our character.
We stand for what matters, even if we stand alone.
We end the day knowing we gave it everything we had.
We know challenges come with pain, but pain will not win.
We have a passion to do what's right, even when it's hard.
We finish what we start.

- Inspired by James P. Owen's 2004 book, "Cowboy Ethics: What Wall Street Can Learn from The Code of the West."

The Code Calls

In fall 2025, Oklahoma State University launched a bold new era with The Code Calls — a unified brand platform and historic $2 billion fundraising campaign rooted in the values that have defined Cowboys for generations.

Built on the Cowboy Code, The Code Calls celebrates who we are while charting an ambitious vision for the future of the largest university system in Oklahoma. It's fueling momentum across the university and will create life-changing scholarship opportunities for students, drive groundbreaking research and elevate OSU academics and athletics to new heights.

Cowboys dream as big as the sky. They stand for what matters and finish what they start. Guided by character, driven by purpose and united as one Cowboy family, they're building a future where doing the impossible isn't extraordinary — it's routine.

That spirit can be found everywhere at OSU. From classrooms and laboratories to crop fields, ballfields and everything in between, it is carried by students, faculty and alumni who represent The State's University with pride and integrity.

The land-grant mission calls on OSU to improve educational access, empower Oklahoma's workforce and effect positive change around the country and beyond.

And when The Code Calls, Cowboys answer.

Living the Cowboy Way

It's a promise to ourselves and to our state, to transform sky-wide ambition into rising action. We meet people where they are and stop problems in their tracks. The Cowboy family is a tradition and lifelong connection. We shape leaders of character. We prioritize values like integrity, collaboration and resilience. That shows up in how our graduates lead and serve with courage and compassion to solve the world's greatest problems.

Through alumni, faculty and peer mentorship, student leadership development, as well as mental health, Homecoming, family and legacy programming, OSU is rooted in the Cowboy Code. Oklahoma State University produces leaders you can trust. OSU is committed to connecting every student to an alumni mentor or alumni career network to aid in their long-term career success

Oklahoma State University, in compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category, in any of its policies, practices or procedures. This provision includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid and educational services. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information. The Director of Equal Opportunity, 201 General Academic Building, OSU, Stillwater, OK 74078-1035; Phone 405-744-1156; email: eeo@okstate.edu has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity. Any person (student, faculty or staff) who believes that discriminatory practices have been engaged in based on gender may discuss their concerns and file informal or formal complaints of possible violations of Title IX with OSU's Title IX Coordinator 405-744-1156. University President Dr. Jim Hess

Dr. Jim Hess

University President
Second Year | Northeastern State | Ed.D. from OSU

An educator who puts students first, Dr. Jim Hess brings more than four decades of leadership experience to his role as Oklahoma State University's 20th president. His journey from small-town Oklahoma to the presidency reflects the transformative power of higher education and a lifelong commitment to student success.

Born in Henryetta, Oklahoma, Hess earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Northeastern State University before completing his doctorate at OSU. He was named OSU's 20th president by the Board of Regents in April 2025 after serving as interim president.

During his first year leading the OSU System, Hess focused on advancing student success, strengthening OSU's land-grant mission and positioning the university for long-term growth. Under his leadership, OSU launched The Code Calls, the university's historic $2 billion branding and fundraising campaign, while laying the groundwork for a new strategic plan that will guide the institution into the future. The university also celebrated significant milestones across its tripartite mission of teaching, research, Extension, including securing over $300 million for a new, state-of-the-art veterinary teaching hospital.

Known for his collaborative leadership style, Hess has emphasized serving students while engaging faculty, staff, alumni and donors in a shared vision for the future. His approach reflects a belief that universities achieve their greatest success when they remain focused on people and purpose.

Before becoming president, Hess led transformational growth at OSU-Tulsa and the OSU Center for Health Sciences, where he expanded access to higher education, strengthened academic programs and helped advance OSU's statewide impact. Dr. Hess was instrumental in the creation of the OSU Medical Authority in 2006 and the OSU Medical Center, which is now one of the largest osteopathic teaching hospitals in the country.

His leadership in higher education earned him induction into the Oklahoma Higher Education Hall of Fame in 2023.

Hess brings visionary leadership, financial acumen and an authentic connection to his interactions with students. He and his wife, Angela, have two children, John and Bonnie, and four grandchildren: Johnny, Brooklyn, Billie and Bradley.

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

Chad Weiberg

Athletics Director
Sixth Year | Oklahoma State, 1994

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director.

The timing of his promotion to athletic director lined up with seismic shifts in national landscape of college sports. Realignment within the Big 12 Conference and the emergence of Name, Image and Likeness both occurred within a month of Weiberg's start date. Several additional historic shifts in the national college athletics model have also transpired with Weiberg at the helm.

With that as the backdrop, in the modernized world of college athletics, Weiberg's OSU has been a force in competition. A sampling of Oklahoma State's accomplishments during his five years as athletic director:

- Oklahoma State won team national championships in equestrian (2022), men's cross country (2023 and 2025) and men's golf (2025).
- OSU won 22 Big 12 team conference championships (4.4 per year).
- Oklahoma State finished in the top 30 of the Learfield Directors' Cup standings each year. Its average national finish of 24.8 during Weiberg's tenure leads the Big 12 and represents the second-best four-year run of performance for OSU since the Learfield Directors Cup launched in 1993-94.
- Oklahoma State won the all-sports Bedlam Series over in-state rival Oklahoma four times and tied the Bedlam Series once.
- The Cowboy Football team beat No. 5 Notre Dame in the 2021 Fiesta Bowl, had a winning record over Oklahoma and twice appeared in the Big 12 Championship Game.
- Oklahoma State produced 223 All-Americans across all sports, the highest five-year total in school history.

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

OSU's broad-based success reflects how the department has evolved in ways that produce a meaningful advantage. Some of the key initiatives developed within OSU Athletics under Weiberg:

- Innovative forms of revenue generation that included making Oklahoma State one of the first schools with an all-sports jersey patch sponsorship, football field logo sponsorship and football field-level suites.
- Restructuring the leadership team with an emphasis on new revenue streams by adding a Deputy Athletic Director of Revenue Generation and a Deputy Athletic Director of Commercial Activity to lead these critical areas.
- Converting Boone Pickens Stadium into a world-class concert venue.
- Implementing revenue share for student-athletes.
- A partnership between OSU Athletics and the Spears School of Business to create the innovative Brand Squad, which pairs the best and brightest students in OSU's famed Spears School of Business with student-athletes for the purpose of creating a personal brand and managing NIL opportunities, as well as coordinating with supporters establishing new collectives to provide NIL opportunities for OSU student-athletes.
- The creation of a student-athlete leadership and professional development program with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director to help position student-athletes for success beyond sports.
- Numerous structural and cosmetic upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium geared toward improving the fan experience.
- Making OSU one of the first athletic departments in the nation with its own streaming service.

Weiberg has made six head coach hires, successfully recruiting Eric Morris (football), Jacie Hoyt (women's basketball), Steve Lutz (men's basketball), David Taylor (wrestling) and Katarina Adamovic (women's tennis) to Stillwater and elevating Annie Young (women's golf) from OSU assistant coach to head coach.

Oklahoma State hosted NCAA Championship events in men's and women's cross country (2022), wrestling (2023) and men's and women's tennis (2024) under Weiberg, providing the Cowboys and Cowgirls with added visibility on the national level.

Also on the national level, Weiberg was on the College Football Playoff Future Format Athletic Directors Focus Group and in September of 2024, he joined the NCAA Division I men's basketball committee for a five-year term.

In 2023-24, he served as chair of the Big 12 Athletic Directors.

Prior to his elevation to athletic director, Weiberg served as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director from 2017-21. In that role, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefited student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium, the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues and expanded concession offerings.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's degree in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a key role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as Big 12 commissioner.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

Olympic Medalists

Oklahoma State and the Olympic Games

Oklahoma State has produced 129 Olympians all-time, highlighted by 34 medalists - 20 gold, six silver and eight bronze.

OSU has been represented at every Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed in since 1924.

Oklahoma State has produced at least one medalist in 19 of the last 20 Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed since 1932. The lone exception was in 1972, when the Henry Iba-coached Team USA men's basketball team chose to not accept silver medals following a controversial result against the Soviet Union in the gold medal game.

Included among Oklahoma State's Olympic gold medalists are a quartet of two-time winners - wrestlers Yojiro Uetake and John Smith, men's basketball star Bob Kurland and softball pitching ace Michele Smith.

Senior-Level World Champions

Chase Jackson

Oklahoma State has produced 34 senior-level world champions, highlighted by John Smith, whose two Olympic gold medals and four World Championships made him one of the sport's greatest freestyle wrestlers. Japanese wrestling legend Yojiro Uetake won two Olympic gold medals while never losing a collegiate match. Kenny Monday further elevated Cowboy wrestling with Olympic gold and World Championship success. Beyond wrestling, softball star Michele Smith helped Team USA win Olympic gold medals and multiple international titles. In track and field, shot put champion Chase Jackson has become one of the world's elite throwers with multiple World Championship victories since 2022.

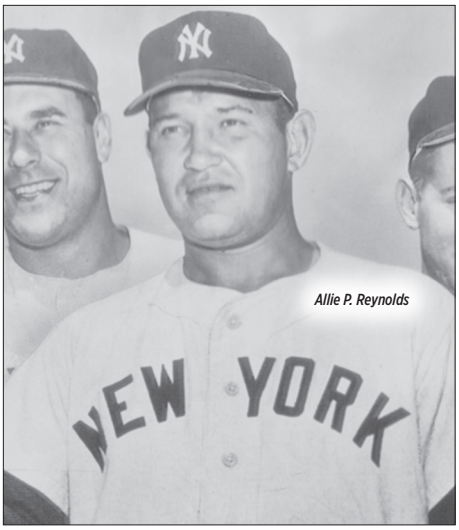
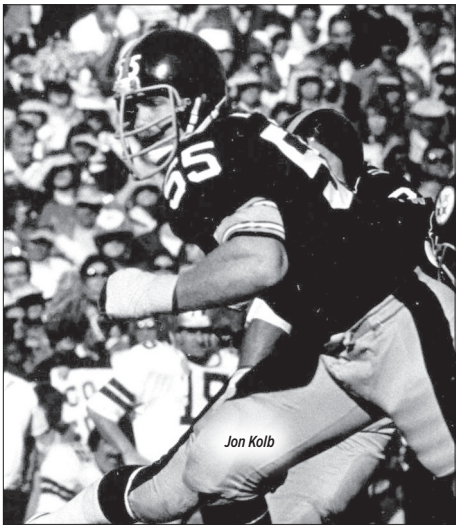
Major American Professional League Team Champions



Allie P. Reynolds



Jon Kolb

Tiffany Bias

Allie P. Reynolds helped establish Oklahoma State's championship tradition at the professional level, winning six World Series titles with the New York Yankees between 1947 and 1953. Known as "Superchief," Reynolds became one of baseball's greatest postseason pitchers. In the NFL, John Kolb played a major role in the Pittsburgh Steelers dynasty, helping the franchise capture four Super Bowl championships during the 1970s. Charlie Johnson protected Hall of Fame quarterback Peyton Manning during the Indianapolis Colts' Super Bowl XLI championship season.

Oklahoma State has also produced championship-caliber basketball talent. Tony Allen was one of the NBA's elite defensive players and contributed to the Boston Celtics team that won the 2008 NBA championship. His toughness and defensive intensity helped define that title run. Most recently, pitchers Andrew Heaney of the Texas Rangers and Justin Wrobleski of the Los Angeles Dodgers have both helped their teams to World Series titles since 2023.

Oklahoma State in the Pros

Cade Cunningham, No. 1 overall pick of the 2021 NBA Draft.

The Path to the Pros Goes Through Stillwater

Cade Cunningham was the No. 1 overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft and is now one of the very best in the game. Professional golf is loaded with Cowboys. Justin Wrobleski pitched the Dodgers to a World Series title. OSU thrives in the pros.

Our All-Time Greats

The highest honor the Oklahoma State Athletic Department can bestow upon its former student-athletes, coaches and staff is induction into the OSU Athletics Hall of Honor. Inductees are immortalized with a permanent display on the concourse level of Gallagher-Iba Arena, outside the O-Club room on the arena's west side.

Learfield Directors' Cup

- The Learfield Directors' Cup honors institutions and evaluates success in all sports, men's and women's. The Directors' Cup allows athletic departments to measure the success of each sports program evenly and does not weigh the success in one sport above the success in another.
- Because Oklahoma State does not sponsor women's volleyball and does not get credit for its performance in equestrian, it has only 17 sports eligible for Learfield Directors' Cup scoring, while most other schools count points from 19 sports. Operating with a two-sport handicap, Oklahoma State has still finished in the top 30 nationally in each of the last seven years and in 12 of the last 13. OSU has finished in the top three of the Big 12 each of the last eight years.
- Since the 2020-21 academic year, Oklahoma State's average finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup standings is 23.67, a mark that leads the Big 12. BYU is second at 28.17.

The Bedlam Series

BEDLAM RIVALRY

The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head-to-head competition.

While Oklahoma State and Oklahoma have been in competition for more than 100 years, the all-sports Bedlam Series did not come into existence until the 1999-2000 academic year. In the 27 years since, OSU owns a 15-11-1 advantage over OU.

The Pokes have been particularly dominant over the Sooners in recent years, going 11-1-1 in all-sports Bedlam since 2013-14. Included in that span are the five most lopsided all-sports Bedlam Series wins in history, all of which went in favor of OSU.

Honoring Academic Success

The Oklahoma State Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award acknowledges the remarkable character and performance of one male and one female student-athlete. As the highest honor presented among OSU student-athletes, this award reflects exemplary performance in academic endeavors, athletic activities, and a commitment to community engagement. The award recognizes exceptional character of the student-athlete and a remarkable dedication to academic performance.

The award was initially presented in 1994 as the OSU Student-Athlete of the Year, but the title changed to OSU Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2015.

College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans

Academic All-American is a title reserved for college student-athletes who perform at an elite level in their chosen sport and in the classroom. The all-time list of 40,000+ Academic All-Americans includes major sports stars and some of the world's most accomplished individuals in medicine, business, science and the arts. Established in 1952 and selected by College Sports Communicators, Academic All-America is the longest running and premier award for athletic and academic success across championship college sports at all NCAA levels, the NAIA, two-year colleges and Canadian institutions. Teams are announced year round and amplified by CSC member colleges, universities, and conferences on a wide local, regional, national, and even international scope.

Outstanding student-athletes are nominated for Academic All-District® recognition by communications directors and must have a minimum 3.50 GPA and meet high athletic standards. (25,000+ nominations annually). A select group of student-athletes advances to the national ballot where CSC members vote on Academic All-America teams. (approximately 2,000 selections annually).

Revenue Share and NIL

College athletics changed forever in the summer of 2025 when for the first time, schools were permitted to directly pay student-athletes.

In this new landscape, Oklahoma State is in a position of strength.

It quickly announced that it will share revenue with student-athletes in its seven ticketed sports. Scholarships were also added. It was a clear statement that whatever the future of college athletics looks like, OSU will be a force competing at the very highest level.

Whatever the future of college athletics looks like, OSU will be a force competing at the very highest level.

The same spirit of innovation and care for student-athletes that helped OSU's name, image and likeness program thrive now drives OSU into the revenue share era.

Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes benefit from knowledgeable people within the athletic department dedicated to maximizing available opportunities. Being situated in Stillwater, OSU student-athletes receive additional support from a remarkably passionate and supportive base of generous donors and fans.

The revenue-share era is here, and Oklahoma State is ready.

Mental Health and Wellness

Oklahoma State student-athletes have access to Dr. Trevor Richardson, who leads a four-person team of trained mental health professionals dedicated to serving the needs of OSU student-athletes. Most schools have just one - if any - mental health professionals on full-time staff.

The team's approach to mental health is built through relationships and providing ongoing support.

"Around here, we like the old proverb of if you give a person a fish, you'll feed them once. If you teach them to fish, you'll feed them for a lifetime." Richardson said. "That's kind of how we approach mental health – we want to equip our people with knowledge and strategies they can use long into the future."

For Richardson, a two-time Oklahoma State graduate who joined the athletic department after more than 10 years on campus as part of OSU Counseling Services, being a mental health resource for OSU student-athletes is not just his profession, it's personal.

There is a misconception that seeking help in the area of mental health is a sign of weakness. Richardson said that is not the case.

"It's a sign of strength to ask for help in mental health because it shows you are secure in yourself," Richardson said. "This is about courage. People who take part in this process show courage and sometimes they view it as a sign of weakness because of what they've been conditioned to think. When you run from something that needs to be addressed, sooner or later it catches up with you. To sit down and take that big, scary, unpleasant thing on and talk with someone about it, that takes real courage."

Supporting student-athletes through career guidance, leadership development and community involvement.

The Department of Student-Athlete Development provides a wide range of programs and experiences for OSU student-athletes to nourish and supplement their education. It works to inspire confidence in their professional futures.

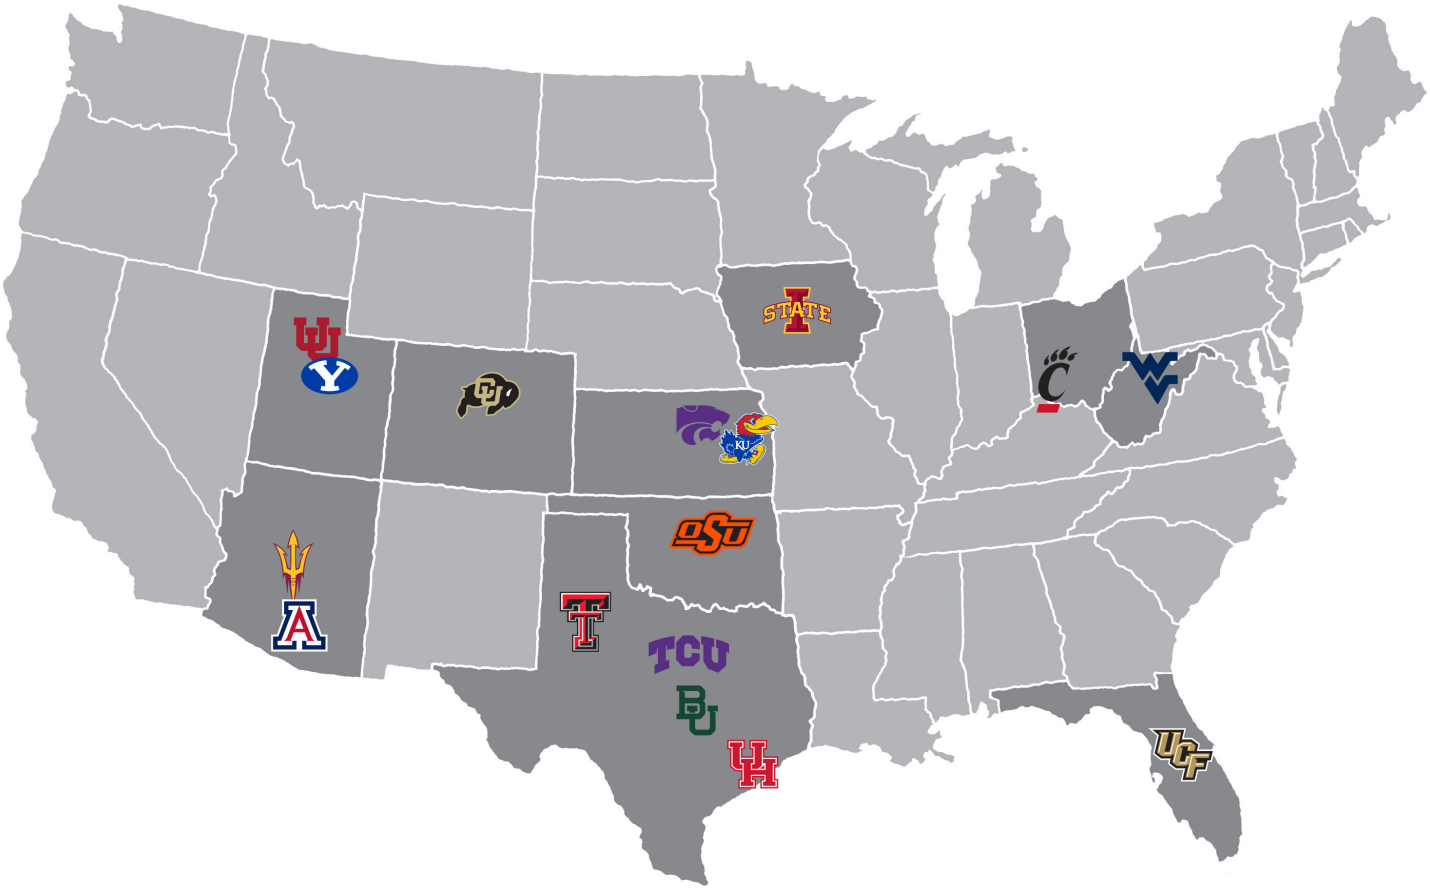
We're not just building better student-athletes; we're building better people.

Maria Taylor hosted the inaugural Cowboy Choice Awards.

A Night to Shine

Oklahoma State student-athletes walk the orange carpet at the Cowboy Choice Awards, which has become a highly-anticipated event on the annual calendar, in part because of the awards themselves and in part because it is an opportunity for student-athletes from all sports to come together off the field for a fun and enjoyable evening.

The Big 12 Conference



BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 enters its 31st year as one of the nation's premier conferences in college athletics under the leadership of Commissioner Brett Yormark. Since joining the Conference in August 2022, Yormark has elevated the Big 12 to new heights, emphasizing marketing, brand building and instilling an innovative strategy that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

The Conference is composed of 16 universities spanning 10 states and four time zones. The Big 12 members include Arizona, Arizona State, Baylor, BYU, UCF, Cincinnati, Colorado, Houston, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, TCU, Texas Tech, Utah and West Virginia.

The Big 12 began play in 1996 and is the home of 92 team NCAA national championships, and 798 individual national champions (as of June 14, 2026). The Big 12 Conference office is located in Irving, Texas.

Big 12 Fast Facts

- The Big 12 sponsors 25 sports across the Fall, Winter and Spring seasons.
- Men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling.
- Women's sports include basketball, beach volleyball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, lacrosse, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.
- The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 24 of its 25 sports.
- The league has been home to over 800 Academic All-America recipients.
- In the last 16 seasons, 39 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 award.

In the Heart of it All

Oklahoma State University serves nearly 28,000 students at its Stillwater campus, with 30% of the student body coming from out of state. Students from all 50 states and more than 100 countries call Stillwater home.

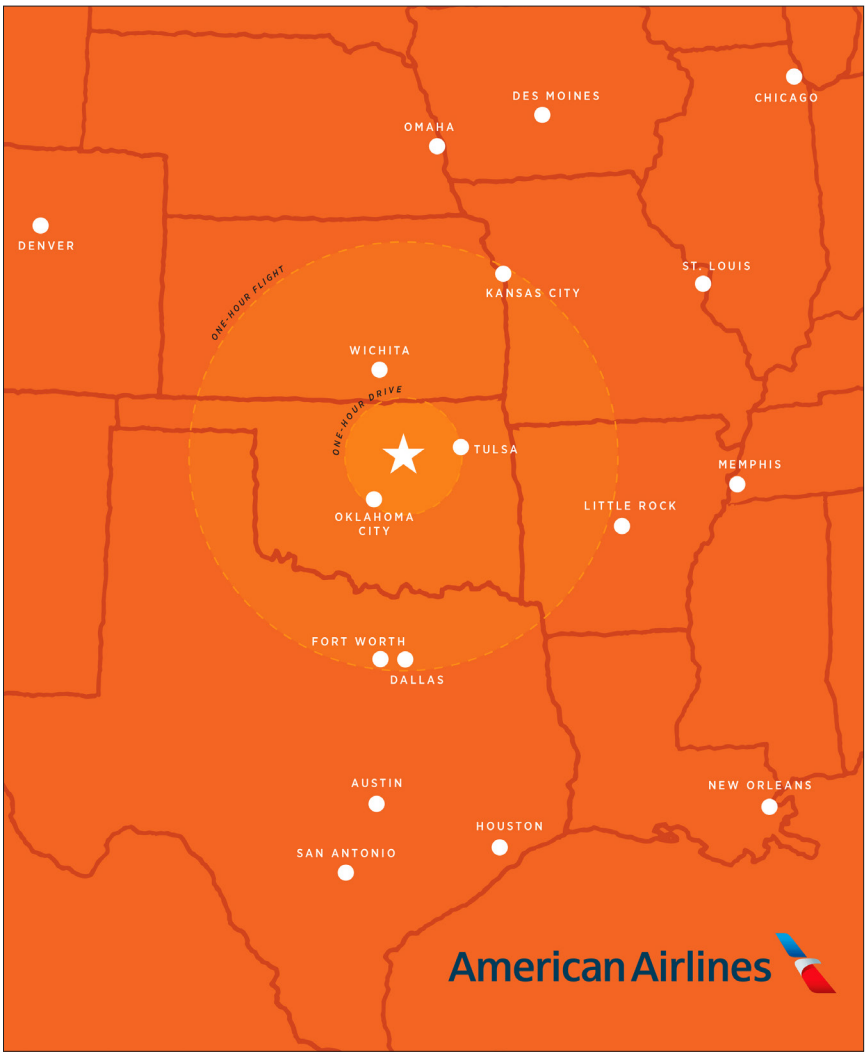
Stillwater is centrally located between Oklahoma City and Tulsa, just an hour's drive away from the two largest metro areas in the state of Oklahoma.

Stillwater Regional Airport provides daily nonstop American Airlines flights to and from Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport. A single one-hour connecting flight to DFW is all that separates OSU from traveling to New York, Los Angeles, London, Tokyo, Sydney and more of the world's greatest destinations.

Additional direct service to and from Stillwater may also be coming.

Stillwater Regional's 7,400-foot main runway can easily accommodate aircraft such as the Boeing 737 and Airbus A320, simplifying team travel for OSU and any opponents making the trip to Cowboy Country.

The airport's new terminal opened in August of 2026 with an updated space designed to enhance the travel experience.



Noting Stillwater

The population of Stillwater is about 50,000 and with Oklahoma State University as its heart, it comes as no surprise that approximately 50 percent of Stillwater residents age 25 years or older have a bachelor's degree.

Average Climate

Incredible Fan Support

Oklahoma State has a passionate fanbase that appreciates success across all sports and as a result, OSU enjoys an overwhelming advantage when playing at home.

America's Greatest Homecoming

OSU's very first Homecoming was held as part of the Harvest Carnival in the fall of 1913, but it wasn't until seven years later that the OSU Alumni Association hosted its first official Homecoming celebration. On October 30, 1920, 90 Oklahoma A&M alumni returned to Stillwater for festivities including the Aggie football game plus a dance and a dinner hosted by Alumni Association President Monroe Otey.

Of the 90 alumni in attendance, 50 were from the Stillwater area and 40 were from out of state. It was also in the '20s the now-famous tradition of house decorations began when sororities started to decorate their doorways.

In 1930, the first ever Homecoming Parade, a mile long, made its way down Main Street. More than 17,000 alumni returned to Oklahoma A&M that year to renew old friendships and show their pride in the Orange and Black.

In 1942 and 1944, Homecoming was combined with Dads' and Mothers' days and sponsored by the YMCA, YWCA, Dads' and Mothers' Day Association and the Alumni Association. The combination was a result of World War II and impending gas rationing to occur. Even with the gas rationing and cutbacks on parade floats, decorations and visiting bands, the football game and reunion functions were still well attended.

Following the war in 1946, there was a record attendance of 20,000 alumni and the largest parade was held including more than 50 floats, six bands and other community entries. Over time, the size of the house decorations overtook those of parade floats. In 1966, vehicles were abandoned and onlookers tried a new experiment - they simply "walked around" to view the decorations. Three years later, house decorations began being judged and scored.

New events like the Sign Competition, Football Frenzy and Chili Cook-Off were added in recent decades. Since that time, the event has grown and today is recognized as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration," drawing more than 80,000 alumni back to campus each year.

CASE International (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) has recognized OSU's Homecoming as a Seal of Excellence recipient. This is the highest award given by CASE in the field of Alumni Relations. This prestigious award is given only to programs that serve as models for others. OSU was recognized for the widespread participation and outstanding organization of its Homecoming program.

Most recently, the Homecoming celebration has launched onto the world wide web with photo albums, video highlights and live streams of Walkaround and the Sea of Orange Parade.

In 2010, the OSU Alumni Association began fundraising for the $3 million Homecoming and Student Programs Endowment as part of the $1 billion Branding Success campaign. OSU is one of the only schools left in the nation with an event like Walkaround, and once fully funded, the endowment will ensure future generations of Cowboys will be able to experience "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" as we know it today.

OSU's Homecoming is presented by the OSU Alumni Association and is planned by the student-driven Homecoming Executive, Steering and Big committees. OSU's Homecoming is a longstanding, exciting and colorful tradition for both campus and community.

The Cowboys

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

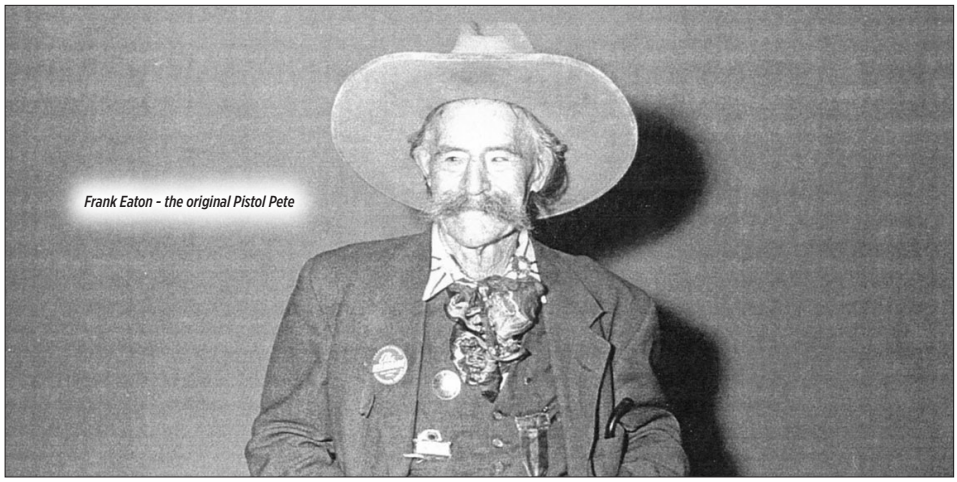
Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.



Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.

Bullet is a regular part of the Cowboy football game day experience.

The Waving Song

Victor Herbert was inadvertently responsible for a deeply entrenched facet of A&M athletic tradition, the waving song. His lyricist was speech instructor H.G. Seldy Seldombridge. In 1908, Seldombridge had gone to Columbia University to scout for a senior class play. While there, he heard In Old New York, the hit song from the operetta The Red Mill. Even New Yorkers were humming the song on city streets, and Seldombridge returned to Oklahoma humming it, too.

Shortly thereafter, he incorporated In Old New York into the closing number of a college follies show being rehearsed in Stillwater's Grand Opera House. But as he studied the stage decorated in orange and black for a campus scene, he realized that New York's praises were out of place for a southwestern college setting.

"Suddenly OAMC flashed to my mind," he explained in 1941. He asked the 30-voice choir to take a break, grabbed a piece of wrapping paper, hummed, and scribbled. In less than ten minutes he had the alternate lyrics that would enliven sports events long after opening night.

For that finale, a letterman representing each sport joined the chorus onstage. The students added their own memorable touch. They swayed and sang "OAMC! OAMC! We'll sing your praise tonight," as they waved to the audience in unison.

It almost raised the roof off the old building, noted Seldombridge, who left the campus in 1910. Exhilarated, the crowd surged to its feet and returned the rhythmic wave. It took two encores before the campus and community gathering was willing to relinquish the emotion of the moment.

"From that night on, you could frequently hear someone whistling the tune," he recalled, touched that OAMC's waving song was remembered as late as 1941.

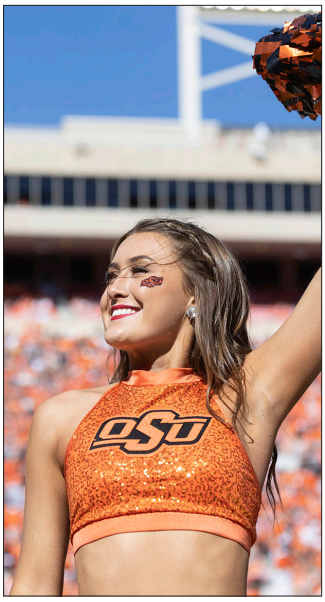
The Waving Song tradition continues to this day with OSU fans rising to their feet and waving one arm in rhythm with the song after scores in football and following victories in other sports. Contrary to popular misconception, this tradition should not be referred to as "Waving the Wheat," which is the name of the two-armed wave adopted by University of Kansas fans.

The Waving Song Lyrics

Oklahoma State! Oklahoma State!
We'll sing your praise tonight;
To let you know where e're we go,
For the Orange and Black we'll fight
We'll sing your worth o'er all the Earth
And shout: Ki Yi! Ki Ye!
In books of fame we'll write your name,
Oklahoma State!

"Ride 'Em Cowboys" Lyrics

Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride'em Cowboys,
Right down the field!
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Fight'em Cowboys, and never yield.!
Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride on, Cowboys, to victory;
Cross (opponent)s goal;
Then we'll sing 'O-kla-homa State!'



OSU Alma Mater Hymn

Across several different sports, following victories, OSU teams gather in front of the student section to sing the alma mater. All fans, students and non-students are encouraged to remain in the stands after OSU victories and join the Cowboys for the Alma Mater hymn.

Alma Mater Hymn Lyrics

Proud and immortal
Bright Shines Your Name
Oklahoma State
We Herald Your Fame
Ever You'll Find Us
Loyal and True
To Our Alma Mater
