Scoring: Shuler 23, Villa 21, Alonso 18, Smith 6, Young 6, Warpus 3, Lindemans 2, Shivers 1
Assist Leader: Shuler (6)
Rebounding: Shuler (10)
Steals: Young & Lindemans (2)
Blocks: Alonso & Young (2)
Best (±): Young (+4)

NOTABLES

» Alonso scored a career-high 18 points on 6-for-13 shooting
» Shuler posted her first double-double of the season (23 pts, 10 reb)
» 7th time w/ 54+ paint points under Rueck & first since 11/12/22 v. LMU (54)
»2nd game with multiple 20+ scorers this season (both losses)

STARTING FIVE

» The Beavers return home on Wednesday after taking Arizona to the wire on the road and begin one of the tougher stretches of the non-conference season with four games in eight days including three against potential NCAA Tournament teams
» UC Riverside opens the stretch at the Beavers' Field Trip game, which will bring in more than 5,000 students and teachers from area schools
» Lara Alonso-Basurto will have an opportunity to build on a career day after scoring 18 points with 9 rebounds and making 6-of-7 shots at the free-throw line
» Kennedie Shuler and Jenna Villa combined on the game-tying three that sent the contest to OT and each scored 20+ points to lead the team in scoring
» The unsung hero from the contest was Taylor Young, who only scored six but blocked two shots and added two steals on the defensive end

Evelini Smith earned a spot in the starting lineup vs. EWU and has not reliquished it

NUMBERS TO KNOW

2 Kennedie Shuler led the team in points, assists and rebounding for the second time in her career on Sunday, one of seven Beavs to do so in multiple games since 2000.

5 Since Scott Rueck started coaching the Beavs in 2010-11 they rank fifth in the nation in FG% defense, holding opponents to 35.8% shooting from the field.

18 Lara Alonso Basurto scored a career-high 18 points at Arizona, and the sophomore also added nine rebounds, two block and a 6/7 day at the free throw line.

NOTES

OREGON STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 101

These are the five most important things to know about the way OSU plays basketball:

- Elite position defense is normally the team's calling card. Under Scott Rueck the Beavs rank fifth in the nation in FG% defense, holding foes to 35.8% shooting since 2010-11
- That FG% defense is no accident. Typically, OSU looks to force opponents into their lowest-percentage looks rather than risk their position for steals or turnovers
- Holding opponents to one shot is crucial for defensive success: OSU ranks 13th nationally in rebound margin over the last 10 seasons (+7.3)
- Offensively, Oregon State teams traditionally opt to surround posts with excellent shooters, forcing defenses to pick their poison between guarding the arc and the rim
- Scott Rueck has coached 14 all-league posts at OSU and his teams have shot an average of 34.5 percent from downtown (17th nationally since his arrival in Corvallis)

(MISSED) SHOTS! SHOTS! SHOTS SHOTS SHOTS SHOTS! EVERYBODY!

Oregon State's defensive ideology is simple: Make other teams take shots they don't like taking. In a survey of anonymous coaches done by The Athletic, one coach said of Rueck's defense: "Whatever you're really good at, they're gonna take away. If you're good at ABC, you better come with DEF because they're not gonna give you ABC." Since Rueck got to Corvallis, the Beavs rank fifth in the country in opponent field goal percentage (35.8%), effective field goal percentage (40.1%) and true shooting percentage (43.8%).

NO LAYUPS

The Beavers thrive on creating low-percentage looks inside the arc. In Rueck's 16 seasons at the helm, OSU ranked in the top-10 of opponent two-point percentage eight times and in the top-25 14 times. Last season, the Beavs were exactly 25th (40.8%). Combine that with a low free-throw rate - OSU consistently ranks among the teams with the fewest fouls nationally - and it's easy to understand why teams struggle to find easy points against Oregon State.

CLEAN DEFENSE

One of the tenants of a Scott Rueck-coached team is defending without fouling. Over the last 10 seasons, the Beavers are the most whistle-averse team in the nation.

Team	Fouls/Game (2017-18 - 2026-27)
1. Oregon State	13.0
2. NC State	13.0
3. UConn	13.1
4. Wyoming	13.4
5. Colorado State	13.5

NO CHARITY

As in year's past, Oregon State's clean defense meant opposing teams rarely made it to the charity stripe in 2025-26. The Beavers allowed the fewest opponent free throw attempts per game in the WCC and 4th-fewest in the nation last season at 10.5. Over the last 10 years, the Beavers allowed opponents to take just 12.2 free throws per game, which ranks third nationally behind NC State (11.6) and UConn (11).

TOP OF THE PAC

Oregon State was one of the top teams in the Pac-12 after 2014-15 with a 113-57 record in league play. Beaver players earned 14 All-Pac-12 First-Team nods over the final seven seasons and head coach Scott Rueck is one of five coaches in Pac-12 history to win the Coach of the Year Award multiple times, including the final media award of the old Pac-12 in 2023-24

OWNING THE BOARDS

Oregon State has been one of the top rebounding teams in the country over the last ten seasons. The Beavs put an emphasis on holding opponents to one possession and their defensive rebounding rate of 74.9% ranks 10th nationally over the last 10 years. In four of those seasons, OSU ranked top-10 in the country in rebounding margin while finishing in the top-25 twice more.

THE SCHEDULE GAME

The Beavers' 2026-27 non-conference schedule is full of winning programs. Five 2025-26 conference champions are on this season's slate to go with four power-conference foes including two (Oregon & BYU) at home. OSU also makes a trip east ahead of league play to take on two Ivy League schools (Princeton, Columbia) who have earned NCAA Tournament at-large and auto-bids. Only three of 15 teams on the non-conference schedule had losing records last season (Arizona, UCR, EWU) while six (Princeton, CBU, Southern, Oregon, Vandy & Fairfield) made the NCAA Tournament.

NOTES

THEY CAN SCORE TOO

The Beavers are known for their defense under Scott Rueck, but early returns on the offense are positive. OSU scored 75-or-more points in each of its first four games for the first time since 2014-15. Five players scored in double figures at least once, but an offensive duo leads the Beavs most of the time.

SCORERS EVERYWHERE

Oregon State's guards are a headache for opposing defenses. All-WCC first-team selections Jenna Villa and Kennedie Shuler each averaged 12+ points per game last season and can erupt at any time. Shuler (31 at Pacific) and Villa (32 v. Pacific, 31 v. Gonzaga) are the first pair of Beaver teammates to each score 30+ points in a game since Marie Gulich (36 on 2/25/18 v. Arizona State) and Kat Tudor (34 on 1/19/18 v. Oregon). Taylor Young is emerging as yet another option for opponents to contend with, scoring 39 points in her first two college games.

WHAT CAN'T SHE DO?

Opponents and teammates feel Kennedie Shuler's impact all over the court. Shuler is second in the country with seven games of at least 10 points, 5 assists, 5 rebounds, 1 steal and 1 block in the last two seasons (Liv McGill, Florida - 8). She recorded her first of 2026-27 in the season-opener against Cal Baptist.

HOW CAN SHE ASSIST YOU

Shuler is among the nation's most consistent distributors. The Gresham, Oregon product was one of just 14 players nationally to hand out five-or-more assists in 23 or more games last season. Her 38 games with 5+ assists since becoming the starting PG in 2024-25 ranks 15th nationally. Shuler was also one dime shy of a 32-year-old school record with 14 against Long Beach State.

BETTER AND BETTER

Initially a star soccer player at Sam Barlow High School, Shuler committed fully to basketball as a junior before joining Oregon State. In her third season with the Beavers and second as starting point guard, Shuler showed off the development the Oregon State program is known for.

Season	Points	FG%	Assists	Steals	Rebounds	Blocks
1st	1.6	39.3	1.6	0.1	1	0.0
2nd	7.9	42.4	3.7	1.3	3.8	0.1
3rd	12.5	47.3	5.3	2.0	4.7	0.8

SIX-SHOOTER

Jenna Villa couldn't miss against Eastern Washington. The second-year Beav tied the school record with a 6-for-6 day from downtown (Aleah Goodman v. Colorado, 2/1/19) and solidified herself among the nation's best at volume. Only 10 other players have gone 6-for-6 or better against a Division I opponent over the last two seasons.

30-FOR-3

With her 33-point career high against Eastern Washington, Villa moved up an esteemed list of scorers at OSU. She is one of 10 Beavs all-time to score 30+ three-or-more times and just the second under Scott Rueck (Talia von Oelhoffen, 2022-24). Her first two games are also among the best for the Beavs since 1999-00.

Lara Alonso-Basurto earned Scott Rueck's trust over the course of the season and finished the year by playing 15-or-more minutes in every WCC Tournament and WBIT game.

NOTES

GET HER TO THE LINE

Villa emerged as Scott Rueck's go-to free-throw shooter in crunch time last season at the Maui Classic and had one of the best years of any Beav at the charity stripe. On the season, Villa made 88.1 percent of her freebies, the fourth-best mark all-time. The senior made her first 19 free throws of 2026-27, the most to open a year since at least 2000.

SHOOTIN' SCHIMEL

Ally Schimel joined Oregon State as a walk-on after dominating 3A Oregon high schools at Corbett on the way to two state runner-ups and a title as a senior. She quickly proved herself as a Beav, leading the team in season plus-minus, and earned a scholarship. Schimel is a legitimate floor-spacer, making 42.7% of her triples which ranks 21st nationally.

- Schimel hit at least one three in 15 consecutive games last year, the longest streak on the team (11/18 v. Utah State - 1/10 v. Seattle U). She shot 50% from three (26/52) over those 15 games.
- Among high-volume shooters (50+ 3PA in a season), Schimel's 15.3-percentage point increase in three-point percentage is the best by an Oregon State player since 2002-03 (the earliest point to pull that data)

SOPHS STEPPING UP

After seeing the floor for limited minutes last year, the Oregon State sophomore class has an opportunity to step up and replace some of the production vacated by the 2025-26 senior class. Lara Alonso-Basurto and Katelyn Field each earned starts in Wednesday's season-opener with Keira Lindemans getting minutes off the bench. The three showed flashes of what they were capable of last season as well:

- Alonso opened the season with double-doubles before settling into a bench role. She was especially good at home, averaging 6 points and 5.7 rebounds in 17.5 minutes
- Field was a shooter on the wing, making 34.3% from three and a perfect 8-for-8 from the free throw line. She had 8 points and 7 rebounds in 27 minutes at Portland
- Lindemans was an impact player in the Maui Classic, playing more than 37 minutes off the bench while the Beavs held Montana State and Liberty to under 60 points in wins

AUSSIE! AUSSIE! AUSSIE!

After successfully developing Aussies like Kelsey Rees and Jasmine Simmons into key contributors, the Beavs added two players from Down Under last season in Lindemans and Field. The duo made an impression on OSU staff in the Phoenix Nike Tournament of Champions together with ATC Academy.

CLASS OF 2027: THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT

Oregon State's freshman class marked a return to recruiting top Americans with Taylor Young and the Beavers secured another elite commitment in ESPN no. 41 and Naismith Girls Player of the Year watch list member Berkley Jones for the 2027 class on Wednesday. Jones joins Tess Stephenson (6-0 G - Houston, Texas) and Daniella Harcourt (6-5 F - Abia, Nigeria) in the 2027 class. All three members of the class had 'Power 4' interest before choosing a Beaver program that intends to compete nationally after a post-realignment reload.

NOTES

THE ST. MARY'S PIPELINE

Between Ali Gibson (2011-15) and Kat Tudor (2016-20), Scott Rueck's teams have benefitted from St. Mary's High School graduates over eight years of his tenure. Evelini Smith is the latest St. Mary's (Stockton, Calif.) grad to make the trip to Corvallis. The freshman is a physical presence in the post and played seven years of tackle football growing up.

BEST IN STATE

Maggie Warpus and Taylor Young each came to Corvallis with a case full of hardware after winning back-to-back state player of the year honors. Young, the Oregon 5A POTY, is a four-time conference and two-time state champion at Medford and Crater High Schools. She also owns the 5A state tournament record for points in a game and in a tournament. Warpus was the back-to-back New York Class B State POTY. She led her team to unprecedented heights, including its first state tournament appearance and a trip to the state championship game while setting the school record (girls and boys) with 1,886 career points.

DREAM SCHOOL

Young grew up dreaming of becoming an Oregon State Beaver. Her mom and aunt (Cherrith and Chassie Wiersma) played two years at OSU and her mom and dad (Keith Young) met while attending Oregon State. Young grew up in southern Oregon, attending South Medford and Crater High Schools and winning state titles at both. She twice named the 5A State Player of the Year before making the trip north to play for her dream school.

NEW LEAGUE, FAMILIAR FACES

Five players in the Pac-12 will bring the experience of playing in the league's former era into the new one, including two Oregon State players. Kennedie Shuler was on Oregon State's 2023-24 Elite 8 team that finished fourth in the Old Pac while Jenna Villa is in her second year in Corvallis after transferring from Washington State.

Player	Current Pac-12 Team	Old Pac-12 Team
Kennedie Shuler	Oregon State	Oregon State
Jenna Villa	Oregon State	Washington State
Alex Covill	Washington State	Washington State
Eleonora Villa	Washington State	Washington State
Aaliyah Gayles	Utah State	USC

MISSING CAT

Oregon State expected to get Catarina Ferreira back on the court this season after she missed the 2026-27 season with a knee injury. Ferreira, the 2025 WCC Tournament Most Outstanding Player, would have played 2025-26 on a Pavia Waiver before getting hurt. The NCAA denied Ferreira's attempt to get a medical redshirt and denied her appeal. Without Cat on the court, the Beavs will be missing a tenacious rebounder and clutch free throw shooter in addition to a calm and steady leader.

Scott Rueck's experience with a family culture started at George Fox before he brought the same approach to Oregon State: "I did it for a long time, nearly half my career at a Division III school with no scholarships. I had to build a culture that people would pay and go into debt to be a part of."

NOTES

ONE WOMAN WRECKING CREW

Kennedie Shuler's game against Gonzaga in January of 2026, wasn't just a good single-game performance, it was one of the nation's best all-around games. Shuler was an assist (which rimmed out in overtime) away from a triple-double with steals and even without that her 17-point, 10-steal, 9-assist, 5-rebound, 3-block day made history in several ways.

- Tied the Oregon State school record, set in 1983 by Juli Coleman vs. BYU
- One of four 10-steal, 3-block performances in the nation since 1999-00 (as far back as searchable stats go for women's basketball)
- One of four points-steals double-doubles in the WCC since 1999-00
- One of 17 points-steals double-doubles in the nation that season and one of two with 9-or-more assists (Hannah Hidalgo vs. Bellermine)
- One of three Oregon State players to have 7+ steals in a game in 16 seasons under Coach Rueck (Earlysia Marchbanks, 8 in 2012 & Janessa Thropay, 8 in 2018) and the only one to do so twice (vs. Seattle, 1/10/26)

HOME SWEET HOME

It's no secret that Oregon State maintains a loyal and devoted fanbase, and it helps the Beavs on the court. OSU is 193-62 in Gill Coliseum since Scott Rueck took over as the head coach ahead of the 2010-11 season. The Beavers have a .500-or-better record in Gill against every multi-game opponent except Stanford and Notre Dame. OSU owns eight or more home wins against former Pac-12 foes Oregon, Colorado, UCLA, Utah and Washington during Rueck's tenure.

PRO BEAVS

Development in the Oregon State program helped several former players earn spots on pro teams all over the world. Numbers fluctuate as seasons start and end, but OSU has nine alumni playing professionally. That includes three players from the 2025-26 team in Lizzy Williamson, Nene Sow and Tiara Bolden. Marie Gulich (Germany) and Ali Gibson (Puerto Rico) each represented their countries at the most-recent Olympics.

VOICE OF THE BEAVS

Voice of the Beavers Ron Callan has called 588 Oregon State women's basketball games since joining the program in the 2007-08 season, holding a record of 362-226 during that span.Ron called his 500th game of OSU women's basketball against Utah in 2024, a 91-66 victory, and should reach 600 games with the program this season. Callan's impact goes beyond the airwaves, he also sings the national anthems for internationally-born seniors on senior day as a tribute to their time at Oregon State.

BEAVER STAFF NOTES

» Assistant Coach Deven Hunter enters her six season on the Oregon State staff. Hunter worked at San Diego prior to joining the Beavers, and was part of OSU's 2016 Final Four squad as a player. She played a major role in developing All-American post Raegan Beers and All-WCC forward Kelsey Rees

» Fellow assistant and 2016 Final Four team member Sydney Wiese returned to her second home two years ago after a lengthy professional career that included stints with the LA Sparks, Washington Mystics and several international teams.

» Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach Eric Ely is back on the bench for his 15th season with the Beavs. A post coach by trade, Ely played a major role in developing players like Pac-12 DPOYs Ruth Hamblin and Marie Gulich during his earlier coaching stint in Corvallis. Ely - whose wife is from Brazil and speaks Portuguese - was the primary recruiter for Catarina Ferreira.

» Assistant Coach/Video Coordinator Jared Vedus joined the staff three years ago as a GA after spending four years as a practice player for the Beavers. He joined the full-time staff this summer.

» Associate AD for Sport Performance Jeff Macy oversees all of Oregon State's strength and conditioning programs and is the strength coach for the Beaver women. He spent ten years in the NBA, five with the Chicago Bulls (2001-2006) and five with the Milwaukee Bucks (2008-2013). Macy is in his second stint with Oregon State.

» Second-year Director of Ops Elizabeth Rudisill was a career diplomat with the US Department of State. She spent years working at embassies in South Korea, Mexico, Cuba, Australia, and Côte d'Ivoire.

» Athletic Trainer Jason Lieuw is the longest serving member of the Oregon State staff, currently in his 17th year and worked his 500th game with the program last year (at Pacific, 1/25/25).

HEAD COACH SCOTT RUECK (17TH SEASON)

It was a homecoming of sorts for OSU alumnus Scott Rueck, who was named the fifth head coach in the history of the Oregon State women's basketball program on June 30, 2010.

A five-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year over 14 seasons in the conference, Rueck is well-known nationally as a coach who gets the most out of his teams.

Nowhere was that more apparent than in 2024-25. After losing the bulk of an Elite 8 team due to conference uncertainty prior to the rebuild of the Pac-12, Rueck led a group of overlooked players from a 1-5 start to a WCC Championship and the NCAA Tournament.

Rueck has led the Beavers to nine NCAA Tournaments, including the 202 event where he took a team picked 10th in the Pac-12 preseason poll to the Elite 8. OSU was also poised to earn a top-4 seed prior to the cancellation of the 2019-20 Tournament due to COVID-19. Oregon State won three-straight Pac-12 titles from 2015-17, and has made five Sweet-16's, three Elite Eight's and a Final Four.

The two-time OSU graduate entered the Oregon State Hall of Fame for the first time with his 2016 Final Four Team on November 10, 2023. Rueck led the Beavers to a sweep of the Pac-12 regular season and conference titles in addition to the Final Four

The now-15th-year coach has led the Beavers to 49 wins over AP Top 25 programs during his time at Oregon State, including 16 over top-10 teams. Squaring off against some of the best players in the nation, the Beavers have often at least held their own. OSU went 4-4 against Oregon during Sabrina Ionescu's time in Eugene and recorded an 7-1 mark against Washington while Pac-12 all-time leading scorer Kelsey Plum played for the Huskies.

Oregon State also developed its own superstars under Rueck. Five players earned All-America honors in six years between 2015-2020. Jamie Weisner and Ruth Hamblin won back-to-back Pac-12 Player of the Year honors in 2015-16 and Hamblin, Gabby Hansen and Marie Gulich won Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year in four straight seasons between 2015-18. Sydney Weise was another of the All-Americans and also won the Senior Class Award in 2017 after earning All-Pac-12 recognition for four straight seasons.
