LOUISIANA HOSTS IN-STATE RIVAL TULANE FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2012

• Coming off an open date, Louisiana returns to action before a national audience as it plays host to in-state rival and American Athletic Conference member Tulane at Cajun Field.
• The game will be televised nationally on ESPNU
• The meeting in Lafayette is the fourth all-time between the schools and first since 2012.
• Louisiana improved to 2-0 on the season after posting an impressive 34-10 win at Conference USA newcomer Kennesaw State on Sept. 7.
• The nationally-televised broadcast is the first of two currently on the Louisiana schedule with the Ragin' Cajuns facing Texas State on Oct. 29 in a Sun Belt Conference showdown on ESPN2.

A LOUISIANA WIN WOULD ...

• Give Louisiana its first 3-0 start since the 2020 season and sixth time overall since 1975 (1975, 1976, 1977, 1982, 1988).
• Improve Louisiana's record in the month of September (since 2020) to 13-5 overall.
• Would be Louisiana's first regular-season win over Tulane since a 41-13 victory on Oct. 6, 2012.
• Give Louisiana its 14th straight win at home against non-conference opponents dating back to 2016 - the last non-conference loss at home for Louisiana was against Boise State in the 2016 season opener.
• Give Louisiana head coach Michael Desormeaux his first victory over a Jon Sumrall-coached team in three tries. Sumrall guided Troy to a pair of one-score victories over Louisiana in 2022 (23-17) and 2023 (31-24).
• Give Desormeaux a 4-1 record against in-state competition.

UPCOMING LOUISIANA MILESTONES

• With 252 career points, kicker Kenneth Almendares is five points shy of tying Brett Baer (257, 2010-12) for eighth-place in school history and six from tying Trey Ragas (258, 2017-20) for seventh.

WE ARE "LOUISIANA"

• The Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns is the proper name of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's athletic teams. We politely request you to refer to our athletic programs as simply "Louisiana" on first reference, or any use of the following in future references: Ragin' Cajuns or Cajuns.
• For all electronic sports tickers, TV crawls, in-game hashtags (ex. #LAvsTUL), tri-codes and scoreboard abbreviations, please use "LA" as the official abbreviation for all athletic programs.
• The Sun Belt Conference has made public its University Reference Guide that is used to reference each member institution's athletic title and nicknames.
• The Sun Belt Conference and the NCAA have begun to use these references immediately. Sun Belt member institutions, in-state schools along with its state, regional and national media partners are encouraged to use these references so that there is consistency across all communication platforms.
• Please refrain from using the following: UL-Lafayette, Louisiana-Lafayette, ULL, UL-L or any other variation.

AGAINST THE GREEN WAVE

• The meeting with Tulane marks the 30th overall contest between the in-state schools in a series which dates back to 1911.
• Tulane leads the all-time series, 23-6.
• In the last 13 meetings dating back to 1988, the series has been nearly even with Tulane holding a 7-6 advantage.

FIVE CAJUNS ON PRESEASON ALL-SUN BELT TEAM

• Highlighted by first-team members AJ Gillie and Zylan Perry, the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns football team placed five members on the 2024 Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference squad.
• Joining Gillie (offensive line) and Perry (return specialist) on the team which was picked by the league's 14 head coaches were second-team selections K.C. Ossai (linebacker), Jordan Lawson (defensive line) and Tyrone Lewis, Jr. (defensive back).

ONE MORE "NIGERIAN NIGHTMARE"

• K.C. Ossai, the team's leading returner tackler, looks to pick up where he left off recording a team-high 95 tackles to go along with a pair of forced fumbles, a blocked kick and a sack.
• Ossai capped off the 2023 season with a career-high 18 tackles against Jacksonville State in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.
• In 2022, he ranked fifth on the team with 63 tackles while playing in all 13 games.

IT'S A BROTHERHOOD

• When Louisiana kicked off its 2024 season, three sets of brothers were on the opening day roster.
• Returning defensive backs and twin brothers Calep and Collin Jacob (Loreauville, La.) both were members of the 2023 team.
• They are joined by returning offensive linemen Quinton (Fort Worth, Texas) and incoming freshman Djay Williams (Aledo, Texas) along with incoming specialists Braxton and Brayden Guilbeau (Youngsville, La.).
• Nine schools have more than three sets of brothers on their respective 2024 rosters.

Sets of Brothers on 2024 FBS teams
6 – Colorado
5 – BYU
4 – Colorado State, Kennesaw State, Miami (Fla.), Nebraska, Oklahoma State, Southern California, Utah State
3 – Georgia, Iowa State, Kentucky, Louisiana, Tennessee

... AND SPEAKING OF BROTHERHOOD

• Caleb Kibodi's 50-yard interception return for a touchdown marked at least the third time in school history that a pair of brothers scored TDs in a Ragin' Cajuns uniform.
• Kibodi's first career TD paired him with older brother, Jacob Kibodi (2022-23) - a member of the New Orleans Saints' Practice Squad - in scoring TDs for Louisiana.
• The other confirmed pair of brothers to score TDs for Louisiana are current head coach Michael Desormeaux (2005-08)/Matt Desormeaux (2008-10) and Montrel Carter (2012-15)/ Kaleb Carter (2020-23).

A NEW LEADER OF THE DEFENSE

• Jim Salgado, who has 30 years of experience in the collegiate and NFL ranks, begins his first season as the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns defensive coordinator.
• Salgado joins the Ragin' Cajuns after spending the 2023 season at Michigan State before taking over working with the NFL's Washington Commanders during the final stretch of the regular-season.
• Prior to 2023, he spent the past six seasons with the Buffalo Bills (2017-22). He arrived in Buffalo in 2017 and spent his first three seasons as a defensive assistant. Salgado was promoted to nickelbacks coach in 2020 and was the team's safeties coach in 2022.
• While in Buffalo, Salgado coached multiple Pro Bowlers as the Bills won three consecutive AFC East titles from 2020-22. Buffalo's defense regularly finished among the best in the NFL during his tenure, ranking second in total defense in 2018, third in 2019, No. 1 in 2021 and No. 6 in 2022. In addition, the Bills were the top-ranked pass defense in 2021 and ranked third in the league with 19 interceptions.
• Prior to coaching in the NFL, Salgado spent 23 seasons in the collegiate ranks. He was at Princeton for seven seasons (2010-16), including four seasons as the Tigers' defensive coordinator from 2013-16. He spent his first three years as the program's defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator. While Salgado was at Princeton, the Tigers won two Ivy League titles in 2013 and 2016 and he coached 11 All-Ivy League defensive backs.
• Salgado, who played cornerback at Hofstra from 1990-93, was a three-year starter and helped the Pride advance to the 1990 NCAA Division III semifinals.

TEAM NOTES

• Louisiana is tied for second among FBS programs in fewest penalties (6) and is third in penalty yards (50).
• The Ragin' Cajuns are 10th nationally in total defense after the first three weeks, allowing an average of 222.5 yards per game.
• The one punt by Louisiana in its first two games is the fewest of all FBS programs after the first three weeks.
• Louisiana's 34-10 win over Kennesaw State on Sept. 7 was its first win on grass since defeating Iowa State, 31-17, in the 2020 opener in Ames, Iowa.

Former University of Louisiana record-setting quarterback Michael Desormeaux enters his third season as head coach after being named the program's 27th head coach on Dec. 5, 2021.

In his first year at the helm, Desormeaux led Louisiana to its fifth consecutive bowl game, a school record, while 11 Ragin' Cajuns earned All-Sun Belt honors and Eric Garror was named a PFF Second Team All-American.

Prior to being appointed head coach, Desormeaux joined the coaching staff at Louisiana in 2016, and helped the program reach new heights as the Ragin' Cajuns won four consecutive Sun Belt West Division titles (2018-21) and won its first outright Sun Belt Championship in program history with Desormeaux serving as Co-Offensive Coordinator during the 2021 season.

Desormeaux, who was the only member of the coaching staff retained by Billy Napier, spent four years developing as a signal caller under Napier. Desormeaux's offense ranked third in the Sun Belt in both scoring offense (31.2) and total offense (397.6) during the historic 2021 campaign and helped the team secure a program record 13 wins.

In 2020, Desormeaux saw the Ragin' Cajuns rank 29th in the nation in scoring offense (33.6 ppg) and played a key role in the team's rushing attack ranking 21st nationally with 213.0 yards per game.

His offensive prowess was also on display during the 2019 campaign as he helped Louisiana's offense flourish in record-breaking fashion, ranking eighth nationally in total offense (494.1) and 10th nationally in scoring offense (37.9).

The New Iberia native has also done a masterful job coaching Louisiana's tight ends, aiding in the development of Neal Johnson and Johnny Lumpkin, both of whom earned All-Sun Belt honors in 2022. Johnson has led the tight end corps over the last four seasons, while Lumpkin caught 36 passes for 408 yards and six scores under Desormeaux's watch and was signed as an undrafted free agent by the New England Patriots.

He was on staff at Louisiana in 2016 and 2017, working with the wide receivers and running backs, respectively. Over those two seasons, he developed and helped recruit some of the top talent in Ragin' Cajuns history, including former running back Trey Ragas and former wideouts Ja'Marcus Bradley and Al Riles.

Desormeaux is also a relentless recruiter, playing an instrumental role in the team securing the top recruiting class in the Sun Belt in 2019, 2020 and 2021. With his influence, the Ragin' Cajuns signed the top class of 2023 recruiting class in the conference.

He also has strong ties with local high school coaches and has continued to build strong ties with prep coaches around the state.

Prior to joining the Ragin' Cajuns staff, he spent three seasons at Lafayette's Ascension Episcopal School, where he led the Blue Gators to an 11-2 record and the Division IV state semifinals in 2015. He took over an AES program in 2013 that finished 0-9 the year before and led them to five wins in his first season and eight victories in 2014.

A standout player for Louisiana, Desormeaux passed for 3,893 yards and 23 touchdowns while rushing for 2,843 yards and 16 scores. He was named All-Sun Belt Conference three times as an all-purpose specialist before being named the league's Offensive Player of the Year after throwing for 1,876 yards while rushing for 1,035 yards.

He became the eighth quarterback in NCAA history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons after rushing for 1,141 yards as a junior in 2007. Under his guidance, the Cajuns offense led the SBC in total yards, rushing yards, yards per game, rushing yards per game, yards per play, third down conversion percentage and touchdowns.

Desormeaux led the Sun Belt in passing efficiency in SBC only games and broke Jake Delhomme's single-season school record for passing efficiency. After concluding his career with the Ragin' Cajuns, Desormeaux signed a free agent contract as a defensive back with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) Hampshire Honor Society after graduating in December 2008 with a cumulative grade-point-average of 3.91.

Desormeaux was a star athlete at Catholic-New Iberia, where he later got his coaching start as an assistant coach. He lettered four years in both football and basketball, as well as five years in track and three in baseball. He led Catholic HS to three straight Class 3A playoff appearances and three straight district championships in football. Desormeaux earned first-team Class 3A All-State honors in 2003 and was named the All-District offensive MVP.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2010-13.

Desormeaux and his wife, Lindsey, are the parents of two children, Thomas and Elle.

COMING IN 2025! | OUR LADY OF LOURDES STADIUM

Louisiana Athletics announced its $65 million project to renovate the west side of the football stadium, the most significant improvement to the facility since its inception in 1971.

The project will begin Dec. 11 and is anticipated to be completed before the 2025 season. The Our Lady of Lourdes Stadium west upper deck and lower bowl will be completely revitalized and create a modern gameday experience that embraces the rich history of festivity within the Cajun culture.

ACSW & DLR Group Architects designed the project, and J.B. Mouton, LLC will serve as the builder.

The new west side will feature 34 suites, 40 loge boxes, 524 club seats, an indoor club, five new chairback sections in the lower west bowl and enhanced amenities for all fans with a total capacity of more than 30,000.

Premium seating opportunities in Lourdes Stadium will revolutionize the way Ragin' Cajuns fans take in the action for every game. Each premium seating area from luxury suites, club seats and loge boxes offers something unique that has never been available at Cajun Field.

August 31 | Cajun Field | Lafayette, La. | 7 p.m. | Att.: 23,107

LAFAYETTE - A fast start by Ben Wooldridge and the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns offense coupled with an opportunistic defense created pressure up front and propelled the Cajuns to a convincing 40-10 win over in-state opponent Grambling before an announced crowd of 23,107 on Saturday at Cajun Field.

Wooldridge, who missed the final 10 games last season due to injury, directed a Louisiana (1-0) offense after he completed 25 of 33 passes for 308 yards and three touchdowns. The Ragin' Cajuns scored on their first four drives and led 30-0 at halftime against the FCS Tigers (0-1).

Louisiana racked up 481 yards of total offense, including 363 through the air, while controlling the football for 19:49 in the second half to win its third straight opener. Harvey Broussard, Tavion Smith and Terrance Carter each caught scoring passes from Wooldridge while Caleb Kibodi returned a second-quarter interception 50 yards for a score and a 21-0 lead.

After Louisiana forced Grambling into a punt on its opening drive, Wooldridge wasted no time in shaking off any rust after his first action in nearly a year when he connected with Broussard for a 50-yard pass on the Ragin' Cajuns first play from scrimmage. The senior, who completed 11 of his first 12 passes to start the game, hit Jacob Bernard and Robert Williams on passes before Dre'lyn Washington capped off the drive with a 6-yard touchdown run for an early 7-0 lead.

Broussard, who caught four passes for 76 yards, capped off a 12-play, 69-yard drive for the Ragin' Cajuns when he caught a 13-yard scoring pass from Wooldridge in the back of the end zone for a 14-0 cushion.

Kibodi then extended Louisiana's lead to 21-0 as he stepped in front of a Myles Crawley pass intended for Javon Robinson and raced 50 yards untouched with 10:07 left in the second quarter.

September 7 | Fifth Third Stadium | Kennesaw, Ga. | 7 p.m. ET | Att.: 11,040

KENNESAW, Ga. – Louisiana's running back combo of Zylan Perry and Elijah Davis combined for 184 yards on the ground and three touchdowns and the Ragin' Cajuns erased an early deficit with 34 unanswered points in a 34-10 win over Kennesaw State on Saturday at Fifth Third Stadium.

Ben Wooldridge completed 15 of 19 passes for 189 yards and a touchdown while Dalen Cambre's blocked punt in the second quarter helped cap off a 20-point first half as Louisiana (2-0) improved to 2-0 for the second time in three years and fifth since 2000.

Kennesaw State (0-2) whittled off over eight minutes on its opening drive took a 7-0 lead as Preston Daniels capped a 16-play, 74-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run.

Louisiana would take its opening drive and use up 7:15 off the clock before Kenneth Almendares' 30-yard field goal with 13:55 left in the second quarter capped a 13-play, 74-yard drive to cut the lead to 7-3.

The Ragin' Cajuns defense would then force KSU to punt on its next five possessions, including three straight three-and-outs while scoring on five of their final seven drives.

Davis, who gained 80 yards on 11 carries, would give Louisiana a 10-7 lead after capping a 10-play, 80-yard drive with a 1-yard TD plunge with 6:02 remaining in the half. Wooldridge would connect on a 52-yard pass to Jacob Bernard on the Ragin' Cajuns ensuing possession before Perry, who had a career-best 104 yards on 10 attempts, scored two plays later from 19 yards out and a 17-7 lead.

Louisiana finished with 454 yards of total offense, including 257 on the ground. Jacob Bernard caught four passes for 84 yards to lead the Ragin' Cajuns with Tylon Citizen rushing for 29 yards on five carries in the fourth quarter.

2024 LOUISIANA FOOTBALL CAJUN FIELD RECORDS

Cajun Field has served as the home of Ragin' Cajuns football since September 1971. Louisiana holds a 157-117-2 all-time record on its home field with winning records in 39 of the 53 seasons.

The Cajuns set the school single-season records for total attendance (145,854) and average attendance (29,171) in 2011. Included in those totals were five of the top 15 crowds all-time, including a Sun Belt Conference record 32,823 vs. North Texas on Oct. 15, 2011. Louisiana was the Sun Belt attendance champion in 2004, 2008, 2011, 2013 and 2014.

Cajun Field hosted the 1,000th Cajuns game in school history on Nov. 1, 2008 before a then-Sun Belt record crowd of 29,031. The venue also hosted the 2021 Sun Belt Conference Championship Game as Louisiana earned a 24-16 win over App State before an SBC Championship Game record crowd of 31,014.

Louisiana has enjoyed plenty of memorable moments since the venue opened in 1971. The greatest of those moments came during the 1996 season when the Ragin' Cajuns opened their 26th season in the facility with the biggest upset in school history, a 29-22 victory over No. 25 Texas A&M in front of a then-record crowd of 38,783 fans. That mark surpassed the previous record crowd of 36,133 that saw the Cajuns face the Alabama Crimson Tide on Oct. 6, 1990.

On Nov. 30, 2019, Louisiana earned a thrilling 31-30 victory over in-state rival ULM to eclipse the double-digit win mark for the first time ever with its 10th victory, while also setting the school record for the most SBC wins with seven.

Cajun Field has been the site of much success with four consecutive 4-1 records from 1993-96. The school record for wins at Cajun Field in a season is seven, set during the 1976 season, one of three undefeated seasons (1976, 1980 and 1987) at Cajun Field.

Cajun Field boasts 2,577 chairback seats and additional seating to the capacity of another 38,849 giving the facility a total seating capacity of 41,426. In 2014, the south endzone was closed in to create more seating, adding 5,000 seats to the stadium capacity. In the summer of 2008, Cajun Field removed its long-standing natural grass and entered a new era with a synthetic playing surface.

For the first 17 years, Louisiana's football stadium was simply known as Cajun Field. In the summer of 1988, then-Strength & Conditioning Coach Mickey Faulkinberry suggested referring to Cajun Field as "The Swamp". The name stuck for various reasons. To start, the field surface is set two feet below sea level in a natural bowl.

In addition to providing a picturesque surrounding, the sunken facility allows most fans to walk down to their stadium seats. The Cajuns and their opponents must enter Cajun Field through a long tunnel from the Cox Communications Athletic Center.
