Richmond SPIDERS (9-16, 7-6) vs Saint Louis BILLIKENS (14-12, 7-6)

SPIDERS STARTERS

• Richmond's 69-62 loss at Saint Louis earlier this season snapped a three-game win streak in the series for the Spiders. But UR has won its last two home games vs the Billikens, in 2015 and 2017, by an average of 13 points per game. In last year's home win vs Saint Louis, De'Monte Buckingham led Richmond with 23 points, then a career high.

• Nick Sherod is shooting 56 percent from the field and averaging 22.5 points in his last six games, fourth most in the A-10 over that span. Sherod has led all players on both teams in points in four of his last six games.

• Sherod and VCU's Justin Tillman are the only players averaging 17 points and hitting 54 percent of their field goals in A-10 games this season.

• Grant Golden needs one point to become the fourth freshman in Spiders history to score 400 points. He would join Kendall Anthony (416 in 2011-12), Charles Stephens (459 in 1998-99), and Mike Perry (494 in 1977-78).

• Golden is one of just five freshmen in Division I averaging 16 points and six rebounds per game. He's joined by DeAndre Ayton (Arizona), Marvin Bagley III (Duke), Brandon McCoy (UNLV), and David Caraher (Houston Baptist).

• Jacob Gilyard's 72 steals are third most in a season in Spiders history and the most ever by a Spiders freshman. Gilyard is averaging 2.88 steals per game, fifth most in Division I and tops among first-year players. No Division I freshman has had more than 75 steals in a season since Marcus Smart in 2012-13 for Oklahoma State.

• The Spiders are 5-3 in their last eight home games following an 0-4 start at the Robins Center this season.

• Richmond is 7-6 in Atlantic 10 play following a 2-10 record during the non-conference portion of their schedule. Richmond played the nation's 14th-most difficult non-conference schedule, according to RPI. The Spiders played both Rhode Island and Vermont this season, Division I's only two teams still unbeaten in conference play.

SCOUTING REPORT

The Billikens have won 6 of their last 8 games following a 1-4 start in conference play and are currently in a three-way tie with Richmond and VCU for fourth place in the A-10 at 7-6.

Saint Louis defeated the Spiders 69-62 at Chaifetz Arena on January 6, overcoming a 10-point deficit in the second half.

Junior Javon Bess is the Billikens leading scorer, averaging 13.1 points per game. This game features two of the best freshmen forwards in the conference as SLU's Hasahn French (8.6 PPG, 7.0 RPG) goes against UR's Grant Golden (16.0 PPG, 6.4 RPG).

SAINT LOUIS, Mo. - Grant Golden led all scorers with 24 points and Jacob Gilyard chipped in 13 points in his return to Missouri but the freshmen weren't able to lead the Spiders to a road win at Saint Louis Saturday night.

The Billikens size advantage was apparent from the opening tip and they controlled the glass and the paint for much of the game, finishing with a 38-29 rebounding edge and outscoring the Spiders 36-22 in the paint.

Despite the Billikens production on the inside, the Spiders built a 10-point lead early in the second half as Golden and Gilyard combined for 12 of Richmond's first 17 points after half-time. But the Spiders managed just one field goal over a nine-minute stretch in the middle of the final period, allowing Saint Louis to come all the way back and pull away for a seven-point win as the Billikens improved to 7-3 at Chaifetz Arena this year.

Golden registered his fourth 20-point effort of the season and his eight rebounds were tied with De'Monte Buckingham for the most of any Spider. Buckingham added nine points, all coming on a trio of three-pointers, and a team-high six assists.

Gilyard, a Kansas City-native who is the the reigning Class 3 Player of the Year in Missouri, added five assists to go along with his 13 points. He played before more than 40 family members and friends who made the trek across Missouri to see his first collegiate game in the Show-Me State. Khwan Fore was the third Spider in double figures, finishing with 11 points and making five of his 10 field-goal attempts. One game after scoring a season-high 27 points, Joe Kirby's reverse layup was the only scoring from the Richmond bench Saturday.

Going Young

The Spiders are expected to start a redshirt junior (Fore), two sophomores (Buckingham and Sherod), a redshirt freshman (Golden), and a true freshman (Gilyard). 2017-18 is the first season since 1999-2000 when the Spiders haven't had a senior in their regular starting lineup. When Nathan Cayo made his first start of the season February 3 vs George Mason, 2017-18 became the first season since 2006-07 that the Spiders started three different freshmen in a season.

Richmond has just two players on its roster in their final year of eligibility (Kirby, Madrid-Andrews), second-fewest in the A-10 behind George Mason.

One of the reasons for the Spiders youth movement is the spring 2017 graduation of T.J. Cline and ShawnDre' Jones, the eighth and 10th leading scorers in program history, respectively. Richmond is the only team in Division I this season to lose two of the top 10 scorers in school history.

The Spiders Offense

Coach Mooney's offensive system relies on all five players on the court constantly moving through a series of cuts, screens, hand-offs, etc. Richmond coaches embrace the concept of "position-less basketball," where each player could be asked to handle the ball, set screens, shoot three-pointers, and play in the post (potentially on the same possession). The offense, which features many similarities to the offenses run by the Golden State Warriors and Houston Rockets, consistently produces a high-scoring attack defined by efficient shooting and standout passing. Last year, the Spiders were one 14th in D-I in assists per game and 10th in assist-to-turnover ratio.

The Spiders are also frequently one of the nation's top shooting teams. Richmond could become the first school to ever lead the conference in shooting percentage in three straight seasons in 2017-18.

De'Monte Buckingham

Buckingham is the Spiders most prominent returning player in 2017-18 following a freshman campaign last season that ended with A-10 Rookie of the Year honors.

Buckingham joined Kendall Anthony (2012) and Kevin Anderson (2008) as the only Spiders to be named the top first-year player in the A-10. Anthony (fourth) and Anderson (second) both rank in the top five on the Spiders all-time scoring list.

Prior to his sophomore season, Buckingham was selected to the Preseason All-Atlantic 10 Second Team. He is the only non-senior on either the first or second teams. The last Spider to earn first or second team all-conference honors as a sophomore was Kevin Anderson in 2009 (Second Team All-A-10).

All-A-10 Preseason First & Second Teams
Seniors	9
Juniors	0
Sophomores	1 (Buckingham)

Buckingham was the Spiders fourth-leading scorer a season ago (10.5 PPG) and finished second on the team in rebounds (5.6 RPG). He also ranked fourth in scoring and second in rebounding among all A-10 freshmen.

In addition to earning preseason accolades from the conference, Buckingham was one of 21 players selected to the Watch List for the Julius Erving Award, given annually by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame to the nation's top small forward.

December 19 against Bucknell, Buckingham led or tied for the team lead in points (22), rebounds (eight), assists (five), blocks (two), and steals (two). He became just the third Spider to lead the team in each of those categories over the last 15 years.

WITH A WIN

The Spiders would ...

- Move into fourth place in the Atlantic 10 (own head-to-head tiebreaker vs VCU)
- Win their third straight home game vs St. Louis
- Improve to 6-3 in their last nine home games following an 0-4 start at home this season
- Be 7-3 in their last ten games folllowing a 3-13 start to the season
- Secure double-digit wins for the 12th time in Chris Mooney's 13 seasons (all but 2006-07)

Buckingham had perhaps his most complete game of the season January 24 at Duquesne. In addition to posting 17 points, five rebounds, and a team-high six assists, Buckingham took several charges, the last coming with less than a minute remaining in overtime and the game tied at 73. On the next Duquesne possession, with Richmond leading by two, Buckingham tied up Dukes guard Mike Lewis II, giving possession to the Spiders. Fouled on the ensuing inbounds pass, Buckingham walked the length of the court and sank a pair of free throws with seven seconds remaining to ice the Spiders win.

Against VCU on February 7, Buckingham was forced from the game midway through the second half with severe leg cramps. He spent that night in a hospital receiving hydration treatments and was released early the following morning. He did not play at St. Bonaventure on February 10 as he continued his recover.

Khwan Fore

Redshirt junior Khwan Fore missed the first three games of the season while recovering from a stress reaction in his left tibia (shin) suffered in October.

February 7 vs VCU, Fore helped the Spiders steal a win late. Trailing by four with 1:16 remaining, Fore stole the ball at midcourt and was fouled on his layup attempt. He made both free throws to close the gap to two. With the score tied at 76, Fore was fouled on a breakway layup attempt with 3.8 seconds left. He converted his first free throw to give Richmond the lead. Fore then stole the ensuing inbounds pass to preserve a one-point victory.

An efficient scorer who likes to get to the basket, Fore ranked second on the team with a .507 field goal percentage last season, the second-best mark for any player in Division I standing 6'0" or shorter.
Fore rarely left the court last season, averaging 33.9 minutes per game and playing 1,187 minutes, fourth-most in the conference.

With a vertical leap approaching 45 inches, Fore is perhaps the best athlete on the team. His highlight-reel dunks have been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 and are a central theme of many local news highlights and team videos.

In October, Fore was listed as the A-10's 22nd-best player by A10Talk.com.

Nick Sherod

Sherod kept the Spiders close during their February 10 game at St. Bonaventure, leading Richmond with 26 points and nine rebounds. It was the third time Sherod had scored more than 25 points in his last five games.

Sherod scored 18 points against VCU on February 7 and led all scorers with 14 points after halftime. 10 of his points came in the final seven minutes as the Spiders overcame a 10-point deficit to win by one.

February 3 against George Mason, Sherod exploded for a career-high 32 points, 11 rebounds and three steals. He became the first A-10 player to reach those totals in a game since 2005. After the game, Coach Mooney said of Sherod "maybe the last 3 games have been the best 3 games of his career."

Sherod was named A-10 Co-Player of the Week with VCU's Justin Tillman on January 29 following the Spiders road wins at Duquesne and Davidson. He became the first Spiders freshman or sophomore to win the award in nearly eight years, since Kevin Anderson in the final week of the 2008-09 season.

January 28 against Davidson, Sherod grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds, six more than any other player in the game, five more than his previous career high and more than half of the Spiders total of 27. Sherod scored 10 points to register his first career double-double and added a career-high four assists, tied for the most on either team. The Spiders became the first D-I team this season

ALONG CAME A SPIDER

Three years ago, Richmond made history as it became the first D-I college basketball program to bring a live spider onto the court before games. Nicknamed "Tarrant" after UR's Hall of Fame coach, the live tarantula has grown to almost five inches in full length. She's a Venezuelan blue tarantula with a diet of crickets and has a perch from the scorer's table during pregame and behind the home bench during play. A number of national media outlets covered her unveiling, while NCAA.com recently named her college basketball's scariest mascot in honor of Halloween.

with two players 6'4" or shorter to have at least 14 rebounds in a game. (De'Monte Buckingham had 16 rebounds at Fordham on January 3.)

Sherod helped the Spiders steal a win at Duquesne on January 24. After trailing by as many as 16 in the second half, the Dukes roared back to tie the game. Sherod responded by scoring 15 points over the game's final 12 minutes (10 in the final seven minutes of regulation, five in overtime) and finished with a career-high 28 points as the Spiders won 77-73.

January 20 against La Salle, Sherod broke a 74-74 tie when he slipped a screen and drained his fourth three-pointer of the game with 1:11 remaining. Sherod finished the game with 18 points, tied for the most on the team.

Sherod scored a then career-high 22 points and matched a career high with nine rebounds in the Spiders win over Davidson on December 30. Sherod was perfect after halftime, hitting both of his two-point field goal attempts, both of his three-point field goal attempts, and all three of his foul shots.

Local Legends

Nick Sherod and De'Monte Buckingham are both Richmond natives who were making headlines across the region before they became Spiders. Sherod finished his high school career at St. Christopher's School - located about one mile east of the Robins Center - with 2,815 points, the highest recorded total in the history of Virginia high school athletics. Following his senior season in 2016, Sherod was named Metro Player of the Year by the Richmond Times-Dispatch, the same award won by Buckingham in 2015.

All-Metro Player of the Year was just part of the accolades earned by Buckingham following his junior year at Henrico High School, located about 10 miles northeast of the Robins Center. Buckingham was also named 5A State Player of the Year after he led Henrico to its second state championship in three seasons.

The Robins Center has a pair of sections devoted to the Spiders two local stars.

Fans to the right of the basket in front of Richmond's bench are sitting in "Buckingham's Palace" - where everyone is given a complimentary headband to wear during the game.

Fans under the video board in the northeast corner of the building sit in an area reserved for the "Sherod Squad".

Jacob Gilyard

Gilyard averaged better than 33 points per game at Kansas City's Barstow School last season en route to being named Missouri's Class 3 Player of the Year and winning the DiRenna Award as the Kansas City area's top high school basketball player. Gilyard owns the school scoring record after recording 50 points in a game last December, a mark he matched later in the season.

February 7 against VCU, Gilyard made the game's biggest play, stealing the ball under VCU's basket and laying it in to tie the game with 31 seconds left. Gilyard scored 13 of his 18 points in the second half and added six assists and five steals, both game highs.

January 20 against La Salle, Gilyard sealed the Spiders win. With less than 30 seconds remaining and UR leading by three, Gilyard crossed over his defender and buried a three-pointer to put the Spiders up six. On the game's final play, Gilyard registered his sixth steal and dribbled out the clock. It was Gilyard's second six-steal game of the season, and he became the first Spider with at least six steals twice in a season since Tony Dobbins in 2002-03. Asked about Gilyard's ability to get steals after the game, Coach Chris Mooney said " I've never seen anything like it. I've never seen anyone be able to steal the ball so regularly."

January 17, in his first game at VCU's Siegel Center, Gilyard scored 11 points and registered a game-high eight assists, tied for the most by a Spiders freshman in the last 20 years. Gilyard (eight) recorded more assists than the entire VCU team combined (seven).

January 9 against Dayton, Gilyard registered six steals and five assists while not commiting a turnover. His six steals were tied for fifth-most in a game in Spiders history, and he became the second player to have six steals, five assists, and no turnovers against a DI opponent this season (Darius Thompson, WKU - 12/22/17 at Austin Peay).

Gilyard sent the Robins Center into a frenzy against JMU on December 10 when he raced upcourt and drained a 25-footer with 0.4 seconds remaining to break a 71-71 tie.

On JMU's final possession, Gilyard intercepted the inbounds pass to seal the Spiders second win of the season. He finished with 23 points, the first time a Spiders true freshman scored at least 23 points that early in a season since 1998, when Charles Stephens scored 23 against Radford on November 28.

In his Spiders debut on 11/10 against Delaware, Gilyard scored 17 points, 15 of them after halftime, and registered a team-high four assists. Gilyard joined Kendall Anthony (2011) as only Spiders freshmen to score at least 17 points in season opener in last 20 seasons.

Grant Golden

While no single player can replace 2017 A-10 Player of the Year T.J. Cline, the player whose role in the Spiders offense might be the most similar to Cline's this season is Golden.

Golden showed promise in limited minutes before his freshman season was cut short due to a heart condition that caused him to collapse during a game vs Texas Tech on December 17 last year. Golden had a procedure five days later to correct an accelerated heart rate and was subsequently granted a medical redshirt by the NCAA.
Golden has added at least 20 pounds to his 6'10" frame since his surgery.

On November 20 Golden exploded for 26 points - doubling his previous career high - in a win against UAB. Golden became the first player in the nation to register at least 26 points, seven rebounds and two assists in a game this season.

Two games later against Louisiana in the third-place game at the Cayman Islands Classic, Golden was nearly as productive, finishing with 24 points and seven rebounds and locking up a spot on the all-tournament team.

Golden registered his first career double-double in the following game, finishing with 24 points and 10 rebounds, the first Spiders freshman to reach those figures in a game since Charles Stephens in 1998-99.

For his efforts against the Hoyas and in the Cayman Islands, Golden was named Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Week on November 27.

The following month, Golden recorded back-to-back double-doubles against Boston College and Davidson, becoming the first Spiders freshman with consecutive double-doubles since Charles Stephens in 1998-99.

In his first game against cross-town rival VCU on January 17, Golden scored a game-high 17 points and added six rebounds while making eight of his 13 shots from the field. Golden outplayed preseason first-team All-A-10 selection senior Justin Tillman for much of the contest.

Following an 18-point, eight-rebound effort in a win against La Salle on January 20, Coach Chris Mooney said of Golden: "I think he has a chance to be one of the best players Richmond has had."

Golden won his second A-10 Rookie of the Week Award on January 29 after totaling 45 points and 14 rebounds while shooting 57 percent from the field in a pair of Spiders road wins. 2017-18 is the second straight season a Spider won multiple A-10 Rookie of the Week Awards after De'Monte Buckingham won the honor three times en route to being named A-10 Rookie of the Year in 2016-17.

That same week, the Richmond Times-Dispatch called Golden " one of college basketball's most promising young players" and College Sports Madness named Golden it's A-10 Player of the Week.

Julius Johnson

One of the team's top threats from three-point range, Julius Johnson led the Spiders with 12 points on four three-point field goals January 3 at Fordham. It was the first time in his career he's led the team in scoring. He repeated the feat two games later, coming off the bench to score a team and career-high 17 points, including five three-pointers.

Johnson played a key part in the Spiders win over JMU on December 10, coming off the bench to finish with 11 points, five rebounds, and three steals, the first time a Spider had reached those marks off the bench since 2011 (Francis-Cedric Martel).

SPIDERS IN THE PROS

A pair of seniors from the 2016-17 team, T.J. Cline and ShawnDre' Jones, signed professional contracts after graduation.

Cline signed a contract with Galatasaray of the Turkan Premier League and then moved to Israel's Hapoel Halon. Jones signed with Trikala of the first tier of the Greek Basketball League.

They are the 17th and 18th Spiders to play professional basketball during the Chris Mooney era. At least one member of 11 of the last 12 graduating classes has gone on to play professionally.

While at least 10 former Spiders are currently playing professionally in international leagues, many UR athletes have found positions in the NBA.

2011 graduate Justin Harper, the 32nd overall pick in the 2011 NBA Draft, appeared in three games for the Philadelphia 76ers during the 2016-17 season. Harper has also played for the Pistons and Magic during his NBA career.

Fellow 2011 graduate Dan Geriot current serves as Video Coordinator for the Cleveland Cavaliers, a position he held when the team won the franchise's only NBA championship in 2016.

Curtis Blair, who graduated from Richmond in 1992 and remains ninth on the Spiders all-time scoring list, is a referee in the NBA.

1990 graduate Kenny Atkinson enters his second season as the head coach of the Brooklyn Nets in 2017-18. Chris Fleming, a member of UR's class of 1993, is an assistant coach on Atkinson's staff.

Tony Dobbins, a Spiders captain in 2004, recently accepted a position as Assistant Video Cooridinator for the Boston Celtics following a long playing career overseas.

Newcomers

Eight of the 16 players on the Spiders roster are new to the program this season.

Nathan Cayo, a 6-foot-7 guard from Montreal, made his first career start on February 3. The following game against VCU, Cayo was inserted into the game with 6:50 remaining and the Spiders trailing by 10. He was matched up man-to-man against the Rams Justin Tillman, who had a game-high 21 points at that time. Cayo held Tillman scoreless over the remainder of the game as Richmond overcame the deficit to win 77-76.

Overshadowed by a pair of more-prominent recruits on his AAU team, Cayo is a high leaper who can play above the rim who has seen his role increase as he continues to get more comfortable in the Spiders system.

Jordan Madrid-Andrews is a graduate transfer who last played at Chicago State during the 2015-16 season. On July 30, 2016, Madrid-Andrews was a passenger in a serious car accident outside Denver in which his car flipped several times, leaving Madrid-Andrews with a broken jaw, ankle, and sternum. Unable to return in time for the basketball season, Madrid-Andrews petitioned the NCAA and was granted a sixth-year-waiver that will allow him to use his final year of eligibility this season. He graduated from Chicago State with a degree in marketing and is pursuing a graduate degree in Human Resources Management at Richmond.

Solly Stansbury, eligible to play for the Spiders for the first time in 2017-18, appeared in 17 games for Richmond before returning to his former European club team, Paris Levallois, in January.

Family Business

Several Spiders have family members who participated in college athletics.

Sophomore Nick Sherod is the son of E.J. Sherod who played basketball at ODU. Nick's grandfather, Edmund, was a Hall-of-Famer at VCU before playing for the New York Knicks.

Bryce Schneider's brother David was a two-time All-CAA selection at William & Mary who finished his career as sixth-leading scorer in school history. His father Jeff averaged 14.3 points per game as a senior at Virginia Tech in 1981-82 and was drafted by the Houston Rockets.

De'Monte Buckingham's brother Dazmond Starke played hoops at Idaho and Kentucky Wesleyan, earning All-Great Lakes Valley Conference honors at Wesleyan in 2013.

Phoenix Ford's brother Quincy was a second-team All-CAA selection at Northeastern in 2016 and spent time with both Utah Jazz and New Orleans Pelicans during the 2016-17 NBA season.

Jacob Gilyard's father Rodney is a member of Ottawa University's Athletics Hall of Fame and graduated as the school's all-time leader in assists and steals in 1992.

Grant Golden's father played at Fairfield University and he had two grandfathers that played collegiate football.

Freshman Jordan Gaitley is the son of Stephanie Gaitley, currently the head coach of the women's basketball team at Fordham University and the head coach of Richmond's women's team from 1985-91, when she amassed a 116-63 record over six seasons at the Robins Center. Gaitley also has two older brothers who played collegiately. His oldest brother Dutch is currently the Video Coordinator for the San Antonio Spurs.

CHRIS MOONEY

HEAD COACH
13th SEASON
PRINCETON, 1994

In 2017-18, head coach Chris Mooney is in his 13th season at the helm of the Richmond Spiders men's basketball program.

With a 225-175 record in his first 12 years at Richmond, Mooney is the second-winningest coach in school history and entered the season just 14 wins behind Dick Tarrant on the career list. He is the fourth longest-tenured coach in the Atlantic 10, trailing only Bob McKillop (Davidson), Phil Martelli (Saint Joseph's), and John Giannini (La Salle). Mooney ranks fifth all-time in conference history in both A-10 wins by a head coach (109) and overall wins by an A-10 head coach (225).

Mooney has led the Spiders to seven postseason appearances - all in the last 10 seasons. Under Mooney, the Spiders made trips to the NCAA tournament in 2010 and 2011, and trips to the NIT Quarterfinals in 2015 and 2017. In the spring of 2011, Mooney's Spiders made national headlines en route to the NCAA Sweet 16, knocking off five-seed Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the process. Richmond finished both the 2010 and 2011 seasons ranked in the top 25.

Richmond has averaged 20.9 wins over the previous nine seasons, with five 20-win campaigns. Playing an always-tough schedule in and out of conference, the Spiders have finished in the top 100 of the RPI in six of the last eight years. UR has also tallied 13 wins over ranked opponents since 2008, second most among A-10 programs, and is 13-14 vs top-25 teams during that span, the best winning percentage against ranked teams of any team in the A-10.

Since the 2007-2008 season, the Spiders have gone 99-67 against A-10 opponents, tallying the second-most conference wins of any A-10 team over that stretch. UR is also one of just four A-10 teams to avoid an overall losing season in the last ten years.

Mooney's teams have always excelled on their home court, with a 101-31 (.765) record over the last nine seasons at the Robins Center. The Spiders average attendance of 6,317 in 2016-17 ranked third among A-10 schools and third among all schools nationally with a total enrollment under 5,000 students, trailing only Providence and Butler.

Mooney was tabbed the Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year in 2010, while also being selected as a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award that year. He has been featured in many national publications, including the New York Times, USA Today and Sports Illustrated, and appeared in segments on ESPN.

In 2010, he won the Voice of the University Award, given to a faculty or staff member for being a voice that represents the University of Richmond in a positive manner to the wider community. That same year, Richmond Style Weekly tabbed him for the 40 Under 40 list, spotlighting UR's community involvement with the homeless, Special Olympics, Arthritis Foundation, Friends of Jaclyn Foundation and the ASK Foundation for Childhood Cancer Research. For the last four years, Mooney has headlined the Coaches' Cookoff which raises money for Max's Positive Vibe Cafe, a non-profit dedicated to training and employing people with learning disabilities.

18 former players have gone on to play professionally overseas, including at least one from 11 of the last 12 graduating classes.

The 2016-17 season was marked by a unique blend of senior leadership and freshman promise. Senior T.J. Cline won A-10 Player of the Year and freshman De'Monte Buckingham won A-10 Freshman of the Year, marking just the third time one school swept the awards in A-10 history. Cline recorded the first triple-doubles in school history en route to a season that saw him rank top 10 in points, rebounds, and assists in the single-season record book. UR rebounded from a 6-6 start to finish third in A-10 play and earn an NIT bid where the Spiders won games at Alabama and home vs Oakland.

In 2015-16, T.J. Cline and Terry Allen were both tabbed All-Atlantic 10 Third Team as Cline ranked in the top 10 in the league in points, field goal percentage and assists. Allen was top 10 in rebounds and steals, and was also an NABC All-District Second Teamer.

In 2014-15, Richmond finished the regular season on a six-game winning streak, and was one of the "Last Four Out" of the NCAA Tournament at-large field, thereby securing the No. 1 seed and home-court advantage in the NIT, where they would reach the tournament's quarterfinals. Senior Kendall Anthony wrapped up a career that saw him break the school's all-time three-pointers record and earn All-Atlantic 10 First Team, NABC All-District First Team and VaSID All-State First Team in 2015.

2009-10 and 2010-11 are remembered as two of the top seasons in Mooney's coaching career and in Spider basketball history. In the spring of 2010, Richmond earned its first NCAA at-large bid since 2004, garnering a seven seed before falling in the first round of the tournament. Mooney was named the 2010 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, and was a finalist for the 2010 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award. The Spiders finished the season ranked no. 24 in the final top-25 rankings.

In 2010-11, Richmond defeated Dayton in the A-10 championship game to earn Mooney's first conference championship, the first and only league title since Richmond joined the Atlantic 10 in 2001.

Richmond advanced to the second Sweet 16 in program history by downing Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the NCAA Denver Subregional. The Spiders run came to an end at the hands of Kansas in San Antonio. Richmond finished 29-8, set a school record for wins, and finished no. 21 in the coaches poll.

During those years, the Spiders were led by Kevin Anderson, a 2010 Associated Press All-America Honorable Mention and 2010 Atlantic 10 Player of the Year. Anderson (2007-11) finished his career ranked second all-time at UR with 2,165 points (15.58/game).

Anderson had plenty of help to lead Richmond to national prominence. Justin Harper (2007-11) was a Lute Olson All-American and NABC First Team All-District selection in 2011, while also earning All-Atlantic 10 first team honors. He was drafted by the Cleveland Cavaliers in the second round of the 2011 NBA Draft, and saw action for the Orlando Magic, Detroit Pistons, and Philadelphia 76ers.

Mooney was hired at the University of Richmond at the end of the 2005 season. He had previously coached at Air Force for five seasons, three as an assistant, one as an associate head coach and his final season as head coach. In 2004-05, Mooney led the Falcons to an 18-12 record and votes in the national polls. His 18 victories were the most by a first-year head coach at Air Force.

Mooney began coaching at the high school level, taking a job at Lansdale Catholic High School in Lansdale, Pa., in 1994. His first college coaching experience came at Division III Beaver College, now known as Arcadia University. He spent two seasons there from 1998-2000. While at Beaver College, Mooney only coached part-time, spending much of his time as an event coordinator. He helped plan weddings, plan events while also serving as the team manager.

Mooney is married to the former Lia Chomat, a Princeton graduate who also has a doctorate in psychology from Penn. The couple has two sons, Danny and Ryan.

AS A PLAYER
A 1994 graduate with a B.A. in English, Mooney led Princeton to the NCAA Tournament twice following a pair of conference titles. The four-year letterwinner amassed 1,071 points, which ranks 20th on Princeton's all-time scoring list, and started all 107 games in his career.
