RICHMOND SPIDERS (2-1) vs [RV] DRAKE BULLDOGS (2-0)

• This is Richmond's first true road game of the season. The Spiders have won their road opener in each of the last two seasons (2020 at #10 Kentucky, 2019 at Hampton). It's the first time UR has won its road opener in consecutive seasons since starting 1-0 on the road in three straight seasons from 1999-2001.

• Richmond is 14-6 in true road games since the start of 2019-20. That's the 10th-best road winning percentage in Division I over that span (.700).

• Richmond has made at least 14 three-pointers in back-to-back games. The Spiders made at least 14 threes just twice in their previous 48 games. Richmond is 30-62 (48.4 percent) from three-point range in its last two games.

• The Spiders bench combined for 45 points Tuesday vs Georgia State. It was Richmond's most bench points against a Division I opponent since scoring 46 on January 28, 2015 in a win vs Duquesne.

• Jacob Gilyard enters Saturday's game with 371 career steals, the fourth most in Division I history. He needs 14 steals to match the D-I record of 385 held by John Linehan, who played in 122 games for Providence from 1997-2002. Friday will be Gilyard's 121st career game.

• Grant Golden ranks in the top 10 in Richmond history in points (sixth), rebounds (fifth), assists (eighth), blocks (ninth), and field goals (fourth).

• Richmond is 40-17 over the last three seasons. During that span, only Dayton (44-14) and Saint Louis (40-16) have a better overall record among Atlantic 10 teams.

• Richmond was second in the A-10 Preseason Media Poll when it was unveiled in October, trailing only 2021 champ St. Bonaventure. It was the second-highest preseason ranking for the Spiders since they joined the conference in 2001 behind only last season, when UR was picked to finish first in the league.

• Jacob Gilyard and Grant Golden were named Preseason First Team All-Atlantic 10 in October. Richmond is the fourth team in the last five years to have a pair of players named Preseason First Team All-A-10, joining St. Bonaventure (2021), Davidson (2019), and Rhode Island (2017). It was the third Preseason First Team All-A-10 selection of Gilyard's career, a program record.

• Reigning A-10 Most Improved Player Tyler Burton was named Preseason Second Team All-Atlantic 10 in October. He was one of five A-10 Players named to the Preseason First Team or Second Team who aren't seniors or graduate students along with Davidson's Hyunjung Lee, GW's James Bishop, St. Bonaventure's Jaren Holmes, and Saint Joseph's Jordan Hall.

WITH A WIN ...

• UR would win its second straight game vs a team picked to finish 1st in its conference in the preseason (defeated Georgia State from the Sun Belt Tuesday).

• UR would be 6-2 in its last eight road non-conference games, a stretch that dates back to 2018.

• UR would improve to 11-2 in November games dating back to 2019-20.

• UR would win its third straight game vs a MVC opponent (Loyola Chicago, Northern Iowa last season).

• UR would have a winning record through four games for the 13th time in 17 seasons under Chris Mooney.

THE BIG PICTURE

EXPERIENCE IN THE EXTREME
Six Spiders who otherwise would have exhausted their eligibility elected to return to Richmond this offseason and take advantage of the additional year afforded by COVID-19. That group includes a pair of walk-ons, grad students Jordan Gaitley and Sullivan Kulju, and four 1,000-point scorers: Nathan Cayo, Jacob Gilyard, Grant Golden, and Nick Sherod.

Richmond, Butler, Delaware, and East Tennessee State are the only D-I teams known to have four or more scholarship players return to school to use their additional season of COVID-19 eligibility.

The Spiders opening game starting lineup included two players in their sixth year at Richmond (Golden, Sherod), two players in their fifth year (Cayo, Gilyard), and junior Tyler Burton. At the start of the season, Richmond's five starters were an average of 23.4 years old.

When UR played its first game of the season on November 9, the average age of Richmond's roster was 21.6 years old. That's believed to be the fifth-oldest among all D-I teams according to a survey on men's basketball SIDs.

With six players using their additional COVID-19 eligibility, Richmond's roster swelled to 20 players. That includes six graduate students, three seniors, three juniors, three sophomores, and five freshmen.

HOMEGROWN
Of the 16 players on Richmond's roster at the end of last season, 15 are back in a Spiders uniform this year. (Blake Francis, a graduate student at UR last season, is playing professionally for Raptors 905 in the NBA G League.) Richmond was one of just 12 teams in Division I to not have a player transfer during the offseason joining Arkansas St, Bellarmine, Dartmouth, Delaware, Lehigh, Missouri St, Saint Mary's (CA), San Diego St, UC Riverside, UCLA, and Yale.

SILVER-MEDAL STANDING
Richmond was second in the A-10 Preseason Media Poll when it was unveiled in late October, trailing only 2021 champ St. Bonaventure. It was the second-highest preseason ranking for the Spiders since they joined the conference in 2001 behind only last season, when UR was picked to finish first in the league.

NEW BENCH FACES
Assistant coaches Kevin Hovde and Maurice Joseph are in their first seasons on the Richmond staff. Hovde, who joined UR this summer after five seasons at the University of San Francisco, graduated from Richmond in 2011 and was a part of Chris Mooney's first recruiting class at UR. He appeared in 99 games for the Spiders from 2006 to 2011. Joseph is a former head coach at George Washington (2016-19) who was an assistant at George Mason last season. He is in his 11th season on a college staff and his 10th in the Atlantic 10.

ALL-LEAGUE TRIO
Jacob Gilyard and Grant Golden were named to the Preseason All-Atlantic 10 First Team in October, with UR joining St. Bonaventure as two of the four teams in the last five years to have multiple Preseason First Team All-A-10 selections in a season (2019 Davidson, 2017 St. Bonaventure).

Gilyard became the first Spider to earn Preseason First Team All-A-10 honors three times (also 2019-20) and Golden became the first Spider to be selected to a Preseason All-Conference Team four times (First Team in 2018, Second Team in 2019-20).

Tyler Burton was named Preseason Second Team All-Atlantic 10, the first Preseason All-Conference honor for the reigning Most Improved Player in the A-10.

POLL POSITION
Richmond received 13 points in the Preseason Associated Press Men's Basketball Poll to rank 34th among all Division I teams. It was the third time in program history UR received votes in the Preseason AP Poll, joining 2010 (17) and 2020 (40).

Richmond was ranked as high as 19th in the AP Top 25 in 2020-21 and received votes in the poll six times during the 2019-20 season. This is the first time in program history that Richmond has been represented in the AP Poll in three straight seasons.

THE SPIDERS SYSTEM
Over his 16 seasons at Richmond, Chris Mooney's offense has evolved into a system that embodies the concept of "position-less basketball." While shorter players will begin most possessions further away from the basket and taller players will begin most possessions on the wing or in the paint, they will rarely end up anywhere near where they started. On each possession, every player on the court is equally as likely to handle the ball, shoot a three, cut back door, or set up in the post. The Spiders offense places a premium on passing, cutting, and outside shooting, and Richmond's coaches focus on developing those skills in each Spider. As a result, UR often ranks among the A-10 and national leaders in field goal percentage (47th in D-I last season) and assist-to-turnover ratio (23rd in D-I last season).

FROM ZONE TO MAN
Richmond is in its third season playing primarily man-to-man defense after the Spiders switched from their long-time match-up zone prior to the start of the 2019-20 season.

The Spiders have finished inside the top 100 in KenPom's defensive efficiency rankings in each of the last two seasons (54th in 2019-20, 99th in 2020-21) following four straight seasons outside Division I's top 100 defensive teams. During that span (2015-16 through 2018-19), Richmond's average defensive efficiency rank was 212.

GILYARD SOON TO BE NCAA STEALS KING
Guard Jacob Gilyard has led Division I in steals each of the last two seasons and has been named a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American, the Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year, and a semifinalist for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year Award (twice - in 2020 and 2021). But he will soon likely add yet another title: NCAA Steals King.

Gilyard entered the season with 358 career steals, fifth on the career Division I steals list and only 27 behind record-holder John Linehan of Providence at 385. Now an assistant at Georgia, Linehan spoke to John O'Connor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch about Gilyard this summer. "As a 5-9 guy, you've got to be a dog," Linehan said. "You have to use your advantage, which is your height. Guys didn't want to bring the ball up against me, and the same thing for [Gilyard], so just be a pest everywhere on the floor. I love to watch him."

If Gilyard maintains his career average of 3.05 steals per game entering the season, he is projected to break the Division I record in Richmond's ninth game, which is currently at Northern Iowa on December 5.

GOLDEN CHILD
Grant Golden will long be remembered as one of the greatest players in Richmond basketball history. The multi-talented big man does a lot of everything for the Spiders and ranks among the all-time top 10 at Richmond in points, rebounds, assists, blocks, and field goals.

Golden has a chance to set an unbreakable record in 2021-22. Golden is already one of seven players in Atlantic 10 history to earn All-Conference honors following four different seasons. Should Golden land on an All-Atlantic 10 Team in 2022, he would become the first five-time All-Conference honoree in league history.

What separates Golden from many other accomplished post players is his passing ability, which has led multiple college basketball analysts to compare Golden to reigning NBA MVP Nikola Jokic. Golden has ranked in the top 15 in assists per game in the Atlantic 10 in each of the previous three seasons. During that span, his 290 total assists were 121 more than any other forward or center in the Atlantic 10.

SHEROD'S RETURN
Shortly after tearing ligaments in his right knee last October, his second season-ending knee injury at Richmond, Nick Sherod was convinced that he was done with basketball. He posted on Instagram that "this part of the road for me is likely over" and "I won't be wearing this jersey (as a player) anymore." But after the NCAA decided to grant student-athletes an additional year of eligibility due to the COVID-19 pandemic, he began to reconsider. On April 6, Sherod announced that he would return for the 2021-22 season and set about rehabbing his knee as well as his physique. Sherod is now playing at between 215 and 220 pounds, the lightest he's been at Richmond and nearly 40 pounds slimmer than his weight last spring.

50 SEASONS AT THE ROBINS CENTER
Richmond Athletics is commemorating 50 seasons of basketball at the Robins Center at all men's and women's home games this season. The centerpiece of the celebration will be a series of videos featuring interviews with some of the biggest names in the Robins Center's storied history. More than 25 opposing head coaches, longtime season-ticket holders, and former Spiders players, coaches, and administrators shared their favorite Robins Center moments, memories, and more with Richmond Athletics. Their recollections will be highlighted in a series of vignettes that will premiere at all games at the Robins Center this season.

Special merchandise featuring the official Robins Center 50th season logo will be available for purchase. Richmond Athletics will also celebrate the 50th season at the Robins Center with themed giveaways at selected home games.

The Spiders have posted a winning home record in 40 of their 49 full seasons at the Robins Center, including two straight and 12 of the last 14.

VOICE OF THE SPIDERS
For the 39th straight season, Bob Black is handling play-by-play duties for Spider men's basketball broadcasts. Black also hosts an afternoon show on ESPN Richmond, the Spiders radio rights-holder.

For home games, Black is teamed with analyst Greg Beckwith, a member of the Richmond Athletics Hall of Fame who is second on UR's career assists and steals lists (behind Jacob Gilyard).

In addition to doing the ESPN Richmond radio broadcast for all Robins Center games on national TV, Black and Beckwith anchor the SpiderTV broadcast for all of Richmond's home games on regional TV. Those broadcasts are produced and directed by Richmond Athletics Video Specialist Blake Ellett.

NEW THREADS
The Spiders have new home (white), road (blue), and alternate (red) uniforms this season as part of the University of Richmond's new five-year deal with adidas to become the official athletic footwear, apparel and accessory brand for the University of Richmond. The agreement runs through June 2026.

IN A CLASS OF HIS OWN
Michael Walz, a 6'11" center from Conestoga High in Berwyn, Pa., signed a National Letter of Intent with Richmond on November 10. Walz chose UR from a group of nine Division I offers, including Saint Joseph's in the Atlantic 10 and Penn State in the Big Ten. Walz averaged 9.5 points and 10 rebounds for Conestoga in 2020-21 while earning First Team All-Central League and First Team All-Main Line accolades.

Walz is currently the only incoming freshman slated to join the Spiders next season.

WHERE THE SPIDERS DWELL

ROBINS CENTER

Built in 1972 through the generosity of the E. Claiborne Robins family, the Robins Center is in its 50th season as one of the premier small-school college basketball arenas in the nation. Richmond Athletics will commemorate 50 seasons of the Robins Center throughout the year with interiews with Spider VIPs, special merchandise and giveaways, and a patch on the Spiders home white uniform.

The facility is much more than a basketball arena, however. The Robins Center has been home to addresses by world leaders, University commencements, WTA Tour events, track competitions, water polo matches, concerts, a 1992 Presidential Debate, and more.

Fans were prohibited from attending games in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In the 2019-20 season, Richmond averaged 6,001 fans per game, a five percent increase from 2018-19 and the second-highest attendance for any Division I among schools its size (enrollment of 4,002) or smaller. The only school Richmond's size or smaller to play in front of larger crowds in 2019-20 was Siena (6,228).

Renovations to the lower level of the building in 2018 resulted in the creation of the Blandford-Everett Student-Athlete Performance Center, which provides Richmond's student-athletes with the latest strength and conditioning equipment, access to a nutrition fueling center, and a state-of-the-art sports medicine facility.

The arena underwent a $17 million renovation in 2013 that revamped the lighting system and installed four 33' x 15' video boards in the corner sections. The renovation also reduced the arena's capacity from more than 9,000 to its current 7,201.

QUEALLY ATHLETICS CENTER

The Queally Athletics Center is the everyday home of Spiders basketball.

Opened in October 2020 following 18 months of construction, the $15 million practice facility's centerpiece is the Breed Family Practice Court. The gym includes a replica of the Robins Center court plus two additional half-courts and two more retractable baskets on the sidelines of the main court, for a total of six in the facility. Steps from the court is a 20-seat theater that allows for instant review of practice film and diagramming of offensive and defensive schemes.

The Boggs Strength and Conditioning Room, used exclusively by the men's and women's basketball teams, abuts the court's endline and is separated only by a pair of see-through retractable overhead doors. A six-table Sports Medicine suite, a hydrotherapy room with two pools, and the Bugg Fueling Station all border the strength and conditioning area and form the Ball Family Training Center.

Locker rooms and lounges for the men's and women's teams are also located on the ground floor, while the second floor includes Spider Hall, the main entrance to the Queally Athletics Center. The space, which serves to engage fans and alumni in celebration of the proud tradition of Richmond Athletics, features a giant video board as well as entrances to Millhiser Gymnasium and the University's new Student Well-Being Center, which are both adjacent to the QAC.

Head coach Chris Mooney believes that the facility will have a tremendous impact on his team. "The Queally Athletic Center will transform our entire basketball program. Our student-athletes will utilize the amenities of the physical structure each and everyday as prospective Spiders see the facility and anticipate their future at Richmond," said Mooney.

The facility is named for 1986 alumni Paul and Anne-Marie Queally, longtime supporters of the University of Richmond who contributed a $7.5 million lead gift to launch the fundraising efforts for the new center.

MILLHISER GYMNASIUM (MILL-high-zer)

As it enters its second century, one of the most historic and celebrated buildings on the University of Richmond campus has been completely renovated and now houses the Millhiser Student-Athlete Development Center and offices for both the men's basketball and women's basketball staffs.

The newest version of Millhiser Gymnasium opened in fall 2020 after being refurbished as part of the University's construction of the Queally Athletics Center and the Student Well-Being Center. A mezzanine level was installed to provide office suites for Richmond's basketball programs while the first floor, which still includes the historic gymnasium court surface, is the site of the Student-Athlete Development Center. The Center includes study and meeting spaces for Richmond's student-athletes as well as offices for Richmond Athletics' Academic Services and Leadership Development departments.

Millhiser's entry hall includes a restored classroom that overlooks the Queally Athletic Center's practice court and a recruiting room with end-zone views of Robins Stadium.

As part of Richmond's commitment to a sensitive restoration of the facility, many of Millhiser's iconic arched windows, which had been bricked in for decades, were re-opened.

Millhiser Gymnasium opened in 1921 and was Richmond's home court between 1922 and 1946.

FAMILY BUSINESS

Several Spiders have family members who participated in college athletics.

Grad student Nick Sherod is the son of E.J. Sherod who played basketball at ODU. Nick's grandfather, Edmund, was a Hall-of-Famer at VCU before playing for the New York Knicks.

Jacob Gilyard's father Rodney is a member of Ottawa University's Athletics Hall of Fame and graduated as the school's all-time leader in assists and steals in 1992.

Sophomore Tyler Burton's father Quinton played at Providence and helped the Friars to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989 and 1990. He scored 11.1 PPG as a senior. When he was being recruited, his final two schools were Providence and Richmond.

Grant Golden's father played at Fairfield University and he had two grandfathers that played collegiate football. Grant's brother Bryce is a sophomore on Butler's team this season.

Grad student Jordan Gaitley is the son of Stephanie Gaitley, currently the head coach of the women's basketball team at Fordham University and the head coach of Richmond's women's team from 1985-91, when she amassed a 116-63 record over six seasons at the Robins Center. Gaitley also has two older brothers who played collegiately. His oldest brother Dutch is currently an assistant coach for the Charlotte Hornets.

Junior Gabe Arizin is the grandson of Basketball Hall-of-Famer Paul Arizin, a 10-time NBA All-Star who twice led the league in scoring. He attended Villanova and led the nation in scoring as a senior in 1950. His No. 11 jersey has been retired by the school. He was inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006. Gabe's father Mike played at William & Mary and La Salle. He earned All Southern-Conference honors following his freshman and sophomore seasons at W&M.

Freshman Jason Nelon's father Jason Nelson Sr. played basketball at Virginia Union University and was a member of the school's 2005 team that won the NCAA Division II National Championship. Freshman Malcolm Dread's brother Myles plays basketball at Penn State, and his father Aaron played basketball at Millersville University in Pennsylvania.

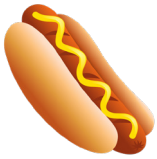
Sophomore Quentin Southall is the son of Cornelius Southall, who played defensive back for Notre Dame and led the Irish to a national championship in 1988.

Freshman Liam Weaver's father Tim ran track at Tulsa.

PAUL ARIZIN

SPIDER BITES

We made this year's Richmond roster pull up a chair and tuck in to some of the most-charged culinary debates of our time. A full two-thirds of Spiders (67%) say that breakfast is their favorite meal of the day, compared to just 22% who chose dinner and 11% who voted for lunch. When it comes to the ideal sweet starch to start your day, the Spiders were split 50/50 between pancakes and waffles. Refusing to be limited in his options, Jacob Gilyard wrote in French toast.

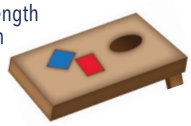


For lunch or dinner, the Spiders are nearly twice as likely to choose a hamburger over a hot dog (13 to 7), and they're nearly unanimous (90%) in their opinion that a hot dog is not a sandwich. To go along with their entrée, the Spiders are more likely to choose salad (58%) than soup (42%), and nearly four-fifths of the Richmond roster (78%) say they prefer ranch dressing to blue cheese.

When it comes to healthier choices, a full 90% of Spiders prefer fruits to vegetables. Malcolm Dread and Quentin Southall stand alone in their support of veggies. In terms of citrus, 70% of Spiders prefer lemons to limes. There's more agreement when it comes to the question of whether pineapple belongs on pizza. 90% of the Spiders say no. Jason Nelson and Connor Crabtree say yes.

Having experienced plenty of both over the last two seasons, a slim majority (60% to 40%) of Spiders say they prefer in-person classes to virtual classes. When taking notes in their dorm or in a lecture hall, the Spiders are likely to choose a pen over a pencil by that same 60/40 split.

Personal style is important to the Spiders, especially below the ankle, as 59 percent of Spiders chose shoes over clothes as the most important fashion item. Above the neck, you'll find 50 percent of Spiders wearing their hat backwards, 45 percent wearing it forwards, and Isaiah Wilson wearing it sideways. In terms of a more permanent fashion choice, the Spiders 20-man roster has a total of 19 tattoos, but only seven Spiders have ink. The majority of tattoos on the UR roster are from Dji Bailey and Malcolm Dread, who each have five.



In a mild case of cognitive dissonance, the Spiders roster prefers weight training (60%) to cardio (40%) but would also choose speed (55%) over strength (45%) as an ideal physical trait. Canadian Matt Grace is the in "strength" camp despite the fact that he says speed skating is his best sport other than basketball. Football was the most popular choice when it came time for Spiders to pick the sport they were best at outside of basketball, with 6 votes. Soccer was close behind with 5, while 3 Spiders chose baseball. Jacob Gilyard and Tyler Burton both profess to be skilled at tennis, while Gabe Arizin and Quentin Southall say they've got game on the golf course. Jordan Gaitley prefers a more leisurely physical activity when he's not on the court. He chose cornhole as his best sport outside of basketball.

Off the court, the Spiders narrowly prefer movies to TV (53% to 47%), and more than twice as many Spiders prefer a comedy to a horror movie (13 to 6). When it comes to music, three-quarters of the Spiders (15 to 5) chose music of the 2000s over 90s music. When it comes to music in 2021, specifically September 2021, the Richmond roster is nearly unanimous in its preference for Certified Lover Boy over Donda (84% to 16%).

As for musical talents, 61% of Spiders say they are a better singer than dancer, while 39% think the dance floor is where they thrive. Perhaps the ability to dance is something learned over time while at Richmond? 4 of the 7 Spiders who say they are better dancers than singers are seniors or grad students (Grant Golden, Jordan Gaitley, Nick Sherod, and Matt Grace).

When TV, movies, or music aren't available, the Spiders might spend their time on Instagram, the preferred social media platform for 50% of the Spiders, as opposed to Twitter (35%), Snapchat (20%) or TikTok (15%). Sometimes connecting on social media isn't enough, and 60% of Spiders would prefer to go out rather than stay in. By no means should you expect any firm agenda, however, as the Richmond roster overwhelmingly prefers to "wing it" over "make plans" (68% to 32%). For the minority of Spiders who would prefer to stay in, board games are a preferred activity over puzzles by a 17 to 2 margin.

The Spiders are split nearly evenly on their favorite season, with 28% opting for summer, 28% going with winter, 22% picking spring, and 22% choosing fall. There was more agreement on beaches (18 votes) vs mountains (1 vote - Jacob Gilyard) as a preferred vacation destination. Neither a sparkling ocean nor a magnificent peak could sway Nick Sherod. He wrote in "indoors."

CHRIS MOONEY
HEAD COACH
17th SEASON
PRINCETON, 1994

Chris Mooney is the winningest coach in Richmond basketball's storied history, having compiled a 288-231 record in his first 16 seasons with the Spiders. Hired by Richmond prior to the 2005-06 season, Mooney has led the Spiders to eight postseason appearances, including two NCAA Tournaments and three NIT Quarterfinals. He is the second longest-tenured coach in the Atlantic 10, trailing only Davidson's Bob McKillop. Mooney ranks fourth in conference history in A-10 wins by a head coach, with 144 conference wins in his first 16 seasons at Richmond.

Mooney and the Spiders posted a 14-9 record in the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT. Richmond opened the season by winning the Bluegrass Showcase in Lexington, Ky. The Spiders beat 10th-ranked Kentucky in the final game for the program's first road win ever vs a team in the top 10 of the Associated Press Poll. UR rose as high as 19th in the AP Top 25, the best ranking for the Spiders since December 1957. Richmond earned a 2-seed in the NIT and defeated MAC regular-season champion Toledo in the First Round despite playing without its two leading scorers, Blake Francis and Grant Golden, who were sidelined with injuries. Jacob Gilyard broke Richmond's career assists record while leading the nation in steals for a second straight season and being named a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American. Tyler Burton earned the A-10's Chris Daniels Award, given to the conference's most improved player. Francis, Gilyard, and Golden landed on the league's All-Conference teams for a second straight season.

In 2019-20, Mooney led Richmond to one of the best regular seasons in program history and was on the verge of taking the Spiders to the NCAA Tournament when the postseason was canceled due to COVID-19. The Spiders went 24-7, tying the school record for regular-season wins, and posted three wins over power-conference opponents, including a victory over eventual Big Ten champion Wisconsin in the Legends Classic. Richmond went 14-4 in conference play, a program record for conference wins in a season, and finished second in the Atlantic 10, the highest regular-season finish for UR since joining the conference in 2001. Jacob Gilyard, Blake Francis, and Grant Golden earned All-Atlantic 10 honors following the season. Gilyard was also named A-10 Defensive Player of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year Award after leading D-I with 99 steals, a single-season school record.

In 2018-19, the Spiders became the first team in four years to place a pair of sophomores on the Atlantic 10's All-Conference teams, as Jacob Gilyard earned Second Team honors and Grant Golden was named to the Third Team. In December, the Spiders knocked off ACC-foe Wake Forest for Chris Mooney's 240th win at Richmond, moving him past Dick Tarrant as the winningest coach in school history.

In 2017-18, Mooney oversaw the development of one of the nation's youngest teams with a junior, two sophomores, and two freshmen in the starting lineup. Facing one of the 25 most difficult out-of-conference schedules in Division I, the Spiders entered A-10 play with a 2-10 record. But Richmond finished tied for fifth with a 9-9 record that included a pair of wins against crosstown rival VCU and a 2-0 mark against eventual league champion Davidson. The Spiders played before an average home crowd of 6,492 fans, the highest attendance at Richmond since the 1992-93 season.

In 2016-17, the Spiders swept the two major Atlantic 10 awards, with senior T.J. Cline winning A-10 Player of the Year and freshman De'Monte Buckingham earning Rookie of the Year honors. Cline recorded the first triple-doubles in school history en route to a season that saw him rank top 10 in points, rebounds, and assists in the single-season record book.

In 2014-15, Richmond finished the regular season on a six-game winning streak, and was one of the "Last Four Out" of the NCAA Tournament at-large field, thereby securing the No. 1 seed and home-court advantage in the NIT, where they would reach the tournament's quarterfinals.

In 2011, Richmond defeated Dayton in the A-10 championship game to earn Mooney's first conference championship, the Spiders first title since Richmond joined the Atlantic 10 in 2001. The Spiders would go on to the second Sweet 16 in program history by downing Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the NCAA Denver Subregional. Richmond finished 29-8, set a school record for wins, and finished 21st in the coaches poll.

In 2010, Richmond earned its first NCAA at-large bid since 2004, garnering a seven seed before falling in the first round of the tournament. Mooney was named the 2010 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, and was a finalist for the 2010 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award. The Spiders finished the season ranked 24th in the final AP Top 25.

23 of Mooney's former players have gone on to play professionally in either the NBA, the G League, or overseas.

Mooney has been widely recognized for his contributions to the Richmond community. In 2010, he won Richmond's Voice of the University Award, given to a faculty or staff member for being a voice that represents the University of Richmond in a positive manner to the wider community. Later in 2010, Richmond Style Weekly tabbed him for their 40 Under 40 list, spotlighting UR's community involvement with the homeless, Special Olympics, Arthritis Foundation, Friends of Jaclyn Foundation and the ASK Foundation for Childhood Cancer Research. Mooney annually headlines the Coaches Cook-Off, competing against the current VCU men's basketball coach in a live cooking competition to raise money for Positive Vibe Cafe in Richmond, which trains and employs people with disabilities.

Mooney previously coached at Air Force for five seasons: three as an assistant, one as an associate head coach and his final season as head coach. In 2004-05, Mooney led the Falcons to an 18-12 record and votes in the national polls. His 18 victories were the most by a first-year head coach at Air Force.

Mooney began coaching at the high school level, taking a job at Lansdale Catholic High School in Lansdale, Pa., in 1994. His first college coaching experience came at Division III Beaver College, now known as Arcadia University. He spent two seasons there from 1998-2000. While at Beaver College, Mooney only coached part-time, spending much of his time as an event coordinator. He helped plan weddings and events while also serving as the team manager. Mooney is married to the former Lia Chomat, a Princeton graduate who also has a doctorate in psychology from Penn. The couple has two sons, Danny and Ryan.
