GAMEDAY ENTRANCE

The Bryant-Denny Stadium press box is located on the east side of the stadium on level 5 and is accessible via the elevators located just inside Gate 56. Media Will Call is stationed on the northeast corner of Bryant-Denny Stadium outside Gate 59 and will open three hours prior to kickoff.

RADIO

Located within the press box area, there are booths for both home and visiting radio crews as well as national radio. Only those with appropriate passes will be admitted to these booths.

BROADCAST TELEVISION/COACHES

The broadcast television booth as well as coaches booths for both teams are located on the seventh level of the west side of the stadium. Only those with appropriate passes will be admitted to that level.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials are available only to working members of the media who represent accredited outlets that are actively covering the event. All credential requests must be made through the Crimson Tide's online credentialing system. For further information, contact Assistant Athletics Director, Communications Aaron Jordan at ajordan@ia.ua.edu.

SIDELINES

Alabama follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

Credentials must be visible in order to gain access to the field.

All photographers/videographers on the sideline must have a working purpose with proper equipment.

Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines.

No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for each team's broadcast originating networks.

Affiliate TV stations are not allowed the services of a grip and credentials will not be provided for grip operations.

No one under 18 years of age will be issued a media credential for sideline access.

Photographers and videographers are considered working members of the media and are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.

Photographers may send photos from the Alabama Photo Room located on the south end of Bryant-Denny Stadium at field level. Contact Aaron Jordan to reserve space.

Not conforming to any of the above listed guidelines will result in the immediate dismissal from the stadium by event management staff.

Photographers and videographers should contact Assistant Athletics Director, Communications Aaron Jordan for further information at ajordan@ia.ua.edu.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play, postgame coaches' quotes and game facts will be distributed via e-mail to members of the working media. Alabama's flipcard will be located at each seat throughout the press box.

Alabama's game notes, opponent notes and conference notes will be provided in a PDF via e-mail on Monday evening. They can also be found on RollTide.com in the 'Football' section. A pregame meal will be served beginning 90 minutes before kickoff. Soft drinks and water will be available throughout the game.

PARKING

Media parking is located in lots near Bryant-Denny Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials. All media parking passes are digital and the lots open three hours prior to kick off. If granted parking, it will be sent via the e-mail address provided during the credential request process.

PRESS BOX CONNECTIVITY

Wireless internet is available in the Bryant-Denny Stadium press box. In addition, a limited number of ethernet lines are also available.

PRO SCOUTS

Scouts of professional football teams are issued press credentials. Credentials should be requested two weeks prior to the date of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested online. For further details contact Aaron Jordan at ajordan@ia.ua.edu.

SATELLITE TRUCKS

Any outlet utilizing a satellite truck at the stadium on game day must request access and have its truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff (example: 2 p.m. for a 7 p.m. kickoff). Satellite trucks arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for satellite trucks parking must be made by 12 p.m. CT Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be confirmed through Aaron Jordan. All credential needs for personnel must be included in the online request.

SEC VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION

Through the SEC Network, highlights of SEC events are free for use on your website. Please visit SECNetwork.com for embeddable clips of event highlights. The usage of clips is unlimited. To do so: A. Locate the video you want on the SECNetwork.com website. B. Click the "Tool" icon below the video, then click "Share"; Make sure to wait until the ad ends. C. Grab the embed code, paste it into your content management system or provide it to your website's engineer.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

All interview requests for head coach Nick Saban are coordinated through Assistant Athletics Director, Football Communications Josh Maxson at jmaxson@ia.ua.edu or (205) 348-3631. Coach Saban meets with the media each Monday preceding a game at Noon CT in the Naylor Stone Media Room on the second floor of the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility. Coach Saban will participate in the SEC head coaches weekly teleconference with the other 13 league coaches each Wednesday morning at 11 a.m. Additionally, he meets with the media immediately following practice on Wednesday evening in the Naylor Stone Media Room.

PLAYERS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the Alabama Athletics Communications Office and must be requested at least one day in advance. Several players will be available each week following Coach Saban's Monday press conference, as their class schedule permits. Player interviews should be requested through Director of Communications Alex Thompson. In addition to Monday's press luncheon, players are available prior to Tuesday's practice. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times. Media members are not permitted to call players at any time or talk to players on Sunday, Thursday or Friday.

POSTGAME

The University of Alabama observes and abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media. Coach Saban will conduct his postgame press conference at home games approximately 15 minutes after the game, in the media room located on the second floor of the North End Zone. His news conference also can be heard in the press box. The Alabama locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the media room following Coach Saban's postgame press conference. The opposing coach will conduct his postgame news conference in the South End Zone Media Room adjoining the visiting team locker room.

PRACTICE ACCESS

Alabama football practices are closed to the media. Practice highlights will be sent via FTP following practice each Monday and Tuesday during the regular season. To request highlights or for any other questions regarding video, media can reach out to Christopher England at cengland@ia.ua.edu.

ALABAMA HIGHLIGHT FEED

Video highlights of Alabama football are available via FTP each Monday during the regular season. Contact Alabama for times and FTP information.

CRIMSON TIDE

ROLL TIDE ROLL

PREVIEWING THE 2023 ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

The Alabama Crimson Tide welcomes back 14 starters and 48 lettermen for the 2023 season. On offense, 22 letterwinners and five starters return, while the defense will have 22 lettermen and four starters back on the field, with all three starting specialists returning. Head coach Nick Saban enters his 17th year in Tuscaloosa, having won six national championships, eight Southeastern Conference titles and 194 games during his tenure at Alabama. Saban's staff for the upcoming season will feature three new coaches including two new coordinators with Kevin Steele returning to run the defense and Tommy Rees onboard to coordinate the offense.

Alabama's offense will return five starters, which includes three offensive linemen and two wide receivers. The offensive front projects to be a strength for the Crimson Tide, returning center Seth McLaughlin, guard Darrian Dalcourt and right tackle JC Latham. Sophomore guard Tyler Booker, who started just one game last year, also returns after logging an experience-building 430 offensive snaps at guard, which accounted for 48 percent of the Tide's offensive snaps. Alabama's line boasts a talented group of young linemen that will compete for the open spots. Perhaps the deepest position unit for the Tide in 2023 is running back. Jase McClellan (655 yards on 112 carries) and Roydell Williams (250 yards on 56 carries), who both have earned significant playing time the past three seasons, headline the group that will also feature sophomore Jam Miller and true freshmen Justice Haynes and Richard Young. The Tide's wide receiver corps returns starters Jermaine Burton (40 catches, 677 yards) and Ja'Corey Books (39 catches, 674 yards), who finished 1-2 in receptions and yards by a wideout a season ago for the Tide. A trio of sophomores return after extensive playing time a year ago with Kobe Prentice (31 for 337), Isaiah Bond (17 for 220) and Kendrick Law (8 for 103) looking to make an even bigger impact in 2023. Alabama added top-ranked junior college transfer Malik Benson to the receiver corps after catching 97 passes for 2,152 yards and 21 touchdowns in two years at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College. Sophomore Shazz Preston and several incoming freshmen also look to make an impact in 2023. With two-year starter and No. 1 overall pick Bryce Young off to the NFL, a bevy of talented signal-callers are vying for the starting job with redshirt sophomore Jalen Milroe (one career start), redshirt freshman Ty Simpson and Notre Dame transfer Tyler Buchner joined by incoming freshmen Dylan Lonergan and Eli Holstein. The Crimson Tide will also trot out a new group at tight end with Cameron Latu in San Francisco with the 49ers. Alabama welcomes Maryland transfer CJ Dippre to the roster while Robbie Ouzts, Amari Niblack, Danny Lewis Jr. and Miles Kitselman look to expand their roles this season.

The Tide defense welcomes back six starters to a unit that finished sixth in pass efficiency defense, ninth in scoring defense, 12th in total defense and 15th in sacks in 2022. Alabama's defensive unit is led by outside linebacker Dallas Turner and cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry, who also doubles as one of the nation's best returners. McKinstry and Terrion Arnold return to man the outside cornerback spots while the Tide will rely on talented underclassmen and several transfers to step into significant roles for the 2023 campaign. Senior Malachi Moore, who has seen time at star and safety over the past three years, will likely settle in as one of the Tide's safeties while redshirt freshman Earl Little II battles for the starting job at star. DeVonta Smith and Kristian Story, along with transfers Trey Amos (Louisiana) and Jaylen Key (UAB), will fight for roles in the Tide's secondary while incoming freshman Caleb Downs and several other talented newcomers battle for positions in the Alabama secondary. Along with Turner, the linebacker crops look to be an area for optimism with Chris Braswell getting his chance opposite Turner on the outside while Deonte Lawson settles into the middle to call the defense. Transfer Trezmen Marshall arrives from Georgia to bolster the inside group while a bevy of talented linebackers, including Keanu Koht, Justin Jefferson, Jihaad Campbell, Quandarrius Robinson, Jeremiah Alexander, Kendrick Blackshire, Shawn Murphy and Qua Russaw battle for significant roles at linebacker. The defensive front welcomes back interior starters Jaheim Oatis and Tim Smith along with defensive end Justin Eboigbe (starter in 2020 who missed 2022 with injury) to bolster a line that should be a strength for Alabama. Damon Payne Jr., Isaiah Hastings, Anquin Barnes Jr., Jah-Marien Latham and Tim Keenan III return to add depth and will challenge for an expanded role while the Tide is excited about incoming freshmen James Smith, Jordan Renaud and Edric Hill.

Alabama's specialist group returns all three starters in 2023, highlighted by fifth-year placekicker Will Reichard. The Hoover native has totaled a school-record 426 points during his four seasons at the Capstone and will look to improve upon what has already been an impressive career for the Tide. Long snapper Kneeland Hibbett and punter James Burnip begin their third season as starters. Burnip is coming off of a strong sophomore campaign where he averaged 42.3 yards per punt with six over 50 yards and 14 inside the 20.

3 COACHING STAFF

NICK SABAN

17TH YEAR • HEAD COACH • KENT STATE, 1973

A man of vision who has an unmatched record of championship success, head coach Nick Saban has taken The University of Alabama to the top of the college football landscape and kept it there with his commitment to building the total program. After the victory over Ohio State in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Saban passed Paul "Bear" Bryant to become the only coach to win seven national titles in the poll era of college football.

Now in his 17th season in Tuscaloosa, Saban's uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the program has resulted in six national championships since 2009. A nine-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership are the reasons his teams are known for exhibiting grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory.

In his 27 seasons as a collegiate head coach, Saban has compiled a 285-69-1 (.804) record, including a 194-27 (.878) mark in Tuscaloosa. His teams at Alabama have won eight SEC Championships while he has 10 SEC titles to his name (2001 and 2003 at LSU) to go along with seven national championships (2003 at LSU).

His Alabama teams from 2011-20 (10 years) posted a 127-12 record with five national championships and seven SEC titles and the 2012-21 teams (10 years) won 128 games (13 losses), which is the best of any major-college school over a 10-year span since Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma in the late 1940s through the late 1950s. UA's 125 wins in the 2010s were also the most by any FBS school during a decade in the Associated Press Poll era (since 1936).

In Saban's six national championship seasons at Alabama, his teams have gone 21-2 against top-10 opponents, and, since 2008, the Crimson Tide is 36-14 overall against top-10 teams. Alabama has also been ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll for at least one week for 15 straight years, which broke the record of seven established by Miami (1986-92).

NICK SABAN

After Bryce Young's Heisman Trophy win in 2021, Saban has coached four Heisman Trophy winners, joining Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for the most in college football history. He is the only coach to ever coach Heisman Trophy winners at three different positions (RB, WR, QB). The Alabama program had just six individual national award winners when Saban arrived on campus, but Crimson Tide players have secured 59 national awards since 2008.

His players at Alabama have won 63 All-America honors by 55 different players over the past 15 seasons. Eight players have been named two-time All-Americans along with 45 consensus honors and 25 unanimous selections. Will Anderson Jr. became the first two-time unanimous All-American in Alabama history.

Two losses on the last play of the game by a combined four points kept the 2022 Crimson Tide out of the SEC Championship Game and out of the College Football Playoff. Alabama finished fifth in the final College Football Playoff ranking, earning a berth in the Sugar Bowl where they beat Big 12 Champion No. 9 Kansas State, 45-20.

Anderson Jr. swept through the National Defensive Player of the Year winning the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Chuck Bednarik Award. He also captured the Tide's second Lott IMPACT Trophy and third Lombardi Award. The Alabama defense ranked ninth nationally in scoring defense, 13th in total defense and sixth in pass efficiency defense.

A midseason shoulder injury to reigning Heisman Trophy winner caused Young to miss a game and slowed his junior campaign as the Tide finished fourth nationally in scoring offense and 11th in total offense. Young threw for 3,328 yards and 32 touchdowns in just 12 games.

The 2021 season proved to be one of Saban's best coaching jobs, taking a team that lost 10 players to the NFL Draft – including eight in the first 38 picks and six in the first round – and leading them to an SEC Championship. The Tide won its eighth SEC Championship under the Saban's guidance with a dominating 41-24 win over then-No. 1 Georgia in Atlanta. The win earned Alabama its seventh College Football Playoff berth in eight years and a bid to the Cotton Bowl. The Tide dispatched of Cincinnati, 27-6, in Dallas before Georgia scored 20 fourth-quarter points for a come-from-behind 33-18 win in the CFP National Championship Game. Alabama finished with a 13-2 record and a No. 2 national ranking that included a 7-1 mark in SEC play. UA finished sixth nationally in scoring offense (39.9 ppg) and 18th in scoring defense (20.1 ppg) while ranking seventh in both total offense (488.2 ypg) and total defense (304.1 ypg).

Young won the Heisman Trophy, along with the Davey O'Brien Award, the Maxwell Award and the Manning Award, as a sophomore. The first-year starter threw for a school-record 4,872 yards and 47 touchdowns while completing 66.9 percent of his passes. Anderson Jr. was a unanimous All-American and won the Nagurski Trophy after setting an NCAA record (since 2000) with 34.5 tackles for loss (-148 yards) and 17.5 sacks (-108 yards) while finishing with 102 tackles, nine quarterback hurries and three pass breakups. Along with Young and Anderson Jr., offensive lineman Evan Neal and wide receiver Jameson Williams also earned first team All-America honors.

One of Saban's best examples of overcoming adversity was the 2020 season where the pandemic gripped the world and required Saban to not only manage his typical football duties, both on and off the field, but required him to also manage a medical and social environment unseen in college football history.

Saban told his players when they arrived back on campus in June of 2020 that the team that could manage the distractions the best would have the best opportunity to be successful in a season that would be unlike any before. Those words proved to be prophetic as the 2020 Alabama football team managed their personal bubbles, handled their mostly virtual class work and formed a tightknit brotherhood that helped them accomplish the ultimate goal of every Crimson Tide football team – a national championship.

The 2020 season culminated with a 52-24 thrashing of No. 3 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla. The Crimson Tide used a 28-point second quarter to put the game out of reach and claim the program's 18th national title. The victory added to Saban's impressive career record of 17-4 in championship games (SEC/National).

The 2020 season saw Saban win the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year for the second time in his career after navigating the Crimson Tide through an undefeated national championship season (13-0) while the world was in the grips of a pandemic. His team became the first in league history to win 10 SEC games in a season, defeating the 10 league opponents by a margin of 32.7 points per game. The Tide then took down No. 7 Florida, 52-46, to capture the program's 28th SEC Championship and the seventh during Saban's tenure in Tuscaloosa. Alabama followed the victory in Atlanta by overwhelming No. 4 Notre Dame, 31-10, in the Rose Bowl, which was played at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, due to state and local COVID-19 guidelines in California.

The Crimson Tide set a bevy of offensive records in 2020, posting season-high marks for scoring (48.5 ppg), passing yards (4,656), passing yards per game (358.2) and third-down conversions (59 percent). DeVonta Smith became Alabama's third Heisman Trophy winner and the first wide receiver to win the award since 1991. The unanimous All-American, who also won the Biletnikoff, the Maxwell and the Paul Hornung awards, led the nation and shattered both the UA and SEC records for receiving yards (1,865) and touchdowns (23). Quarterback Mac Jones threw for a then-school-record 4,500 yards while setting the NCAA mark for completion percentage (77.4 percent). He won the Davey O'Brien Award, the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and the Manning Award as the nation's top quarterback and was a consensus All-American. Najee Harris was named the Doak Walker Award winner as the country's best running back and a unanimous All-American after rushing for 1,466 yards and leading the nation in rushing touchdowns (26) and total touchdowns (30). He finished as the SEC's career leader in touchdowns with 57, passing 2007 Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow.

Alex Leatherwood and Landon Dickerson were named unanimous All-Americans on the offensive line with Leatherwood winning the Outland Trophy and Dickerson securing the Rimington Trophy. The duo helped make up an offensive line unit that earned the Joe Moore Award as the top line in the nation. On the defensive side of the ball, cornerback Patrick Surtain II was a finalist for numerous national awards while earning unanimous All-American honors. Joining Surtain II as an All-American was linebacker Dylan Moses, who led the team in tackles and was named a first team All-American by the AFCA. Long snapper Thomas Fletcher won the Patrick Mannelly Award to round out the award winners. The 2020 senior class finished with a 51-4 record that included two national championships and a pair of SEC titles.

The 2019 team finished the season with an 11-2 record after a 35-16 victory over the Michigan Wolverines in the Citrus Bowl. Injuries to quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, Moses and defensive lineman LaBryan Ray devastated the Tide throughout the season, forcing nine true freshmen – including six on the defensive side of the football – into starting action. That said, only a five-point loss to eventual national champion LSU and a three-point defeat on the road at No. 11 Auburn derailed the Crimson Tide's championship hopes.

Even after the loss of Tagovailoa, the Alabama offense continued to produce record-setting numbers, averaging 47.2 points per game that ranked second nationally while cranking out 510.8 yards of total offense per contest. Tagovailoa and Jones, who was then the backup, combined to throw for 4,449 yards and 49 touchdowns against only six interceptions. Harris produced 1,224 rushing yards and 20 total touchdowns while Smith caught 68 passes for 1,256 yards and 14 touchdowns to go with Jerry Jeudy's 77 grabs for 1,163 yards and 10 more scores.

Saban's 2018 team compiled a 14-1 record, just his third team to go undefeated through the regular season at the time (2009, 2016) and his fourth to reach the 14-win plateau (2009, 2015-16). He won the Walter Camp National Coach of the Year Award and the Tide also qualified for its fifth straight appearance in the College Football Playoff, earning the No. 1 seed and a trip to the Capital One Orange Bowl to play No. 4 Oklahoma. The Crimson Tide cruised past the Sooners in the Semifinal by a score of 45-34, using an early 28-0 lead to ensure the victory. Alabama produced its most potent offense to date, finishing the 2018 campaign as the national leader in passing efficiency (197.34). The Tide also wrapped up 2018 ranked third in scoring offense (45.6 ppg) along with sixth in both total offense (522.0 ypg) and passing offense (323.6 ypg). The 2018 senior class also broke the NCAA record for wins, eclipsing the Tide's 2017 class with a record of 55-4 to match Clemson's 2018 senior class for the most wins in a four-year period.

As a sophomore, Tagovailoa quarterbacked the offensive unit, winning the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year and The Sporting News Player of the Year while finishing runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting. Jeudy won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's best wide receiver while Quinnen Williams earned the Outland Trophy and led the country's No. 12 scoring

Fitzpatrick and linebacker Rashaan Evans earned first team All-America honors. Saban's defense led the nation in scoring (11.9 ppg), total defense (260.4 ypg) and rushing defense (94.7 ypg) while ranking second in pass efficiency defense (96.78). The offensive side of the ball finished 13th nationally in rushing (250.6 ypg) and 15th in scoring (37.1 ppg). The senior class posted a 53-5 mark from 2014-17 and a 64-7 mark over a five-year span.

Saban's 2016 squad completed an undefeated regular season for the first time since 2009 and secured the program's 26th SEC Championship – the third straight for the program – and the fourth across five years. The Tide defeated Washington in the Semifinal of the CFP in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (24-7), before dropping a 35-31 game to Clemson in the CFP National Championship Game in Tampa, Fla. Alabama finished with a 14-1 record after defeating nine ranked teams and 11 teams that qualified for bowl games during the 2016 season.

Saban, who was named the SEC Coach of the Year and Munger Award National Coach of the Year (presented by the Maxwell Football Club), had five players earn first team All-America honors – Jonathan Allen, Fitzpatrick, Reuben Foster, Marlon Humphrey and Cam Robinson. Allen also captured the Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award along with the Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end, while Foster won the Butkus Award that is given to the nation's best linebacker, and Robinson captured the Outland Trophy.

The 2015 team secured the Crimson Tide's fourth national championship in seven years. They became the first team to win back-to-back SEC Championships in 17 years (Tennessee, 1997-98) and were the only program to earn an invitation to each of the first two College Football Playoffs. Saban led his team to victories in the final 12 games of the season, including wins at No. 8 Georgia, at No. 9 Texas A&M, vs. No. 4 LSU, at No. 17 Mississippi State, against No. 18 Florida in the SEC Championship Game, vs. No. 3 Michigan State in the Cotton Bowl and over No. 1 Clemson in the CFP Championship Game. The senior class won 50 games (50-6) over their four years with three SEC Championships and two national titles.

The 2015 Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry, who also captured the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year and Doak Walker Award. Ryan Kelly won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Linebacker Reggie Ragland was a finalist for the Butkus, Nagurski and Bednarik, while A'Shawn Robinson was a finalist for the Outland Trophy. The offensive line was also awarded the Joe Moore as the award's inaugural recipient. All four of the Tide's finalists garnered first team All-America honors, while Eddie Jackson was a second-team selection.

Henry set school records for rushing yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), rushing attempts (395) and all-purpose yardage (2,310). A trademark of Saban-coached teams, the Tide ranked among the nation's best on both sides of the ball, checking in at No. 1 in the country in rushing defense, No. 3 in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense while averaging 199.9 rushing yards and 227.1 passing yards per game on offense. Saban's on-side kick call in the national championship game proved key, propelling the Crimson Tide to the program's 16th national title. In the classroom, the numbers were just as astounding, as UA had a nation-leading 29 graduates on the roster for the bowl game including three players with their master's degree in hand.

Saban became the first coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships at the end of the 2012 season, and he is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years (2009-2012), joining Leahy of Notre Dame (1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne of Nebraska (1994-95, 1997). He was also just the second (Leahy) to win four titles in seven years, a feat he has now accomplished twice (2009-12 and 2011-17).

The 2014 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, Saban led the Crimson Tide to the top seed in the first College Football Playoff at the 2015 Allstate Sugar Bowl, UA's 24th SEC Championship and a 12-2 record. The Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy finalist and UA's first-ever Biletnikoff Award winner, Amari Cooper, along with Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award finalist Landon Collins. In addition to Cooper and Collins, Ray Guy Award finalist punter JK Scott, linebacker Trey DePriest and offensive guard Arie Kouandjio garnered first team All-America honors. SEC Championship Game MVP Blake Sims set then-school records for total offense (3,837 yards) and passing yards (3,487), while Cooper established UA marks in every receiving category. The Tide checked in at No. 6 in the country in scoring defense and 15th overall in scoring offense. In the classroom, Alabama had 22 graduates on the roster for the bowl game (tied for the most in the nation) and seven players with their master's degree in hand (first in the nation).

Saban led the 2013 Alabama team to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, making a sixth straight New Year's Six bowl appearance and the third straight in a BCS bowl. That senior class posted a remarkable record of 60-7 over their five years with four bowl wins and three national titles. Their record in the classroom was just as impressive as 28 Crimson Tide graduates took the field for the bowl matchup with Oklahoma. Senior quarterback AJ McCarron was named a first team All-American, won the Maxwell and Unitas Award, and finished as the runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting. On the other side of the ball, senior linebacker C.J. Mosley took home Alabama's third Butkus Trophy and earned All-America honors for the second straight year.

Alabama remained at the forefront of the college football world in 2012 with an explosive offense and a retooled defense that maintained its place as one of the most dominant units in the nation. The Crimson Tide won the program's 23rd SEC championship with a victory over Georgia that propelled Alabama into the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game, where they soundly defeated Notre Dame by a score of 42-14 to earn the school's 15th national title. For his efforts following the season, Saban was named the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year, his third such honor over his previous four years.

The Alabama defense in 2012 led the nation in rush defense (76.4 ypg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and scoring defense (10.9 ppg). The Tide offense ranked 12th nationally in scoring at 38.7 points per game, 16th nationally in rushing at 227.5 yards per game and set a school record with 542 points scored in 2012. The Crimson Tide featured four first team All-Americans in 2012, including center Barrett Jones and left guard Chance Warmack. A pair of defensive standouts also earned All-America honors in cornerback Dee Milliner and Mosley. Jones captured the Rimington Trophy and the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy, as the student-athlete who best combined performance on the field, success in the classroom and service away from the field. The 2012 senior class set then-school and SEC records for wins, while garnering a 49-5 record since 2009, a mark that tied Nebraska's NCAA record 49 wins from 1994-97.

The 2011 squad produced one of the most dominant defenses in the history of college football and captured Alabama's 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide defense led the nation in all major categories, becoming the second team since national statistics have been compiled, and the first since 1986 (Oklahoma), to accomplish that feat. UA allowed only 8.2 points per game, 183.6 total yards, 72.2 rushing yards, 111.5 passing yards and an 83.7 pass efficiency defense. Alabama finished with a 12-1 record.

Seven members of the 2011 Crimson Tide (including five on defense) were recognized as first team All-Americans by major media outlets, while Jones took home Alabama's third Outland Trophy and Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson received the Tide's first Doak Walker Award. The team was recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response in the community following a tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. Jones also received the ARA Sportsmanship Award and the Wuerffel Trophy. Saban's efforts earned him the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (a league record) and produced one Academic All-American in Jones.

Despite a young roster that listed only eight scholarship seniors, the 2010 Alabama team finished with its third consecutive 10-win season following a dominant 49-7 win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. Two players (quarterback Greg McElroy and Jones) were named first team CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans, which marked two consecutive years in which Alabama boasted two of the three CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans in the SEC. McElroy, the ESPN Academic All-American of the Year, was named a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete as a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

The 2009 season at Alabama turned out to be one of the most memorable in program history, as the Tide compiled a perfect 14-0 mark and won the 2009 BCS National Championship by defeating Texas, 37-21, at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Alabama earned a spot in the title game with a resounding 32-13 win over defending national champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game, as the Tide moved to No. 1 in both major polls. The SEC championship was the program's 22nd.

On Dec. 12, 2009, more history was made for both Alabama and Saban when running back Mark Ingram became the first Heisman Trophy winner for both. Saban's 2009 squad captured numerous other honors, as Rolando McClain received the Butkus Award and six players earned first team AP All-America status.

After the perfect 2009 season concluded, Saban was presented with the first Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. In addition to the on-field success, the 2009 Tide active roster featured a nation's-best 13 players who had already graduated. That number increased to 22 players with degrees for the bowl game.

Saban's first Alabama team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a vastly improved squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa and – behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers – the Tide returned to national prominence. Alabama developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history, as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008.

Alabama swept through the 2008 regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. The team's efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN College Football Awards Show and won several other national coach-of-the-year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, AP, The Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Liberty Mutual.

Lessons learned from the 2007 season – which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl – no doubt carried into spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has yet to have a losing season as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. In addition to an improvement in the win column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any non-strike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak to end the year, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU that produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC Western Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games with two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. LSU constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the AP and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the AP in 2003) while at LSU.

Named head coach at LSU on Nov. 30, 1999, Saban led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons ranked third among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. Saban, Dietzel and Bernie

Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC titles.

Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight losing seasons to post an 8-4 record, capped by a 31-20 win over No. 15 Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Victories over Tennessee and Mississippi State highlighted that season, along with a key road win at Ole Miss.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen, as LSU outscored the Vols 21-3 in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. They won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the 2001 season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to under 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games. LSU just missed winning a second consecutive SEC West title, as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular-season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship Game. That LSU team overcame the midseason loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a then-school-record 475 points (33.9 per game) while holding 13 of 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the 2003 SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the BCS Championship Game against top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting OU to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

Saban's final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 squad who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest.

Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in only one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons – as he led Michigan State to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

Before Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and was also heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a 9-2 record, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 ypg) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 ppg) and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and then tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22 picks.

A native of Monongah, W. Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born Oct. 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have been married for 51 years and are enjoying the company of their granddaughter, Amélie, daughter-in-law Samira, son-in-law Adam Setas and grandson, James.

Saban co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, documenting his first two years at LSU. He then co-authored "How Good Do You Want to Be?" in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Foundation, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, over $12 million has been distributed to students, teachers and children's causes at over 150 charities through the Nick's Kids Foundation.

The Sabans also have played a big role in tornado relief efforts in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. Immediately following the devastating storm on April 27, 2011, Nick and Terry visited shelters where they paid for and served meals to those in need. Through Nick's Kids, the Sabans joined with Habitat for Humanity in helping to rebuild 20 homes.

With support and donations from the Sabans, St. Francis Catholic Church in Tuscaloosa built the Saban Catholic Student Center, which opened in August of 2016.

In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program with that number climbing even higher over the last 16-plus years. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans, as both Nick and Terry were first-generation graduates.

The Sabans also contributed $1 million to The Crimson Standard, Alabama's 10-year, $600 million capital campaign.

Most recently, the Sabans announced plans for The Saban Center in Tuscaloosa, a learning and discovery center on the Black Warrior River that brings together the Children's Hands-On Museum and the Tuscaloosa Children's Theater. The Sabans made a personal gift of $1 million to the project and the Nick's Kids Foundation contributed another $2 million.

ROBERT BALA

Inside Linebackers

SOUTHERN UTAH, 2008

Robert Bala joined Alabama head coach Nick Saban's staff in February of 2023 to coach the Crimson Tide's inside linebackers.

Bala arrives in Tuscaloosa after serving as a defensive analyst at Liberty in 2022 before being promoted to linebackers coach heading into the 2023 season.

In Tuscaloosa, Bala will be responsible for coaching and developing the inside linebackers, a position has tutored at numerous stops during his 15-year coaching career that includes coordinating defenses at Southern Utah and Palomar College.

He inherits a young but talented inside linebacker corps that is led by redshirt sophomore Deontae Lawson along with junior Kendrick Blackshire and sophomore Jihaad Campbell and redshirt freshman Shawn Murphy.

During his season at Liberty, Bala helped coach a defense that finished first in the country for tackles for loss per game (9.3) and No. 3 in sacks per game (3.5). The Flames more than doubled their turnovers gained in 2022 from the previous season, ranking 11th nationally in turnovers gained (24) and 18th in passes intercepted (14). Safety Robert Rahimi had a breakout season, earning Phil Steele All-Independent accolades with five interceptions.

Bala began a four-year coaching stint at FCS Southern Utah in 2018 as the Thunderbirds' cornerbacks coach. In 2019 they added special teams coordinator to his title. He was named the defensive coordinator in 2020 (which was played as a six-game season in the spring of 2021 due to COVID) while working with the safeties before moving over to coach linebackers in 2021.

The spring 2021 season saw Bala's unit lead the Big Sky Conference in sacks while improving their run defense by 60.6 yards per game from the season prior. La'Akea Kaho'Ohanohano-Davis earned first team All-America honors and was a unanimous first team All-Big Sky selection, while Francis Bemiy also garnered first team all-conference accolades.

In 2019, the Thunderbirds pass defense led the BSC, allowing just 222.8 yards per game as Carlton Johnson earned Freshman All-America honors.

Bala coached at Ottawa University of Arizona in 2017 were he coordinated special teams and coached safeties. He coached at Palomar College from 2011-16 with a stop at the Oakland Raiders during the 2014 season where he helped coach linebackers and special teams as part of the team's Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship.

At Palomar, Bala coached linebackers before moving to corners in 2015 and earning the co-defensive coordinator role in 2016. Their 2011 team finished 22nd nationally by JCGridiron and earned a semifinal berth in the SCFA Playoffs.

Bala began his coaching career at Snow (Utah) College where he coached linebackers for the NJCAA school. Snow finished in the top-10 of the final NJCAA rankings in both of Bala's seasons with the Badgers. He also coached linebacker Tyler Osborne to All-America honors in 2009.

A native of Oceanside, Calif., Bala played two seasons at Palomar College (2004-05) before continuing his playing career at Southern Utah in 2006 and 2007. He has a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southern Utah in 2008 and then earned his master's in coaching and athletic administration from Concordia University (Calif.) in 2013.

2ND YEAR

JOE COX

Tight Ends

GEORGIA, 2009

Joe Cox was hired in February of 2022 by Alabama head coach Nick Saban to coach tight ends for the Crimson Tide and begins his second season at the Capstone in 2023.

In his first year, he helped redshirt senior Cameron Latu reach new heights for the Alabama offense with a career-high 30 receptions for 377 yards and four touchdowns. The converted outside linebacker finished his Crimson Tide career with 56 receptions for 787 yards and 12 touchdowns. He also hastened the development of underclassmen Robbie Ouzts, Amari Niblack and transfer Miles Kitselman.

The 2023 tight end room returns Niblack, Ouzts and Kitselman while adding transfer CJ Dippre and freshman Ty Lockwood. Dippre arrives after catching 30 passes for 314 yards and three touchdowns a season ago for head coach Mike Locksley at Maryland.

Cox arrived in Tuscaloosa after one season coaching tight ends for his hometown Charlotte 49ers where a redshirt freshman from Prattville, Ala., Taylor Thompson led his position group with 18 receptions for 127 yards and a score. Cox spent the 2020 season coaching wide receivers on Will Muschamp's staff at South Carolina. SC's receivers were led by Shi Smith who hauled in 57 receptions for 644 yards and a team-high four touchdowns in only nine games.

Prior to his time in Columbia, Cox spent five years at Colorado State on the staff beginning as a graduate assistant in 2015 and then coaching tight ends for three seasons (2016-18) and wide receivers in his final year in Fort Collins in 2019.

Cox helped propel a Rams' offense that turned in some of the most productive seasons in school history. CSU posted two of the top-five scoring seasons in school history (3rd — 35.3 in 2016 and 5th — 33.4 in 2017) and two of the top-four marks for total offense with Cox on the staff, including a school-record 492.5 yards per game in 2017 (4th, 462.5 in 2016).

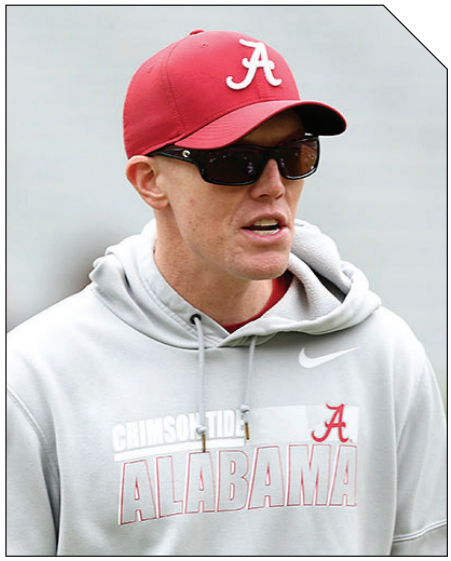
In 2019, the Rams ranked 14th in the nation in passing offense, averaging 305.3 yards per game through the air. Receiver Warren Jackson averaged 111.9 receiving yards per game, fourth in the country, on 77 receptions with eight touchdowns in 10 games. True freshman wideout Dante Wright added 57 catches for 805 yards and four scores.

In 2018, with Cox guiding a talented group of tight ends, the Rams ranked 13th in FBS in passing offense (304.9), registered the fourth-highest mark in school history for passing touchdowns with 26. The tight end group played a significant role in the performance of the Rams' record-setting offense in 2017 as Dalton Fackrell tied for second on the team with six touchdown receptions. Freshman Cameron Butler burst onto the scene and added 12 receptions for 171 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2016 the Rams' tight end corps was instrumental in helping CSU rank fourth in FBS in red-zone scoring (94.6 pct.), as well as 12th in passing efficiency, 28th in scoring offense (35.3) and 30th in total offense (462.5). The unit also contributed to the Rams' stellar pass protection, which resulted in a No. 8 national ranking for fewest sacks allowed (1.0), including just one total in the final six games of the season.

Cox was part of the coaching staff at Mallard Creek High School in Charlotte, N.C., from 2013-14, helping the school win back-to-back state championships. He joined the Mallard Creek staff in 2013 as quarterbacks coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2014.

As Georgia's starting quarterback in 2009, Cox completed 185-of-331 pass attempts for 2,584 yards and 24 touchdowns, at the time the second-best single-season total in UGA history. An offensive captain, Cox led the Bulldogs to a record of 8-5 and was named Walter Camp Offensive Player of the Week for his five-touchdown, 375-yard performance at Arkansas. For his career, Cox completed 56 percent of his passes for 3,016 yards and 29 touchdowns.



Cox was the 2004 state of North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year and Associated Press Prep Player of the Year, along with being named a Parade Magazine All-American at Independence (N.C.) High School. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Georgia (2009).

Cox and his wife, Erica, were married in March 2016 and have one daughter, Avery, and twin boys, Jace and Tate.

3RD YEAR

ROBERT GILLESPIE

Running Backs

FLORIDA, 2005

Robert Gillespie joined Alabama head coach Nick Saban's staff in January of 2021 to coach the Crimson Tide's running backs.

Known as one of the country's top recruiters, Gillespie beings his third season at the Capstone. He arrived in Tuscaloosa after three years coaching running backs at North Carolina for then-head coach Larry Fedora for a season followed by two years for head coach Mack Brown.

Over the course of his 18-year career in coaching, Gillespie has produced 13 NFL running backs, including 2017 Offensive Rookie of the Year Alvin Kamara. He added one more to that list with Alabama's Jahmyr Gibbs being selected by the Detroit Lions in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft. Including Kamara, Gillespie mentored three NFL backs at Tennessee, three at Oklahoma State and two each at South Carolina and West Virginia.

Gibbs was the leader of the Tide's rushing attack in 2022 but also proved to be one of the best pass-catchers out of the backfield in college football. The junior finished the season with 926 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on the ground while catching 44 passes for 444 yards and three more scores. Jase McClellan also turned in a solid season, gaining 655 yards on 112 carries (5.8 ypr) with seven touchdowns, while Roydell Williams added 250 rushing yards (four touchdowns) and Jam Miller 223 yards.

Gillespie's first season at Alabama saw Brian Robinson Jr. rush for 1,343 yards and 14 touchdowns in 14 games, helping the Crimson Tide win the SEC Championship and advance to the CFP National Championship Game. Robinson Jr. was also fourth on the team in receiving, catching 35 passes for 296 yards and two touchdowns.

He guided two of the nation's finest running backs in 2020 at North Carolina as Michael Carter and Javonte Williams both recorded 1,000-yard seasons. Carter led the way with 1,245 yards on the ground and nine touchdowns while Williams scored 19 times on the ground and finished with 1,140 yards. In 2019, his running backs helped the Tar Heels rank 12th nationally in total offense while rushing for 188.2 yards per game. The backfield trio of Carter, Javonte Williams and Antonio Williams combined to rush for 2,258 yards (5.8 ypc) and 11 touchdowns while catching 40 passes for another 334 yards and three scores. UNC averaged 193 rushing yards per game and 5.3 yards per carry in 2018, ranking 19th nationally.

Gillespie joined the Carolina staff after five seasons at Tennessee, where he served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator in addition to working with the Vols' running backs. While in Knoxville, Gillespie coached several talented backs, including Kamara, Jalen Hurd, John Kelly and Rajion Neal.

During his time on Rocky Top, Gillespie directed a ground attack that scored a rushing touchdown in a school-record 32 straight games. The Vols scored 31 rushing touchdowns in 2016 alone to go along with 2,668 rushing yards as a team, marking the first time since the 1992, 1993 and 1994 seasons that UT had topped 2,000 rushing yards in three consecutive years.

Prior to his time at UT, Gillespie tutored running backs at West Virginia for two years (2011-12), where he helped the WVU to the 2011 BIG EAST title. The Mountaineers rushed for an average of 171.8 yards per game in 2012, a marked improvement of almost 50 yards per game.

Gillespie spent a pair of seasons as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State (2009-10) where he coached future NFL running backs Kendall Hunter, Joseph Randall and Keith Toston. Hunter was an All-American for the Cowboys in 2010, ranking ninth nationally with 1,548 rushing yards. Gillespie coached three All-Big 12 runners at Oklahoma State in Hunter, Toston and fullback Bryant Ward. The Pokes averaged 187.8 yards on the ground in 2009 and followed that up with 174.4 rushing yards per game in 2010.

Before his stint in Stillwater, Gillespie spent four seasons at South Carolina (2005-08), beginning his tenure as a graduate assistant in 2005 before being elevated to running backs coach in 2006 where he mentored Cory Boyd, who ended up being the first SC running back drafted since 1998. As a senior, Boyd piled up 1,308 yards from scrimmage and scored 10 touchdowns.

Gillespie was a four-year letterman at the University of Florida from 1998-2001, where he played running back for the Gators. He totaled 1,854 career rushing yards and was also a reliable receiver out of the backfield. Gillespie still ranks second all-time for the Gators in receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,091) by a running back. He served as team captain in 2001, helping lead the Gators to a 56-23 Orange Bowl victory over Maryland and a No. 3 final national ranking in the Associated Press and Coaches polls. He also helped Florida win an SEC Championship in 2000.

Following his collegiate playing career, Gillespie played in the NFL for the Washington Redskins (2002-03) and the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003). A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Gillespie earned his undergraduate degree from Florida in 2005. He and his wife, Crystal, have two daughters, Nola and Sadie, and a son, Wynston.

2ND YEAR

COLEMAN HUTZLER

Special Teams Coordinator/OLB

SYRACUSE, 1991

Coleman Hutzler begins his second season on the Alabama coaching staff after head coach Nick Saban hired him in January of 2022 to coordinate special teams and coach Alabama's outside linebackers.

In his first season with the Crimson Tide, Hutzler helped the Crimson Tide rank 16th nationally in sacks per game (2.9) and 22nd in tackles for loss per game (6.9). Will Anderson Jr. finished with 17 tackles for loss and 10 sacks while making 51 tackles and registering 12 quarterback hurries to go with Dallas Turner's eight TFLs and four sacks.

He swept the national awards, winning the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Bednarik Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year along with capturing the Lombardi Award and the Lott IMPACT Trophy.

The Tide's special teams saw a marked improvement as well, with Alabama ranking third nationally in punt returns (16.73 ypr). Will Reichard set the career record for points scored while making 22-of-26 field goals and all 64 extra points. Punter James Burnip also found his stride, averaging 42.2 yards per punt with only two touchbacks while adding 20 fair catches and downing 13 punts inside the 20.

Hutzler arrived in Tuscaloosa after spending the 2021 season as the special teams coordinator at Ole Miss, where the Rebels ranked second in the SEC in punt returns and third in punt return defense while ranking fifth in field goal percentage.

Hutzler spent one season at Texas in 2020 as the co-defensive coordinator. His defense ranked in the top No. 9 in the FBS in fourth down conversion defense (.333) and Longhorn junior Joseph Ossai earned consensus All-America honors.

He spent four seasons at South Carolina (2016-19) as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. The Gamecocks excelled on special teams. In 2019, the SC special teams units ranked in the top-20 nationally in two categories, including rating No. 10 in net punting (41.96 ypp) and No. 16 in punt return average (13.27 ypr). Punter Joseph Charlton earned second team All-SEC honors and set the school record in punting average (47.7 ypp).

In 2018, Hutzler mentored return specialist Deebo Samuel. Under Hutzler's guidance, Samuel tallied his school-record fourth career kickoff return for a touchdown, tying the SEC mark, and was named first team All-SEC as a return specialist.

In 2017, Hutzler was nominated for the Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach. Charlton logged another one of the school's top single-season punting averages at 43.5 yards per punt while ranking among the nation's top 30. Samuel returned each of his two kickoffs for touchdowns in the season's first two games.

The 2016 season saw the Gamecocks' kickoff return team lead the SEC and rank No. 8 nationally, averaging 25.8 yards per return. Samuel posted a 100-yard touchdown return and placekicker Elliott Fry became the school's all-time leading scorer, while snapper Drew Williams was recognized as a fourth team All-American.

Hutzler spent the 2015 season as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Boston College. He was part of a staff that produced the nation's stingiest defense, as the Eagles allowed just 254.3 yards per game, 82.8 rush yards per game and a mere 24.1 percent of third down conversions. On special teams, Michael Walker ranked in the top-10 nationally in kick return average and BC blocked three punts.

Previously, Hutzler logged two stints at Florida, first from 2010-11 as an assistant to the linebackers and special teams coordinator, then again for the 2014 season, handling special teams and outside linebackers.

HUTZLER FAMILY

Coleman and his wife, Cobey, with their children, Micah and Leila

In 2014, Florida had the second-best punt return average in the SEC and the 17th-best unit in the nation. Punter Kyle Christy earned second team All-SEC honors after averaging 44.3 yards per punt, the nation's 14th-best average. Outside linebacker Dante Fowler was drafted third overall in 2015 by Jacksonville after producing 15 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks under Hutzler's tutelage.

Between his stints in Gainesville, Hutzler was the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at New Mexico from 2012-13. He coached punter Ben Skaer to first team All-Mountain West accolades and returner Carlos Wiggins to MWC Special Teams Player of the Year and a second team All-America honor in 2013.

Hutzler began his coaching career at the University of San Diego, working as a defensive assistant in 2006. He moved to Palo Alto to become a recruiting assistant at Stanford in 2007 and served as an assistant on the defensive side of the ball for the Cardinal in 2008 and 2009.

A native of Las Vegas, Hutzler played football at Middlebury College in Vermont, earning his degree in psychology. A linebacker from 2002-05, he was a team captain as a senior and left the program second in career tackles. Hutzler and his wife, Cobey, have a son, Micah, and a daughter, Leila.

TOMMY REES

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

NOTRE DAME, 2013

Tommy Rees joined Nick Saban's staff at The University of Alabama in February of 2023 to serve as the Crimson Tide's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

He arrived in Tuscaloosa after six years coaching the Notre Dame quarterbacks (2017-22) while coordinating the Fighting Irish's offense over the past three seasons (2020-22).

In Tuscaloosa, Rees inherits an offense that ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.1 ppg) and 11th in total offense (477.1 ypg) but must replace six starters, including 2021 Heisman Trophy winner Bryce Young at quarterback. Alabama returns three starters along the offensive line and two starting wide receivers in 2023.

The Crimson Tide roster boasts five scholarship quarterbacks with Jalen Milroe and Ty Simpson both seeing action off the bench in 2022 and the arrival of Notre Dame transfer Tyler Buchner. Freshman Eli Holstein and Dylan Lonergan arrived on campus for spring practice.

In three years as Notre Dame's offensive coordinator, Rees' offenses averaged 33.4 points per game in 2020 on their way to the College Football Playoff, 35.2 ppg to rank 19th nationally in 2021 and 31.8 in 2022.

In 2022, Rees developed first-year starter Drew Pyne at quarterback with the rookie posting an 8-2 record in his 10 starts and throwing for 2,021 yards and 22 touchdowns. The Irish averaged 392.2 yards of total offense per game while rushing for 189.1 yards a game.

In his second season as the offensive signal-caller in 2021, Rees oversaw the growth and development of tight end Michael Mayer, running back Kyren Williams and graduate transfer quarterback Jack Coan.

Under Rees' tutelage, Coan threw for 3,150 yards and 25 touchdowns while tossing just seven interceptions. Mayer set Notre Dame single-season records for receptions by a tight end (71), receiving touchdowns by a tight end (7) and receiving yards by a tight end (840). Williams rushed for 1,000 yards for the second straight season under Rees, becoming only the fifth running back in school history with back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.

Rees helped guide the Irish to the 2020 College Football Playoff with an undefeated regular season and a berth in the Rose Bowl (in Arlington, Texas) against Alabama. Ian Book, a three-year starter at quarterback, captained the Notre Dame offense to 33.4 points per game while averaging 448.5 yards per game as part of a 10-2 record.

Under Rees' guidance, Book finished his Notre Dame career as the winningest signal-caller in school history. He also finished second in career passing yards (8,948), completions (728), completion percentage (63.8) and passing touchdowns (72). Book posted a 30-5 record and guided the Irish to two CFP appearances (2018, 2020). He threw for 2,830 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior in 2020, 3,034 yards and 34 scores in 2019 and 2,628 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2018. Rees was named the 2018 FootballScoop Quarterbacks Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Rees returned to Notre Dame to coach quarterbacks in 2017, inheriting both Book and Brandon Winbush. Winbush led the Irish to the Citrus Bowl, producing a 9-3 record as the starting quarterback. He was the third signal-caller in school history to eclipse both 500 rushing yards and 1,000 passing yards in the same season, joining Tony Rice (1988-89) and DeShone Kizer (2015).

Prior to his time in South Bend, Rees spent the 2016 season as an assistant for the San Diego Chargers. He worked with an offense that ranked seventh in the NFL in passing (262.4) and ninth in scoring (25.6), while quarterback Philip Rivers threw for 4,386 yards and 33 touchdowns.

Rees started his coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant for Pat Fitzgerald at Northwestern in 2015. He helped the Wildcats to a 10-3 record, a No. 23 final ranking and a berth in the Outback Bowl.

Rees was a four-year letterwinner at quarterback for the Fighting Irish (2010-13), finishing with a 23-8 (.733) record as the starting quarterback. He ranks second in Notre Dame history in touchdowns passes (61) and third in passing yards (7,351). Rees was signed as an undrafted free agent following his collegiate career by the Washington Redskins.

The Lake Bluff, Ill., native graduated from Notre Dame in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in management consulting. He is engaged to Emily Cavalaris.

4TH YEAR

FREDDIE ROACH

Defensive Line

ALABAMA, 2008

Freddie Roach was named the defensive line coach at his alma mater by Alabama head coach Nick Saban in February of 2020. He returned to Tuscaloosa after spending the previous three seasons at Ole Miss in the same role and is beginning his fourth season tutoring the Crimson Tide's defensive front.

The 2022 defensive line helped the Crimson Tide rank ninth in scoring defense (18.2 ppg), 13th in total defense (318.2 ypg) and 22nd in tackles for loss (6.9 ppg). Senior Byron Young led the way with 48 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss and four sacks. True freshman Jaheim Oatis added 29 tackles with two TFLs and four quarter back hurries, while Tim Smith made 20 stops and DJ Dale added 2.5 sacks.

In his second year back at the Capstone, Roach's defensive line turned in an outstanding season that saw the unit get better each week. The Crimson Tide defense finished fourth nationally against the rush, allowing just 86.0 yards per game and seventh in total defense at 304.1 ypg in 2021.

Redshirt senior Phidarian Mathis led the group with a dominant season that included 53 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and nine sacks. He was joined by Young, who finished with 40 tackles and 9.5 tackles for loss, while Smith recorded 24 tackles to go with Justin Eboigbe and Dale, who each had 19 tackles apiece.

In 2020, Roach inherited a young but talented defensive front that steadily developed throughout the Crimson Tide's march to an undefeated national championship season. Redshirt sophomore Christian Barmore led the team and was second in the SEC with eight sacks while recording 37 tackles to pace all defensive linemen. He was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player of the College Football Playoff National Championship with five tackles, including two key sacks. Barmore was then selected in the second round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Patriots.

Mathis stepped up along the defensive front in 2020 as well, finishing with 31 tackles, five tackles for loss, three pass breakups and three quarterback hurries. Young added 6.5 tackles for loss while Dale finished with 22 tackles and Eboigbe had 19.

In his final season in Oxford, Roach's 2019 Ole Miss defensive line was led by nose tackle Benito Jones and defensive end Josiah Coatney. Jones recorded 10 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks, while Coatney added 46 total tackles, four quarterback hurries, 3.5 tackles for loss and two sacks.

In 2018, Coatney (63) and Qaadir Sheppard (48) combined for 111 tackles and three forced fumbles. Sheppard produced a season-high 10 tackles for loss, while Markel Winters (4.0) and Jones (3.0) solidified the defensive front. During his first season at Ole Miss, Roach developed a pair of NFL Draft picks in Breeland Speaks (2nd round) and Marquis Haynes (4th round). The two combined for 14.5 sacks while earning second team All-SEC accolades. Haynes finished as Ole Miss' career leader in sacks (32.0) and tackles for loss (47.5).

Roach was previously at Alabama from 2015-17 as the Tide's director of player development where his primary focus was the off-the-field activities of Crimson Tide's football student-athletes, serving as a resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also served as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics. During his time in that role, Alabama won back-to-back SEC titles and played for the national championship all three years, winning the crown after the 2015 and 2017 seasons.

Before his return to Tuscaloosa, Roach spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as the defensive ends and outside linebackers coach at South Alabama under head coach Joey Jones. Roach helped the Jaguars end the 2013 season ranked third nationally in sacks per game and 21st in tackles for loss per contest while finishing second in the Sun Belt in pass, scoring and total defense. The 2014 defense was second in the Sun Belt in total defense.

In 2012, Roach coached Murray State's defensive line while also assisting with the strength and conditioning program. The previous fall, he coached the defensive line and was the director of strength and conditioning at East Mississippi Community College, helping lead the Lions to the NJCAA National Championship.

Roach's first stint on the Alabama coaching staff came from 2008-10 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, during which time the Crimson Tide won both the BCS national championship and Southeastern Conference title in 2009.

As a player, Roach was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the Crimson Tide from 2002-05. While at the Capstone, he was named the National Freshman of the Year in addition to earning Freshman All-America accolades and was twice tabbed as a second team All-SEC honoree. He was also named to Alabama's All-Decade Team for the 2000s. Following his time in Tuscaloosa, Roach signed as a free agent with the New England Patriots in 2006.

A native of Killen, Ala., he made 194 tackles with 23 tackles for loss and six forced fumbles as a senior at Brook High School. Roach earned his bachelor's degree in human environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2008.

Roach and his wife, Ashley, have three daughters, Mattie, Addison and Alexandria, and a son, Freddie III.

TRAVARIS ROBINSON

Secondary

AUBURN, 2007

Travaris Robinson joined head coach Nick Saban's coaching staff in January of 2022 to coach the Crimson Tide's cornerbacks. He was then elevated to the Tide's secondary coach for the 2023 season.

Regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters, Robinson, known as "T-Rob," is a native of Miami who boasts 17 years of college coaching experience, including five seasons as the defensive coordinator at South Carolina from 2016-20. He begins his second season on the Alabama staff, taking over responsibilities for the entire defensive backfield in 2023.

The 2022 campaign saw the Crimson Tide finish sixth nationally in pass efficiency defense (108.00) and 17th in pass yards allowed (187.8 ypg). Kool-Aid McKinstry developed into one of the best corners in the Southeastern Conference, earning first team All-SEC recognition from the Associated Press and the league coaches, while redshirt freshman Terrion Arnold garnered Freshman All-America honors from the FWAA.

Robinson spent the 2021 season coaching defensive backs at Miami before coming to Tuscaloosa to coach the cornerbacks.

In his final season at South Carolina in 2020, Robinson mentored defensive lineman Kingsley Enagbare, a first team All-SEC selection, and defensive back Jaycee Horn, a second team All-SEC pick. In 2019, the South Carolina defense – led by first team All-American defensive tackle Javon Kinlaw – held its opponents to 20 points or less in five games.

In 2017, South Carolina led the SEC and ranked ninth in the country with 28 turnovers forced, while ranking 25th in points allowed per game at 20.7. The Gamecocks held 11 of their 13 opponents to fewer points than their season average. South Carolina also tied for 10th in the nation in turnovers forced with 27 during the 2016 campaign, including 15 interceptions.

Robinson spent five seasons coaching defensive backs at Florida (2011-14) and Auburn (2015), before arriving in Columbia, S.C., as defensive coordinator.

In his first season at Florida in 2011, Robinson guided a UF secondary that ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense (166.8), while the Gator defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (299.5). In 2012, Robinson led a secondary that was one of the best, ranking No. 2 nationally in pass efficiency defense (95.55), giving up just seven touchdown passes. Florida was seventh nationally with 20 interceptions and safety Matt Elam earned first team All-America honors.

Robinson's secondary in 2013 was seventh nationally in passing defense and eighth in passing efficiency defense, while the Gators were eighth in total defense. Under Robinson, Vernon Hargreaves III was named the National Freshman Defensive Player of the Year by College Football News.

In 2014 at Florida, Robinson again tutored Hargreaves III, who was a first team All-SEC pick and named first team All-America. Jalen Tabor received freshman All-America and freshman All-SEC honors. The Gators defense finished the 2014 regular season ranked ninth nationally in total defense, 14th in pass efficiency defense and 23rd in passing defense.

Prior to his time in Gainesville, he helped Texas Tech to an 8-5 record and a TicketCity Bowl victory over Northwestern. In his one season with the Red Raiders, Robinson had two defensive backs earn All-Big 12 Honorable Mention recognition and a third that was named freshman All-America honorable mention.

The former Auburn Tiger standout began his coaching career at his alma mater, first as a staff assistant in 2006 while finishing up his undergraduate degree, then as a graduate assistant in 2007. Robinson also spent one season each as a defensive backs coach at Western Kentucky (2008) and Southern Miss (2009).

As a player at Auburn, Robinson was a first team All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 2002 after recording 92 total tackles with four interceptions. He finished his collegiate career with 166 tackles and five interceptions. Before embarking on his coaching career, Robinson played two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Robinson was born in Miami and attended Coral Park High where he was a four-year letterman and earned all-state honors as a defensive back and wide receiver. He received his bachelor's degree in mass communications from Auburn in 2007. Robinson and his wife, Mandisa, have two sons, Tyson Jerod and Travis Jerod, and a daughter, Jordyn.

4TH YEAR

KEVIN STEELE

Defensive Coordinator

TENNESSEE, 1981

Kevin Steele returned to Alabama in February of 2023 for his third stint on head coach Nick Saban's staff and his second as defensive coordinator. He joined the Crimson Tide after serving as the defensive coordinator at Miami in 2022.

Steele will take over an Alabama defense that ranked ninth nationally in scoring defense (18.2 ppg), sixth in pass efficiency defense (108.0) and 13th in total defense (318.2 ypg). The Crimson Tide return six starters but must replace Will Anderson Jr., Jordan Battle, Brian Branch and Henry To'oTo'o, among others.

A previous finalist for the Broyles Award honoring the nation's top assistant coach, Steele owns 39 years of coaching experience, including 13 years in the SEC and 10 as a defensive coordinator.

During his five-season tenure as defensive coordinator at Auburn (2016-2020), Steele's units ranked in the top 20 nationally in scoring defense four times while producing 14 NFL Draft picks and multiple first-rounders.

In his final season at Auburn in 2020, Steele's unit ranked fourth in the SEC in scoring defense while playing a 10-game conference slate. He also served as interim head coach for the Tigers' Citrus Bowl contest against Northwestern.

In 2019, Auburn's defense ranked eighth nationally in both red zone and third down defense, allowing only 19.5 points per game against a schedule that featured six 11-win opponents. The 2018 Auburn defense ranked 14th nationally in scoring defense (19.2) and allowed only nine rushing touchdowns. The Tigers ranked in the top 20 nationally in sacks (38) and tackles for loss (96) and were ninth in the country with three interception returns for scores.

The 2017 season saw Steele earn Broyles Award finalist honors as SEC West champion Auburn ranked 14th in total defense and 12th in scoring defense, allowing just 4.67 yards per play, which was eighth-best nationally. The Tigers ranked seventh in Division I for scoring defense, 11th in red zone defense and 28th in total defense in his first season of 2017, an improvement of 43 spots over the previous year. The Tigers also held eight consecutive opponents without a rushing touchdown, the longest season streak at Auburn since 1957.

Steele served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for LSU in 2015, going to Baton Rouge from Alabama, where he spent the 2014 season coaching the Crimson Tide linebackers and was a special assistant to the head coach. He helped Trey DePriest earn All-America honors as the UA defense ranked sixth nationally in total defense. In 2013, he served as Alabama's director of player personnel.

Steele was the defensive coordinator at Clemson for three years from 2009-11. While at Clemson, the Tigers won the 2011 ACC title, their first since 1991. Steele's 2010 Clemson defense led the ACC and ranked No. 13 nationally in points allowed, surrendering just 18.8 points per game.

His first coaching stint at Alabama (2007-08) saw the UA defense perform impressively under Steele in 2007, ranking 27th nationally and fourth in the SEC in scoring defense (22.0 ppg). In addition, inside linebacker Rolando McClain was recognized as a first team Sporting News Freshman All-American. The 2008 Alabama defense was second nationally in rush defense, allowing just 74.1 yards per game. That unit was third in the NCAA in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg) as the Crimson Tide went 12-2, won the SEC West and earned a BCS bowl bid.

Steele coached with Bobby Bowden at Florida State for four years (2003-06), serving as the executive head coach for the Seminoles. He was named the Rivals.com National Recruiter of the Year in 2005 at Florida State after helping the Seminoles sign the top class in the country.

Steele joined Florida State after serving as the head coach at Baylor from 1999-2002. Prior to overseeing the Big 12 program, Steele coached linebackers for the Carolina Panthers in the NFL from 1995-98. Under head coach Dom Capers, the Panthers reached the NFC Championship game in just their second season of existence (1996).

STEELE FAMILY

Kevin and his wife, Linda

From 1989-94, Steele coached the linebackers under Nebraska legend Tom Osborne. During his six years in Lincoln, the Cornhuskers went 60-11, appeared in six bowl games, won four conference championships and captured the 1994 national championship with a 13-0 record.

The Dillon, S.C., native is a 1981 graduate of the University of Tennessee. He spent his freshman season at Furman before transferring to Knoxville, where he was a member of Johnny Majors' 1978 and 1979 squads. Steele was a student assistant coach in 1980 and then a graduate assistant the following year (1981) before being promoted to outside linebackers coach in 1982.

He served on Majors' staff again from 1987-88 as defensive backs coach and was part of a 1987 Vols team that posted a 10-2-1 record, capping the year with a No. 14 national ranking and a Peach Bowl victory.

Steele and his wife, Linda, have a son, Gordon, and a daughter, Caroline. Gordon serves on the football coaching staff at South Alabama.

5TH YEAR

HOLMON WIGGINS

Asst. Head Coach Offense/Wide Receivers

NEW MEXICO, 2003

Holmon Wiggins is in his fifth season at Alabama on head coach Nick Saban's staff as the Crimson Tide's wide receivers coach and third year as the assistant head coach of offense.

His first four seasons in Tuscaloosa have produced a Heisman Trophy and Biletnikoff Award winner, two Biletnikoff finalists and three first team All-Americans. He has developed five first round NFL Draft picks, including Jaylen Waddle (No. 6 overall), DeVonta Smith (No. 10), Henry Ruggs III (No. 12), Jameson Williams (No. 12) and Jerry Jeudy (No. 15).

Wiggins was tasked with a nearly complete overhaul of the Crimson Tide receiver corps in 2022. One of the lone holdovers, Ja'Corey Brooks, turned in a solid year with 39 receptions for 674 yards and a team-best eight touchdowns. Transfer Jermaine Burton hauled in 40 catches for 677 yards and seven scores.

Williams, a transfer from Ohio State, and junior John Metchie III became just the second wide receiver duo in Alabama history to each eclipse 1,000 yards in a season in 2021. Williams was a Biletnikoff finalist and first team All-American after catching 79 passes for 1,572 yards and 15 touchdowns. He averaged a school-record 19.9 yards per catch and earned SEC Co-Special Teams Player of the Year. Metchie III led the team with 96 receptions for 1,142 yards and eight touchdowns.

In 2020, Smith turned in arguably the best season by a wide receiver in college football history on his way to winning not only the Heisman and Biletnikoff but the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year and the Paul Hornung Award. He caught 117 passes for 1,856 yards and 23 scores, setting SEC marks for yards and receiving touchdowns, while finishing his career with the SEC records for receptions (235), yards (3,965) and touchdowns (46). Waddle got off to an even hotter start than Smith before an ankle injury caused him to miss eight games leading up to the national title, finishing with 28 receptions for 591 yards and four touchdowns in just five games at wide receiver.

Wiggins' first season in Tuscaloosa did not disappoint as he helped the vaunted Crimson Tide receiving corps improve on already stellar careers. Smith turned in an impressive season with 68 receptions for a team-best 1,256 yards and 14 touchdowns. Jeudy led the team in receptions with 77 while recording 1,163 receiving yards and 10 more touchdowns to finish his career with 26 (third-most in school history). Ruggs III added 40 catches for 746 yards and seven touchdowns, while Waddle added six more scores, 33 receptions and 560 receiving yards.

Wiggins came to Tuscaloosa after three years (2016-18) coaching wide receivers at Virginia Tech and another four seasons at Memphis (2012-15). He oversaw the development of Virginia Tech's wide receivers for three years, highlighted by Cam Phillips, who established himself as Tech's career leader in receptions and receiving yards.

Wiggins had four wide receivers catch at least 26 passes in 2018. Damon Hazelton led the group with 51 catches for 802 yards and eight touchdowns, while Eric Kumah caught 42 balls for 559 yards and seven scores.

The 2017 corps at Tech was led by Phillips who caught 71 passes for 964 yards and a career-best seven touchdowns. Phillips garnered first team All-ACC honors in 2017 and earned a spot on the Buffalo Bills roster in 2018.

Wiggins was part of a staff that helped guide Tech's offense to 10 single-season records during their first year in 2016, including: points (490), passing first downs (172), touchdown passes (31), total offense (6,223), completion percentage (62.1 percent), passing yards (3,660) and pass completions (279).

He helped continue the ascent of Isaiah Ford, who broke his own Tech single-season record in 2016 with 79 receptions for 1,094 yards and seven touchdowns. Phillips concluded his junior campaign by setting personal bests in receptions (76) and yards (983).

Wiggins was an integral component of Justin Fuente's staff that helped lead Memphis to 19 victories and back-to-back bowl appearances in 2014-15. Memphis receivers registered 148 receptions, 1,687 yards and four touchdowns in 2013 and upped that total to 205 receptions for 2,422 yards and 14 scores in 2014 before hauling in 255 passes for 3,277 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2015.

WIGGINS FAMILY

Holmon and his wife, Dominique, with their children, Justyce, Karyn, Brooklyn, Journye, Kingston and Legend

He drastically improved the production of the wide receivers corps at Memphis when he arrived in 2012, with the receivers accounting for 125 receptions and 1,417 yards. The Tigers registered 53 receiving touchdowns in 2014-15 compared to only 24 in the two seasons before Wiggins' arrival.

Wiggins joined the Memphis program after a one-year stint tutoring the running backs at Tulsa in 2011. The UT running backs combined for 2,006 rushing yards, while H-Back Willie Carter led Tulsa with 868 receiving yards that season, meriting a spot on the All-Conference USA Second Team.

Prior to Tulsa, Wiggins enjoyed a five-year stint coaching running backs at Illinois State from 2006-10, helping guide the Redbirds to the FCS quarterfinals in his initial season on the staff. Under his tutelage in 2006, running back Pierre Rembert earned All-America accolades and rushed for a school-record 1,743 yards. From 2006-08, Illinois State averaged 187.7 rushing yards per game and racked up 76 rushing scores.

Wiggins began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of New Mexico, after an outstanding playing career with the Lobos. He was a three-year starter at running back, finishing his career with 1,833 rushing years while setting the Lobos' single-season record for punt returns (46) and punt return yards (392). He is a 2003 graduate of the University of New Mexico.

Wiggins and his wife Dominique have four daughters, Justyce, Karyn, Brooklyn and Journye, and two sons, Kingston and Legend.

2ND YEAR

ERIC WOLFORD

Offensive Line

KANSAS STATE, 1994

Eric Wolford joined Alabama head coach Nick Saban's staff in January of 2022 to coach the Crimson Tide's offensive line and returns for his second year on staff in 2023.

Wolford's efforts across the Alabama offensive front were quickly evident as the Alabama offensive line opened holes for an additional 45.5 rushing yards per game and surrendered 20 fewer sacks than the season prior. Guard Emil Ekiyor Jr. earned first team All-SEC recognition while both Javion Cohen and Tyler Steen garnered second-team accolades. Tyler Booker was named a Freshman All-American by 247Sports as well as earning SEC All-Freshman plaudits.

Wolford spent the 2021 season at Kentucky rebuilding a Wildcats' offensive front that lost three starters into a unit that was a finalist for the Joe Moore Award. The Wildcats averaged 5.23 yards per carry while 53.1 percent of their rush attempts went for four yards or more to lead the nation.

A highly regarded recruiter, he arrived in Tuscaloosa with 27 years of coaching experience, including two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers in 2015 and 2016. Prior to Kentucky, Wolford spend four seasons on Will Muschamp's staff at South Carolina.

In 2020 at South Carolina, Wolford's unit helped pave the way for running back Kevin Harris to lead the SEC in rushing with 1,138 yards, becoming just the ninth player in SC history to rush for over 1,000 yards. In 2019, the offensive line helped five different running backs rush for more than 100 yards in a game.

During his first year in Columbia in 2017, Carolina's number of sacks allowed dipped from 41 in 2016, the year prior to Wolford's arrival, to 29 in 2017 and to 23 in 2018, the fewest since the 2013 season. Even more impressive, in SEC play the sacks allowed number dropped from 31 in 2016, to 18 in 2017, to just 12 in 2018.

Off the field, Wolford was named a top-25 recruiter by Rivals.com once the signatures were in for the 2018 signing class.

Wolford spent five seasons (2010-14) in his hometown as the head coach at Youngstown State. After a 3-8 mark in his first season, the Penguins compiled a 28-18 mark over his final four campaigns. His teams were ranked in the top-10 three times and broke 32 school records during his tenure.

Highlights included a 2012 win over Pitt - the first win over a BCS team in school history – and a 2011 win over top-ranked North Dakota State, while overseeing the squad's highest GPA on record for four consecutive seasons.

Prior to his first head coaching job, Wolford served as South Carolina's run game coordinator and offensive line coach in 2009 under head coach Steve Spurrier after a two-year stint at Illinois where he held a similar post.

Under Wolford's tutelage, the Illini, who played in the 2008 Rose Bowl game, led the Big Ten in rushing (2007) and passing (2008), while topping the 5,000-yard mark in total offense for just the third and fourth times in school history. Wolford was a Rivals Top-20 National Recruiter in 2008.

Wolford spent three seasons (2004-06) at Arizona as the offensive line coach, where he was on the same staff as Mark Stoops. UA led the league in fewest sacks allowed in 2004 and was second in 2005. He was also an integral part of back-to-back top-25 recruiting classes.

Wolford spent the 2003 season at North Texas, where his offensive line paved the way for tailback Patrick Cobbs to earn the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year award. Wolford also helped lead UNT to its third consecutive bid in the New Orleans Bowl.

Before joining North Texas, Wolford enjoyed three-year stints at both Houston and South Florida. While at Houston, he coached a number of positions, spanning offense, defense and special teams, while coaching five all-conference players. He had the unique experience of coaching in the first three seasons of the USF football program, helping to lead the Bulls to a pair of winning seasons.

Wolford began his coaching career at his alma mater, Kansas State, where he worked as a graduate assistant with the offensive line under John Latina.

WOLFORD FAMILY

Eric and his wife, Melinda, with their children, Stone and Marlee

He then spent two years as the offensive line and strength coach at Emporia State.

A four-year starter as an offensive guard at K-State under Bill Snyder, Wolford started 34 games in his career. During his senior year, the Wildcats won the school's first bowl game in the 1993 Copper Bowl. After college, Wolford signed a free-agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals before returning to Manhattan to embark on his coaching career.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Wolford attended Ursuline High School where he was enshrined into the school's athletics Hall of Fame in 2009. He received his bachelor's degree in social sciences with a focus on monetary policy and banking from Kansas State in 1994. He and his wife, Melinda, have two children, Stone and Marlee.

Eric and Melinda started a non-profit organization, inspired by their son, Stone, who was diagnosed with Cardiofaciocutaneous Syndrome (CFC Syndrome) as a baby. Their foundation is called the No Stone Unturned Foundation and is dedicated to embracing, engaging, and empowering children with special needs and their families, with a major focus on any child with any disability. 4TH YEAR

DAVID BALLOU

Director of Sports Performance

INDIANA, 2001

Regarded among the best in the field, David Ballou joined the Alabama program in March of 2020 as the Director of Sports Performance after two years at Indiana University where he was the Director of Athletic Performance.

In his fourth year with Alabama, Ballou brings a scientific approach to the Crimson Tide's tradition of hard work and dedication that is put towards maximizing genetic potential. Ballou implements Coach Saban's offseason program, which includes the well-known "Fourth-Quarter Program."

Ballou and his entire strength and conditioning staff work in unison with sports medicine and performance nutrition to create the optimal high-performance model for training and development. At Alabama, Ballou oversees the Crimson Tide's 37,000-square-foot weight room that was updated in the spring of 2023 with Elite Form 3-D camera systems and a full line of 1080 Sprint equipment and technology.

The newly renovated state-of-the-art facility is comprised of a weight room that is highlighted by 30 one-of-a-kind racks which feature platforms built into the ground for a level surface that provides a safer training environment. It also features a dedicated sports science space which is comprised of the most innovative technology in human performance. The weight room also has a state-of-the-art performance nutrition center to fuel Alabama student-athletes plus physicians' offices and strength and conditioning offices.

During his time at Alabama, Ballou has developed two Heisman Trophy Winners, a Joe Moore Award-winning offensive line, Maxwell Award winner, Walter Camp Player of the Year, and winners of the Unitas Golden Arm Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Paul Hornung Award, Outland Trophy, Biletnikoff Award, Rimington Trophy, and the Doak Walker Award. Also, during his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won the 2020 National Championship and the 2020 and 2021 SEC Championship. During his career, he has worked with 14 first round draft picks and just over 80 current NFL players.

While overseeing the Hoosiers, 11 players earned All-Big Ten honors in 2019 as Indiana went 8-5 and played in the Gator Bowl, the team's first Florida bowl game. IU's eight wins were also its most since 1993. Four IU standouts moved on to the NFL under Ballou, including Washington Redskins fourth-round pick Wes Martin.

Prior to Indiana, Ballou spent 2017 as Notre Dame's co-director of football strength and conditioning. In his lone season in South Bend, the Fighting Irish went 10-3 with a victory over LSU in the Citrus Bowl. Notre Dame had posted a 4-8 record prior to his arrival. During his time with the Fighting Irish, Ballou helped develop a Joe Moore Award-winning offensive line, honoring the best line in the country. Two of those linemen, guard Quenton Nelson (6) and tackle Mike McGlinchey (9), were drafted in the top 10 of the 2018 NFL Draft while four ND players were selected overall.

Before his time in college, Ballou worked as the head football strength and conditioning coach at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla., for two years, helping both the 2015 and 2016 teams go undefeated. In 2015, IMG finished the season being ranked 7th in the country. In 2016, IMG was ranked 4th in the country. Ballou coached 11 players at IMG that are currently on NFL rosters.

Ballou's longest tenure was at Avon (Ind.) High School from 2002-14. During his time as the strength and conditioning coach, the teams won six state championships in multiple sports and seven others were finalists. He assisted in the development of 80 Division I athletes. In 2014, Ballou was a finalist for the NSCA National High School Strength Coach of the Year.

A graduate of Indiana in 2001, Ballou played fullback for the Hoosiers from 1997-99 and was recognized as the Hoosier Strength Challenge Champion. Ballou earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology while in Bloomington and obtained a master's degree in human movement from A.T. Still University in 2009.

Ballou has been a certified strength and conditioning specialist since 2001. He is married to the former Leah Horn, a Bloomington, Ind., native who was a pole vaulter and graduate at Indiana. The couple has two daughters, Mallory and Aubrey.

17TH YEAR

JEFF ALLEN

Associate AD, Sports Medicine

GEORGIA SOUTHERN (1993)

Associate athletics director for sports medicine Jeff Allen is in his 17th season at The University of Alabama and his 35th consecutive season working as an athletic trainer in college football.

In his role at Alabama, Allen oversees a staff of 27 athletic trainers that are responsible for the medical care of all Alabama teams. He is also a member of Coach Saban's original staff from 2007 and has been a part of all six national championships during Saban's tenure at the Capstone.

Before joining the Crimson Tide, Allen was the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. At UCF, Allen was responsible for all the sports medicine needs for the entire department.

One of the most respected athletic trainers in the country, Allen was honored with the National Athletic Trainers Association's Division I Head Athletic Trainer of the Year Award at their 2018 symposium for his work during the 2017 season. Through collaborations with the College of Engineering, Allen was the original inventor of the SidelinER, a medical tent that is now used on almost every sideline in college football and in the NFL.

He has authored several published articles and is a regular speaker at national and state athletic training conferences. His work has been published by The Journal of Athletic Training and Athletic Therapy Today. Allen has served as a featured speaker at conferences held by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, as well as state meetings in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Prior to his post at UCF, Allen was head athletic trainer at Chattanooga from 2000-04, overseeing the athletic training operations for 16 varsity sports while handling all of the duties associated with the football program.

Allen was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky from 1997-2000 and earlier served as an assistant athletic trainer from 1995-97 at Valdosta (Ga.) State, where he was head athletic trainer for the football and baseball teams.

He earned a master's degree at Valdosta State University in 1995 and a bachelor's degree from Georgia Southern University in health and physical education in 1993. Jeff's wife Mary is a professor in The University of Alabama Speech-Language pathology program. They have one daughter, Makennah, who is a Crimsonette with the Million Dollar Band.

7TH YEAR

ELLIS PONDER

Assoc. AD, Football/Football COO

ALABAMA (2010)

Ellis Ponder is in his seventh year as Alabama's Associate Athletics Director, Football Chief Operating Officer and his ninth year with the program. He was elevated to the director of football operations role in February of 2017 after spending the 2015 and 2016 seasons as the Crimson Tide's associate director of football operations.

His primary role with the Crimson Tide is to oversee all day-to-day organizational and operational aspects of the Alabama football program. Ponder provides oversight and direction for the football program in all off-field areas including the management of football operating budget, operations and all team travel. Ponder also serves as the football program's liaison to athletic administration.

During his two years as associate director of football operations, Ponder also assisted with all team travel, logistics and the day-to-day operations of the football program.

A native of Fairhope, Ala., he spent the previous four years as an event director for the Bruno Event Team in Birmingham, Ala. Ponder helped manage a wide array of sporting events during his time with the Bruno Event Team, including the Regions Tradition, which is a major on the PGA Champions Tour, and the PGA Tour's BMW Championship.

During his time with the Bruno Event Team, he also helped organize and run the SEC Baseball Tournament, the SEC Women's Golf Championship, the SEC and NCAA Gymnastics Championships, the NCAA College Cup, CrossFit Games, the Honda Indy Grand Prix of Alabama, the Magic City Classic and a wide range of Alabama High School Athletic Association events across the state.

While in school at the Capstone, Ponder served as a student assistant in the Crimson Tide football equipment room from 2006 through the spring of 2011. His last four years in the role he was assigned to offensive line coach Joe Pendry, assisting at daily practices while also working the 2006 and 2007 Independence Bowls, the 2009 Sugar Bowl, 2010 BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl and the 2011 Capital One Bowl.

Ponder holds two degrees from The University of Alabama, finishing his undergraduate degree in business administration in 2010 before completing his master's degree in marketing in 2011.

He is married to the former Hayden Bryant.

3RD YEAR

TODD WATSON

Special Asst. to the HC

UNIVERSITY OF MOBILE (1993)

Todd Watson is in his third year as a special assistant to head coach Nick Saban.

At Alabama, Watson assists the head coach with a myriad of responsibilities, including high school relations, offensive and special teams game preparations and breakdowns while also assisting with camps and clinics.

Prior to Alabama, Watson spent three seasons at the University of Tennessee where he spent two of those years as the Director of Football Operations and his final season as the Director of Football Programming.

Prior to his time in Knoxville, Watson served as the Director of Operations and High School Relations at Troy from 2015-17. The Trojans combined to go 20-5 over his final two seasons and shared the Sun Belt Championship with Appalachian State in 2017, earning a berth in the New Orleans Bowl. The Trojans finished 10-3 in 2016, including a victory over Ohio University in the Dollar General Bowl.

Watson was one of the most successful high school coaches in Alabama before joining the staff at Troy. He posted a record of 80-36 in 10 seasons as the head coach at Foley High School, where he coached former Alabama standout and All-Pro wide receiver Julio Jones along with future NFL players such as Robert Lester and D.J. Fluker.

A native of Mobile, Ala., Watson spent five seasons (2000-04) as the defensive coordinator at Hoover High School where he helped lead the Buccaneers to a 70-4 record and four Alabama 6A state titles. He compiled a 24-2 record in two seasons (1998-99) as the defensive coordinator at Bryant High School after five years as an assistant coach at Alba High School from 1993-97.

Watson's teams at Foley made the playoffs each of the 10 years he was at the helm of the program and reached the third round of the playoffs twice. He guided his team to a 16-14 victory over rival Daphne in 2007 in a game that was televised live by ESPN.

A 1993 graduate of the University of Mobile with a bachelor's degree in health & physical education, Watson is married to the former Christie Mallory of Mobile. The couple has two daughters, Micah and LeighAshton.

6TH YEAR

BOB WELTON

Director, Player Personnel

ADRIAN (MICH.) (1991)

Bob Welton joined the Alabama staff in May of 2018 as the Director of Player Personnel.

Welton's responsibilities with the Crimson Tide include the organization of all recruiting efforts while also working with compliance regarding initial eligibility and assisting with coaching clinics, camps and other on-campus events.

He came to Alabama after a brief stint as Nebraska's director of recruiting operations during the spring of 2018. Welton also brought several years of SEC experience to Tuscaloosa, serving as the director of player personnel at Tennessee for five seasons (2013-17). With the Volunteers, he helped Tennessee put together five top-25 recruiting classes, including two top-10 classes according to 247Sports.com, finishing No. 7 in 2014 and fourth in 2015.

A nine-year veteran of the NFL, Welton served as a college scout with the Browns from 2004-13 before moving on to Knoxville. Prior to joining the Browns, he spent seven years as a high school football coach.

His final stop in high school was at Coloma (Mich.) High School where he guided the team to its first undefeated season and first playoff victory in school history. After the season, he was named the Lakeland Conference and MHSFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year. He led South Haven (Mich.) High School for six years (1997-2002) where he helped revive the program and rebuild the school's football stadium.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, who grew up in Luna Pier, Mich., Welton graduated from Erie-Mason High School. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education/health at Adrian (Mich.) College in 1991, where he played quarterback and was part of two MIAA championship teams. Welton and his wife Laura have a son, Tye, and a daughter, Brooke.

1ST YEAR

KEN WHISENHUNT

Special Asst. to the HC

GEORGIA TECH (1984)

Ken Whisenhunt joins the Alabama staff in 2023 as a special assistant to head coach Nick Saban.

At Alabama, Whisenhunt will assist the head coach with a myriad of responsibilities, including transfer portal management and scouting, high school relations, offensive game preparations, breakdowns and gathering necessary information on opponents, while also assisting with camps and clinics. He is also charged with aiding Coach Saban in strategic and tactical planning for the Crimson Tide football program.

Prior to Alabama, Whisenhunt spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as an offensive analyst at Penn State after serving as the San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers offensive coordinator from 2016-19.

Whisenhunt spent eight years as a head coach in the NFL, leading the Arizona Cardinals for six seasons (2007-12) and the Tennessee Titans for two years (2014-15) with a stint as the Chargers offensive coordinator in 2013. He led the Cardinals to Super Bowl XLIII with Kurt Warner at quarterback.

He was hired by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2001 to coach tight ends and spent three seasons developing that position group before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2004. He coordinated the Steelers offense for three seasons, including leading Pittsburgh to victory in Super Bowl XL (2005). The Steelers were 34-14 in his three years running the offense, which makes him the most successful offensive coordinator in team history.

Whisenhunt got his start in coaching at Vanderbilt in 1995-96, serving as the Commodores special teams coordinator, tight ends and H-back coach. He made the jump to the NFL in 1997, working for the Baltimore Ravens for two seasons coaching tight ends. He then coached tight ends in Cleveland in 1999 before coordinating special teams for the New York Jets during the 2000 season.

A native of Augusta, Ga., Whisenhunt played collegiately at Georgia Tech (1980-84) where he graduated with a degree in civil engineering. He garnered honorable mention All-America honors as a senior along with first team All-ACC accolades as a junior and a senior. He finished his college career with 82 receptions for 1,264 yards and seven touchdowns, hauling in 27 passes for 517 yards and three scores as a senior.

Whisenhunt was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the 1985 NFL Draft and spent eight years in the NFL with the Falcons (1985-88), Washington Redskins (1989-90) and New York Jets (1991-92).

AMY BRAGG

Assistant AD, Performance Nutrition

Amy Bragg is beginning her 14th season in The University of Alabama Athletics Department and her first as the assistant athletics director of performance nutrition, a role that spans all 21 of the Crimson Tide's sports.

A registered and licensed dietitian (RD, LD) and board certified specialist in sports dietetics (CSSD), Bragg came to Tuscaloosa after seven seasons as director of performance nutrition for Texas A&M University Athletics.

A recognized leader in collegiate sports nutrition, Bragg has presented at numerous professional conferences. She was a founding board member and served as president of the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA) and is a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (AND), Sports Cardiovascular and Wellness Nutrition (SCAN) and Behavioral Nutrition (BN) practice groups. Amy was given the Trailblazer Award by CPSDA in 2015 honoring her role in the advancement of the sports nutrition field, and named University of Houston College of Technology Distinguished Alumni in 2011.

Bragg uses a more hands-on approach in working with athletes and has championed the changes allowing liberalized fueling for student-athletes in NCAA athletics.

She developed Alabama's Performance Nutrition program from one full-time position to three full-time registered dietitians, one full-time performance chef, three full-time interns and 20-plus graduate and undergraduate student workers. She oversees and manages team meals, snacks and recovery nutrition, while meeting the demand for nutrition coaching and education, which are drivers for growth in nutrition services. Bragg and other members of the UA performance nutrition staff prioritize mentoring future sports nutrition practitioners in order to continue the advancement of RDs in sports.

Bragg earned a bachelor's of business administration from the University of Texas in 1995 and a bachelor's of science in human nutrition and foods from the University of Houston in 2000.

Bragg and her husband Bobby have a daughter, Rebecca, and a son, Beau.

DANIEL BUSH

Director, Recruiting

Daniel Bush joined the Alabama football staff in March of 2018 as the Crimson Tide's director of football recruiting.

He arrived in Tuscaloosa after a short stint as the director of player personnel at Colorado State. Prior to that, he served four seasons as Arkansas' director of personnel and assistant director of recruiting.

Bush's responsibilities at Alabama include the marketing and branding of the Crimson Tide program relative to recruiting as well as serving as a liaison between the football staff and creative media team. He is also charged with helping identify and evaluate potential prospects along with overseeing all aspects of the recruiting specialist students and management of the recruiting calendar.

During his four seasons at Arkansas, Bush maintained all recruiting boards and roster management charts and oversaw the staff of 15 quality control interns and students. He also aided in prospect identification and prospect evaluation. Bush also helped create and oversee the execution of the Razorbacks year-round recruiting marketing calendar while planning and executing on-campus recruiting events.

He came to Fayetteville after serving as a football operations and recruiting specialist at Alabama from 2011-2014. Bush worked with assistant coaches to maximize productivity in evaluating and recruiting prospects while updating prospect information and maintaining personnel boards.

He also spent the summer of 2013 with the San Francisco 49ers where he served as a research assistant. He conducted in-depth studies on both sides of the football while also analyzing results and creating presentations for the coaching staff.

Bush holds three degrees from The University of Alabama, including two masters. He graduated summa cum laude in mathematics from the honors college in 2011 and followed that with a masters in mathematics and then earned a master's of business administration in 2014.

Daniel and his wife Ashley have one son, Caleb.

JOSH CHAPMAN

Director, Player Development

Josh Chapman was named one of Alabama's directors of player development in February of 2020 after spending the previous four years working as a strength and conditioning assistant in the Crimson Tide's weight room.

In his role working as one the Tide's directors of player development, Chapman's main focus is the off-the-field activities of Alabama football's student-athletes, and he serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also serves as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics.

Chapman originally joined the Crimson Tide staff in February of 2016 as part of the strength and conditioning staff. He returned to Tuscaloosa following a four-year stint in the National Football League with the Indianapolis Colts. The former defensive tackle helped lead the Colts to three consecutive playoff appearances, including the conference championship in 2014.

He was selected by the Colts in the 2012 NFL Draft after a standout career at Alabama. While with the Crimson Tide from 2008-11, UA went 48-6 overall and claimed the 2009 and 2011 national championships. He played in 44 total games while at the Capstone.

A native of Hoover, Ala., Chapman helped Hoover High School to the state title game as a senior. He was rated as the No. 12 prospect in Alabama coming out of HHS after recording 97 tackles, including 22 for loss and two sacks, with an interception as a senior.

Chapman earned his bachelor's degree in human and environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2011. He is married to the former Kourtney Ancar. The couple has three sons, Abram, Joshua Jr. and Jru.

DENZEL DEVALL

Director, Player Development

Denzel Devall was named Alabama's director of player development in February of 2017 after a year as the associate director of player development in 2016.

In his role as the Tide's director of player development, Devall's main focus is off-the-field activities of Alabama football's student-athletes, and he serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also serves as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics.

He joined the Crimson Tide staff in July of 2016 as the associate director of player development after an outstanding four-year career on the field for the Crimson Tide. He was part of two national championship teams (2012 and 2015) and helped win three SEC titles (2012, 2014 and 2015).

During his playing career, Devall saw time in 50 career games with 25 starts at outside linebacker while making 84 tackles with 14 tackles for loss and six sacks. He was a Freshman All-American in 2012 by the Sporting News.

A native of Bastrop, La., he was a 2011 Louisiana Sports Writers Association 4A All-State selection as a senior at Bastrop High School. Devall earned his bachelor's degree in human and environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2015.

Devall has one daughter, Peyton.

DR. GINGER GILMORE

Assistant AD, Behavioral Medicine & Wellness

Dr. Ginger Gilmore serves as the Assistant Athletics Director for Behavioral Medicine and Wellness. She oversees the behavioral and mental health care of the student-athlete population. In addition, Dr. Gilmore serves as a certified athletic trainer for football.

Coach Saban hired her from a successful career with Alabama baseball program in 2007. He introduced the idea of joining his staff to create an awareness of and manage the mental wellbeing of student-athletes. Her focus is on the health and well-being of the student-athlete, on and off the field.

Dr. Gilmore facilitates the process of understanding the mental makeup of each athlete and modification of the approach to coaching, academics, and social aspects based on the individual's needs.

With degrees in Athletic Training (UA), Sports Administration (NSU), and Integrated Behavioral Health (ASU), Dr. Gilmore uniquely blends resources for the physical, mental, and behavioral health care needs of today's student-athlete. Her model of integrated behavioral health care for collegiate athletes serves as a benchmark for other collegiate and professional programs. She is called upon for speaking engagements, program consultation and development, and is considered an expert on the successful implementation of mental health resources in athletics.

Dr. Gilmore has over 30 years of practice as a Certified Athletic Trainer. She is a forerunner, paving the way for female athletic trainers in Division I football and baseball. Her athletic training experience includes women's basketball, the Olympic Games, and volunteer work overseas. Gilmore also serves on several boards and committees including appointment to the Graduate Faculty at UA.

Away from work, the Bay St. Louis, Miss., native competes as an equestrian on a national championship level in the discipline of Dressage. Her current pony Red Zone is competing for his first title.

JEREMY GSELL

Director, Football Rehabilitation Services

Jeremy Gsell is in his 18th season as an athletic trainer for the Alabama football program and his seventh as director of rehabilitation services.

In his primary role at Alabama, Gsell is charged with facilitating the long-term injury and post-surgical care and rehabilitation for all football student-athletes. This includes serving as the direct liaison to the Crimson Tide's weight room and team physicians.

He is the direct supervisor to the assistant football athletic trainers Bobby Feeback and Paige Ruden as well as performance analyst Clay Keith.

Prior to his arrival at Alabama, Gsell served as an athletic trainer at the University of Southern Mississippi for two seasons (2005 & 2006) where he was the Golden Eagles' primary trainer for men's basketball while assisting with football.

His first stint at Alabama came as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Crimson Tide football program from 2003-05. During his time at the Capstone, Gsell completed his master's degree in sports management in 2005.

Gsell spent a year interning with the NFL's Indianapolis Colts in 2002-03 where he covered practices, workouts and games while also overseeing inventory management. He assisted with the Colt's daily rehab and athlete treatment.

He is a regular speaker at athletic training conferences, including the SEC Athletic Trainers Association, the Alabama state conferences for ALATA, ASMI and The University of Alabama Athletic Training Program. He serves as an adjunct professor at Alabama, teaching lab classes for principles of rehabilitation and reconditioning in athletic training.

Gsell is a 2002 graduate of Salisbury University with a degree in physical education, concentrating in athletic training.

A native of Rock Hall, Md., Gsell and his wife Dana have one son, Brayden.

DANIEL LYERLY

Assistant AD, Technology Operations

In his role as assistant athletics director of technology operations, Daniel Lyerly oversees technology operations for all sports at The University of Alabama.

He is in his 19th season with the University and continues to ensure that Alabama Athletics is at the forefront of innovative IT solutions to remain among the top universities in the nation in sports technology.

Lyerly not only administers all video and technology for Alabama's football coaching staff, but he also produces selected segments for the "Nick Saban Show" and facilitates all production aspects of public service announcements and commercials featuring Nick Saban. Additionally, he offers coaches the most up-to-date recruiting technologies in order to attract top talent to the University.

Before moving to Tuscaloosa, Lyerly spent two years as a student assistant at Coastal Carolina University in 2002 and 2003 working in the video and equipment departments, helping them form their first football team. Following that, he transferred to Alabama and received his undergraduate degree in political science with a minor in computer science.

Originally from Conway, S.C., Lyerly is an Eagle Scout member of Troop 804 and a Vigil Honor Member of Santee Lodge 116, Order of the Arrow, Pee Dee Area Council, BSA. He is married to the former Brandy Moore. They have two sons, Benjamin and Luke.

SAM PETITTO

Director, Personnel Operations

Sam Petitto is in his eighth year as Alabama's director of personnel operations. He arrived in Tuscaloosa after two years as Georgia's director of player personnel.

At Alabama, Petitto assists the Crimson Tide's director of player personnel and director of recruiting while identifying and evaluating future prospects. He is also charged with updating prospect boards and assisting with the coordination of all on-campus recruiting events while working camps, junior days and clinics.

During his two seasons (2014-15) at Georgia as the director of player personnel, Petitto evaluated high school players from across the country while serving as the program's NFL liaison. He also coached defensive backs for the Bulldogs in the 2015 Tax Slayer Bowl.

Petitto's first stint at Alabama came during the 2008 season, working as a defensive analyst. Prior to that, he spent the 2007 campaign at North Carolina under Butch Davis where he worked as a defensive graduate assistant before becoming the Tar Heels' director of player personnel under the direction of associate head coach John Blake.

Petitto spent three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach at Grambling where he coached defensive backs and served as the Tigers' recruiting coordinator. He helped Grambling to the 2005 Black College National Championship and his secondary ranked first in the Southwestern Athletic Conference in five categories.

Before his first stint at Southeastern, Petitto had success in the Louisiana high school ranks with stops at Class 1A Kentwood (1998), Class 3A Amite (1999) and Class 4A Salmen High (2000). During his first three seasons in the high school ranks, Petitto helped each school to the Louisiana state championship, with identical 15-0 records at Kentwood and Amite – his alma mater.

Petitto earned his degree from the University of Louisiana Monroe in 1998 after attending Southwest Mississippi Community College on a baseball scholarship. He has one daughter, Malia.

JEFF SPRINGER

Associate AD, Equipment Operations

The all-important role of associate athletics director for equipment operations is coordinated by Jeff Springer, now in his 13th season with the Crimson Tide. Springer joined the Alabama staff in 2011 after serving four years (2007-10) as the head athletic equipment manager at Louisiana Tech.

Prior to his time at Louisiana Tech, Springer held the same position at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C., from 2006-07.

A native of Slidell, La., Springer spent three years (2003-05) as the first assistant equipment manager at Louisiana State University. He worked primarily with LSU's football program while also managing women's soccer, women's gymnastics, cheerleading, track and field/cross country and swimming and diving.

In the summer of 2001, Springer interned with the Miami Dolphins. He spent the next two seasons working as an intern in his home state at LSU and Tulane University.

Springer earned a kinesiology degree from LSU in 2001. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

Springer is married to the former Anna Bannister and the couple has one daughter, Bailey.

J.T. SUMMERFORD

Director, Football Operations

J.T. Summerford is in sixth year as Alabama's director of football operations and his 12th season with the program. He was elevated to the director's role in February of 2018 after spending the 2017 season as the Crimson Tide's assistant director of football operations.

His primary role with the Crimson Tide is to help oversee the day-to-day organizational and operational aspects of the Alabama football program in consultation with associate athletics director Ellis Ponder. During his lone season as the assistant director of football operations in 2017, Summerford also served as an assistant to the director of player personnel and operations, while helping oversee the organization and execution of the recruiting department. He assisted with team travel, logistics and day-to-day operations.

Summerford began his career with the Crimson Tide as a recruiting specialist in May of 2012 before being promoted to head recruiting specialist in April of 2013 where he served for two seasons. He was promoted to recruiting analyst in 2015 and spent two seasons in that role.

A native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Summerford holds two degrees from The University of Alabama, completing his bachelor's of science in accounting and management in 2013 and then finishing his masters of business administration from the Manderson Graduate School of Business in 2015.

He has been a part of three national championship teams at Alabama (2012, 2015 and 2017) along with four SEC titles teams and trips to four national championship games, three Sugar Bowls, a Cotton Bowl and a Peach Bowl.

Summerford is married to the former Kelsey Cameron, and the couple has one daughter, Everett. His grandfather, Tom Danner, played football at Alabama from 1951-54 and also earned All-SEC recognition as part of the Crimson Tide's track and field program. Summerford's father John also served as a trainer at Alabama from 1976-79.

PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

Dr. Stuart R. Bell became the 29th president of The University of Alabama on June 18, 2015. He previously served the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and then department head of mechanical engineering.

Under his leadership, UA has seen an increase in both student retention and graduation rates; increased faculty headcount; grown sponsored program awards crucial to direct learning and experience opportunities for students; and benefited from historic fundraising. New interdisciplinary research centers have been established and join many other programs on campus focused on solving critical, real-world challenges. Through an intentional and on-going emphasis on inclusivity and diversity, UA graduates continue to gain cultural competencies which allow them to live and work effectively in an increasingly diverse and global society.

In September 2021, Dr. Bell announced the launch of The Rising Tide, the largest capital campaign in University and state history. The transformative fundraising campaign will serve as a catalyst for heightened enrollment, advanced research and creative endeavors and expanded opportunities for students to benefit from the premier educational, leadership and research opportunities available as part of the Alabama experience. At present, the campaign has raised over $1.3 billion in charitable commitments toward its $1.5 billion goal.

Prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University and served as both the chief academic officer and the chief operating officer. Before his time at LSU, Dr. Bell served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering.

With research concentrations in combustion engines, Dr. Bell has expertise in fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes. He founded and directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, an interdisciplinary research center producing new generations of engineers and scientists. Dr. Bell was also inducted as an Engineering Department Fellow by UA's department of mechanical engineering. He was awarded the Society of Automotive Engineers' Ralph Teetor Award for Outstanding Contributions to Research and Teaching and the T. Morris Hackney Faculty Leadership Award for the College of Engineering. In 2023, he began a two-year term as the President of the SEC Executive Committee.

Dr. Bell was also honored with the Richard S. Woodbury Award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, was selected as a recipient of the Dwight Look College of Engineering Outstanding Alumni Award from Texas A&M University and was elected to the Academy of Distinguished Alumni in Mechanical Engineering at his alma mater. In 2023, he was inducted into the Alabama Engineering Hall of Fame.

An Abilene, Texas native, Dr. Bell earned a degree in nuclear engineering from Texas A&M in 1979. He earned his master's and doctoral degrees in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

It was also at Texas A&M that Dr. Bell met his wife, Susan. They are the proud parents of three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen, three delightful granddaughters and two grandsons. Both of Dr. Bell's sons followed in his footsteps and are engineers, and his daughter is a UA alumna.

ON CAMPUS

NOT ALL LEGENDS WEAR HELMETS

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

The University of Alabama knows a thing or two about legends.

Legends have been made in our academic halls, on our athletic fields and courts, and through our endeavors to shape a better world through teaching, research and service.

UA legends earn prestigious honors, such as Pulitzer Prizes, Emmy Awards, Heisman Trophies and Medals of Honor. They wear names like inventor, entrepreneur, best-selling author, pioneer, CEO, trailblazer and national champion.

Here are just a few of our legends:

Best-selling authors: Harper Lee, “To Kill a Mockingbird”; Winston Groom, “Forrest Gump”; Kathryn Stockett, “The Help”; Mark Childress, “Crazy in Alabama.”

Executives/Leaders: Marillyn Hewson, Lockheed Martin; W.W. Clements, Dr Pepper Company; Sam DiPiazza, Mayo Clinic; Thom Rainer, Lifeway Christian Resources; Vicki Hollub, Occidental Petroleum; Marie Robinson, Sysco Corporation; Nan Boden, Everyday Robots.; Jody Singer, Marshall Space Flight Center.

Pioneers/Founders/Trailblazers: Millard Fuller, Habitat for Humanity; Jimmy Wales, Wikipedia; Joe Gibbs, Golf Channel; John Hendricks, Discovery Channel; Janet Gurwitch, Laura Mercier Cosmetics; Dr. Autherine Lucy Foster; Wendell Hudson, Nancy Batson Crews.

Science: Dr. Edward O. Wilson, biologist, researcher and two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning author; Robert Jemison Van de Graaff, scientist and inventor. James M. Kelly, NASA pilot and astronaut; Nan Boden, Marshall Space Flight Center (NASA); Bob Hines, NASA astronaut.

Film, Television and Journalism: Chuck Gordon, producer of “Die Hard” movies and “Field of Dreams”; Sela Ward, television and film actress; Joe Scarborough, talk show host; Sonequa Martin-Green, actress; Jim Nabors, actor; Tom Cherones, director of “Seinfeld”; Rece Davis, ESPN/ABC journalist; Michael Luwoye, Broadway actor; Howell Raines, Pulitzer winner at The New York Times; John Cochran, prize-winning television journalist; Lisa Patton, best-selling author.

College selection matters. The University of Alabama is a leader among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars. The Fulbright Student Program recognizes UA as a top producer of Fulbright recipients. And for more than a decade, UA has ranked among the top six institutions for Goldwater Scholars.

GREG BYRNE
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

With 30 years of experience in sports administration, Alabama Director of Athletics Greg Byrne has built an impressive career highlighted by consistent competitive success, innovative strategies, vigorous fundraising and a strong emphasis on academic excellence and student-athlete enhancement.

Named Alabama's 17th Director of Athletics on January 17, 2017, Byrne made an immediate impact on the Crimson Tide, developing and implementing both The Standard, a strategic plan outlining the mission statement and core values of Alabama Athletics, and The Crimson Standard, a 10-year, $600 million capital initiative focused on the renovation of facilities and development of infrastructure.

That impact continued in 2022-23 with two major expansion announcements with national partners in Fanatics and LEARFIELD. On July 25, 2022, Alabama and Fanatics made public their new long-term, multifaceted partnership, which included the first-ever team store inside Bryant-Denny Stadium. The expanded partnership allowed the University to capitalize on Fanatics merchandising platforms to create, promote and distribute Alabama merchandise featuring the name, image, and likeness (NIL) rights of current Crimson Tide student-athletes. Nearly seven months later, the extension of the Tide's multimedia rights relationship with LEARFIELD was announced. The 15-year landmark deal is one of the longest and most integrated in college athletics, building on traditional components along with several new strategic initiatives. Among those are a first-of-its-kind, dedicated NIL hub called The Advantage Center, an original content platform in collaboration with LEARFIELD Studios and access to robust data and analytics enhancements via the company's Fanbase infrastructure.

Under Byrne's leadership, the Crimson Tide has:

• Posted its top three finishes in program history in the LEARFIELD Directors' Cup, coming in seventh in 2020-21, 12th in 2022-23 and 14th in 2017-18

• Added high-impact coaches Nate Oats (men's basketball), Rob Vaughn (baseball), Margo Geer (men's and women's swimming and diving), Ashley Johnston (gymnastics), Glenn Putyrae (rowing), Rashinda Reed (volleyball) and Jonatan Berhane (women's tennis)

• Won the 2021 and 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship and earned a place in the CFP Championship Game in 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2022

• Collected Southeastern Conference titles in football (2017, 2020, 2021), men's basketball (2021, 2023), softball (2021, 2019), women's soccer (2022), men's cross country (2022), women's cross country (2022), gymnastics (2021), and men's indoor track and field (2018)

• Brought home individual and relay national titles in cross country, gymnastics, swimming and diving and track and field and produced over 200 All-Americans in 12 different sports

• Earned 69 CoSIDA Academic All-America certificates as well as some of the nation's top academic honors, including the NCAA Top 10 Award, the NCAA Elite 90 Award, CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year, NCAA and SEC Postgraduate Scholarships

• Earned the H. Boyd McWhorter Male SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2017, the SEC's Brad Davis Community Service Award in 2023 and produced 18 SEC Scholar-Athletes of the Year in 11 different sports, including a conference-record eight during the 2019-20 academic year

Another hallmark of Byrne's career has been both building and enhancing facilities to championship levels. In six years at Alabama, the Tide has:

• Added a state-of-the-art, first-of-its-kind Sports Science Center featuring advanced treatment services and technology with spaces dedicated to cryotherapy, chiropractic care, stretch, massage, relaxation, recovery and mental health services

• Improved and renovated Bryant-Denny Stadium, including enhancements to all team and recruiting areas, renovations of multiple fan areas, including new Loge and sky boxes and a trio of club areas and an added student plaza

• Renovated and expanded the football team locker room, training room, equipment room and lobby within the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility

• Added and renovated multiple areas of the John and Ann Rhoads Softball Stadium, with upgrades to the press box and clubhouse, the addition of a new umpire locker room, new restrooms and a new concessions building, as well as new hardscape for the plaza and entryway along first base

• Revitalized the Alabama Aquatic Center with a renovation that included the addition of an outdoor pool

In addition to his role as Director of Athletics, Byrne serves on several committees at both the conference and national levels including:

• United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee Collegiate Advisory Council

• NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee

• National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches Coalition Academy

• Served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in 2020

The son of Bill Byrne, whose long and highly successful career included 30 years as an athletics director, Greg Byrne has spent a lifetime around major college athletics. That background has allowed the younger Byrne to consistently develop and grow as a dynamic and impactful administrator with each new role he has undertaken, with career highlights prior to Alabama that include:

• Serving as the University of Arizona's Vice President for Athletics (2010-17) and Mississippi State University's Director of Athletics (2008-10), making Alabama the third NCAA Division I program he has led

• Fostering major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both Arizona and MSU, raising the bar to new heights when it came to student-athlete enhancement and academic success in preparation for life after sports

• More than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities at Arizona

• Serving as the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level while at Mississippi State where he oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Auburn Director of Athletics John Cohen

• Experience in the Southeastern Conference, having spent 2002-05 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising prior to serving as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU from 2006-08 before becoming the Bulldogs' Director of Athletics

• Working at the Fiesta Bowl (1994-95), Oregon (1995-98) and Oregon State (1998-2002)

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nicholas and Davis.

"We want to be successful as students. I always tell players there's two things that we want you to do here, you've got two careers: one on the field, one off the field. The one off the field means you've got to graduate from college. That's the one that's going to have the greatest impact on the quality of your life forever. We want to have a great academic support program. We want our players to succeed as students."

BUILT FOR BAMA

The Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility is always a hub of activity, housing athletics administration, football operations and the Athletics Dining Facility, along with the Bill Battle Athletic Performance Center. The start of the 2020 season marked the most recent expansion and renovation to one of the nation's elite football facilities.

The renovation included a new Sports Science Center, a renovated and expanded football team locker room, training room, equipment room and lobby. The changes bolstered the Crimson Tide's ability to provide the best amenities and facilities in the nation, which spoke to the commitment of the Alabama administration and coaching staff to the health and welfare of our student-athletes.

The upgraded Sports Science Center supports the athletic training needs of our student-athletes, helping to speed recovery and prevent injury. The addition gives our student-athletes access to advanced treatment services and technology with spaces dedicated to cryotherapy, chiropractic, stretch, massage, relaxation, recovery and mental health services.

The Crimson Tide's improved locker room was expanded with 135 larger and more private lockers. Each locker includes a personal Zero Gravity chair and storage space with wireless charging for tablet, phone and watch. Each locker features technology for increased drying capacity for shoes and shoulder pads and updated magnetic player graphics and nameplates. The locker room integrates a color-changing LED lighting system, integrated laundry chutes and the newest audio-visual components.

The equipment room and laundry room were expanded, and an equipment display added. The equipment room features a new issue window with ELITE gear display and specialty storage compartments, new automated high-density storage systems, new laundry lockers and increased capacity.

"The health and safety of our student-athletes is a top priority. The new Sports Science Center will take our medical care to the next level and help separate us from our competition." -- Jeff Allen, Associate Athletics Director for Sports Medicine

THE BEAR

"I ain't never been nothin' but a winner."

PAUL W. "BEAR" BRYANT
Alabama Head Coach, 1958-82

LEGEND HAS IT

A young Bryant goes to the Fordyce Theatre in Arkansas where anyone who will wrestle a bear can win a dollar. Bryant wrestles the bear but the owner and the bear escape without paying. Bryant didn't get the buck that day, but he earned a nickname, Bear.

Paul William Bryant retired from coaching as the game's all-time winningest coach with a 323-85-17 (.780) overall record. He spent 25 of his 37 years on the sidelines at The University of Alabama, where he returned the Crimson Tide football program to national prominence.

During his time in Tuscaloosa, Bryant compiled a 232-46-9 (.824) record and directed Alabama to six national championships. He also led the Crimson Tide to 13 SEC titles, was the national coach of the year three times and the SEC coach of the year on eight occasions.

In 1958, Bryant returned to his alma mater and the rebuilding process was underway. In his second year back at the Capstone, he beat Auburn and took the Tide to its first of 25 straight bowl appearances. In 1961, Bryant's first recruiting class, highlighted by quarterback Pat Trammell, linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and lineman Billy Neighbors, helped the Tide capture the first of Bryant's six national titles.

Two more titles followed in 1964 and 1965 and despite an 11-0 record the Tide missed out on a third in 1966. Bryant installed the "wishbone" offense in 1971 to revamp the Tide program. Over the next 10 years, Alabama dominated the college football scene, winning 108 games, three more national titles and placing Bryant atop college football's all-time leaderboard for career wins.

In 1934, the first year of the Southeastern Conference, Bryant helped the Crimson Tide win the initial SEC championship and a national championship as a player. Bryant became known in football folklore as the 'other end' to Don Hutson as Alabama went 10-0 and knocked off Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl to claim the school's fourth national crown.

Bryant's head coaching career began in 1945 at Maryland. The following year he made the move to Kentucky for eight years and followed that with a four-year stint at Texas A&M. Bryant guided teams to 15 conference titles, including 13 at Alabama, across his illustrious coaching career.

BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM

"Bryant-Denny Stadium is one of the most iconic football facilities in the nation and certainly one of the crown jewels of The University of Alabama campus. The passion, support and excitement provided by all Crimson Tide supporters is second to none, making for a truly special experience for all in attendance."

Greg Byrne
Director of Athletics

Bryant-Denny Stadium is not only one of the most iconic facilities on The University of Alabama campus, but it is also often one of the most visited destinations in the state. The current seating capacity of 100,077 makes Bryant-Denny Stadium one of the nation's largest on-campus football stadiums.

Before the 2020 season, the venue went through a $107 million renovation that included updating and expanding multiple seating areas with three new club areas and the addition of 3,826 new premium seats, loge boxes, the Terrace Club, the Champions Club and Founders Suites on the west side, new skyboxes on the east U1 level, as well as the renovation of existing skyboxes. Improvements were made to all team areas including the locker room and tunnel, and the recruiting room was expanded to nearly double in size. A student plaza was added on the south side as well as larger videoboards in the four corners, and the press box was relocated to the east side.

The latest renovation marked the fifth since 1988 and the eighth time overall Bryant-Denny Stadium has had significant upgrades since it was originally constructed in 1929. Other renovations and expansions were completed in 1946, 1961, 1966, 1988, 1998, 2006 and 2010.

Since those early games, a number of projects have taken place to get Bryant-Denny Stadium to its current state. When Alabama and Hawai'i met to open the 2006 season, a sellout crowd marked the largest crowd to view a college football game in the state of Alabama. That record fell when 101,821 fans filled the seats for the Crimson Tide's 2010 season opener against San Jose State.

The 2010 renovation pushed capacity to 101,821, with an additional 36 skyboxes, to bring the total to 159, and 1,700 club seats. Other additions included a club level area and traditional upper-deck seating. Office space was included, as well as a home team locker room located in the north end zone.

In 2006, three levels of premium seating and 38 luxury skyboxes were added in addition to a pair of large video scoreboards in the north end zone, and state-of-the-art, wrap-around display boards situated on the facades of the east and west upper decks.

One of the unique aspects of Bryant-Denny Stadium is a plaza connecting the stadium with University Boulevard. The plaza, which quickly became a focal point on game day Saturdays, honors Alabama's national championship coaches and commemorates the Tide's 18 national and 29 SEC titles.

Another unique aspect of Bryant-Denny Stadium, while not part of a renovation or expansion, was the installation of a state-of-the-art LED light system in 2019. The lights feature instant on/off capabilities, are fully dimmable and are connected to a system that allows them to function in different colors, scenes and effects.

The 1998 east side expansion added 10,000 bleacher seats and two spiral walkways to give the stadium a more symmetrical appearance. A total of 81 skyboxes, on two levels, were also added. The skyboxes were built in two sizes, 24-seat capacity (18) and 16-seat capacity (64).

In 1999, four additional skyboxes were added and a scoreboard with video replay capabilities was installed in the south end.

Other additions to Bryant-Denny Stadium include two east side reception areas for Scholarship and A-Club level patrons. These areas are located above the center entrance on the east side and include rooms large enough to host receptions and pre-game meal functions. A bank of lights was also added on the east side.

The Crimson Tide owns an impressive 291-54-3 (.841) all-time record at Bryant-Denny Stadium and a 377-67-3 (.847) mark in all games played in Tuscaloosa. Dating back to the 1988 renovation of Bryant-Denny Stadium, more than 19.3 million fans have witnessed the Crimson Tide play in 239 home games over the past 35 seasons.

Top Bowl Team

The Crimson Tide has been to more bowl games (70) than any other team in the country

The Alabama football team has made an NCAA-leading 70 bowl appearances. The Crimson Tide has played in more bowl games (70) and earned more bowl wins (42) than any team in college football history. Alabama spent New Year's Eve of the 2022 season making its 17th Sugar Bowl appearance, the most of any program in the bowl's storied history. Alabama has also appeared in seven Rose Bowl games in the past. The Crimson Tide has been bowling for 19 consecutive seasons, something that has not happened since Alabama played in 25 straight bowl games from 1959-83.

THE BEST IN THE SEC

ALABAMA HAS A WINNING RECORD AGAINST EVERY SCHOOL IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference begins its 92nd season of play in 2023. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record, and has won a total of 29 SEC titles in the school's illustrious history.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season, while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season, and Texas A&M and Missouri began play in 2012.

The No. 3/4/2 Alabama football team won its 29th SEC Championship with a 41-24 victory over then-No. 1/1/1 Georgia in Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Saturday, Dec. 4, 2021.

ALABAMA HAS BEEN A FORCE IN THE SEC OVER THE PAST 15 SEASONS

Alabama dominated the 2008 and 2009 seasons in Southeastern Conference play with a 16-0 combined mark in the regular season, capturing back-to-back Western Division championships and the 2009 SEC championship. The 2011 season saw the Crimson Tide win the program's 14th national championship but finish second in the SEC West to LSU, who the Tide would later defeat 21-0 in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. Alabama won its 23rd SEC championship in 2012, followed by its 15th national championship. In 2013, UA tied for the Western Division crown with a 7-1 record.

Alabama secured the program's 24th, 25th and 26th SEC titles in 2014, 2015 and 2016 becoming the first team to earn three consecutive SEC Championship Game victories since Florida won four in a row from 1993-96. In 2014, the Tide captured the trophy with a 42-13 win over Missouri, while the 2015 victory came against Florida, 29-15. Alabama defeated the Gators for the second consecutive year in 2016 by a score of 54-16. In 2017, the Crimson Tide tied for the Western Division crown with a 7-1 record on the way to an NCAA-record 17th national championship.

The 2018 season saw the Tide finish a perfect 8-0 once again on the way to a 27th SEC title thanks to a thrilling 35-28 comeback win over Georgia. The Tide followed that up with their 28th SEC title and 18th national championship in a unique 2020 season, posting a perfect 13-0 record after dominant performances against Notre Dame (31-14) in the College Football Playoff Semifinal and Ohio State (52-24) in the CFP Championship Game. In 2021, Alabama came back from an early 10-0 deficit to take down then-No. 1/1/1 Georgia, 41-24, for the program's 29th SEC crown.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992, at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. The SEC Championship Game moved to the Georgia Dome in 1994 and was staged there through 2016. The game then moved next door to Mercedes-Benz Stadium in 2017.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CAPITAL OF THE NATION

"When it comes to spring football spectacles, it doesn't get any bigger than Tuscaloosa, Alabama."

CHRIS FOWLER
ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

A-DAY PHENOMENON

Spring games across the country have taken on a whole different meaning since Alabama's A-Day Game sparked a new phenomenon in 2007 when an amazing 92,138 fans packed Bryant-Denny Stadium. Even more impressive were the 5,000-plus fans that were turned away at the gate and spent the afternoon tailgating around the stadium just like a fall Saturday when the stadium was deemed at capacity. Schools across the nation have followed the Tide's lead and begun working to make their spring games a focal point.

ESPN has taken notice of the spring game excitement and started making it part of the college football coverage each spring. The ESPN family of networks have televised nine of the last 13 A-Day Games nationally on ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU. The 2012 game was televised by Comcast.

The last 16 spring games have seen an average of 72,332 fans pack Bryant-Denny Stadium. The official attendance at the 2023 Golden Flake A-Day Game was 58,710 at BDS. The 2008 game had 78,200 with 84,050 showing up in 2009. A crowd of 91,312 came out in 2010 and a school-record 92,310 in 2011. The 2012 game had 78,526 in attendance; 78,315 fans witnessed the 2013 event; 73,509 in 2014; 65,175 in 2015; 76,212 in 2016; 74,326 in 2017; 74,732 in 2018; and 62,219 in 2019. After canceling the spring game in 2020 because of the public-health threat, 47,218 Alabama fans filled Bryant-Denny Stadium in 2021 followed by 31,077 in 2022. Over the past 16 years the Crimson Tide has drawn a mind-boggling 1,157,306 fans for its annual A-Day Game.

Prior to the start of Alabama's A-Day Game each spring, the Crimson Tide's permanent team captains from the previous year are forever captured at the base of Denny Chimes. The captains have their handprints and footprints placed in cement to recognize their roles as team leaders. At the 2023 affair, linebacker Will Anderson Jr. and defensive back Jordan Battle had their hand and foot prints placed in cement at the base of Denny Chimes.

THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Alabama has proven to be one of the top television draws in college football due to its history, tradition, personalities and fans. The Crimson Tide has played in 191 nationally televised games since 2008, including every contest since the start of 2014. Further evidence was the presence of ESPN GameDay at Alabama's games, with four in 2008, 2012, 2013, 2015 and 2018, three games in 2009, 2011, 2016 and 2017, two games in 2010, 2014, 2020 and 2022, along with one appearance in 2019. Alabama's popularity also has been a draw for national publications. The Crimson Tide has been represented on the covers of many of those publications in recent years. The Tide has appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated 28 times since 2009, including four times in 2012 and 2017, three times in 2009, 2011 and 2015, two times in 2013, 2014, 2016 and 2018, and once in 2010, 2021 and 2022. In 2008, head coach Nick Saban was featured on the cover of Forbes. Saban became the first college football coach to be featured on the cover of Forbes since the publication began in 1917.

NATIONAL TITLES

From the roaring 1920s and Wallace Wade, through legendary coach Frank Thomas, on to the dynasty that was the Paul "Bear" Bryant era, through Gene Stallings' 1992 national championship team and, finally, Nick Saban's six titles in Tuscaloosa, the Alabama Crimson Tide has helped define college football for nearly a century. Alabama has captured a college football-best 18 national championships and an impressive 32 conference titles, including a conference-best 28 SEC titles.

Bryant led the Tide to six national championships during his 25 years roaming the sidelines with national titles in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979. Wade won Alabama's first three titles in 1925, 1926 and 1930. Thomas then led Alabama to championships in 1934 and 1941 while Stallings' 1992 team has proven to be one of the best in college football history.

Saban's 2009 team carved an identity of its own with suffocating defense and an efficient and explosive offense. That 14-0 team produced the school and conference record for wins in a season, defeated No. 1 Florida in the SEC Championship Game and bested No. 2 Texas in the BCS National Championship Game to claim the title. The 2011 team avenged a regular-season loss to LSU in the BCS National Championship with a resounding 21-0 shutout of the Tigers in New Orleans. The defense was historic in 2011, leading all four major categories nationally, while the offense averaged almost 35 points per game. In 2012, Alabama beat LSU with a last-second comeback in Death Valley, escaped the SEC Championship Game with a thrilling 32-28 win over Georgia, and finished the year off by crushing then-No. 1 Notre Dame 42-14 in the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2015, the second year of the College Football Playoff, the Tide shut out Michigan State, 38-0, in the CFP Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and followed that up with a 45-40 win over Clemson to claim Alabama's first CFP National Championship. Saban's fifth title in Tuscaloosa in 2017 was punctuated with a dramatic come-from-behind 26-23 victory over Georgia in the CFP National Championship Game. Alabama trailed the Bulldogs 13-0 at halftime and made the move to Tua Tagovailoa at quarterback who helped engineer a comeback for the ages. Tagovailoa threw three touchdown passes after halftime, including a 41-yard strike on second-and-26 in overtime to DeVonta Smith to seal the victory. Alabama exacted sweet revenge over Clemson just seven days prior in the semifinal game at the Sugar Bowl with a 24-6 win.

The Alabama football team won its 18th national championship Monday, January 12, 2021 at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla., with a dominating 52-24 win over No. 3 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. Alabama finished its season with a clean 13-0 record. In addition to it being the Crimson Tide's 18th national football championship overall, it was Nick Saban's seventh as a head coach, giving him the most in collegiate football history, and his sixth at Alabama.

THE FIRST TITLE 1925

Alabama's football history has been about champions and the 1925 team garnered the first national title by posting a perfect 10-0 record and beating powerful Washington 20-19 in the Rose Bowl. It marked the first time a southern team had been to Pasadena, and the locals appeared shocked with the Tide victory.

Senior stars Johnny Mack Brown and All-American Pooley Hubert mesmerized the crowds of the 1920s with their unique skills. Known as the "Dothan Antelope," Brown was the scourge of Bama foes. Brown scored on a 58-yard reception from Grant Gillis and a 62-yard catch from Hubert in the Rose Bowl win.

In the win over Washington, Hubert also rushed for a touchdown and starred defensively. Both Brown and Hubert would become College Football Hall of Famers. Brown and guard Bill Buckler also were All-Southern Conference selections.

PASADENA BOUND

1926

Four teams (Alabama, Stanford, Navy and Lafayette) had been declared winners of the 1926 national championship before the Crimson Tide reached Pasadena to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl. A 7-7 tie between the Southern and Western Conference champions did not settle any scores New Years Day, 1927.

The 1926 squad featured All-Americans Hoyt "Wu" Winslett and Fred Pickhard. Three other Alabama men, backs Ernie Barnes and Herschel Caldwell and center Gordon "Sherlock" Holmes joined them on the 11-member All-Southern Conference team.

Besides the Rose Bowl standoff against Stanford, Alabama's only other challenge came in a 2-0 tiff with then-powerful Sewanee. A blocked punt that went out of the end zone by Pickhard proved to be the difference in the Sewanee contest. The very next week, Pickhard blocked two punts, both resulting in touchdowns, in a 24-0 win over LSU. Alabama clinched a Rose Bowl berth with a 33-6 victory over Georgia on Thanksgiving Day.

HEAD COACH
WALLACE WADE

1930 PERFECTION

A 10-0 season, along with a 24-0 whitewashing of Washington State in the Rose Bowl gave Wallace Wade his third championship and ended an era of Tide football on a glorious note.

Extraordinary tackle Fred Sington finished an unmatched career as a student-athlete being unanimously picked to the 1930 All-America teams and earning Phi Beta Kappa honors for his toils in the classroom.

Halfback John Henry Suther joined Sington on the All-America list while super sophomore Johnny Cain and guard John Miller were All-Southern Conference picks. Incredibly in the Rose Bowl, Wade defied logic by starting his second unit, feeling his team was vastly superior to the West Coast Champions. Monk Campbell earned Rose Bowl MVP honors.

Alabama shut out eight of its 10 foes with Tennessee (18-6) and Vanderbilt (12-7) holding the distinction of being the only teams to score on the 1930 Tide.

"MY BEST TEAM" 1934

Frank Thomas candidly called it his best Alabama team and the 29-13 romp over Stanford in the Rose Bowl confirmed the coach's belief that the 1934 team was special.

In an era where points were at a premium, Alabama averaged 31.4 a game while the opposition could manage but 4.5 a contest. Legendary end Don Hutson, who some 56 years later would be named to the all-time college football team, displayed the skills that would one day earn him induction into seven different Halls of Fame (Alabama, Arkansas, Green Bay Packers, NFL, College, Helms Foundation and Wisconsin).

Tailback Dixie Howell and tackle Bill Lee joined Hutson as All-Americans. The only close game all year came in the annual heavyweight thriller with Tennessee, a 13-6 Crimson Tide win. Howell, Hutson, Lee and guard Charlie Marr earned All-SEC honors.

In the Rose Bowl, Howell scored two touchdowns, one on a scintillating 67-yard scamper. He also passed 59 yards to Hutson for another score. For the game, he averaged 43.8 yards a punt, gained 111 rushing yards and 160 passing.

1941 COTTON BOWL CHAMPS

ALL-AMERICAN HOLT RAST

Alabama received a share of the 1941 title by being named to the honor roll of the Houlgate System. The Crimson Tide team finished the year 9-2 with conference losses to Mississippi State and Vanderbilt.

The 1941 team was gifted with brilliant end Holt Rast earning unanimous All-America accolades and plaudits of being one of the best 11 players in the first 50 years of Alabama football.

Along with a 29-21 victory over SWC champion Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, significant wins for the Tide came against Georgia, featuring future Heisman Trophy winner Frank Sinkwich, along with Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Miami. In the Cotton Bowl win, halfback Jimmy Nelson returned a punt 72 yards for one touchdown and scored on a 21-yard run for another. Rast, concluding his career, returned an interception for a touchdown and Russ Craft scored twice. After the game, Nelson, Rast and Don Whitmire shared MVP honors.

SUGAR BOWL CHAMPS 1961

As far-fetched as it sounded back when he was recruiting his first class four years before, Paul Bryant's promise of a 1961 national championship proved as accurate as his precise demand for excellence.

Led by quarterback Pat Trammell, center/linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and two-way line star Billy Neighbors, Alabama ascended to the pinnacle of the college football world, winning all 11 games and being named the No. 1 team in America.

Alabama outscored its opponents 297-25 and after Tennessee managed a field goal in a 34-3 loss to the Tide, no one scored again until Arkansas equaled that three-point output in the Sugar Bowl.

North Carolina State, led by future NFL star quarterback Roman Gabriel, fell to the Tide 26-7. The seven points were the most yielded to an opponent during the entire season.

Neighbors was a unanimous All-America selection while Jordan and Trammell were second-team picks. It would be the first of six national title runs for Bear Bryant during his 25-year career at Alabama.

1964 BROADWAY JOE

Gimpy-legged Joe Namath aired his immense talents to a nationally televised audience in the first ever night Orange Bowl game.

Namath and his teammates contended then, and now, that the star quarterback scored what would have been a game winner on a sneak play from the Longhorn six-inch line in the fourth quarter. One official ruled him in, the other out, and in the end it was a 21-17 Texas win.

Despite the controversial loss to Texas, Alabama was the 1964 AP and UPI National Champion. Namath's knee injury vs. North Carolina State gave backup Steve Sloan the chance to lead the Tide to wins over Florida, Tennessee, Mississippi State and LSU. Namath, who came off the bench in the final minutes against Georgia Tech, sparked a 24-7 win over the Yellow Jackets that ended the bitter series for 15 years.

Roy Ogden's unforgettable 108-yard kickoff return and Namath-to-Ray Perkins touchdown pass were key plays in a 21-14 win over Auburn on Thanksgiving Day.

Namath, halfback/kicker David Ray, tackle Dan Kearley and guard Wayne Freeman were named to different All-America teams.

ORANGE BOWL CHAMPS 1965

The 1965 edition of the Alabama Crimson Tide got off to a slow start, losing its first game of the season to Georgia 18-17. The Crimson Tide quickly rebounded with wins over Tulane, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt. Alabama finished off the season with a 30-3 thumping of in-state rival Auburn. This victory also gave the Crimson Tide the SEC title, its second in a row.

The Crimson Tide's season earned the team a No. 4 ranking and an invitation to the 1966 Orange Bowl where they would face the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The national title seemed a long shot for both teams, but with No. 1 Michigan State falling to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and No. 2 Arkansas losing to LSU in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, it appeared that the outcome of the Orange Bowl would decide the national champion.

The teams traded blows for much of the game, but the arm of Steve Sloan proved too much for the Huskers. Sloan went 20-of-28 passing to break the Orange Bowl pass completion record set one year earlier by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan finished the game with 296 passing yards, also setting an Orange Bowl standard and giving Alabama a 39-28 victory and the 1965 national championship.

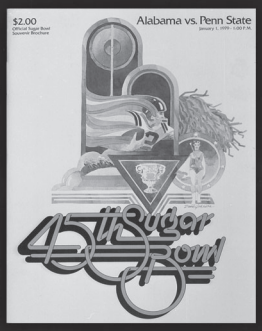
It was the first meeting ever between the two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans tired of all the advanced publicity. It was "The Game" of all-time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final AP rankings.

Alabama finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the UPI champion. Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams in history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.



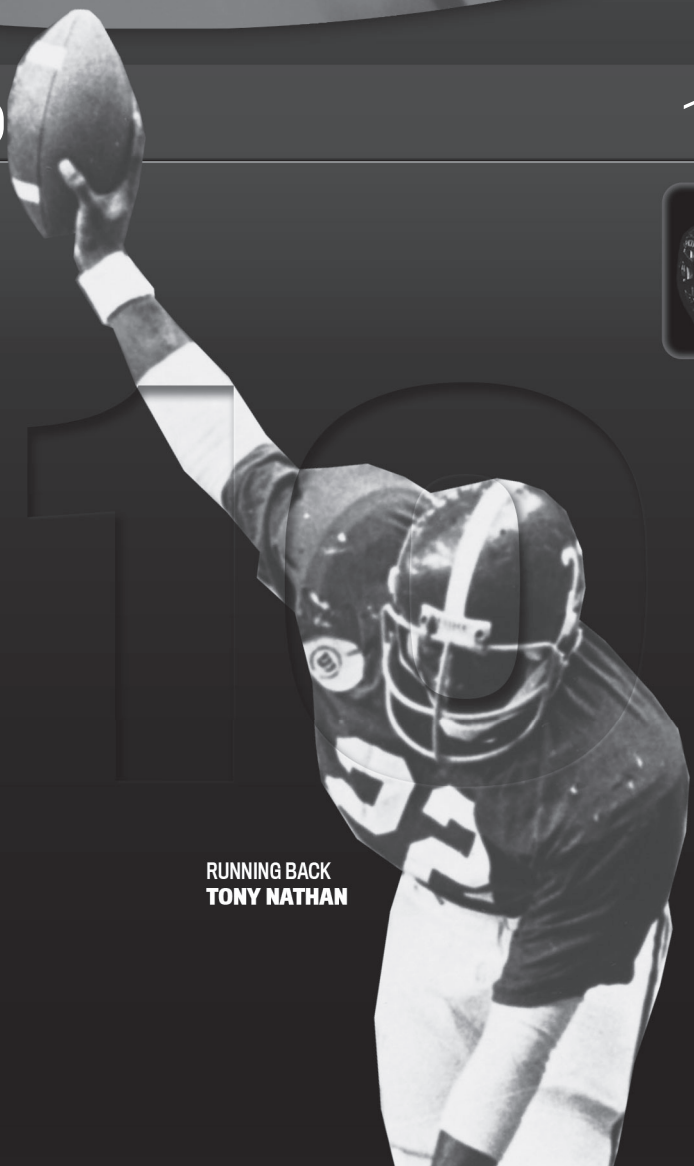
GOAL LINE STAND

1978

Coach Bryant's 1978 Alabama Crimson Tide squad started off the season with a convincing 20-3 win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers in front of a packed house in Birmingham. Alabama went on to win 11 games in 1978. The only loss of the season came at the hands of the USC Trojans in Birmingham in a 28-14 battle. Alabama then tore through eight straight opponents on its way to a No. 2 ranking and a bid to play in the 1979 Sugar Bowl against Joe Paterno's No. 1-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

The game was close and physical all the way to the end of the game with Alabama outgaining Penn State on the ground 208-19 and Penn State outgaining Alabama through the air 163-91. Crimson Tide running back Major Ogilvie was quoted after the game as saying, "It was, by far, the hardest-hitting game I've participated in. There's not even a close second."

Alabama secured the win and the national championship on one of the most legendary plays in Crimson Tide history. On a fourth down and inches play from the Alabama goal line, Joe Paterno called on tailback Matt Guman to take the ball up the middle into the heart of the Crimson Tide defense. Guman was met head on by a host of Alabama defenders, led by All-America linebacker Barry Krauss who stopped Guman inches shy of the goal line to lock up the 14-7 Sugar Bowl victory and the national title.



RUNNING BACK
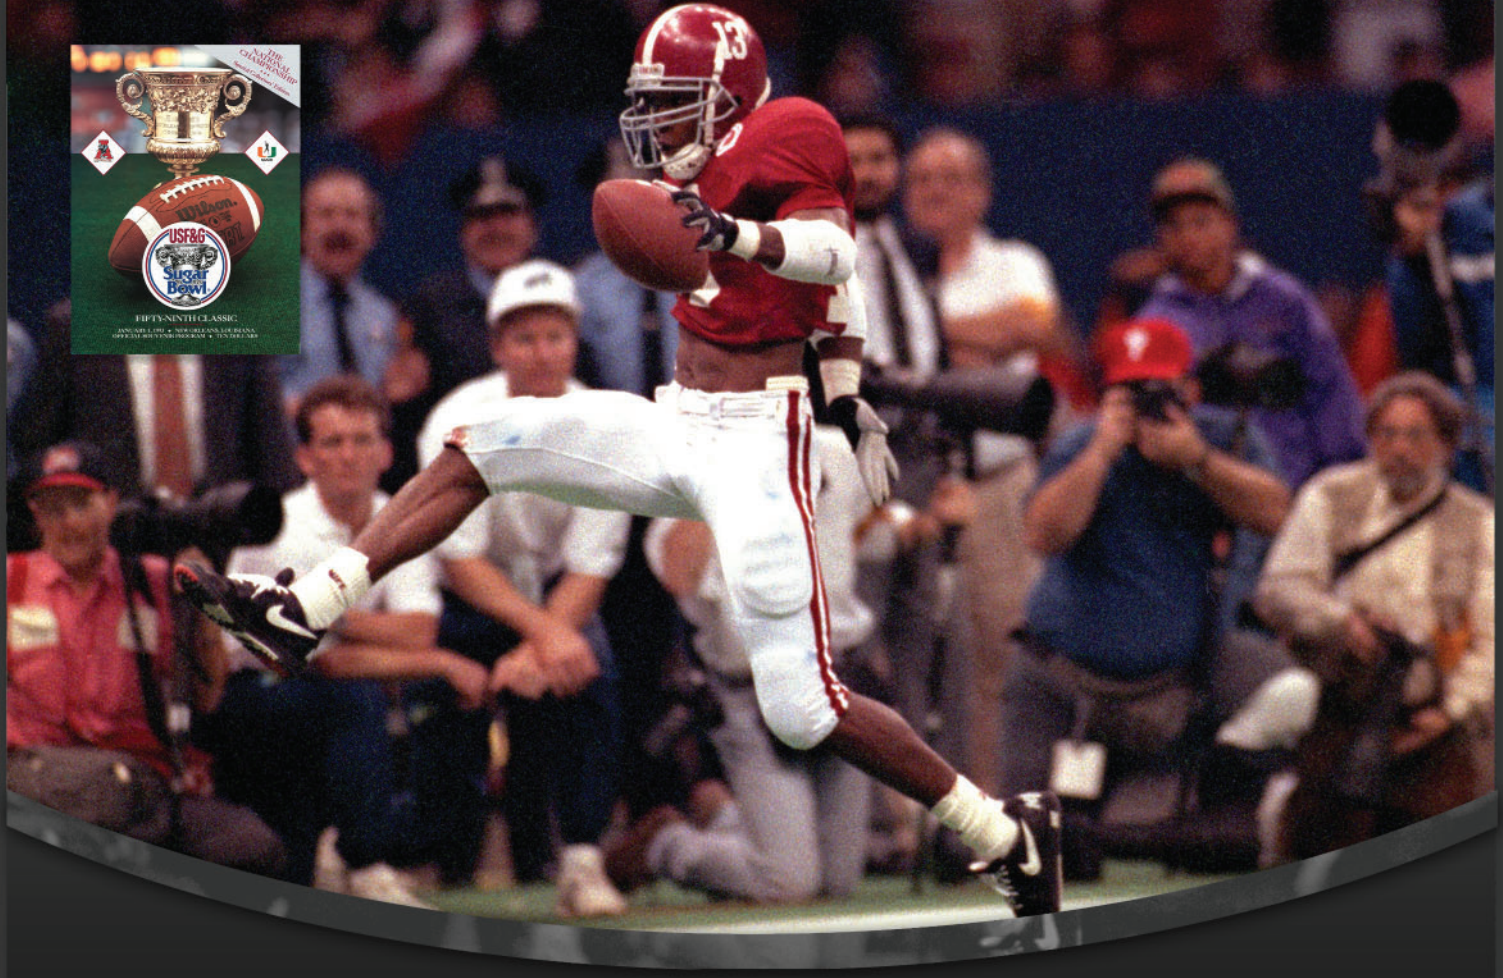
MAJOR OGILVIE

The 1979 Alabama Crimson Tide was fierce to say the least. Alabama's defense posted shutouts against Baylor, Wichita State, Florida, LSU and Miami. Alabama outscored five of its opponents on the season by 30 points or more with the biggest margin of victory coming against Vanderbilt in a 66-3 game. Alabama capped off the undefeated regular season by beating Auburn 25-18 and Miami 30-0.

After its perfect 11-0 regular season, Coach Bryant's Crimson Tide team returned to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans again for the second straight year. This time the Crimson Tide faced its future SEC West rival in the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, who then were a part of the Southwest Conference.

Alabama was led by running back Major Ogilvie as the Tide outgained the Razorbacks 284-97 in rushing yards. Ogilvie scored two touchdowns in a 24-9 victory that gave the Crimson Tide its 11th national title and Bryant his sixth and final championship.



HIGH TIDE

1992

Head Coach Gene Stallings' Crimson Tide team was led in the 1992 season by a tenacious defense that held 10 of its 13 opponents under 12 points. The offense was led by the arm of quarterback Jay Barker who threw for 1,614 yards, and the legs of running back Derrick Lassic, who ran for 905 yards. The Alabama defense had 22 interceptions with defensive backs Antonio Langham and George Teague tied with six a piece.

The Crimson Tide started off the season with a 25-8 win over SEC rival Vanderbilt and continued this winning streak all the way to the Sugar Bowl. Some of the highlights of this perfect season were a 17-10 victory over Tennessee, a 17-0 win against in-state rival Auburn and a 28-21 win over Steve Spurrier's Florida Gators in the SEC Championship Game.

Alabama's perfect regular-season record led them to a No. 2 ranking and another visit to the Sugar Bowl to face 1992 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Geno Torretta and the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes. The Crimson Tide was a heavy underdog to the boisterous Miami team. However, from the opening kickoff to the final whistle Alabama dominated the Hurricanes en route to a 34-13 victory. Alabama finished the season with a 13-0 record and the program's 12th national championship.

Nick Saban's 2009 national championship team had the perfect combination of suffocating defense, a potent rushing attack, a winning quarterback and outstanding special teams. The 2009 team captured the program's 13th national championship and the school's 22nd SEC Championship with a 14-0 record. The Crimson Tide conquered every challenge placed in front of them, including a 32-13 thrashing of top-ranked Florida in the SEC Championship Game and a 37-21 triumph over Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

The Crimson Tide produced a record six first team Associated Press All-Americans and eight first team All-SEC selections. Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner and Rolando McClain claimed the Butkus Award and the Lambert Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker. Ingram set a school record with 1,658 rushing yards with 20 total touchdowns while averaging 189.0 all-purpose yards and nine touchdowns in six games against nationally ranked opponents. McClain led the team with 105 tackles while accounting for 14.5 tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, four pass breakups and 14 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback Greg McElroy completed 61 percent of his passes for 2,508 yards with 17 touchdowns. His 81.25 pass attempts for every interception thrown in 2009 was the second-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning.

Alabama knocked off six top-25 opponents on the way to the national championship with wins over No. 7 Virginia Tech, No. 16 Ole Miss, No. 22 South Carolina, No. 9 LSU, No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Texas. Maybe the Tide's toughest wins came in hotly contested games with rivals Tennessee and Auburn. UA used two blocked field goals by Terrence Cody against the Vols to escape with a 12-10 win and then used a fourth-quarter drive, engineered by McElroy, for a 26-21 win over the Tigers on the Plains.

DOMINATION IN THE DOME 2011

The 2011 Crimson Tide claimed the school's 14th national championship, handing the previously undefeated LSU Tigers a resounding 21-0 loss in the season's title game. It was the first shutout in Bowl Championship Series history and the first time since Miami in 1991 that a team pitched a shutout to secure the national title.

Alabama produced an astounding seven first-team All-Americans, including Mark Barron, Barrett Jones, Dont'a Hightower, Dre Kirkpatrick, DeQuan Menzie, Trent Richardson and Courtney Upshaw. Richardson became Alabama's first Doak Walker Award winner and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting. Jones received the Outland Trophy, the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsmanship Award. Carson Tinker accepted the Disney Spirit Award for the team's efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that ravaged Tuscaloosa.

Richardson set a school record with 1,679 rushing yards to go along with 24 total touchdowns and 21 rushing scores. Hightower led the team with 85 total tackles while Upshaw accounted for a team-high 18 tackles for loss (-90 yards) and 9.5 sacks (-62 yards) plus one interception return for a touchdown, two forced fumbles and 11 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback AJ McCarron completed 66.8 percent of his passes for 2,634 yards with 16 touchdowns. McCarron threw only five interceptions or one every 65.6 pass attempts in 2011, which was the third-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning and Greg McElroy.

Defensively, Alabama put together one of the best seasons in the modern era of college football. The Crimson Tide led the nation in the four major categories: scoring defense (8.2 ppg), total defense (183.6 ypg), rush defense (72.2 ppg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69) while also leading the nation in pass defense at 111.46 ypg. Alabama was only the second team to lead the nation in all four defensive categories and the first since Oklahoma in 1986. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 429.6 yards per game while scoring 34.85 points per game, statistics that ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, in school history.

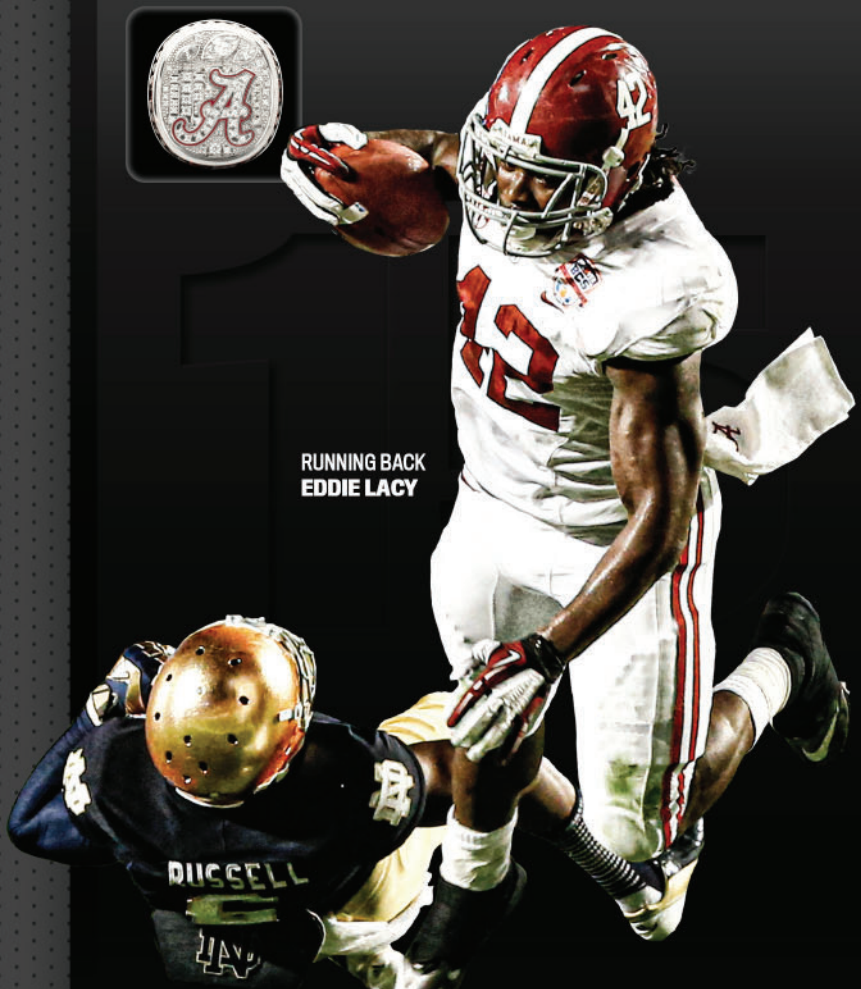
2012 BACK-TO-BACK



The Alabama football team established its dominance early against Notre Dame on its way to an overwhelming performance as the Crimson Tide earned the programs 15th national championship in football with a 42-14 victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game.

Alabama's 2012 senior class won a school record 49 games over a four-year span while losing only five contests. The 49 wins tied Nebraska for the most in college football history and ranks among the best four-year totals in Southeastern Conference history (Florida won 48 games from 2006-09 and Alabama won 48 from 2008-11).

Alabama produced four first team All-Americans in 2012, giving them 22 All-America honors by 19 different players from 2008-12. The 2012 first team All-Americans included Barrett Jones, Dee Milliner, C.J. Mosley and Chance Warmack. D.J. Fluker was also a second-team All-American and AJ McCarron garnered third-team honors. Jones also became Alabama's first William V. Campbell and Rimington Trophy winner.

McCarron led the Alabama offense with a school-record 30 touchdown passes while leading the nation with a 175.28 pass efficiency rating. He threw for 2,933 yards with only three interceptions while completing 67.2 percent of his passes. Lacy led the way on the ground with 1,322 yards and 17 scores. Yeldon added a freshman record 1,108 yards and 12 rushing touchdowns. Cooper led all receivers with a freshman-record 59 receptions for 1,000 yards and 11 scores.

Defensively, Alabama put together another outstanding season, leading the nation in three major categories: scoring defense (10.9 ppg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and rush defense (76.4 ppg). Alabama pitched four shutouts, the most since the 1979 team had five. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 445.5 yards per game while scoring 38.7 points per game. UA's 542 points in 2012 was a school record.

2015

In a top-ranked matchup of contrasting styles, the Alabama Crimson Tide showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th national championship against the Clemson Tigers in the College Football Playoff National Championship by a score of 45-40.

The title, Alabama's fourth in the last seven seasons, concluded a 14-1 year for the Tide while Clemson suffered its first loss of the 2015 campaign. It was head coach Nick Saban's fifth national title, four of which came at UA, joining Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only two coaches in college football history to win at least five national championships during their tenure.

Tight end O.J. Howard caught five passes for a career-high 208 yards on his way to Offensive MVP honors in the season's final game. Jake Coker passed for a career-best 335 yards, while running back Derrick Henry rushed for 158 yards and three scores. Senior Kenyan Drake returned a kickoff for 95 yards and a score to lift the Tide to the 45-40 win in front of 75,756 (capacity: 71,000) at University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

Derrick Henry was the catalyst for the Alabama offense, recording school records in yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), attempts (395) and all-purpose yards (2,310). His 2,219 yards led the nation and shattered the SEC single-season rushing record previously held by Herschel Walker (1,891). First-year starter Jake Coker finished his career at Alabama a perfect 14-0 as the starting quarterback and recorded 3,110 yards through the air along with 21 touchdowns by season's end. His favorite target, Calvin Ridley, set the freshman record for yards with 1,045 receiving, eclipsing the previous freshman record of 1,000 held by Amari Cooper (2012). Ridley hauled in a team-leading 89 catches for a team-high 1,045 yards in 15 games (11 starts) and added seven touchdown catches. In total, the Crimson Tide's offense averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game and 227.1 yards through the air per contest.

Defensively, Alabama checked in as the nation's top-ranked rush defense, third in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense. Possibly the best defense during the Saban era, the Tide recorded 49 sacks, the most by a Saban-coached team and the third-most sacks in program history. The defense also forced and SEC-leading 27 turnovers, 19 of which were interceptions which also led the conference. The 442 return yards on those picks led the nation, while the four pick-sixes by Alabama's secondary ranked second in the NCAA. Senior linebacker and defensive captain Reggie Ragland led the Tide in tackles with 102, while defensive lineman Jonathan Allen paced the defense with 12.0 sacks (-80 yards) and 14.5 tackles for a loss (-92 yards). Eddie Jackson, in his first year as the starting safety, picked off six passes for an Alabama all-time record 230 return yards, including two scores.

The No. 4-ranked University of Alabama football team defeated third-ranked Georgia, 26-23, on a game-winning 41-yard touchdown pass from freshman Tua Tagovailoa to fellow freshman wide receiver DeVonta Smith in the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

The Crimson Tide won its 17th national championship and fifth in the last nine seasons with the win over the Bulldogs. Alabama head coach Nick Saban improved to 12-0 against his former assistants with the win over UGA's Kirby Smart.

Tagovailoa was named Offensive MVP after going 14-of-24 for 166 yards, three scores through the air and 27 yards on the ground, all in the second half.

On defense, junior Da'Ron Payne was named the Defensive MVP with six tackles in the game. Sophomore linebacker Mack Wilson led the team with 12 tackles, including two tackles-for-loss. Senior defensive back Tony Brown and sophomore defensive lineman Raekwon Davis each had an interception in the win.

Georgia received the ball first in the overtime period, starting at the UA 25-yard line. The Alabama defense pushed Georgia back nine yards to the 34-yard line, where the Bulldogs netted a 51-yard field goal attempt to go up 23-20.

Lining up on the UGA 25-yard line in Alabama's first overtime possession, Tagovailoa was sacked on the first play for a 16-yard loss to the 41-yard line. On the next play from scrimmage, Tagovailoa found Smith sprinting down the field for a 41-yard touchdown reception to give Alabama the 26-23 win in thrilling fashion.

SUPREME 18 2020

The Alabama football team won its 18th national championship Monday, January 12, 2021 at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Garden, Fla., in front of 14,926 fans with a dominating 52-24 win over No. 3 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. Alabama finished its season with a clean 13-0 record, while Ohio State fell to 7-1.

In addition to it being the Crimson Tide's 18th national football championship overall, it was Nick Saban's seventh as a head coach, giving him the most in collegiate football history, and his sixth at Alabama. Under Saban, Alabama has posted 50-plus points against Associated Press Top 25 teams on seven occasions, including the Tide's 52-24 win against the Buckeyes in the 2020 National Championship Game. It also marked UA's third 50-plus point effort on the season.

Najee Harris capped off the Tide's opening drive with a one-yard rush to put Alabama on the board first. Master Teague III's eight-yard rushing touchdown evened the score on Ohio State's second drive of the game.

In the second quarter, Mac Jones connected with DeVonta Smith from five yards out to finish off a 75-yard drive for Alabama's second touchdown of the game. Then, Teague III found the end zone for the second time, coming from four yards out, for another rushing score. Harris set the SEC single-season touchdown record (29) on his second score of the game off a 26-yard pass from Jones. Ohio State's Jake Seibert responded with a 23-yard kick through the uprights for the game's first field goal. After that, Smith trotted across the goal line after catching a five-yard pass from Jones for his second touchdown of the game, then he caught a perfectly placed 42-yard pass to give the Tide an 18-point advantage at the half.

Alabama's Will Reichard recorded his 14th field goal in as many attempts, this one from 20 yards out for the first score of the second half. The Buckeyes' Justin Fields tossed a 20-yard pass to Garrett Wilson deep in the end zone for their only receiving score of the game. Closing the third, Slade Bolden became the third different Alabama player to record a receiving touchdown, this one coming off a five-yard pass from Jones.

In the fourth quarter, the Tide's Harris carried for one yard for his second rushing touchdown and third overall in the game to put an exclamation mark on a historic season.

Smith was the game's Offensive MVP after setting championship game records for the most receptions (12) and receiving touchdowns (3), while accounting for 215 of the Crimson Tide's 464 receiving yards, all of which came in the first half. He concluded his Tide career with 3,965 receiving yards, which ranks atop both Alabama's and Southeastern Conference's all-time records.

Smith became the seventh player in the BCS/CFP era to win the Heisman and a national title in the same season.

Christian Barmore was named the Defensive MVP of the game after totaling five tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss in a disruptive performance.

Jones threw for a CFP championship game record 464 yards on 36-of-45 passing, including a CFP championship game record tying five touchdowns. His 36 passes marked a career high for the quarterback. Meanwhile, the 464 yards marked his fifth 400-plus yard performance on the season, owning five of just 11 such performances in Alabama history.

Najee Harris became just the fifth player to score both rushing and receiving touchdowns in a BCS/CFP title game with two on the ground and one through the air. He totaled 158 yards of total offense, including 79 yards rushing on 22 attempts and 79 yards receiving on seven catches in the game. With his performance, Harris recorded 30 total touchdowns during the 2020 season for the most by any Alabama or SEC player ever.

18 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

1925 — 10-0

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Bruce Jones
Fact: Alabama outscored its 10 opponents by a combined total of 297 to 26, shutting out eight teams and clinching national honors with a monumental 20-19 win over Washington in the Rose Bowl.

1926 — 9-0-1

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Emile "Red" Barnes
Fact: The Crimson Tide won its second consecutive national title in impressive style, posting shutouts in six games and not allowing any opponent to score more than seven points in a game.

1930 — 10-0

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Charles B. Clement
Fact: What was perhaps Wallace Wade's greatest team was tested only twice - by Tennessee and Vanderbilt - on the way to an undefeated season in which Alabama outscored opponents by a combined total of 217 to 13. The Tide capped off the season with a 24-0 shellacking of Washington State in the Rose Bowl.

1934 — 10-0

Head Coach: Frank Thomas
8: William Lee
Fact: A tough October win over Tennessee (13-6) paved the way for the Tide's first national title under head coach Frank Thomas. Alabama closed its impressive undefeated season with a 29-13 domination of Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

1941 — 9-2

Head Coach: Frank Thomas
Team Captain: John Wyhonic
Fact: Rated the nation's best team by the Houlgate system, the 1941 Crimson Tide capped a 9-2 season with a remarkable 29-21 win over a powerful Texas A&M team at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

1961 — 11-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Pat Trammell, Billy Neighbors
Fact: A suffocating defense, a steady offense, and opportunistic special teams made this unit impossible to defeat. Alabama shutout six opponents overall, not allowing its final five foes in the regular season to score before capping the season with a 10-3 win over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl.

1964 — 10-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Joe Namath, Ray Ogden
Fact: Awarded the title on a consensus basis at the end of the regular season, this squad eked out close wins over Florida (17-14), LSU (17-9) and Auburn (21-14) to earn the national title. A controversial Orange Bowl loss to Texas, 21-17, was the only blemish on Alabama's glorious season.

1965 — 9-1-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Steve Sloan, Paul Crane
Fact: The nation respected this team so much that the Tide was named consensus national champions despite a season-opening loss at Georgia (18-17) and a midseason tie with Tennessee (7-7). Alabama's stunning 39-28 Orange Bowl win over previously dominant Nebraska removed any doubt of the Tide's legitimacy as national champions.

1973 — 11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Wilbur Jackson, Chuck Strickland
Fact: The last national champions to be crowned at the end of the regular season, the Crimson Tide outscored its first 11 opponents 454 to 89 en route to a showdown in the Sugar Bowl with Notre Dame.

1978 — 11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Marty Lyons, Jeff Rutledge, Tony Nathan
Fact: The Crimson Tide lost only to co-national title contender Southern California in the regular season. Alabama's memorable 14-7 win over Penn State in the Sugar Bowl was the climax of an impressive season.

1979 — 12-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Don McNeal, Steve Whitman
Fact: The consensus national champions outscored their 12 opponents by a total of 383 to 67. After a comeback win over Auburn (25-18) to end the regular season, Alabama dominated Arkansas and leaped to the top of the polls after their win in the Sugar Bowl.

1992 — 13-0

Head Coach: Gene Stallings
Team Captains: Derrick Oden, George Teague, George Wilson, Prince Wimbley
Fact: This team had it all. After a tight win over Florida (28-21) in the SEC title game, Alabama then crushed Miami in the Sugar Bowl to seal the title for its 12th national championship.

2009 — 14-0

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Javier Arenas, Mike Johnson, Rolando McClain
Fact: Two blocked field goals propelled the Tide to a midseason win over Tennessee and into the SEC Championship Game where they exacted revenge on Florida with a dominating 32-13 win. UA then blitzed Texas in the BCS National Championship Game, 37-21.

2011 — 12-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Mark Barron, Dont'a Hightower, Trent Richardson
Fact: Alabama overcame an early November overtime loss to No. 1 LSU and earned a rematch in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game. In the Bayou Bengals' backyard, the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, the Crimson Tide won the title with a 21-0 shutout, which was the first in BCS history.

2012 — 13-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Barrett Jones, Damion Square, Chance Warmack
Fact: Alabama posted a last-minute comeback to win at No. 5 LSU and escaped with a dramatic 32-28 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game. The Crimson Tide then rolled over No. 1 Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game, 42-14, for the program's 15th title.

2015 — 14-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Jake Coker, Derrick Henry, Ryan Kelly, Reggie Ragland
Fact: In a top-ranked matchup of contrasting styles, Alabama showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th national championship against the Clemson Tigers in the College Football Playoff National Championship by a score of 45-40. It was head coach Nick Saban's fifth national title, four of which came at UA, joining Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only two coaches in college football history to win at least five national championships during their tenure.

2017 — 13-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Bradley Bozeman, Rashaan Evans, Minkah Fitzpatrick, Shaun Dion Hamilton
Fact: In a matchup of SEC foes, No. 4 Alabama rallied from a 20-7 third quarter deficit to defeat No. 3 Georgia, 26-23, in the first overtime game in College Football Playoff history as Tua Tagovailoa found fellow freshman DeVonta Smith for a game-winning 41-yard scoring strike in the first extra session.

2020 — 13-0

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Landon Dickerson, Mac Jones, Alex Leatherwood, DeVonta Smith
Fact: Alabama recorded 621 yards of total offense to defeat No. 3 Ohio State (52-24), earning its 18th national title and its sixth under head coach Nick Saban. It marked just the 11th time in program history the Crimson Tide eclipsed the 600-plus yard marker and the second time on the season. In the process, DeVonta Smith broke the CFP National Championship Game record for most receiving yards in a half (215), and he became the first player to have three receiving touchdowns in a CFP National Championship Game and the most receptions with 12.

A TRADITION OF CHAMPIONS

6 HONORS & AWARDS

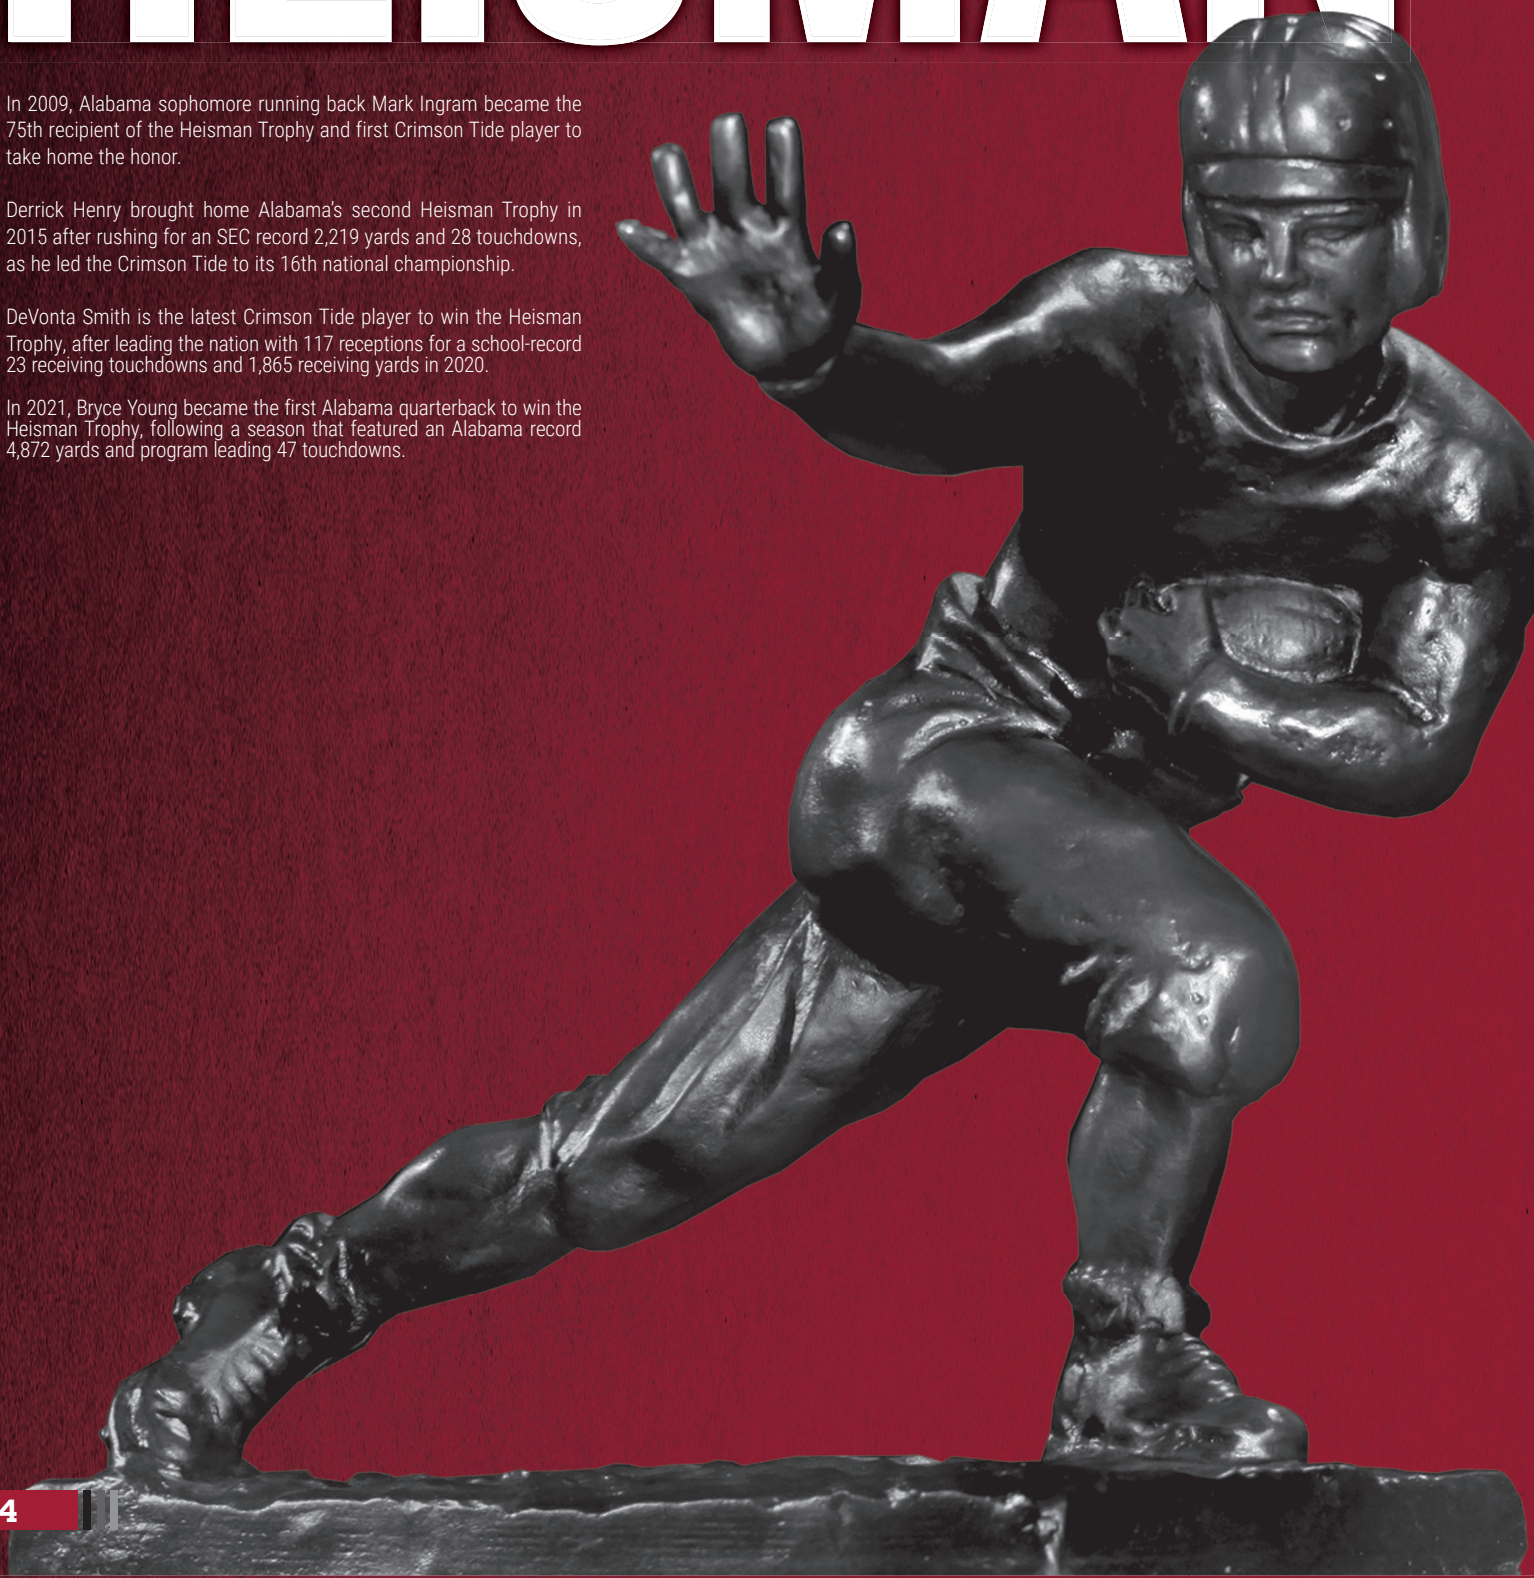
THE HEISMAN

In 2009, Alabama sophomore running back Mark Ingram became the 75th recipient of the Heisman Trophy and first Crimson Tide player to take home the honor.

Derrick Henry brought home Alabama's second Heisman Trophy in 2015 after rushing for an SEC record 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns, as he led the Crimson Tide to its 16th national championship.

DeVonta Smith is the latest Crimson Tide player to win the Heisman Trophy, after leading the nation with 117 receptions for a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns and 1,865 receiving yards in 2020.

In 2021, Bryce Young became the first Alabama quarterback to win the Heisman Trophy, following a season that featured an Alabama record 4,872 yards and program leading 47 touchdowns.



Alabama boasts a rich and storied football history. The Crimson Tide has won an NCAA-leading 18 national championships to go with 33 conference championships, while also producing 144 first team All-Americans, 26 members of the College Football Hall of Fame and numerous national award winners. But, until 2009, Alabama had never laid claim to the most celebrated and sought-after award in college athletics – the Heisman Trophy. The Heisman is a national symbol of the collegiate football experience and unmatched competitiveness. The Crimson Tide had been represented by numerous finalists over the years, but none of the first 74 Heisman Trophies found a home in Tuscaloosa.

All of that changed as a sophomore from Flint, Mich., burst into the nation's consciousness in 2009, breaking tackles all the way to the Nokia Theater in New York City's Times Square where Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner. He edged out Stanford's Toby Gerhart by 28 points to capture the most coveted award in college football, tallying 1,304 points and 227 first-place votes in the closest Heisman Trophy vote in the award's history.

The Crimson Tide collected its second Heisman Trophy in 2015 as Derrick Henry, a native of Yulee, Fla., set the SEC rushing record with 2,219 yards on his way to victory. Henry earned 1,832 points to capture the Heisman, including 378 first-place votes that outdistanced Stanford's Christian McCaffrey by 293 points with Deshaun Watson third (1,165 points).

Alabama's third Heisman came from an unlikely suspect as DeVonta Smith became the first wide receiver to hear his name called since Desmond Howard in 1991. Smith was joined by Alabama teammates in quarterback Mac Jones (third, 1,130 points) and running back Najee Harris (fifth, 216 points) in the top five, becoming just the second trio of teammates to finish in the top five in the award's history (Army, 1946).

In 2021, Bryce Young helped the Crimson Tide produce back-to-back Heisman Trophy winners with his 684 first-place votes, the 10th most all-time, and 2,311 total points. He made history at the award show, becoming the first Alabama quarterback to garner the highest indiviudal honor in collegiate sports. It also marked just the fifth instance a school has had two straight Heisman winners. Moreover, the Tide signal caller was just the fifth sophomore to haul in the distinguished prize all time, sharing that record with Sam Bradford, Lamar Jackson, Mark Ingram and Tim Tebow.

Ingram, Henry, Smith and Young are among 15 players in Southeastern Conference history to win the Heisman Trophy as the SEC has produced eight in the last 15 years, joining 2007 winner Tim Tebow (Florida), 2010 winner Cam Newton (Auburn), 2012 winner Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M) and 2019 winner Joe Burrow (LSU). Other SEC winners include Frank Sinkwich (Georgia, 1942), Billy Cannon (LSU, 1959), Steve Spurrier (Florida, 1966), Pat Sullivan (Auburn, 1971), Herschel Walker (Georgia, 1982), Bo Jackson (Auburn, 1985) and Danny Wuerffel (Florida, 1996).

Ingram produced a 2009 season that was one for the Alabama football history books. He rushed for a then-school-record 1,658 yards with 20 total touchdowns in 14 games for a 118.43 yards per game average to rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC. Ingram added 30 receptions for 322 yards and three scores. His 1,992 all-purpose yards ranked as the third-highest single-season total in school history at the time. Ingram also gained an astonishing 1,075 yards - or 54 percent of his all-purpose yards - after contact. His numbers climbed even higher when the Crimson Tide's opponent was ranked in the top 25, accounting for 1,134 all-purpose yards, or 189.0 yards per game, in six games against top-25 foes, including four against top-10 teams.

Henry's 2,219 yards in his junior campaign were the fifth-best rushing total by a running back in the history of the Football Bowl Subdivision following the '15 season. He also set school records for rushing touchdowns (28), rushing yards per game (147.9), all-purpose yards (2,310), carries (395) and points scored (168). Henry seemed to play even better against the best competition, averaging 138.8 yards per game (10 games) against teams with rush defenses ranked in the top 50 and 166.6 yards per game against teams ranked in the top 25 (nine).

Smith led the nation in receptions (117), receiving touchdowns (23) and receiving yards (1,856) in 2020, setting school records in each category and claiming the SEC records for touchdowns and receiving yards. He averaged 142.8 receiving yards per game and converted a first down or scored a touchdown on 85 of his 117 catches. He also scored a rushing touchdown and returned a punt for a score at Arkansas. He was a unanimous All-American, while also capturing the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Associated Press Player of the Year, the Biletnikoff Award and the Paul Hornung Award.

In 2021, Young set the Alabama single-season records for passing yards (4,872) and touchdowns (47), while he also led the SEC and ranked second nationally in both of those categories. In fact, throughout his sophomore season, his performances set a handful of other Crimson Tide records, too, which are not limited to: Becoming the first Alabama quarterback in their starting debut to record four touchdown passes when he did so against Miami; breaking the school record for best completion percentage in a single game (minimum of 20 completions) twice in 2021, including his completion of 21-of-23 (.913) passes against New Mexico State; and setting the Alabama record for passing yards in a game with 559 against Arkansas.

Known as the DAC Trophy when it first was presented to Jay Berwagner, the legendary "one man gang" of the University of Chicago on Dec. 9, 1935, the bronze statue depicts a football player side-stepping and straight arming a tackler. Cast in the highly artistic method known as the lost wax process of bronze medal molding, the statue weighs 45 pounds and is 14 inches long, 13 and a half inches in height and six and a half inches in width. It was designed by New York sculptor Frank Eliscu, who was commissioned by the Downtown Athletic Club to create a figure of a football player in imperishable bronze to serve as an annual trophy award. Eliscu used his friend, Ed Smith, a starter on the New York University Football team, as the player model for his initial creations.

However, reference to the award as the DAC Trophy was only used once. Following the death of John Heisman in October of 1936 (Heisman at the time was the Director of Athletics at the Downtown Athletic Club), the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy. Today, the annual award involves the use of two statues. One is presented to the college football player selected for excellence and this remains the permanent possession of the winner. A second trophy is awarded to the school represented by the winner.

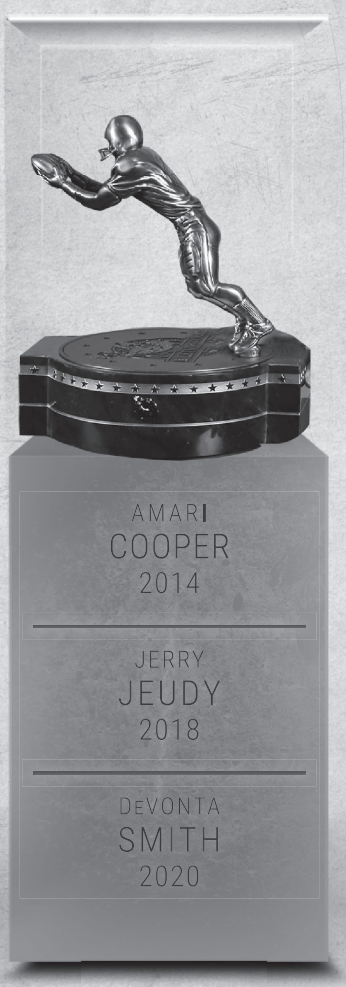
CHUCK BEDNARIK AWARD

Created in 1995, the Chuck Bednarik Award is presented annually to the top defensive player in college football as chosen by the Maxwell Football Club. The award is named for Chuck Bednarik, a former college and professional American football player. Voters for the Maxwell College Football Awards are NCAA head college football coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club, and sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country. Jonathan Allen became the Crimson Tide's first recipient in 2016 and was followed one year later by Minkah Fitzpatrick as the award's 2017 honoree. Will Anderson Jr. was the most recent winner, taking home the honors as part of his haul in 2022.

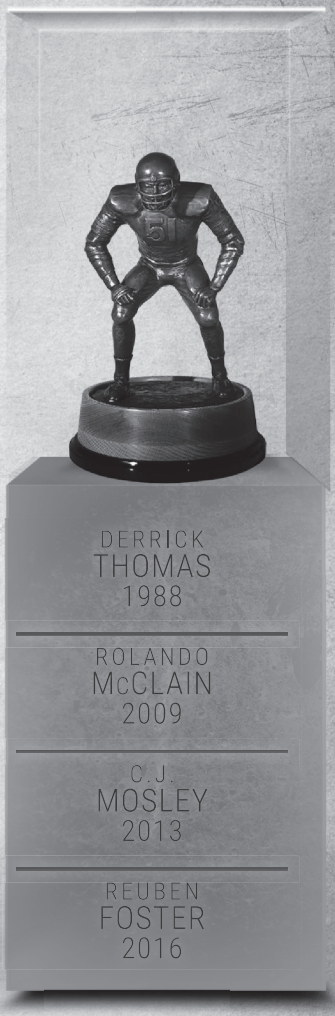


BILETNIKOFF AWARD

The Biletnikoff Award is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding college football receiver (the award defines receiver as any player who catches a pass) by the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation, Inc. The award is named for Fred Biletnikoff, who starred for Florida State and then the Oakland Raiders. Amari Cooper was the first Alabama football player to win the Award (2014) after a record-setting season with 124 catches for 1,727 yards and 16 touchdowns. Jerry Jeudy joined Cooper in 2018 after putting up similar numbers, with 14 touchdowns and 1,315 receiving yards. DeVonta Smith received the honor in 2020 after leading the nation with 117 receptions to go with a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns and 1,865 receiving yards.

BROYLES AWARD

The Frank Broyles Award was established to recognize some of the most dedicated, hardest-working people in America – the college football assistant coach. And, over the years, the award has done just that. Each head coach can nominate one assistant coach from his staff, while the five Broyles Award finalists are chosen from almost 1,500 assistant coaches representing the College Football Bowl Subdivision. Kirby Smart became Alabama's first Broyles Award Recipient in 2009. Mike Locksley was UA's second in 2018 after guiding one of the nation's top offenses to a national championship appearance. Steve Sarkisian was the winner of the 25th annual Broyles Award, helping Alabama to its 18th national title with the Power 5's top-ranked scoring offense (48.5 ppg) and pass efficiency offense (198.9). All three assistants would go on to become collegiate head coaches following their time in Tuscaloosa.



BUTKUS AWARD

Created in 1985, the Butkus Award is given annually to college football's top linebacker. The award is named in honor of College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame linebacker Dick Butkus, widely regarded as one of the best linebackers of all time and a star at the University of Illinois and for the Chicago Bears. A 1979 inductee of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Butkus played in the NFL for the Chicago Bears and earned a reputation as one of the most intimidating players in the history of the game. The late Derrick Thomas was the first Alabama player to take home the Butkus in 1988. He was followed by Rolando McClain (2009), C.J. Mosley (2013) and most recently Reuben Foster (2016).

WALTER CAMP PLAYER OF THE YEAR

The Walter Camp Trophy is awarded to the outstanding player of the year in college football who has exemplified the qualities of self-discipline, unselfish team play, a desire to excel, mature judgement and respect for leadership. His performance on the playing field must be accompanied by an equally strong effort to contribute off the field. He must exhibit an awareness of the need to fulfill his role as a leader. He must espouse the ideals adhered to by Walter Camp, the "Father of American Football." Derrick Henry brought home Alabama's first Walter Camp Player of the Year honor in 2015 after rushing for 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns. Tua Tagovailoa became the second recipient in 2018 after passing 3,966 yards and 43 touchdowns. DeVonta Smith was the winner in 2020 after leading the nation with 117 receptions for a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns and 1,865 receiving yards.

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

The William V. Campbell Trophy has become the most prestigious and desirable "academic" award in college football. The trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership. The finalists receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class. The winner of the Campbell Trophy has his postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000. Alabama offensive lineman Barrett Jones was the sixth Alabama player selected as a finalist and became the program's first winner in 2012.

DISNEY SPIRIT AWARD

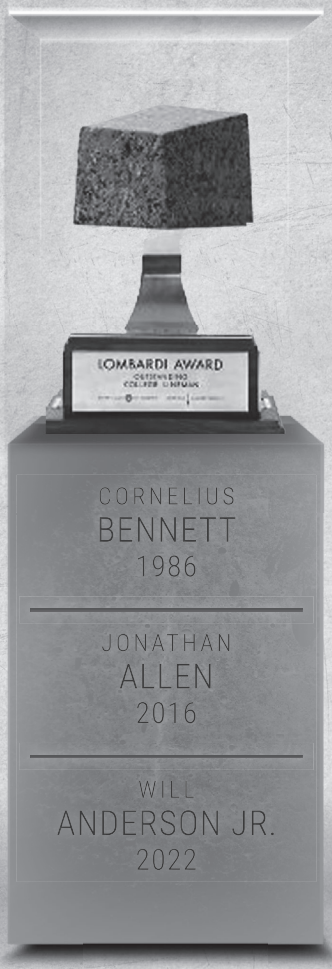
The Disney Sports Spirit Award has been presented each year since 1996 to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure. The Alabama football team, represented by Carson Tinker, was recognized for its efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that tore through Tuscaloosa. The award is not based on statistics or other on-field records or achievements, but rather for bravery, courage, overcoming adversity, and the love of college football.

JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM

The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award is given annually to the nation's most outstanding senior or fourth-year quarterback in college football. It was established in 1987 by a foundation named for Johnny Unitas, the Hall of Fame quarterback who played at the University of Louisville before going on to a legendary career for the NFL's Baltimore Colts. Jay Barker (1994) and AJ McCarron (2013) both captured the award during their senior seasons at Alabama. Mac Jones received the honor in 2020 after setting Alabama's all-time single-season record for passing yards with 4,500 yards.

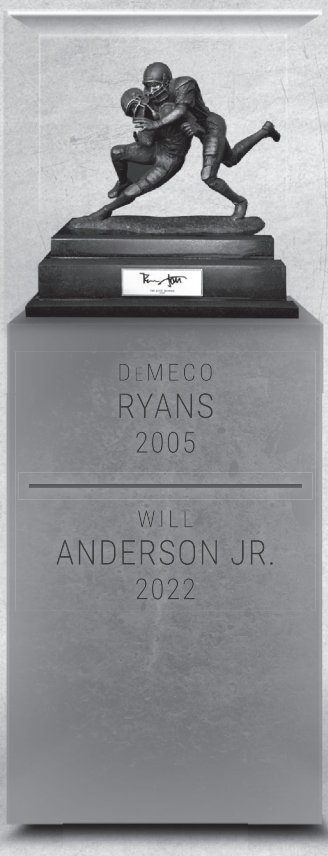
TED HENDRICKS AWARD

Created in 2002, the Ted Hendricks Award is given annually to college football's top defensive end. The award is named after Ted Hendricks, who is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame and is presented by the Ted Hendricks Foundation. Jonathan Allen became Alabama's first recipient of the award following a dominant 2016 season.



LOMBARDI AWARD

Begun in 1970, the Lombardi Award is hosted by the Rotary Club of Houston and benefits the American Cancer Society. The award goes annually to the college football lineman on offense or defense that, in addition to outstanding performance and ability, best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi. As the legendary coach of the Green Bay Packers, Lombardi first made a name for himself as the smallest but toughest member of Fordham University's "Seven Blocks of Granite," renowned in their day (1934-37) for being the most unyielding line in college football. Cornelius Bennett (1986), Jonathan Allen (2016) and Will Anderson Jr. (2022) each claimed the Lombardi during their Crimson Tide careers.



LOTT TROPHY

The Lott Trophy is presented annually to the college football Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. IMPACT is an acronym for: Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. The award recognizes the personal character of the winning player as well as athletic excellence and is named in honor Ronnie Lott, a defensive back who starred at Southern California and for the NFL's San Francisco 49ers. Lott is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame. DeMeco Ryans was the first Alabama player to earn the honor in 2005. Will Anderson Jr. then became the second Lott winner in UA history when he took home the honors in 2022.

MAXWELL AWARD

The Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award to the College Football Player of the Year. This award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. The award has been given annually since 1937 when Yale's Clint Frank was honored. The Maxwell Award is voted on by head coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club and sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country. Tua Tagovailoa became Alabama's third winner in 2018, joining AJ McCarron (2013) and Derrick Henry (2015). DeVonta Smith was Alabama's fourth winner in 2020 thanks to his record-setting senior season. The very next season, Bryce Young received the honor to become the fifth Alabama player in just nine years to claim the award.

JOE MOORE AWARD

The Joe Moore Foundation for Teamwork awarded Alabama the inaugural Joe Moore Award in 2015 and then presented the Tide with the trophy again in 2020. It is given annually to college football's best offensive line unit. The award is designed to preserve the legacy of Joe Moore, who coached most notably at Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. Moore was responsible for developing the skills of several All-Americans throughout his storied career, including Bill Fralic, Mark May, Russ Grimm, Jimbo Covert, Mark Stepnowski, Aaron Taylor and Andy Heck. Coach Moore sent 52 players on to the NFL, several of whom are in the Pro and College Football Hall of Fame.

BRONKO NAGURSKI TROPHY

The Bronko Nagurski Trophy has been awarded annually since 1993 to the top defensive player in college football as voted on by the membership of the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). The award is presented by the Charlotte Touchdown Club and the FWAA and is named for Bronko Nagurski, who played football for the University of Minnesota and the Chicago Bears. Jonathan Allen became the first Alabama football player to win the Bronko Nagurski Trophy in 2016. Will Anderson Jr. received the award in 2021, leading the nation in tackles for loss with 34.5 (-148) and sacks 17.5 sacks (-108). Anderson Jr. then won the Nagurski for a second consecutive season in 2022, becoming just the second two-time winner in the trophy's 30-year history.

OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy is awarded to the best United States college football interior lineman by the Football Writers Association of America. It is named after John H. Outland, one of a select few players ever named All-America at two positions. Outland earned consensus All-America honors in 1898 at tackle and consensus All-America honors at halfback in 1899 for the University of Pennsylvania. Alex Leatherwood became Alabama's sixth winner in 2020, joining Quinnen Williams (2018), Cam Robinson (2016), Chris Samuels (1999), Andre Smith (2008) and Barrett Jones (2011).

RIMINGTON TROPHY

The Rimington Trophy was created to recognize the most outstanding center in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The trophy is named after former Nebraska center Dave Rimington, who won the Outland Trophy in consecutive years, was a two-time first team All-American and the 1982 Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year. The trophy is presented by the Boomer Esiason Foundation, which was created when his son, Gunnar, was diagnosed with cystic fibrosis. The Rimington Trophy has played a major role in raising money to support the CF community and is essential in honoring one of the most pivotal roles on the football field. Landon Dickerson became Alabama's third winner in 2020 after Ryan Kelly (2015) and Barrett Jones (2012) each captured the honors before him.

JIM THORPE AWARD

Created in 1986, the Jim Thorpe Award is presented each season to the top defensive back in college football. Winners are judged on their performance on the field, athletic ability and character. The award is named for Jim Thorpe, an Olympic gold medalist in 1912 who also played professional football, baseball and basketball. His football prowess enabled tiny Carlisle College to become a national college football power early in the 20th century. Thorpe was widely considered the world's greatest athlete of the first half of the 20th Century. Antonio Langham was the first Crimson Tide player to garner Thorpe honors in 1993. He was followed by Minkah Fitzpatrick, with the versatile defensive back taking home the Thorpe in 2017.

DOAK WALKER AWARD

Created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community, the Doak Walker Award is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification. The award is named after famed SMU running back Doak Walker, a three-time All-American and the 1948 Heisman Trophy winner. Trent Richardson became the first Alabama player to win the award in 2011 after rushing for 1,679 yards and 21 touchdowns. Derrick Henry was the second Crimson Tide player to see his name etched on the trophy in 2015 after rushing for an SEC-record 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns. Najee Harris received the honor in 2020 after leading the nation in total touchdowns (30), rushing touchdowns (26) and scoring (180).

WUERFFEL TROPHY

The Wuerffel Trophy is presented by the All Sports Association of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement. It is named for former University of Florida quarterback Danny Wuerffel, the 1996 Heisman Trophy winner. Barrett Jones became the first Alabama player to take home the Wuerffel when he was named the winner in 2011.

POLYNESIAN AWARD

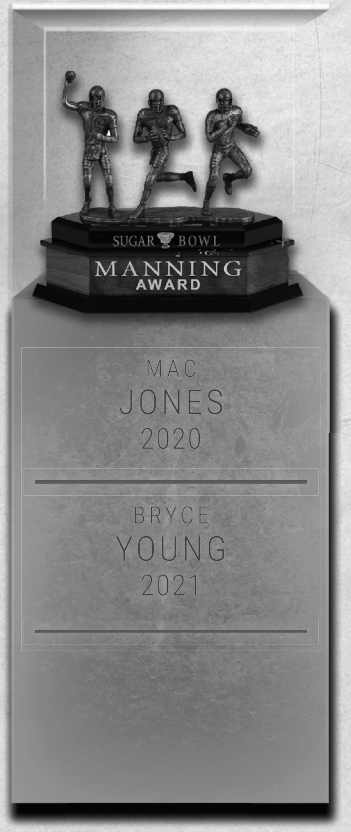
The Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award recognizes the most outstanding player of Polynesian ancestry who epitomizes great ability and integrity. The Polynesian Football Hall of Fame honors Polynesia's greatest players, coaches and contributors. It also serves as a resource for Polynesian football history, provides academic scholarships and supports educational programs for Polynesian youth. Its permanent home is located at the Polynesian Cultural Center (Oahu's North Shore) and was established in 2013 by Super Bowl Champions Jesse Sapolu and Ma'a Tanuvasa. Tua Tagovailoa earned the honors in back-to-back seasons in 2018 and 2019.

DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

The Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award is the nation's oldest national quarterback award. The Fort Worth Club established the Davey O'Brien Foundation and the Davey O'Brien Memorial Trophy in November of 1977. The Davey O'Brien Award honors candidates who exemplify Davey O'Brien's enduring character while exhibiting teamwork, sportsmanship and leadership in both academics and athletics. Mac Jones was the first Alabama quarterback to earn this award, doing so after setting Alabama's then-single-season record for passing yards with 4,500 in 2020. Bryce Young followed up with an even more impressive season, topping Jones' record with 4,872 passing yards and adding 47 touchdown passes to earn the Tide a second O'Brien.

PAUL HORNUNG AWARD

The Paul Hornung Award is given annually by the Louisville Sports Commission (LSC) to the most versatile player in major college football. The Award was created by the LSC in January 2010 with the support of the Golden Boy himself, Paul Hornung, a native and lifelong resident of Louisville and member of the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame. DeVonta Smith brought home Alabama's first Paul Hornung Award after converting 60 percent of his receptions into scores or first downs and leading the nation with 117 receptions to go with a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns and a school-record 1,865 receiving yards in 2020.



MANNING AWARD

Prior to the 2004 college football season, the Manning Award was created by the Allstate Sugar Bowl in honor of the college football accomplishments of Archie, Peyton and Eli Manning. It is the only college football quarterback award that includes the candidates' bowl performances in its balloting; therefore, it is presented annually following the completion of the bowl season. Mac Jones won UA's first Manning Award after leading the nation and setting the Alabama single-season record by passing for 4,500 yards in 2020. Just one year later, Bryce Young received the Manning in 2021, breaking Jones' single-season record for passing yards (4,872) and also setting the Alabama single-season record for touchdown passes (47).

PATRICK MANNELLY AWARD

The Patrick Mannelly Award, presented by William Blair, annually celebrates the best long snapper in college football. Thomas Fletcher earned the 2020 Patrick Mannelly Award after starting every game during his Alabama career and recording a perfect grade on all of his snapping duties across four seasons at the Capstone.

ALEXANDER FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

Shaun Alexander is a former All-Pro running back. He finished a four-year career with the Crimson Tide holding 15 records including 3,565 career rushing yards and the most touchdowns (five) in a game. He was drafted by Seattle as the 19th overall pick in the 2000 NFL Draft, and, in his second season, had a breakout year with 1,318 yards and 14 touchdowns, including a franchise-record 266 yards on 35 carries in a memorable ESPN Sunday Night Football game against Oakland. Will Anderson Jr. won the Tide's first Shaun Alexander-FWAA Freshman of the Year honor after dominating in his first season at the Capstone. He totaled 52 tackles, including 10.5 for loss and seven sacks, to go with eight quarterback pressures.

ASSOCIATED PRESS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

DeVonta Smith won Alabama's first Associated Press College Football Player of the Year, picking up the honor in 2020. He became the first wide receiver to win the award since it was established in 1998. Smith finished his senior season as the only receiver in SEC history to record multiple career games with four-or-more receiving touchdowns, while also holding the league record for career receiving touchdowns (46) and career receiving yards (3,965). In 2020, he led the nation in receptions (117), receiving touchdowns (23) and receiving yards (1,856). Bryce Young earned the honor just one year later in 2021, after setting the Alabama single-season marks for passing yards (4,872) and touchdowns (47).

SYLVESTER CROOM

ALABAMA, 1972-74

Former Alabama center and assistant coach Sylvester Croom was selected as part of the 2022 College Football Hall of Fame class, the National Football Foundation announced January 10, 2022. An All-American for the Crimson Tide in 1974, Croom was one of 18 players and three coaches to make up the 2022 list of inductees. He was also the 22nd Alabama player in program history to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

- A native of Tuscaloosa, Croom was a standout center for the Crimson Tide from 1972-74
- Helped the Crimson Tide to an impressive 32-4 record during his time at the Capstone, a run that included three consecutive conference titles, three top-10 finishes in the polls and the 1973 UPI national championship
- Selected as a first team All-SEC and All-America honoree in 1974 while also winning the SEC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the conference's top offensive lineman that year
- Spent the 1975 season with the NFL's New Orleans Saints before returning to Tuscaloosa to begin his storied coaching career
- Served on the UA staff from 1976-86 under Paul 'Bear' Bryant and Ray Perkins before moving on to coaching in the NFL from 1987-2003
- Made history as the SEC's first African-American head football coach when he was hired at Mississippi State in 2004 and would go on to be named the SEC Coach of the Year in 2007
- Following five seasons at MSU, Croom returned to the NFL as an assistant coach before retiring following the 2017 season
- Also inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2020 while having the Crimson Tide's spring 'Sylvester Croom Commitment to Excellence Award' named in his honor

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

NFL DRAFT

Names such as Shaun Alexander, Cornelius Bennett, Joe Namath, Chris Samuels, Kenny Stabler and Derrick Thomas have starred on the NFL gridiron after their career at the Capstone. The most recent history of the draft has been dominated by Alabama, as the Crimson Tide has produced 44 first round draft picks and 123 total picks over the last 15 years. That total is the most by any program in college football during that span.

This past season, the Crimson Tide saw three former standouts go in the first round including Alabama's first No. 1 overall selection in the modern era of the draft. Bryce Young was the first pick by the draft by the Carolina Panthers with outside linebacker Will Anderson Jr. going third to the Houston Texans before running back Jahmyr Gibbs was selected 12th overall by the Detroit Lions. Alabama has had at least one player selected in the first round of 15 straight drafts (2009 – present), which breaks Miami's (1995-08) NCAA record for the most consecutive years with a first round draft pick.

The remainder of the 2023 NFL Draft saw seven more Alabama players selected, including safety Brian Branch (No. 45, Detroit Lions), offenisve lineman Tyler Steen (No. 65, Philadelphia Eagles), defensive lineman Byron Young (No. 70, Las Vegas Raiders), safety Jordan Battle (No. 95, Cincinnati Bengals), tight end Cameron Latu (No. 101, San Francisco 49ers), linebacker Henry To'oTo'o (No. 167 Houston Texans) and DeMarcco Hellams (No. 224, Atlanta Falcons).

The Crimson Tide has had at least seven draft picks for 12 straight years (2012 – present).

HALL OF FAME

DON HUTSON
1963

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1935-45
ALABAMA 1932-34

Don Hutson could outmaneuver and outrace virtually every defender in the league. He led the NFL in receiving in eight of his 11 seasons and in scoring five straight years. Twice, in 1941 and 1942, he was named the league's MVP.

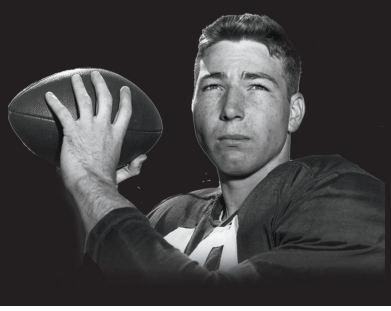
When Hutson retired in 1945 after 11 superb seasons, he held 18 NFL records, including 488 career receptions.

BART STARR
1977

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1956-71
ALABAMA 1952-55

Bart Starr was a 17th-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1956. Three years later, his playing time still was limited and his football future appeared in doubt. That's when Vince Lombardi took over as the Packers coach, an event that may have saved Starr's NFL career.

Lombardi, in tireless study of films, found that he liked Bart's mechanics, his arm, his ball-handling techniques and, most of all, his decision-making abilities. Under Lombardi's careful nurturing, Starr gained the confidence to become one of the NFL's great field leaders.



JOE NAMATH
1985

NEW YORK JETS 1965-76
ALABAMA 1962-64

Joe Namath is best remembered for his performance in the New York Jets' stunning 16-7 upset of the heavily favored Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III. However, during his 13-year tenure from 1965 through 1977 he was one of the game's most exciting, proficient and publicized quarterbacks.

Namath earned all-league accolades four times in his career (1967, 1968, 1969, and 1972) and was named to the all-time AFL honor team in 1969. He also was elected to four AFL all-star games and one AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

JOHN
HANNAH
1991

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 1973-85
ALABAMA 1970-72

John Hannah, a guard from Alabama, was the first-round pick of the New England Patriots and the fourth player selected in the 1973 NFL Draft. He was an eight-letterman star in football, track and wrestling and a two-time gridiron All-America at Alabama. Hannah finished his career after the 1985 season on a high note. His final campaign had produced an AFC championship and Super Bowl XX appearance for the Patriots, and All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for the veteran lineman.

DWIGHT
STEPHENSON
1998

MIAMI DOLPHINS 1980-87
ALABAMA 1977-79

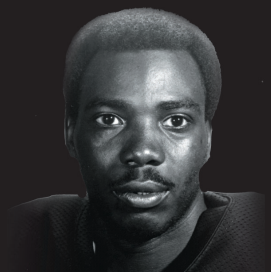
Dwight Stephenson was born Nov. 20, 1957, in Murfreesboro, N.C. He was a quiet, intense, hard-working and competitive offensive lineman out of the University of Alabama. He was an exceptionally quick blocker and possessed an explosive charge off the snap. Stephenson was the Dolphins offensive captain and his presence as the anchor of the offensive line was a major factor in the Dolphins' record of allowing the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL for six straight years.

OZZIE
NEWSOME
1999

CLEVELAND BROWNS 1978-90
ALABAMA 1974-77

Throughout his 13-season, 198-game NFL career with the Cleveland Browns from 1978 to 1990, Ozzie Newsome was a fixture at tight end, a true team leader in every respect, and one of only five players in Browns history to play in parts of three decades.

Nicknamed the "Wizard of Oz," Newsome became the leading tight end receiver in NFL history with 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. He ranked as the fourth-leading receiver when he retired. Newsome is now the general manager of the Baltimore Ravens.



DERRICK
THOMAS
2009

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS 1989-99
ALABAMA 1985-88

Derrick Thomas displayed extraordinary pass-rushing skills throughout his 11-season career that tragically was cut short by his death following an automobile accident shortly after the 1999 NFL regular season.

No player amassed more sacks during the decade of 1990s than the 116.5 sacks by Thomas. He finished his career with 126.5 sacks, which was the fourth-highest total by a linebacker in NFL history. Thomas had 10 or more sacks in a season seven times and recorded multi-sack games 27 times during his 169-game career.

KENNY
2015

OAKLAND RAIDERS 1970-79
ALABAMA 1965-67

A four-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time AFC Player of the Year, Kenny Stabler led the Oakland Raiders to their first Super Bowl championship with a victory over the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl XI.

Stabler was named the NFL's MVP in 1974 when he led the Raiders to a 12-2 record and a berth in the AFC Championship game. He remains Oakland's career leader in victories, passing yardage, completions and touchdown passes.

NFL
DRAFT
2023
THE FIRST ROUND OF THE NFL DRAFT HAS INCLUDED AT LEAST ONE ALABAMA PLAYER IN 15 STRAIGHT YEARS--WHICH IS THE LONGEST STREAK IN DRAFT HISTORY.
