SEASON WRAP UP

It was a year to remember for the Oregon Ducks in 2024 with the team advancing to its second consecutive Super Regional. Oregon ended the season ranked in the top 15 in all five major collegiate baseball polls while finishing 40-20 and in third place in the Pac-12 Conference with a 19-11 league record. The Ducks swept the Santa Barbara regional with a win over San Diego in the opening game before back-to-back wins over No. 18 UC Santa Barbara on its home field to claim the regional title.

Individually, true freshman Maddox Molony claimed second-team NCBWA Freshman All-America honors, while also earning first-team All-Pac-12 Conference accolades. The shortstop was one of nine Ducks to claim all-league honors with the other eight earning honorable mention recognition. Outfielder Bryce Boettcher was named to the ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove Team while joining first baseman Jacob Walsh on the Pac-12 Conference All-Defensive Team.

CONSECUTIVE REGIONAL ROAD CHAMPIONSHIPS IS A RARITY

For the second-consecutive season, Oregon went on the road and won an NCAA Regional Tournament. A year after winning the Nashville Regional, the Ducks traveled to California and won the Santa Barbara Regional, beating San Diego in the opener and No. 18 UC Santa Barbara in the winner's bracket and championship games. Oregon became just the eighth team to win a regional tournament on the road in back-to-back years since the Super Regional format was adopted in 1999. The Ducks joined Houston (2002/2003), UC Irvine (2007/2008), Oklahoma (2012/2013), Maryland (2014/2015), Mississippi State (2017/2018), Cal State Fullerton (2017/18) and Duke (2018/2019).

DUCKS SAY GOODBYE TO THE PAC-12 CONFERENCE

It was an end of an era as Oregon played its final season in the Pac-12 Conference before moving to the Big Ten Conference for the 2025 season. The Ducks ended their run against their long-time league rivals finishing in third place, just one game out of first place, with a 19-11 record. The 19 wins were the third most in Pac-12 play by an Oregon team, behind only the 2013 (22) and the 2021 (20) sqauds. The Ducks also closed the Pac-12 era with multiple series wins over every team in the Mark Wasikowski era (2020-2024).

WALSH IS OREGON HOME RUN KING

Jacob Walsh finished his junior campaign as Oregon's career home run leader, while also ending the year in a tie for the single-season home run crown. Walsh belted his 40th-career home run in the championship game of the Santa Barbara Regional, giving him 18 for the season and a tie for the single-season home run record with Sabin Ceballos (2023),

NEVILLE SETS SLUGGING PERCENTAGE RECORD

For the third time in as many seasons, Oregon's single-season slugging percentage record was broken, this time by outfielder Mason Neville. In 2022, Anthony Hall set a new record with a .640 slugging percentage before Sabin Ceballos slugged .643 in 2023 to break Hall's short-lived record. Neville improved the mark by a significant amount finishing with a .664 slugging percentage.

BOETTCHER HARDWARE HAUL

Bryce Boettcher had one heck of a year in 2024. The Ducks outfielder filled his trophy case with a pair of significant trophies. The Ducks' two-sport star (baseball/football) started the hardware collection when he was one of just nine players nationally, and the fifth Duck ever, to be named to the ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove Team. During his 2024 football season, the second-team All-Big Ten linebacker earned the Burlsworth Trophy which is awarded to the nation's top player who started his career as a walk-on.

DUCKS STAFF SETS SCHOOL STRIKEOUT RECORD

Oregon's pitching staff finished the season with a school-record 550 strikeouts, breaking the old mark of 513 set in 2010 and matched in 2021.

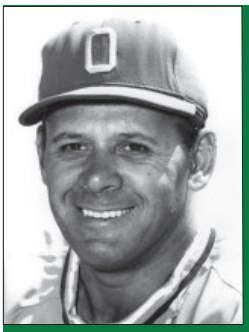
Mark Wasikowski was named the 13th head baseball coach, and the second of the modern era, at Oregon on June 11, 2019. In just five seasons, Wasikowski has moved into fifth all-time in wins.



Former University of Oregon baseball coach Mel Krause, is the third-winningest baseball coach in school history and was instrumental in the return of the program following a 28-year absence.

Krause served as a player, assistant and head coach of the Ducks' baseball program in a career that spanned five decades. He served as the head coach from 1970 to 1981 when the program was eliminated, during which time he accumulated a 217-220 record and won two conference Northern Division championships.

He is a member of three sports Hall of Fames, including the Oregon Athletics Hall of Fame (2001), the Portland Interscholastic League (2002) and the State of Oregon Hall of Fame (2002).

Beyond his long career as a player and coach at Oregon, Krause left his mark throughout the state as a three-sport star at Portland's Commerce High School (now Cleveland), a professional baseball player in the Northwest League from 1954 to 1961, and as a basketball coach at Milwaukee, Franklin, North Eugene and Sheldon high schools. He led Franklin (1956) and North Eugene (1963) to basketball state championships, and led Sheldon to a state baseball title in 1966.

Following his coaching career, Krause worked as a scout for the San Francisco Giants, Philadelphia Phillies and the Los Angeles Dodgers.

DUCKS IN THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Former University of Oregon standout Joe Gordon became the Ducks' first inductee into the Baseball Hall of Fame on July 26, 2010.

Gordon was a nine-time All-Star second baseman with the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians, playing on five World Series Championship teams (1938, '39,' 41, '43 with the Yankees and 1948 with the Indians).

In 1942, Gordon was the American League MVP with the Yankees after hitting .322 and batting in 103 runs.

He played six seasons of second base for New York before joining the armed forces in 1944. He returned to baseball in 1946 and was traded to Cleveland, where he spent the last five years of his career before retiring in 1950.

In 11 seasons, Gordon hit 253 home runs, batted .268 and drove in 975 runs. Defensively he finished his career with a .970 fielding percentage and led the AL in assists four times and double plays three times.

During the Indians 1948 World Series championship run, Gordon hit .280 with 32 home runs and 124 RBI.

Gordon played for Oregon during the 1934 and 1935 seasons, and his .358 career batting average ties for fifth all-time in the record books. During the 1934 and 1935 seasons, the Ducks combined for a 30-14 record and two Pacific Coast Conference Northern Division championships.

After his playing career, Gordon managed the Cleveland Indians (1958), Detroit Tigers (1960), Kansas City A's (1961) and Kansas City Royals (1969).

Gordon was a native of Portland, Ore., and attended Jefferson High School.

PK PARK

PK Park opened on Feb. 27, 2009 to a sold-out crowd and a thrilling 1-0 victory over the 2008 defending College World Series champion Fresno State Bulldogs.

To this day, PK Park embodies the excitement and ambition of the Ducks' resurrected baseball program.

Fans do not have to miss a single pitch at PK Park, which is designed around a single, open concourse that provides incredible views of the entire playing field. Continuing the tradition of the University's top-quality athletic facilities, designers incorporated festival areas between PK Park and Autzen Stadium, offering fans a place to gather and celebrate the Ducks' success.

PK Park is equipped with a full home locker room and players' lounge, as well as a state-of-the-art video board.

The press box features three radio/television broadcast booths, an audio/visual game operations booth, and a large press area. There are also eight fully-loaded luxury suites with indoor and outdoor seating.

One of the most ADA compliant stadiums in the country, the park is fully accessible with ramps and seating at both the concourse and field level.

The park has specially designed lighting structures. From the ground level, it is 47 feet 10 inches to the top of the facility, enhancing the intimacy for the Oregon baseball team and spectators.

Eugene architect firm Cameron, McCarthy, Gilbert & Scheibe was the lead landscape architectural firm on the first phase of construction, with Larry Gilbert leading the project.

FieldTurf

The field is made of an all-weather baseball specific FieldTurf, with clay mounds and bullpens. FieldTurf is the leading provider of collegiate baseball synthetic turf and has been installing similar products at college ballparks around the country.

Player Development Area (PDA)

Opened in January 2013, the indoor PDA features four full batting cages that can be separated into eight cages. The facility cages are also retractable allowing infield to be taken inside the PDA.

A Brand New Look

Prior to the 2022 season, PK Park had a brand new playing surface installed and the park was reconfigured with the outfield walls in the power alleys and center field moved in 10 feet. The outfield wall was also lowered to 6.5 feet (raised in RF) and a new state-of- the-art video board was installed.

PK Park Facts

• Total capacity of 4,000; including 3,000 fixed seats, tiered party plaza named "Fowl Territory", picnic plaza, and 8 upper level suites

• Single, open concourse with great views of the entire synthetic turf playing field

• Entry plazas, walkways, and in-stadium concourse serve as festival areas for other events at Autzen Stadium complex

• Features an intimate seating bowl with large overhead canopy to protect spectators, numerous fan amenities, suites, press facilities, team locker and training facilities, storage, and dynamic entry plazas that tie into the overall Autzen Stadium complex

• Designed to meet State of Oregon Energy-Efficient Design guidelines (SEED) and the University of Oregon Sustainable Development Plan

• Future expansion plan allows for additional 16 suites and expandable seating bowl

• The park includes a state-of-the-art video board that was upgraded before the 2022 season

• The surface is an all-weather baseball specific FieldTurf product, with clay mounds and bullpens.
