WASHINGTON at #18/18 USC
Dawgs To Make Just Third Trip To Coliseum Since 2011

THE GAME: After four consecutive home games to open the season, the Washington football team (3-1 overall, 0-1 Big Ten) takes to the road this Saturday, taking on USC (3-1, 0-1) at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Kickoff is at 4:30 p.m. and the game will air live on NBC television. Both teams will be coming off of their first lost of the 2026 season, as the Huskies fell, 27-24, to Minnesota last Saturday in Seattle, and the Trojans lost, 41-27, to Oregon in L.A. The game will mark the 89th meeting between the Dawgs and Trojans, who first met on the gridiron in 1923 and who have been members of the same conference for every season since 1922. The Trojans enter the game ranked No. 18 in both the AP Top 25 and the USA Today Coaches Poll, while Washington is receiving votes in coaches' poll, but is unranked.

QUICK HITTERS: Washington has won three in a row and four of the last five vs. USC … the Huskies have also won three of their last four games at the Coliseum … UW has played just two away games vs. USC in the last 14 seasons (2015 and 2023) … after playing four homes over the course of 21 days (Sept. 6-26) to begin the season, UW will now play just one home game (Oct. 9 vs. Iowa) over a span of 41 days (Sept. 27-Nov. 6) … Washington ranked fifth in FBS in interceptions (6), 12th in the nation in takeaways (8), and 13th in turnover margin (+1.25 per game) … Dezmen Roebuck in No. 7 in FBS in receptions per game, while Demond Williams Jr. is No. 8 in total offense … in the 2026 opener, UW held Washington State to no successful third-down conversion attempts, in 11 tries … the last time a Husky opponent failed to convert a single third-down conversion in a game was in the Huskies' memorable, 16-13 win over USC in 2009 … UW started four first-year players in the WSU game, three on defense (edge Ramzak Fruean, defensive tackle Derek Colman-Brusa and nickelback Jeron Jones) and one on offense (left tackle Kodi Greene) … another, RB Brian Bonner Jr., started vs. Utah State … all five of those first-year players started vs. EWU and again vs. Minnesota … UW QB Demond Williams Jr. surpassed passed 1,000 career rushing yards in the Utah State game, and now has 1,058 … he's the third UW QB to rush for 1,000 career yards, joining Jake Locker (1,939) and Marques Tuiasosopo (1,495).

TELEVISION: The UW-USC game will air on NBC television, with Noah Eagle, Todd Blackledge and Kathryn Tappen on the call. For more info, go to: https://www.nbcsports.com/watch.

RADIO: All Washington football games will air on the Washington Sports Network from Learfield, with Elise Woodward (play by play), former Husky tight end Cameron Cleeland (analyst), and Dave Mahler (sidelines) on the call. Radio coverage begins four hours before kickoff on the network's flagship station – Seattle's SportsRadio KJR 93.3 FM – with "Husky Gameday" live from The Zone for Husky home games. Statewide coverage on the 17-station Washington Sports Network begins two hours before kickoff. The entire broadcast is available worldwide on the Go Huskies mobile app and the Varsity app. The UW broadcast of this game will also air on Sirius/XM channel 84.

JEDD FISCH
HEAD COACH
Third Season at UW

Washington coach Jedd Fisch, who enters his third season with the Huskies in 2026, has continued to burnish his reputation as an innovative football mind and highly effective leader during his time in Seattle.

Fisch, who had spent the previous three seasons (2021-23) restoring the football program at the University of Arizona and bringing it to its highest level in decades, accepted the position at UW on Jan. 14, 2024.

After arriving in Seattle, he wasted no time in making his mark on a Husky program that had experienced an unprecedented amount of turnover, leaving Fisch and his staff to quickly re-assemble a team that returned just two starters on defense and none on offense. In his first season, 2024, Fisch's Huskies stretched their home winning streak to 20 games (longest-ever at Husky Stadium) and earned a berth in the Sun Bowl.

In the meantime, Fisch began building for the long term, recruiting some of the top-ranked recruiting classes in history, while also firmly embracing the new realities of college football in the era of the portal, revenue sharing and NIL. And, in spring of 2025, his team complied a cumulative grade point average of 3.27, highest in program history.

In 2025, the program continued to make clear and noteworthy steps forward, finishing the season with a 9-4 overall record and a convincing win over Boise State in the L.A. Bowl. Fisch, who calls the offensive plays, oversaw a team that made huge improvements in key statistical categories on both sides of the ball. The Husky offense, for one example, went from 104 in the nation in scoring offense, to 17th. Washington's red-zone offense improved from No. 104 to No. 7, and from 101st to 10th in third-down conversions. Additionally, Washington's defense also made great strides, finishing the season in the top-15 in the FBS in both rushing and scoring defense, never allowing more than 26 points in any one game in 2025.

Fisch's efficacy as a leader also showed up in other ways as Washington broke its program record for team GPA once again, finishing the fall academic quarter with a cumulative 3.31 grade point average. A total of 43 Huskies earned a place on the Big Ten All-Academic Team, four Huskies were named Academic All-District, and Johan Coleman (who was also a finalist for both the William V. Campbell Trophy and the Paul Horunung Award) earned first-team Academic All-America.

Additionally, Fisch led a staff that proved itself among the country's top recruiters, as the Huskies' class of freshmen ranked No. 13 in the nation, the highest-rated class in UW history.

Fisch, 50, came to Seattle with a long, dynamic history of coaching in college and the NFL.

Fisch's Wildcats went 10-3 in 2023, his last year in Tucson, beating Oklahoma in the Alamo Bowl and finishing No. 11 in the final AP Top 25 poll. The Wildcats outscored opponents, on average, 36.1 to 21.1 over the season, relying on a offense that averaged 448 yards a game.

A total of 12 Wildcat players earned some level of All-Pac-12 honors. Arizona's stingy defense registered 34 sacks and led the conference in the red zone.

He garnered national acclaim in 2023 and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the Dodd Trophy, presented annually to the nation's top head coach.

Prior to Arizona, Fisch served as the quarterbacks coach with the New England Patriots under Head Coach Bill Belichick. He previously served as an offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach or assistant with the Los Angeles Rams, UCLA, the University of Michigan, Jacksonville Jaguars, the University of Miami, Seattle Seahawks, the University of Minnesota, the Denver Broncos and the Baltimore Ravens, and as a quality control coach with the Houston Texans. He got his start at the collegiate level serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under Steve Spurrier.

In addition to Belichick and Spurrier, other mentors include Pete Carroll, Brian Billick and Jim Harbaugh.

Fisch is a native of Livingston, N.J. and graduated from the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in criminology in 1998. He also earned his master's degree, in sports management in Gainesville, in 2000.

Fisch and his wife, Amber, are parents to three daughters: Zaylee, Ashlee and Kendall.

COACHING STAFF: Washington's coaching staff for the 2026 season returns nearly in tact from the previous year, with just one change and one addition. The current season's staff includes seven assistants who came to Seattle from Arizona, where Jedd Fisch was head coach from 2021-23. The two biggest changes were the addition of senior offensive assistant Matt Cavanaugh, a longtime NFL player and coach, and the promotion of JP Losman to quarterbacks coach, The former first-round draft pick out of Tulane was on the Husky staff as a quality control coach in 2025. On offense, the returners are running backs coach Scottie Graham, receivers coach Kevin Cummings, offensive line coach Michael Switzer and tight ends coach Jordan Paopao. Graham has added the role of assistant head coach while Cummings is now also the passing game coordinator. Washington's defensive staff is unchanged from the previous year, led by defensive coordinator Ryan Walters, the former Illinois defensive coordinator and Purdue head coach. The two defensive staff members who came to UW from Arizona are defensive running game coordinator and defensive line coach Jason Kaufusi and secondary coach John Richardson. They are joined by former USC and NFL safety Taylor Mays, a Seattle native who serves as safeties coach, and Brian Odom, a very experienced coach at Big 12, Big Ten and SEC programs, who is the linebackers coach. They both joined the staff prior to the 2025 season. Aaron Van Horn, who served as a quality control assistant in 2024, was promoted to outside linebackers coach ahead of 2025, while the Huskies also welcome back special teams coordinator Chris Petrilli.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS: Washington's football players have continued to perform at the highest academic levels, as the program continues to post impressive cumulative team GPAs. Last school year (2024-25), the UW football team achieved a team grade-point average of 3.31 in both the fall and winter quarters, and then wrapped up the year with a 3.27 in the spring quarter. In the spring quarter, a whopping 31 members of the UW roster earned a place on the Dean's List, and 49 of the players on the 2026 roster were on the Dean's List at least once in 2025-26 (most of them multiple times): Deji Ajose, Xe'ree Alexander, Buddah Al-Uqdah, Aiden Anderson, Dash Beierly, Elijah Brown, Jace Burton, Quaid Carr, D'Aryhian Clemons, Derek Colman-Brusa, Lowen Colman-Brusa, Charlie Crowell, Parker Cross, Decker DeGraaf, Kolt Dieterich, Luke Dunne, Kade Eldridge, Soane Faasolo, Jake Flores, Hunter Green, Kayden Greene, Kodi Greene, Landen Hatchett, Devin Hyde, Justin Hylkema, Ksani Jiles, Jacob Lane, Jayden Limar, Jacob Manu, Kai McClendon, Hunter McKee, Julian McMahan, Bodpegn Miller, John Mills, Ryken Moon, Hayden Moore, Baron Naone, Zaydrius Rainey-Sale, Donovan Robinson, Dylan Robinson, Tyler Robles, Victor Sanchez Hernandez, Champ Taulealea, Sam Vyhlidal, Beck Walker, C.J. Wallace, Isaiah Ward, Jordan Washington, and DeSean Watts.

IN THE CFP ERA: The era of the four-team College Football Playoff is gone, but that 10-season stretch (2014-2023) is instructive in terms of illustrating the teams that operated at the top level of the sport during that timespan, and Washington is one of those teams. Over that 10-year stretch, only 15 different programs earned a berth in the CFP semifinals, and only eight reached the tournament more than once. With two CPF berths in the four-team era (2016 and 2023), Washington is one of those eight, and one of just two programs to reach the four-team CFP under two different head coaches (Oklahoma was the other). Only six teams made more than two appearances: Alabama (8), Clemson (6), Ohio State (5), Oklahoma (4), Georgia (3) and Michigan (3). For what it's worth, six more teams made their CFP debut in the 12-team bracket in 2024, and another five were first-time selections in 2025, but UW still remains one of just 11 teams to have appeared in the CFP more than once, when counting the latest data.

B1G TIME: As has been well documented over the last couple of years, Washington officially joined the Big Ten Conference ahead of the 2024-25 school year, effective on Aug. 2, 2024. The Huskies were joined be fellow former Pac-12 programs Oregon, UCLA and USC in making the move to the B1G, which now includes 18 schools. Washington was one of four founding members of the Pacific Coast Conference (along with Cal, Oregon and Oregon State), and, along with Cal, was one of just two teams that were a part of that league (which changed names to the AAWU, Pac-8, Pac-10 and Pac-12) for the entirety of its full-fledged existence from 1915 through 2026.

CAPTAINS: The following players have been named captains for the 2026 season: Drew Azzopardi, Elinneus Davis, Landen Hatchett, Jacob Manu, Alex McLaughlin, John Mills and Demond Williams Jr. Hatchett and Williams were also captains in 2025. Mills in believed to be the first second-year/sophomore captain in program history.

TEAM NOTES

FUTURE SCHEDULES: In October, 2023, the Big Ten revealed 18 football teams' home and away, conference opponents for the next for the following five seasons (2024-28). Here are the UW's home and road, Big Ten games, for the coming two years:

2027: home – Maryland, Michigan State, Nebraska, Oregon, USC
road – Minnesota, Northwestern, Penn State, Rutgers
2028: home – Michigan, Northwestern, UCLA, Wisconsin
road – Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Ohio State, Oregon

HUSKIES vs. TROJANS HISTORY: Washington and USC have played one another 88 times since the series began in 1923. The Trojans hold a 52-32-4 series advantage (the 52 USC wins include one that was vacated, a USC win in Seattle in 2005).

Washington won its first-ever meeting against the Trojans, beating USC, 22-0, in Seattle in 1923. When the series re-started in 1927, USC handed the Huskies six straight defeats before Washington reeled off five in a row. The longest streak either way in the series began in 1965, when the Trojans beat Washington for the first time of 10 straight wins.

Due to the way the Pac-12 schedule worked (UW played either UCLA or USC in two-year stretches, and never both in the same year ... the Big Ten schedule also means that UW and USC do not play annually) and due to the 2020 season (UW played just four games), the Huskies and Trojans have met on the football field just seven times in the last 15 seasons, and just three times (2011, 2015, 2023) in the Coliseum over that time span.

That most recent Coliseum meeting was an extraordinary game in 2023, when USC and defending Heisman Trophy winner Caleb Williams and 2023 Heisman runner-up Michael Penix Jr. squared off in an offensive slugfest in L.A., with UW emerging with a 52-42 victory. The game was tied at 7-7, 14-14, 21-21, 28-28, 35-35 and 42-42 before the Huskies outscored the Trojans, 10-0, in the final period. Penix was 22-for-30 for 236 and two scores, but UW back Dillon Johnson was the star of the game, rushing for 256 yards and four TDs on 26 carries. Williams passed for 312 yards and three scores in the loss.

In 2024 in Seattle (the most recent meeting at either team's home venue), Washington pulled off a 26-21 win, as receiver Keith Reynolds scored on a four-yard rush to put UW early in the fourth quarter and then held the Trojans on downs on the visitors' last two drives. Husky QB Will Rogers III passed for 252 yards and Jonah Coleman rushed for 104 yards and two TDs in the win. UW linebacker Carson Bruener posted two interceptions and 12 tackles.

In the most recent meeting prior to 2023, in Seattle in 2019, the Huskies led throughout in a 28-14 victory. An 89-yard run in the third quarter from UW running back Salvon Ahmed was the big play of the day.

The game in Seattle in 2016 was one of the most high-profile games in modern history, with ESPN's College Gameday on campus and the No. 4 Huskies hosting a Trojans squad that had won five in a row. USC won that game, 26-13, holding the Huskies to just 17 rushing yards, perhaps the key stat of the game. The Huskies' lone TD was a 70-yard pass from Jake Browning to John Ross.

The year before (2015) in L.A, the Huskies scored a 17-12 win at then-No. 17 USC in a Thursday night game at the Coliseum. Myles Gaskin rushed for 134 yards and a touchdown while Sidney Jones and Darren Gardenhire notched crucial interceptions.

In the most recent meeting prior to 2015 (UW and USC didn't play one another in 2013 and 2014), in 2012 at CenturyLink Field in Seattle, the Trojans won 24-14, thwarting several late chances for the Huskies to make it close by forcing three fourth-quarter turnovers.

A year prior in L.A., the Trojans broke the UW's two-game win streak in the series with a convincing 40-17 victory. In 2010, Washington posted its second straight victory via late field goal as Erik Folk connected from 32 yards to beat USC, 32-31, on the final play of the game. In 2009 in Seattle, Washington handed No. 3 USC a 16-13 loss as Folk connected on a 22-yard field goal with three seconds left to cap the game-winning drive.

HUSKY STADIUM: The Oregon game on Nov. 5, 2011, marked the final game in Husky Stadium prior to major renovations that were completed in summer, 2013. The Huskies re-opened their home field with a 38-6 win over then-No. 19 Boise State on Aug. 31, 2013. The 2026 season marks the 106th season of play in Husky Stadium. Original construction on the facility was completed in 1920 when Washington played one game in the new campus facility. UW's all-time record in Husky Stadium stands at 425-188-21 (.687). Washington is 71-19 (.789) in home games since the stadium re-opened in 2013.

Note: Given new NCAA policies regarding five-year, aged-based eligibility, the term "redshirt" (either via injury or participation) no longer applies, generally. Thus, student-athletest are now listed as 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th or 5th-year athletes (rather than freshman, sophomore, etc.), reflecting how many years out of high school each individual is (at UW or any other college). As for "experience" (Exp.), here is a `key: HS - last played in high school; JC - transferred from a junior college this season; TR - transferred from a four-year school this year; 1V, 2V, 3V, 4V - number of varsity letters earned at UW; SQ - has previously been on UW roster, but has not lettered.
