THE CHUCK PRIORE FILE

Hometown: Long Beach, N.Y.
High School: Maria Regina
Alma Mater: Albany '82
Master's Degree: Albany '85
Year in Coaching: 41st (18th season at Stony Brook)

Since becoming Stony Brook's head football coach in the spring of 2006, Chuck Priore's tenure can be described as an usher. He's ushered the Seawolves through two conferences (Northeast and Big South), and for the past nine seasons, CAA Football. During that time, Priore has ushered the program to the upper echelon of the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), guiding SBU from 20 scholarships to a fully-funded program of 63 scholarship, the maximum allowed at the FCS level.

Under Priore's leadership, Stony Brook posted a number of firsts - a win over a Football Bowl Subdivision (Army), a 10-win season, an at-large berth to the Division I Football Championship and produced the Seawolves' first NFL player when Will Tye joined the New York Giants as an undrafted free agent and enjoyed a very successful rookie campaign.

In Priore's previous 17 seasons at the helm of the Seawolves, SBU has collected at least five wins 15 times, including a pair of 10-win seasons (2012 and 2017), and a nine-win season in 2011.

Over the past five seasons Stony Brook has sent a total of 18 student-athletes to NFL Training Camps. That list includes five players who were with NFL teams on an official roster, practice squad, or injured reserve during the 2021 season.

Stony Brook posted a 5-6, 4-4 CAA record in 2021, its first full season following the COVID-19 pandemic. The Seawolves concluded the season winners of four out of their last five games and closed the campaign with a 36-14 win over UAlbany to claim the Golden Apple Trophy. Priore coached three All-League players in 2021, including the conference's leading rusher, Ty Son Lawton (rushed for 1,088 yards). Freshman linebacker Tyler King became the first player in Stony Brook history to be named a Stats Perform FCS Jerry Rice Award finalist.

The 2020-21 campaign was shortened to a four-game Spring slate due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In an abbreviated four-game Spring season, Stony Brook posted a 1-3 record and all four of their games came against CAA opponents. The Seawolves concluded the season on a high as they knocked off UAlbany, 21-7, on March 27. The game was Stony Brook's last of the season due to New Hampshire and Rhode Island having to cancel the final games of the year.

Four Seawolves took home All-CAA honors in 2020-21 as offensive lineman Kyle Nunez, special teams player Anthony Del Negro, and defensive lineman Sam Kamara landed on the All-CAA First Team. Linebacker Augie Contressa earned All-CAA Second Team honors. Nunez was later tabbed an AFCA Coaches' and Stats Perform Second Team All-American.

In 2018, the Seawolves posted a record of 7-5, 5-3 CAA, and earned a berth in the FCS NCAA Division I Football Championships. After a season of great success, Stony Brook's run culminated in the NCAA First Round as it fell to No. 20 Southeast Missouri, 28-14.

In 2017, Priore and his staff helped guide Stony Brook to a 10-3 season, a 7-1 record in the CAA Football standings and a return trip to the FCS NCAA Division I Football Championships. The Seawolves were ranked in both polls for the final five weeks of the season and peaked at a program-best No. 10 for back-to-back weeks in the STATS poll before 11th in both final polls.

The Seawolves, who finished second in the league in 2017 with just one loss and received an at-large bid for the program's third overall appearance and the first since 2012.

In 2016, Stony Brook posted a 5-6 mark, including four CAA Football wins. The Seawolves opened the season with a thrilling home victory over No. 19 North Dakota and followed it two weeks later with a commanding victory over second-ranked and defending CAA Football champion Richmond in Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium.

Priore ushered Stony Brook to the upper echelon of Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). In 2012, the Seawolves hosted and won a playoff game and advanced to the second round of the Division I Football Championship.

The season featured a number of milestones - Stony Brook beat Army, 23-3, for its first win over an FBS program; Miguel Maysonet finished as the runner-up for the Walter Payton Award, given to the nation's most outstanding player, was named to a program-record seven All-America Teams and became the first SBU football player to be invited to the NFL Combine.

Stony Brook, which won a program-best 10 wins, moved to the Colonial Athletic Association, considered the "SEC" of FCS football. For his efforts, Priore was named AFCA Regional Co-Coach of the year in 2012.
