THIS WEEK: UW Volleyball will take the floor again at Alaska Airlines Arena this weekend, trying to tack on two more wins to its Big Ten total. Coming off its farthest road trip of the season, 20th-ranked Washington now plays six of its next eight matches at home, where the Dawgs will try to bring their best and defend home court to stay near the top of the conference.

Currently in a four-way tie for fourth with a 4-2 record, the Huskies (13-2 overall) will take on Rutgers this Friday, Oct. 16, at 7 p.m. and then measure up against 18th-ranked Indiana on Sunday, Oct. 18, at 2 p.m. Both matches will be live streamed via Big Ten Plus.

The Dawgs remained at No. 20 in the AVCA coaches poll this week after a road split where they swept Ohio State but were then swept at No. 18 Penn State in University Park. In the RPI, Washington moved up one spot despite the loss, to No. 9.

The Scarlet Knights are 10-8 on the season and 1-5 in conference play thus far. In their past three losses, however, Rutgers has won a set against ranked Indiana and Minnesota squads, and a receiving votes UCLA team, falling in four sets each time. They are hitting .242 on the year and holding opponents to .218. In conference play, Rutgers' attacking has dropped to .214 and opponents are hitting .290. In the last match against UCLA, Karis Willow hit .500 with 13 kills. Willow is second in the Big Ten with 0.61 aces per set. Kenzie Dyrstad ranks seventh with 3.77 digs per set. Malia Romes leads the team with 2.74 kills per set and is hitting .290.

Indiana was an NCAA Sweet 16 team a year ago, and has been ranked all throughout 2026 thus far. The Hoosiers are 10-5 and 3-3 in conference, dropping a pair last week against No. 1 Nebraska and USC. Indiana has wins over UCLA, Rutgers, and Maryland, and a tough 2-3 loss to No. 6 Wisconsin. Indiana is hitting .262 for the season and holding teams to a .227 mark, and in conference play those numbers are still exactly .262 on offense, and .253 on defense. Setter Teodora Krickovic is 4th in the Big Ten with 10.76 assists per set and she leads IU with 20 aces. Jaidyn Jager is 10th in kills per set with 3.43, hitting .225. Ella Boersma adds 2.69 kills/set and is hitting .356.

HEAD COACH LESLIE GABRIEL • Third Season

- Led the Huskies to the 2024 NCAA tournament in her second year at the helm
- Spent 22 years as an assistant coach (2001-22) during which time the Huskies went 552-147 for a .789 win percentage
- The 2020 AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year
- Associate Head Coach on 2005 NCAA Championship team
- Coached Huskies to Seven Pac-12 Championships, most recently in 2021
- Helped UW reach five Final Fours (2004, 2005, 2006, 2013, 2020)
- Has worked with 27 AVCA All-Americans
- Dominant blocker as a Husky player from 1995-98, totaling 613 career blocks and earning All-Pac-10 honors

The time was finally right for Leslie Gabriel. After devoting over two decades to the perennial success of Washington Volleyball, Gabriel took on the Head Coach mantle in late December of 2022. As a player and then as an assistant, Gabriel was part of 618 wins for the Huskies before she achieved No. 619 and No. 1 as Head Coach on August 25, 2023. In three seasons as Head Coach she has led the Huskies to a 48-44 record, making her a part of an incredible 656 total Husky victories.

The 2020 AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year, Leslie Gabriel (née Tuiasosopo) helped lay every foundational brick as she worked with previous head coaches Jim McLaughlin and Keegan Cook to build the Huskies into a national power. In her twenty-two seasons on the UW staff, Gabriel has helped the Huskies finish ranked in the top-10 nationally fourteen times.

As a Husky player from 1995-98, Gabriel was one of the best blockers in Pac-12 history. She joined McLaughlin's staff when he took over the program in 2001, rising to Associate Head Coach, and helping develop a legacy of Husky All-Americans at every position. In her more than two decades at UW, Gabriel has worked with twenty-seven AVCA All-Americans.

Gabriel is the ninth Head Coach in Washington history. She is the fourth female Head Coach, but the first since Debbie Buse in 1991. Buse is also the only other former Husky player to serve as Head Coach.

During Gabriel's time at Washington, the Huskies have reached five Final Fours (2004, 2005, 2006, 2013, 2020) winning the 2005 NCAA title, and advanced to 21-straight NCAA tournaments from 2002-22, averaging 25 wins per year. The Huskies won seven Pac-12 Conference titles in Gabriel's tenure (2004, 2005, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2020, 2021) and seven more second-place finishes.

In her second season as Head Coach, Gabriel helped the Dawgs make a successful transition into the Big Ten. The Huskies returned to the NCAA tournament in 2024, marking a 22nd postseason appearance in the past 23 years with Gabriel on staff. The squad went 19-12 overall and placed ninth in the Big Ten. Washington hit the ground running with a 10-0 nonconference that included wins over Georgia, Colorado, Washington State, Long Beach State, and Pepperdine. Emoni Bush and Kierstyn Barton earned All-Big Ten Second Team honors, while middle blocker Julia Hunt was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, and was the AVCA Pacific North Region Freshman of the Year.

The Dawgs earned a winning record in her first season at the helm in 2023, despite a young roster hampered by injuries. Top returning scorer Emoni Bush redshirted the season and UW started three freshmen, but the Dawgs still finished with a 16-15 overall mark. Kierstyn Barton and Katy Wessels both made the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team and May Pertofsky earned All-Region honors.

As a player, Gabriel, along with All-American Makare Desilets, formed one of the nation's best blocking tandems, leading the Huskies to the top of the NCAA blocking rankings in 1997. An All-Pac-10 Team selection as a junior and twice more an honorable mention, Gabriel ranks in the UW career top-10 in four categories, including total blocks (3rd - 613) and block assists (3rd - 520). She also ranked in the top-25 nationally in blocks per game in each of her four seasons at Washington.

After completing her eligibility in 1998, Gabriel trained with the USA National Team program and played at the 1999 World University Games in Spain. She returned to Washington where she earned her bachelor's degree in psychology in 2000. From August 2000 until May 2001, the Woodinville, Wash., native played professional volleyball in Murcia, Spain.

Gabriel is the oldest of five children, including former UW football players Marques and Zach Tuiasosopo. Marques played quarterback eight years in the NFL, while her youngest brother, Matt, played five seasons of Major League Baseball, debuting for the Seattle Mariners in September 2008. Younger sister Ashley played softball at Washington and was a member of the 2009 NCAA Championship team.

ASSISTANT COACH MICHAEL BRUNSTING

Michael Brunsting joined Leslie Gabriel's staff in 2023. Brunsting orchestrates the Husky offense and works closely with the setters. In the summer of 2024, UW setter Molly Wilson was chosen for the U.S. Collegiate National Team that trained with and competed against the U.S. Olympic Team in its run-up to the Paris Olympics.

Brunsting's coaching path to Seattle started as a volunteer assistant at UCLA in the 2021 spring season, which led to a full-time assistant coach at William & Mary in the fall of 2021, and then to Utah State in 2022. Both the Aggies in 2022 and Bruins in spring '21 advanced to the NCAA Championships with Brunsting on staff.

UW posted a winning record in Brunsting's first year, going 16-15, then in year two the Dawgs returned to the NCAA tournament improving to 19-12 overall and picking up the program's first ranked wins since 2022. Washington's assists per set went from 11.01 in Brunsting's first year to 11.96 in year two.

Brunsting began coaching in 2016 as an assistant at Irvine Valley College before coaching at the high school and club levels, working at Orange Coast VC.

A native of Poway, Calif., Brunsting attended UC San Diego from 2011-2014, playing setter and opposite. He was named the Tritons' Most Valuable Player his senior year in 2014.

From 2014-20, Brunsting was a regular on the AVP Beach Tour where he collected 11 top-10 finishes. Brunsting and his wife, Nicole, have two sons, Atticus and Briggs.

ASSISTANT COACH KRISTA HENDRICKSON

A Husky Hall of Famer and one of just three women to have their jersey retired in Alaska Airlines Arena, Krista (Vansant) Hendrickson returned to Montlake in June of 2025. Hendrickson came back to Washington after coaching three years at Illinois.

Hendrickson began a new chapter in her UW story, eleven years after she completed one of the most decorated playing careers in program history. The Pac-12 Freshman of the Year in 2011, Hendrickson earned her first All-America honor as a sophomore in 2012, then in 2013 she led the Huskies to the Pac-12 title and the Final Four, earning AVCA National Player of the Year and the Honda Award. She repeated as the Honda Award winner in 2014 and won a second-straight Pac-12 Player of the Year award, while finishing as UW's career kills leader with 1,893.

Hendrickson has extensive coaching experience in the Big Ten, having coached the past seven years in the league. She served as an assistant coach as well as the recruiting coordinator for the Fighting Illini from 2022-24, and prior to that she coached four seasons at Indiana. Hendrickson was an AVCA Thirty Under 30 recipient in 2024, for rising leaders in the sport.

Transitioning quickly from Washington to the U.S. National Team, Hendrickson helped Team USA win the 2015 Pan Am Cup where she was named MVP. She then won gold with the U.S. at the 2015 Pan American Games, and she was named an alternate for the 2016 Rio Olympic Team. She played professionally from the fall of 2015 through spring of 2016 with Volero Zurich in Switzerland.

Krista married Duncan Hendrickson, a former UW Baseball letterwinner, and the couple welcomed their first son, Liam, in 2024.

ASSISTANT COACH HARDY WOOLDRIDGE

Hardy Wooldridge heads into his fourth season in 2026 for the Huskies, where he works closely with the Husky pin hitters. Wooldridge began his collegiate coaching career at UW as a volunteer coach in 2016-17. He went on to serve as an assistant and associate head coach for four seasons at Fresno State, before moving to the powerhouse Pepperdine men's program for the spring of 2023. A native of Mission Viejo, Calif., Wooldridge is married to former Husky Gabbi Parker, a 2013 graduate. The couple welcomed their first son, Theo, in 2023, and second son, Arlo, in 2026.

In two seasons at UW, Wooldridge helped the Huskies return to the NCAA tournament. Washington's kills per set went from 11.97 in Wooldridge's first year working with the hitters, to 12.77 in year two.

In 2024, outsiders Emoni Bush and Kierstyn Barton both were named to the All-Big Ten Second Team, and Bush was named AVCA All-Region. In his first year on staff, Wooldridge helped May Pertofsky earn All-Region honorable mention, averaging 3.09 kills per set on a .294 percentage.

Wooldridge spent two seasons as a volunteer for the Huskies in 2016 and 2017. Those seasons saw the Huskies win the 2016 Pac-12 title and advance to the Elite Eight in 2016 and the second round in 2017.

In 2018, Fresno State broke the school record for most conference wins in school history and gave the program its first-ever top-two finish in the league after producing a 13-5 Mountain West record and going 22-11 overall. The team went on to play in the NIVC, earning the program's first postseason selection since 2002. Wooldridge played collegiately at Thompson Rivers University in British Columbia, Canada. He then played

Why Washington?

"Ever since I started playing volleyball, I've dreamed of being a Husky. Growing up watching the Dawgs compete with some of the best teams in the country is what made me fall in love with the game. Getting the opportunity to play in the B1G—against the highest level of competition—is honestly a dream come true. The combination of top-tier athletics and incredible academics at the University of Washington has always stood out to me, but what really made it special was how welcoming the coaches and players were. It truly felt like home. I can't wait to get back to Seattle and compete. Go Dawgs!"
