Prayer of Confession

Lord God Almighty, We ask not to be enrolled among the earthly great and rich, but to be numbered with the spiritually blessed. Make it our present, supreme, persevering concern to obtain those blessings which are spiritual in their nature, eternal in their continuance, and satisfying in their possession.

Preserve us from a false estimate of the whole or a part of our character; May we pay regard to our principles as well as our conduct, our motives as well as our actions. Help us never to mistake the excitement of our passions for the renewing of the Holy Spirit, never to judge our religion by occasional impressions and impulses, but by our constant and prevailing disposition. May our hearts be right with you, and our lives as adorn the gospel.

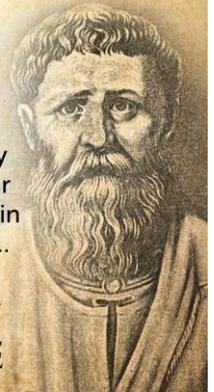

May we maintain a supreme regard to the better and heavenly world, and feel and confess ourselves strangers and pilgrims here. Afford us all the direction, defense, support, and consolation our journey hence requires, and grant us minds stayed upon you.

Give us a large abundance of the supply of the Spirit of Jesus, that we may be prepared for every duty, love you in all your mercies, submit to you in every trial, trust you when walking in darkness, and have peace in you amidst life's changes.

Lord, we believe, help our unbelief. AMEN.

Quote to Consider

All thine infirmities shall be healed: fear not. They are great, thou wilt say: but the Physician is greater. No infirmity cometh before the Almighty Physician as incurable: only suffer thou thyself to be healed: repel not His hands; He knoweth how to deal with thee. Be not only pleased when He cherisheth thee, but also bear with Him when He useth the knife: bear the pain of the remedy, reflecting on thy future health.... Thou dost not endure in uncertainty: He who promised thee health, cannot be deceived.

SAINT AUGUSTINE

Services:

Morning Worship – 9:30am; Sunday School – 11:00am
Prayer Meeting – Wednesdays, 7:00pm.

Our Vision:

Wolf River Presbyterian Church endeavors diligently to promote a strong emphasis on exegetical preaching, most frequently through books of the Bible (II Timothy 3:16, 17). We will seek to incorporate substantive Bible study, a vital prayer life, and authentic fellowship into the life of the church (Acts 2:42), striving to see believers grow in their hunger for God's Word, from the initial steps of Christian understanding to a mature faith (I Cor. 3:2; I Peter 2:2). Through an emphasis on the word of God we will strive to build one another up (Acts 20:32), teaching biblical principles as the foundation for holy conduct, beginning with the fathers and young men of our households (I John 2:13). It is our prayer that by equipping believers for the work of service in Christ's Church (Eph. 4:12), mature believers may disciple and assist younger believers in their common goal – to give glory to God through the rearing of godly families (Deut 6:7), the demonstration of God's mercy to those in need (Matt. 25:40), and the promotion of the gospel of Jesus Christ (Mark 16:15) first in our own community, and then in the world beyond (Acts 1:8).

“Orthodox” (literally, “straight thinking”) signifies our holding steadfastly to the inerrancy of Scripture, not in a thoughtless faith, but one that recognizes God’s Word as the foundation for consistent “straight thinking.” “Presbyterian” signifies that we believe the Scriptures to teach that local church elders along with a pastor, form a “session” to care for the spiritual welfare of the members of the Church, while not presuming to interfere with their freedom of conscience in matters of Christian liberty.
