We're Glad you're here!

We hope you consider yourself among friends who care. If you are able, please stay for fellowship and Sunday School following the worship service, that we may get to know each other better. We welcome you and encourage you to visit again soon or to call us if we can be helpful in any way.

The Ladies' Study Group will meet this Tuesday evening at 6:30 at the home of the D'Alto's. The study will be examining the book of Hebrews, utilizing material taught by Michael Kruger of Reformed Theological Seminary. Go online to <https://rts.edu/hebrews/> and download the study notes. The ladies will also be reading through and discussing Nancy Guthrie's Even Better Than Eden.

If you would like an item included on the prayer list for Wednesday evening, please specifically ask Pastor Mark to include it.

We will be starting a communicant members' class for children who are interested in making their profession of faith. If you would like to participate in the class, please see Pastor Mark.

Services:

Our Vision:

Wolf River Presbyterian Church endeavors diligently to promote a strong emphasis on exegetical preaching, most frequently through books of the Bible (II Timothy 3:16, 17). We will seek to incorporate substantive Bible study, a vital prayer life, and authentic fellowship into the life of the church (Acts 2:42), striving to see believers grow in their hunger for God's Word, from the initial steps of Christian understanding to a mature faith (I Cor. 3:2; I Peter 2:2). Through an emphasis on the word of God we will strive to build one another up (Acts 20:32), teaching biblical principles as the foundation for holy conduct, beginning with the fathers and young men of our households (I John 2:13). It is our prayer that by equipping believers for the work of service in Christ's Church (Eph. 4:12), mature believers may disciple and assist younger believers in their common goal – to give glory to God through the rearing of godly families (Deut 6:7), the demonstration of God's mercy to those in need (Matt. 25:40), and the promotion of the gospel of Jesus Christ (Mark 16:15) first in our own community, and then in the world beyond (Acts 1:8).

“Orthodox” (literally, “straight thinking”) signifies our holding steadfastly to the inerrancy of Scripture, not in a thoughtless faith, but one that recognizes God’s Word as the foundation for consistent “straight thinking.” “Presbyterian” signifies that we believe the Scriptures to teach that local church elders along with a pastor, form a “session” to care for the spiritual welfare of the members of the Church, while not presuming to interfere with their freedom of conscience in matters of Christian liberty.
