Announcements

On the first Lord's Day of the month we observe the Lord's Supper and enjoy our fellowship meal together. You are welcome to take the Lord's Supper if you have made a profession of faith, are a member of a Bible believing church, and have a clear conscience before the Lord.

A class for young people who would like to make their profession of faith began meeting last week, and will continue meeting this week.

The weekly Wednesday prayer meeting and study in Church History is at 7:00pm here at the church facility. Make it a point to follow the New Testament model of God's people praying together.

Few sounds are as pleasant as the sound of children in God's house. If you have young ones you are always welcome and encouraged to have the in the service during worship. If, however, your children are in training for sitting through worship and provide a distraction to your family or others in their worship, please train them by making use of the nursery for infants, and the toddler's room located in the fellowship hall. The service should be live streaming in both locations.

Quote to Consider

“When can it be said of a person that he is rich toward God? Never, until he is rich in grace and rich in faith and rich in good works. Never, until he has gone to Jesus Christ and bought from him gold that has been tested in the fire (Revelation 3:18). Never, until he has a house not made with hands, but an eternal house in the heavens. Such a person is truly rich. His treasure is incorruptible. His bank never breaks. His inheritance does not disappear. Man cannot deprive him of it. Death cannot snatch it out of his hands. All things are his already (1 Corinthians 3:22). And best of all, what he has now is nothing compared with what he will have hereafter.”

Services:

Morning Worship – 9:30am

Sunday School – 11:00am

Prayer Meeting – Wednesdays, 7:15pm.

Our Vision:

Wolf River Presbyterian Church endeavors diligently to promote a strong emphasis on exegetical preaching, most frequently through books of the Bible (II Timothy 3:16, 17). We will seek to incorporate substantive Bible study, a vital prayer life, and authentic fellowship into the life of the church (Acts 2:42), striving to see believers grow in their hunger for God's Word, from the initial steps of Christian understanding to a mature faith (I Cor. 3:2; I Peter 2:2). Through an emphasis on the word of God we will strive to build one another up (Acts 20:32), teaching biblical principles as the foundation for holy conduct, beginning with the fathers and young men of our households (I John 2:13). It is our prayer that by equipping believers for the work of service in Christ's Church (Eph. 4:12), mature believers may disciple and assist younger believers in their common goal – to give glory to God through the rearing of godly families (Deut 6:7), the demonstration of God's mercy to those in need (Matt. 25:40), and the promotion of the gospel of Jesus Christ (Mark 16:15) first in our own community, and then in the world beyond (Acts 1:8).

Lending Library:

WRPC maintains a list of books that members have pooled together to be available in a lending library. To borrow a book go to librarything.com (Username: WolfRiverChurch; Password Micah719), where you can access the list and see from whom you can borrow the book. For questions, or to add your own resources to the library to be available for others, see Caleb Fast (calebfast@yahoo.com).

“Orthodox” (literally, “straight thinking”) signifies our holding steadfastly to the inerrancy of Scripture, not in a thoughtless faith, but one that recognizes God's Word as the foundation for consistent “straight thinking.” “Presbyterian” signifies that we believe the Scriptures to teach that local church elders along with a pastor, form a “session” to care for the spiritual welfare of the members of the Church, while not presuming to interfere with their freedom of conscience in matters of Christian liberty.

Session
