Announcements

For the families of those young people who took the classes on making their profession of faith, please see Pastor Mark to schedule a visit to complete the class.

Next week the David Chilton, the new Regional Home Missionary for the OPC's Presbytery of the South will join us to preach God's word and update us on the work of church planting in our Presbytery.

We welcome Mr. Michael Boysen into the membership of Wolf River OPC today.

The Ladies' study group will meet this Thursday, December 2nd at 6:30pm at the home of Larry and Kathy Norris. We will be studying through a DVD series with Stephen Nichols entitled, “A Time for Confidence.”

The Men's Study Group will meet again this Wednesday, December 1st at 6pm as we discuss the second chapter of Carl Trueman's book, The Rise and Triumph of the Modern Self.

The weekly Wednesday prayer meeting and study in Church History is at 7:00pm here at the church facility. Make it a point to follow the New Testament model of God's people praying together.

Next week we will observe the Lord's Supper, and then our fellowship meal together after the Sunday School hour. Please prepare your hearts for this means of grace.

“Between an airplane and every other form of locomotion and transportation there is one great contrast. The horse and wagon, the automobile, the bicycle, the locomotive, the speedboat, and the great battleship—all can come to a standstill without danger, and they can all reverse their engines, or their power, and go back. But there is no reverse about the engine of an airplane. It cannot back up. It dare not stand still. If it loses its momentum and forward-drives, then it crashes. The only safety for the airplane is in its forward and upward motion. The only safe direction for the Christian to take is forward and upward. If he stops, or if he begins to slip and go backward, that moment he is in danger.” - C.E. Macartney

Services:

Our Vision:

Wolf River Presbyterian Church endeavors diligently to promote a strong emphasis on exegetical preaching, most frequently through books of the Bible (II Timothy 3:16, 17). We will seek to incorporate substantive Bible study, a vital prayer life, and authentic fellowship into the life of the church (Acts 2:42), striving to see believers grow in their hunger for God's Word, from the initial steps of Christian understanding to a mature faith (I Cor. 3:2; I Peter 2:2). Through an emphasis on the word of God we will strive to build one another up (Acts 20:32), teaching biblical principles as the foundation for holy conduct, beginning with the fathers and young men of our households (I John 2:13). It is our prayer that by equipping believers for the work of service in Christ's Church (Eph. 4:12), mature believers may disciple and assist younger believers in their common goal – to give glory to God through the rearing of godly families (Deut 6:7), the demonstration of God's mercy to those in need (Matt. 25:40), and the promotion of the gospel of Jesus Christ (Mark 16:15) first in our own community, and then in the world beyond (Acts 1:8).

Lending Library:

WRPC maintains a list of books that members have pooled together to be available in a lending library. “Orthodox” (literally, “straight thinking”) signifies our holding steadfastly to the inerrancy of Scripture, not in a thoughtless faith, but one that recognizes God’s Word as the foundation for consistent “straight thinking.” “Presbyterian” signifies that we believe the Scriptures to teach that local church elders along with a pastor, form a “session” to care for the spiritual welfare of the members of the Church, while not presuming to interfere with their freedom of conscience in matters of Christian liberty.
