This new school year at Alconbury High School was "Anything But Ordinary". Returning from summer break, old students and faculty members arrived to a completely new school ... a school with new faces; new students, new faculty members, new coaches, etc. As for the newcomers, Alconbury High School was probably all together different from most schools they've attended. The theme "Anything But Ordinary" explains Alconbury as a whole, the uniqueness, and diversity among the students and staff is something that most schools don't have. True, our school is small, with only about two hundred plus students attending (this includes the Middle School), but the relationships and friendships that develop can become more personnel and meaningful.

High School is time spent on growing, learning, and understanding. Time spent finding out who you are and where you fit in the world. It's time to experience the good and bad. Time spent facing the challenges. Time spent in class dazed and confused, bored or amused. It's time spent growing close to the people you met along the way, and time spent making memories ... Always hold on to those memories ... and remember those goals you have set and achieved, the friendships you have made, and the person you've become.

Our time in High School is over, we've grown, learned, and understood. We've discovered who we are, and where we are headed ... we've experienced both the good and bad, and have overcome the challenges. We are done and moving on ...

“A FIERY NIGHT”

The Homecoming Dance on October 12, 2002, was a complete success. The Student Council went all out with the theme “A Fiery Night.” The decorations were immense, with special thanks to the Volleyball Team and Mrs. Butler. “Flames” engulfed the entire area, including the stage. When you walked in, it was like going into another world. You went from a boring reality to an eventful evening of romance and experiences that will never be forgotten.

The food, provided by the Acobas and Colons, ranged from authentic Philipino food to full-bred American cakes. The music, done by James, also had a very wide selection. It ranged from rock to pop, rap to r&b, and even the occasional love song. By the end of the evening, it was time to announce the Homecoming Court. As Caroline Riley announced the Royalty, the crowd ceased to speak until the names were called, which was followed by violent clapping and screaming.

Before the season started, questions were arising as whether or not there would be a team this year. The Lady Dragons had not only lost four starters but they had lost Ms. Peck, who had been coaching the Lady Dragons for the past 5 years. Surprisingly, the day before official practices began, Coach Lisa Westlake who is probably one of the best coaches Alconbury has had, volunteered. With five returning players, a new coach, and a bunch of eager freshmen, the season began. Practices required a lot of hardwork, and the willingness to sacrifice their bodies, while digging and diving balls. By the end of the conference, the Lady Dragons were 3-1. Although the volleyball team did not make it, each player knows they can look back at this season, and remember all the fun.

"Hills Are My Friend Hills Are My Friend"

Cross Country had the best turnout this season compared to the last few years. Although there were only five guys and one girl, there was a full men's team to compete in the Division Championship Final. Coached by Mr. and Mrs. Bell, who are experienced runners. The Bells helped lead the team to a second place finish at Divisionals. This was the best finish since Mr. Bell has been coaching at Alconbury High School. During practices the whole season the runners chanted their motto, "Hills are my friend, hills are my friend," which helped them through those difficult hills during practice and meets. The season was phenomenal, with great dedication and hard work, which led Stephen Ayres and Mark Henry to the European Championship.

ACE! This year's tennis team was one of the most talented and skilled teams that AHS has seen for years. Through hours of practice and lessons from Coach Miller and Mrs. Ziccardi, a plethora of schools and opponents fell to the mighty Dragon tennis team. Jan Acoba led the team through the all important stretch sessions before practice while the team braced themselves for Coach Miller's 'lunges' and 'high skips', which many found a killer.

The boys' team this year shined bright as they marched through their nearly-undefeated season, only losing their last match by one game to Division I Lakenheath. The Girls' team flew through hard and strong, stealing matches from several schools. The entire school proved strong while playing and defeating many schools from all three divisions.

Dragon Hoops

With losing many of their key players from last year, from either moving or graduating, this season turned out to be a rebuilding season for next year. Returning coaches Tye Bridges and Jerry Fierce kept the team in shape and ready for anything. The team's record was 5-5 over all and 3-3 in the conference. No, this wasn't a bad record since they at least broke even and kept Coach Tye from ever receiving a losing season yet. The team didn't go on many trips outside the country, but they did go to London Central and Menwith Hill for the overnight trips, and also went to the American School of London for a day trip. When tournament time came around, they weren't as fortunate as hoped. They choked in the beginning of each game and couldn't get back into the game until the last couple of minutes, and this caused them to lose the tournament. They still had a strong team and a few players made it to all-conference first team and second team.

Go Fight Win Dragons!

This year's cheerleading squad has by far been the most enthusiastic, energetic, and determined bunch of young ladies that Alconbury High School has ever seen. Thanks to the coaches and their supreme organization, try-outs went extremely well. The try-outs consisted of a short cheer, a dance and a cheer was to be made up by the participant. Filled with smiles and just a smidge of attitude, eight girls were selected to be on the squad, and two alternates.

Selling Candy Grams to raise money.

These girls are led by captain, Alexandra Concilio, Co-Captain, Racheal Moore, Coach, Christina Murray and her sister Maria. Angela Madrishin, Charlita Whitehead, Eva Cotto, Breanna Harrison, Jannel Acoba, Kristine Fernandez, are members of the 2002-03 cheerleading squad. The alternate, Jennifer Becker became known as A1. Tiffany Egnew, the cheerleading squad manager is responsible for knowing all the cheers. Steve Ayres, a male addition to the team, has made it possible to do amazing stunts. Overall Coach Murray and her outstanding organization and spirit have truly made the squad feel like a team.

Ashley Roy, Alicia Christensen, Sha Naie Day, Traci Satern, and Reva Ballard, an otherwise totally new roster, and under new supervision, the ladies are still expecting to win it all again!!!

The Alconbury Track team is small in numbers with only 12 athletes, but we have some great individual performers. Like Senior Steve Ayres, Division 3 Cross-Country Champion, and Sophomore 800-meter recordholder Brandon Blaska leading the team this year. Both have the potential to win medals at the European track finals. 400 meter runner Jamie Romero and shot putters Joe Warren and Shannon Buxton all have potential to win their events and make it to the Europeans. The Cotillion Dance was held on Saturday, February 22, 2003. It was a very magical evening with romance filling the air. It was held at Great Stukely Hall in Stukley Village and was put on by the Seniors. The decorations consisted of the colors blue, white, and silver and the food was amazing, which included fruit sticks, meat platter, cakes, cupcakes, vegetables, and much more.

The dance also included a hip DJ, Mr. James, who played a wide range of music. He brought his own range of decorations that included strobe lights, and many other colorful, bright lights.

His music was also fantastic, which included rap, r&b, one or two slow songs, and the occasional rock.

With everyone in anticipation, they finally announced the Cotillion Court, which was King & Queen Steve Ayres and Caroline Riley, Prince & Princess Jan Acoba and Traci Satern, Duke & Duchess Craig Ragsdel and Caitlin Laingen, and Lord & Lady Damone Nixon and Nicole Warren.

The Duke of Edinburgh Award (DOE) is a program run by Ms. McQuitty at our school. It is a program where the youth of our school go on hikes through various locations throughout the UK and Europe, pushing their bodies and minds to the limits. They also test their abilities to not only go on the hikes and make the Bronze, Silver, and Gold Awards, but also to make and maintain Physical Recreation plans, to help people in their communities, and to maintain a skill that they enjoy doing for as long as a year and a half. All this is done while doing their schoolwork and participating in other extra-curricular activities. Anyone who is in DOE deserves a pat on the back, because although it seems they only do things during the meetings, they are actually continually completing things.

2002 - 2003

Alconbury's Student Government plays an important role in the more entertaining aspects of the school year, as well as trying desperately to raise money.

Over the past year, the Alconbury High School Student Council has sponsored dances, including Homecoming, and held some memorable pep rallies and spirit weeks. Also Dragon Fest was a day that will be remembered for years to come. It took some near freak-outs by most of the members of the Student Council, but they managed to pull off a decent school year, which is mind-boggling.

While the Senior Class hosted Cotillion this year, in addition they were responsible for planning their graduation, which is a fairly important part of any Senior year. The Juniors engaged in a multitude of fundraising activities in a frantic attempt to make money for Prom 2003, which they hosted.

The Sophomores were also active, raising money and doing other important sophomore things. The Freshmen were active in much the same way, but they were younger, so it was different. All in all the year was very cool.

National Honor Society

National Honor/Junior Honor Society has always consisted of an elite group of students. These are the top-notch people of the school. Members of the society keep their grades up and also participate in a plethora of extra-curricular activities. They maintain character at all times and are students that others can look up to as role models. This year's Society is headed by Mrs. Calgelia, who has given the students many opportunities to get out into the community, participate in fundraisers, volunteer tutoring other students, and make themselves known throughout the school. This year's president, Alexandra Concilio, has had much help from her council that consists of Vice President Alicia Christensen, Secretary Jan Acoba, and Treasurer Robert Fisher. The National Junior Honor Society is lead by Caitlin Laingen, and her council includes Vice President Rachael Moore, Secretary Maribeth Simmons, and Treasurer Kristine Fernandez. This is a wonderful group of people that has made Alconbury High School known for being great!

I think we all agree that the hardest part of being on the yearbook staff was the fact that we had to face the negative outcomes of last year's failure. But this year's yearbook staff overcame all adversity. We would like to thank the faculty, parents, and students that supported us; we were happy to be the ones responsible for keeping the memories.

Even in this age of science of technology

Trees provide us shelter

The chairs we sit in

The beds we lie on

When the heart is ablaze

With the fire of anger

Fuelled by wrangling

Trees bring refreshing, welcome coolness

Personal Messages...

Firstly, the yearbook staff...its was interesting...but we had fun. I'm never going to forget those mean 'jokes' that Mr. Hansen would have for all us. Ashley, Alicia, Caroline, and Amanda; you guys have been some of my closest girlfriends this year and I thank you for being there for me through everything. Hey Ashley..."How you been"??....."Where you been??" Dave, Jan, Collin, 'Science Buddy', Brad, Omar, Blain, and Erik; you all have been awesome guy friends and I hope that I was a great friend too. Brandon, even though we don't really talk that much anymore, I will always remember you and I hope that you will remember me. Anyone else that I forgot, I'm sorry, but I will always think of little old Alconbury as my home. Since I've spent most of my high school years here, it's going to be really hard to leave. I just want everybody to know how much you all mean to me and how much I'm going to miss you all. And to my fellow Juniors.....good luck next year!!! Goodbye.

*Traci Satern*

To our wonderful son, Nathan Hollingsworth, congratulations on another great school year. We are so proud of you! Keep up the great work. Lots of Love,

Mom and Dad

Damone Dante Nixon, thank you for continuing to make us proud. If you keep your standards high, you'll reach the next cloud, and always remember, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Phil 4:13
Love,

Mom and Dad

Angela,
We's gonna miss ya! Have fun at BYUI... maybe we'll see ya at EFY. Love...
Laura & Nicole

Miss Roy-

Good luck getting to Justin Timberlake...but u know I'm still flya than he is! Beauuuuutiiiiifuuulllll, I just want u 2 know ur my favorite gurl.

Love,
Nigel Bradshaw

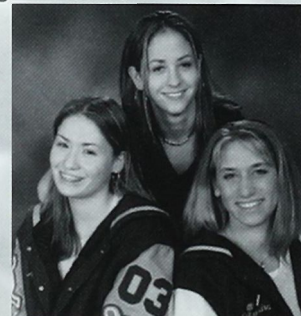

Nick Nadeau- well done on your awesome year! You always make us proud in everything that you do.

Love, Mom and Dad :)

Matt: What can I say...this has been another interesting year; I hope you have fun being a freshman, stay out of trouble!!! And don't forget 'I LOVE YOU'!!! Ashley: Where to start, I could probably fill up three pages with meaningful words and memories...but yeah I won't. I'm glad that we became such great friends, thanks for always being there when I needed someone to talk to, and for all the great laughs and memories. I don't know what I would have done without you; high school wouldn't have been the same. Can't wait until college...can you believe we're done with High School??? I'll write more in your yearbook later...Mark & Eddie: I'm goin' to miss you both so much!!! It's been great hangin' out with you both this year; I wish it didn't have to end. Eddie, good luck in the Military and don't forget to invite me to the wedding...Mark (Banana Boy, Marky Mark), good luck with whatever you do, whether you go to college or the military, and make sure it's something that you want to do. Both you don't forget, I'm always here for you...just Call Me! Jan: You have always been there for me, listening and giving me advice. Thank You! I'm going to miss you when I leave, have a great Senior year. Traci: Hey Girl!!! I wish I didn't have to say goodbye...knowing you has been great! We have had so much fun, and I wish it didn't have to end so soon. Thank you for everything...have fun in Italy; I'll make sure me and Ashley visit. Good luck with your Senior year, hopefully I'll see you again soon!!! Omar & Erik: My lab buddies...what can I say...I'm going to miss you two!!! It's been a lot of fun...stay out of trouble!!! I'll be back to see you guys...have a great Senior year. Blain: I think out of everyone here, you are the one person I've known the longest. It was great seeing you again, have fun next year...and look out for Omar and Erik. Nigel: Keep smilin'...it's been great knowing you...good luck with whatever you choose to do in life...Yankees who??? Queen Amanda: You're a great and beautiful person, and don't you ever forget that!!! I'm glad I got to know you better this year, hopefully we stay in touch. David: Smooch!!! Who is that sexy pasty white guy??? I'm going to miss you so much when I'm in college, luckily you won't be that far away...Ben Rhiner: I couldn't go out without saying goodbye to my other younger brother...I can't believe you'll be a freshman next year, stay out of trouble!!! And I promise to take you out when I get back! Kyle Gray: Well Kyle...its been great getting to know you for the past few years, have fun being a freshman. Queen Caroline: You are truly an all around great person...I'm glad that we met...don't change for anyone. And last but not least, Angel: I can't believe the year is already over...I'm going to miss you!!! You are such a great person and it has been truly a blessing to have met you. I'll make sure to keep in touch, and I'll be back to visit. Thanks for always being there; it's been fun. To My Other Fellow Seniors: Sorry I didn't get a chance to write to you...there is so much I wanted to say, but to sum it all up, you will be missed, and I wish you all the best of luck. There are so many other people that I wanted to write to, but I'm short on space, but to anyone that I left out, that knows me, "I'LL MISS YOU ALL!!!"

Little Princess, Squirt, Munchkin,
We are so proud of everything you have accomplished so far in life...its hard to believe that you're graduating, good luck
with whatever you choose to do, we know you'll succeed! Don't forget that we will always be here for you...

Love Always,

Alicia...there is no way I can possibly tell you in words how great it's been having you as a friend for these past four years. You've always been there for me no matter what you had going on in your life and I can't tell you how much I appreciate everything you've done for me. I can't imagine what high school would have been like without you. Well I better stop before I get too sentimental here. Love ya babe and I can't wait until college. Traci...."How you been?".....even though we didn't become friends until last year, I feel like we've shared so much. Having you to talk about sports and guys and anything else we could think of has helped me realize what an amazing person you are. Have fun in Italy and don't forget to write to me about all the fine guys you're gonna see. Love ya babe. "Where you been?"... Nigel.....well where should I start. My last two years of high school wouldn't have been the same without you here with me. I can honestly say I will never find someone else who makes me feel the way you do. Don't lose your glass half-full perspective on life. Have fun in NYC and even though you don't like to talk, make sure you send me some pics and letter so I can see how grown up you've gotten. Well.....yeah that's all I can think of right now.....I Love You Cutie and I'll never forget you. Mark...well it took a while for us to be come really good friends, but I'm glad we've had the chance to hang out more this year. Thanks for always being here for me to talk to when I needed you and don't forget to keep in touch when you go to college and tell me how exciting it is. and "Stop Whining!!" Eddie...hanging out with you this year has been anything but ordinary. Having you to just chill with has kept me from becoming bored with my final year of high school. Good luck in the Air Force and stay in touch. Jan....having you to talk this year has really helped me get through a lot. I wish we could have become friends sooner because you have become a really special person in my life and I will always remember you. Omar and Erik....well helping you in avid for the first semester was more eventful than I thought it would be...I'm sorry that you'll have to spend your senior year here, but at least you'll have each other to help keep your grades up..... hahaha.....But seriously, it was great getting to know you guys and I hope you have the time of your lives next year. Well, as much fun as you can have at Alconbury. Angel: Thanks for being here for me to talk to whenever I was having a bad day. I don't think I'll ever meet an adult as nice and cool as you. Have fun next year and keep playing good music. To anyone I forgot: It's been great knowing all of you and I'll miss you!!!

Cassie, thank you for all your support and for always being there for me. I don't know what I would have done without you. You have been my bestest friend ever and I am truly going to miss you. This year has been a new experience, as it is my first year here and I want to thank Char, Reva, Dani, Traci, Amanda, Caroline, Jan, Robert, and Luis for making this year so much easier for me and for making it one that I will never forget and cherish. To David, my baby brother, it has been an enjoyable year in art class. It wouldn't have been so funny without you and thank you for always being there when I needed help. I wish everyone the best of luck next year.

Egg Roll, Mowgli, Bullvine (it's possible), (Filiricanz) Jellie Bean, Nena, Nita (lip gloth), Duklet (hefferz!!!), Kuya (computer clubth/ chesth club), Noreaga, Naranja (7 days), cauliflower, Mark oh yeah, and ma AVID tutors (u guyths were great...can I have yallz auto graphs!?) the tall peepz like Blain (three 6 mafia), Omar (...), Nigel (im lafin at u), ma boy Erik, (coincidences), ma cheerleaders (GO ALCONBURY!!!)...*Memories* Ya'll have made this year fun and exciting. I wub u guys. Keep it real. ~*CocoNut*~

First and foremost, I'd like to say a few words to all my Fellow Graduates of 2005...it's been four years, and now the end has finally arrived for we few, we happy few. I hope for nothing but the best for all of you and your futures, and I hope you all depart Alconbury with memories of all the good times...Good luck, WE'RE ALL DONE!!! And now a few words for some special people in my life...JAN- You've been there for me, more than anyone else in my whole life. I owe you so much in return, yet I've wasted so much time with my nonsense. I am forever sorry for all my terrible deeds (you deserve so much better), yet I am truly grateful and blessed to have such an amazing person as you in my life. I'll miss you, and I know you will aspire to great things. I am here for you, no matter what. Ti voglio bene...always. AMANDA - I'll never forget the countless memories and inside jokes we carry together...BUT the fondest moment for me, was your invitation to the Monkees concert. As silly as it may sound now, at that moment, I felt like I had finally gained a friend here at Alconbury. And I'm glad that friend was you. I'm so thankful to have someone as beautiful, comical, reliable, and overall amazing as you in my life. Thank you for everything...I love you!!! TRACI - Oh ho I wish we had last year together as well...what an amazing person you are, and awesome friend. Sweet, caring, thoughtful, and just truly beautiful! I'll never forget all the great times we've shared. Best of luck in Italy (you'll have a blast). DAVID - It's amusing to think back to last year, and how inferior I felt in your presence...but now, we've become great friends, and I'm really lucky to know you so well (especially because you're the only person I can hold a decent conversation about hockey with!) There's no doubt in my mind you'll accomplish great things in life, as long as you have fun. Who knows, maybe we'll be seeing each other throughout our college years...If not, best of luck with everything, and I'll definitely miss the "comical genius" in you. COLLIN- Future tennis player? Musician? Who knows...you have so many great talents, it's hard to predict what you'll be doing the rest of your life. But whatever you do, have a blast...and never forget all the great times we all shared. STEVE - It's been a great year, and although you've been pessimistic about England (and most especially Alconbury), I know you'll walk away with fond memories. You're a great friend, and I know you'll accomplish great things in years to come. Best of luck with everything...this small Steve, this small!!! BRAD & BRANDON - Two of the funniest guys I know! Two more years, and you'll both be done with it all! Best of luck with everything...and I hope you continue making others laugh as much as you as you have me. CAITLIN- Woo hoo, Valentine's Day hanging out in the exchange...that I will never forget. Watch over that lil moneky while I'm away at college. I know you'll go far in academics, athletics, and your amazing personality. Peace! MRS. CURRAN- By far, you are the down right coolest teacher I have ever had! I'll never forget your two art classes, honors English class, or my favorite CWE with you. I've learned so much from you, and I just wanted you to know, that you help bring out the art lover in me...I may not have much talent, but I plan on furthering my art education in college. Thank you for everything...and best of luck with art and English students years to come! MR. GAY - The best mathematics teacher I've ever had...thank you for everthing. I've always enjoyed your "words of wisdom" and philosophies. And I'll never forget my most embarrassing attempt to catch some "brain food"...hehehe. MRS. AYRES - Aw, we've only known each other for a little less than a year, but I'll never forget your heart-warming smile and amazing sense of humor. Thanks for always bringing a smile to my face. MRS. KING- Without your undying encouragement and guidance, college probably wouldn't be a definite part of my future. Thank you, a thousand times, for everything you have done for me. ANGEL- Sorry I wasn't much help working in the main office, but I loved having time to chill with you. Thanks for always being so sweet!...and for all those whom I didn't have room to write to (so sorry)...here are some SHOUTOUTS to other important people - Alicia Christensen, Ashley Roy, Robert Fisher, Sha Naie Day, Suzanne Schiller, Jannel Acoba, Caitlin Mooney...and all the tennis/basketball/softball players I have had the privilege of playing with! With much sadness I depart with a final adieu to all...

--Much Love -- Caroline Bridget Riley XBACI BACIX

Seniors: Good luck in life, strive for success, believe in yourself...its been a pleasure to see you all grow.

Alexandra,
 One day you are an A & F wearing hottie and the next you're a graduate! Weird, huh?!?!?! I'm extremely proud of you sweetie and I can't wait to watch the kind of person you will become. I consider myself extremely lucky to have such a unique person in my life. "Smell ya later"

Hey everybody...shouts to all the people. The last couple of years have been something. Something good, something bad, but mostly just something strange. But it's never been boring. Except when it has, which turned out to be most of the time. But life goes on. Here's some specifics in no particular order, but nobody get mad if you're not here. Space constraints or whatever. Collin & Jan: it's been nasty, fun, and...well, I dunno. Nasty and fun. With lots of gas. Spicy food, moldy bread (paul too, huh?), and girls...Mail Order Bride: I'm bored, give me a call. Our 2 days were nice, but the rest has been pretty sweet too. No complaints from me, but be careful I don't stuff you in a suitcase and take you with me. And great tremors...yeah. We better figure ou what's gonna happen to the kids. Robert: You need to relax. Take a breath or a shot or something. Little Bambino and Brad's dad's son. Steve, too: Johnny Steamboat was gonna use the carpet samples to beat his fish wife with. It's the only explanation. Coconut: Smile...yeah yeah, it's possible. Nena, Juvi: You're both really young. Ha. Caitlin: You're young too....sigh. Alicia & Ashley: Good times...don't feel insulted that I grouped you two together. You're both beautiful, so it makes sense. heh. I'll miss you both next year. Traci: Let's play Atmoosfear, my gatekeeper! Or dream phone...heh. No comment. Little Jannel: My little almost sister...be nicer to your dad. And don't down anything fast. Ha ha...I'm gonna miss you. Amanda: you text me too much. But it's all right I guess, cause I pretend to be asleep sometimes. Heh. Caroline: See, next season that Bruins are gonna take the Devils in the Eastern Conference. You watch. Um...I'm glad you don't hate me this year. It's cool. Alex: get the labs written. Chika: I'd write a message in Japanese, but I can't. Debu Devu. Sarah: We should draw more. It was fun. Baaa. Rachael!: My shoe buddy, my brownie buddy. High five. Mrs. Curran: You should make sexy mermaids a required project in your class. It'd be a smash hit. Mr. Gay: It's been educational...I learned more about Scuba Steven than I ever knew. It was fun. Mr B. & Mrs. Turner: The tournaments have been...unique. Mrs. King: You'll manage without us. It's cause you're insane. Angel: Careful what you say on the phone. Seniors as a whole: Everybody who's there, it's been cool for various reasons. Sean with the footbag junk, and attempting converstaion on the bus. It was cool. Cameron: Don't be too freaked out by the English stuff... To those absent peeps...Paul: You went a little psycho in Alabama, but you never read this anyway. Tattoos with slogans are always a mistake, my man. Ashley: Couldn't let this one get by. Um..way to personal for a yearbook. And besides, the same as with Paul. And that's it for this year, people. Anybody I left out...it was on purpose because I couldn't put my thoughts into words...really. But yeah. It's been something. *David Leslie*

Beauty, oh how this should be defined,
 For whichever way I look at you,
 It is beauty that I find.
 Your skin.
 So gentle, silky, and lovely to touch,
 Why, it's just as beautiful as your hair,
 But that's not saying much,
 But Key! Don't get me wrong,
 For your hair is as beautiful as can be,
 Through your eyes of course,
 Are much more dazzling to me
 But enough of that cause
 It is your voice I truly love
 For everytime I hear it,
 I hear angels singing from up above
 But as I look in front me
 I realize that it is only the true beauty....
 of my lovely hon-ee! :)
 Love,
 Couick

This school year has been cool and I have met a lot of new people and new groups, such as the sophomore three and Alpha Squad. So shoutouts go to Nigel, I won't be able to laugh as much next year without you in my classes. Blaska, who am I supposed to go to the shoppette with next year you punk! Have fun in Washington. And a little something goes out to the Alpha Squad. Omar, Blain, Erik, and Jan, we had some fun times and I'll see you next year. Also, Caitlin (KFC, my baby's mama, and something I can't write) art class wouldn't have been the same without you. And to those two senior girls out there, you know who you are (Ashley and Alicia) no matter what people say or don't say, you two look GOOD. And Alex, I had fun messing around with you this year. And other people...Creg, Mike, Char, Reva, Max, Cassie, Chad, Rachael, Jannel (my other lil sis), Traci (my science buddy), Mark (mighty mouse). And last but not least to my sister I couldn't have gotten through this school year without you, I Love You.

Eddie aka Middle Mann: Man we've had a trip together... ever since freshman year walking to base every day we have been chillin together. Then the summer of sophomore year we were all over Huntingdon, Stukley, Goddy, and everywhere else. You know if someone filmed our summer that year people would be laughing there ... off. lol. Then last year and this year has finished it completely. We go to the clubs and pubs having fun. Don't forget to record Beep a Mutt... and keep rappin but not like Will Smith anymore...lol Stay in touch so we can hook up later. Peace Alicia aka Aly C aka Candy Cain.: Well we never really hung out until this year, but this year was cool. To bad we didn't hangout more like freshman year and that, you know? Well that was in the past, we had some good times together, at a few parties. You're always someone I could talk to and a good friend. You best stay in touch and hopefully we can meet up also and see what's going on. Hopefully by then you won't be so picky anymore...lol. O don't forget to get back your jacket Candy Cain :p Bye :) Ashley aka Little Roy: Hey what's up... Sorry the first message wasn't sentimental enough, I didn't think you'd actually care what I said. We had a fun time hanging out this skool year, specially them parties at your house. Don't worry I'm going to miss you too... no really I am. I don't think I'd ever forget your caustic attitude... look at that because of you I actually learned a vocabulary word, thank you. LOL. Keep in touch and we'll meet up in a couple of years ok? Bye :) Mrs. Angel: now you know I couldn't forget you... I think you're the reason why I never got in trouble. I mean I would never come to school but you still had my back believing all them notes from my mom, yes they were from my mom don't think I wrote them. O and "Stop Playing them Games on the Computer"...lol. I got to say my shout outs to all the others that I would hang out with every once and a while or talk to... Jan (Wizzy Wow), Jannel (Cheer up already), Eva, Brenda (PUNK), Chika (Mini She), Blain, Omar, Erik, Nigel (two words: Du Rag), Sha Naie, Traci, David L. ), David S (Pinky).. Luis (Don't forget, Puff Puff Pass), Marianna (LEAVE HIM), Alison (nice party last year, I'm waiting for the next one), Caitlin (where's my massage), Cameron (keep playing ball), Amanda (I'm Hoootttt...lol), Blaska, Bre (How's them Pink Elephants), Megan and Kristina (I see you this summer), Collin (Fatty Fat Man), Steve (Keep the running up), Nelly, Couick (Cream Egg Head..lol). O and I can't forget my brother and sister (stop that **** smoking).

*Mark aka Mity Mouse*

I'm here 2 say me & u can play...lol nah...i'm just jokin'. I wanna give a shout out 2 all my people, 1st off 2 my big sista Nita aka DA Hitman's Girlfriend. lol. My Big/Lil Sis Brenda . To Eva, oh my body's feelin weary. To Damone aka Smokey Datz my Dogg. To Vince AKA Big Balla U R My Dogg too. Brad AKA Simba 2 all my Eighth Grade Friendz ya'll know who ya'll r...we all have been through a lot...and u know I can't 4get Juvi. To Da Highschoolers...yeah I'll b up there next year. 2 Alicia & Ashley r ya'll happy now to be gettin' out of here!!! Ya'll are great have fun in college...2 Da Flip Girls in da 9th grade, we gotta hook up some time :) !!! I'll miss you all when I'm gone.

We are pleased to have been able to support such school activities as Model UN, Model Senate and Junior/Senior Prom, as well as other school and base organizations. We also pleased to be able to award scholarships to graduating seniors. Thanks to all who supported our fund-raising activities, including the Bazaar at RAF Molesworth (in conjunction with the OCSC), Pub Night, Crystal Bingo and other projects.

*Congratulations
Seniors Class of
