Alconbury High School

The heart of the dragon
2003 ~ 04

The life of Alconbury High School

another year is over at Alconbury High School, another senior class has walked its last time through the familiar halls to make way for a new one. The end of the year is a time for a few pangs, but, more than that, it's a time to celebrate all of the ascending classes of students. Some will sample high school for the first time next year, others will find themselves exploring "the real world", the new juniors will host prom, the new sophomores will begin to get into the swing of things, and the new seniors will find themselves in the most coveted and respected role attainable in high school.

The Heart of the Dragon was the 2003-04 yearbook theme, so chosen because of all of the spirit, sportsmanship, respect, friendship, joy and laughter that make our students the heart of the school, and therefore of the dragon.

Since Alconbury is so small, we find ourselves realizing how close friends can really become. We're allowed to know how good it feels to see a friendly face no matter which part of the building you happen to be wandering, how nice it is to be able to smile and walk all the way to class, and what a privilege it is to know you're really an important part of something special.

No one can break the heart of our dragon because of our dragon-like fire, energy, and enthusiasm. We stand together when times get tough, and can laugh even harder with our friends at the end of the day. That heart will always be unbreakable as long as we're committed to keeping our school spirit strong.

Quote- I know i ain't seeing what I'm seeing, what I think I'm seeing.

It was a time when the soft-ball team went to Germany for a soft- ball game Mrs. Peck and Mrs. Besty were trying to tell us the sign for when we were up to bat and on base. So Ashely went up to bat and Mrs. Besty yelled to her "alright Ashely it a "30" pitch" and Mrs. Peck asked me what did Mrs. Besty just say (because I was over talking with Kim & Jenny) and I said Oh she said it's a dirty pitch. Everyone fell out laughing so for the rest of the season everytime someone got a thirty-pitch while up at bat, they always yelled out it's a dirty pitch.

Where I was born- Poplar, Montana, (Fort Peck Indian Reservation)

Places I have lived- Las Vegas, NV

Quote- "Don't hate someone just because they got something you don't have."

Courage is the discovery that you may not win and trying when you know you can lose. Honor is standing for what you believe, not for what you know. Life isn't about living without problems. Life is about solving problems. Compassion is passion with a heart. The only thing in the whole universe people need to control are their attitudes. How a person wins and loses is much more important than just winning or losing. If you only do what you know you can do- you never do very much. There are no failures-just experiences and your reactions to them. Getting what you want is not nearly as important as giving what you have. Going on a journey with a map requires following your heart. Talent without humility is wasted. If you don't want it bad enough to risk losing it- you don't want it bad enough. When life knocks you down, you have two choices- stay down or get up!

Where I was born- Georgia

Places I have lived- Georgia, Panama, North Carolina, England

Quote- Everytime you smile at someone, it is an action of love, a gift to that person, a beautiful thing. Mother Teresa

I have always seen my life as a journey on a road tomorrow. There have been hills and valleys. And turns here and there, that have filled my life with all kinds of challenges and changes. But I made it through those times, because there were always special friends I met along the way. My special friends are the ones who have walked beside me, comforting my spirit or holding my hand when I needed it the most. They were friends who loved my smiles and were not afraid of my tears. They were true friends who really cared about me. Those friends are forever, they are cherished and loved more than they'll ever know.

The Spirit of The Dragon

Spirit Week is a time when students (and teachers if they would like) dress and act crazy. You dress and act according to the day of the week it is. For example, on Monday we might have "Wacky Tacky Day" or Tuesday might be your favourite cartoon character. Fridays however are always green and gold day! Fridays are also the day of our pep rallies. Spirit Week is a time when Alconbury students can be crazy and get pumped up about their school and support the teams, but it's mainly just about having fun. The spirit and creativity of this school shines bright during this special week.

Homecoming

A magical night filled with sparkles on the walls and icicles dangling from above set the scene for the 2003 homecoming dance. The theme chosen by the student council for the dance was "Ice".

Hours spent on decoration making the blue paper falling from the basketball hoops and balloons ruffling down below captured the dreams of a true waterfall.

The sparkling night was not only shown by the fairy lights on the walls, but from the smiling students as they danced and sat with their friends. The laughter and joy of that night will remain frozen in memories.

Lady Dragons Volleyball

The 2003-2004 volleyball team was full of energy from the very beginning during preseason to the end at Europeans. With 21 girls going out for the team and 2 awesome coaches, Lisa and Mark Westlake, the season really came together.

During the summer, the girls worked out with the jump program, to try to increase the height of their jump. They also raised money for new uniforms, sweats and bags, by holding bakesales, making lunches, doing chores around base and babysitting.

The season itself went really well. The Dragons came out 2nd in the conference games. During divisionals the ladies beat every team except London Central. After a very close and exciting game against Lajes, the Dragons had a definite place in Europeans. Caitlin Laingen and Megan Archer got All-Conference and All-Tournament teams and Carly Bascom and Kristine Fernandez got honorable mentions. The ladies went all the way to Mannheim, Germany to play Division III teams from all over Europe. The Dragons came in last but they still had an amazing time. Caitlin Laingen was the All-Tournament player from Alconbury.

The team stands on the court waiting for the whistle to be blown

“Being on the Alconbury Dragons has been a pleasure. I learned a lot from the coaches as well as my teammates. I’ll miss playing with them.” says Jannel Acoba on her experience playing with the girls. They had a great season, and can’t wait for next year’s. For those who aren’t returning, they will always have a fun, successful season to remember.

The Strugglesome Climb To The Top

What make's a great team is dedication, spirit and leadership. These key elements were the way to our success in the Division III tournament. The endless training by coach Miller and former player Collin Thomas, made the weak become strong. Our abundant amount of new players filled the courts with laughter and tears, keeping the spirit alive on the court.

In the beginning of the season our triumphant victory was never visible. The endless defeats from other teams were sure to pull us down, but our dedication and love for the game proved others wrong. We went to the Division III tournament unaware of what was to lie ahead, but our reward for our courage to keep on going was our title as a Division III Champs.

"Miracles really do happen. Alconbury's 2003 tennis team certainly proved that! Going into the Division Championships at Wiesbaden, our chances of winning didn't look very good. However, once play began, our player's hard work throughout the season paid off. It was a total TEAM victory with all six of our players scoring points. Without everyone's contribution, even those team members that didn't travel to Wiesbaden, Alconbury's tennis team could not have won the Championship." Coach Miller 12 High School students and 12 Middle School students made this the largest team in Alconbury history. The Dragons had complete teams in every category, except varsity girls.

For the varsity boys, sophomore Robbie Stotler again proved that he is the top Dragon runner; he was the first AHS runner in every meet he ran in and qualified for the Europeans with a 5th place at the Division Three Championships. Freshman Randy Gililand and senior Erik Moore were number 2 and 3 runners with consistent performance in every meet.

Zeth Current, Tyler Keitz, Ben Jaskoski, Deighton Jones and Max Reuning all helped the Dragons to the second place team trophy in the Division Three XC Finals, held at the Dragons home course at Hinchingsbrooke Park.

Coach Ken Bell looks forward to next year's team as many of his Dragon runners will be returning.

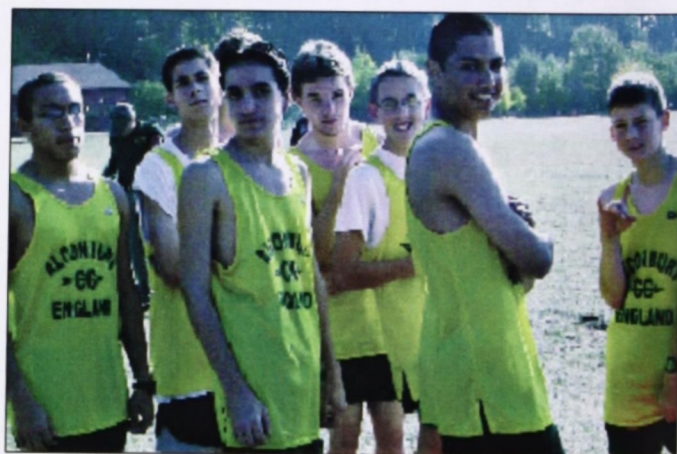

For the lady Dragons, Junior Karen Thrasher and freshman Megan Stotler were the leading runners, both making all-conference by placing 7th and 10th at Division Three, and qualified for the European XC Final. Freshman Ashley Wadsack showed great improvement all season and will return with Karen and Megan next season.

The Middle School team had great a great season led by Kyle Lucas and Stephanie Bray; both were undefeated in every race this season.

The Spirited Team

This year's boy's basketball team was full of dedication, spirit and teamwork. The guys were dedicated even before the season had started; they were always in the gym practicing, making sure every move was perfect. Throughout the season, the team showed it's spirit. Every game the guys played, they pushed themselves to do their best and were supportive of each other.

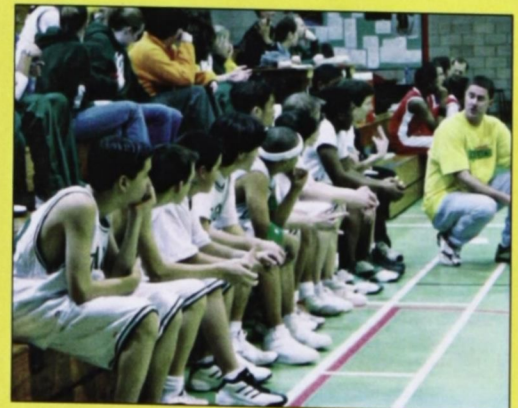

At the Division Three Tournament there was an abundant amount of joy and excitement when they won the game against Lajes. The team ran to the centre of the court, followed by the crowd, cheering and yelling for their victory. Playing the game is not just about the winning, but having fun, and this is what they proved.

This year's cheer team accomplished a lot in the few weeks that they were together. Sure new friendships were created while others were broken; there were multiple injuries, along with a lot of drama; though at the end of the day, the Alconbury cheerleaders went from an okay team to a great one.

Jenny Jones, Chelsea Thompson, Aynsley Emery, Sarah Tackett, Lorynne Edwards, Andrea Starr, Brianna Smith, Breanna Harrison (captain) and Eva cotto (co-Captain) all worked really hard to become stiff competition for the other cheer teams during competition. Alconbury's small and young team did so well in competition that they made third place.

Nothing but the best

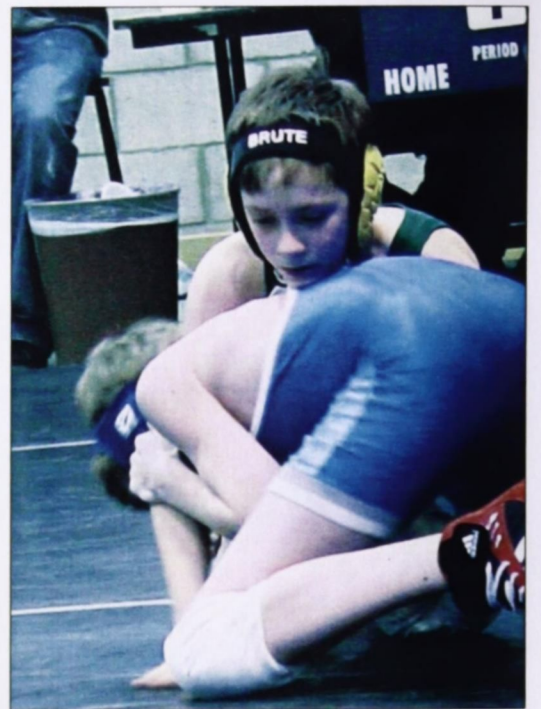

The wrestling team welcomed the 2003-2004 season with flips, flops and headlocks. Welcoming back Deighton Jones, Kyle Lucas, Andrew Ramirez, Chris Buxton and their managers Ashley Adams and Shannon Buxton, from the 2002-2003 season. The returning wrestlers were ecstatic at the first practice to find so many new victims. Zac Davis, Doug Bagnall, Daniel Warren, Alex Davis, Joshua Williamson, Darren Zajdel, Kyle Frank, Josh Beckett, Darrien Jones, Patrick Jones and Barron Lawrence are the remaining survivors.

The reasons behind all the running, push-ups and the sit-ups are the coaches, Mr. Lucas, Jason Bodine, Luke Haggarty, Kyle Ketley, Mr. Jones, and last but not least, there would not be any season at all without the sponsors Mr. Adams and Mr. Hagen. It was a young team, and everyone improved throughout the year at practices and meets to their best abilities. Most of all everyone enjoyed being part of the team and learning about the sport.

This year started off a little shaky for the Alconbury High School Fastpitch team; only three players returned from last season, and only five girls had ever played softball before. However, about a week into practice, it became clear that this year's team had more skill and determination than perhaps any fastpitch team Alconbury has ever seen. The team has worked very hard, and it definitely shows. Look out Admirals, this year Alconbury is coming back with a vengeance!

For the 2003-2004 Yearbook, we wanted something bigger and better than we have ever had before. Our main goal was to make a yearbook special and more personal to each student. It was a long and trying task, but we made it in the end.

The Yearbook class was not only about taking pictures and recording them in a book, but about responsibility, commitment and knowing how to use layouts. Each staff member worked extremely hard in the production of this book. Thank you all, and thank you to all who supported us along the way.

Its high enthusiasm and strong spirit is larger than what meets the eye. The benefits in being in a small school such as Alconbury is its close friendships with the students and teachers. The school allows you to participate in fantastic activities, which builds strong character and makes everyone unique. Alconbury is a very special school, which gives all students the opportunities to excel in their studies and hobbies. AHS is not only a school but also a home welcome to all.

Ms. McQuitty

On behalf of all AHS students and staff, we would like to thank you for all the service you have rendered to this school. From the time Alconbury first opened in 1982 to this year, 2004, you have been a key part of this school. You have seen its ups and downs, and still have persevered. Your love and dedication of the Duke of Edinburgh Program is widely admired. We congratulate you on your retirement and wish you the very best for the future.

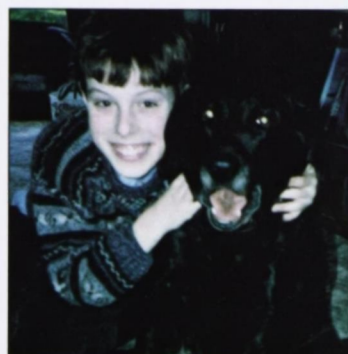

Dear Billy,

We've had many adventures together. You are about to begin your greatest adventure. We wish you all the best.

All our love,

Mom, Dad and Bo

Suzanne Graceful Lilly

These years of schooling are filled with memories. As a two year old, your desire for school and to ride the bus each day was the beginning that never changed over the years. You were a friend to so many, a woman of grace and a sister who was always there for her brother. Like so many, your schooling spanned three continents, Panama, the States and England. These experiences have given you a special perspective on life, on education, and what is truly important in this world. Jesus tells a story of three men and how they handled the talents they were given. You have been like the first, who made the best use of them, and as a result, your mother and I know that the Lord will give you more talents to use in the coming years.

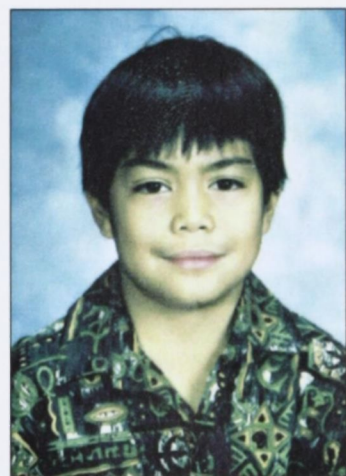

In His Love

*Congratulations on your Graduation

This is a great achievement, you have you are embarking on a new success in all your future endeavors.

Always believe in yourself and what you can accomplish. Follow your instinct, but do your best and all the potential within you is sure to be realized. May you fulfill your dreams.

We love you!

Dear Jan,

May you meet every challenge with joy in your heart,
and you successfully finish each goal that you start...

May delight and contentment touch all you do, as you proudly accomplish each dream you pursue.

We're proud of you and wish you the best as you go along the road to success!

Congratulations on your High School graduation!

We love you and God Bless!

Love & prayers,
Uncle Doug and Aunt Armida

CONGRATULATIONS JAN!

We are so proud of you
and your accomplishments.
Make the most of your college years and continue to work hard for your dreams.

We love you!

Congratulations Seniors Class of 2004 From the Enlisted Spouses' Club

We are pleased to have been able to support such school activities as Model UN, Model Senate and Junior/Senior Prom, as well as other school and base organizations. We are also pleased to be able to award scholarships to graduating seniors. Thanks to all who supported our fund-raising activities, including the Bazaar at RAF Molesworth (in conjunction with the OCSC) and other projects.

Congratulations Zac Davis!

Zac,
Congratulations on completing this first important milestone in your life. We are so proud of you!

Remember there are no limits to what you can do-reach for the stars!

Love,
Dad, Beverly, Michael, Ben, and Alex

England

We can never forget our lovely English weather where we can have four seasons all in one day. Let's not forget....

...surprisingly the sun

.... the beautiful white snow

..... the everlasting cold

....and rain, rain and o ya more rain.
