9/11 Ceremony

This years Annual September 11th Ceremony went very well. Even 13 years after the horrifying events that took place on that day, children who were merely babies and adults who remember that day vividly, take one day out the year to commemorate this date, mourn those who lost their lives, and appreciate all who were a part of helping those in distress.

Cadets James Wood, Harveysha Booker and Reigha Barone standing at attention at the commencement of the 9/11 Ceremony.

Ariyon Booker was the key speaker for the ceremony and Dr. Whitaker also spoke in remembrance of the 11th of September in 2001.

Guests who attended the ceremony included the Base Commander Colonel Sweeny and Colonel Sealy. There was also an assortment of students of Alconbury High School, civilians, and locals from the Stukeley and Huntingdon Area.

Student 2

*Senior representatives of S2S
Jan Burgess, Juliana Pisierra, Cas-sandre Dallaire and Latavia Young*

High School Representatives of S2S and new students playing the "name game."

When asked, new students said that they felt a part of the community and school after getting to know some of their peers before the school year. We all know how awkward it is to be a new student so being a part of S2S helps with relieving the discomfort of moving.

Student

S2S is a club run by our very own Guidance Counselor and current Alconbury High and Middle School students.

High school S2S Representatives with new students during the summer orientation day.

The purpose of S2S is for students to assist new students with integrating into our tight knit school and community.

Alconbury's Middle and High School, former students, new students, and parents at the summer orientation for new students.

Creative

Creative Connections is a fine arts workshop held in Oberweisel, Germany where DSD's most talented and creative group of students meet up and learn more about their craft with others just like them.

Nine Alconbury High School students were able participate this year. These students joined together with other creative students to spend a week learning more about their skills and creating their best work.

The week ended with a gallery opening for the visual artists and a performance for the performing artists and the videographers live streamed the entire showcase!

Jazz

Honors Jazz Fest is an elite DoDDS program in which eight vocalists and 20 instrumentalists are selected from all over Europe to sing, learn, and perform.

The program is an outstanding way for teachers, students, family and friends to get together and experience the beauty in jazz music and is also the perfect way for DoDDS students to showcase their talents.

Career

Day

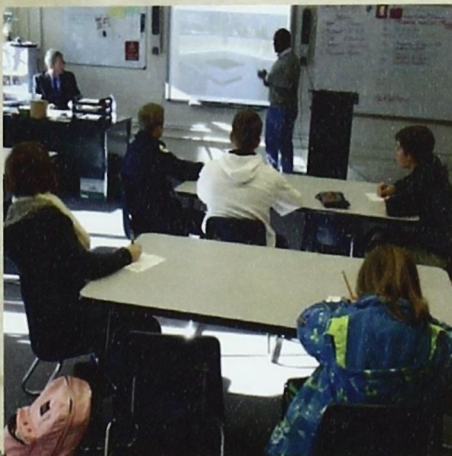

Students listening attentively to a lecture on life.

Many people volunteered to come out and discuss their various paths of life with Alconbury Middle High School Students. This is an event that Alconbury is willing to continue yearly.

Career Day was held in November. Its purpose was to introduce students to various career fields such as webmastering, family advocacy, and many other career fields that are not usually status quo.

College

Fair

Middle school student speaking to our very own Mr. Jackson about the Science Field.

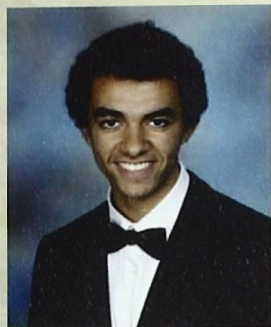

This fair helped out many students who were unsure of the route to take after high school and gave them more options such as the forces or straight into other work forces.

After school, the College Fair took place. A few of the colleges on base visited, including the University of Maryland, to speak to students about the path they should take when applying to college.

Foreign Language

The Foreign Language classes being taught this year at Alconbury are Spanish years 1 through 3, A P Spanish and Chinese years 1 through 3. The teachers are Ms. Klimas, Mrs. Lu-Easton, and Ms. Morgart.

Math

Ms. Forester explaining how to solve a geometry.

This year, ACHS had seven math classes available. These classes include Algebra 1, Geometry, Algebra 2, Pre Calculus, AP Calculus, AP Statistics and Discrete Mathematics. The math teachers are Mrs. Houghton, Mr. Cross, and Ms. Forester.

Science

The science classes offered by Alconbury are Biology, AP Biology, Physics, Chemistry, Earth and Space, & Human Anatomy and Physiology. Our hardworking science teachers are Mr. Joyce and Mr. Jackson.

Students, Laura Holifield, Cassie Hjorness, and Olivia Weaver burning different particles and recording data.

P.E

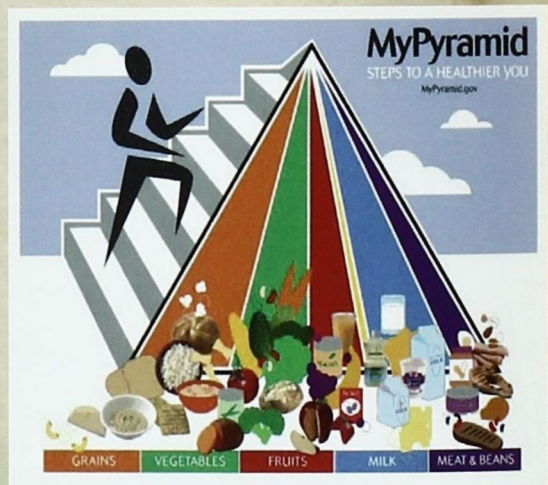

Students running laps warming up for their P.E. class.

The P.E. classes at Alconbury High School are taught by Mr. Ballard and Mr. Black who have both belonged to Alconbury for many years. Physical Education is an important aspect of Dodds schools. P.E. also works as an outlet from sitting in traditional classroom all day so it is nice to take a break! Students in P.E. play many sports including soccer, basketball, and softball!

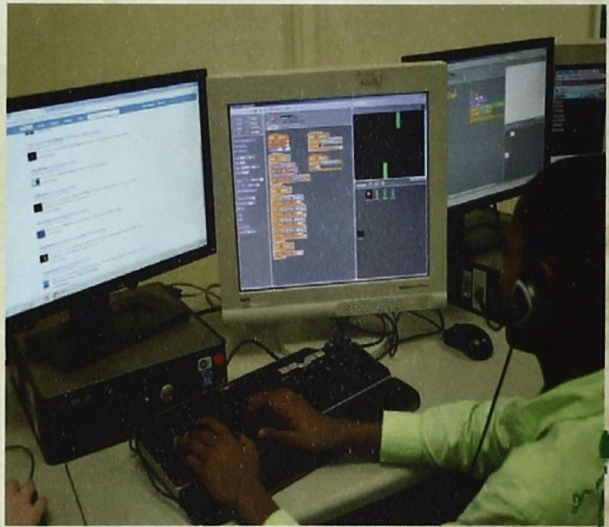

Alconbury's health class is taught by Mr. Ballard who has taught health for many years. In Health students engage in many conversations on healthy lifestyles, eating habits and exercises. They give many oral presentations to encourage confidence and healthy conversation and also participate in yoga, aerobics, and other activities that can be done in small places to discourage sedentary lifestyles.

Health

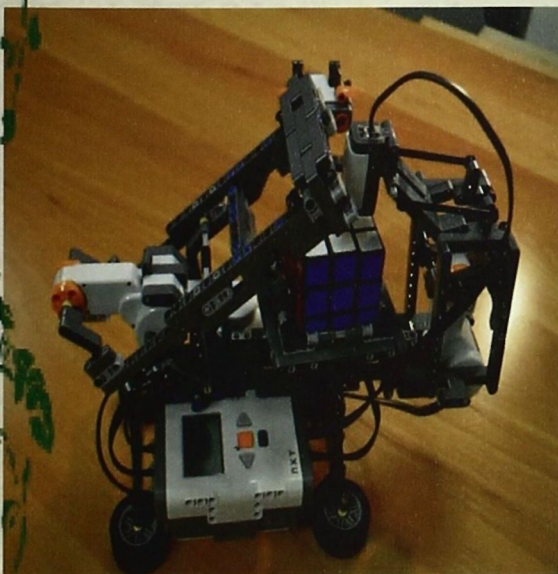

Career Technical Education

These classes are taught by Mr. Behr, Mr. Rausch, and Mr. Wareham they work to prepare students for their careers.

JROTC

Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) is an elective that equips students with the tools, training and experiences that they will need in joining the Armed Forces. It is also a great way to learn discipline that is needed in any career that a student may wish to pursue.

Drama

Drama is an art form that tells a story. This class is taught by Mrs. Wareham who also teaches speech. The class performed "Happy Birthday Heather Higby (I am plotting you doom!)" at our Winter Pep Rally and the audience loved it!

Art

Art is the class where students can express or apply their creative skill and imagination. The class is taught by Mrs. Spencer, our very own creative thinker. Many of the students' work can be found in the office or decorating the main hallway.

Band

Alconbury's band class is and has been taught by Mr.

Plasseen for many years.

Students in this class learn the mechanics of reading music and playing various instruments such as guitar, violin, drums, and even piano! Band has seasonal concert and plays in every Alconbury pep rally and parades!

Adarius Gallon shredding on the drums at the Holiday Concert.

Choir

The Alconbury Choir class is also taught by Mr.

Plasseen. Choir students are able to express themselves through the songs that they sing and the notes that they hit. They spend countless classes practicing their D.C. R.E.M.E.'s and songs that Mr. Plasseen teaches.

Some Choir students even sing the national anthem for events!

Mr. Plasseen conducting the Choir during the Winter Concert.

National History Day

National History Day is the conclusion of several weeks of research and studying of various topics. On the day itself, students present their final projects to impress judges, teachers, parents, and peers.

This year's theme was Leadership and Legacy and students enthusiastically did and presented their projects.

During the award ceremony many students were awarded Honorable Mentions and few were awarded First Place. Before giving out awards though, Jon Walker, who studied at the US Naval War College, gave a speech about why we learn history.

Cassie Dallaire

Graduating A.H.S. June 6, 2015

Cassie will be heading to Seton Hill University, PA to study Forensic Science

Congratulations sweetheart! We love you so much and are so proud of all you have accomplished! You have grown into a beautiful, smart and successful young woman who is ready to take on the world. We're so excited for you to embark on your new journey. Although we will miss you terribly, we know you will be absolutely brilliant!

- Love: Mum, Dad and Nathan

Our Dearest Lani,

You're finally at the end of one chapter of your life with another chapter ready to be opened. We are so proud of you! Sharing this journey with you has been a gift as we watched you grow from our adorable little Lani into a beautiful butterfly ready for flight. Ok maybe not butterfly how about an Eagle? Fierce, Strong & Beautiful because that's who you are.

We've watched you struggle and overcome all the challenges from knee surgery to being unable to play your favorite sports your senior year and seeing you overcome them makes us extremely proud of you. Your strength is amazing Lani. But always balance it with humility, kindness, love and respect and you'll never go wrong.

Never change who you are unless for the better. Ever since you were little you always showed strength and stood up for those weaker than you. Know that we will always be here for you no matter what.

You have found amazing friends, cherish them. You will find new friends along the way but never forget the friends who were with you on this journey for true friends are a rare find.

We look forward to the next chapter of your life knowing that it will be an amazing story of a truly amazing young lady. We are so very proud of you. We love you so very much. Remember: We are only a phone call away!
With All Our Love,

*Mom & Dad
Your Biggest Fans!*
