Dear Mr. Hall and Mr. McKinnon,

The Yearbook/Journalism class would like to thank you both for helping us throughout the school year. We wanted to let you both know that we really appreciate the support you gave us to achieve our goal and we succeeded. Our yearbook has been going very well because we worked very hard and we had your help.

Sincerely,
Yearbook/Journalism Class

TARAGUE WELL NUMBER 4

The early Cold War water facilities are associated with the development of a permanent Air Force base on Guam, an exceptionally significant event. A permanent water system was a necessary component for the development of the base. Its construction was also important in the history of the infrastructure development of the island, since it represents the early attempts to develop the groundwater resources in this part of the island that lacks surface water resources. Together, these facilities represent significant aspects of the island's history.

Two of these late-1940's water facilities are abandoned. Apparently over-pumping introduced salty water into the system which caused corrosion, leading to the abandonment of much of the early water system. It is an impressive piece of engineering in a memorable natural setting.

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

August

- 25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.
- 28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.
- 29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breached, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.
- 31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

- 1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.
- 2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.
- 4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.
- 6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.
- 9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.
- 12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.
- 14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.
- 15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.
- 20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.
- 22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.
- 23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.

October

- 24 Hurricane Wilma hits southwest Florida.
