I Believe..

Every child has the right to an education.
 That everyone who enters our school can learn and show respect for others.
 That everyone who enters our school can take responsibility for their own work and behavior.
 That hard work produces good results.
 That failure is not an option and some measure of success is possible for all students.
 Our best today may not be our best tomorrow. I measure success by effort first and the results second.
 In generous praise for individual and group work.
 The rules should be followed.
 In consequences.
 In a set daily routine.
 In homework.
 That reading is one of the most important facets of education.
 Reading daily is not only good but a non-negotiable.
 In keeping continuous communication with parents, faculty, and students.
 A school needs to have a safe, healthy, caring, and nurturing environment.
 In having fun and being nice.
 Everyday should begin and end with a smile.
 In children, family, and public education.

Congratulations on all of your achievements this school year! You have completed another important chapter of your life. You have filled your personal pages with fun-filled memories of friendship, learning, and growing.

Continue to create your special celebrations and embrace the opportunities that life has to offer. Always remember to believe and love yourself!

I wish you the best of luck and happiness always.
