TO THE CLASS OF 1981:

THIS YEAR IN TURKEY HAS PROVIDED YOU WITH A UNIQUE LEARNING EXPERIENCE, BOTH IN YOUR LIVING ENVIRONMENT AND IN THE MECHANICS OF GOVERNMENTS. YOU HAVE BEEN ABLE TO WATCH FIRSTHAND HOW THE CONDITIONS IN WHICH YOU LIVE CAN CHANGE ALMOST OVERNIGHT AND OTHER CULTURES AND PEOPLE DEAL WITH THEIR PROBLEMS. AS AMERICANS, YOU ARE ACCUSTOMED TO A RELATIVELY SECURE AND STABLE GOVERNMENT IN AN AMERICAN CULTURE WHICH TENDS TO BE GEOGRAPHICALLY AND CULTURALLY ISOLATED FROM THE REST OF THE WORLD. THE JET AGE HAS INEXORABLY BROUGHT ALL THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD PRACTICALLY TO OUR DOORSTEP, AND THE MORE YOU UNDERSTAND OTHER CULTURES AND IDEAS, THE MORE YOU WILL BE ABLE TO DEAL EFFECTIVELY WITH THE PROBLEMS AND CHALLENGES WHICH YOU WILL FACE AFTER GRADUATION. I HOPE YOU WILL LOOK BACK ON YOUR YEARS AT ANKARA HIGH SCHOOL WITH FONDNESS, AND I WISH YOU EVERY SUCCESS IN YOUR CHOSEN CAREERS.

EDUCATION

Whom, Then, do I call educated?

First, those who manage well the circumstances which they encounter day by day, who possess a judgment which is accurate in meeting occasions as they arise, and who rarely miss the expedient course of action; Next, those who are decent and honorable in their intercourse with all men bearing easily and good-naturedly, that which is unpleasant or offensive in others, and being themselves, as agreeable and reasonable to their associates as is humanly-possible to be; Furthermore, those who hold their pleasures always under control, bearing up under them bravely and in a manner worthy of our common nature; Finally, and most important of all, those who are not spoiled by their successes, who do not desert their true-selves, but hold their ground steadfastly, as wise and sober-minded men, rejoicing no more in the good things which have come to them through chance than in those which through their own nature and intelligence are theirs since birth. those who have a character which is in accord, not with one of these things, but with all of them, these I maintain are educated and whole men, possessed of all the virtues of a man.

EDITORS MESSAGE

Yearbooks what are they? Yearbooks are books that are made up by a group of students working together in the mornings, afternoons and on the weekends. We have tried to capture your school life and activities as you lived it during the past year.

It was a difficult job taking pictures, editing and cropping them. However the job was not finished until the layout was done and sent to the company for printing.

However, in spite of the hard work I found being editor to be one of the highlights of my Senior year. I would also like to thank my staff Peter, Sarah, Michele, Adie, Annette for all the long hours worked.

If we have neglected any of you, we are sincerely sorry. I hope you like our production of the 1981 "Citadel".

Mr. Tronic for the use of the library.

Mr. Tronic, Mr. Donahue, Mark Flanagan and Tom Hankins for the use of some negatives.

Andy Walsh for taking this yearbook picture.

To all the students who helped make this yearbook possible.

Once again to my staff Peter, Sarah, Michele, Adie, and Annette.

And last Mr. Atchison for his much needed signature.
