EDUCATION

Whom, Then, do I call educated?

First, those who manage well the circumstances which they encounter day by day, who possess a judgment which is accurate in meeting occasions as they arise, and who rarely miss the expedient course of action; Next, those who are decent and honorable in their intercourse with all men bearing easily and good-naturedly, that which is unpleasant or offensive in others, and being themselves, as agreeable and reasonable to their associates as is humanly-possible to be; Furthermore, those who hold their pleasures always under control, bearing up under them bravely and in a manner worthy of our common nature; Finally, and most important of all, those who are not spoiled by their successes, who do not desert their true-selves, but hold their ground steadfastly, as wise and sober-minded men, rejoicing no more in the good things which have come to them through chance than in those which through their own nature and intelligence are theirs since birth, those who have a character which is in accord, not with one of these things, but with all of them, these I maintain are educated and whole men, possessed of all the virtues of a man.

This year's annual has been the product of much hard work. The few of us worked through snow, rain, and Christmas Vacation. We would like to express our much owed thanks to Billy Walters, last year's editor, also John Dennis, Craige Taylor, Mark Flanagan, Joanne and Dee Leister, Jay Bowman, and Paul Worsham (for his excellent darkroom work) and Andy Walsh. Of course, Mrs. Turkan Byars for her help and her car on the advertisements.

Once again, thanks to all of our contributors in the Ankara community; without you we could not have made it.

Thanks also to our advisor, Mr. Alan Greenfield, for putting up with us with a quiet smile and only a few caustic remarks.

Chris Beoddy
Assistant Editor

YEARBOOK

... In Ankara, Turkey — that's way out in the "boonies"
There exists a school composed of loonies.
Now in this institution, there is a reigning class
Which will reign and reign till it can Finally pass!
This distinctive class of 82 will now be formally introduced to you ...

That one over there is called an Edelbrute,
Believed by many to be quite astute,
But ask his classmates who know him well,
And they're bound to tell you he can go to ... Oh Well ...
Pieta Bos, who seems innocent as a child,
Is actually a crafty devil — full of artful guile.
Together with Matthew, Dave, and all,
She helped to drive the French teacher up the wall.
There's a lazy one asleep over there.
(Referring to the one with the longest hair.)
Wake-up John; you'll be late for school!!
"Shut-up, and let me sleep, you crazy fool!"
"The Powers of the President should be checked by a Priest."
Well, Come on — JoAnne was original at least!
Sikander likes to whistle and whistle he does;
Perhaps it gives him a temporary buzz???
That there's "Tobacco", or alias Craig,
Who unfortunately caught the 'Shakespeare Plague'
He's never had much love for Hamlet or Semantics
Guess he's too busy with his own crazy antics!
Jahangir is our future diplomat;
He won't talk too much, we can be sure of that.
He'll probably uncover top-secret information
(Just remember, though, he's from another nation)
Beware of that one — that's Barbara Weaver,
Dos crazy mexeeicans — dey maka me queever!!
And where there's a Weaver, there's always a Wade,
Another one to be strictly obeyed!
Only once a week do we see them at school,
For they're too busy breaking every little rule!!
Of Matthew Higham, he quite wary,
He knows all and he's a dictionary.
He has the strange habit of throwing things;
All around him I hear the pings "TING"
Steve, that's our athlete, is taking a nap;
He's tired of hearing Dave "shoot-the-crap."
Bill Smith is a ladies man,
His body is one great muscle span.
Anita's a strange one, that I can say
She embarrasses herself at least once a day.
She'll say some strange thing each day in class
She really enjoys being a pain in the ...
The newest one is Terry, from the West,
At the moment he's trying to get his gambling bill out of a mess.
Through friend and foe, We have to go.
May everyone (No matter what grade you're in!) meet again
In latter years, that will bring the memories of joy and no plan ...
... Good Luck in Life ...
