On behalf of the staff of Ankara American School, I wish to extend my sincere wishes for success in whatever endeavors you may pursue in the future. I feel that your education here in Turkey has been a valuable learning experience, both academically and culturally. Your exposure to a foreign culture should provide you with a broader understanding of the world today and help you become better representatives of our country abroad.

EDUCATION

Whom, Then, do I call educated?

First, those who manage well the circumstances which they encounter day by day, who possess a judgment which is accurate in meeting occasions as they arise, and who rarely miss the expedient course of action; Next, those who are decent and honorable in their intercourse with all men bearing easily and good-naturedly, that which is unpleasant or offensive in others, and being themselves, as agreeable and reasonable to their associates as is humanly-possible to be; Furthermore, those who hold their pleasures always under control, bearing up under them bravely and in a manner worthy of our common nature; Finally, and most important of all, those who are not spoiled by their successes, who do not desert their true-selves, but hold their ground steadfastly, as wise and sober-minded men, rejoicing no more in the good things which have come to them through chance than in those which through their own nature and intelligence are theirs since birth, those who have a character which is in accord, not with one of these things, but with all of them, these I maintain are educated and whole men, possessed of all the virtues of a man.

Our advisor, Mr. Kraft

This year's editors note marks my second attempt at such a feat but experience does not make it any easier. The school and the year itself it seems tried everything available to them in order to harass, delay and even halt my progress this year. I lost my sports editor (Jay Bowman) at midyear and was confronted with countless photographic problems. Finally though my small staff of three was on the roll but only for myself to be in a bus accident the week preceding the deadline. However the final result, no matter how thrown together, is one that I am pleased with and am sure the staff (Arlene, Refik and Mark) are proud of. This though is an achievement that would not be possible without the continued support of the entire community through support and advertisements, again my many thanks.
