The Yearbook Staff wish to dedicate the Yearbook of 1986 to our Principal, Mr. G. Gundacker for his guidance and understanding.

Mr. Gundacker was raised in Strawberry Point, Iowa. He attended Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa and majored in music. Mr. Gundacker pursued a career in teaching and received his M.A. degree from the University of Northern Iowa.

Mr. Gundacker has lived abroad for the last twenty-seven years, including such countries as Japan, West Germany, Morocco, Italy, and Turkey.

His immediate plans include an extended tour of Europe and eventual retirement in sunny Florida.

We wish you and your wife a joyful, healthful and relaxing retirement! Our best wishes go with you. Good luck Mr. Gundacker from the Yearbook Staff of 1986.

The Yearbook Staff wish to express their gratitude to Mr. William Tarpley in appreciation of his benevolent assistance to all of us at Ankara American High School.

A Texan, Mr. Tarpley received his B.A. degree in Texas and his M.A. degree in Tennessee. This Trojan supporter who has taught in Texas, New Jersey, Illinois, England, and Turkey says, "East or West, Ankara High School is best."

At this is the last of twenty-four good years in Turkey, Mr. Tarpley will be retiring from the school system. After having had the opportunity of seeing many countries, while residing in Turkey, Mr. Tarpley will be going to explore Africa next.

We wish to extend our heartiest greetings for every happy and successful retirement! Good luck Mr. Tarpley from the Yearbook Staff of 1986.

Selma Güncü has given twenty years of good service to Ankara American High School. The Yearbook Staff especially wish to thank Selma for assisting the staff to organize the school pictures. We couldn't have done it without you Selma! Thank you for supporting us. Hope you help us next year!

Theresa McCleaf has been the school secretary this year, as well as the Trojan cheerleader sponsor. Her enthusiasm towards the school and pep rally organization have contributed tremendously to school spirit. We thank you Theresa.

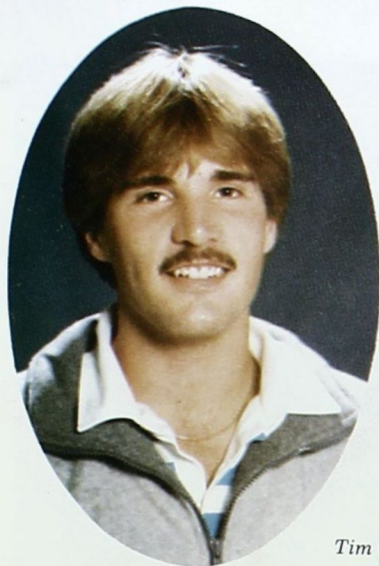

CLASS OF '86

This senior class has commanded the respect of the faculty and community. We wish them luck and good fortune. We know they will work hard. A good senior class makes a good student body, thank you for your leadership. I hope you will have fond memories of Ankara, Trojans, Balgat, Hoca, athletic trips, teachers and school.

THE CLASS OF 1986 RULES!!!

Reflections of AHS!

Wandering about
Through the halls of joy and strife,
Going with the flow
Up and down the stairs of life,
Learning with the others
In the rooms of work and play,
Viewing tomorrow
From the terrace of today.

I'LL MISS YOU ALL!!!!!!

Paul Bjorling

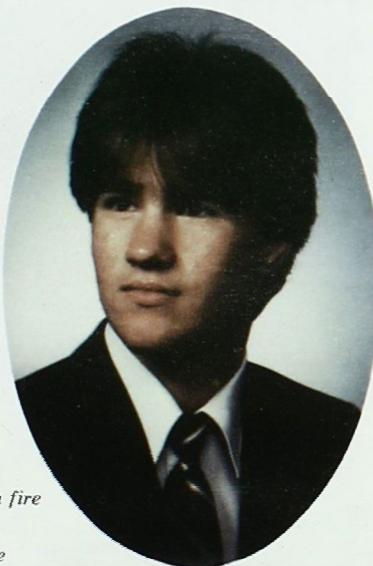

Looks like we've made it, Class of '86".
It's a year to remember when we start in September, on the road to a way of life
That means more work than pleasure.
We hope we are ready to make our own study
Of what we can do to prove to all of you,
That it was worth it.

"To all my Friends that are still here after I leave.

I hope that all of you have as much fun as I have had. I will miss you all. Don't forget that the Class of "86" always Rocks."

"Party Hearty and if you get to serious, call A.A."

Joe Chippich

Some say the world will end in fire
Some say in ice
From what I've tasted of desire
I hold with those who favor fire.

Robert Frost

A special thanks to my parents to whom I owe everything.
I LOVE YOU

Maya: I finally made it
To my best friend AA, I wish all the luck and happiness in the world.

To VA: I am a rock, I am an island, and a rock feels no pain, and an island never cries.

To the Class of '86: And the time too goes on - till one perceives ahead a shadow line, warning one that the region of early youth, too, must be left behind.

James Conrad

I thank all my friends (RT, JM, DP, DR, PMcD, and BK.) and teachers (DAR, PU, BM, DS, and NZ) for being there when I needed them.

Love,

Evie

The road to wisdom? — Well, it's plain and simple to express:

Err

but less

Gauri Shanker Mathur

*Today, I was reminded of you...
Taken back to a special place in time...
And thinking back on them fills my heart sadness filled my heart...
For even though the memories we have are beautiful...
And I think back on them fills my heart
full of joy...
My eyes also start to swell with tears,
because we've been so far apart...
Yet so close to one another.*

*Take time to enjoy life
To laugh and cry.
Take each day as it comes.
But don't let life pass you by.
Take time to recall the good times
Shared with old friends and loves.
But don't live in the past.
Take time to wonder
What the future may bring,
But live for today,
Because today is everything.
Take time to share yourself
With family and friends too
And remember to take time to love
Because only those who love
Can be loved too.*

Michael Saran

*A thing of beauty is a joy forever: Its loveliness increases; it will Never pass into nothingness; but still keep a bower quiet for us,
And a sleep full of sweet dreams, and wealth, and quiet breathing.*

it great. Ali, Levent, Pat, Depak)my international buddies; the great

Forget about the times you've been defeated,

Forget about the mistakes that you can't change now,
but don't forget the lessons that you've LEARNED...
Forget about misfortunes you've encountered,

LIFE

You never know how good you have it, until that good is gone.
To be able to watch the sun go down, or to see the break of dawn.
To be able to go to parties, or invite over a friend,
Those were all the moments, you thought would never end.
But sometimes something happens, that seems to get in the way,
You may not like it, but you don't have any say.
Someday this all will pass, and all bads things disappear.
Remember when you're felling down, and your world seems to be falling apart,
Life is the most important thing,
You should treasure it with all your heart.

THE CLASS OF 1986

The seniors are, as you shall see,
Very unique and diverse—all twenty—three.

First there is Mary—that is Kink, if you please,
She's the one with all those rock T's.

Second is most athletic Dawn,
Who, in anyone, could prevent a yawn.

Moving on, we find tree, or Paul,
He sees everything. Man! Is he tall!

Evie, the biggest flirt in the class,
But deeper than you think; in all, a sweet lass.

And, of course, John, everyone's friend,
His geniality shall never end.

Sharon, our Danish-English miss,
Who is, to Paul, a fantastic sis.

Ah! Paul, our European blond,
The Senior of which many girls are fond.

Lon Casey—well, Opus we call him,
He knows it all, from Rush to Stalin.

And Donica—Yes! Our most perfect 10,
Her carefree laugh, which we hear quite often.

Gauri Mathur, the Indian student,
Intelligent and reserved, always prudent.

Let us add Jenny, lest we forget,
How well she served that ball over the net.

Then there is Bob, the local comedian,
Who never kept classes at a dull median.

Ali, Mike, and Levent—The Three Musketeers,
Together they shared their wishes, dreams and fears.

Christy, our newest member,
That outgoing girl we shall always remember.

Yasuaki, the Japanese guy,
He dances well, and for fashion has an eye.

Of course, there is C.K., too,
"The Defensive Linebacker"—as if no one knew!

Rachel, never hot under the collar,
But always broke, "Can I borrow a dollar?"

With always a party on his mind,
Joe can always a good time find.

Chris, with the biggest mouth; yet,
This girl is not dull, of that you can bet!

Tim, loveable, happy, and fun,
He'll do quite well, in the long run.

Which leaves us to Diane, oh, so quiet!
Lonely and bored? Don't you buy it.

It is here that this ditty must end,
For all 23 have been mentioned, my friend.

But let us remind you, lest you forget,
Ankara's Class of 1986 is the best Senior Class yet.

To John Jackson;

The exception to every rule is

THANKS

for the contribution

If you can dream-and not make dreams your master;
If you can think-and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two just the same;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it
And-which is more-you'll be a man, my son!

Mrs. Ulku

Thanks and Congratulations to the yearbook staff for getting the job done.
I have enjoyed working with all of you.
Hope to work with some of you next year.
