Dad and Mom, thank you so much for encouraging me in all that I do. Your inspiration to always try my hardest in whatever I do will stay with me throughout life. Thanks for the opportunity to travel and see the world while I am still young. I will love you both for as long as I live.

Charity, you've been with me through everything. No matter what life will bring, you will not only be my sister but also my closest friend. I love you! See you in college!

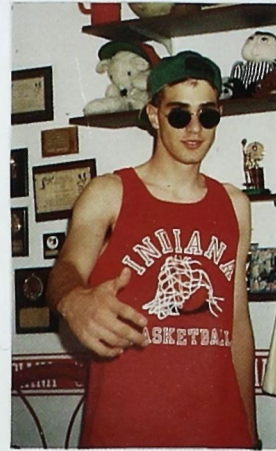

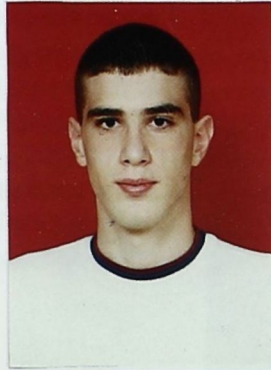

Matt A. Daniels

I would like to thank mom, dad and my grandparents, who gave me the inspiration to strive for my goals. To the Carlisle's, thank you for everything, especially Skip-Bo! Thanks to: KC, TL, TM, CH, LN, RH, SE for all of the wonderful memories and great times in Turkey. I could not have made it without you!! Ellison, thanks for the crime and Jason thanks for that Louisiana Creole Gumbo!! To the coaches, thanks for the support and laughs!! Track Rulz!!!

Sinan Ertay

To my parents: Thanks for making me what I am today out of that little Sinan in the picture.

Tania and Leigh-Alyson: It was funny but I guess I had to be there... Don't ever stop laughing. You're really nice and hysterical.

Matt: Un daddy hush and old McDonald had a farm... You're a really cool dude!!!

Troy: You're one of the funniest people I've ever seen! You're probably the nicest person in school!!!

Class of '94: I really had a nice time with you. Thanks for all the great moments I had here.

Leigh-Alyson Fox

Mom and Dad: Thank you so much for all of your love and understanding. Both of you were always there for me and you will never know how appreciative I am of that.

Tania: This has been a wonderful year and I know that the rest of the year will definitely be "frigen" with some "frigen in the rigen" times. Also, remember that it is okay to be a little weird; it keeps you sane.

Rachel: Remember that you are the "President". Some day in the future we will have to have a president and a prime-minister reunion.

Senior Class of 1994: All of you will always hold a special place in my heart and I wish all of you the best of luck in the future. Thank you for the wonderful memories!

"It's good to be different." SARJ

Mom and Dad: Thank you for all the sacrifices that you have made for me over the years as well as those that you are making now and will make in the future. Thank you for putting up with me, always being there for me and for giving me all of the opportunities you had the chance to give. You've taught me a lot about life and people and I am forever grateful for everything.
Lauren: Thank you for always being there to cheer me up and give me a hug. I'm going to miss you while I'm in college. You mean the world to me. Terrence: I miss you "Comic Strip" (College Boy). Angie A. and Autumn: Thanks for always being there when I needed a friend to talk to, a shoulder to cry on and someone to laugh with. Kris: Always remember that Pink people are Purple and Purple people are Pink. LA: Never forget, " Seniors never lose, they only win or tie.", and that, "We have a reputation to uphold". Jason C.: "Be quiet little boy." Burkes: "Pooh, promise me you'll never forget me, ever, because if I thought you would, I wouldn't leave." LA, JM, RL, JL, JW, ML: We'll always have Duck Duck Goose.

First and foremost I'd like to thank my lord and savior Jesus Christ for allowing me to live 18 great years and get my high school diploma. My family has always supported me in everything I've done they have always been there for me. Thanks a-lot I love yall!!!! Thanks to all of the great teachers and students of Geroge C. Marshall Highschool, I'll miss everybody. I especially thank my father for being there for me this last year of school, I know it's been hard but WE made it. In July I'm outta dodge for good, HIP, HOP, HOORAY!!!! PEACE!!!!

Joon-Yea Lee

Mom and Dad: Thank you for giving me all those chances in my life. You gave me more than I deserve. Through those chances I've made mistakes and learned from them. Thank you, I love you both, always.

Jeong-Han: You are what a brother can ever be! You were always the role model that I followed and so I respect you and love you. I am glad I had you next to me for all those seventeen years of my life... and more to come...

Ayah, Megumi, Deniz: You guys are the best. Life is an endless party! I love you all very much! Keep in touch and remember the good old days! Chin-Chun: My best friend in the world. Thanks for being there when I needed love and support! All seniors and KP, you guys are great. Thanks for all the memories! This was the best year in Turkey! Class of '94 RULZ!!!!

Mrs. Ulku, Mrs. Guinn, Ms. Robbins, Mr. D and Mr. Z: I can never show you how much I've learned from you all. Thank you cannot express my gratefulness to you but it's the only word that I can think of. I love you all!!!!

Mom, thank you for everything, without you I wouldn't have been in this position. You taught me how to be proud and you gave me support and the best advice which I'll never forget and now I'll fulfill your dream and become a college student. I LOVE YOU! My sweet brother Nadeem although you annoy me sometimes and get on my nerves, you'll always be my little brother whom I'll always love. Joon words can't explain how a great friend you are. I will never forget the days we spend over Magumi's and Deniz's house, Romours and the day after prom. Sandra I never thought I would meet someone like you in this school, I had a great time with you, Anna and Maite especially the day of Anna's party and the action days. Now I'm leaving this country which I loved, had the most and the best experience ever. I will never forget those memories and they will always be on my mind. Seniors, hope all your dreams will come true. Last but not least, I want to thank a very precious man whom I was influenced by. Thank you for your support, Ammo Saleh, those years which I spent with you were the best years of my life.

Deepankar Thakur

Dearest DAD and Mum,

Thank you for all that you have done for me. I realise that without your help and support I couldn't have been what I am today. I have realised your importance in the past year. I hope that you will help me forever and help me reach my goal.

Dear Friends,

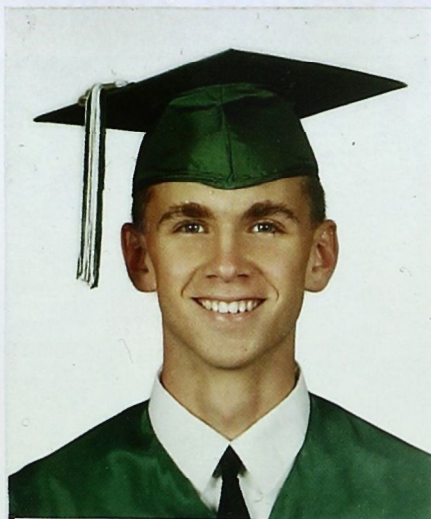

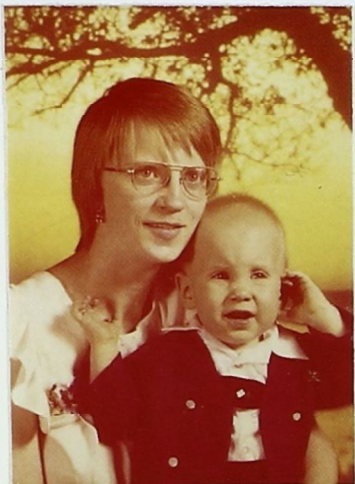

My best wishes for your future and for your success in whatever you do.

Dear Teachers,

Thank you for your support and help with which we are able to reach our goals and achieve success.

Troy F. Willi

Enjoy life today, yesterday is gone,
and tomorrow may never come.

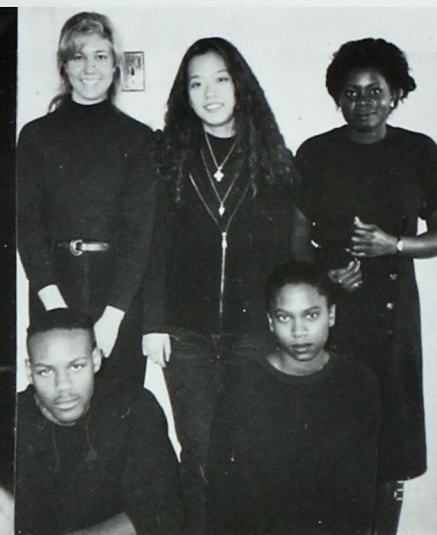

Thanks To:
God for making my life possible, and for always leading me down the right path.
Mom for being most important person in my life, and for raising me better than anyone could, you always set me straight, but never held me back.
Angie for being a pain in the butt, and a great friend.
Christy and Michelle for being the best twin sisters.
Pinar for being the greatest girlfriend a guy could ever have, and for showing me what real love is.
Mr. Adams for your guidance and leadership.
The Feickerts for being my second family.
The Seniors for being the greatest class ever, I'll always remember every one of you.
I Love You All.

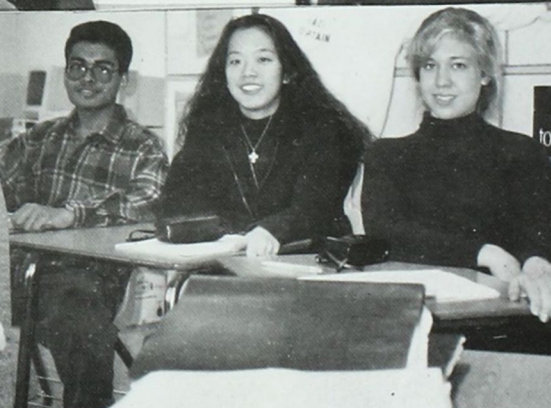

I asked Jesus, "How much do you love me?"
"This much," He answered.
Then He stretched out his arms and died.

Family and Friends are secret treasures,
Seek them and enjoy their riches.

Enjoy life today, yesterday is gone,
and tomorrow may never come.

The Class of 1995 has been dedicated to making this year's Prom the best ever from the first day of school. Fundraising seemed like it would be a problem in the beginning because of the size of the school. The Juniors were determined though, and they worked against all odds to raise money. On a larger scale, they sold meals and snacks for the guest sports teams during road-trips. Within our school community, the Juniors held several dances, sold candy-grams on various holidays, and also sold occasional hot lunches as the demand grew with the drawdown of the base. By April, the Juniors had met their goals for Prom by securing the Ankara Hilton and by ordering all the necessities for the best Prom that George C. Marshall has seen in a long while. The Class of 1995 should be proud of their accomplishments and confident that after this year, anything is possible.

Fresh, Fresh, Exciting!

Although Freshmen were supposed to be the lowest of all, here at George C. Marshall High School we had no sort of discrimination. The 1993-1994 school year was an exciting and fun time for us. Many of us had problems in keeping up with after school activities and school work, which was a new experience for us. The Freshmen class is the largest class in the High School. We had students of many different nationalities including students from Croatia, Spain, Yugoslavia, Malaysia, U.S.A, Turkey, Norway, Japan, Russia, and Canada.

The 1993-1994 Drama Club was certainly a diverse group with its members coming from several different nations. The club sent eleven of its members to the annual Speech and Drama Festival in Incirlik, Turkey. The festival team competed against four other schools and was by far, in league of its own. The team brought home an impressive five Super-Nova Awards in each of these categories: Dramatic Interpretation, One-Act Play, Poetic Interpretation, Storytelling, and Student-Generated Play.

The Drama Club was also able to hold a Variety Show for the school community. The event gave everyone a chance to display his/her own talents. This year has definitely been one of the most productive for the Thespians of George C. Marshall High.

The Past Is Only The Beginning . . .

This school year has proven to be a success in all aspects of the education program, sports, clubs, and academics. Parents, teachers, and students have pulled together to create a year to remember. The PTSO Halloween Carnival, sports weekends, dances, food sales, International week, Drama and Music Festivals, spirit day activities, parties, support to keep the school open for the 1994-95 school year, literary anthologies, the talent show and many more memorable events. Thank you!

Now that this year has come to an end we can look back on our past and realize the importance it has taken.

" . . . for that moment of hesitation I did not trust myself, and I looked back upon the past as something precious about to be snatched away from us and was afraid of the future. I had not understood then what I think I have now come to understand: that we can keep the past only by having the future, for they are forever tied together."

passage from All The King's Men
by Robert Penn Warren

As we have emphasized on the cover of the 1994 Yearbook, the past is only the beginning . . . Now we leave you with these thoughts:

"I was thinking about my past . . . About how things change in the physical world, change whether you want them to or not. . . But then I realized that it was that image in my head that was important. I had learned a valuable lesson then. I had learned that an image kept alive in my heart and mind would never change. . . The past is too important to let it be destroyed by change. Hold on to the past and it doesn't have to be in the past at all."

Congratulations To The Class of 1994

The George C. Marshall School is a unique member of the Department of Defense Dependents Schools. Not only does it maintain the standard American educational "flavor" that is a key ingredient in the mission of the DoDDS, but it benefits from the "spices" contributed through the variety of heritages represented by students from 25 different countries who attend our school. From such a "recipe", we have the makings for a fantastic and positive learning experience.

Taipei Economic And Cultural Mission

Taipei Economic & Cultural Mission of the Republic of China on Taiwan wishes to express its deep appreciation and sincere gratitude to George C. Marshall School for its outstanding educational and multi-cultural program extended to the children of the international community in Ankara.

We firmly believe that the children of the staff members at our mission will also benefit tremendously from such program.

Ambassade du Canada

The Canadian Embassy is pleased that its children are a part of the George C. Marshall School's international education experience. Young people are this planet's most valuable resource, and it is only through education that they will be able to realize their fullest potential. The experiences gained from such education taking place in a multi-cultural environment add a further depth and breadth to one's understanding of the world in which we live.

ROYAL NORWEGIAN EMBASSY

The George C. Marshall School constitutes an essential element of the international community in Ankara.

Its values and what it stands for are very much in line with Norwegian ideals.

The Royal Norwegian Embassy is most pleased to see that the valuable efforts of the George C. Marshall School continue.

Just as the new independent Croatia is joining the family of nations to share common international values and culture beyond borders, so "George C. Marshall" School in Ankara, a small world family in itself, provides for the children from Croatia valuable opportunity to share friendship, education and understanding in a multi-cultural environment.

From the Zingaro Family

Dear Friends and Students,

My departure from George C. Marshall School and Turkey will be bittersweet.

I look forward with joy and anticipation to returning to my children, grandchildren, family and friends in the United States. A sense of sadness will pervade my good-byes to all of you as I leave Turkey.

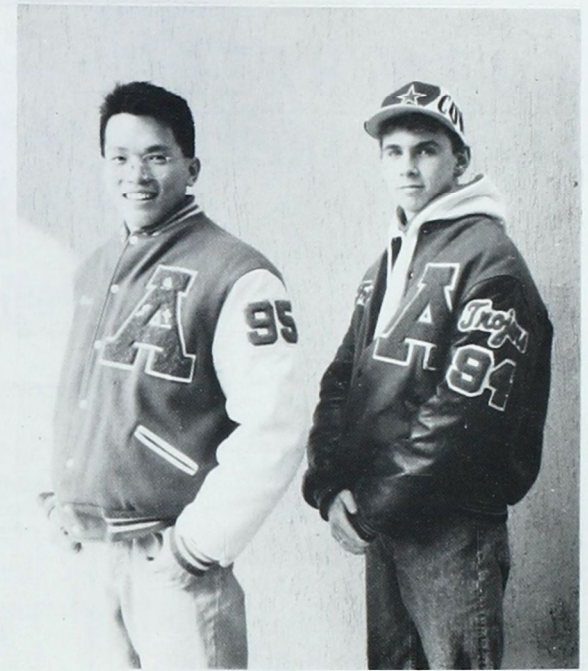

I will miss you.

The pictures in the 1994 yearbook will recall fond memories of people and events that have enriched my life.

I wish you ever well.
