ALPHA

From Alpha-- the beginning: the fresh start on the first day of school in the crisp autumn season, the new teachers, nervous seventh graders, and new opportunities this school year has brought us-- to Omega; the end: the bittersweet feeling of putting on caps and gowns after the rush of senior year, and looking forward to the future outside the walls of our beloved AMHS-- this year has been full of changes, beginnings and endings.

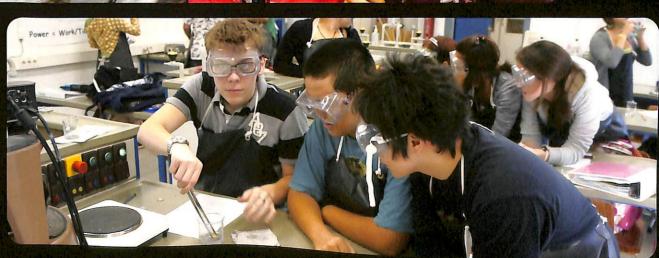

STUDENT LIFE

Like busy ancient Greece, the halls of AMHS bustle with activity and liveliness. Being overseas gives students many opportunities to experience foreign countries, cultures, and traditions. The diversity of the military community allows the military child exceptional opportunities, even within the school. Not only does AMHS provide a multitude of traditional activities and sports, but it also provides students the opportunity to see and experience Europe through extracurricular activities and study trips.

ACTIVITIES

The "Golden Age" of Greece benefitted from the flourishing activities of art, theater, music, philosophy, and political experiments. Much like this ancient hotbed of learning, Ansbach students celebrate many of these ideas. They come to life in the many clubs and activities which supplement student learning and give authentic experiences that apply to their lives long after high school is complete. The wide array of activities are diverse: from art to ROTC, and MUSS to music, AMHS creates an environment to educate the whole person.

PEOPLE

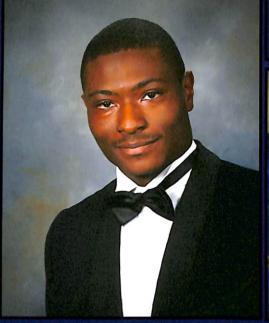

Our Alpha, or beginning, at AMHS is the first day of school. For many, this is their very first day in a new school overseas; for others, it is a welcoming back into the Ansbach family. For seniors, this is their Omega year, the ending of their high school years, and looking forward to their future. The most important element of our school is its people: the students, the fauclty, and the administration. Together, we form a collaborative body committed to success.

ZEUS

THE KING OF THE GODS, THE RULER OF MOUNT OLYMPUS AND THE GOD OF THE SKY, WEATHER, THUNDER, LAW, ORDER AND FATE. ZEUS SYMBOLIZES THE SENIOR CLASS OF 2011. HE RULED MOUNT OLYMPUS; THE SENIORS RULE ANSBACH HIGH. AS ZEUS KEPT LAW AND ORDER SECURE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 2011 LED AMHS. WHENEVER A STORM CAME ABOUT, SENIORS TOOK THE REIGNS. ZEUS IS REMEMBERED AS A GREAT AND NOBLE RULER; THE CLASS OF 2011 WOULD LIKE TO BE REMEMBERED JUST AS HE WAS.

You are my first grandchild and that holds a special place with me. I still remember the first time I held you. You went home with me to watch a basketball game at my old high school one time. I was so proud to show my little grandson to my classmates and friends. You grew up too fast for me. The rest of your life is waiting on you so go see what it holds for you.

As we write this letter to you such a variety of memories come to mind; we wish not to embarrass you with any of them or any mushy rambling. So we want you to know how proud we are of the young man that you've become. Remember to dream big and do what will truly make you happy.

All our love and prayers. Mom and Dad

Some people believe that children's souls choose the parents they want to be born to; we are so thankful that you chose us! You have been a joy to live with, a wonderful son, a loyal friend, a caring person, full of humor and independent spirit.
As you get ready to pack your hatboxes, we take comfort in knowing that you are going to a great place: The University of Pennsylvania will love you because you are brilliant and dedicated. You are in a league of your own, but the Ivy League will have to do. Remember, though, that we will always welcome you at home, with open arms and lots of love.

We would like you to know that you are a very big part of our lives. You're an inspiration and someone we look up to. Thank you for being loving, patient, understanding, and trusting. We can't fail to mention that Alec wouldn't have his mad dance skills, or Trey wouldn't have the "CHEFT" cooking abilities if it wasn't for you taking a few seconds to teach us. Remember we will always have your back should you need it. We love

Congrats Val!!!

Valarie, my daughter, my joy and my heart, you've reached the end only to find a new start. The world sees the young woman with her charm and her smile, but behind the woman, I will always see my child. This is the day you've been waiting for, a day of excitement and pleasure, enjoy it! And may it always be a memory you'll really treasure. You have many wonderful friends but do not forget that I will always be your one and true best friend. Hoping you'll enjoy success in everything you do and that the very best in life will always come to you!!!

The end of another memorable year: full of laughter, smiles, tears and determination. Ansbach Middle High School will allow for a new beginning for many students returning next year; yet for the Senior Class of 2011, this school year's end will close the chapter of their childhood. As the year came to its inevitable end, seniors embraced their last moments and cherished their friendships, looking forward to their futures outside the halls of Ansbach.
