This scrapbook is dedicated to the spirit of hope and patriotism that arose after the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.

After the horrible events of September 11th, the world came together to grieve. But the spirit that overwhelmed our country, as well as others all over the world, has inspired hope for our future as well as a strong feeling of brotherhood and pride in being an American.

Who is your Hero, and why?

New York still stands

Linda Piedrahita Mrs. Stark 4th grade

The President is my hero. He sent some of his best men to find the Bin Ladin. ~ John

My Dad. Because he always helps me. ~ Aaron

My Dad. Because he protects the country. ~ Damaris Hudson

My dad is my hero because he works in the Army and he protects us from terrorists. ~ Justin Brazzel

My hero is God, because he helped my when I needed help. He helped some people get out of the building on Sept. 11, 2001. ~ Terrence Neal

My Dad because he protects our family. ~ Cameron Hile

My dad because he is in the Army and he will always stand behind our country. ~ Kartina

Who is your Hero, and why?

My hero is my brother, Senior Airman Matthew. He is my hero because he is serving in war on terrorists. ~ Ken Maybee

My heroes are the firefighters of New York City, N.Y. because they saved people in the World Trade Centers.

My heroes are Army soldiers, because they protect us by watching us day and night in rain and snow.

~ Shamora Savage

~ Linda Piedrahita

Why are you proud to be an American?

Because there (is) freedom and peace and love all over this land. I'm proud to be an American because we have force protection for us kids to feel safe. ~ James Breaux III

I get freedom. I can eat what I want. I don't have to be a slave because I am free and I am going to be myself. ~ Britney Almazon

Why are you proud to be an American?

I am proud to be an American because the Army is fighting in Afghanistan for us.

~ Austin Jyring

I am proud to be an American, because the people are nice and I like people.

~ Chelsea Lewis

I am proud to be an American. To learn and the guards protect us. I get toys.

~ Jerome Peterson

I'm proud to be an American because I like the feeling that we (are) all free. I'm proud to be an American because I like the feeling that I'm protected.

~ Kayla Summers-Gross

I am proud to be an American because America (has) many neat things.

~ Matt Brixey

The guards protect us and people are nice sometimes.

~ Jeremy Toy

I am proud to be an American because I can protect people.

~ Ana O'Haver

I think America is powerful and I'm glad to be an American.

~ Kelly Ellison

I like to be American because we love our community. We get good stuff in our community and they let young people into college for free and you learn.

~ Devante Lawrence

By: Julian Yates

Because I feel safe, we have freedom, we have good laws.

~ Shon Lyons

I love my community. I love freedom. I love the people who protect us.

~ Austin Winstead

I love America because America is a fun place and the guards protect us. When I grow up I will be a police man.

~ Tyler Karns
