ATHAPASCAN

1961-1962

Augsburg American High School

The Augsburg American High School originated in the Centerville wing of the Augsburg Elementary School, Augsburg, Germany, in September 1955. Funds to construct the new school were provided and it was completed on the present location in 1956. Grades nine through twelve constituted the administrative plan until 1961 when grades seven and eight were added.

Augsburg American High School has been accredited by the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges since 1955.

Foreword

Living as Americans in Bavaria, the most beautiful and picturesque part of Germany, we enjoy the intermingling of the cultures of Germany and America. The name of our school, Augsburg American High School, clearly indicates this intermingling. In presenting ATHAPASCAN, 1961-1962, we have attempted to reveal the best from these two great cultures. Scenes from this great modern city, once ancient "Golden Augsburg," will stimulate our memories in years to come for we can truly say "We were here."

Donald P. Devona, Augsburg's football and basketball coach, has been with the school ever since it was built and has become a necessary part of our school life. Mr. Devona is the instructor in Physical Education and has coached the Augsburg APACHES to many victories in football, basketball, and track. He received his B.A. degree at Augustana College in Illinois and his M.A. at Northwestern University.

These two men, Coach Donald P. Devona and Herr Viktor Kepik, stand for the intermingling of the European and American cultures. They have worked side by side for five years and have done Augsburg High a great service. In an attempt to express our appreciation for the kindness, patience, and guidance they have shown us throughout our school years, we, the Annual Staff, wish to dedicate our 1961-1962 ATHAPASCAN to Coach Devona and Herr Lepik.

Dedication

Viktor Lepik, our German teacher at Augsburg High, is a native of Estonia. He has taught at our school for five years. Each year Herr Lepik helps to get the Junior-Senior Prom under way. He also is the sponsor of the Russian History and Culture Club. Herr Lepik attended the University of Muenchen.

To the Faculty and students:

It is my pleasure to add my congratulations to the faculty and student body of Augsburg American High School for making the school year 1961-'62 the successful year it has been. I am sure that you will not be satisfied to rest on your laurels. I hope that you will continue to study hard and to participate in as many school service organizations as possible. I hope that you will make good use of what you have learned of other countries and other peoples, of other languages and other cultures.

My special congratulations to the class of 1962. The successful completion of your high school studies reflects great credit upon you, your parents, and your teachers.

My best wishes to each of you,

CLASSES

Der Dom - Augsburg

SENIORS

Hans Jakob Fugger, "furtherer of knowledge," was the grand nephew of Jakob Fugger "Rich." Beginning as weavers in early 1300, this industrious family became merchants, bankers and benefactors of most of Europe. In 1519 they built the first social housing settlement in the world the "Fuggerei" of Augsburg. As these worthy people became symbols of industry, wisdom and community service, so may we the members of the Senior Class aspire to such goals. We will cause the world to take note of us. Here our senior officers and sponsors salute the Fugger legend.

From earliest times the smiths of Augsburg have been famous for their creations in silver and gold. Products of their trade have reached the four corners of the world. As the smith fashions pieces of great beauty and value from the metals of the earth, so are we molded for future service from the caldron of educational preparation. The Juniors have yet one more year in the hands of the smith, to be molded and polished into vessels of beauty and usefulness. Standing by the statue of the Silversmiths in Martin Luther Platz, Junior officers and sponsors ponder what is to come hereafter.

Officers and sponsors of the Sophomore Class find themselves before the crest of the Holy Roman Empire of the German Nation on "Das Tor des Fugger Hauses." This famous door was the scene of many regal receptions for such heads of state as Emperor Charles V, Maximilian, King Gustavus Adolphus and Emperor Napoleon I. The ancient crest is symbolic of the history, unity and accomplishments of a great nation; age and youth in each generation. We Sophomores have launched ourselves upon a program of study, training and preparation that will make us a part of our nation's purpose to remain great. Let us aim to "increase in wisdom, in stature, and in favor" as we go.

Since the beginning of the Christian era the site of Augsburg has been favorable to commerce. In all European towns and cities the market place has been the center of trading of peasant goods and wares of traveling merchants. The "Markt" was the business and social center for all, where ideas as well as things were exchanged. Standing in the ancient market of old Augsburg, officers and sponsors of our Freshman Class perceive the atmosphere of turmoil, trade, and accomplishment. May our transactions and decisions produce the same success enjoyed by vendors in the market. If we prepare our wares, we too should have something to sell in the competitive market of life.

School Spirit

Spirit is defined in the dictionary as, "brave vigor or liveliness." But "school spirit" cannot be found in the dictionary; it can be found only in the students themselves. The enthusiasm and pep at games, the exuberance of students in the halls, and the smiles with which they greet one another all help to build a school filled with "spirit." The presence or lack of "school spirit" helps determine the success or failure of a school year.

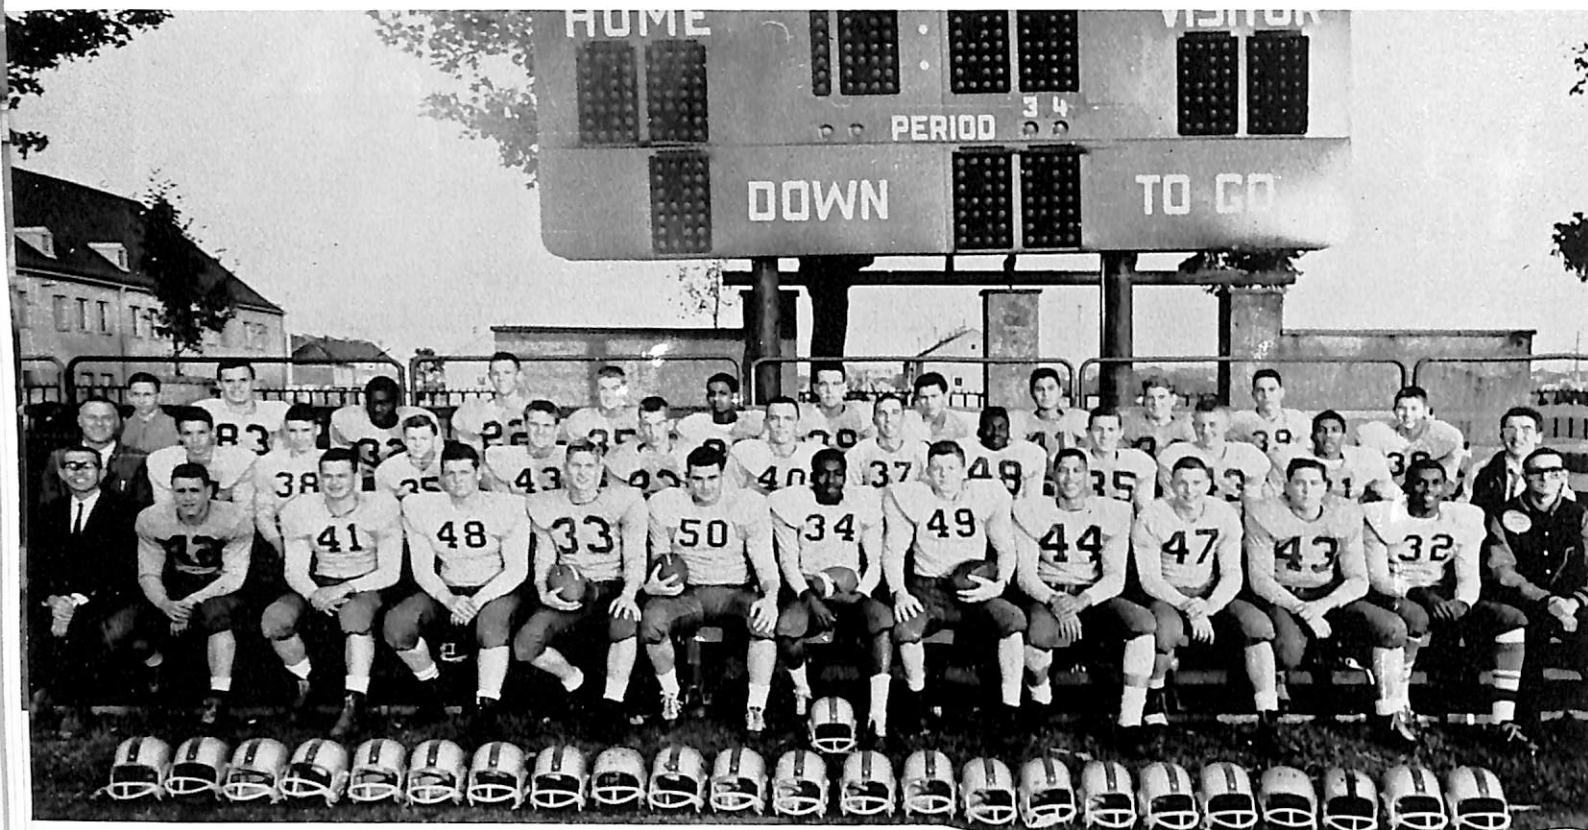

The students of American High show their "spirit" by participation and co-operation in school projects and activities, excellent deportment and their congenial attitude toward one another.

ALMA MATER
Oh, Augsburg to thee, we gladly pledge our hearts and hands anew,
Our future shall be the pride of all thy sons
and daughters true,
We join in thy praise, our songs and cheers will set the rafters ringing,
Augsburg, our Alma Mater
Hail, hail to thee,
GO - FIGHT - WIN!

COACH, TEAM
We've got the coach!
We've got the team!
We've got the pep!
We've got the steam!
We've got the coach, team,
pep, steam!
Fifteen rahs for the whole damn team!
Rah, rah, rah, rah, rah!
Rah, rah, rah, rah, rah!
Rah, rah, rah, rah, rah!

Every year our school is reviewed for accreditation by the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. This year we were evaluated and received favorable adjudication, though the appraisal found several areas in which there is room for further improvement. We believe that under present administration continuous progress is being achieved and Augsburg High School looks forward to better meeting the needs of its increasing number of students as the years come and go.

Boosters of Athapascan

The Annual Staff of Augsburg American High School sincerely appreciates the generous financial assistance given to the ATHAPASCAN YEARBOOK project for 1961-'62. Without the cooperation of all of you our efforts would have been in vain. The following pages are dedicated to the BOOSTERS of ATHAPASCAN. Thank you one and all!
