Onward We Roll
My Fellow Students To SUCCESS

On the road to success
you take many forms of transport.
As you move along that road, you change forms of transport, always moving to the next best form.

There are many potholes and pit stops
along the road to success.

If you keep looking for a better set of wheels
and steer your own road,

you will achieve the success you look for.

If you are content to stay where you are and let chance steer you,

you will brake down and never achieve any form of success.

Keep looking forward and striving to get to the finish.

When you reach the end, look around and you will find something better ahead.

To my fellow travelers I say this,

May your spokes never bend

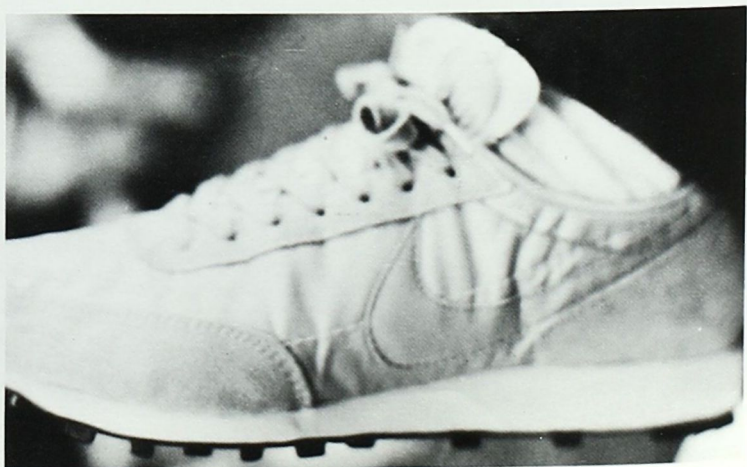

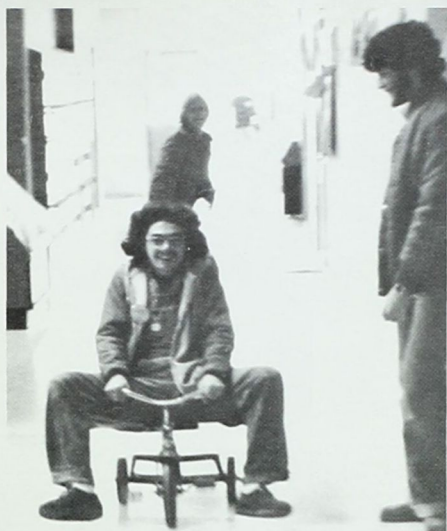

May your tire never get a flat

May your drive shaft bend.

Good luck on your road to success.

IN MEMORIAM

VICKIE LYNN SCHULERT

February 20, 1963 — July 18, 1980

Vickie was a friend to us all. She helped the class of '81 with her kind words and deeds. She always has a warm smile for everyone. Vickie will not be forgotten.

We came to say good-bye to you whom we called a friend.
Good-bye from those who know you best,
good-bye from those who knew you little,
good-bye from all of us.
You were always friendly,
always ready to help.
We all shed tears for you.
May you find peace and contentment,
in your new world.
You shall always be remembered.
Good-bye, our friend.

Student Council

The 1980-81 Student Council initiated many activities in the course of the year. The executive board met on Mondays while the council met regularly on Wednesdays during homeroom. The members were Michael Reynolds, President; LeeAnn Price, Vice President; Deanna Meyer, Secretary; Karen Klingelsmith, Treasurer; Kale Regula, Parliamentarian; Chuck Chiarotti, 12th Vice Pres; Benny Costanza, 12 Pres; Elizabeth Mussari, 12 Rep.; Patrick Lopardi, 12 Rep.; Kevin Gradt, 11th Pres.; Dennis Gutierrez, 11th Vice Pres.; Noelle Workman, 11th Rep.; Tammy Kitzmiller, 11th Rep.; Cornelius Vick, 11th Rep.; Manuel Guttierrez, 10th Pres.; Lucy Jasmer, 10th Rep.; Trixi Reynolds, 10th Rep.; Kerri Mussari, 9th Vice Pres.; Robert Lucas, 9th Rep.; Juliana Saccuman, 9th Rep.; Ida Tyler, 8th Pres.; Salome Ward, 8th Rep.; Karen Eldridge, 8th Rep.; Tassy Harper, 8th Rep.; Betsy Stafford, 7th Pres.; Frankie Saufley, 7th Rep.; Duane Chilton, 7th Rep.

The Student Council worked hard on Homecoming week, a monitor system for the school, various day to day activities and the PTSA Carnival. They also raised money at bake sales and dances. They also sent Kale R. and Dennis G. to the Regional Student Council Clinic in Vicenza. They are grateful to their sponsors Mr. Miller and Mr. Engbrecht for their time and support.

Student Court

The newly designed Student Court headed by Chief Justice Pat Cox and Judges Steve Fernays, Theresa Shireman, Shane Murphy, and Ballif Peter Berry, was dormant most of the time. A few notable cases were presented, but the courts powers were limited as were crimes presented. Hopefully future years will prove the court as an important part of the Student Government of A.H.S. 110,0

Lettermen's Club

The Aviano High School Lettermen's Club sponsored by Mr. McNeely and led by President Pat Lopardi, met bimonthly on Thursdays during lunch. The main purpose of the club was to order gold and distribute it to Lettermen. Numerous money making projects added money to be carried over to the next year's club.

The Advanced Band

Choir and Basic Band

The Aviano High School Choir directed and led by Mr. Miller, consisted of Lorena C., Laurie A., Dorinda H., Amy D., Shawn H., Anita J., Tammy B., Benny C., and Debbie G. The various numbers they sang were well received at their concerts throughout the year.

The Aviano High School Basic Band directed by Mr. Miller improved throughout the year, while also performing well in public. This year's members were: Flutes; Delinda B., Shanon S., and Kimberly V.

The Clarinets included: Andrew B., Sara D., Dee C., Dorothy H., Laura L., Lori P., Michael P., and Vicky S., and Eddie C.; on Alto and Bass Clarinets. On Saxophone were: Duane C., Karen J., and Carol N. Mike C., Stacy R., Ed S., and Glen V. played trumpet, while Karl S. played the French Horn. On Trombone were: Michelle B., Butch C., and Fred M. The Baritone players included: Willie S., Willie W., while David B. played percussion.

XPERIENCES

Unlike many other school sponsored activities, Yankees is not a club, organization, team or traditional approach to education. Instead, it is a concept of sharing experiences, especially those involving the unique cultural setting of any overseas school. There is no set membership although a few students have been involved all year. Each new trip gathers together a new group from a wide range of ages with one common interest — the event or place to be visited. In order to share these experiences a modest report is published and distributed to all dependent high schools overseas. We hope that this may produce a "chain-letter" reaction which could eventually result in a simple, but effective, mailing list to link schools with similar interests. Yankees is new this year — we hope it will flourish.

WHAT IS DRAMA?

Take our student body. Find those who like to play. From them seek out anyone with an overdeveloped imagination. Weed from the remnant the non-conformists who can take bone-crushingly concentrated practices. Of this remainder, gather in the risk-takers with a sense of humor. Those left, then, had to put up with the abuse of a lunatic director, wacky practice hours, and riding the Activity buses with jocks. That's our drama club — not a dull moment.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING 80

The 1980 Homecoming was an event well worth remembering. The princesses from each class were announced at the bonfire and crowned at halftime of the homecoming game against Naples. Since Aviano beat Naples 12-0 everyone was in high spirits at the homecoming dance that night. At the dance the Queen was announced and led her court in the traditional dance. The 1980 Aviano High school Homecoming Queen was Julie Saufley. Her court was led by Elizabeth Mussari, the Senior Princess. The Junior Princess was Mary Taylor. Kiersten Craven was the Sophomore Princess; Trina Jones was the Freshmen Princess; the eighth grade Princess was Christina Dudley and the seventh grade Princess was Lori Price.

HOMECOMING WEEK

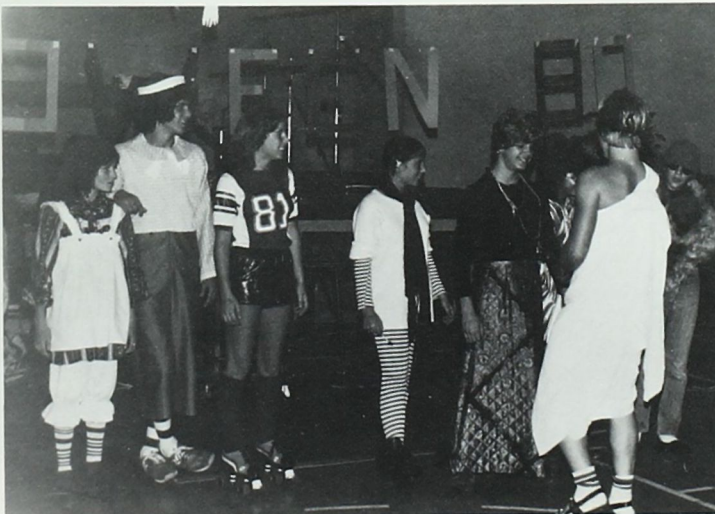

Aviano's 1980 Homecoming Week was filled with action and lots of excitement. The week started off with a bang, as many students dressed up for 50's Day and danced at the Sock Hop during lunch. The next day was Twin Day with class Tug-of-Wars at lunch. The sophomores proved their strength as they won the championship. Wednesday found many students in their second childhood as they participated in Kiddie Day. During lunch, the Seniors defeated the Juniors to become the Powder Puff champions. Thursday was Inside Out Day. The assembly on Friday was sprinkled with skits, spirit links, songs by the band and lots of cheering. The sophomores received the Spirit Jug for being the class with most spirit throughout the week. That evening there was a bonfire with a pep band and lots of cheers. The game and dance on Saturday were both successful and ended the week on a high note.

Halloween was another of Aviano High School's numerous activities. Many students featured originality, creativity, and imagination by participating in costume day. The school was blessed with Viking Warriors, a Werewolf, Greek Gods, a Mad Scientist and the Flash. There was a very successful dance that night and prizes were awarded for the most original costumes. Some of the winners are pictured below.

SNOWBALL

The 1981 Snowball Princesses were Laura Burton, Monique Jackson, Trixi Reynolds, Becky Benmore, Kiersten Distelzweig, and Zoey Gunn. The Snowball Queen was Lee Ann Price. A special visit by Santa Claus and lots of good music made the evening memorable.
