LONG TIME AGO

Indy 500 look out!!

Did ya post my bail?

Double your trouble!

All by myself ...

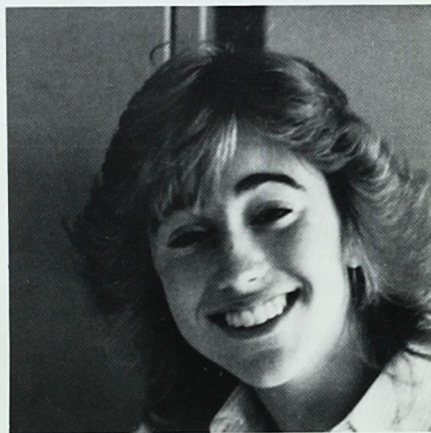

I AM smiling.

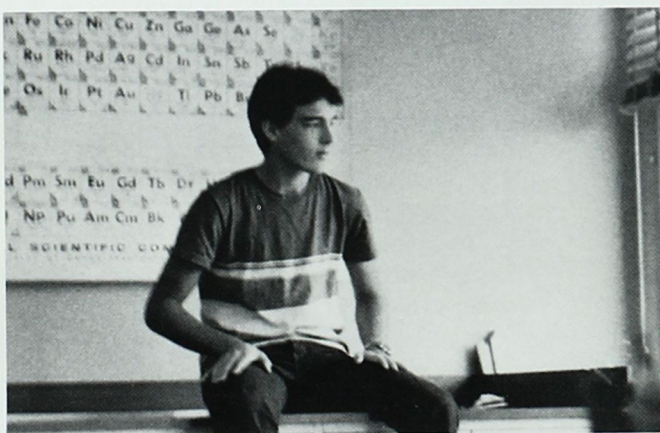

Hedda Hopper, look out!

Who'd a thunk it?

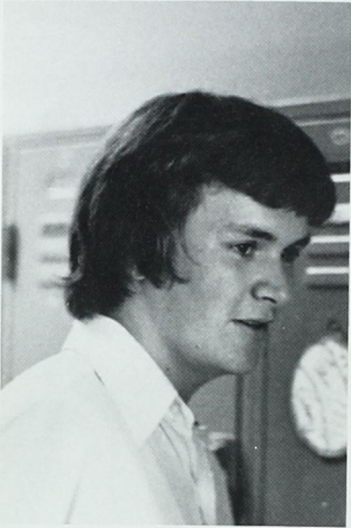

Oh, I wish I were an Osker-Meyer ...

Words fail me-Ed.

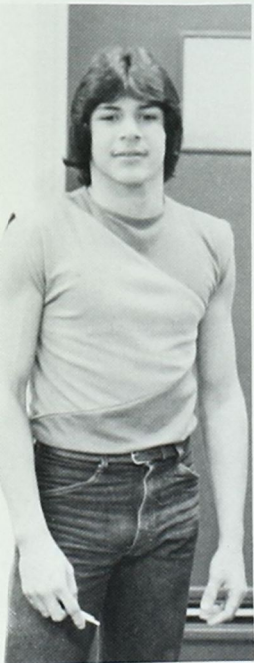

WE ARE MORE IN 84

Fred pauses for a moment of thought.

I know, I know.

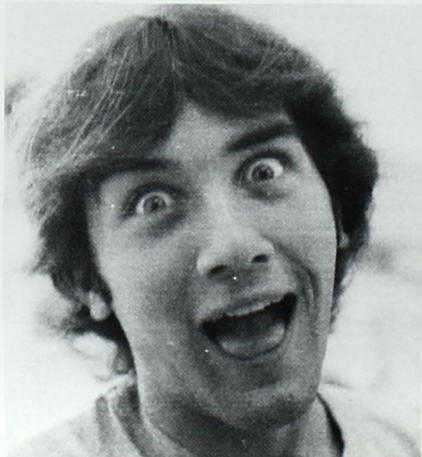

Where'd ya get those peepers?

Adam Flores thinks he's bad.

Ahhhhhhhhhhhh!

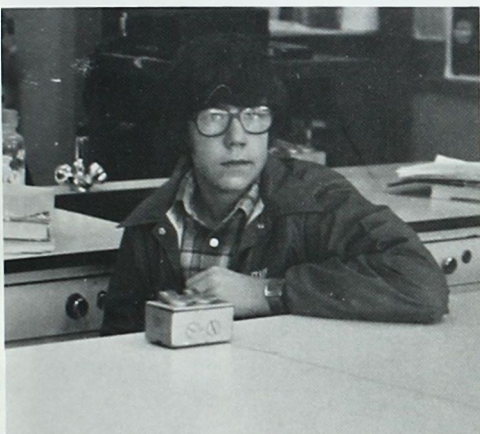

Pat has that far-away look again.

Seniors are always eager to pose.

Alex Neary doesn't seem too happy.

Deana, can't you smile?

Scott relaxes during class.

Mike and Adam finally get serious.

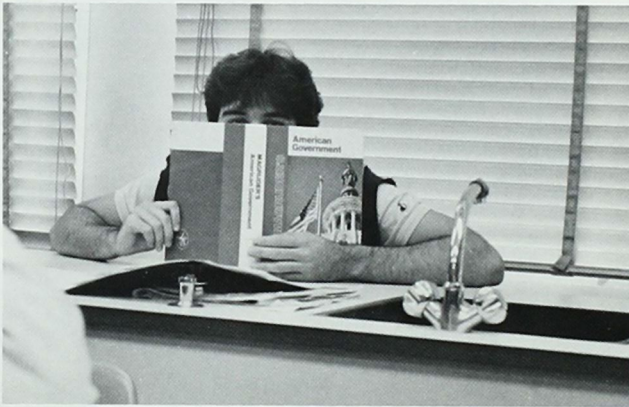

Debbie Harrison's sophisticated look.

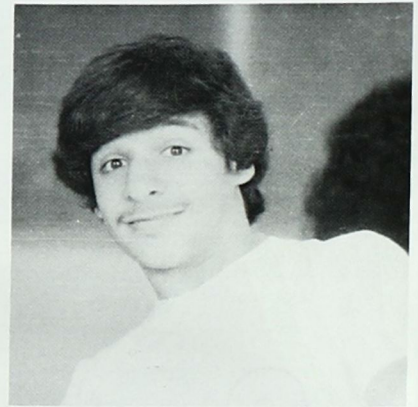

TIME OUT IN 84

Angie helped out at fun-day.

Nobody can hide from Mr. Miller, Bob.

Check me out!!!!!!

What's so funny, Susan?

Athena Priquette

"Tell him about it ... "

Erin is in her own world AGAIN!

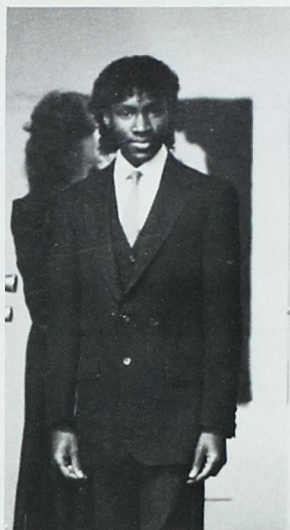

Elisa (Buffy) looks confused.

Don't ever lose the memories,
Don't ever forget all that's been said,
Everything that was learned,
Only helped to improve
What was already within us.

As juniors in this troubled time,
We can only hope to achieve,
All that we may desire to do.
All that we may feel in our hearts to pursue,
The only reason to live,
Is so that life can be expanded to its fullest.

The ways that were once part
Of our own youth
Now seem to be useless.
We have grown much through
These years,
And despite the challenges
Of the past.
They are nothing when compared to the memories.

Never forget all that we've learned,
As a whole and as individuals.
Together with the present,
Our memories will provide for
An even better life.

RUNNING AGAINST THE CLOCK

Chedar Stasulli pushes to beat her opponent.

Aviano Cross Country Team: Mike Brown, Mathew Hughes, James Chambers, Jeff Chambers, Marcus Mata, Tom Stafford, Buffy Ross, Juanita Glenn, Chedar Stasullim Jim Burke.

Marcus Mata is all alone as he heads for the finish line.

The meet begins as the starters of Aviano commence their competition with the opposing team.

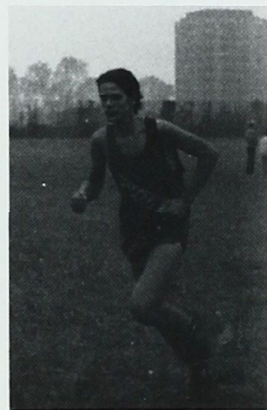

As the 1983-1984 school year began, the Cross Country team was Already on its way to another great year.

This team fulfilled its expectations and had a year that most other teams have yet to achieve.

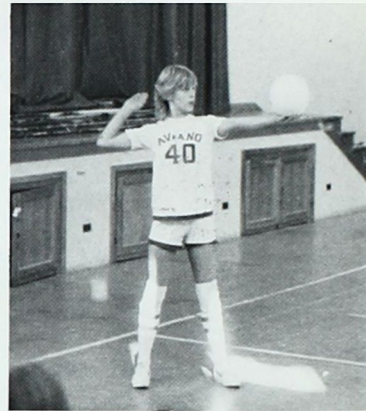

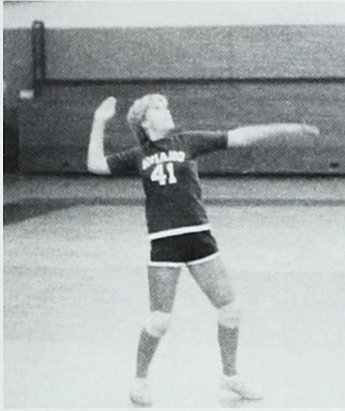

A boys' Cross Country meet begins, with Aviano out in front.

The Aviano team members go over their times after a meet.

"We"
 In distant lands men suffer and die.
 We live in our little bubble,
 And then ask the reason why.
 Our eyes and ears are filled with ourselves.
 And we wonder why we can't hear them cry.
 We ponder on problems near,
 And close our hearts to those distant,
 The reality is harsh,
 And we prefer not to hear.
 On Sunday, we love our fellow man.
 On Christmas, kindness we celebrate.
 On Easter, we repent,
 On Thanksgiving, a turkey we shall carve,
 So who cares if seventeen million each year
 starve?

IN MEMORIAM

Brian Charles Gradt

In our hearts Brian will always remain a very special person. He was a fighter and he never gave up until he had achieved what he sought. He had a winning spirit that never quit but instead motivated us and gave us the inspiration to excel in our endeavors. His bright eyes and smiling face are missed by all but the memories of all of the good times shared will always be with us. We regret that there was no time for good-byes but then Brian never liked good-byes. There are many things that we wish we could have said or done for which there was no time. We know Brian would have preferred a smile to a tear so we present this page in memory of a great friend and thank him for the many memories and good times that he gave us. We salute you Brian, for being a fighter, a winner, and our friend but most of all for being you and sharing with us your life. We miss you Brian and we will always love you.

"Brian, I will always love you more than anything in the world! I miss you & love you."

Sylvia

WANT SOME ACTION AGAINST THE EROSION OF YOUR "BENNIES"

Enlisted Personnel Of All Grades

The Air Force Sergeants Association is DOING SOMETHING ABOUT IT! Professional lobbyists representing 144,000 Air Force Sergeants Association (AFSA) members are fighting your battles on Capitol Hill and in the Pentagon.

CMSAF Sam E. Parish says, "Press your concerns to our Congressional leaders.
"Get out and vote."
"Press your concerns about our association—we need your support."

The Voice of AFSA testifies for everyone who wears the Air Force Blue But . . . Congressmen and Senators equate clout with official numbers of registered voters.

THOUGHTS TO GROW ON

Quality time invested in people will pay multiple benefits in the future. (Anonymous)

A good education never hurt anyone who was willing to learn something after graduation. (anonymous)

When you talk you can only say what you already know. When you listen you may learn what someone else knows. (Tom Dodds)

Successful people are usually those who have developed a brake for their tongue and an accelerator for the mind. (Anonymous)

JUNIOR OFFICER COUNCIL

The JOC is a unique form of low risk participation in the real management of Air Force activities and concerns. The world — the Air Force --- is yours to do what you will. The JOC has been purposely structured in a flexible manner to encourage the most creativity, innovation, and initiative among its members. Participation in an active JOC is an opportunity on serious officer can afford to miss. Action is the key note of success. "It is not the critic who counts . . . the credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena."

JOC Annual "Buon Natale" Project
