Lily-

"People can be divided into three groups: Those who make things happen. Those who watch things happen. Those who wonder what happened. Congratulations, Lily on being the captain of the first group."

Love Mom, Dad,
Lissy, and Leo.

Congratulations, Call

"We are proud to see you made it. Don't stop now, reach for higher and better goals."

ONE LOVE!
Mom and Dad.

Kristen,

"BK Class of '93- Congratulations on your accomplishments and best wishes for success and a happy life. Continue to apply yourself; Aim High. As you go off to college and pursue your career aspirations, take time to enjoy life, your friends, your family. Remember your roots and the friends, teachers, and others who have helped you through your formative years. It will be difficult to let you leave the nest, to go out and begin the transition to having a life truly your own. We are always here to help you, support you, love you- don't ever forget that or doubt it. You are a special young woman in our eyes and hearts."

Love and Best Wishes, Mom, Dad & Kerin.

Tanya.

"You have always been a sweet daughter to us; it is hard to believe you are all grown up now. Graduating from high school means a wonderful part of your life is ending, and new world is opening for you. May God guide you through life. And remember we will always be there for you and even though you're grown up now, you'll always be our little girl."

Good Luck, Tanya! Love Mom and Dad.

Justin,

"We are very proud of you, congratulations! Today's world measures success and happiness by wealth. Always remember, the only thing in life that matters are not tangible. Love and integrity are enduring. Keep God in your heart and your success will be genuine."

Love, Mom and Dad.
