DEDICATION

*To you, tomorrow, we dedicate this book.
In your hands there is a Promise.
A promise yet to be fulfilled.*

"LOOK FORWARD WITH HOPE FOR TOMORROW."

PROLOGUE

A foreword to the future

To help you recall the past

As you read this in the present.

We hope you enjoy our play and cast.

As the curtain rises on another

Phase of life

May we ne'er forget our school,

The struggle and our strife.

There are many happy days behind

The curtain of a diploma.

As you open your ZONIAN of '54

You'll find

That the stage, though past, is lit,

To remind you of the days gone by.

Passing notes in study hall;

Cheering at the games;

Tears at graduation;

Dancing at the prom;

Slamming locker doors at three;

Struggling through English 12

High laughter and silent tears

Those mad crushes and so many other things.

These have made up the fun of those four last years.

SENIOR CLASS of 1954

As we walk down the halls of BHS we can't help but relive the wonderful memoirs:

September: Hi gang! Remember when we entered as Freshmen? Well, now our last year has finally arrived. Being Freshmen brought a complete change into our lives, making us feel like real grown-ups. Although we were awkward, we must admit, we elected well-equipped officers, President, Bruce Quinn; Vice-President, Abdiel Flynn; Secretary, Mildred Damerau; and Class Adviser, Mr. Michel, and introduced them at our first big formal dance, "The Inaugural Dance."

October: Football season was at its height. How our boys worked-out and studied their lessons unceasingly so that they could make the football teams. In our Sophomore year the team was off to Miami, and in '53, we welcomed Lake Worth to the Canal Zone.

November: We had the first Isthmian Bowl game in '51, and although we were defeated, it was an event to remember. This was also the month of the play, "Showdown at Sawtooth," which was almost the last time we had the opportunity to reveal our talents.

December: "A beautiful sight, we're happy tonight, walking in a 'Winter Wonderland'" . . . wasn't that a marvelous dance we gave in our Junior year? This dance of elegance and pomp was made possible through the undying effort of our class officers, President, Paul Smith; Vice-President, Bruce Quinn; Secretary, Pat Dunning; and Class Adviser, Mr. Jeffries. The spirit of the Yuletide season was observed in BHS by the annual Christmas music programs.

January: One of the outstanding incidents of the new year was the basketball tournaments. The girls from "Chez Eloise" gracefully displayed their latest creations giving competition to Madame Schiaparelli. The Girls' Athletic Association dance in the upper gym contributed to the fun of this month of January.

February: Each year the "Valentine Dance" has been super but this year it was extra-super because it was sponsored by the mighty Senior class of '54. This special dance, still the talk of the school, was conducted by our efficient officers, President, Jack Corrigan; Vice President, Bill Martin; Secretary, Bobby Jo Oglesby; and Class Adviser, Mr. Ward. "One, two, three strikes you're out of the old ball game," that headed the list of the boys' good times for the year. The gaiety and the festivity of Carnival reached its height at the Spanish Club's coronation and costume dance.

March: At this time of the year our boys exhibit their track ability. The Reserve Officers Training Corps' "Field Night" was at Mount Hope Stadium. Competition for medals was keen among the companies, squadrons, platoons, and individuals. The National Honor Society, the most important organization in the school, held its second semester initiation at the Balboa Theatre. Our competent Sophomore class officers, President, Kenny Lee; Vice-President, Paul Smith; Secretary, Andy Mulligan; and Class Adviser, Mr. Elliott, made sure that our "Sadie Hawkins Dance" was superb.

April: Many of the girls will never forget the good times they shared at Girls' State during Easter vacation. At the annual Little Theatre Banquet diamond masks were awarded to the most deserving Senior actors and actresses. Sea shells, fish nets inwoven with golden pearls, and the numerous types of fish presented a fantasy to our graduating Senior class. The decorations of the Junior-Senior banquet and prom were truly a "Romance of the Sea."

May: Our annual spring concert in observation of Music Week reminded us of the seasons of the year. The Reserve Officers Training Corps sponsored their gala awards ball in which outstanding cadets were honored. To top off the Senior activities was the great "Senior Party," full of fun and entertainment, where we had a wonderful time. Our traditional Baccalaureate Service made us realize that we would soon be leaving our unforgettable BHS.

June: And finally the memory of walking up the long, long aisle of the Balboa Theatre on Graduation Night will linger in our minds forever.

J U N I O R S

This year we were upper classmen at last, and wanting only the best for an executive staff, we chose: Cesar Von Chong, President; Sandy Hinkle, Vice-President; and Nina Brown, Secretary. The year began when Greta Navarro's ring committee helped us choose our beautiful ring. Then we gave the Christmas Formal. How we worked on that original theme, "Santa's Workshop"! Jeannette Gau was our pretty Holly Queen, and it would never have been a success without Chairman Jane Jennison. The year was brought to an end when the Jr.-Sr. Banquet and Prom Committee, under the direction of Patricia Quinn, Chairman, gave the largest dance of the year which everyone is still raving about.

Although we're not quite there yet, we have a bright future to look forward to. Our class proved itself outstanding scholastically, athletically, and socially. Our President, Earl Martin, really did his best for us. Among the committees he chose was the Sadie Hawkins Dance, at which everyone had a sensational time. Winning the Soph-Frosh Frolic for the second consecutive year really did a lot for our prestige, too. Our Vice-President, Tim Hotz, and Secretary, Angela Lee, were able workers, and we appreciate everything they did for us. Yes, we had a fine year, and more important we know that our next two will be even more memorable. How could it be anything else with a class such as ours!

FRESHMEN

It may well be said that this was one of the best years of our lives. We chose our officers with the satisfaction of knowing it was a job well done. They were: Carlos Rivas, President; Owen Sutherland, Vice-President, and Jim Watson, Secretary. These boys all worked hard at expressing their capability of holding office when they chose the Freshman Showcase Committee with Chairman Janaan Olson. As the year progressed, we had loads of fun at the Freshman Picnic. Thanks, Linda Jacobs, and your committee for such a wonderful time. We may have been only Freshmen, but what we did was done well.

Cupid's Choice

Blonde Queen Helen I was the choice of Balboa High School for the annual Valentine Formal. Included in her court were seniors: Jo Jensen, and Ann Livingston, juniors: Jane Jennison, and Pat Quinn, sophomores: Shirley Ransom, and Sis Brady, and freshmen: Ann Marsh, and Agnes Brin; the little crown bearer was Jo Marti. They were surely cupid's choice.

Beth Hatchett—Editor, and Sue Curdts—Associate Editor, are looking over the enlarged pictures for the ZONIAN.

Mr. Hatchett, Business Adviser, and Miss Matthews, Sponsor, are about to go into Room 116 to discuss a few things about the ZONIAN.

Jean Angstadt, Business Manager, and Marilyn Abreu, Assistant Business Manager are checking their receipt books.

Z O N I A N

Some people think there isn't anything to making a year book. But ask the hard-working ZONIAN staff; they know differently! The sixth period every day and many free periods were dedicated to making a better ZONIAN. You could spot a staff member counting on his fingers—pictures to be taken, the cover and title pages to be decided upon, copy to be written, layouts to be made, and last of all but by no means least, the budget to be met. With all of this in mind, you're bound to agree that a great deal of thanks is due to the ZONIAN staff of '54.

P A R R A K E E T

One day during every month, the S. A. members of B. H. S. receive a copy of the school newspaper, the PARRAKEET. This year's paper has been the newsiest this school has had in a long while. This is due to the staff's nose for news and dependability. They put into the PARRAKEET many new ideas, twists, manners, news events, social activities and scholastic activities, which made it more interesting. The PARRAKEET staff has a long record of achievement, having won the George H. Gallup Award for five consecutive years. To this staff who add so much to B. H. S. we offer our thanks.

Mr. Hatchett, Business Adviser, is giving that necessity, money, to Miss Brigham, Sponsor.

Busy at work are Jim Maxwell, Helen Tilley, Miss Brigham, and Frank Lerchen.

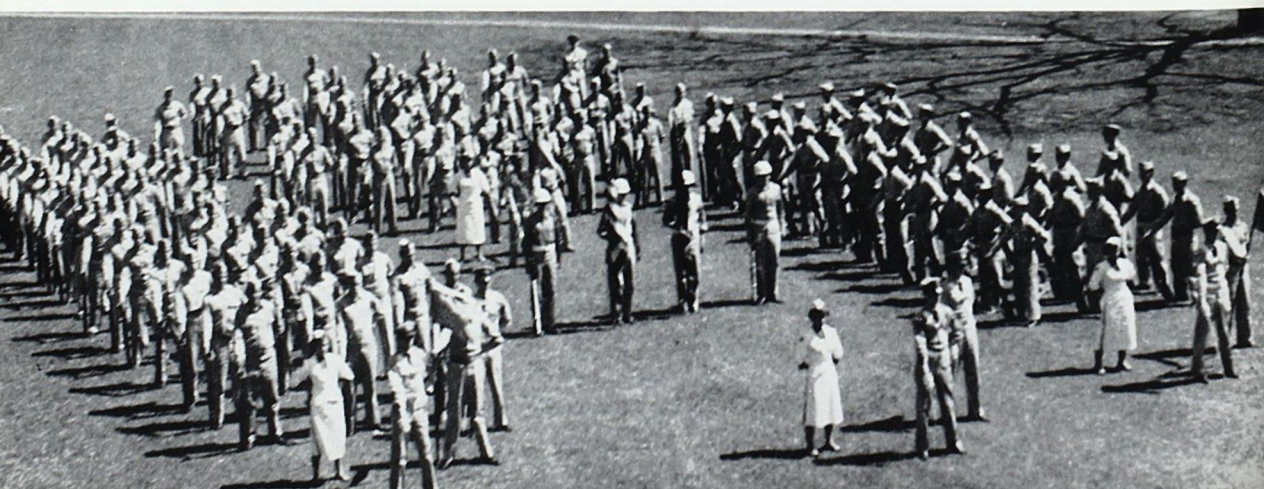

Balboa High School ROTC farewell review for Colonel Richardson Selee, Civil Affairs Director, Balboa, October 14, 1953.

BATTALION! PASS IN REVIEW

These often repeated words will long be remembered by Balboa ROTC cadets. These very words started the many reviews in which the companies performed excellently. High ranking military and civilian officials have served as inspecting officials of the corps. They have complimented the corps and the "Drill Team."

The fifth period band class seems to be working very hard.

Mr. Victor Herr

BAND

This year the music department has developed into one of the most highly organized units in B. H. S.

Three bands have shared the responsibilities formerly assigned one group. The 60 piece concert band put on the half-time shows at our football games, along with their regular concert assignments. The varsity band, a group of 28 selected students, played for most of our basketball games. Dixieland music, German music and general bally-hoo were the musical contributions of the German band, a five piece group which performed for various functions.

Those top-notch performers; Gloria Morton, Dick Grassau, and Jeannine Kleasner.

Our very own German Band with Steve (Fritz) Park, Mr. (Aloysius) Herr, Charles (Anton) Carden, Jim (Heinrich) Reece, and Dave (Josef) Otten.

The nifty and nice flag twirlers for the year were Greta Navarro, Jane Jennison, and Judy Lindsay.

CHORUS and ORCHESTRA

Chorus reached new heights in choral interpretation through a broader program, more concert appearances and a more select group. The Christmas program will never be forgotten. The "Freedom's Song" and the annual Spring Concert attracted throngs of enthusiastic music lovers.

Fuller instrumentation, improved musicians and enthusiasm have produced a flexible orchestra whose repertoire includes such classics as Hagdus "Surprise Symphony," and the "Prayer" from Humpdinks "Hansel and Gretel." Their talents combined with the Chorus produced selections on the Spring Concert that inspired the acclaim of the entire audience.

Chez Eloise 1954

Carroll Adams looks like a dream in her midnight blue net gown, sprinkled with rhinestones.

Are these our girls? Fresh as daisies, Sally Banton, Carolyn Pence, and Kathleen Steiner surely do leave us in the clouds.

One of Panama's sweethearts, Hilda Nuñez.

Well, hello to you, too! Don't Carlene Clark and Colleen Barnett look delicious to you in their peasant dresses?

Looking like a picture out of VOGUE magazine, Ann Livingston takes our breath away in her afternoon dress.

Bound for the States, Kitty Lowe and Mitzi Siegel look very stylish in their corduroy fall outfits.

Pasionaria Navarrete looks like a charming pixie in her lovely afternoon dress, with hat, gloves, and shoes to match.

Suited for Paris is this demure BHS'er, Sally Kaplan.

"Check" Ginger Espiau, dressed for that sporting date.

LATIN BEAUTY

D R A M A

In November, the Balboa Little Theater staged its first production of the year, "Showdown at Sawtooth." The recent sabotage of airplanes has Slim (Bruce Orvis) quite worried. Tension mounts as Annie Little Pony (Connie Glassburn) receives money from the unknown culprit; Martha Ward (Carroll Adams) loses faith in her ne'er do well boyfriend, Ben Lawrence (Bruce Quinn); and two Captain Cartwrights (John Butler and Kirk Tibbetts), Elmira Mabee (Shirley Million), Lulu Hugger (Ann Nickelson), and Mr. Tuttle (John Smith) all add to the complex situation; however, all ends well when Ben catches the culprit, Lulu Hugger.

FOOTBALL TEAM

The 1953 Balboa Bulldogs completed their season very successfully by win-ning four, tying one, and losing one.

Under the direction of Coach Fawcett, who started the season with six letter-men and ended it with twenty-two, these boys fought hard and displayed good sportsmanship.

The Bulldogs had three players who made all Zone. They were: Jim May, half-back, who also was selected honorary team captain; Tom Davidson, end; and Jim Fulton, tackle.

SPORTSWOMEN OF '53-'54

This year's sportswomen were chosen by Miss Dorothy Potter for their sportsmanship and ability in volleyball, softball, and basketball. Along with an interview, their pictures have appeared in the issues of the Parakeet monthly. Congratulations are in order to these Junior and Senior girls for their wonderful sports abilities.

The intramural BASKETBALL season began rather early this year. The games were started in the middle of January and ran until the middle of March. Many girls signed up in both leagues; the enthusiasm shown was great.

Since the Zonian went to press before the All-Stars were announced, their pictures cannot appear. Instead we have the returning All-Stars in both leagues. Just by looking at these and watching the girls in action, Miss Potter will have no trouble in choosing excellent teams.

Although only a few girls came out for the SOFTBALL intramural games, the season was a big success. The All-Stars were announced in the last week of January, and for two weeks practiced vigorously. In the first game the A League beat Junior College. The following Friday both leagues beat Cristobal. By the end of the season, the A League had played four games, winning all. The B League had played two, also winning all. Congratulations, A and B Leagues, for being the undefeated champions!
