... The Hands Of Time

Baumholder can trace its origins back to the Celtic tribe-the Treverians, about 1,000 B.C. The Germans followed by the Franks inhabited the land now called Baumholder. In 1579, Duke Johann I freed the inhabitants of Baumholder from serfdom and built up the town. WWI brought French troops and they stayed until the end of WWII. In 1951, the American forces took over a major part of the camp and thus became the Baumholder we know today. Baumholder American High School was established in 1995-1996. Here we are, 39 years later.

There is a new addition to BAHS this year. It is a 9 1/2 ton addition. The Senior Rock came to our school this fall. Jennifer Walker's vision of a remnant for the seniors came true as the 40th Engineer Battalion placed the large pebble in front of the school. Plans for the huge monument were plentiful. There were rumors of painting, cleaning, plaques and guard rails. The only decision reached by the senior class was to clean the Rock and leave it natural.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;*

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,*

*And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.*

*I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.*

Freshman Class Of 1994-1995

The Freshmen were navigated by the ever so spirited Mrs. Oliver. Her sweet personality mothered the Freshmen into their High School life. The Freshmen sold us Christmas candy-grams and showed us their spirit when they decorated Homecoming floats. The Freshmen move to all important Sophomore status and continue to be the infamous Class of 1998.

Freshmen are pushed around and abused and pranked on all year. What fun! Just think, they get to do that next year.

The hardworking and dedicated Baumholder faculty and staff are proud to present the best and funniest sides of their true nature. They work hard and still find time to have fun. The question is: Who is the adult clown?

The one-eyed monster is peepin' in on me!

Farewell, Mr. Abbott!

In all his years at Baumholder American High School, Mr. Abbott has never failed in his ability to motivate and inspire students to do their very best. He made us laugh with his sense of humor and endless school spirit. Turning back the hands of time, Mr. Abbott will be a fond memory. We'd like to say farewell and good luck to Mr. Abbott. He will be missed.

Organizations

The 1994 BAHS Pep Club

Mrs. Denise Traci led the BAHS Pep club. This rowdy, motley crew of students kept us alive at football games and cheered for us at pep rallies. Their peppy spirits cheered us on at our sporting events and added new excitement. Thanks pep club and keep on peepin'. Clap your hands, stomp your feet, and listen to the rhythm of the Buccaneer beat!

Varsity Club

Who was the first Buc?

Varsity Club members Angie Miller, Mandy Stevenson, Kelly Maudlin, Jamiel Saliba, Arianne Villanueva, and Emily Drane all attend a tri-weekly meeting of Varsity Club.

The BAHS Varsity Club is the behind the scenes people who put together our wonderful pep rallies. Our challenges between coaches and players, toilet paper games, and the class vs. class events all came from the Varsity Club.

To be in Varsity Club, one must be a varsity letter winner at one of the many varsity sports offered at BAHS and abroad.

The Yearbook staff and the student body salutes the Varsity Club for their excellent work and their tremendous effort in organizing the 1995 basketball tournament and the many other events they helped with.

Video Club

CHECK IT OUT!

The camera crew at their goofiest. They CAN and do sometimes are worst than this. Just ask Ms. Spruiell. But they are ever hardworking.

Video club is active in filming, editing, and producing videos for all school functions and DODDS events held at BAHS. Under the supervision of Ms. Rhonda Spruiell, the crew is ready to shout, "Lights, Cameras, ACTION!"

Model United Nations

Baumholder Student Council

Student Council

Student Council representatives elected by their peers to act as a liaison between faculty and students. They regulate clubs, fundraisers, classes, pep rallies, and many other activities. Student Council is the core of the governing process at Baumholder High School.

The Galleon

The 1994-1995 Galleon newspaper was produced, as usual, by the Journalism class. The members of the Galleon Staff are Editor-Elizabeth Millican and Troy Borst, seniors; Je'Keisha Hill and Sarah Haines.

Mr. Reed is the teacher who led these few part-time reporters into the world of making a newspaper. The students who produced the Galleon learned how to write stories and use a computer to lay out the paper.

The Galleon newspaper was produced by the Journalism class in the 1994-1995 school year.

International Thespians Society

The International Thespians Society is an international association. Every year the members get together at ISTA (International Schools Theatre Association). This year the event was held in London, England. They have also directed a three-school workshop. Ramstein and Kaiserslautern came to BAHS to share their theatrical insights. The day was fun and quite entertaining. Without the hard work of four kind adults, it could've been a disaster. The International Thespians Society also sponsored the Drama Fest, which includes many DODDS schools in Europe. The school year of 94-95 has been rather eventful.

National Honor Society

The Baumholder chapter of the National Honor Society is one filled with all sorts of people from all walks of life. This club is led by the ever so eloquent Mrs. Oliver, who by her character and leadership, teaches the members of NHS to better themselves. NHS is founded on several key elements: Character, Service, Scholarship, and Leadership. All of the members of NHS must stand up to a board of teachers and staff who judge each applicant and check to see if they are NHS material. NHS is truly one of the high-esteemed clubs at Baumholder American High School.

Graphic Communications

Graphic Communications is a course in which student learn to produce their ideas into cards, stationary, etc. The class. During the year has made many items for the use of the school. JROTC birthday cards and the band/chorus programs are just a few.

The Graphics students are also introduced into a little photography to aid them in their graphics class.

Auto Technology teaches the basics of the automotive trade. Students learn work habits, fundamental procedures, safety, and hands-on expertise. Auto Technology offers the students a wonderful opportunity to gain valuable work experience for the competitive world.

Chorus

Musically inclined students can test their skill in Mr. Lundy's chorus classes. Singers can make their way through all three levels of chorus.

Chorus always accompanies the band in annual concerts at the school.

Mr. Lundy is the brains behind the chorus program of the music department of Baumholder American High School. Mr. Lundy is a very talented fellow and his commanding presence helps to shape the young voices of the vocally inclined at BAHS. The great concerts and wonderful songs are all attributed to the hardworking Mr. Lundy. Mr. Lundy also manages to help the band at the concerts by playing piano on the side. Thanks Mr. Lundy!!

Computer Science

These classes teach students to learn computer skills and basics for high-tech jobs. Mr. Rassmusson, the patient instructor, is ready to assist students to heat-up the computers.

Business Education

Ms. Morant has worked diligently this year to enhance the skills of the BAHS students. These pupils will be prepared for today's business world.

Television Productions

Kyle shows Jeremy how it's done.

The four stages of this course take an in-depth look at filming and camera techniques, editing, and movie analyzing. Different cameras and editing techniques are used to create music videos, mini-films, and commercials.

This years projects were one in many. The classes started out making commercials of all sorts of products ranging from cereal to foot deodorant. Then, they advanced to movie trailers, also known as previews. These included Big Business, Who's the Man, and Sliver. Then, various projects like news broadcasts, more music videos, and documentaries were completed by individual groups.

Cosmetology

Putting The PieCes TOGETHER

Literary Art Magazine

BAHS has a new art magazine. The name is Mosaic. Andrea Gergay, the editor, came up with the clever title. In this magazine, things such as poetry, short stories, short plays, essays, and many other literary works are featured. If students want to submit entries for the magazine, they send it through English teachers or give it to the Mosaic's sponsor, Ms. Dengel.

The Mosaic staff includes Andrea Gergay, Elizabeth Millican, Melissa Kuntz, Zina Boyd, Brian Bybee, Jason Lady, Rachel Askwith, and Patrick Atkinson. These hard working Mosaic staff members spend hours of after school time reviewing the submissions of other pupils. They retype and design pages for the new exciting magazine-The Mosaic!!

To A Friend Before Taking A Journey

Well, we will do that rigid thing
Which makes spectators think we part;
Though absence hath for none a sting
But those who keep each other's heart.

And when our sense is dispossessed,
Our labouring souls will heave and pant,
And gasp for one another's breast,
Since their conveyances they want.

Nay, we have felt the tedious smart
Of absent friendship, and do know
That when we die we can but part;
And who know what we shall do now?

Yet I must go: we will submit,
And so our own disposers be;
For while we nobly suffer it,
We triumph o'er necessity.

By this we shall be truly great,
If having other things o'ercome,
To make our victory complete
We can be conquerors at home.

Nay then to meet we may conclude,
And all our obstructions overthrow,
Since we our passions have subdued,
Which is the strongest thing I know.

Golf

This year's 1994-1995 Golf team swung into action early. Coach Dougan was the head of the team and helped teach the Buc's the skills to have successful golf games. The team was small. Captain was Jeff Rogers. Other members Alex Frick, Eric, Graham, Mike Shadle, Danielle Dougan, and Chris Lewis rounded out the awesome team.

Tennis

The tennis team consisted of many players whose skills varied. The new team members first wielded their rackets like clubs; they now have learned techniques. The "old timers" of the team had a lot of success with their matches. They learned to aim and hit other less fortunate team members, which resulted in tennis-bonding brawls. They survived with the help of Coach Jones.

Russia Trip

Baumholder students not only went to London this year, but a few had the opportunity to see Russia. The trip was sponsored by the dedicated Mrs. Oliver. The group stayed in the homes of families in Ivanono. They toured Moscow and had a blast walking the streets of St. Petersburg. They also visited several towns around the "Golden Ring." The students learned about history, culture, and a little about themselves. A trip that made memories.

The students that went to Russia include: Billy Market, Jeff and Stacia Rogers, Shiloh Fogle, Lizzie Bishop, Nick Stott, Katy McDougal, Jonce Phipps, and Nicole Perez. This picture was taken at St. Basil's Cathedral.

The NJHS student membership are chosen on the basis of their academic standing, leadership, citizenship, and service to the school. Students are considered to be role models for the student body. They perform various services for the community as well as the school. The society helps to build character and integrity within its individual members. Members strive to excel under the direction of Mrs. Pat Dengel.

Letter From Troy, Editor-n-Chief

Well, another year has come and gone. The lockers have been emptied and another class of students has been thrust into the world of adults. The Juniors are soon to be Seniors. They have much ahead of them and I truly feel for them. The big Sophomore class has become the big Junior class. The new-bee Freshmen fish have become the all-experienced Sophomores.

The Buccaneer Staff has tried its hardest to bring you a great yearbook full of memories you'll want to look back on years from now. I, unfortunately, will not be around this coming year to bring you the second edition of the Buccaneer! I'll be off to college in Tennessee.

Many people I have talked to have said that they haven't liked their stay in sunny Baumholder. Besides never seeing the sun, this place isn't half bad. Where else can you have spring, summer, winter, and fall all in twenty minutes? Where else can you see a larger-than-life sports program that gives the old ladies in the stands heart attacks? (Where else can you see a football team that makes you laugh everytime?) I confess, I must say that only in Baumholder, home of the Bucs, can you find those things!

Lots of pictures could have been in the yearbook. Sorry, we couldn't put them all in. Again, I hope you love this yearbook and look at it many times in days to come. There are many subtle jokes and memories lost in the pages of the '95 Buccaneer!

Welcome Ms. Robles

Baumholder American High School received a new staff member this year. Ms. Robles arrived in January. She's bounced around from South Korea to Japan to the Philippines to Germany. She was born and raised in Texas. She took the Vice Principal position after Abbott left in January.

"The first Friday I was here I was amazed at the number of students and faculty wearing the BAHS sweatshirt. That to me indicates a great deal of pride in one's school. I was also impressed with the amount of parental support. I have never seen so many parents involved with their students at school activities. Parents have been at basketball games both as spectators and helpers working at the PTSO food concession. Still there is one more thing that caught my attention-the cafeteria. The noise level is much lower; students seem to clean up after themselves. Students seem to accept their responsibilities a little more," said Ms. Robles.

The students of BAHS welcome you, Ms. Robles. We appreciate the time and energy you will be spending making our student body better people.

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

World News

After a peasant uprising in Chiapas and two major political murders, Mexico gets a new president. Ernesto Zedillo, an economist, assumes office only to face a stockmarket crash, a ruined economy, and a loss of international confidence in the wake of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

On July 25, U.S. President Bill Clinton welcomes King Hussein of Jordan, right, and Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin to the White House, where the two sign a historic nonaggression pact that ends a 46-year state of belligerency between Israel and Jordan.

Conservative religious groups and those who believe in individual rights clash over issues of education for women and family planning at the U.N. International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt, September 5.

Joyful residents of Belfast celebrate after the Irish Republican Army (IRA) announces an end to its military operations in Northern Ireland as of August 31. After 25 years of British military presence and over 3,000 killings, the IRA says it will now seek Irish union only through political channels.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.

Millions of South Africans travel weary hours and wait in mile-long lines to vote in the first all-race elections. After more than a century of white rule, the voters choose former political prisoner Nelson Mandela to preside over the dismantling of apartheid.

Jimmy Carter, former U.S. president and self-styled global troubleshooter for peace, negotiates on behalf of the U.S. in Haiti, Bosnia, and North Korea. He even offers to help settle the baseball strike.

In Japan, an earthquake with a magnitude of 7.2 collapses buildings, derails trains, buckles elevated expressways, and causes fires throughout the city of Kobe. Over 5,000 people are killed and 26,000 injured. The Japan quake occurs January 17, 1995, one year to the day after a quake devastated Los Angeles.

U.S. President Bill Clinton, right, and British Prime Minister John Major take part in ceremonies in June 1994 at a military cemetery during the 50th anniversary commemoration of the Allied D-Day invasion of Europe, the event that sealed the fate of Nazi Germany during World War II.

India suffers an outbreak of pneumonic plague, carried by flea-infested vermin. Workers in Bombay earn five rupees for each exterminated rat; one thousand rat-tails earns a color TV.

Chinese school children, dressed to look like Colonel Sanders, welcome the president of Kentucky Fried Chicken to Shanghai in May 1994. Few of the country's many foreign business ventures thrive, but KFC becomes a Chinese favorite. The finger-lickin' enterprise makes plans to expand its outlets from 28 to 200.

Triumphant Jean-Bertrand Aristide reclaims his position as president and restores democracy to Haiti with the help of U.S. troops. Haiti had suffered under the rule of a military junta led by General Raoul Cedras, who goes into exile after reaching an agreement with U.S. mediators.

In one of the most successful antiterrorist operations in aviation history, French commandos storm an Air France jet-liner and kill four Algerian hijackers, freeing the plane's 173 passengers and crew.

Thousands of Cubans flee their economically depressed homeland, hoping for a better life in America. Many set off on homemade rafts and other small vessels only to be intercepted by the U.S. Coast Guard. The United States and Cuba reach an agreement in September that allows 20,000 Cuban immigrants to enter the United States each year.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on preteens rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

Called the Republican revolution, November mid-term elections put the Republican party and its anti-big government platform in control of Congress for the first time in 40 years. Georgia's Newt Gingrich, author of the GOP's "Contract with America," is the new Speaker of the House.

Heat, drought, and lightning combine to set Western states ablaze in late June and July. Fires consume 2,000 acres in Colorado's South Canyon when 50 mile-an-hour winds whip the flames into a firestorm, killing 14 specially trained firefighters; 10 men and four women.

The volunteers for Silent March bring shoes from every state for one of the quietest demonstrations to ever take place in Washington, D.C. Each empty pair of shoes represents one of the more than 40,000 Americans who have been killed by handguns.

The prosecution seeks the death penalty in the case of Susan Smith, who dupes the nation with a frightening tale of the abduction of her two little boys. The community's early support grows quickly to hatred when Smith confesses to murder—she sent her children to their deaths at the bottom of a lake.

Despite powerful National Rifle Association lobby efforts, Congress passes a crime bill banning the sale of 19 types of assault weapons. The Brady Law goes into effect; in one month 23,610 people with criminal records are denied the purchase of a handgun.

The 37th U.S. President, Richard Nixon, dies in April 1994. Nixon was responsible for restoring normal ties with the People's Republic of China following the signing of the Shanghai Communique in 1972.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration blasts the tobacco company executives at a congressional hearing in March 1994 for denying that nicotine, a drug found in cigarette smoke, is addictive. Tobacco industry workers fear losing their jobs if the FDA succeeds in classifying and restricting cigarettes as a drug.

The Flint River overflows, washing coffins out of a Georgia cemetery after torrential rains from tropical storm Alberto flood Georgia and the Florida-Alabama panhandle. Thirty-two people die, 40,000 are temporarily homeless, and 10,000 square miles are underwater, causing $100 million in crop damage.

Former football star O.J. Simpson is charged with the June 12th stabbing death of his ex-wife Nicole and her friend Ronald Goldman, causing a non-stop media avalanche. The sensational case familiarized watchers with spouse abuse, a televised ride in a white Ford Bronco, "Kato" Kaelin, and DNA testing. Simpson faces the jury in January.

A rare white buffalo named Miracle draws crowds to the humble Wisconsin farm where it was born August 20. Native Americans believe the calf is the fulfillment of a Lakota Sioux prophecy. Five hundred years ago, White Buffalo Woman told her people that she would return as a white calf to usher in a new age of harmony between all races of mankind.

President Clinton, with Republican leader Bob Dole, signs legislation implementing the U.S. role in an expanded General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), one of the most sweeping trade liberalization pacts in history. The legislation makes the U.S. a member of a new 125-member World Trade Organization. Protectionists worry that GATT may promote world trade but won't sufficiently protect American jobs.

The Secret Service considers restricting public access to the White House after a gunman fires 27 rounds at the building's facade in October. In September, a small Cessna airplane crashes on the South Lawn and comes to rest at the base of the White House below President Clinton's bedroom, killing the pilot.

The U.S. Interior Department moves the bald eagle from its endangered species list to the less critical "threatened" category. The Pacific Northwest's spotted owl is left to fend for itself when in June a federal judge lifts the 1991 injunction that halted logging in the owl's habitat.

The fossil of a previously unknown dinosaur, the 25-foot-long Cryolophosaurus ellioti, is found in Antarctica.

Despite a so-called fitness craze, the National Center for Health Statistics confirms the American overabundance of food combined with a sedentary lifestyle is creating an epidemic of obesity. Since 1980, the number of overweight adults has ballooned to one-third of the population, with an alarming increase among children.

A lively new cafe society centers around the 5,000 gourmet coffeeshops which spring up around the country. To the often young and trendy patrons, the social interaction is just as important as the espresso. Some cafes offer full-time Internet links so patrons can sip and chat with other Internet latte-drinkers.

Yoga, a Hindu system of stretching exercises for well-being, surges in popularity, mostly because the older generation seeks a technique for alleviating stress and finds yoga better than aerobics.

Aerobic boxing, with boxing-style leg and arm work, turns out to be one of the year's hot exercise trends, showing up in workout studios and attracting those who want to work off their aggression by throwing a right and a few jabs.

Besides recycled clothing like license-plate bustiers, bottle-cap jewelry, trash-bag and duct-tape dresses, fashion trends include the schoolgirl look with thigh-highs, and the grunge-turned-beatnik look of long, straight hair and a goatee.

A new survey shows that over 12 million Americans are vegetarians, choosing the no-meat lifestyle because of concern about animal cruelty, cost-efficiency, eco-friendliness and/or improved health and fitness.

The hottest merchandise around is Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, so hot Cabbage Patch dolls pale in comparison. Parents criticize Fox's super-violent TV show, but their kids crave Dragon Daggers, Megazords, and the 4-foot, $230 battery powered car. "Go, go, Power Rangers!"

A hot new collectible derives from an old household item. Milk caps, known in some regions as pogs, originally capped the bottles left by the milkman but have now gone funky with colorful printed designs and variations that are traded and used in games.

Although most are forced to settle for Oakley wrap-arounds, stylin' kids, like in-line skaters and urban youth, clamor for Arnet's $80 Ravens with the silver-chrome frames.

Led by brash young skate and surf types, two million snowboarders nationwide discover the joy of swooping down slopes on one board instead of two. No hard boots, no poles, no crossed tips, make it easier than skiing. Since their giant frozen wave is a ski hill, snowboarders annoy old-style skiers who want their slopes left undisturbed by shredders.
