Dr. Bob McGurrin
Counselor

It's hot in here!

Ms Frishberg and Ms Galloway serve the spaghetti like chefs. The feast was prepared for the students who participated in the reading program during the summer holiday.

Ms. Frances enjoys the "little people".

Ms. Epperson discusses two of the most popular books available during the Book Fair.

Open House Night
A special event sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Organization gives parents an opportunity to visit their children's classrooms and meet their teachers.

Ms Mathewson shares Jason's accomplishments with his parents during the Open House Night.

Parents visited with teachers in their classrooms to view their children's work. These mothers enjoyed visiting with Ms Recesso.

The reading groups are a part of every school day. This group in Mrs. Recesso's 3rd grade are hard at work.

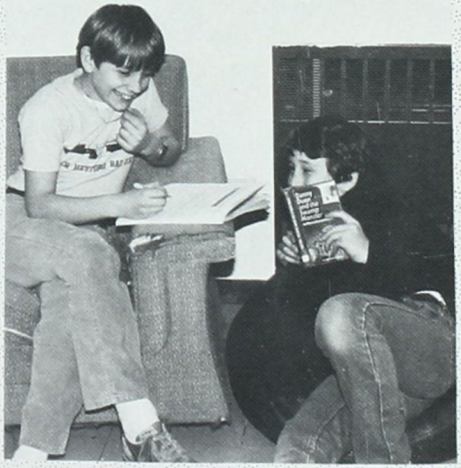
Readin', writin', 'rithemetic

Mrs. Emory gives some instructions to students in her 1st grade class. Are you listening, Carlos?

Keep working, Jason!

Host Nation Class: The students learn many different things about the country they are living in from the Host Nation teacher, Ms. Watts.

Smile, Wendy!



Giggling or reading? Mike and Kurt share that special bond of good friends over a funny joke.

Amy Bailey loves the art time in her class.

Grade School Highlights

Well-known author, Phoebe Hichens, displays her latest book on the royal family. Ms. Hichens talked to students during the Fall Book Fair.

Janae, Marissa, Timmy and Melissa browse through the many selections provided for students to purchase at the Book Fair.

Mrs. Selwood concentrates on counting money and making change.

Book Fair

Students weren't the only ones making purchases. Parent, Mrs. Van Ostrand, and teacher, Ms. Watts que to select their favorite books too.

Standing in the que for autographs was all part of the fun for these students.

Reading Banquet

Project READ was launched last year with one goal--Keep Students Reading during the summer. The prize--a BIG spaghetti feast for the students completing their books.

This smells GREAT!

Can we go back for seconds?

After the meal, students were congratulated on completing their books. WELL DONE!

NOVEMBER

Remember, remember the 5th of November!!

Students celebrate Guy Fawlkes with a bonfire on the playing field.

Thanksgiving

Kimberlee and Carlos, ready for the food.

The first graders Thanksgiving feast wouldn't have been complete without the traditional Pilgrim hats.

The Indians came to share the bounty of that first crop. Is it good, Antonio?

Liza wonders what happened to the turkey.

Christmas Program

"Amahl and the Night Visitors" presented by Mr. Poe's drama group.

Student's handcrafted decorations made the tree look truly splendid.

Amy and Susan give Santa their lists. Be good little girls!

Lunchroom

EAT! EAT! EAT!
One of the most popular times of the day--Lunch!

Playground

The other most popular activity--Recess!

Tom and Brian play basketball.

Whe-e-e! Here comes Everett.

Climbing up and hanging down!

Boys! I don't think you play scoccer with your hands?
