Baron gridders finish 4-3,

The Bitburg Baron football team showed great strength in the opening game against non-conference Wurzburg, routing them 32-14. The glory didn't last forever as Mannheim capitalized on two Baron mistakes, winning 15-0. Bitburg faced their second Red-Division opponent against Nuernburg the following week-end. Nuernburg was a big rival after defeating us last year, 54-0. Halfback Frank Mathis shone scoring four touchdowns. Frank Eggert also showed great skill by accumulating 26 tackles from the linebacker spot.

Bitburg had a two-game rest with non-conference games. However, the task wasn't as easy as said, and Bitburg lost to giant K-Town 16-0. Bitburg also fell to Baumholder. A lot of new material was utilized these games and the Barons showed top form as they received the kick-off from rival Heidelberg, conference co-champs with Nuernburg last year. The Blue Machine rolled to an early score, marching sixty yards for the score. The Lions' offense was held almost every time by the rugged Baron defense. They did manage to score once as Bitburg scored a 20-8 upset. The victory put Bitburg in a three-way tie for conference champs along with Mannheim and Heidelberg. These teams played the following weekend and Bitburg faced winless Munich. The Barons showed great versatility winning 29-6.

...but still take co-championship

Frank Eggert shows All-Europe qualities against K-Town.

A winning team is composed of winning players, and Bitburg showed how it's done by placing five players in All-Conference selections and two All-Europe honors.

The co-captains, Frank Eggert and Frank Mathis, were the two who were picked for All-Europe. Eggert made it at linebacker and Mathis took honors at defensive half-back. Both players made All-Conference both ways.

Other players that made All-Conference both ways are Steve Jackson and Andrea Olidge. Geoff Dills made it one way at offensive tackle.

At the fall sports banquet, outstanding players were announced by the coaches. Most improved were Steve Jackson and Mike Oakes. Special teams awards were given to Mike DeGaris, placekicker, and Mike Kaelin, an outstanding freshman punter. Best offensive lineman was Andrea Olidge and best defensive lineman was Dan Stover. Best offensive back was Mathis and Eggert was most valuable.

Frank Mathis displays his running skills as he prepares himself to fight off opposing defenders.

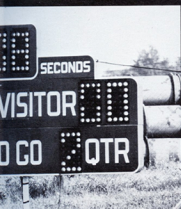

Andrea Olidge readys himself to knock down opposing ballcarrier.

Geoff Dills leads the interference as Bitburg does to Nuernburg around right end.

The Baron Basketball team highlighted B-Week by winning two outstanding victories over the Nuernberg Eagles. The two timely wins qualified the Barons for the tournament at Rhein-Main. The team agreed that without Coach Gaittens' plays and great knowledge of basketball, the Barons would have gone without a victory the whole season.
